NORTHERN TERRITORY OF AUSTRALIA

As in force at 1 January 2002

FINES AND PENALTIES (RECOVERY) REGULATIONS

Regulations under the Fines and Penalties (Recovery) Act

1 Citation

These Regulations may be cited as the Fines and Penalties (Recovery) Regulations.

2 Commencement

These Regulations come into operation on the commencement of the Fines and Penalties (Recovery) Act 2001.

3 Infringement notices

The laws of the Territory in respect of which the Act applies are specified in Schedule 1.

4 Amounts included in fine or penalty

For the purposes of section 6(1)(e) and (2)(b) of the Act, the reasonable costs of searching a government register to trace a person are amounts that are included in a fine or penalty payable by the person concerned.

5 Courtesy letter

For the purposes of section 16(1)(a) of the Act, the prescribed amount that may be charged in relation to the service of a courtesy letter is $20.

6 Service of courtesy letter

If the electronic mail (e-mail) address of a person is known to an appropriate officer, a courtesy letter may be served on the person by e-mail, but service is not taken to be effected until receipt of the e-mail is confirmed, whether automatically or by acknowledgement by the person served.

7 Election to have matter dealt with by a court

- (1) If a person elects under section 21 of the Act to have a matter dealt with by a court, the statement to that effect must provide the person's full name, address and date of birth and contain the following information in respect of each alleged offence to which the election relates:
 - (a) a description of the alleged offence;
 - (b) the date the offence was alleged to have been committed.
- (2) The statement of election may be served on the body that issued the infringement notice or courtesy letter, as the case may be, by electronic mail (e-mail) but service is not taken to be effected until receipt of the e-mail is confirmed by the body.

8 Notification of fine

If the electronic mail (e-mail) address of a person on whom a court has imposed a fine is known to the Registrar or other officer of the court, a notice for the purposes of section 24 of the Act may be served on the person by e-mail, but service is not taken to be effected until receipt of the e-mail is confirmed, whether automatically or by acknowledgement by the person served.

9 Further time to pay fine

- (1) When dealing with an application for further time to pay a fine, the Fines Recovery Unit must have regard to the guidelines for payment by instalments set out in Schedule 2.
- (2) The Director or Deputy Director may approve arrangements for repayment that are outside of the guidelines in special circumstances.

10 Enforcement costs

The costs payable in respect of enforcement action taken by the Fines Recovery Unit are as specified in Schedule 3.

11 Service of notices

If the electronic mail (e-mail) address of a person in relation to whom the Fines Recovery Unit has made an order is known to the Unit, a notice specified in Schedule 4 may be served on the person by e-mail, but service is not taken to be effected until receipt of the e-mail is confirmed, whether automatically or by acknowledgement by the person served.

12 Registration of statutory charge on land

For the purposes of section 73 of the Act, a statutory charge on land may be registered if the total amount payable exceeds $1 000.

13 Community work order

A bailiff who serves a community work order issued under Division 9 of Part 5 of the Act on a fine defaulter must:

- (a) confirm that the person to be served is the fine defaulter by establishing the person's name and date of birth (or approximate age if date of birth is not known);
- (b) explain or cause to be explained, in a language that is likely to be understood by the fine defaulter:
 - (i) where and when the fine defaulter must attend for assessment; and
 - (ii) that if the fine defaulter fails to attend as required a warrant of commitment may be issued and the fine defaulter could be imprisoned; and
- (c) depose in the affidavit of service to the fact that he or she has complied with the requirements and is satisfied that the fine defaulter understood the explanations given.

14 Rate for community work order

A person who performs work under a community work order issued under Division 9 of Part 5 of the Act satisfies the amount payable at the rate of $12.50 for each hour of work performed.

15 Rate for imprisonment

A person who serves a term of imprisonment pursuant to a warrant issued under Division 10 of Part 5 of the Act satisfies the amount payable at the rate of $100 per day.

16 Ancillary money orders

For the purposes of section 105 of the Act, any order by a court for the payment to the Territory of money (other than by way of a fine or penalty) is an amount to which Part 7 of the Act applies.

17 Forms

- (1) In this regulation, a reference to a form by number is a reference to the form so numbered in Schedule 5.

- (2) Strict compliance with the form specified in Schedule 5 is not necessary and substantial compliance is sufficient.
 - (3) An examination summons issued under section 68 of the Act is to be:
 - (a) in the case of a fine defaulter who is a natural person – in the form of Form 1; and
 - (b) in any other case – in the form of Form 2.
 - (4) A warrant of apprehension issued under section 68(10) of the Act is to be in the form of Form 3.
 - (5) A property seizure order made under section 70 of the Act is to be in the form of Form 4.
 - (6) A garnishee order made under section 72 of the Act is to be:
 - (a) if the order is for the attachment of a debt – in the form of Form 5; and
 - (b) if the order is for the continuous attachment of wages or salary – in the form of Form 6.
 - (7) A community work order made under section 77 of the Act is to be in the form of Form 7.
 - (8) A notice of revocation of a community work order referred to in section 85 of the Act is to be in the form of Form 8.
 - (9) A warrant of commitment for the purposes of section 86 of the Act is to be in the form of Form 9.

The Fines Recovery Unit has issued the above enforcement order(s) against the above fine defaulter. The fine defaulter has failed to comply with the order(s) and $_____ remains outstanding.

The fine defaulter is employed by you/your organisation and is a person to whom earnings are payable or are likely to become payable by you/your organisation.

THE FINES RECOVERY UNIT ORDERS THAT:

1. The employer must, for the purpose of securing payment of the outstanding enforcement orders, while the fine defaulter is employed by that employer, or until this order ceases to have effect, make deductions out of the net earnings of the fine defaulter.
2. * The protected earnings are 80% of the net earnings in respect of each payday.
3. * The appropriate deduction is $_____/_____% of the net earnings in respect of each payday.
4. Subject to paragraph 6, on each pay-day that the net earnings are in excess of the protected earnings specified in paragraph 2, the employer may first pay to himself or herself, out of that excess, $2 for the administrative costs of complying with this order.

5. Subject to paragraph 6, following payment of the administrative costs in accordance with paragraph 4, the employer must pay to the Fines Recovery Unit, out of the remaining excess, the appropriate deduction specified in paragraph 3.

6. If on a pay-day the amount of net earnings in excess of the protected earnings is insufficient to allow for payment in full of the administrative costs or appropriate deduction, on that pay-day the employer may first pay as much as the excess allows towards the administrative costs, must then pay as much as the excess allows towards the appropriate deduction, and must pay the deficit in accordance with paragraph 7.

7. If on a pay-day, after payment of the administrative costs and appropriate deduction in full, the net earnings remain in excess of the protected earnings, the employer must pay from that excess as much of the total deficit from previous pay-days as the excess allows, first towards the outstanding administrative costs and then towards the outstanding appropriate deductions.

NOTE: A Garnishee order comes into force at the end of 7 days after the day on which the order is served on the employer.

NOTE: If the employer wilfully fails to comply with the garnishee order, the Fines Recovery Unit may apply to the Local Court to have the order enforced against the employer.

Do not ignore this notice. If you do not understand this notice or need help contact the Fines Recovery Unit, a legal practitioner or your local legal aid office.

NOTICE TO EMPLOYER

The garnishee order served with this notice requires you to deduct from the net earnings payable to the fine defaulter as your employee, on each pay-day until the order is discharged or suspended, the amount referred to in the order as the appropriate deduction, and to pay that amount to the Fines Recovery Unit.

EARNINGS AND DEDUCTIONS

earnings means money payable to a fine defaulter by way of:

- (a) wages or salary, including fees, bonuses, commission, pay in lieu of leave or retirement benefit, overtime pay or other profits arising from the fine defaulter's office or employment; or
- (b) a pension, including:
 - (i) an annuity for past services whether or not the services were rendered to the person paying the annuity; and
 - (ii) periodic payments of compensation for the loss, abolition or relinquishment of, or a reduction in profits arising from, an office or employment, but does not include a pension under the Social Security Act 1991 of the Commonwealth or the Veterans' Entitlements Act 1986 of the Commonwealth;

net earnings means the earnings payable to a fine defaulter on a pay-day after the deduction of:

- (a) tax instalments under the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936 of the Commonwealth; and
- (b) superannuation contributions under the Superannuation Act 1986 of the Commonwealth;

appropriate deduction means the amount that the Fines Recovery Unit considers to be:

- (a) a reasonable deduction from the net earnings; and
- (b) not more than is necessary to pay the amount owing within a reasonable time after an attachment of earnings order is made.

protected earnings means the amount of the net earnings below which the Fines Recovery Unit considers it unreasonable for the earnings to be reduced by a payment to the Fines Recovery Unit, having regard to the resources and needs of the fine defaulter and of any other person for whom the fine defaulter provides or reasonably may provide.

NOTICE TO EMPLOYER

You are required to give the fine defaulter a notice specifying particulars of the payments made by you under the garnishee order, including the payment for your administrative costs in respect of the order.

NOTICE IF YOU ARE NOT THE EMPLOYER

You must promptly advise the Director of the Fines Recovery Unit:

- (a) if you are not the employer of the fine defaulter; or

- (b) if you are now the employer of the fine defaulter but later cease to employ the fine defaulter – after you cease to be the employer.

EMPLOYEE NOT TO BE DISMISSED OR PREJUDICED

A person who dismisses an employee, injures an employee in his or her employment or alters an employee's position to his or her prejudice because a garnishee order has been made, or because the person is required to make payments under the order in relation to the employee, may be dealt with as for contempt of court.

The enforcement order referred to above, made in relation to you, has not been satisfied and I believe that enforcement action under Division 8 of the Act will not be effective in satisfying the order.

I now order you to attend at _____, within 7 days of being served with this order to be assessed by the Director of Correctional Services as to your suitability to participate in an approved project to work off the outstanding amount. If you are assessed as suitable to participate, you will be provided with details of the work you are to perform and your obligations under this order.

Community work reduces the amount owing by $100 for each 8 hours of work performed. You may choose to pay part of the amount owing at any stage and your work hours will be reduced accordingly. If you pay the outstanding amount in full, you will not be required to perform any community work.

If you fail to attend at the specified place, or fail to comply with your obligations under this order, the order will be revoked and a warrant may issue for your arrest. If you cannot pay the full amount outstanding, you will serve a day in custody for every $100 (or part thereof).
