FIREARMS ACT

An Act to provide for the regulation, control and registration of firearms, and for related purposes

Part 1 Preliminary

1 Short title

This Act may be cited as the Firearms Act.

2 Commencement

This Act comes into operation on the date fixed by the Administrator by notice in the Gazette.

3 Interpretation

(1) In this Act, unless the contrary intention appears:

air pistol means a pistol that propels, or is capable of propelling, a projectile by means of compressed gas or air.

ammunition means:

- (a) an article consisting of a cartridge case fitted with a primer and a projectile other than an inert round;
- (b) an article consisting of a cartridge case fitted with a primer and containing a propelling charge and a projectile;
- (c) a blank cartridge, air gun pellet, training cartridge or gas cartridge; or
- (d) an article prescribed for the purposes of this definition.

approved means approved by the Commissioner.

certificate of registration means a certificate of registration issued under section 36.

Commissioner means the Commissioner of Police.

corresponding, in relation to a licence or permit, means a licence or permit in force under a law of a State or another Territory of the Commonwealth that, in the opinion of the Commissioner, corresponds to a licence or permit under this Act.

Council means the Firearms Advisory Council established by section 55.

determined fee means a fee determined under section 6.

disqualifying offence, means an offence in which a firearm is implicated involving the use of force that, in the Territory or the jurisdiction in which it was committed, is punishable by a term of imprisonment of 7 years or more, whether or not the person found guilty of the offence was actually sentenced to imprisonment for the offence.

firearm means:

- (a) a firearm of any description;
- (b) an airgun, air rifle or other kind of gun from which any kind of shot, bullet or missile can be discharged; and
- (c) a firearm referred to in paragraph (a) or (b) from which, for the time being, a shot, bullet or missile cannot be discharged because of the absence or defect of a part or an obstruction in the firearm, but from which, if the part were replaced, renewed or repaired or the obstruction removed, a shot, bullet or missile could be discharged.

firearms club means a shooting union, association, club or other group of persons, however described, who associate for purposes connected with the use of firearms.

holder, in relation to a licence, permit or certificate of registration, means the person to whom it is granted.

international competitor means a person who resides outside Australia and who is visiting Australia for the purpose of competing in an approved shooting competition.

land includes land covered by water and the water covering the land.

licence means a licence granted under Part 3.

machine-gun means:

- (a) a firearm (including a pistol) that discharges or is capable of discharging more than one cartridge on a single release of a trigger mechanism; and
- (b) a firearm referred to in paragraph (a) from which, for the time being, a cartridge cannot be discharged because of the absence or defect of a part or an obstruction in the firearm, but from which, if the part were replaced, renewed or repaired or the obstruction removed, a cartridge could be discharged.

permit means a permit granted under Part 4.

pistol means a firearm that is:

- (a) capable of being used in, or adapted to be aimed and discharged using, one hand only; and
- (b) capable of being concealed on or about the person.

possess or use, in relation to a firearm or ammunition, includes to carry, have under control, test, discharge, repair and store the firearm or ammunition.

premises includes buildings and land.

prohibited firearm means a firearm specified in Schedule 1.

register means the register required to be kept under section 7.

registered means registered under this Act.

sale includes a transfer or disposal otherwise than for valuable consideration.

shooting range means an area of land established or reserved primarily for the purpose of discharging firearms.

silencer means:

- (a) a device capable of being used to suppress the noise of the discharge of a firearm; and
- (b) a device referred to in paragraph (a) that, for the time being, does not suppress the noise of the discharge of a firearm because of the absence or defect of a part of the device but would, if the part were replaced, renewed or repaired, suppress the noise of the discharge of a firearm.

Tribunal means the Firearms Appeal Tribunal established by section 50.

working day means a day that is not a Saturday, Sunday or public holiday within the meaning of the Public Holidays Act.

- (2) A reference in this Act to:
- (a) a category A firearm is to a firearm of a type specified in Schedule 2;
 - (b) a category B firearm is to a firearm of a type specified in Schedule 3;
 - (c) a category C firearm is to a firearm of a type specified in Schedule 4;
 - (d) a category D firearm is to a firearm of a type specified in Schedule 5; and
 - (e) a category H firearm is to a firearm of a type specified in Schedule 6.
- (3) For the purposes of this Act, a person deals in firearms if the person buys, sells, exchanges or hires out firearms in the course of his or her business, whether or not the person, in the course of the business, repairs firearms.
- (4) For the purposes of this Act, a firearm is sold when the possession of the firearm passes from the person who sells the firearm (or if the firearm is sold by the holder of a firearms dealer licence, from a partner or employee of the holder) to another person.

4 Exemptions

- (1) This Act does not apply to or in relation to:
- (a) a person who is a member of the Defence Force referred to in Division 1 of Part 3 of the Defence Act 1903 of the Commonwealth who is using a firearm that is the property of the Force for purposes concerned with the Force;
 - (b) an explosive-powered tool or compressed air nailing tool;
 - (c) a firearm that was manufactured before 1900 and for which cartridge ammunition is not commercially available;
 - (d) a spear-gun;

- (e) a pistol designed to be used for life-saving, rescuing or distress signal purposes; or
 - (f) a firearm or a type of firearm referred to in a notice under section 8(1)(b).
- (2) A firearm acquired by or held in an approved museum is to be registered and securely stored but the provisions of this Act relating to a licence or permit do not apply to or in relation to the governing body of the museum.
- (3) Parts 3 and 5 do not apply to or in relation to a person who is a common carrier in respect of the person's possession of a firearm that:
 - (a) is not the person's property; and
 - (b) forms part of a consignment of goods in the person's possession as a common carrier.
- (4) Part 3 and section 59 in so far as it relates to the possession or use of a firearm that is not registered and sections 77, 78, 79, 80, 82 and 83 do not apply to or in relation to a member of the Police Force, a member of the Australian Federal Police or a member of a police force of a State or another Territory of the Commonwealth, or to an officer, within the meaning of the Prisons (Correctional Services) Act, in respect of his or her possession or use of a firearm in the course of his or her duty as a member or officer.
- (5) Sections 78 and 79 do not apply to or in relation to a person who is:
 - (a) an employee, within the meaning of the Public Sector Employment and Management Act, or
 - (b) an officer or employee, within the meaning of the Public Service Act 1922 of the Commonwealth,in respect of the person's possession or use, in the course of his or her duty as such an employee or officer, of a firearm the property of the Territory or the Commonwealth.
- (6) The Commissioner may, by written notice, declare that such provisions of this Act as the Commissioner thinks fit and specifies in the notice do not apply, or apply in accordance with such conditions as are specified in the notice:
 - (a) to certain persons in relation to their activities at a shooting gallery, amusement parlour or similar place; or

- (b) in relation to firearms amnesties generally or periods specified in the notice as amnesty periods, and those provisions do not apply or apply only subject to those conditions.

Part 2 Administration

5 Delegation

- (1) The Commissioner may, in writing, delegate to a member of the Police Force or an employee, within the meaning of the Public Sector Employment and Management Act, any of the Commissioner's powers and functions under this Act, other than this power of delegation.
- (2) A delegation under this section may be to a named member or employee or to a member or employee from time to time holding, acting in or performing the duties of an office, rank, designation or position.
- (3) A power or function delegated under this section, when exercised or performed by the delegate, is to be taken to have been exercised or performed by the Commissioner.
- (4) A delegation under this section does not prevent the exercise of a power or the performance of a function by the Commissioner.

6 Fees

- (1) The Minister may, by notice in the Gazette, determine the fees payable under this Act.
- (2) The Commissioner may waive or reduce a determined fee in relation to a matter or thing or a class of matters or things.

7 Register

- (1) The Commissioner is to cause to be kept a register containing a record of those particulars that the Commissioner determines of:
 - (a) all registered firearms; and
 - (b) all licences and permits.
- (2) The register may be kept:
 - (a) in a form or combination of forms;
 - (b) on a medium or combination of mediums; and

(c) in a manner, that the Commissioner thinks fit and, for the purposes of paragraph (b), a medium includes but is not limited to:

(d) a computer;

(e) micro film; or

(f) paper.

(3) The register is to be maintained in a form that:

(a) enables it to be linked to the National Exchange of Police Information (NEPI) scheme; and

(b) enables a firearm authority of a State or another Territory of the Commonwealth to have access to information in the register.

8 Declarations by Commissioner

(1) The Commissioner may, by notice in the Gazette, declare:

(a) a firearm or a type of firearm to be a firearm of a particular category of firearm; or

(b) a firearm or a type of firearm to be a firearm that is exempt from the operation of this Act.

(2) A notice under subsection (1) may specify a firearm or type of firearm by reference to particulars of the firearm or type of firearm that may include the calibre, mechanism, manufacturer, magazine capacity, fixture attached to a firearm or other particulars by which a firearm or a type of firearm may be identified.

(3) The Commissioner may, on application by a person in possession of a firearm and after examination of the firearm, by written notice, certify that the firearm is permanently incapable of use as a firearm.

(4) A reference in this Act to a category of firearm includes a firearm or type of firearm in respect of which a declaration is made under subsection (1)(a).

Part 3 Licences

Division 1 Application for licence

9 Application for licence

- (1) An application for a licence is to be:
 - (a) in the approved form;
 - (b) accompanied by the determined fee; and
 - (c) lodged with the Commissioner.
- (2) An applicant for a licence is:
 - (a) if the applicant is a natural person, to be at least 18 years of age unless the licence applied for is a firearms club junior licence;
 - (b) to provide proof of the applicant's identity in accordance with the requirements under the Financial Transaction Reports Act 1988 of the Commonwealth that apply in respect of the opening of a bank account; and
 - (c) to provide such other particulars or documents, if any, as the Commissioner requires.
- (3) A person who has been found guilty of an offence in which a firearm was involved cannot apply for a licence unless:
 - (a) in a case where, on the trial or hearing in relation to the offence:
 - (i) an order under section 10 or 11 of the Sentencing Act or referred to in section 130(2) of that Act (or a provision of a law in force in the jurisdiction in which the offence was committed that, in the opinion of the Commissioner, is of similar effect) has been made directing that the person be discharged on giving security in accordance with the section; or
 - (ii) a pecuniary penalty only has been imposed, not less than 12 months have elapsed since the person was found guilty of the offence; and

 - (b) in the case where a custodial sentence was imposed, 2 years have elapsed since the applicant was found guilty of the offence or released from custody, whichever is the later.

10 General restrictions on grant of licence

- (1) The Commissioner, on receiving an application for a licence, may grant or refuse to grant the licence.
- (2) Subject to subsection (5), the Commissioner is not to grant a shooter's licence or a firearms club junior licence until 28 days after the day on which the application is made.
- (3) The Commissioner is not to grant a licence unless satisfied that the applicant:
 - (a) is at least 18 years of age unless the licence applied for is a firearms club junior licence;
 - (b) is a fit and proper person;
 - (c) has completed an approved firearms training and safety course;
 - (d) is able to meet the storage and safety requirements under this Act;
 - (e) resides in the Territory or is about to become a resident of the Territory;
 - (f) has not, within the period of 10 years before the application for the licence was made, been found guilty in the Territory or elsewhere of a disqualifying offence;
 - (g) is not subject to a restraining order, within the meaning of the Domestic Violence Act, or has not, within the period of 5 years before the application for the licence was made, been subject to a restraining order (other than an order under section 6 of that Act that has not been confirmed); or
 - (h) is not subject to an order, made in the Territory or elsewhere, to keep the peace.
- (4) Without limiting subsection (3)(b), the Commissioner is not to grant a licence if the Commissioner has reasonable cause to believe that the applicant may not personally exercise continuous and responsible control over firearms because of:
 - (a) the applicant's way of living or domestic circumstances;
 - (b) any attempts by the applicant to commit suicide or cause a self-inflicted injury; or
 - (c) the applicant's intemperate habits or being of unsound mind.

- (5) The Commissioner may grant a shooter's licence before the expiration of the period referred to in subsection (2) where the applicant was, at the time of making the application, the holder of a shooter's licence.
- (6) Subsection (3)(c) does not apply to an applicant who at the time of making the application was already the holder of a licence.
- (7) Except in the case of a firearms dealer licence or firearms corporate licence, a licence may only be granted to an individual.
- (8) The Commissioner may refuse to grant a licence if the Commissioner considers that the grant of the licence would be contrary to the public interest.
- (9) The Regulations may provide other mandatory or discretionary grounds for refusing to grant a licence.

11 Genuine reason for licence

- (1) The Commissioner is not to grant a licence:
 - (a) unless satisfied that the applicant has a genuine reason for possessing and using firearms;
 - (b) in respect of a category C firearm, category D firearm or category H firearm, unless satisfied that the applicant has a genuine need for possessing and using firearms of that category; and
 - (c) unless satisfied that the applicant meets the requirements under this Act in respect of that reason or need.
- (2) The genuine reasons for possessing or using firearms are any of the following:
 - (a) sports shooting;
 - (b) recreational shooting or hunting;
 - (c) primary production;
 - (d) vertebrate pest animal control;
 - (e) business or employment;
 - (f) occupational requirements;
 - (g) animal welfare;
 - (h) firearms collection;

- (j) museum display;
- (k) inheritance.

Division 2 General provisions

12 Form of licence

A licence is to contain:

- (a) the prescribed particulars; and
- (b) a recent photograph of the holder obtained in accordance with the approved arrangements.

13 General conditions of licence

- (1) A licence is subject to the conditions that the holder:
 - (a) must comply with the relevant safe keeping and storage requirements under this Act;
 - (b) must not permit any other person to possess or use a firearm in the holder's possession if that other person is not authorised to possess or use the firearm;
 - (c) must permit a member of the Police Force to inspect, at any reasonable time, the holder's facilities for the storage and safe keeping of the firearms in the holder's possession; and
 - (d) must not possess, at any one time, an amount of ammunition that exceeds the amount, if any, authorised in writing by the Commissioner.
- (2) In addition to subsection (1), a licence is subject to:
 - (a) the conditions that are prescribed; and
 - (b) the conditions specified by the Commissioner.
- (3) A licence is not transferable.

14 Period of licence

- (1) Subject to this Act:
 - (a) a shooter's licence that authorises the possession or use of:
 - (i) category A or category B firearms remains in force for 5 years;

- (ii) category C firearms remains in force for 3 years;
 - (iii) category D firearms remains in force for one year or a shorter period as determined by the Commissioner and specified in the licence;
 - (iv) category H firearms remains in force for one year;
 - (b) a firearms club junior licence remains in force until the holder attains the age of 18 years;
 - (c) a firearms armourer licence, firearms dealer licence and firearms corporate licence remains in force for one year;
 - (d) a firearms employee licence remains in force for one year or a shorter period as determined by the Commissioner and specified in the licence; and
 - (e) a firearms collector licence remains in force for 5 years.
- (2) Subject to this Act, a licence expires 3 months after the holder ceases to reside permanently in the Territory.

Division 3 Shooter's licence

15 Shooter's licence

A shooter's licence authorises the holder to possess and use only firearms of a category specified in the licence.

Division 4 Firearms dealer licence

16 Firearms dealer licence

A firearms dealer licence authorises the holder to possess, use and deal in only firearms of a category specified in the licence.

17 Security measures required by dealer

- (1) The holder of a firearms dealer licence must ensure that all firearms possessed under the licence are stored in accordance with:
- (a) the safe keeping and storage requirements under this Act; and
 - (b) the safe keeping and storage requirements, if any, determined by the Commissioner.

Penalty: $5,000 or imprisonment for 12 months.

- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to or in relation to a firearm:
- (a) in the actual possession; or
 - (b) being displayed to a person under the immediate and continuous supervision, of the holder of the firearms dealer licence, a partner or an employee of the holder in the normal course of business of the holder.

- (3) The holder of a firearms dealer licence or a partner or employee of the holder may, in the normal course of the business of the holder, remove a firearm from the premises used by the holder under the licence:
- (a) to demonstrate the firearm to, for or on behalf of a prospective purchaser; or
 - (b) to test the firearm.

18 Records and returns to be kept by dealers

- (1) The holder of a firearms dealer licence must keep and maintain a register containing the prescribed particulars of all firearms possessed under the licence.
- (2) The holder of a firearms dealer licence must, not later than 24 hours after a sale, purchase or repair of a firearm by the dealer, record in the dealer's register the prescribed particulars of the firearm and the prescribed details of the sale, purchase or repair.
- (3) The holder of a firearms dealer licence must, not later than 7 days after the last day of March, June, September and December in each year, give to the Commissioner, in the prescribed form, a record in relation to the 3 months immediately preceding the relevant last day, of:
- (a) all purchases and sales of firearms made by the dealer; and
 - (b) if the dealer stores firearms, the firearms in the dealer's possession or deposited with the dealer for storage.
- (4) The holder of a firearms dealer licence must, on demand by a member of the Police Force:
- (a) produce a record required to be kept under this section to the member and permit the member to inspect and make copies of any entries in it; and

- (b) provide to the member any information in the holder's possession with respect to any firearm that has been manufactured, purchased or received under the authority of the firearms dealer licence, or that the person has in his or her possession or has sold or otherwise transferred or repaired under the authority of the licence.
- (5) A person must not alter an entry in a record required to be kept under this section other than by interlineation or striking out that does not make the entry illegible.
- (6) The holder of a firearms dealer licence must, not later than 24 hours after becoming aware of the loss, theft or destruction of a firearm that was in the possession of the holder, notify the Commissioner of the loss, theft or destruction in the approved form.
- (7) The holder of a firearms dealer licence must ensure that a record required by this Act to be kept by the holder is kept in a place of safe keeping.
- (8) The holder of a firearms dealer licence must, if written notice is served on the holder by the Commissioner, provide to the Commissioner, not later than the time specified in the notice and in the form provided by the Commissioner, the particulars relating to the acquisition, disposition or possession by the holder of any firearms as are required by the notice.

Penalty: $2,000 or imprisonment for 6 months.

19 Production of firearms

A member of the Police Force may require the holder of a firearms dealer licence, or a partner or employee of the holder, to produce a firearm in his or her possession.

Penalty: $2,000 or imprisonment for 6 months.

20 Restriction on employing certain persons

The holder of a firearms dealer licence must not employ a person to perform duties under the licence or permit a person to assist in the conduct of the business under the licence if the person has been refused a firearms dealer licence or has had a firearms dealer licence that was granted to the person cancelled or suspended.

Penalty: $5,000 or imprisonment for 12 months.

21 Interstate transactions between dealers

Despite anything to the contrary in this Act, the holder of a firearms dealer licence is, for the purposes of a transaction between the holder and the holder of a corresponding licence, authorised to buy a firearm from the holder of that corresponding licence.

Division 5 Firearms armourer licence

22 Firearms armourer licence

- (1) A firearms armourer licence authorises the holder to possess, use, repair and store only firearms of a category specified in the licence.
- (2) The holder of a firearms armourer licence, or a partner or an employee of the holder, with the authority of the holder, may, in the normal course of the business of the holder, remove a firearm from premises used by the holder under the licence to test it.
- (3) The holder of a firearms armourer licence must ensure that all firearms possessed under the licence are stored in accordance with:
 - (a) the safe keeping and storage requirements under this Act; and
 - (b) the safe keeping and storage requirements, if any, determined by the Commissioner.

Penalty: $5,000 or imprisonment for 12 months.

- (4) Subsection (3) does not apply to or in relation to a firearm in the actual possession of the holder, or a partner or an employee of the holder, in the normal course of the business of the holder.
- (5) The holder of a firearms armourer licence must keep a record in the prescribed form containing particulars of all firearms possessed under the licence.

Penalty: $2,000 or imprisonment for 6 months.

23 Production of firearms, records, &c.

- (1) A member of the Police Force may require the holder of a firearms armourer licence, or a partner or employee of the holder, to produce a firearm in his or her possession or a record kept under this Act.

Penalty: $2,000 or imprisonment for 6 months.

- (2) A member of the Police Force may:
- (a) examine a record referred to in subsection (1);
 - (b) make copies of, or take extracts from, the record; and
 - (c) retain the record for such reasonable period as the member thinks fit.

Division 6 Firearms collector licence

24 Firearms collector licence

- (1) A firearms collector licence authorises the holder to possess and display only firearms of a category specified in the licence.
- (2) The holder of a firearms collector licence must ensure that all firearms possessed under the licence are stored in accordance with:
- (a) the safe keeping and storage requirements under this Act; and
 - (b) the safe keeping and storage requirements, if any, determined by the Commissioner.

Penalty: $5,000 or imprisonment for 12 months.

- (3) The holder of a firearms collector licence:
- (a) must give to the Commissioner, not later than 14 days after the anniversary of the grant of the licence, or when requested to do so by a member of the Police Force, a record in the prescribed form of all firearms:
 - (i) in the holder's possession under the licence;
 - (ii) that were purchased or acquired by the holder in the preceding 12 months; and
 - (iii) that were sold or disposed of by the holder in the preceding 12 months; and
 - (b) when requested by a member of the Police Force, must allow the member:
 - (i) to inspect all firearms in the holder's possession under the licence; and

- (ii) to inspect the premises and the receptacles in which those firearms are kept.

Penalty: $2,000 or imprisonment for 6 months.

25 Use of firearm under firearms collector licence

- (1) The holder of a firearms collector licence must not use, or carry for the purpose of using, a firearm to which the licence relates unless he or she does so in accordance with a permit.

Penalty: $5,000 or imprisonment for 12 months.

- (2) The Commissioner is, by notice served on the holder of a firearms collector licence, to revoke the licence where the holder is found guilty of an offence against subsection (1).

Division 7 Firearms corporate licence

26 Firearms corporate licence

- (1) A firearms corporate licence authorises the holder to possess only firearms of a category specified in the licence.
- (2) The holder of a firearms corporate licence must not permit a person to possess a firearm possessed under the licence unless the person is the holder of a firearms employee licence and is an employee of the holder and the firearm is in the possession of the person for a purpose relating to his or her duties as an employee.

Penalty: $5,000 or imprisonment for 12 months.

Division 8 Firearms employee licence

27 Firearms employee licence

- (1) A firearms employee licence authorises the holder to possess and use only firearms of a category specified in the licence that are possessed by his or her employer under a firearms corporate licence for a purpose relating to his or her duties as an employee.
- (2) A firearms employee licence is immediately revoked if the holder ceases to be employed by the holder of the corporate licence whose firearms the holder is permitted to possess and use under the firearms employee licence.

Division 9 Firearms club junior licence28 Firearms club junior licence

A firearms club junior licence authorises the holder to possess and use only firearms of a category specified in the licence and only:

- (a) when under the personal supervision of the holder of a licence who is authorised to possess or use firearms of the same category; and

Part 4 Permits31 Grant of permits

The Commissioner may grant a permit for one or more of the following purposes:

- (a) to authorise a person to purchase or acquire a firearm;
- (b) to authorise the possession or use of a firearm by a person residing temporarily in the Territory;
- (c) to authorise the use by the holder of a firearms collector licence of a firearm possessed under the licence;
- (d) to authorise the possession or use of firearms for film, theatrical productions or other artistic purposes;

- (e) to authorise the acquisition, sale or transfer of a firearm in such circumstances as may be prescribed;
- (f) to authorise the shortening or conversion of a firearm;
- (g) to authorise anything else for which provision is made by the Regulations and required by the Regulations to be authorised by a permit.

32 Application for permit

An application for a permit is to be:

- (a) in the approved form;
- (b) accompanied by the determined fee; and
- (c) lodged with the Commissioner.

33 General restrictions on granting permits

- (1) The Commissioner is not to grant a permit unless satisfied that the applicant:
 - (a) is at least 18 years of age or the applicant is the holder of a firearms club junior licence;
 - (b) is a fit and proper person;
 - (c) has not, within 10 years before the application for the permit was made, been found guilty in the Territory or elsewhere, of a disqualifying offence;
 - (d) is not subject to a restraining order, within the meaning of the Domestic Violence Act, or has not, within 5 years before the application for the permit was made, been subject to a restraining order (other than an order under section 6 of that Act that has not been confirmed);
 - (e) is not subject to an order, made in the Territory or elsewhere, to keep the peace;
 - (f) if the applicant is the holder of a firearms junior club licence:
 - (i) the applicant is at least 16 years of age and represents the Territory in competition shooting at national or international level; and

- (ii) the application is accompanied by a written endorsement from the governing body in the Territory for the disciplines in which the applicant shoots that the applicant is a representative of the Territory.
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), the Commissioner is not to grant a permit if the Commissioner has reasonable cause to believe that the applicant may not personally exercise continuous and responsible control over firearms because of:
 - (a) the applicant's way of living or domestic circumstances;
 - (b) any previous attempt by the applicant to commit suicide or cause a self-inflicted injury; or
 - (c) the applicant's intemperate habits or being of unsound mind.
- (3) The Commissioner may refuse to grant a permit if the Commissioner considers that to grant the permit would be contrary to the public interest.
- (4) The Regulations may provide other mandatory or discretionary grounds for refusing to grant a permit.

33A Possession and use of firearms by international competitors

- (1) An international competitor may possess or use a firearm for the sole purpose of competing in an approved shooting competition if he or she is the holder of:
 - (a) a permit; or
 - (b) a corresponding permit,that authorises the possession or use of the firearm for that purpose.
- (2) Despite section 33, the Commissioner may grant a permit to an international competitor for the sole purpose of competing in an approved shooting competition if:
 - (a) the applicant provides the Commissioner with the prescribed information; and
 - (b) the Commissioner is satisfied that the applicant is a fit and proper person to possess or use a firearm of the category to which the permit relates.

34 General provisions relating to permits

- (1) A permit is subject to:
 - (a) the conditions that are prescribed; and
 - (b) the conditions specified by the Commissioner.
- (2) A permit remains in force for the period determined by the Commissioner and specified in the permit.
- (3) The Commissioner may suspend or revoke a permit for any reason for which a licence may be suspended or revoked or that may be prescribed.
- (4) The suspension or revocation of a permit takes effect when notice is served on the holder of the permit.
- (5) If a permit is surrendered or revoked, the person to whom it was granted must immediately surrender it, and any firearm in respect of which it was granted, to a member of the Police Force.

Penalty: $1,000 or imprisonment for 3 months.

- (6) A member of the Police Force may seize a firearm in respect of which a permit was granted if the permit is suspended or revoked.
- (7) Subject to this Act, a permit expires 3 months after the holder ceases to reside in the Territory.

35 Permits to purchase or acquire firearms

- (1) The holder of a licence may apply to the Commissioner for a permit to purchase or acquire a firearm.
- (2) A separate permit to purchase or acquire a firearm is required for each firearm to be purchased or acquired.
- (3) The Commissioner:
 - (a) is not to grant a permit to a person to purchase or acquire a firearm unless the person is the holder of a licence authorising the person to use or possess the firearm concerned; and
 - (b) may refuse to grant a permit to purchase or acquire a firearm to a person who is the holder of a firearms club junior licence.
- (4) Subject to subsection (5), the Commissioner is not to grant to a person a permit to purchase or acquire a firearm until after the end of the period of 28 days after the day on which the application for the permit is made.

- (5) The Commissioner may grant a permit to a person to purchase or acquire a firearm before the expiration of the period referred to in subsection (4) where the person:
 - (a) is already the owner of a firearm; and
 - (b) has established a genuine need for owning the firearm to be purchased or acquired.
- (6) Unless revoked, a permit to purchase or acquire a firearm remains in force for the period specified in the permit or until the firearm to which the permit relates is purchased or acquired, whichever is the sooner.

Part 5 Registration of firearms

36 Registration of firearms

- (1) An application to register a firearm is to be:
 - (a) in the approved form;
 - (b) accompanied by the determined fee; and
 - (c) lodged with the Commissioner.
- (2) Subject to this section, the Commissioner is to register a firearm that is the subject of an application.
- (3) The Commissioner:
 - (a) is not to register a firearm unless the applicant is the holder of a licence that permits the holder to possess firearms of the category of the firearm to be registered; and
 - (b) may refuse to register a firearm if the applicant is the holder of a firearms club junior licence.
- (4) The Commissioner may refuse to register a firearm if it is not produced to a member of the Police Force for inspection.
- (5) The Commissioner registers a firearm by entering in the register particulars of the firearm and particulars relating to the person in whose name it is registered.
- (6) The Commissioner is to issue a certificate of registration to a person in whose name a firearm is registered where:
 - (a) the firearm is registered in accordance with subsection (5); or

- (b) the Commissioner records in the register a change in the particulars relating to the person in whose name a firearm is registered.
- (7) A person who has been found guilty of an offence in which a firearm was involved cannot apply to register a firearm unless:
- (a) in a case where, on the trial or hearing in relation to the offence:
 - (i) an order under section 10 or 11 of the Sentencing Act or referred to in section 130(2) of that Act (or a provision of a law in force in the jurisdiction in which the offence was committed that, in the opinion of the Commissioner, is of similar effect) has been made directing that the person be discharged on giving security in accordance with the section; or
 - (ii) a pecuniary penalty only has been imposed,not less than 12 months have elapsed since the person was found guilty of the offence; and
 - (b) in the case where a custodial sentence was imposed, 2 years have elapsed since the applicant was found guilty of the offence or released from custody, whichever is the later.

37 Duration of registration

- (1) A firearm ceases to be registered:
- (a) if the person in whose name it is registered dies or, in the case of a firearm registered in the name of a corporation, the corporation is dissolved;
 - (b) if it is sold or otherwise disposed of;
 - (c) if it is lost or stolen; or
 - (d) if it is altered in a way:
 - (i) that affects its safety or fitness for use; or
 - (ii) that it becomes a firearm of a different category from the category specified in the certificate of registration relating to it.
- (2) Where a person was, immediately before his or her death, the holder of a certificate of registration for a firearm, the personal representative of the person is, for 28 days or any longer period that the Commissioner in writing allows, deemed to be the holder of the certificate of registration for the purpose of disposing of the firearm in accordance with this Act.

- (3) A certificate of registration expires 3 months after the holder ceases to reside permanently in the Territory.

Part 6 Surrender or revocation of licences, permits and certificates of registration

38 Suspension of licence, permit or registration

- (1) The Commissioner may, if satisfied there may be grounds for revoking a licence, permit or certificate of registration, suspend the licence, permit or certificate by serving written notice on the holder.
- (2) A notice under subsection (1) is to:
- (a) state that the licence, permit or certificate is suspended and the reasons for suspending it; and
 - (b) request the holder to provide the Commissioner with reasons why the licence, permit or certificate should not be revoked.
- (3) A licence, permit or certificate of registration is suspended for the period, not longer than 28 days, specified in the notice.
- (4) The holder of a licence, permit or certificate of registration suspended under this section is not authorised to possess or use a firearm of the category or the firearm, as the case may be, specified in the licence, permit or certificate during the period of the suspension.

39 Suspension on making of restraining order

A licence, permit or certificate of registration is automatically suspended on the making of an order under section 6(3) of the Domestic Violence Act against the holder and the suspension remains in force until the order is confirmed or revoked.

40 Revocation of licence, permit or registration

- (1) A licence, permit or a certificate of registration is automatically revoked:
- (a) on the making of an order under section 4 or 5 of the Domestic Violence Act against the holder; or

- (b) on the confirmation of an order made under section 6(3) of the Domestic Violence Act against the holder.
- (2) The Commissioner is, by written notice served on the holder of a licence or permit, to revoke the licence or permit if satisfied that the holder has failed to comply with a condition of the licence or permit that is prescribed for the purposes of this subsection.
- (3) The Commissioner may, by written notice served on the holder of a licence, permit or certificate of registration, revoke the licence, permit or certificate:
 - (a) for any reason for which the holder would be required to be refused a licence or permit of the same kind or a certificate of registration;
 - (b) if the holder supplied information that was false or misleading in a material particular in, or in connection with, the application for the licence, permit or certificate of registration;
 - (c) if the holder is found guilty of an offence against a law in force in the Territory, or an offence in a State or another Territory of the Commonwealth, (whether committed before or after the granting of the licence, permit or certificate) relating to a firearm or the possession or use of a firearm or any other offence that, in the opinion of the Commissioner, makes the holder not fit to possess or use a firearm or to hold a licence, permit of the kind held or a certificate;
 - (d) in the case of a licence or permit, if the holder contravenes a condition of the licence or permit;
 - (e) if the Commissioner is of the opinion that the holder is no longer a fit and proper person to hold the licence, permit or certificate;
 - (f) in the case of a firearms dealer licence, if:
 - (i) the holder is not in charge of the premises used under the licence to carry on the business;
 - (ii) the holder no longer deals in firearms; or
 - (iii) the premises used under the licence to carry on the business are no longer satisfactory for that purpose;
 - (g) in the case of a firearms armourer licence, if:
 - (i) the holder is not in charge of the premises used under the licence to carry on the business;

- (ii) the holder no longer repairs or stores firearms; or
 - (iii) the premises used under the licence to carry on the business are no longer satisfactory for that purpose;
 - (h) in the case of a firearms collector licence, if:
 - (i) the holder of the licence is no longer a bona fide collector of firearms or is not, or will no longer be, in charge of the premises where the firearms are usually kept; or
 - (ii) the premises where the firearms are usually kept are no longer satisfactory for the storage or safe keeping of the firearms;
 - (j) in the case of a firearms corporate licence, if:
 - (i) the holder no longer has a good reason for employees to possess or use firearms; or
 - (ii) the holder's premises are no longer satisfactory for the storage or safe keeping of firearms; or
 - (k) in the case of a firearms employee licence, if the holder is no longer an employee of the holder of the firearms corporate licence or is no longer carrying out the duties in relation to which the licence was granted.
- (4) The revocation of a licence, permit or certificate of registration under this section takes effect when notice is served on the holder or on a later date specified in the notice, whether or not an appeal is lodged against the revocation.
- (5) A person must, immediately after a notice under this section is served on him or her, or where in the notice the person is allowed time to sell or otherwise dispose of the firearm, not later than the time so allowed:
- (a) surrender the revoked licence, permit or certificate of registration to the Commissioner; and
 - (b) subject to section 44, deliver a firearm in respect of which the licence, permit or certificate was granted to a member of the Police Force.

Penalty: $5,000 or imprisonment for 12 months.

41 Surrender by holder

- (1) The holder of a licence, permit or certificate of registration may, by written notice to the Commissioner accompanied by:
 - (a) the licence, permit or certificate; or
 - (b) a statutory declaration setting out the reasons why the licence, permit or certificate is not accompanying the notice,surrender the licence, permit or certificate.
- (2) The surrender of a licence, permit or certificate of registration under subsection (1) takes effect when the notice is received by the Commissioner.

42 Suspension by police officer

- (1) A member of the Police Force in charge of a police station or with the rank of senior sergeant or higher may, by written notice served on the holder of a licence, permit or certificate of registration, suspend the licence, permit or certificate:
 - (a) on the request of the holder;
 - (b) if the holder has been charged with an offence against a law in force in the Territory or in a State or another Territory of the Commonwealth relating to firearms (or any other offence that, in the opinion of the Commissioner would, if the person is found guilty, render the person not fit to possess or use a firearm or to hold a licence, permit or certificate of the kind held) and is awaiting the hearing of the charge;
 - (c) if the member believes on reasonable grounds that the holder is suffering from a physical or mental infirmity or incapacity and, as a result of possessing a firearm, may be a danger to the safety of the person or to another person, or to property;
 - (d) after receiving a report under section 101; or
 - (e) if the member believes, on reasonable grounds, that the person has made a statement that is false or misleading in a material particular in the application for the licence, permit or certificate.

- (2) A person must, immediately after a notice under subsection (1) is served on him or her or not later than the period specified in the notice, deliver to a member of the Police Force or to a person nominated by the person and approved by a member:

- (a) the licence, permit or certificate of registration; and
- (b) the firearm to which the notice relates.

Penalty: $5,000 or imprisonment for 12 months.

43 Application after refusal, &c.

Where the Commissioner refuses to grant or revokes a licence, permit or certificate of registration, the applicant or the former holder may not apply for a licence or permit of the same type or for a certificate of registration:

- (a) until the conditions, if any, specified in the notice of refusal or revocation are met; or
- (b) during a period specified in the notice.

44 Disposal of firearms

- (1) Where the Commissioner under section 40 allows a person time to sell or otherwise dispose of a firearm, the person must, within the time specified in the notice of revocation, sell or otherwise dispose of the firearm, unless he or she institutes an appeal under this Act against the Commissioner's action.
- (2) A person who sells or disposes of a firearm under this section or section 54, or under an order of a court under section 102(1), must, not later than 2 working days after the sale or disposal, give to the Commissioner, by written notice, the approved particulars concerning the sale or disposal.

Penalty: $5,000 or imprisonment for 12 months.

Part 7 Safe keeping of firearms

45 General requirement

- (1) A person in possession of a firearm must take all reasonable precautions to ensure that:
- (a) it is kept safely;
 - (b) it is not stolen or lost; or

- (c) it does not come into the possession of a person who is not authorised to possess it.

Penalty: $5,000 or imprisonment for 12 months.

- (2) The Regulations may specify the precautions that are taken to be reasonable precautions for the purposes of this section.

46 Storage and safe keeping requirements

- (1) A person in possession of a firearm must comply with the storage and safe keeping requirements under this Act that apply to the firearm.

Penalty: $5,000 or imprisonment for 12 months.

- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to a person who satisfies the Commissioner that the person has provided alternative arrangements for the storage of a firearm in the person's possession that are of a standard not less than the requirements under this Act.

47 Seizure of firearms if storage requirements not met

A member of the Police Force may seize a firearm or ammunition that the member has reasonable grounds to believe is not being stored in accordance with this Act.

Part 8 Premises used by firearms clubs and for shooting activities

48 Premises used by firearms clubs and for shooting activities

Penalty: $500 or imprisonment for 14 days.

91 Requirements, &c., to be complied with

A person must not refuse or fail to comply with a requirement or direction lawfully made or given by the Commissioner or a member of the Police Force under this Act.

Penalty: $2,000 or imprisonment for 6 months.

Part 12 Miscellaneous

Division 1 Recognition of interstate licences

92 Temporary recognition of interstate licences for shooting competition

A person who is a resident of a State or another Territory of the Commonwealth is not required to hold a licence to possess or use category A firearms, category B firearms, category C firearms or category H firearms:

(a) for the purpose of participating in an approved shooting competition; or

(b) for such other purposes as may be prescribed, if the person is the holder of a corresponding licence.

93 Interstate residents moving to the Territory

(1) A resident of a State or another Territory of the Commonwealth who is the holder of a corresponding licence authorising the possession or use of category A firearms or category B firearms may notify the Commissioner in writing that he or she intends to reside in the Territory.

(2) If the Commissioner is notified in accordance with subsection (1), the corresponding licence is, subject to any direction of the Commissioner, to be taken to be a licence authorising the possession or use of a firearm of the equivalent category of firearm in force in the Territory for 3 months from the time the person notified the Commissioner or until the person's application for a licence under this Act is granted or refused, whichever is sooner.

(3) If a resident of a State or another Territory of the Commonwealth who is the holder of a corresponding licence authorising the possession or use of category C firearms, category D firearms or category H firearms notifies the Commissioner in writing that the person intends to reside in the Territory, the corresponding licence is, subject to any direction of the Commissioner, to be taken to be a licence authorising the possession or use of the equivalent category of firearm in force in the Territory for a period of 2 days from the time the person notified the Commissioner.

- (4) After the expiry of the period referred to in subsection (3), a person who:

(a) has duly notified the Commissioner in accordance with that subsection; and

(b) applied for a licence before the expiry of the period, does not, while the person's application for a licence is being determined, commit an offence under this Act in respect of the possession of a firearm.

Division 2 General

94 Commissioner may require firearm to be lodged

- (1) Where the Commissioner refuses to grant a permit or certificate of registration, the Commissioner may direct the applicant to lodge a firearm to which the application relates with the Commissioner or the holder of a firearms dealer licence for the period specified by the Commissioner.
- (2) A person to whom a direction is given under subsection (1) must not contravene or fail to comply with the direction.

Penalty: $5,000 or imprisonment for 12 months.

95 Police may request names and addresses

A member of the Police Force may require a person who is in possession of a firearm or a silencer to state his or her name and address and the person must not:

- (a) refuse or fail to comply with the requirement;
- (b) give to the member a name that is false in a material particular; or
- (c) give to the member an address that is not the person's full and correct residential address.

Penalty: $2,000 or imprisonment for 6 months.

96 Police may require production of licences, &c.

- (1) A person, when in possession of a firearm, must:
- (a) carry the relevant licence or permit relating to the firearm;
 - (b) where the firearm is a category C firearm, category D firearm or category H firearm, carry the certificate of registration in respect of the firearm; and
 - (c) when requested by a member of the Police Force, produce the licence, permit or certificate of registration for inspection by the member.
- (2) When requested by a member of the Police Force, a person in possession of a category A firearm or category B firearm must produce to the member or another member the person's certificate of registration or permit, as the case may be, in respect of the firearm not later than the time, and at the place, that the member specifies.
- (3) When requested by a member of the Police Force, a person in whose name a firearm is registered must produce the firearm for inspection by the member or another member.

Penalty: $2,000 or imprisonment for 6 months.

97 Searches in emergencies

- (1) A member of the Police Force may:
- (a) in circumstances of such seriousness and urgency as to require and justify immediate search or entry without the authority of an order of a court or a warrant; or
 - (b) where the member believes on reasonable grounds that a disqualifying offence has been, is being or is about to be committed,
- at any time, without warrant:
- (c) search a person reasonably suspected by the member to be carrying a firearm or anything connected with an offence against this Act and the clothing being worn by, and the property in the immediate control of, the person; or

- (d) enter into or on and search any premises, vehicle, aircraft or vessel on or in which the member believes on reasonable grounds that:
 - (i) a firearm or anything connected with an offence against this Act is situated; or
 - (ii) a person, who is in danger because of the possession of a firearm by the person or by some other person, may be,

and if the member believes on reasonable grounds that it is necessary to do so in order to prevent danger or injury to a person or the loss or destruction of anything connected with an offence against this Act, the member may seize anything that the member finds in the course of the search, on or in the premises, vehicle, aircraft or vessel.

- (2) A member of the Police Force who believes on reasonable grounds that a person is carrying a firearm, and the person or some other person may be in danger because of the possession of the firearm, may stop the person and search the person for the firearm and seize any firearm found on the person.
- (3) A member of the Police Force who believes on reasonable grounds that a firearm is being carried in a vehicle, aircraft or vessel and that a person may be in danger because of the carriage of the firearm, may stop and enter and search the vehicle, aircraft or vessel and seize any firearm found in it.
- (4) Except in circumstances referred to in subsection (1)(a), a person is not to be searched under this section except by a person of the same sex.
- (5) In this section, firearm includes ammunition and a silencer.

98 Seizure

A firearm seized by or surrendered to a member of the Police Force under this Act or any other law in force in the Territory may be retained by the member or another member:

- (a) to determine whether an offence against this or any other Act has been committed; or
- (b) until the Commissioner makes a decision under this Act in respect of the firearm.

99 Retention of certain seized firearms

(1) Where a firearm is seized under section 126(2AA) of the Police Administration Act:

(a) if it is not the property of the person involved in the event that led to it being seized, the Commissioner is to return it to its owner within 30 days if satisfied that:

(i) it will not be kept on or in the premises, vehicle or vessel from which it was seized; or

(ii) if it is to be so kept, adequate arrangements have been made to ensure that it is not likely to be used to place any person on or in the premises, vehicle or vessel in imminent danger of suffering personal injury or an aggravation of a personal injury; or

(b) if the firearm is the property of the person involved in the event, the Commissioner may retain it:

(i) for 90 days after its seizure; or

(ii) until the expiration of any period of revocation of a certificate of registration, licence or permit resulting from the person being placed on a restraining order or found guilty of an offence, whichever is the longer period.

(2) The Commissioner may, with the consent of the owner of a firearm to which this section applies, arrange for the firearm to be stored by a person who may lawfully possess the firearm.

(3) A person who stores a firearm under subsection (2) must comply with the directions or conditions, if any, of the Commissioner in relation to the firearm.

Penalty: $5,000 or imprisonment for 12 months.

(4) The Commissioner or a member of the Police Force is not liable for any charge in relation to the storage of a firearm under subsection (2) and any charge is a debt due and payable by the owner of the firearm to the person with whom the firearm is stored.

- (5) A person with whom a firearm is stored under this section must not allow any person (including its owner) to have possession of the firearm except in accordance with the directions or conditions of the Commissioner.

Penalty: $5,000 or imprisonment for 12 months.

- (6) A person must not take possession of a firearm the subject of an arrangement under this section except in accordance with the directions or conditions of the Commissioner.

Penalty: $5,000 or imprisonment for 12 months.

- (7) Despite section 102, all certificates of registration, licences, permits and authorisations under this Act held by a person found guilty of an offence against subsection (5) or (6) are, on the finding of guilt, revoked and all firearms to which they relate are forfeited to the Territory.

100 No liability for loss, &c.

The Territory, the Commissioner or a member of the Police Force is not liable for an act or omission of the Commissioner or a member of the Police Force done or made in good faith in the performance or exercise, or purported performance or exercise, of a power or function under this Act.

101 Report to be made in certain circumstances

- (1) A medical practitioner, psychologist, psychiatrist or social worker who believes on reasonable grounds that, in the interests of public safety, a person is not a fit and proper person to have a firearm in his or her possession or control must report to a member of the Police Force the belief and the material facts on which the belief is based.
- (2) Where a medical practitioner, psychologist, psychiatrist or social worker, acting in good faith, makes a report under or in purported compliance with subsection (1):
- (a) the report is not to be taken to be a breach of confidence or of professional etiquette or ethics or of a rule of professional conduct; and
 - (b) no civil or criminal liability is incurred by reason only of the making of the report.

102 Revocation, disqualification and forfeiture, &c.

(1) Where a court:

- (a) finds a person who is the holder of a licence, permit or certificate of registration guilty of a disqualifying offence; or
- (b) under the Justices Act, orders a person to keep the peace and the person is the holder of a licence, permit or certificate of registration, it is to revoke the licence, permit or certificate of registration (whether or not a firearm to which it relates is implicated in the offence or incident) unless satisfied that the licence, permit or certificate should not be revoked and, subject to subsection (5), may make such other orders in relation to the surrender, delivering up, disposal or safe keeping of a firearm owned or in the possession of the person as it thinks fit.

(2) Where a person is charged with an offence relating to a firearm or involving the use of a firearm and the court finds the person guilty of the offence, it may:

- (a) disqualify the person from holding a specified licence or permit for the period specified by the court;
- (b) subject to this Act, order that a firearm registered in the name of, or in the possession of, the person be forfeited to the Territory; or
- (c) direct that the person must not, within a period of not more than 2 years after the making of the order, apply to register a firearm or to be granted a licence or permit, and subject to paragraph (b) and subsections (4) and (5), may make such other orders in relation to the surrender, delivering up, disposal or safe keeping of the firearm as it thinks fit.

(3) The Commissioner is not to grant a licence or permit to a person referred to in subsection (2)(a) during the period of the disqualification specified by the court.

(4) If the court is satisfied that the person in whose name the firearm is registered:

- (a) is not implicated in the offence, it is not to order the firearm to be forfeited but may order that it be given to that person; or
- (b) is implicated in the offence, it may order that the firearm is forfeited to the Territory.

- (5) A decision or action of the court under subsection (1), (2) or (4) does not affect a power of a person under this Act to revoke or suspend a licence, permit or certificate of registration.

103 Duplicate certificates and licences

- (1) Where the Commissioner is satisfied that a licence, permit or certificate of registration has been damaged, destroyed, lost or stolen, the Commissioner may, on application of the holder, issue to the holder a duplicate in the approved form.
- (2) An application under subsection (1) is to be in the approved form accompanied by the determined fee.

104 Averments

In proceedings for an offence against this Act, an averment in a complaint or information that:

- (a) a specified person was or was not, at a specified time, the holder of a specified licence, permit or certificate of registration;
- (b) a specified firearm is of a specified calibre, category or kind;
- (c) particular markings on a firearm are the marks of a specified manufacturer of firearms;
- (d) a specified firearm was, at a particular time, registered or not registered;
- (e) a licence, permit or certificate of registration was subject to specified conditions at a specified time;
- (f) a time limit prescribed by this Act has or has not expired; or
- (g) a specified area of land was, at a particular time, owned or occupied by a specified person, is evidence of the fact so averred.

105 Evidentiary

Proof that a firearm, ammunition or a silencer was at the material time in or on a place of which a person was:

- (a) the occupier; or
- (b) concerned in the management or control, is evidence that it was then in the person's possession unless it is shown that the person did not know or had no reason to suspect that it was in or on that place.

106 Service of notices, &c.

- (1) A notice or other document required or permitted to be served on a person under this Act may be served:
 - (a) by delivering it to the person;
 - (b) by posting it to the person's last-known place of business or residence;
 - (c) by leaving it at the person's last-known place of business or residence with a person who is apparently over the age of 16 years and living or working there; or
 - (d) in the case of a corporation, by delivering or posting it to the registered office in the Territory or otherwise as provided by the Corporations Law.
- (2) A notice or other document required or permitted to be served on the holder of a firearms employee licence may be served by leaving it with or posting it to the holder of the firearms corporate licence referred to in the firearms employee licence.
- (3) A notice required to be given to the Commissioner may be given to or served on the Commissioner personally or by post or may be given to or served on a member of the Police Force at a police station.

107 Offences by corporations

- (1) If a corporation contravenes or fails to comply with a provision of this Act, each person who is a director of the corporation or who is concerned in the management of the corporation is taken to have contravened the same provision if the person knowingly authorised or permitted the contravention.
- (2) A person may be charged with and found guilty of an offence in accordance with subsection (1) whether or not the corporation is charged with or found guilty of the offence.

108 Commencement of prosecutions

A prosecution for an offence against this Act is to be commenced:

- (a) not later than 12 months after the commission of the offence;
or

- (b) not later than 12 months after the offence is discovered but, in any event, not later than 2 years after the commission of the offence.

109 Regulatory offences

An offence against this Act, other than sections 61, 74(2), 89 and 95, is a regulatory offence.

110 Compensation for surrendering certain prohibited firearms

- (1) This section applies to the following kinds of firearms:
 - (a) a self-loading rimfire or centre-fire rifle;
 - (b) a self-loading shotgun;
 - (c) a pump action shotgun;
 - (d) a prescribed prohibited firearm.
- (2) A person who, before the commencement of this Act, lawfully acquired possession of a firearm to which this section applies is entitled to compensation from the Territory if the firearm is surrendered by or on behalf of the person to a member of the Police Force on or before 30 September 1997.
- (3) The Minister is to determine the amount of compensation payable under this section.
- (4) A firearm surrendered under this section is forfeited to the Territory after compensation for the firearm is paid in accordance with this section.
- (5) The Commissioner is to make arrangements:
 - (a) for the manner in which a firearm is to be surrendered under this section; and
 - (b) for the disposal or destruction of a firearm surrendered under this section, including arrangements ensuring that a surrendered firearm having special historical significance is preserved and dealt with in an appropriate manner.
- (6) Where the application of this section would, but for this subsection, result in an acquisition of a firearm otherwise than on just terms, despite the payment of compensation, the person from whom the firearm is acquired is entitled to receive just compensation for the acquisition and a court of competent jurisdiction may determine the amount of the compensation or make such order as, in its opinion, is necessary to ensure that the acquisition is on just terms.

111 Regulations

The Administrator may make regulations, not inconsistent with this Act, prescribing matters:

- (a) required or permitted by this Act to be prescribed; or
- (b) necessary or convenient to be prescribed for carrying out or giving effect to this Act.

112 Repeal

The Acts specified in Schedule 7 are repealed.

113 Transitional

- (1) In this section, repealed Act means the Firearms Act as in force immediately before the commencement of this Act.
- (2) Where, immediately before the commencement of this Act, a person was the holder of a licence granted under the repealed Act, the person is, on that commencement, deemed to be the holder of an equivalent licence granted under this Act.
- (3) A licence deemed granted under subsection (2):
 - (a) is subject to the same terms and conditions to which the licence was granted under the repealed Act; and
 - (b) remains in force for the same period as the equivalent licence granted under this Act as if it were granted on the commencement of this Act.
- (4) A person who is the holder of a licence deemed granted under subsection (2) may possess, but not use, a prohibited firearm under the licence for the period ending on 30 September 1997.
- (5) A firearm registered under the repealed Act is, on the commencement of this Act, deemed:
 - (a) to be registered under this Act; or
 - (b) in the case of a prohibited firearm, to be registered for the period ending on 30 September 1997.
- (6) The Commissioner may, for the purposes of subsection (2), determine, in respect of a licence granted under the repealed Act, what is an equivalent licence under this Act.

- (7) The Commissioner is, as soon as practicable, after the commencement of this Act, to issue to a person referred to in subsection (2) the licence deemed granted under that subsection.
- (8) Where, immediately before the commencement of this Act, a licence granted under Division 2 of Part 4 of the repealed Act was in force, the licence is, on that commencement, deemed to be an approval in respect of the premises specified in the licence.
- (9) Where, immediately before the commencement of this Act, a person was the holder of a temporary permit granted under the repealed Act, the person is, on that commencement, deemed to be the holder of a permit granted under this Act for the same purpose and subject to the same terms and conditions to which the temporary permit under the repealed Act was subject.
- (10) The register kept under the repealed Act is the register for the purposes of this Act.
- (11) The members of the Firearms Appeal Tribunal appointed under section 41 of the repealed Act are, on the commencement of this Act, the members of the Tribunal for the remainder of the period for which they were appointed under the repealed Act.
- (12) The secretary of the Firearms Appeal Tribunal established under section 41 of the repealed Act is, on the commencement of this Act, the secretary of the Tribunal.
