163 Vicarious liability of the Crown

- (1) Subject to subsection (3), the Crown is liable in respect of a tort committed by a member in the performance or purported performance of his duties as a member in like manner as a master is liable in respect of a tort committed by his servant in the course of the employment of that servant and, shall in respect of such tort, be treated for all purposes as a joint tortfeasor with the member.
- (2) In proceedings by way of a claim for damages in respect of a tort, the acts done by a member in the performance or purported performance of his duties as a member may be relied on as constituting contributory negligence by the Crown if the acts could have been so relied on if they had been done by an employee of the Crown in the course of his employment.
- (3) The liability of the Crown under subsection (1) in respect of a tort committed by a member does not extend to a liability to pay damages in the nature of punitive damages in respect of the tort.
- (4) Where damages or costs, other than damages in the nature of punitive damages, are awarded against a member in proceedings with respect to a tort committed by a member in the performance or purported performance of his duties as a member, the Crown may pay the whole or a part of the damages or costs awarded against the member and any costs incurred, and not recovered, by him in the proceedings.
- (5) Where a sum is liable to be paid by a member under a settlement agreed to by him of a claim that has, or might have, given rise to proceedings of the kind referred to in subsection (4), the Crown may pay the whole or a part of that sum.
- (6) Where the Crown:
 - (a) pays moneys by way of damages or costs in respect of a tort committed by a member, being moneys that the Crown is liable to pay by virtue of subsection (1) or pays in accordance with subsection (4); or

- (b) pays a sum in accordance with subsection (5),
- the Crown may recover, in a court of competent jurisdiction, contribution from the member in respect of the payment.
- (7) In proceedings for contribution under subsection (6), the amount of the contribution recoverable is such amount as is found by the court to be just and equitable in all the circumstances.
- (8) For the purposes of this section, any act done, or purported to have been done, by a member in the capacity of a Special Constable, an Aboriginal Community Police officer or Police Cadet shall be deemed to have been done in the performance, or purported performance, as the case may be, of his duties as a member.

164 Certificate of appointment

- (1) The Commissioner may issue to a member a certificate under his hand certifying that, on a specified date, the member was appointed to be a member of the Police Force, a Special Constable, an Aboriginal Community Police officer or a Police auxiliary, as the case may be.
- (2) The production, in any proceedings, of the certificate of the kind referred to in subsection (1) is prima facie evidence of the facts stated in the certificate and unless the contrary is proved, a document purporting to be such a certificate shall be deemed to be such a certificate and shall be deemed to have been duly issued.

165 Police Gazette

- (1) The Commissioner may authorize the publication of a document to be known as the Police Gazette containing such orders, instructions, determinations, directions, notices and other things:

166 Sale of goods

- (1) Subject to the Classification of Publications, Films and Computer Games Act, any goods and chattels which have lawfully come into the possession of a member of the Police Force in the course of the duties of that member and which remain unclaimed, for a period of not less than 3 months, by a person who has a legal right to those goods or chattels may, after notice has been published in the Gazette of the intention to sell or otherwise dispose of those goods or chattels, be sold by public auction or otherwise disposed of in such manner as the Commissioner directs.
- (2) Notwithstanding the provision of subsection (1), if the goods or chattels described therein are, in the opinion of a member, of a perishable nature, the Commissioner may at any time authorize the sale or other disposal of such goods or chattels in such manner as the Commissioner directs and without publication of prior notice in the Gazette.
- (3) Every sale or other disposal carried out in accordance with this section shall be valid as against all persons.

166AA Medical examinations

- (1) Where the Commissioner proposes to promote or transfer under this Act a member, the Commissioner:

- by notice in writing served on the member, request that member to undergo a medical examination, at a time and place specified in the notice, for the purpose of ascertaining the medical fitness of that member to discharge the duties attaching to the position to which it is proposed to promote or transfer that member.
- (2) A member the subject of a request under subsection (1) shall, at the time and place specified in the request, undergo the medical examination specified in that request.
- (3) Where a medical examination referred to in subsection (1)(a) of a member shows that he does not have the medical fitness to discharge the duties attaching to the position to which it is proposed to promote or transfer him, the Commissioner may, for that reason, refuse to so promote or transfer that member.

- (4) For the purposes of this section, medical fitness, in relation to a member, includes the mental health of the member.

- (1) The Administrator may award a medal, to be known as Police Service Medal, to a member who, subject to subsection (2), has completed 10 years continuous meritorious service in the Territory as a member.
- (2) The Commissioner may determine that a period of service as a member of a police force established by an Act of the Commonwealth or of a police force of a State or another Territory of the Commonwealth, whether that service was performed before or after the commencement of this section, may be counted as part of the service referred to in subsection (1) and that service may be counted accordingly.
- (3) The Police Service Medal shall be in such form, and with such attachments, as the Administrator thinks fit.

- (1) Except with the written approval of the Commissioner, a member of the Police Force shall not, whether within or outside the Territory, engage in any remunerative employment, occupation or business outside the Police Force.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not prevent a member of the Police Force from becoming a member or shareholder of a corporation or an incorporated association but, except as provided by subsection (3), a member of the Police Force shall not take any part in the conduct of the business of the corporation or association otherwise than in the exercise of his rights as a member or shareholder of the corporation or association.
