visiting medical officer means a medical practitioner appointed to be a visiting medical officer under section 27.

Part 2 Administration

6 Appointment of Director

- (1) The Minister may appoint a Chief Executive Officer or public sector employee, to be the Director of Correctional Services.
- (2) Subject to this Act and the directions of the Minister, the Director has the control of all prisons and police prisons, and the custody of all prisoners, in the Territory.

7 Delegations

- (1) The Director may delegate any of the Director's powers and functions under this Act to a person.
- (2) The officer in charge of a prison may delegate any of the officer's powers and functions under Part 8 to a person.

8 Appointment of prison officers

- (1) The Director may appoint a public sector employee to be a prison officer.
- (2) Officers are subject to the directions of the Director in the performance of their duties and functions and exercise of their powers.

9 Powers of officers

Every officer while acting as such is, because of his or her appointment, taken to be a police officer and to have the powers and privileges of a police officer for performing his or her duties as an officer.

Part 3 Prisons

10 Declaration of prisons

- (1) The Minister may, by Gazette notice, declare any place, premises or institution to be a prison or police prison.
- (2) Subject to this section, prisons and police prisons must be used for the reception and safe keeping of prisoners or other persons who are otherwise detained in lawful custody.
- (3) The Director is responsible for the administration and control of police prisons only when a prisoner is received or kept in that police prison.

- (4) The police officer for the time being in charge of a police prison is an officer for this Act.
- (5) In a prison, convicted prisoners not yet sentenced and prisoners on remand must be kept separate and apart from prisoners under sentence, unless the Minister otherwise directs.

11 Lawful custody

For this Act, a prisoner is in lawful custody when:

- (a) being taken to or from a prison or police prison by an officer or police officer; or
- (b) lawfully outside a prison or police prison; or
- (c) he or she is under the control of an officer, a police officer or the sheriff within the meaning of the Sheriff Act.

13 Penalty for escaping

Despite any law in force in the Territory, a sentence imposed on a prisoner for escaping from lawful custody must be served at the expiration of the sentence or sentences, other than a sentence of life imprisonment, which the prisoner was serving or was liable to serve at the time of his or her escaping from lawful custody.

14 Arrest of escaped prisoner

An officer or police officer may arrest and detain without warrant a prisoner who has escaped from lawful custody.

15 Reception of prisoners

- (1) Subject to subsection (3), immediately after sentencing by a court, a prisoner must be conveyed to the reception prison closest to the place of sentence.
- (2) The Director may, by Gazette notice, declare a prison or police prison to be a reception prison for this section.
- (3) Where a court imposes a sentence of imprisonment not exceeding 28 days, that sentence may be served in a police prison if the Director so orders.
- (4) The Director may order that a prisoner remanded or committed for trial or sentence to a police prison be removed to a reception prison.

Part 4                    Prisoners*16                    Procedure on reception

- (1) A prisoner must, upon reception into a prison or police prison, submit to such procedures as the Director requires for recording the identity of the prisoner.
- (2) An officer may use such force on a prisoner as is reasonably necessary in order to record the identity of the prisoner.

17                    Personal possessions

A prisoner may retain such personal possessions in a prison or police prison as are determined by the Director to be allowable possessions.

18                    Disposal of possessions

- (1) Subject to this section, a prisoner who, on reception into a prison or police prison, has in his or her possession personal possessions which are not allowable possessions under section 17 may be allowed by the Director to arrange for the disposal of those possessions.
- (2) Where a prisoner has not, within a reasonable time, disposed of his or her personal possessions as provided by subsection (1), the Director may:
  - (a) on the prisoner's behalf, arrange for the storage of the possessions at the prisoner's expense; or
  - (b) subject to the prisoner's consent, dispose of the possessions on such terms and conditions as the Director thinks fit and credit to the prisoner any money received from the disposal.

19                    Release at end of term of imprisonment

Every prisoner must be discharged on the last day of his or her sentence of imprisonment or detention at a time determined by the Director.

20                    Transportation on release

- (1) The Director must ascertain whether a prisoner requires transport on his or her discharge from prison.

- (2) The Director may, at his or her discretion, if he or she is satisfied that it is in the interest of the prisoner and the prisoner requests him or her so to do, arrange for his or her transportation to:
- (a) a place within the Territory; or
  - (b) if special circumstances require it – a place outside the Territory;
- on the discharge of the person from prison.

21 Youth prisoners

- (1) Where the Minister is satisfied that adequate facilities exist in a detention centre, within the meaning of the Youth Justice Act, for the custody and control of a prisoner who is under the age of 18 years and that the prisoner, because of his or her age, should serve his or her sentence or part of his or her sentence in that detention centre rather than in a prison, the Minister may, by notice in writing to the Director, direct the transfer of that prisoner from a prison or other place of detention to that detention centre, there to be held on such terms and conditions as are specified in the notice, and the Director must transfer the prisoner to that detention centre accordingly.
- (2) In relation to a prisoner transferred pursuant to subsection (1) to a detention centre, that detention centre is taken to be a prison.
- (3) Where a prisoner attains the age of 18 years while being held pursuant to a notice under subsection (1) in a detention centre, the Director must transfer that prisoner from the detention centre to a prison, there to serve the unexpired portion of the term of his or her sentence.

Part 5 Official visitors

22 Appointment of official visitors

- (1) The Minister may appoint a person to be an official visitor for a prison.
- (2) Subject to this section, an official visitor appointed under subsection (1) holds office for a period of 3 years and is eligible for reappointment.
- (3) An official visitor may resign his or her office by notice in writing to the Minister.

- (4) Official visitors receive such remuneration, allowances and expenses, and at such rates, as the Minister determines.

23 Functions of official visitors

An official visitor must:

- (a) having regard to this Act and the Regulations, inquire into the treatment, behaviour and conditions of the prisoners in the prison in respect of which he or she is appointed; and
- (b) report, in writing:
- (i) if the Minister has directed that the official visitor report in relation to a specified matter to the Director – in relation to that matter, to the Director; and
  - (ii) otherwise – to the Minister;

as soon as practicable after each visit to a prison.

24 Number official visitors

Not less than 3 official visitors are to be appointed for each prison.

25 Frequency of visits

A prison must be visited by an official visitor appointed for that prison at least once every month.

26 Official visitors not to interfere

An official visitor must not, during a visit to a prison, interfere with or give instructions to an officer regarding the management, discipline or treatment of prisoners.

Part 6 Visiting medical officers

27 Appointment of visiting medical officers

- (1) The Minister may appoint a medical practitioner to be a visiting medical officer for a prison or police prison.
- (1A) An appointment under subsection (1) may be made personally or by reference to a medical practitioner from time to time holding or acting in a particular office.
- (2) A visiting medical officer may resign his or her office by notice in writing to the Minister.

- (3) A visiting medical officer who is not a public sector employee receives such remuneration, allowances and expenses, and at such rates, as the Minister determines.

28 Duties of visiting medical officer

Subject to section 72, a visiting medical officer must perform, in and in relation to the prison or police prison for which he or she is appointed, such medical duties as the Director may specify.

Part 8 Prison misconduct

30 Prison misconduct

The Regulations may, for this Part, prescribe an act or omission of a prisoner, while in lawful custody, to be prison misconduct.

31 Bringing charge of prison misconduct

- (1) A charge of prison misconduct may be brought against a prisoner by an officer.
- (2) As soon as practicable after an officer brings a charge of prison misconduct against a prisoner under subsection (1), the officer must notify the officer in charge of the prison where the prisoner is in custody of the charge having been brought.
- (3) The officer in charge of a prison, on being notified under subsection (2), must:
- (a) direct that the charge be withdrawn; or
  - (b) direct that a hearing of the charge be conducted under this Part; or
  - (c) direct that:
    - (i) the charge be withdrawn and a different charge be brought against the prisoner; or
    - (ii) a further charge be brought against the prisoner;and that a hearing of the charge or charges be conducted under this Part; or
  - (d) refer the matter to the Commissioner of Police for investigation.

32 Hearing charge of prison misconduct

- (1) A charge of prison misconduct brought under this Part must be heard and determined by the officer in charge of the prison in which the misconduct occurred, and subject to this section, shall be heard and determined in accordance with the Regulations.
- (2) A charge of prison misconduct must not be heard or determined by the officer who brought the charge.
- (3) The officer in charge of a prison in conducting a hearing under this Part is not bound by the rules of evidence but may inform himself or herself on any matter in such manner as he or she thinks fit.
- (4) A charge of prison misconduct must be heard and determined in the presence of the prisoner charged at the prison where it is alleged that the misconduct occurred or some other place as determined by the officer in charge of the prison.
- (5) Where, at a hearing under this Part, the officer in charge of a prison is satisfied, after making appropriate enquiries, that a prisoner charged with prison misconduct does not, for any reason, fully understand the nature or circumstances of the alleged misconduct or the nature of the proceedings, the officer may appoint a person nominated or agreed to by the prisoner, or, in the absence of such nomination or agreement, some other person, to assist the prisoner and to represent the prisoner at the hearing.
- (6) A prisoner charged with prison misconduct must, at the hearing of the charge under this Part, be permitted to use an interpreter if the prisoner requests the assistance of an interpreter.
- (7) A prisoner charged with prison misconduct must not, at the hearing of the charge under this Part, be represented by a legal practitioner.
- (8) Where more than one charge of prison misconduct is brought against a prisoner arising out of the same set of circumstances, the officer in charge of the prison may hear and determine the charges jointly and may impose one or more penalties under section 33 in respect of the charges that are proved.
- (9) A prisoner charged with prison misconduct at the hearing of the charge under this Part may give evidence, cross-examine and call witnesses.

33 Penalties for prison misconduct

Where a prisoner charged with prison misconduct admits the charge, or the charge is proved beyond reasonable doubt, the officer in charge of the prison may impose one or more of the following penalties:

- (a) order that the prisoner be kept in separate confinement for such period, not exceeding 7 days, as the officer thinks fit;
- (b) order that the prisoner not be entitled to prescribed privileges for such period, not exceeding 28 days, as the officer thinks fit;
- (c) reprimand or caution the prisoner.

34 Appeals

- (1) A prisoner aggrieved by a penalty imposed on him or her under this Part may appeal to the Director against the imposition of the penalty.
- (2) An appeal under this section must be commenced, heard and determined in accordance with the Regulations.
- (2A) Where an appeal under this section is conducted by holding a hearing, the prisoner must not be represented at the hearing by a legal practitioner.
- (3) Where an appeal is commenced under this section, the penalty appealed against must be suspended pending the determination of the appeal.
- (4) On determining an appeal under this section, the Director may:
  - (a) affirm the penalty imposed by the officer in charge of the prison; or
  - (b) subject to this Part, increase, decrease or vary the penalty imposed; or
  - (c) substitute any other penalty that could have been imposed; or
  - (d) revoke the order imposing the penalty.
- (5) An appeal does not lie against an order of the Director made under subsection (4).

Part 9                    Chaplains

38                    Appointment of Chaplain

- (1) The Minister may appoint a minister of religion to be a chaplain at a prison.
- (2) Despite Part 10, a chaplain may visit the prison at which he or she is chaplain and minister to the prisoners at such times and under such conditions as the Director allows.

Part 10                  Prison visits

39                    Certain persons may visit

A person who is:

- (a) a Judge; or
- (c) an official visitor; or
- (d) an Ombudsman or person authorised by an Ombudsman, in the course of an inquiry or investigation conducted by an Ombudsman; or
- (f) a member of the Legislative Assembly; or
- (g) a visiting medical officer; or
- (h) a person authorised in writing by the Director;

may visit a prison at any reasonable time, subject to such terms and conditions as the Director thinks fit.

40                    Prisoner may receive visitors

- (1) This section applies subject to Part 11.
- (2) Subject to this Part, a prisoner in a prison or police prison may receive visitors.
- (3) The Director may determine, either generally or in relation to a specified prisoner or class of prisoners, the number, period and times of visits under this section.

- (4) The Director may, either generally or in relation to a specified prisoner or person or a specified class of prisoners or persons, prohibit visits to a prisoner if, in the opinion of the Director:
- (a) the security or good order of a prisoner, prison or police prison may be jeopardised by a visitor; or
  - (b) a visitor may have a detrimental influence or effect on a prisoner.
- (5) The Director or an officer may require a person to be searched before entering a prison or police prison as a visitor and that person shall not be received by a prisoner as a visitor unless he or she has been searched accordingly.
- (6) The Director may, if he or she is of the opinion that it is necessary for the maintenance of the security or good order of a prison or police prison or a prisoner, order:
- (a) that a visit under this Part be held under supervised conditions; or
  - (b) that a conversation between a visitor and a prisoner be monitored, or recorded.
- (7) The Director may at any time, with or without warning to the prisoner or the prisoner's visitor, order the termination of any visit to a prisoner where:
- (a) the prisoner or visitor infringes a provision of this Act or the Regulations; or
  - (b) any direction given or determination made by the Director or a delegate of the Director for the order and good conduct of visits is infringed by the prisoner or visitor.

41 Restrictions on communications

Subject to sections 43 and 45, except with the prior approval of the Director, a prisoner or a visitor must not give to the other of them a parcel, paper, document, written communication or any other matter during a visit to a prison or police prison.

Part 11 Legal representatives

42 Visits from legal representative

A prisoner may receive visits from his or her legal representative and his or her interpreter at any reasonable time.

43 Visits not to be monitored etc.

- (1) Subject to this section, visits to a prisoner by his or her legal representative and his or her interpreter, if any, must not be monitored.
- (2) A document passing between a prisoner and his or her legal representative during a visit must not be inspected or censored except as permitted under this Act.
- (3) Where the legal representative of a prisoner receives a document from a prisoner during a visit and the document or the passing of the document between them constitutes an offence against a law in force in the Territory, the legal representative must disclose the contents of the document to the Attorney-General.
- (4) The officer in charge of a prison or police prison may direct that a visit between a prisoner and his or her legal representative to be visually monitored.

Part 12 Communications*43A Definitions

In this Part:

authorised legal practitioner means a legal practitioner authorised under section 48A.

inspect includes read.

letter includes a document, memorandum, note, telegram, facsimile and any other electronic transmission.

44 Application of Part

This Part applies subject to Part 11.

45 Receiving and sending letters

A prisoner may receive and dispatch letters and parcels on such terms and conditions as are determined by the Director.

46 Director may prohibit dispatch or receipt of letters

The Director may prohibit the dispatch or receipt of letters or parcels by a prisoner when, in the opinion of the Director, it may be prejudicial to the security or good order of a prison, police prison or prisoner or may have a detrimental influence or effect on the prison or that prisoner.

47 Letters may be intercepted

Subject to section 48, the officer in charge of a prison or police prison may intercept, open and inspect any letter or parcel dispatched by or addressed to a prisoner.

48 Letters to Minister etc.

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), an officer must not delay, intercept, open or inspect a letter dispatched by or addressed to, a prisoner when that letter is addressed to or apparently originates from the office of the Minister, the Ombudsman or the Director.
- (2) Where the officer in charge of a prison or police prison has reasonable cause to believe that a letter addressed to a prisoner and apparently originating from the office of the Minister, an Ombudsman, the Director or the prisoner's legal representative does not originate from that source, he or she may open the letter and inspect it to the extent necessary to establish its origin.
- (3) As soon as practicable after an officer in charge of a prison or police prison opens and inspects a letter under subsection (2), he or she must advise the Director, in writing, of the action taken, his or her reason for believing that the letter did not originate from the relevant source, and his or her finding on opening and inspecting the letter.

48A Letters to and from legal representative

- (1) If the officer in charge of a prison or police prison is of the opinion that:
  - (a) a letter or parcel passing between a prisoner and his or her legal representative during a visit to the prisoner by the legal representative may contain material described in subsection (3)(b); or
  - (b) a letter or parcel dispatched by a prisoner to his or her legal representative or addressed to a prisoner from his or her legal representative may contain material described in subsection (3)(b);

the officer may order that the letter or parcel be intercepted, opened and inspected in accordance with this section.

- (2) As soon as practicable after giving an order under subsection (1), the officer in charge of a prison or police prison must advise the Director, in writing, of the order being made and his or her reason for making the order.
- (3) If an order is made under subsection (1), an authorised legal practitioner may open and inspect the letter or parcel in respect of which the order is made and may:
  - (a) forward the letter or parcel as addressed; or
  - (b) forward the letter or parcel to the Director if, in the opinion of the authorised legal practitioner:
    - (i) the contents may jeopardise the security or good order of a prison or police prison or a prisoner; or
    - (ii) the contents contains subject-matter that would constitute a breach of this Act, the Regulations or any determination of the Director made under this Act; or
    - (iii) the contents contains subject-matter that would constitute a breach of a law of the Territory, the Commonwealth, a State or another Territory of the Commonwealth; or
    - (iv) the contents may be threatening or insulting to any person; or
    - (v) the contents may have a detrimental influence or effect on a prisoner; or
    - (vi) the letter is written in a code or is illegible.
- (4) A letter or parcel forwarded to the Director under subsection (3) may be:
  - (a) censored by the Director and then forwarded as addressed; or
  - (b) returned to the prisoner or legal representative by the Director, as the case may be; or
  - (c) retained by the Director; or
  - (d) destroyed by the Director.

- (5) If action is taken under subsection (3)(b), the officer in charge of the prison or police prison must inform the prisoner and the legal representative that the action has been taken.
- (6) The Minister may, in writing, authorise a legal practitioner for this section.
- (7) A legal practitioner cannot be authorised for this section unless he or she has practised as a legal practitioner, either in the Territory or elsewhere, for not less than 10 years.

49 Director may censor letters

- (1) A letter or parcel intercepted, opened or inspected under section 47 by the officer in charge of a prison or police prison may, if, in the opinion of that officer:
  - (a) the contents may jeopardise the security or good order of a prison or police prison or a prisoner; or
  - (b) the contents contains subject-matter that would constitute a breach of this Act, the Regulations or any determination of the Director made under this Act; or
  - (ba) the contents contains subject-matter that would constitute a breach of a law of the Territory, the Commonwealth, a State or another Territory of the Commonwealth; or
  - (c) the contents may be threatening or insulting to any person; or
  - (d) the contents may have a detrimental influence or effect on a prisoner; or
  - (e) the letter is written in a code or is illegible;be:
  - (f) censored by the Director and then forwarded as addressed; or

- (2) An officer may possess and use in a prison or police prison such firearms, weapons and articles of restraint as are approved by the Director as necessary to maintain the security and good order of a prisoner or a prison or police prison.
- (3) An officer may use such reasonable physical force and restraint against a prisoner as he or she considers necessary to maintain the security and good order of a prisoner or a prison or police prison.

Part 17 Leave of absence

Division 1 Leave of absence within Territory

63 Director may grant leave for special purposes

The Director may, on such terms and conditions as he or she thinks fit, grant leave of absence to a prisoner from a prison or police prison for any reason he or she thinks fit, including:

- (a) the education and training of the prisoner; or
- (b) the employment of the prisoner; or

- (c) compassionate reasons; or
- (d) the health of the prisoner; or
- (e) the recreation of the prisoner; or
- (f) participation in community projects by the prisoner; or
- (g) the integration into the community of the prisoner; or
- (h) such other reasons as he or she thinks fit.

64 Variation of leave

The Director may, at any time, vary or revoke any leave of absence granted under this Division.

65 Sentence to run

A prisoner, whilst outside a prison or police prison pursuant to a grant of leave of absence under this Division, is taken to be in lawful custody and the term of his or her sentence of imprisonment continues to run.

Division 2 Supervised interstate custodial permits

65A Definitions

In this Division:

corresponding Director, in relation to a participating State, means the official responsible for the administration of prisons in that State.

corresponding law means a law of a State declared under section 65B to be a corresponding law for this Division.

interstate custodial permit means a permit issued under section 65C.

participating State means a State in which a corresponding law is in force.

State means a State or another Territory of the Commonwealth.

65B Corresponding laws

- (1) The Administrator may, by Gazette notice, declare a law of a State to be a corresponding law for this Division.
- (2) The Administrator may only make a declaration if satisfied that the law substantially corresponds with this Division.

65C Issue of permit

- (1) The Director may issue a permit to a prisoner permitting the prisoner to travel to the participating State specified in the permit:
  - (a) for purposes relating to the health of the prisoner; or
  - (b) in exceptional personal circumstances approved by the Minister.
- (2) A permit is issued subject to:
  - (a) the prescribed conditions; and
  - (b) any other conditions specified by the Director in the permit.

65D Effect of permit

- (1) An interstate custodial permit:
  - (a) permits the prisoner specified in the permit to be absent from the prison specified in the permit in the custody of an escort for the purpose and for the period (not exceeding 10 days) specified in the permit; and
  - (b) authorises the escort to take and keep in custody the prisoner for :
    - (i) escorting the prisoner to the participating State (whether or not across another State) and within the participating State for the purpose specified in the permit; and
    - (ii) returning the prisoner to the prison from which the prisoner is permitted to be absent.
- (2) During his or her absence from prison under an interstate custodial permit:
  - (a) a prisoner is to be taken to be in lawful custody; and
  - (b) the term of his or her sentence of imprisonment continues to run.

65E Appointment of escorts

- (1) The Director may appoint in writing one or more persons to be an escort for this Division.
- (2) A person appointed under subsection (1) may be:
  - (a) an officer; or

- (b) a probation officer; or
- (c) any other person who the Director thinks is appropriate.

65F Variation or revocation of permit

Before or at any time during the period of absence permitted under an interstate custodial permit, the Director may:

- (a) vary the period of absence specified in the permit or the conditions to which the permit is subject, including the prescribed conditions; or
- (b) revoke the permit.

65G Breach of permit

A prisoner who, without reasonable excuse, fails to comply with an interstate custodial permit is guilty of an offence punishable, on being found guilty, by a fine not exceeding 200 penalty units or a term of imprisonment not exceeding 2 years.

65H Notice to participating States and transit States

On issuing an interstate custodial permit, the Director must give notice in writing of its issue and the period of absence permitted by it to:

- (a) the corresponding Director and the chief officer of police in the participating State; and
- (b) the chief officer of police of any other State through which the prisoner is to travel by land to reach the participating State.

65J Effect of permit issued under corresponding law

A person who is authorised under a permit issued under a corresponding law to escort a person imprisoned in a participating State to or through the Territory is authorised while in the Territory:

- (a) to hold, take and keep custody of the person for the purposes and period of the permit; and
- (b) to hold, take and keep custody of the person for returning the person to the participating State.

65K Escape from custody of interstate prisoner

- (1) A person who escapes from the custody authorised under section 65J may be apprehended by:
  - (a) an interstate escort; or
  - (b) a police officer; or
  - (c) any other person.
- (2) A person:
  - (a) who has been apprehended after escaping from the custody authorised under section 65J; or
  - (b) who attempted to escape from the custody authorised under that section;is to be taken before a Magistrate.
- (3) Despite the permit mentioned in section 65J, the Magistrate may, by warrant:
  - (a) order the return of the person to the participating State in which the permit was issued; and
  - (b) order the person to be delivered to an interstate escort for that purpose.
- (4) A warrant may be executed according to its tenor.
- (5) A person who is the subject of a warrant may be detained by the Director until:
  - (a) the person is delivered into the custody of an interstate escort in pursuance of the warrant; or
  - (b) the period of 7 days after the issue of the warrant has expired;whichever occurs first.
- (6) If a person who is the subject of a warrant is not delivered into the custody of an interstate escort in pursuance of the warrant within 7 days after the issue of the warrant, the warrant ceases to have effect.

(7) In this section:

interstate escort, in relation to a person, means:

- (a) a person authorised under a permit issued under a corresponding law to have the custody of the person; or
- (b) a prison officer (however described) or member of the police force of the participating State in which the permit was issued; or
- (c) a person appointed in writing by the corresponding Director to escort the person to the participating State in which the permit was issued.

Division 3 Leave of absence to give evidence at foreign proceeding or assistance in foreign investigation

65L Director may authorise release and grant leave

- (1) This section applies if, under section 26 or 27 of the Mutual Assistance in Criminal Matters Act 1987 (Cth), the Commonwealth Attorney-General makes arrangements for a prisoner to travel to a foreign country to:
  - (a) give evidence at a proceeding relating to a criminal matter; or
  - (b) give assistance in relation to an investigation relating to a criminal matter.
- (2) The Director may, in writing, authorise the release of the prisoner from prison and grant leave of absence to the prisoner:
  - (a) for the purpose of travelling to the foreign country to give evidence at the proceeding or assistance in relation to the investigation; and
  - (b) on any other conditions the Director thinks fit.

65M Variation or revocation of leave

The Director may, at any time, vary or revoke any leave of absence granted under section 65L(2).

65N Effect of absence

During a prisoner's absence from prison under a leave of absence granted under section 65L(2):

- (a) the prisoner is taken to be in lawful custody; and
- (b) the term of the prisoner's sentence of imprisonment continues to run.

Part 18 Employment of prisoners*66 Prisoners to work

Subject to this Part, the Director may direct prisoners to be employed in such work as he or she requires them to perform, either inside or outside the prison or police prison.

67 Physical condition and mental capacity to be considered

The Director, in directing under section 66 the work to be performed by a prisoner, must take into account the prisoner's physical and mental capacity.

68 Remand prisoners not required to work

A prisoner in a prison or police prison who has not been convicted of an offence must not be required to perform any work under this Part, other than work for necessary hygiene, unless he or she so requests.

Part 19 Payment to prisoners*69 Prisoners to be paid

Subject to his or her good conduct in a prison or police prison, a prisoner must be paid by the Director, at rates determined by the Minister, for any work performed by that prisoner.

70 Application of money

The Director may apply money payable to a prisoner under this Act for:

- (a) any expenses incidental to the employment of a prisoner outside a prison or police prison; and

- (b) the cost of the detention of a prisoner for each week during which a prisoner is employed outside a prison or police prison; and
- (c) the maintenance of any dependants of the prisoner; and
- (d) any sum of money which a prisoner has been ordered to pay on his or her conviction for an offence; and
- (e) any sum of money which a prisoner is required to pay by way of compensation or restitution; and
- (f) the purchase of any articles, material, facility or equipment approved by the Director as suitable for a prisoner;

on such terms and conditions as the Director thinks fit.

Part 20                    Medical treatment

71                    Access to visiting medical officer

A prisoner must, on request to the officer in charge of a prison or police prison, be given access to a visiting medical officer for medical consultation and treatment.

72                    Directions of visiting medical officer

The Director must comply with the directions of a visiting medical officer relating to the maintenance of the health of a prisoner.

73                    Removal to hospital

The officer in charge of a prison or police prison must move a prisoner to a hospital outside a prison or police prison in the event of the prisoner's illness on the order of:

- (a) the Director; or
- (b) a visiting medical officer; or
- (c) a court.

74                    Custody of prisoner in hospital

- (1) Where a prisoner is moved to a hospital outside a prison or police prison under section 55 or 73, the officer in charge of the prison or police prison from which the prisoner was moved must make such arrangements with the person in charge of the hospital as are necessary to ensure the security and good order of the prisoner while he or she is in the hospital.

- (2) A prisoner who is in a hospital in accordance with an arrangement made under subsection (1) is taken to be in lawful custody for this Act.
- (3) If, upon discharge from hospital, the sentence of imprisonment of a prisoner moved to a hospital under section 55 or 73 has not expired, the prisoner must be returned to the prison or police prison from which he or she was moved, or to another prison or police prison as directed by the Director, to serve the remainder of his or her sentence.

75 Prisoner may be examined

- (1) Where, in the opinion of a visiting medical officer, the life or health of a prisoner is likely to be endangered or seriously affected by the refusal of the prisoner to undergo a medical examination or to submit to medical treatment, or any other prisoner or officer is likely to be endangered or seriously affected by that prisoner's refusal, that prisoner must submit to such medical examination or treatment as may be ordered by the Director, after the Director has consulted with the visiting medical officer.
- (2) As soon as practicable after his or her reception into a prison or police prison and at such other times as the Director, after consultation with the visiting medical officer, directs, a prisoner must submit to the taking of such quantity of his or her blood or bodily secretion or excretion by a person qualified to take it as is reasonably necessary for determining the medical condition of the prisoner.
- (3) An officer or a person who may under subsection (2) take the blood or bodily secretion or excretion of a prisoner, may use such force on the prisoner as is reasonably necessary to ensure that the blood or bodily secretion or excretion is taken and no action, civil or criminal, must be commenced or lie against the officer or person in relation to his or her exercising that power.

76 Forced feeding

Where, in the opinion of a visiting medical officer, a prisoner's life or health is likely to be endangered or seriously affected by his or her refusal to eat or drink, the Director may order that that prisoner be forced to eat or drink under direct medical supervision.

77 Treatment outside the Territory

The Director may, after considering medical advice, if he or she is satisfied that it is necessary or desirable so to do, authorise a prisoner to undergo medical treatment outside the Territory on such terms and conditions as the Director thinks fit, and a prisoner must at all times comply with those terms and conditions.

78 Sentence continues to run

The term of imprisonment of a prisoner must continue to run while he or she is absent from the Territory in accordance with an authorisation under section 77.

79 Apprehension of prisoner where authorization revoked

When an authorisation under section 77 is revoked by the Director, he or she may apply to the appropriate court for a warrant of apprehension of the prisoner who was the subject of that authorisation.

80 Notification of illness

The Director must notify a prisoner's next of kin, close relative, legal representative or such other person as requested by a prisoner to be notified, when the prisoner is seriously ill or dies.

81 Notification of death

- (1) The officer in charge of a prison or police prison must, immediately on the death of a prisoner, notify the Director of the death.
- (2) The Director must, after receiving a notification under subsection (1), immediately notify the coroner of the death of the prisoner.

Part 21 Prisoner activities*82 Recreational and other activities

The Director may authorise a prisoner to participate in such recreational, educational, vocational or other activities as the Director thinks fit.

83 Articles produced

- (1) Subject to this Act, articles made or produced by a prisoner are the property of the Territory.

- (2) Articles made or produced by a prisoner during regular working time may be disposed of by the Director upon such terms and conditions as he or she thinks fit and any amount of money obtained through that disposal must be used for the purchase of hobby, craft, garden, educational or industrial tools or material to be used by prisoners or former prisoners either inside or outside a prison.
- (3) Articles made by a prisoner during his or her leisure time may be disposed of by the Director upon such terms and conditions as he or she thinks fit and the money, if any, obtained through that disposal, after deducting the value of material used in their production supplied by the Territory, must be held by the Director on trust for that prisoner.

84 Disposal of articles

The Director may allow articles produced by a prisoner in the prisoner's leisure time to be:

- (a) retained by the prisoner; or
- (b) held with the prisoner's other possessions; or
- (c) disposed of in accordance with section 83(3).

Part 22 Attendance at religious services

85 Prisoners may attend services

- (1) Subject to section 86, the Director must allow a prisoner to attend religious services and activities.
- (2) The Director may allow a prisoner to observe his or her religious rites and ceremonies.

86 Director may prohibit attendance in certain circumstances

- (1) The Director may direct that a prisoner be excluded from attending religious services or other religious activities if the Director is of the opinion that the prisoner should be so excluded in order to ensure the security and good order of the prison or police prison or prisoner.
- (2) A prisoner must not be compelled to attend a religious service.

Part 23 Food and exercise*87 Consumption of alcohol

The Director may allow a prisoner to consume alcohol for medical, therapeutic or such other reasons as are approved by the Director.

88 Prisoners to be provided with food

The Director must provide a prisoner with food of a sufficient quality and quantity to maintain the good health of the prisoner.

89 Exercise

The Director must allow a prisoner so much exercise in the open air as is prescribed and, on the advice of a visiting medical officer in a particular case, such additional exercise as the Director thinks fit.

Part 24 Internal management*90 Internal management

- (1) The Director may make determinations, not inconsistent with this Act or the Regulations, for or with respect to matters which the Director may determine under this Act and the internal management of a prison or police prison.
- (2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1), determinations made under that subsection may impose duties on an officer or a prisoner or confer privileges on a prisoner.
- (3) A determination under this section must be published in such manner as the Director thinks fit.

91 Prisoners to be informed of rights

- (1) The Director must ensure that every prisoner, upon reception into a prison, is, so far as possible, informed in general terms of his or her rights, duties, responsibilities and liabilities under this Act and the Regulations.
- (2) The Director must ensure:
  - (a) that a sufficient number of copies of this Act and the Regulations to satisfy the reasonable requirements of the prisoners are available for perusal at all reasonable times in a library or other place that is open to the prisoners; and

Part 27	Powers, procedures and related matters for orders under Sentencing Act and Alcohol Reform (Substance Misuse Assessment and Referral for Treatment Court) Act
Division 1	Monitoring orders

- (3) An officer convicted of an offence against this section or section 111, or 113 of the Criminal Code may, as well as being punished under subsection (1) or those sections of the Criminal Code, be dismissed from his or her office under this Act.

94A Regulatory offences

An offence of contravening or failing to comply with section 16(1) or 94(1)(d) is a regulatory offence.

Part 27 Powers, procedures and related matters for orders under Sentencing Act and Alcohol Reform (Substance Misuse Assessment and Referral for Treatment Court) Act

Division 1 Monitoring orders

94B Appointment of surveillance officers

The Director may appoint a person who is not a probation officer to be a paid or unpaid surveillance officer for ensuring compliance with monitoring orders by persons for whom the orders are made.

94BA Approval of monitoring device and voice recognition system

- (1) The Director may approve a monitoring device or voice recognition system for helping to monitor the activities of persons for whom monitoring orders are made.
- (2) The approval may be given for a monitoring device or voice recognition system whether or not used with another device, machine, equipment or system.
- (3) In this section:

monitoring device means an electronic device attached to, or worn by a person, to enable the person's geographical location to be monitored.

voice recognition system means a system, using computer hardware and software, that is programmed to:

- (a) verify the voice of a particular person; and
- (b) enable the person's geographical location to be monitored.

94C Monitoring compliance with monitoring order

- (1) A surveillance officer may, at any time and without a warrant, exercise the following powers for ensuring a person for whom a monitoring order is made is complying with the order:
  - (a) enter a place where the person is residing in accordance with the order;
  - (b) search the place or person;
  - (c) place on or attach to the person an approved monitoring device;
  - (d) at the place, install, place, inspect or retrieve an approved monitoring device or anything necessary for the effective operation of the device;
  - (e) require the person to submit to one or more monitoring tests.
- (2) For subsection (1)(e), the surveillance officer may exercise the following powers:
  - (a) carry out a breath test;
  - (b) take the person to:
    - (i) a police station, and detain the person there, for a breath test or breath analysis (or both) to be carried out; or
    - (ii) a hospital or health centre, and detain the person there, for monitoring tests to be carried out.
- (3) However, if the surveillance officer is appointed under section 94B, the officer may exercise the powers only in accordance with a direction given by the Director.
- (4) If the surveillance officer takes the person to a police station under subsection (2)(b)(i), a police officer may exercise the following powers:
  - (a) detain the person at the police station;
  - (b) carry out a breath test or breath analysis (or both);
  - (c) take the person to a hospital or health centre, and detain the person there, for monitoring tests to be carried out.

- (5) A surveillance officer or police officer may exercise the powers under this section with the force and help that is necessary and reasonable.
- (6) A person who carries out a monitoring test at a hospital or health centre is not civilly or criminally liable for anything reasonably done by the person in carrying out the test.
- (7) In any legal proceeding, a certificate signed by a prescribed person stating matters relating to a monitoring test is evidence of:
- (a) the matters stated in the certificate; and
  - (b) the facts on which the matters are based.
- (8) A regulation may provide for the following:
- (a) the carrying out of monitoring tests;
  - (b) the arrest of persons to enable monitoring tests to be carried out;
  - (c) the effect of a person's failure to submit to a monitoring test.
- (9) In this section:

blood test, see section 3(1) of the Traffic Act.

breath analysis, see section 3(1) of the Traffic Act.

breath test, see section 3(1) of the Traffic Act.

monitoring test includes a breath test, breath analysis, blood test, urine test and saliva test.

prescribed person means a person prescribed by regulation.

94D Actions not to lie against surveillance officers

- (1) An action or proceeding, whether civil or criminal, must not be commenced or lie against a surveillance officer for or in respect of an act or thing done in good faith by the surveillance officer in his or her capacity as a surveillance officer.
- (2) An act or thing is taken to have been done in good faith by a surveillance officer if the act or thing done was not actuated by ill-will to the person affected or by any other improper motive.

Part 27	Powers, procedures and related matters for orders under Sentencing Act and Alcohol Reform (Substance Misuse Assessment and Referral for Treatment Court) Act
Division 2	Community work orders

- (3) Without limiting subsection (1), an action or proceedings must not be commenced or lie against a surveillance officer or a person assisting a surveillance officer for anything done in good faith in relation to the placing, installation, inspection or retrieval of an approved monitoring device by the surveillance officer, and a surveillance officer may use such force and assistance as is reasonable in the circumstances to effect the placing, installation, inspection or retrieval.

Division 2      Community work orders

94E      Minister may establish committee

- (1) The Minister may establish one or more community work advisory committees for Part 3, Division 4 of the Sentencing Act.
- (2) A community work advisory committee must consist of such persons as are appointed by the Minister to be members of the committee.
- (3) A community work advisory committee must approve work that may be performed under a community work order, community based order or community custody order and has the other powers and duties as are prescribed.
- (4) A person appointed as a member of a community work advisory committee holds office for 3 years and is eligible to be re-appointed.
- (5) A member of a community work advisory committee may, in writing delivered to the Minister, resign from office.
- (6) The Minister must appoint a member of a community work advisory committee to be the Chairperson of the committee.
- (7) Where the Chairperson of a community work advisory committee is absent from a meeting of the committee, the members present at the meeting must elect one of their number to preside at the meeting.
- (8) The Chairperson of a community work advisory committee must call a meeting of the committee at the request of the Director.
- (9) At a meeting of a community work advisory committee one-half of the members appointed to the committee constitutes a quorum.
- (10) Subject to this Act, the procedures at a meeting of a community work advisory committee are as determined by the members of the committee.

Part 27	Powers, procedures and related matters for orders under Sentencing Act and Alcohol Reform (Substance Misuse Assessment and Referral for Treatment Court) Act
Division 4	SMART orders requiring surveillance

Division 3      Supervising officers

94F      Supervising officers

- (1) The Director may appoint a person to be a paid or unpaid supervising officer.
- (2) A supervising officer has such powers and duties as are prescribed under this or any other Act.
- (3) The supervising officer may, with the approval of the Director, appoint a person to act in the officer's stead on any day that the officer specifies, and the person, for the time for which the person is so appointed, has the powers of the supervising officer.

Division 4      SMART orders requiring surveillance

94G      Surveillance of offender subject to SMART order

- (1) Division 1 applies in relation to an offender subject to a SMART order under the Alcohol Reform (Substance Misuse Assessment and Referral for Treatment Court) Act that includes a requirement for surveillance under this Division:
  - (a) as if a reference in Division 1 to a person for whom a monitoring order is in force were a reference to the offender; and
  - (b) as if a reference in Division 1 to a home detention order were a reference to the SMART order.
- (2) However, only the Director or a probation officer may perform the functions and exercise the powers of a surveillance officer under Division 1 in relation to the offender.
- (3) Also, the functions and powers may be performed or exercised only within the intervals stated in the SMART order to which the offender is subject.
- (4) A reference in this section to a SMART order includes a reference to a prohibition order to which the Alcohol Court Act continues to apply, as mentioned in section 41 of the Alcohol Reform (Substance Misuse Assessment and Referral for Treatment Court) Act.
- (5) Subsection (4) and this subsection expire 2 years after the commencement of section 41 of the Alcohol Reform (Substance Misuse Assessment and Referral for Treatment Court) Act.

Part 28                    Miscellaneous matters*95                    Compliance with other Acts relating to address or place of living

Despite anything to the contrary contained in any Act, a prisoner must not be held to have contravened an Act which requires or permits him or her to state the address of his or her residence or place of living by reason only that he or she states the address of his or her residence or place of living immediately before he or she became a prisoner.

95A                    Prisoner may be tested for drugs and alcohol

- (1) The officer in charge of a prison may, for the management, good order or security of the prison, direct that tests be carried out under this section to determine whether there is any drug or alcohol present in the bodies of prisoners at the prison.
- (2) Where a direction is given under subsection (1), a prisoner must submit to the taking of such quantity of the prisoner's blood, breath or urine by a person authorised under subsection (3) as is reasonably necessary for determining whether there is present in the prisoner's body any drug or alcohol.
- (3) For subsection (2), but subject to subsection (4), the Director may authorise a person to take samples of a prisoner's blood, breath or urine for determining whether there is present in the prisoner's body any drug or alcohol.
- (4) A person must not be authorised under subsection (3) to take samples of a prisoner's blood unless the person is a medical practitioner or a registered nurse.
- (5) A person authorised under subsection (3) may, for subsection (2), use such force on a prisoner as is reasonably necessary to ensure that the quantity of the prisoner's blood, breath or urine is taken and no action, civil or criminal, may be commenced or lies against the person in relation to the person's exercise of the power.

- (6) In this section:

registered nurse means a person registered under the Health Practitioner Regulation National Law:

- (a) to practise in the nursing and midwifery profession as a nurse (other than as a student); and
- (b) in the registered nurses division of that profession.

95B Buccal swabs

- (1) A prisoner under sentence of imprisonment for a crime or who is a detainee under the Serious Sex Offenders Act must provide a sample by buccal swab to a person authorised under subsection (3) when directed to do so by the officer in charge of the prison.
- (2) A prisoner is not to be taken to have provided a sample unless the sample is sufficient to enable an analysis of it to be carried out.
- (3) The Director may authorise a person for subsection (1).
- (4) A person authorised under subsection (3) may use reasonable force to obtain a sample by buccal swab from a prisoner if the prisoner refuses to provide the sample when directed to do so by the officer in charge of the prison.
- (5) As soon as practicable after the sample is obtained, the officer in charge of the prison must deliver the sample to the Commissioner of Police.
- (6) No action or proceeding, civil or criminal, can be commenced against a person in relation to the exercise of the power conferred on the person by subsection (4).

96 Arrest of escaped prisoners

An officer may exercise any of the powers conferred on a police officer and must, in relation to the exercise of those powers, discharge all of the duties imposed on a police officer by the Police Administration Act in respect of the arrest and taking into custody of a prisoner who has escaped from lawful custody.

97 Valour medal

The Administrator may award a Correctional Services Valour Medal to an officer for conduct of conspicuous merit, or where that officer, in discharging his or her duty under this Act, performs an act of conspicuous bravery involving risk to his or her life, and may make such an award posthumously to an officer's next of kin where the case requires.

98 Service medal

- (1) The Administrator may award a Correctional Services Meritorious Service Medal to a person who has completed a period of 10 years continuous meritorious service in the Territory as an officer.

- (2) The Director may determine for this section that a period of service in a prison or prison system in a place outside the Territory may be counted as part of the period mentioned in subsection (1).

99 Form of medals

Medals granted under this Part must be in such form and with such attachments as are determined by the Administrator.

100 Certificate of commendation

The Director may award to an officer a Certificate of Commendation for conduct which is, in the opinion of the Director, worthy of special merit.

101 Regulations

- (1) The Administrator may make regulations under this Act.
- (2) The Regulations may make provision for or with respect to the conduct of appeals under Part 8 and the enforcement of the penalties specified in that Part.
- (3) A regulation may deal with the following:
- (a) prescribing the powers and functions of surveillance officers and supervising officers;
  - (b) regulating the conduct of persons subject to a monitoring order, community work order or supervision order under the Serious Sex Offenders Act;
  - (c) providing for the effect of a breach of a monitoring order or community work order;
  - (d) providing for the health and safety of:
    - (i) surveillance officers and supervising officers; and
    - (ii) persons who are subject to a monitoring order, community work order or supervision order under the Serious Sex Offenders Act;
  - (e) providing for travel and transport arrangements to be made for persons subject to a community work order, community based order or community custody order;
  - (f) providing for the effect on a community work order, community based order or community custody order of an injury to, or illness of, the person subject to the order;

- (g) prescribing the periods to be taken into account when calculating the hours during which work has been carried out under a community work order, community based order or community custody order;
- (h) prescribing the powers and functions of advisory committees and regulating the holding of their meetings and the procedures they are to observe at those meetings.
