- (11) If a statement required by a provision of this section to be lodged with the Registrar is not lodged in accordance with the provision or, if lodged, does not comply with the provision, each person required or authorized by the provision to sign the statement shall, unless he proves that he took all reasonable steps to ensure compliance with the provision, be guilty of an offence against this Act.

Penalty: $200. Default penalty.

- (12) Where, by reason of a person commencing to carry on business under a business name registered under this Act, a statement is lodged with the Registrar in accordance with subsection (5), neither that person nor any other person shall be guilty of an offence against section 5 by reason only that, before the lodging of the statement, he carried on business under that name.
- (13) Any statement required to be lodged with the Registrar under this section with respect to any matter may be combined with a statement required to be lodged under this section with respect to another matter.
- (14) A statement lodged under this section shall, if a fee for the lodging of the statement is prescribed, be accompanied by that fee.

13 Duty to furnish information

- (1) The Registrar may, by notice in writing, require any person to furnish within a period specified in the notice (being a period of not less than 28 days), or within such further period as the Registrar may, before the expiration of that period, allow, such information as appears to the Registrar to be necessary to enable him to ascertain whether or not a person:
- (a) is carrying on business either alone or in association with other persons under a business name that is required to be registered under this Act; or
 - (b) has failed to lodge with the Registrar a statement required to be lodged under this Act.
- (2) A person required under subsection (1) to furnish information to the Registrar shall, within the period specified in the notice, or within such further period as the Registrar has allowed, furnish such information as it is within his power to furnish and shall not furnish any information which to his knowledge is false in any material particular.

Penalty: $200.

- (3) A person shall not be excused from furnishing any information where required to do so under subsection (1) on the ground that the information might tend to incriminate him or make him liable to a penalty but the information furnished by him shall not be admissible in evidence against him in any proceedings civil or criminal.

14 Disability of persons in default

Where a person carrying on business under a business name in contravention of section 5, or a person who, being required to lodge a statement under section 12 in relation to a business name, fails to lodge that statement, commences any suit or action in that business name or in respect of a cause of action arising out of any dealing in or under that business name, the court before which the suit or action is commenced may order the person to cease to contravene section 5 or to cause the statement to be lodged, as the case may be, and may stay all proceedings in the suit or action until the order is complied with or may allow the proceedings to be continued on an undertaking being given by the person that he will comply with the order within such time as is limited by the court.

15 Signing of statements

- (1) Any statement lodged with the Registrar under this Act shall be deemed to be signed by a person who is required to sign the statement if:
 - (a) in the case of an individual – it is signed on his behalf by a person authorized in writing to so sign the statement; or
 - (b) in the case of a corporation – it is signed by a director or manager or the secretary of the corporation.
- (2) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, where the Registrar is satisfied that it is not practicable to obtain the signature of a person required by this Act to sign a statement, the Registrar may accept the statement for registration without its being signed by that person, but a person is not relieved of the requirement to sign a statement and a statement not signed by any person is not evidence relating to that person's interest in a business by reason only of its registration under this Act.

16 Verification of particulars

The Registrar may in a particular case, if he thinks fit, refuse or accept a statement required to be lodged with him under this Act unless the particulars set out in the statement are verified by a statutory declaration made by a person who signed the statement.

17 Penalty for false statement

A person shall not sign or lodge with the Registrar a statement made or purporting to be made for the purposes of this Act which to his knowledge is false in any material particular and a person shall not authorize or permit the lodging with the Registrar of such a statement which to his knowledge is false in any material particular.

Penalty: $200 or imprisonment for 3 months or both.

18 Notice of proposed cancellation

- (1) Where the Registrar has reasonable cause to believe that a person or persons in relation to whom a business name is registered under this Act is not or are not carrying on business in the Territory under that name, he may send by post a notice addressed to the person or persons at the place shown in the register as the place where business is carried on under that name enquiring whether the person is or the persons are carrying on business under the name stating that, unless the Registrar is satisfied within one month from the date of the notice that business is being carried on in the Territory by that person or those persons under that name, the registration of the business name may be cancelled.

- (2) Where the Registrar has reasonable cause to believe that any provision of section 12 which is required to be complied with by or on behalf of the person or persons in relation to whom a business name is registered under this Act has not been complied with, he may send by post a notice addressed to the person or persons at the place shown in the register as the place where business is carried on under that name stating that, unless within one month from the date of the notice that provision is complied with or the Registrar is satisfied that there was in fact no failure to comply with the provision, the registration of the business name may be cancelled.

19 Cancellation of registration

- (1) The Registrar may cancel the registration of a business name:
- (a) if there is lodged with the Registrar a statement under section 12 notifying him that the person or all the persons in relation to whom the business name is registered has or have ceased to carry on business in the Territory under that name and it does not appear from that statement or another statement accompanying that statement that another person has or other persons have commenced to carry on business in the Territory under that name;
 - (b) if the Registrar has sent a notice to any person or persons in respect of the business name under section 18(1) and that person does not, or those persons do not, satisfy the Registrar within one month from the date of the notice that business is being carried on in the Territory by that person or those persons under that name;
 - (c) if the Registrar has sent a notice to any person or persons under section 18(2) and within one month after the date of the notice the provision of section 12 to which the notice relates has not been complied with or the person does not or those persons do not satisfy the Registrar that there was no failure to comply with the provision; or
 - (d) if the business name is registered in relation to a corporation only and the name of the corporation has been struck off any register of corporations kept under the Corporations Law or the corporation has been dissolved.

- (2) The Registrar may, on any grounds which he thinks sufficient, revoke any cancellation by him of the registration of a business name and, in that event, the business name shall be deemed to have continued to be registered as if the registration had not been cancelled.
 - (3) Where the registration of a business name has been cancelled under this section, a person in relation to whom the business name was registered immediately before the cancellation may apply to the Supreme Court for an order directing the Registrar to restore the registration of the business name.
 - (4) On an application under subsection (3), the Supreme Court may, if it is satisfied that the applicant is carrying on business under the business name and that it is just and equitable so to do, make the order applied for upon such terms as the Court thinks fit.
 - (5) Upon the making of an order by the Supreme Court under subsection (4), the business name shall be deemed to have continued to be registered as if the registration had not been cancelled and the Registrar, upon the lodging with him of an office copy of the order, shall make such entries and alterations in the register as he considers necessary for the purposes of the order.

20 Use and exhibition of business name

Where a business name is registered under this Act:

- (a) a person or persons in relation to whom a business name is registered shall not issue or sign in connexion with the carrying on of that business any business letter, statement of account, invoice, official notice, publication, order for goods or receipt unless the business name appears in legible characters thereon;
- (b) the business name shall at all times be displayed in a conspicuous position on the outside of every place at which business is carried on under name; and
- (c) the certificate of registration of the business name shall at all times be exhibited in a conspicuous position at the place where business is carried on under that name or, if there is more than one such place, at the principal place where business is so carried on,

and, in the event of a contravention of this section, each person carrying on business under that name shall, unless he proves that he took all reasonable steps to ensure compliance with this section, be guilty of an offence against this Act.

Penalty: $100. Default penalty.

21 Registrar may correct errors in register, &c.

- (1) The Registrar may, on such evidence as to him appears sufficient, correct any error in any entry in the register or in any certificate of registration of a business name.
- (2) When correcting an error under subsection (1), the Registrar shall not erase or render illegible the original words and shall affix the date upon which the correction was made together with his initials.
- (3) Any entry or certificate corrected under this section shall have the same validity and effect as if the error had not been made.
- (4) The Registrar may accept and register a statement lodged to correct any error in, or to supply any particular omitted from, a statement previously lodged and registered and, in that event, the statement previously lodged and that lodged under this subsection shall be read as one and shall both be incorporated with and form part of the register.

22 Inspection of statements

A person may, on payment of the prescribed fee, inspect any statement, lodged with the Registrar under this Act or filed under the repealed Ordinance, which has not been destroyed in pursuance of section 25 and may make a copy thereof or take extracts therefrom.

- (1) The Registrar shall, upon request in writing by any person and payment of the prescribed fee, issue to that person:

- (2) The Registrar shall not be required to issue a copy, extract or certificate under subsection (1) in respect of a statement or notice which has been destroyed in pursuance of section 25 or in respect of a date or a period ending on a date earlier by more than 12 years than the date of the receipt of the request.

24 Evidence of registration or non-registration

- (1) A document purporting to be:

- (2) A reference in subsection (1)(b) or (d) to an extract or document includes a reference to an extract or document in print-out or other form from a computerized register.

25 Authority of Registrar to destroy documents

The Registrar may, if in his opinion it is no longer necessary or desirable to retain them, destroy or dispose of any statement or notice lodged, filed, received or registered under this Act or under the repealed Ordinance where the registration of the business name or of the firm, individual or corporation, as the case may be, in respect of which the statement or notice was lodged, filed, received or registered has not been in force at any time during the preceding 12 years.

26 Invitations to the public to make deposits or loans

- (1) Where a person is or the members of a firm are carrying on business in the Territory under a business name registered or required to be registered under this Act, no person shall use or make reference to that business name in any invitation to the public or in any advertisement inviting the public to deposit money with or lend money to that person or firm or use or make reference to a business name in connection with any deposit or loan.

Penalty: $1,000.

- (2) This section does not apply to an invitation to the public made by a public company in conformity with the requirements of the Corporations Law.

27 Proceedings against persons under a business name

- (1) Proceedings may be taken in a court of competent jurisdiction against a person or persons in the business name under which the person is or the persons are carrying on business whether or not the business name is registered under this Act and the name shall, for the purpose of the proceedings, be a sufficient designation of the person or persons in all process and other legal documents and instruments and a judgment obtained or order made in such proceedings may be enforced against the person or persons or any of them.

- (2) Where an offence is committed by a person by reason of his failure to comply with a provision of this Act by or under which he is required or directed to do anything within a particular period, that offence, for the purposes of subsection (1) shall be deemed to continue so long as the thing so required or directed to be done by him remains undone, notwithstanding that such period has elapsed.

29 Offences committed by corporations

30 Evidentiary provisions

If, in any proceedings for an offence against this Act, proof is given that a business name has been displayed on any premises, and evidence is given from which the court may infer that the business name has reference to any business carried on at the premises, the person or persons carrying on the business shall, in the absence of proof to the contrary, be deemed to be carrying on the business under that business name.
