LEGAL PRACTITIONERS REGULATIONS

Regulations under the Legal Practitioners Act

1 Citation

These Regulations may be cited as the Legal Practitioners Regulations.

1A Admission fees

For the purposes of section 14A(1) of the Act, all applicants for admission are in one class and the admission fee in respect of that class is $100.

2 Section 20(3) prescribed fee

For the purposes of section 20(3) of the Legal Practitioners Act the prescribed fee is $500.

2A Functions of holder of restricted practising certificate class 3 under section 22(3B)

- (1) Subject to subregulation (2), a legal practitioner who holds, or is to be deemed to hold, a restricted practising certificate class 3 may perform all the functions of a legal practitioner on behalf of:
 - (a) his employer; and
 - (b) where his employer is a corporation within the meaning of the Corporations Act 2001, any other such corporation as is described in subregulation (3).
- (2) A legal practitioner who holds, or is to be deemed to hold, a restricted practising certificate class 3 shall not:
 - (a) receive or hold trust moneys; or
 - (b) perform legal work for a person who is an employee, director or office-bearer of the practitioner's employer, or of a corporation described in subregulation (3), unless the work relates directly to the functions performed by that person in the business of the employer or that corporation.

- (3) The corporations referred to in subregulation (1)(b) are:
- (a) any corporation which is related within the meaning of section 7(5) of the Corporations Act 2001 to the employer;
 - (b) any corporation:
 - (i) for which the employer has agreed to provide legal services or general management services; and
 - (ii) of which the employer, or a corporation related as mentioned in paragraph (a) to the employer, is a shareholder; and
 - (c) any corporation which is involved in a joint venture with the employer, or with a corporation within paragraph (a) or (b), where the employer has agreed to provide legal services or general management services for that joint venture.

2B Employment counting towards unrestricted practising certificate

The following departments, bodies and organizations are prescribed for the purposes of section 25(1)(c) of the Act:

The Attorney-General's Department of the Commonwealth of Australia

The Northern Land Council

The Central Australian Aboriginal Legal Aid Service Inc.

The Central Land Council

The Katherine Regional Aboriginal Legal Aid Service Inc.

The Law Society Northern Territory

The Northern Australian Aboriginal Legal Aid Service Inc.

The Solicitor for the Northern Territory

The Northern Territory Legal Aid Commission

The Office of the Director of Public Prosecutions

The Parliamentary Counsel's Office of the Department of the Chief Minister.

The Pitjantjatjara Council Inc.

3 Practising certificate fees

For the purposes of section 32(1) of the Act, the prescribed amount is:

- (a) for an unrestricted practising certificate where the applicant is not a visiting counsel, $1,000;
- (b) for an unrestricted practising certificate where the applicant is a visiting counsel, $1,000; and
- (c) for a restricted practising certificate, $800.

4 Notice by interstate legal practitioner of commencing to practise

For the purposes of section 134J(1) of the Act, an interstate legal practitioner must lodge a written notice within 10 working days after commencing to practise in the Territory.

5 Legal assistance rules

- (1) The provisions of this regulation are the legal assistance rules for the purposes of section 51(8A) of the Act.
- (2) The Complaints Committee may only direct a legal practitioner in accordance with section 51(8)(b) of the Act if:
 - (a) the person is unable to pay the costs of a legal practitioner in the matter; and
 - (b) there are compelling reasons why the person should be assisted by a legal practitioner.
- (3) For the purposes of subregulation (2)(b), compelling reasons include, but are not limited to, the following:
 - (a) the person would be severely disadvantaged because of the person's limited English skills, intellectual capacity or education or because of some other reason that is accepted by the Complaints Committee;
 - (b) the complaint raises issues that are of general application, in the public interest or particularly complex.
