89 Action following review

If a member on whom a notice under section 87 is served indicates that the member agrees with the Commissioner's assessment or, as a consequence of a review referred to in section 88(1), the Commissioner remains of the opinion on the same or different grounds revealed by the review, the Commissioner may take no

- (6) The standing down of a member under this section, unless it is sooner terminated, terminates on action being taken by the Commissioner under section 89(c) or (d).
- (7) If for any reason other than retirement as referred to in section 89(d) a period during which a member is stood down under this section without salary comes to an end, the member shall be paid, in respect of that period, the salary to which the member would have been entitled had he not been stood down.

- (6) Where the Commissioner, after considering the results of the review and examinations under subsection (2) or (3) and all other information available to him (including a report under subsection (4)(b)) does not determine that the member is totally and permanently incapacitated but assesses the member to be unable to perform the member's duties efficiently or satisfactorily because of a physical or mental condition, the Commissioner shall take whatever steps he considers reasonable and practicable to facilitate the member resuming those duties or take such other action under this Part as the Commissioner thinks appropriate.

148A Part applies to duties of member as public official

- (1) For this Part, an act done or omission made, or purported to have been done or made, by a member in the capacity of a public official under an Act or regulations (the authorising law) is taken to have been done or omitted to be done by the member in the performance or purported performance of duties as a member.

Part VIIA	Protection from liability of members, Territory's vicarious liability and legal proceedings for damages for certain torts by members
Division 2	Protection from liability and vicarious liability of the Territory

- (2) For subsection (1), a public official is a person appointed or authorised under the authorising law to perform inspection, investigation or other enforcement functions under that law for the Territory, an Agency or another Territory authority.

Examples of a public official for subsection (2)

- 1 A Fisheries Officer within the meaning of the Fisheries Act 1988.
- 2 An inspector within the meaning of the Meat Industries Act 1997.
- 3 An authorised officer within the meaning of the Tobacco Control Act 2002.

- (3) This Part applies despite a provision of the authorising law providing for the protection from civil liability of a member (regardless of whether it also provides for protection from criminal liability) for an act done or omitted to be done in the exercise or purported exercise of a power, or the performance or purported performance of a function, under the law.

Division 2 Protection from liability and vicarious liability of the Territory

148B Protection from liability

- (1) A person is not civilly or criminally liable for an act done or omitted to be done by the person in good faith in the exercise of a power or performance of a function under this Act.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not affect any liability the Territory would, apart from that subsection, have for the act or omission.
- (3) In this section:

exercise, of a power, includes the purported exercise of the power.

performance, of a function, includes the purported performance of the function.

Division 3 Legal proceedings for damages for torts by members

148D Definition

In this Division:

police tort claim means a claim for damages, including damages in the nature of punitive damages, for a tort allegedly committed by a member in the performance or purported performance of duties as a member, whether or not committed jointly or severally with another person.

148E Application of Division

- (1) For this Division, a tort is committed or allegedly committed by a member if the tort is committed or allegedly committed by a person who was a member at the time of the tort or alleged tort.
- (2) A reference in this Division to a claim against a member for a tort or alleged tort includes a reference to a claim against a person who was a member at the time of the tort or alleged tort but who has ceased to be a member since that time.

148F How police tort claim is made

- (1) Except as provided in this Division, a person cannot in any legal proceeding make a police tort claim against a member but may instead make the claim against the Territory.
- (2) A person who makes a police tort claim against the Territory in any legal proceeding may join the member who allegedly committed the tort as a party to the proceeding only if:
 - (a) the Territory denies it would be vicariously liable for the alleged tort if it were established the member had committed the tort; or
 - (b) the court grants leave for the claim to include a claim for damages in the nature of punitive damages.
- (3) However, subsection (2)(a) does not require the Territory to deny it would be vicariously liable for the alleged tort if it were established the member had committed the tort merely because the police tort claim includes a claim for damages in the nature of punitive damages.

- (4) If a person seeks to join a member under subsection (2) as a party to a legal proceeding:
 - (a) the person is not required to file a new originating process but may instead amend the existing originating process;
 - (b) the court must make the orders it considers appropriate to enable the existing originating process to be amended; and
 - (c) section 162 does not prevent the making of a claim in the amended originating process for damages against the member for the alleged tort if the amendment is made within 2 months after the Territory denies it would be vicariously liable for the alleged tort if it were established the member had committed the tort.
- (5) If the court grants leave for the claim to include a claim for damages in the nature of punitive damages, the existing originating process must be amended within 2 months after the date the court grants the leave.

148G Part does not affect certain claims and proceedings

- (1) This Division does not:
 - (a) make the Territory vicariously liable for a tort committed by a member if it would not otherwise be vicariously liable for the tort;
 - (b) prevent the Territory from bringing a legal proceeding against, or claiming damages or a contribution or indemnity in any legal proceeding from, a member for a tort committed by the member;
 - (c) prevent the Territory from joining a member in a legal proceeding claiming damages for a tort committed by the member;
 - (d) prevent a person from bringing a legal proceeding, or claiming damages in any legal proceeding, against another person who is not a member but who is jointly or severally liable for a tort committed by a member;
 - (e) prevent a person from making a police tort claim against a member in any legal proceeding brought against the person by the member; or
