- (b) by imprisonment without distress.

85 Finding of guilt or order may impose imprisonment in default of payment of fine, &c.

- (1) When the Court adjudges the payment of any fine or sum of money, it may, in and by its finding of guilt or order, impose a term of imprisonment in default of payment.
- (2) If the Special Act upon which the finding of guilt or order is founded directs or appoints any manner or term of imprisonment, the finding of guilt or order shall be framed accordingly.
- (3) If no manner or term of imprisonment is so directed or appointed, imprisonment may be imposed and for any term which the Court thinks fit, not exceeding the time prescribed by section 81 with reference to the amount to be recovered.
- (4) Where a person has not, under Division 2A, paid the full amount of 2 or more penalties and prescribed costs, or part of them, and the Court or Justice imposes terms of imprisonment in default, the terms of imprisonment shall be cumulative unless the Court or Justice otherwise orders.

86 On proof of default justice may issue warrant of distress or commitment

Whenever a Justice is satisfied that default has been made in the payment of any fine or sum adjudged to be paid, he may issue a warrant of distress or of commitment.

- (b) any sewing machine, type-writing machine, or mangle, the property of or under hire to the defendant.

88      Money may be taken under warrant of distress

A warrant of distress shall be deemed to authorize the person charged with the execution thereof to take any money as well as any goods of the person against whom the distress is levied, and any money so taken shall be treated as if it were the proceeds of sale of goods taken under the warrant.

88A      Powers of person executing warrant of distress

- (1) The person charged with the execution of a warrant of distress is, by operation of this section, authorised for the purpose of executing the warrant to enter and remain on premises he or she believes on reasonable grounds to be owned or occupied by the person against whom the distress is levied.

- (2) Nothing in this section derogates from the powers a member of the Police Force has under any other law in force in the Territory.

89 Justices to adjudicate on adverse claim to goods seized under warrant of distress

- (1) If any claim is made to or in respect of any goods or chattels distrained under the warrant of any Justice, or in respect of the proceeds or value thereof, by:
- (a) any person not being the party against whom the warrant was issued; or
  - (b) any defendant who claims that the goods or chattels are not distrainable under section 87, any Justice, upon complaint of the constable charged with the execution of the warrant (before or after any action brought against the constable), may issue a summons in the prescribed form, directed to the party obtaining the warrant and to the party making the claim.

- (2) Thereupon any action which has been brought in respect of the claim shall be stayed, and the party bringing the claim may be ordered to pay the costs of any proceedings had therein after the service of the Justice's summons.
- (3) Any 2 or more Justices shall adjudicate on the claim, and their order shall, subject to any appeal under this Act, be final and conclusive upon all parties.

91 Form of warrant of commitment to enforce payment of money

- (1) Every warrant of commitment to enforce the payment of any fine or sum adjudged to be paid by any finding of guilt or order shall order the imprisonment of the defendant, unless the sum or sums adjudged to be paid, and also the costs and charges of the warrant of commitment and of taking and conveying the defendant to prison (if the Justice thinks fit so to order), are sooner paid.
- (2) If the conviction or order directs or appoints any manner or term of imprisonment the warrant shall (subject to the provisions of section 94) be framed accordingly.

- (3) If no term of imprisonment is so directed or appointed the Justice issuing the warrant may commit the defendant to imprisonment for any term not exceeding the time prescribed by section 81 with reference to the amount to be recovered.
  - (4) A warrant of commitment referred to in subsection (1) is null and void where, within a period of 10 years after it was issued, it has not been executed.

93           Imprisonment for subsequent offence may commence at expiration of earlier sentence

When a warrant of commitment is issued against a defendant who is then in prison, undergoing imprisonment upon a finding of guilt for any other offence, the warrant of commitment for the subsequent offence shall be forthwith delivered to the keeper of the gaol to whom it is directed, and the Justice issuing the warrant may, if he thinks fit, order that the imprisonment for the subsequent offence shall commence at the expiration of the imprisonment to which the defendant has been previously adjudged or sentenced.

93A       Power to imprison person arrested under warrant of commitment in any gaol

A warrant of commitment, notwithstanding that it is addressed to the keeper of some particular gaol, shall be deemed to be lawfully executed if the defendant is taken and conveyed to any other gaol, and there received into custody, and kept for the time mentioned in the warrant, and the keeper of any such other gaol to which the defendant is conveyed shall have the same power and authority under the warrant as if he were the keeper of the gaol named therein.

94           Reduction of imprisonment or part payment of sums adjudged to be paid

- (1) When any finding of guilt or order adjudges the payment of any fine or sum of money, and any term of imprisonment is imposed upon the defendant in default of payment, the term of imprisonment so imposed shall, upon payment or satisfaction of any part of the fine or sum, be reduced by a number of days bearing, as nearly as possible, the same proportion to the total number of days in the term as the sum paid bears to the sum adjudged to be paid: Provided that in reckoning the number of days by which any term of imprisonment would be reduced under this section the first day of imprisonment shall not be taken into account, and that, in reckoning the sum which will secure the reduction of a term of imprisonment, fractions of a cent shall be omitted.

- (2) Payment under this section may be made to:
- (a) the clerk; or
  - (b) the keeper of any gaol in which the defendant is imprisoned under a warrant of commitment issued in respect thereof.
- (3) When application is made to any Justice to issue a warrant of commitment to enforce any such finding of guilt or order, and it is made to appear to the Justice that any part of the fine or sum thereby adjudged to be paid has been paid, he shall issue his warrant of commitment accordingly for the term as reduced under this section.
- (4) When a warrant of commitment has been issued against any defendant in respect of the non-payment of any fine or sum of money, and payment is made of any part of the fine or sum to the clerk as aforesaid, the clerk shall give to the person making the payment a certificate thereof under his hand.
- (5) Upon receipt of the certificate or of any sum paid under this section, the keeper of any gaol in which the defendant is imprisoned under the warrant of commitment shall endorse a memorandum of the payment, and of the reduction thereby effected, upon the warrant of commitment, which shall thereupon be deemed to have been amended accordingly.

95 Distress to be stayed on payment or tender

96 Defendant to be released upon payment of fine, &c.

When any defendant is imprisoned under any warrant of commitment for non-payment of any fine or other sum, he may pay or cause to be paid to the keeper of the gaol in which he is so imprisoned the sum mentioned in the warrant of commitment, together with the amount of the costs, charges, and expenses (if any) therein also mentioned, and the keeper shall receive the money, and shall thereupon discharge the defendant, if he is in his custody for no other matter.

97 Regulations as to whom penalties, &c., to be paid

- (1) Every warrant of distress shall order the constable, or other person to whom it is directed, to pay the amount of the sum to be levied thereunder to the clerk.
- (2) If any defendant who has been adjudged by any finding of guilt or order to pay any fine or sum of moneys pays the sum adjudged to any constable or other person, the constable or other person shall forthwith pay the amount to the clerk.
- (3) If any defendant who has been committed to prison for non-payment of any fine or sum of money pays the amount, or any part thereof, to the keeper of the gaol in which he is imprisoned, the keeper shall forthwith pay it to the clerk.

98 Application by Clerk

Subject to section 180C(6), upon receipt of any fine or sum of money adjudged to be paid by any finding of guilt or order, or of any part thereof, the clerk shall forthwith pay the amount received as follows:

- (b) if the order is one for the payment of money to the complainant, then to the complainant; or
- (c) in any other case according to the direction of the Special Act, or, if the Special Act contains no directions for payment to any person or persons, then to the Consolidated Revenue Account.

Division 7 Sureties to keep the peace

99 This Act to apply to peace informations

- (1) The power of the Court of Summary Jurisdiction, upon complaint of any person, to adjudge a defendant to enter into a recognizance, and find sureties to keep the peace, or be of good behaviour towards the complainant, shall be exercised by an order upon complaint, and this Act shall apply accordingly.

- (2) The complainant and defendant and their witnesses may be called and examined and cross-examined, and the complainant and defendant shall be subject to costs, as in the case of any other complaint.
- (3) The Court may order the defendant to enter into a recognizance, with or without sureties, to keep the peace, or be of good behaviour, and, in default of compliance with the order, to be imprisoned for any period not exceeding 6 months, and the recognizance if entered into forthwith upon the making of the order may be taken by the Court or any Justice or if entered into subsequently may be taken by any Justice.

100                      Power to vary order with regard to sureties

- (1) When any defendant is committed to gaol in default of finding sureties, as in section 99, he may in person, or by any one acting on his behalf, apply for an order varying that under which he was committed.
- (2) The matter of the application shall be heard and determined by a Special Magistrate, who may inquire further into the case.
- (3) If it appears just, upon new evidence produced, or upon proof of a change of circumstances, the Magistrate, having regard to all the circumstances of the case, may make an order reducing the amount for which it is proposed the sureties should be bound, or dispensing with the sureties or surety, or otherwise dealing with the case as the Court thinks just.

Part V                      Indictable offences

Division 1                Procedure to committal

100A                    Definition

In this Part, prosecutor means the informant, a solicitor or counsel acting for the informant or a solicitor or counsel acting for the Crown.

101                      Information on indictable offence

An information may be laid before a Justice in any case where:

- (a) any person is suspected to have committed any treason, felony, or indictable misdemeanour, or other indictable offence whatsoever, within the Territory; or

- (b) any person suspected to be guilty of having committed any such offence out of the Territory (of which offence cognizance may be taken by the Courts of the Territory) is or is suspected to be within the Territory.

101A      Joinder of charges

- (1) Charges for any offences, whether felonies or misdemeanours, may be joined in the same information if the charges are founded on the same facts or form or are part of a series of offences of the same or a similar character.
- (2) The Justice may, if he thinks just, deal with any charge so joined separately.

102      If warrant to issue information to be upon oath; otherwise oath not necessary

- (1) If it is intended to issue a warrant in the first instance, as hereinafter provided, the information shall be in writing, and the matter thereof shall be substantiated by the oath of the informant or a witness.
- (2) In any other case the information may be by parol and without any oath.

103      Issue of warrant in first instance

Whenever an information is laid before a Justice against any person, and the matter thereof is substantiated by the oath of the informant or a witness, the Justice may, if the defendant is not then in custody, issue his warrant, in the first instance, for the apprehension of the defendant.

104      Issue of summons

Whenever an information is laid before a Justice he may, if the defendant is not then in custody, issue his summons for the appearance of the defendant.

105      Issue of warrant

- (1) If after being duly served with a summons the defendant fails to appear in obedience thereto, and if the matter of the information is or has been substantiated by the oath of the informant or a witness, any Justice may issue his warrant to apprehend the defendant.

- (2) Notwithstanding anything herein contained any Justice may issue his warrant, before or after the time appointed in a summons, for the appearance of a defendant against whom an information for an indictable offence has been duly laid and substantiated as provided in this Act.

105A        Procedure where prosecutor proposes to tender written statements to the Court

- (1) Where a person is charged with an indictable offence, the prosecutor, not later than 14 days, or such shorter period as a Justice may approve, before the date fixed for the taking of the preliminary examination, may give to that person a notice in writing:
- (a) informing him of the time and place of the preliminary examination;
  - (b) stating that the Justice conducting the preliminary examination will be asked to admit written statements as evidence without requiring the attendance of the persons who made the statements; and
  - (c) setting out the terms of this section and section 105B.
- (2) A notice under subsection (1) is not duly given unless it is accompanied by:
- (a) a copy of the information;
  - (b) a list of persons who have made written statements which the prosecutor proposes to tender to the Justice at the preliminary examination;
  - (c) a copy of each of those statements;
  - (d) a list of the documents and things (if any) referred to in those statements which the prosecutor proposes to tender to the Justice at the preliminary examination;
  - (e) where a thing, not being a document, cannot adequately be described in that list, a photograph of that thing; and
  - (f) a copy of each document mentioned in the list.
- (3) A notice and accompanying documents may be given to a defendant in any manner in which a summons issued in respect of an information may be served under this Act.

- (4) The giving of a notice under subsection (3) may be proved in the same manner as the service of a summons.
- (5) Where a notice has been given to a defendant under this section, the prosecutor, not later than 7 days, or such shorter period as a Justice may approve, before the date set down for the preliminary examination, shall file with the clerk a copy of the notice together with a copy of each document and photograph accompanying the notice.
- (6) Where copies are filed with the clerk under subsection (5), he shall transmit them before the preliminary examination to the Justice before whom the defendant will appear for the preliminary examination.
- (7) The prosecutor, if so requested by the defendant or his counsel or solicitor, shall, before the taking of the preliminary examination, permit the defendant or his counsel or solicitor to inspect the documents and things referred to in the list (if any) given to the defendant in pursuance of subsection (2)(d).

105B        Written statements may be admitted in evidence

- (1) Subject to this section, where a prosecutor has duly given notice to a defendant under section 105A, the Justice at the preliminary examination may admit a written statement, a copy of which accompanied that notice, as evidence of the matters stated and the statement shall thereupon constitute depositions of the person who made it.
- (2) A written statement shall not be admitted in evidence by the Justice unless:
  - (a) the accuracy of the statement is verified by the person making the statement by statutory declaration made pursuant to the Oaths Act;
  - (b) it contains:
    - (i) a statement that the person who made it has attained the age of 18 years; or
    - (ii) if the person has not attained that age, a statement of the person's age;
  - (c) it contains a statement that, before he signed it, the person who made it read the statement or had it read to him; and

- (d) if it contains a statement that, before he signed it, the person who made it had it read to him, it contains a further statement indicating whether that person is disabled so that he cannot read it and, if so, the nature of the disablement.
- (3) Where a person has made a written statement which, but for this subsection, would be admissible under subsection (1), that statement shall not be admissible where the defendant, not later than 5 days before the date set down for the preliminary examination, gives notice in writing to the prosecutor that he requires the attendance at the preliminary examination of the person who made the statement.
- (4) Where the defendant gives notice in writing to the prosecutor under subsection (3), he shall file a copy of that notice with the clerk.
- (5) Where the defendant has given notice under subsection (3), he may, at any time before the preliminary examination, notify the informant in writing that he withdraws that notice and this section shall apply as if the notice under subsection (3) had not been given.
- (6) Notwithstanding the failure by the defendant to give notice under subsection (3), he may object at the preliminary examination to a written statement being tendered in evidence and the Justice may, if he thinks fit, uphold the objection and require the person who made the statement to attend and give evidence before him.
- (7) Where, under this section, the Justice admits a written statement, he may, of his own motion, require the person who made the statement to attend before him to give evidence.
- (8) Where it appears to the Justice that any part of a written statement tendered in evidence under this section is inadmissible according to the rules of evidence, he may, where the statement is otherwise admissible under this section, admit that statement, but, where he does so, he shall identify the part that is inadmissible and shall, with reference to that part, write on the statement the words "ruled inadmissible" or words to that effect.
- (9) Where the Justice admits a written statement under this section, the prosecutor may call the person who made the statement to give oral evidence and that person and any other witnesses, not being witnesses called by the accused person, who attend before the Justice:
  - (a) shall be examined in the presence or hearing of the defendant and, if the defendant so desires, in the presence or hearing of his counsel or solicitor; and

- (b) may be cross-examined by the defendant or his counsel or solicitor.
- (10) Where a Justice admits a written statement under this section, the statement:
  - (a) is, for the purposes of sections 116, 131, 139 and 175, a deposition of a witness; and
  - (b) is, for the purposes of section 152 a deposition of a witness notwithstanding the fact that the deposition was not taken in the presence of the defendant.

106                      Preliminary examination where written statements not tendered

Subject to section 106A, where a person appears or is brought before a Justice charged with an indictable offence and a notice has not been given to that person in accordance with section 105A, the Justice shall, in the presence or hearing of the defendant, and if the defendant so desires, in the presence or hearing of his counsel or solicitor, take the preliminary examination or statement on oath of any persons who know the facts and circumstances of the case, and the defendant or his counsel or solicitor may cross-examine those persons.

106A                  Powers of Justices to take plea of guilty without evidence

- (1) Where the defendant appears before a Magistrate and the information charges the defendant with an offence cognisable by a Magistrate under section 120 or 121A, or both, the defendant at any stage of the proceedings, and whether any statement has been taken from any witness or not, may plead guilty to the offence or any of the offences charged against him or her, and the Magistrate at the commencement of the proceedings is to inform the defendant of his or her right so to plead.
- (2) If the defendant pleads guilty to such an offence:
  - (a) the Magistrate shall, in relation to that offence, be the Court of Summary Jurisdiction within the meaning of this Act;
  - (b) the procedure and powers of the Court shall be the same, and the provisions of this Act shall apply, as if the charge were a complaint for a simple offence under this Act; and
  - (c) sections 130A, 131, 132 and 133 shall, so far as they are applicable, apply in respect of the offence, but the plea of guilty may be withdrawn as provided in subsection (3).

- (3) If after the defendant has so pleaded guilty to an offence, the Magistrate, on consideration of any facts stated by the prosecution or given in evidence, is of the opinion that the time for taking the plea should be postponed, the Magistrate may order that the plea of guilty be withdrawn and thereupon all further proceedings in respect of the offence are to be conducted in accordance with this Part; but if any such further proceedings are taken the defendant is not, by reason of his or her plea of guilty, entitled to plead autrefois convict.

107                      Place where examination taken not to be deemed an open Court, and no person to remain without consent

The room or building in which the examination is taken shall not be deemed an open Court for that purpose, and the Justice may, if it appears to him that the ends of justice will be best answered by so doing, order that no person shall have access to or be or remain in the room or building without his consent or permission: Provided that nothing herein contained shall authorize the exclusion of any counsel or solicitor for either party.

108                      Evidence upon oath

- (1) Subject to any law for the time being in force in the Territory in regard to the evidence of aboriginals and children, every witness shall have the usual oath administered to him before he is examined.

108A                    Contemptuous behaviour on preliminary examination

Section 46 shall apply in relation to the preliminary examination before a Justice in the same way as it applies to proceedings before the Court of Summary Jurisdiction and shall be read and construed with all such modifications as are necessary to give effect to this section.

109                      Procedure on completion of the evidence for the prosecution

- (1) When all the evidence offered upon the part of the prosecution has been taken, the Justice then present shall consider whether it is sufficient to put the defendant upon his trial for any indictable offence.
- (2) If the Justice is of opinion that the evidence is not so sufficient, he shall forthwith order the defendant, if in custody, to be discharged as to the information then under inquiry.

- (3) If the Justice is of opinion that the evidence is so sufficient, the Justice may:
- (a) if the charge is one of a minor indictable offence, proceed in the manner directed and under the provisions in that behalf contained in Division 2;
  - (b) unless the defendant is charged with a capital offence, or with manslaughter, ask the defendant whether he wishes to plead to the charge as provided in Division 3, and proceed as thereby directed; or
  - (c) proceed with the examination as provided in the next succeeding sections.

110            Evidence or statement by defendant

- (1) Where the Justice proceeds with the examination, he shall say to the defendant these words, or words to the like effect:

"Having heard the evidence for the prosecution, do you wish to be sworn and give evidence on your own behalf, or do you desire to say anything in answer to the charge. You are not obliged to be sworn and give evidence, nor are you required to say anything unless you desire to do so; but whatever evidence you may give upon oath, or anything you may say, will be recorded, and may be given in evidence upon your trial.

"You are clearly to understand that you have nothing to hope from any promise of favour, and nothing to fear from any threat, which may have been held out to you to induce you to make any admission or confession of your guilt; but that whatever you now say may be given in evidence upon your trial, notwithstanding any such promise or threat."

- (2) Upon the trial of the defendant, any evidence given or statement made in pursuance of this section may be given in evidence.
- (4) Nothing herein contained shall prevent the prosecutor in any case from giving in evidence any admission or confession or other statement of the defendant made at any time, which by law would be admissible as evidence against him.

111            Defendant may call witnesses

- (1) When the defendant has given evidence or made his statement, or has declined to do so, the Justice, before he commits the defendant for trial or admits him to bail, shall ask the defendant whether he desires to call any witness.

- (2) Any witness whom the defendant desires to call shall then be called, and the statement of any such witness who knows anything relating to the facts and circumstances of the case, or any evidence tending to prove the innocence of the defendant, shall be taken.

112                      Procedure on completion of examination

- (1) When the examination is completed the Justice then present shall consider whether the evidence is sufficient to put the defendant upon his trial for any indictable offence.
- (2) If, in the opinion of the Justice, it is not so sufficient, he shall forthwith order the defendant, if in custody, to be discharged as to the information then under inquiry.
- (3) If, in the opinion of the Justice, the evidence is sufficient, he shall:
- (a) direct the defendant to be tried at the first sitting of the Supreme Court exercising its criminal jurisdiction next held after a period of 14 days after a date and at a place specified by the Justice;
  - (b) by his warrant, commit the defendant to a specified gaol or place to which by law he may be committed, to be kept there until delivered so to appear, or grant him bail in accordance with the Bail Act; and
  - (c) cause a record of the direction and the committal or admission to bail to be made in writing.
- (4) Where the defendant is so directed, he shall, subject to any order made by the Supreme Court, be tried accordingly.

113                      Power to remand defendant from time to time

- (1) If from the absence of witnesses, or from any other reasonable cause, it becomes necessary or advisable to defer or adjourn the examination for any time, the Justice before whom the defendant appears or is brought may, from time to time, remand the defendant for such time as in his discretion he deems reasonable, but not exceeding 15 clear days at one time unless both parties consent thereto.
- (2) If the remand is for a time not exceeding 3 clear days, the Justice may verbally order the constable or other person in whose custody the defendant then is, or any other constable or person named by the Justice in that behalf, to continue or keep the defendant in custody, and to bring him before the same or any other Justice acting at the time appointed for continuing the examination.

- (3) If the remand is for any time exceeding 3 clear days the defendant shall be remanded by a warrant of the Justice to gaol, or to some other place of security.
- (4) Any Justice on being satisfied that a defendant who has been remanded into custody is, by reason of illness or accident, unable at the expiration of the period for which he was remanded to appear personally before a Justice, may in the absence of the defendant order him to be kept in custody for such further period as the Justice deems reasonable, but not exceeding 15 days at any one time unless both parties consent to a longer period.
- (5) The warrant for keeping the defendant in custody pursuant to any such order may be issued by the Justice who made the order, or any other Justice.

114            Power to admit to bail in lieu of remand

Instead of detaining the defendant in custody as provided in section 113, any Justice before whom the defendant appears or is brought may grant him bail in accordance with the Bail Act.

115            Power to continue examination before expiry of remand

The Justice who remanded the defendant or any other Justice may, notwithstanding that the defendant has been remanded, order the defendant to be brought before him or any other Justice, at any time before the expiration of the period for which the defendant has been remanded, and any keeper of the gaol or officer in whose custody the defendant is shall duly obey the order.

116            Transmission of documents to Supreme Court upon committal for trial

- (1) Whenever a defendant is committed for trial, the Justice shall forthwith deliver, or cause to be delivered, to the Director of Public Prosecutions the written information (if any), a copy, certified by writing under the hand of the clerk for the relevant district to be a true copy, of a transcript of the record or of the record, as the case requires, of the depositions of the witnesses in the relevant proceeding and all recognizances of witnesses, bail undertakings and conditions of bail entered into.
- (2) The Director of Public Prosecutions shall cause these documents to be delivered to the proper officer of the Court in which the trial is to be had, before or at the opening of the Court, on the first day of the sitting thereof, or at such other time as the Judge who is to preside in the Court at the trial order and appoints.

- (3) Whilst the documents are in the custody of the Director of Public Prosecutions, he shall have and be subject to the same duties and liabilities with respect to the several documents upon a certiorari directed to him, or upon a rule or order directed to him in lieu of that writ, as the Justice would have had, and been subject to, if the documents had not been transmitted to the Director of Public Prosecutions.

117            Binding witnesses by recognizances

- (1) The Justice before whom any witness is examined, or by whom the written statement of any person was admitted in evidence under section 105B, may bind that witness or person, by recognizance, to appear at the Court at which the defendant is to be tried, then and there to give evidence.
- (2) Every witness called by the defendant (except a witness merely to the character of the accused) who, in the opinion of the Justice, gives evidence in any way material to the case, or tending to prove the guilt or innocence of the accused person, shall be bound as provided in subsection (1).
- (3) Any recognizance under this section may be entered into at any stage of the examination, although the defendant has not then been committed for trial; but a recognizance so entered into before committal shall be void if the defendant is not committed for trial.

118            Form of recognizance of witness

- (1) The recognizance shall specify:
  - (a) the Christian name and surname of the witness; and
  - (b) the place of his residence, and, if it is in a city or town, the name of the street and the number (if any) of the house, and whether he is the owner or tenant thereof, or a lodger therein; and
  - (c) his occupation.
- (2) The recognizance shall be entered into and duly acknowledged by the witness before, and be subscribed by, the Justice.
- (3) The recognizances in respect of all or any 2 or more witnesses who are bound in the same sum or penalty may be included in one form or document, and in respect of each witness the recognizance shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been entered into by a separate form or document.

119            Witness refusing to enter into recognizance may be committed to gaol

If any witness refuses to enter into or acknowledge the recognizance the Justice may, by his warrant, commit the witness to the gaol nearest to the place in which the defendant is to be tried, there to be imprisoned and safely kept until after the trial of the defendant, unless in the meantime the witness duly enters into and acknowledges the recognizance before some Justice; but if afterwards, from want of sufficient evidence in that behalf, or other cause, the Justice before whom the defendant is brought does not commit him or hold him to bail for the offence with which he is charged, any Justice may order and direct the keeper of the gaol to discharge any such witness from custody, and he shall be discharged accordingly.

Division 2            Minor offences

120            Minor offences

If it appears to the Court that an offence being dealt with pursuant to section 120 or 121A, having regard to its seriousness, the intricacy of the facts or the difficulty of any question of law likely to arise at the trial or any other relevant circumstances, ought to be tried by the Supreme Court, the Court may conduct a preliminary examination under this Part in relation to the offence.

123A      Charge against a child

126      Witnesses for prosecution may be recalled for a cross-examination

When the evidence of any witness has been taken before the Justices constituting the Court, his evidence need not be taken again, but any such witness shall, if the defendant so requires, be recalled for the purposes of cross-examination.

If the Court dismisses the charge, an order of dismissal shall be drawn up, and a certificate thereof granted to the defendant in the manner provided by section 71.

131        Transmission of documents to Supreme Court and evidentiary value

- (1) When any charge is heard and determined under this Division, the written charge, a copy, certified by writing under the hand of the clerk for the relevant district to be a true copy, of a transcript of the record or of the record, as the case requires, of the depositions of the witnesses in the relevant proceeding, and the finding of guilt, or the order of dismissal, shall be transmitted to the clerk of the Supreme Court, there to be kept among the records of that Court.

131A      Summary jurisdiction in respect of bodily harm and aggravated assault

- (1) The Court constituted by a Magistrate has jurisdiction to hear and determine in a summary manner a charge in respect of an offence against section 186, 188(2) or 189A(1) or (2)(a) of the Criminal Code.

- (2) If the defendant thereupon signifies a desire to plead to the charge, the Justice shall reduce the charge into writing and read the same to the defendant, and say to him, "Are you guilty or not guilty of the offence with which you are charged?".

138 Attendance of witnesses at the criminal Court

- (1) The Justice may bind the prosecutor or any witness by recognizance to appear at the Court before which the defendant is to appear for sentence, in the same manner as if he had been committed for trial: Provided that, unless the Justice when binding the prosecutor or any witness otherwise directs, every such recognizance shall be void unless the defendant, within the time and in the manner prescribed by section 141, withdraws his plea of guilty and substitutes therefor a plea of not guilty.
- (2) Section 119 applies to any witness who refuses to enter into any such recognizance.

139      Transmission of documents to Supreme Court

- (2) Thereupon the defendant:
  - (a) if committed to appear for sentence, shall be deemed to have been committed for trial and the warrant of committal shall be construed accordingly; or

142                      Court to sentence accordingly unless the Judge advises withdrawal of the plea

Subject to section 141, upon the appearance for sentence of a defendant committed or granted bail to appear for sentence, the Court may pass sentence or otherwise deal with the defendant as if he had been arraigned and had pleaded guilty in the Court, and all the same consequences shall ensue as if he had been so arraigned and had so pleaded guilty: Provided that if, for any reason, it appears to the presiding Judge of the Court that the plea of guilty should be withdrawn, he may advise the person to withdraw that plea, and, if the plea be thereupon withdrawn, the defendant shall be deemed to have been committed for trial, and may forthwith, or after adjournment, and notwithstanding that no information has been filed in the Court, be arraigned, and the case shall proceed in the usual course.

- (1) The appeal shall be instituted by notice in accordance with section 172, by entering into such recognizance on appeal as is required under sections 167 and 168 and by payment of the fee specified in section 172.
- (2) Every appeal shall be instituted within one month from the time of the conviction, order, or adjudication appealed against: Provided that where the Judge of the Supreme Court is of opinion that, by reason of the remoteness from the seat of the Court of Appeal of the place at which the conviction, order, determination, or adjudication was effected or made, an extension of the time within which notice of appeal from the conviction, order, determination, or adjudication may be given is reasonable, he may extend that time for such further period, not exceeding 3 months, as he thinks fit.

172 Notice of appeals

- (1) The notice of appeal shall be in writing, and shall be served upon the respondent, and shall state:
- (a) that the appellant appeals to the Supreme Court at the sittings of the Supreme Court for hearing appeals under this Act commencing at Darwin or Alice Springs, as the case requires, on a day specified in the notice in accordance with subsection (2); and
- (b) the nature and grounds of the appeal.
- (2) The day specified in the notice shall be a day on which sittings of the Supreme Court for hearing appeals under this Act will, in accordance with the rules of the Supreme Court, if practicable, commence at Darwin or Alice Springs, whichever is nearer to the place at which the decision appealed against was made and shall be the first such day after the expiration of 21 days from the service of the notice.

- (3) Two copies of the notice of appeal shall be served upon the clerk of the Justices whose decision is appealed against, and shall be accompanied by the prescribed fee or, where there is no prescribed fee, a fee of $3.

173      Hearing of appeals

An appeal shall unless it has been summarily dismissed be heard at the sittings of the Supreme Court for hearing appeals under this Act commencing at Darwin or Alice Springs, as the case requires, on the day specified in the notice of appeal in accordance with section 172(1), or if sittings are not commenced there on that day, the first sittings commencing there after that day; but this section shall not affect the power of the Supreme Court to adjourn the hearing to any time or place it thinks fit.

174      Convictions, &c., to be transmitted to Supreme Court

- (1) When notice of appeal is served pursuant to section 172 and the fee mentioned in that section is paid the Justices by whom the conviction, order, or adjudication is made shall cause the conviction, order, or adjudication to be forthwith transmitted to the clerk or other proper officer of the Supreme Court, there to be kept among the records of that Court.
- (2) In any subsequent proceeding relative thereto the conviction, order, or adjudication, or a copy thereof certified by the proper officer of the Supreme Court under his hand, shall be sufficient evidence thereof.

175      Transmission of copy of depositions to Supreme Court on appeal

The Justices shall also cause a copy of the notice of appeal, together with the fee paid pursuant to section 172 and a copy, certified by writing under the hand of the clerk for the relevant district to be a true copy, of a transcript of the record or of the record, as the case requires, of the depositions of the witnesses or all exhibits tendered in the relevant proceeding to be transmitted with the conviction, order, or adjudication.

175A      Transmission of documents to Supreme Court deemed to be a tendering in evidence to that Court

Where, under section 174(1) or 175, a document or exhibit referred to in either of those sections is transmitted to the Supreme Court, the transmission of the document or exhibit shall be deemed to be a tendering in evidence to that Court of that document or exhibit.

176          Evidence on appeal

Subject to section 176A, no evidence shall be received on the hearing of the appeal other than such documents or exhibits as are mentioned in sections 174 and 175 and a record, made by means of sound-recording apparatus or shorthand, of the depositions of a witness in the relevant proceeding produced out of the custody of the clerk for the relevant district, except by consent of the parties.

176A      Tendering of evidence to Supreme Court

- (1) Where evidence is tendered to the Supreme Court, that Court shall, unless it is satisfied that the evidence, if received, would not afford a ground for allowing the appeal, admit that evidence if:
  - (a) it appears to it that that evidence is likely to be credible and would have been admissible in the proceedings from which the appeal lies on an issue which is the subject of the appeal;
  - (b) it is satisfied that that evidence was not adduced in those proceedings and there is a reasonable explanation for the failure to adduce it; and
  - (c) it is satisfied that the appellant has complied with the requirements of subsections (2) and (3) in respect of that evidence.
- (2) An appellant shall not, under subsection (1), tender evidence to the Supreme Court unless he has, not less than 7 days before the hearing of the appeal to which the evidence relates is commenced by that Court, given, subject to subsection (3), written notice to the other party to the proceedings of the evidence to be so tendered including, where such evidence is to be given by a person, irrespective of whether it is to be given orally or by affidavit, the name, address and occupation of the person.

- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2), an appellant shall give a notice referred to in that subsection by delivering or leaving it at, or by sending it by registered post service to, the last known residential or business address of:
- (a) the other party to the proceedings; or
  - (b) the solicitor, if any, of the other party to the proceedings.

177 Procedure and power of Supreme Court on appeal

- (1) Every appeal shall be heard and determined by the Supreme Court in a summary way, and according to the rules of practice in force with reference to the proceedings of the Court in that behalf, and the Supreme Court shall have all the powers and duties, as to amendment and otherwise, of the Justices whose decision is appealed from.
- (2) Upon the hearing of the appeal the Supreme Court may:
- (a) adjourn the hearing from time to time;
  - (b) mitigate or increase any penalty, forfeiture, or sum;
  - (c) affirm, quash, or vary the conviction, order, or adjudication appealed from, or substitute or make any conviction, order, or adjudication which ought to have been made in the first instance;
  - (d) remit the case for hearing or for further hearing before the Court of Summary Jurisdiction;
  - (e) make such further or other order as to costs or otherwise as it thinks fit; or
  - (f) notwithstanding that it is of the opinion that the point raised in the appeal might be decided in favour of the appellant, dismiss the appeal if it considers that no substantial miscarriage of justice has actually occurred.
- (3) The Supreme Court may upon such terms as it thinks fit at any time before the order of dismissal is drawn up and sealed reinstate any appeal dismissed for want of prosecution.

178 If costs not paid according to order of Supreme Court, certificate to be granted

- (1) When the Supreme Court makes any order as to the costs of the appeal it shall direct the costs to be paid to the Master or other proper officer of the Supreme Court, to be by him paid over to the party entitled thereto, and may state a time within which the costs are to be paid.
- (2) If the costs are not paid within the time so limited (or if no time is so limited, then within 7 days) the Master or other proper officer of the Supreme Court, upon application of the party entitled to the costs of any person on his behalf, and on payment of the fee of 10 cents, shall grant to the party so applying a certificate that the costs have not been paid.

179 Enforcement of payment of costs of appeal

- (1) Upon production of the certificate mentioned in section 178 to any Justice the payment of the costs may be enforced in the same manner as is provided by this Act for enforcing the payment of costs awarded by Justices, or by putting the recognizances (if any) in suit, or in both of those modes.
- (2) The payment of the costs may be enforced under the same warrant as any penalty or sum adjudged to be paid by any conviction or order affirmed or made upon the appeal.

the Court may amend the information or complaint upon such terms as may be just.

183A Complaint and information may be joined in certain circumstances

Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, where the Court has jurisdiction to deal with both:

- (1) No finding of guilt or order of the Court, or other proceeding before Justices, shall be void or voidable, or liable to be quashed, annulled, or set aside in any manner, by reason of any deficiency in the statement of the offence therein described, if the offence is stated in the words of the Special Act, or if it appears that the offence was one against the true intent and meaning of the Special Act.
- (2) No judgment, finding of guilt, or order of the Court, or other proceeding before Justices, shall be quashed or set aside for any mere matter of form or technical error, or mistake in any name, date, or title, or in any matter of description only; but in all cases regard shall be had alone to the substantial merits and justice of the case.

One copy shall be certified by the person or one of the persons constituting the Court by which the finding of guilt or order was made or by the clerk of the relevant district or by the deputy of the clerk.
- (2) No proof shall be required of the signature or judicial or official character of the person appearing to have signed any such copy as is referred to in subsection (1).
- (3) This section shall apply to any finding of guilt whether made before or after the commencement of this Act, and shall be in addition to and not in substitution for any other enactment providing a mode of proving findings of guilt or orders.

Division 2      Habeas Corpus
