ACCOMMODATION PROVIDERS ACT 1981

An Act to regulate the liabilities and rights of accommodation providers

1 Short title

This Act may be cited as the Accommodation Providers Act 1981.

2 Commencement

This Act shall come into operation on a date to be fixed by the Administrator by notice in the Gazette.

3 Interpretation

(1) In this Act, unless the contrary intention appears:

accommodation establishment means, irrespective of whether it is licensed under the Liquor Act 2019:

- (a) a common inn or an establishment held out by an accommodation provider as providing, without special contract, sleeping accommodation to a person presenting himself who appears able and willing to pay a reasonable sum for the services and facilities offered and who is in a fit state to be received;
- (b) any premises used for the purposes of providing board and lodgings for members of the public as a commercial enterprise and includes a boarding-house, guest-house and lodging-house; and
- (c) a facility that is prescribed, or is of a type that is prescribed, for the purposes of this definition, but (subject to paragraph (c)) does not include a caravan park or the erection or placement and use of tents, mobile homes or cabins for the purposes of providing board and lodgings for members of the public as a commercial enterprise.

accommodation provider means the operator of an accommodation establishment.

vehicle means a vehicle within the meaning of the Motor Vehicles Act 1949, a horse and carriage, and chattels used in connection with a vehicle.

- (1A) The Regulations may prescribe a facility or type of facility as an accommodation establishment for the purposes of the definition of accommodation establishment in subsection (1) despite that the facility is of a type that would otherwise be excluded by the terms of the definition.
- (2) Nothing in this Act shall affect the liability of a person for loss of, or damage to, property caused by his default, neglect or wilful act, or that of his servant.
- (3) The law in force immediately before the commencement of this Act relating to the rights and liabilities of an innkeeper with respect to the property of a guest shall cease to apply to an hotel-keeper on and from the commencement of this Act.
- (4) If a regulation prescribes a facility or type of facility to be an accommodation establishment for the purposes of this Act, the law in force immediately before the commencement of the regulation relating to the rights and liabilities of an innkeeper with respect to the property of a guest ceases to apply to the operator of the facility (or a facility of that type, as the case may be) on and from the commencement of the regulation.

4 Guest at accommodation establishment

- (1) For the purposes of this Act, a person shall be a guest at an accommodation establishment only where sleeping accommodation at the accommodation establishment has been engaged by or for him.

5 Liability of accommodation provider

Subject to sections 6, 7 and 8, an accommodation provider is liable, in his capacity as an accommodation provider, for loss of, whether by theft or otherwise, or damage to, property brought to an accommodation establishment by or on behalf of a guest.

6 Restriction of accommodation provider's liability

- (1) Subject to this section, the amount payable in respect of the liability of an accommodation provider to any one person who is a guest at the accommodation establishment with respect to property that, while at the accommodation establishment, is lost, whether by theft or otherwise, or damaged shall not exceed 750 monetary units or, if the Regulations prescribe another amount for the purposes of this subsection, that amount.

- (1A) The amount that applies in respect of the loss of or damage to property referred to in subsection (1) is the amount that is prescribed at the time the loss or damage occurred.
- (2) Subsection (1) shall not have effect unless, at the time the property in question was brought to an accommodation establishment, a copy printed in plain type of the notice appearing in the Schedule was conspicuously displayed in the sleeping accommodation occupied by a guest and in a place where it could conveniently be read by the guest at or near the reception office or desk or, where there is no reception office or desk, at or near the main entrance to the accommodation establishment.
- (3) Notwithstanding compliance with subsection (2), subsection (1) shall not have effect where the property in question:
- (a) was lost, whether by theft or otherwise, or damaged through the default, neglect or wilful act of the accommodation provider or his servant;
 - (b) was deposited by or on behalf of a guest expressly for safekeeping with the accommodation provider or his servant authorized or appearing to be authorized for the purpose and, if so required by the accommodation provider or his servant, deposited in a container fastened or sealed by the depositor; or
 - (c) was offered to the accommodation provider or a servant authorized or appearing to be authorized for the purpose for deposit for safekeeping and the accommodation provider or the servant refused to receive it or, through the default of the accommodation provider or the servant, was unable to receive it.

7 Liability for vehicles

- (1) An accommodation provider is not liable, in his capacity as an accommodation provider, for loss of, whether by theft or otherwise, or damage to, a vehicle brought to the accommodation establishment by or on behalf of a guest or to property left in or on the vehicle.
- (2) An accommodation provider, in his capacity as an accommodation provider, shall not have a lien over property referred to in subsection (1).

8 Defences

- (1) Where an accommodation provider's charges for food, drink, accommodation or services remain unpaid for 28 days after they become due and payable, the accommodation provider may, in addition to any other remedy provided by law, sell by public auction property that he has held in pursuance of section 9.
- (2) An accommodation provider shall give notice of a proposed sale under subsection (1) not later than 7 days before the proposed sale:
