- (3) In these Regulations, a reference to a spouse or de facto partner of a person is to a spouse or de facto partner with whom the person is living.

 - (a) under the Housing Act as in force at any time, including as in force at any time before the commencement of the Housing Act 1982, received financial assistance to purchase, construct, add to, alter, modify, repair or complete a house; or
 - (b) purchased a house under a scheme referred to in the Housing Act as in force at any time, including as in force at any time before the commencement of the Housing Act 1982.
- (5) Where, under these Regulations, an application for assistance under a Scheme is made by more than one person jointly, a reference in these Regulations to a person in relation to that assistance includes a reference to all those persons or the survivor or survivors of those persons, as the case may be.

6. Rate of interest

- (1) Subject to this Scheme the rate of interest payable by a person on a housing loan advanced under this Scheme is:

the person may apply to the Chief Executive (Housing) to sell the premises and discharge the mortgage and, subject to this Scheme, for an advance from the Chief Executive (Housing) of an amount specified in the application, being an amount not more than the amount used to discharge the mortgage, for the purposes of the purchase of the premises or residential block specified in the application on the same terms and conditions on which the housing loan under clause 4 was granted.

 - (i) the amount required to purchase the premises or residential block specified in the application; and

- (ii) the amount of proceeds referred to in subclause (2) received by the person, whichever is the lesser.

- (4) Notwithstanding subclause (3), the Chief Executive (Housing) may advance to an applicant under that subclause such lesser amount as it determines.

10. Restrictions on advances under clause 9

A housing loan shall not be advanced to a person under clause 9 -

- (a) unless otherwise approved, to enable the person to refinance an existing loan; or
- (b) if the person or a spouse, de facto partner or dependant of the person owns premises in the Territory, other than the premises the subject of the person's housing loan under clause 4 or specified in the person's application under clause 8(1);
- (c) unless otherwise approved, if the person or a spouse, de facto partner or dependant of the person has previously owned premises in the town in the Territory in which is situated the premises or residential block specified in the person's application under clause 8(1); or
- (d) unless the Chief Executive (Housing) is satisfied that the person lives or intends to live in the premises or on the residential block specified in the person's application under clause 8(1).

11. Lapse of grant of transfer of loan arrangements

- (1) Unless otherwise approved, the grant of an application under clause 9(1)(a) lapses immediately on the expiration of 3 months after the date of the grant unless the person to whom that grant relates has:
 - (a) sold the premises owned by the person;
 - (b) purchased the premises or residential block specified in the person's application under clause 8(1); and
 - (c) in the case of the purchase of a residential block, built or, in the opinion of the Chief Executive (Housing), entered into a binding agreement to build, a house on the block.

- (2) Nothing in subclause (1) prevents a person referred to in that subclause from making a further application under clause 8(1).

12. Transferred loan to be secured by mortgage

- (1) A housing loan advanced under clause 9 shall be secured by a mortgage over the premises or residential block in respect of which the loan is made.
- (3) A mortgage referred to in subclause (1) shall be deemed to contain a provision:
- (a) that the mortgagor shall:
- (i) apply all the proceeds referred to in clause 9(2) to the purchase of the premises or the residential block the subject of the mortgage; and
- (ii) where the purchase to which the mortgage relates is of a residential block, complete, to the satisfaction of the Chief Executive (Housing), the erection of a house on the block not later than 12 months, or such longer period as may be approved, after the date of execution of the mortgage; and
- (b) that a failure to comply with paragraph (a) shall be deemed to be a breach of the mortgage and subject to the provisions of the mortgage relating to a breach of the mortgage.

13. Rate of interest

- (1) Subject to this Scheme, the rate of interest payable by a person on a housing loan advanced under clause 9 is the rate that was payable by the person on the housing loan advanced to the person under clause 4, and in respect of which the application for the housing loan under clause 9 related, as at the date of the discharge of the mortgage securing that housing loan.
- (2) Notwithstanding subclause (1), the rate of interest payable on a housing loan advanced under clause 9 shall, with effect on and from the dates determined under subclause (4), be from time to time increased by the Minister by instrument in writing, having given regard to prevailing economic conditions (in particular changes in current bank interest rates and the consumer price index), but:
- (a) shall not be increased by more than 0.5% per annum at a time; and
- (b) shall not be increased if the interest rate payable is equal to or greater than 1% more than the market rate.

- (3) Where the operation of subclause (2) varies the rate of interest payable by a person under this Scheme, the variation so made shall become due and payable on and from the monthly instalment next payable under the housing loan after that variation.
- (4) For the purposes of subclause (2), the dates are those on which the rate of interest would have increased under clause 6(2) in respect of the housing loan advanced under clause 4 to the person, and in respect of which the application for the housing loan under clause 9 related, had the mortgage securing that housing loan not been discharged.

14. Repayment of loan

- (1) A person to whom a housing loan under this Scheme is advanced shall repay the loan to the Chief Executive (Housing), together with such other amounts as fall due for repayment under this Scheme:
 - (a) subject to clause 15, unless otherwise approved, by monthly instalments of not less than 25% of the monthly equivalent of the person's gross weekly income; and
 - (b) not later than 45 years after the date on which the principal is first payable under the housing loan.
- (2) For the purposes of subclause (1)(b) and clause 15(1)(b), the date on which the principal is first payable under a housing loan advanced under clause 9 is the date on which the principal was first payable under the housing loan advanced under clause 4 to the person, and in respect of which the application for the housing loan under clause 9 related.

15. Review of repayment of loan

- (1) The Chief Executive (Housing):
 - (a) may:
 - (i) at the request of the person to whom a housing loan is advanced under this Scheme; or
 - (ii) of its own volition; and
 - (b) shall at the expiration of each period of 3 years after the date on which the principal is first payable under the housing loan,

review the monthly instalments required by clause 14(1) to be made on the loan and, where the Chief Executive (Housing) is satisfied that the review shows that the gross weekly income referred to in that clause in relation to the loan has varied, it may, for that reason, but not otherwise, vary those monthly instalments, either by increasing or decreasing them, so that those monthly instalments are not less than 25% of the monthly equivalent of the person's gross weekly income.

- (2) Where the Chief Executive (Housing) under subclause (1) varies the monthly instalments payable by a person under this Scheme, the variation so made shall become due and payable on and from the date of the monthly instalment next payable under the housing loan after the variation is made.

15A. Rate of interest where not residing in premises

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Scheme, where:

- (a) a person is advanced a housing loan under this Scheme and the mortgage executed in relation to the housing loan has not been discharged; and
- (b) the person to whom the housing loan is advanced does not reside, for whatever reason, in the premises to which the housing loan relates for a period of time, the Chief Executive (Housing) may increase the rate of interest payable on the housing loan, with effect for that period only, to a rate it considers suitable, but that rate must not be greater than 1% more than the market rate.

15B. Fees and charges

- (1) The Chief Executive Officer (Housing) may levy fees and charges associated with administering a housing loan under this Scheme.
- (2) Fees and charges levied under subclause (1) may include, but are not limited to, third party dishonour fees (passed on by a financial institution), valuation fees and administration fees (including arrears management fees).
- (3) Fees and charges levied under subclause (1) are to be paid by the person who is advanced a housing loan under this Scheme.
- (4) Fees and charges levied under subclause (1) are to be approved by the Minister.

16. Building Act

A housing loan under this Scheme shall not be advanced to a person for the purpose of the erection, completion, repair or modification of premises in a manner which does not comply with the Building Act.

17. Commonwealth-Territory housing agreement

For the purposes of paragraph 19(b)(ii) of the Housing Agreement between the Commonwealth of Australia and the Territory dated 24 May 1990, the difference between the amount paid by a person to whom a housing loan is advanced under this Scheme and the amount that would have been payable by that person if the rate of interest on the housing loan was equal to that payable under a Commonwealth Bank of Australia variable home loan is subsidy assistance to be recovered by the Territory, except in the case of hardship, in accordance with that paragraph.

18. Limitation of operation of Scheme

The Chief Executive (Housing) may not grant an application or advance a housing loan under clause 4 after 30 June 1997.

- (b) reject the application.

6. Maximum amount of advance

- (1) The Minister may from time to time, having regard to the market value of dwellings, determine by instrument in writing the maximum amount the Chief Executive (Housing) may advance as a housing loan under clause 4.
- (2) Subclause (1) does not operate so as to require the Chief Executive (Housing) to advance to an applicant the maximum amount determined under that subclause and the Chief Executive (Housing) may advance such lesser amount to an applicant as it determines to be appropriate, but such amount:
 - (a) shall be based on the gross weekly income of the person making the application under clause 3; and

 - (b) shall not be increased if the interest rate payable is equal to or greater than the market rate.

- (4) For the purposes of subclause (2), the dates are those on which the rate of interest would have increased under clause 7(2) in respect of the housing loan advanced under clause 4 to the person, and in respect of which the application for the housing loan under clause 10 related, had the mortgage securing that housing loan not been discharged.

15. Repayment of loan

- (1) A person to whom a housing loan under this Scheme is advanced shall repay the loan to the Chief Executive (Housing), together with such other amounts as fall due for repayment under this Scheme:

(ii) of its own volition; and

(b) shall at the expiration of each period of 3 years after the date on which the principal is first payable under the housing loan, review the monthly instalments required by clause 15(1) to be made on the loan and, where the Chief Executive (Housing) is satisfied that the review shows that the gross weekly income referred to in that clause in relation to the loan has varied, it may, for that reason, but not otherwise, vary those monthly instalments, either by increasing or decreasing them, so that those monthly instalments are not less than 25% of the monthly equivalent of the person's gross weekly income.

(2) Where the Chief Executive (Housing) under subclause (1) varies the monthly instalments payable by a person under this Scheme, the variation so made shall become due and payable on and from the date of the monthly instalment next payable under the housing loan after the variation is made.

the Chief Executive (Housing) may increase the rate of interest payable on the housing loan, with effect for that period only, to a rate it considers suitable having given regard to the person's reason for not residing in the dwelling or premises, but that rate must not be greater than 1% more than the market rate.

- (1) Unless otherwise approved, the grant of an application under clause 11(1)(a) lapses immediately on the expiration of 3 months after the date of the grant unless the person to whom the grant relates:

- (a) may:
- (i) at the request of the person to whom a housing loan is advanced under this Scheme; or

- (2) Where the Chief Executive (Housing) under subclause (1) varies the monthly instalments payable by a person under this Scheme, the variation so made becomes due and payable on and from the date of the monthly instalment next payable under the housing loan after the variation is made.

- (1) Subject to this Scheme, the rate of interest payable by a person on a housing loan advanced under clause 5 is, at the date that interest first becomes payable on the housing loan and for the first 12 months commencing on that date:
 - (a) in the case of a person referred to in clause 4(1)(a) or 4(2):
 - (i) the rate specified in Column 2 of the Table to this clause opposite the range of gross weekly income specified in Column 1 into which the person's gross weekly income, as at the time the application for the loan is made, falls; or
 - (ii) 92.5% of the market rate;

- (3) Subject to subclauses (4) and (5), where, on any anniversary of the date that interest first becomes payable by a person on a housing loan advanced under this Scheme, the interest rate being paid by the person is less than the maximum rate of interest payable under subclause (8), the person is, for the 12 months commencing from that date, to pay the rate of interest that equals the first-mentioned rate of interest as increased by the rate of increase determined by the Minister under subclause (6)(b) in respect of the housing loan.
- (4) At the end of each 5-year period of a housing loan advanced to a person under clause 5, the Chief Executive Officer (Housing) must set the interest rate level for the next 5-year period of the loan at the next level.
- (5) A person is not to pay a rate of interest that is more than the maximum rate of interest payable under subclause (8) and, if it occurs that the rate of interest payable by a person under subclause (3) or (4) becomes more than that maximum rate of interest, the rate of interest payable by the person immediately reduces to be the rate of interest equal to that maximum rate of interest (but which may be varied by the operation of subclause (3) or this subclause).
- (6) Subject to subclause (7), the Minister is from time to time to determine:
 - (a) a rate of interest to be the maximum rate of interest for the purposes of subclause (8)(a); and
 - (b) the rates by which rates of interest paid on housing loans advanced under this Scheme are, from each anniversary of the date that interest first becomes payable on each of the housing loans, to increase (unless a rate of interest payable on a housing loan equals or is more than the maximum rate of interest payable under subclause (8)).

- (7) Where the Minister makes a determination under subclause (6), the Minister:
- (a) is to have given regard to prevailing economic conditions (in particular current bank interest rates and the consumer price index); and
 - (b) in the case of a determination of the rates by which interest rates are to increase (rates of increase) under subclause (6)(b):
 - (i) is to determine the rates of increase in relation to the gross weekly income of persons to whom housing loans are advanced under this Scheme; and
 - (ii) may not determine a rate of increase that is more than 0.5% per annum.
- (8) The maximum rate of interest payable on housing loans advanced under this Scheme is:

 - (b) the rate of interest that is equal to 1% more than the market rate,
- whichever from time to time is the lesser.
- (9) Where the operation of subclause (3) or (5) varies the rate of interest payable by a person under this Scheme, the variation so made becomes due and payable on and from the monthly instalment next payable on the housing loan after that variation.
- (10) Where the gross weekly income of a person contains an amount that is not a whole dollar, the gross weekly income of the person is, for the purposes of the Table to this clause, to be calculated exclusive of that amount.

- (3) For the purposes of the application of clause 7 in respect of a housing loan advanced under clause 11, a reference in that clause to the date that interest first becomes payable on a housing loan is a reference to that date in respect of the housing loan advanced under clause 5 to which the housing loan under clause 11 relates.
