This reprint shows the Act as in force at 6 May 2005. Any amendments that may come into operation after that date are not included.

INTERPRETATION ACT

An Act for the interpretation of Acts and for the shortening of their language and for other purposes

PART I – PRELIMINARY

1. Short title

This Act may be cited as the Interpretation Act. (See back note 1)

2. Repeal and savings

(1) The Ordinances set out in Parts 1, 2 and 3 of the Schedule are repealed.

(2) The laws of the State of South Australia set out in Part 4 of the Schedule cease to have effect in the Northern Territory as laws of the Northern Territory.

(3) Where there is, in an Act, or a law of the State of South Australia in its application to the Northern Territory, made before the commencement of this Act, a word, expression or provision as to which there is no provision in this Act which is appropriate to its interpretation, application or effect but as to which a provision of a law in force before the commencement of this Act would, but for the repeal effected by this section, have continued to be appropriate to its interpretation, application or effect, the provision in that last-mentioned law continues to apply to the word, expression or provision in that first-mentioned law, notwithstanding the repeal effected by this section.

(4) Notwithstanding the repeal effected by this section, in the interpretation, application or effect of a word, expression or provision in an Act, or law of the State of South Australia in its application to the Northern Territory, to or in relation to anything done or suffered before the commencement of this Act, reference shall be made to the law as in force or deemed before the commencement of this Act to be in force at the time when that thing was done or suffered and not to this Act, and that law continues to have effect for that purpose.
3. Application of this Act

(1) Subject to section 2, this Act applies to each Act, and to each Ordinance and Act of the State of South Australia in its application to the Northern Territory, and to each Ordinance of the Northern Territory, whether made before or after the making of this Act, including this Act, as though that law were an Act.

(2) This Act binds the Crown not only in right of the Territory but, so far as the legislative power of the Legislative Assembly permits, the Crown in all its other capacities.

(3) In the application of a provision of this Act to a provision, whether in this Act or in another law, the first-mentioned provision yields to the appearance of an intention to the contrary in that other provision.

4. Application to regulations, &c.

This Act applies, so far as it is applicable –

(a) to and in respect of instruments of a legislative or administrative character made under laws to which this Act applies, and to and in respect of the interpretation, application and effect of such instruments, as if those instruments were Acts; and

(b) without limiting its general application –

(i) to and in respect of references to such instruments of a legislative or administrative character as if they were references to Acts; and

(ii) to and in respect of references to Acts as if they were references to such instruments.

PART II – COMMENCEMENT OF ACTS

5. Meaning of "commencement"

(1) In every Act, the word "commencement", when used with reference to an Act or to an instrument of a legislative or administrative character, being an instrument made, granted or issued under a power conferred by an Act, shall mean the time at which the Act or instrument comes into operation.

(2) Where an Act comes into operation on a particular day, it shall come or be deemed to have come into operation immediately on the expiration of the day immediately preceding that day.
6. Commencement of Acts

   (1) An Act assented to by the Administrator comes into operation on the day on which that assent is declared.

   (2) An Act reserved for the signification of the pleasure of the Governor-General comes into operation on the day upon which notification that the Governor-General has assented to the Act is published in the Gazette.

   (3) Notwithstanding that an Act is expressed to come into operation –

   (a) on a particular day or date or progressively on a number of different days or dates;

   (b) on a date to be fixed by an instrument of a legislative or administrative character; or

   (c) on the happening of a particular event,

   its long title and short title, and the provision so providing for the commencement of the Act, comes into operation on the day on which the Administrator's assent to the Act is declared or, where the Act is reserved for the signification of the pleasure of the Governor-General, on the day on which the notification that the Governor-General has assented to the Act is published in the Gazette.

   (4) A reference in general terms in an Act or an instrument of a legislative or administrative character to the commencement or the day or date of commencement of an Act is a reference to the commencement of the last provision of the Act remaining to be commenced, or the day or date on which that provision was commenced, as the case may be.

7. Evidence of assent, &c.

   (1) The date appearing on a copy of an Act printed by the Government Printer and purporting to be the date upon which assent was given to the Act shall be evidence of that date.

   (2) The date appearing on a copy of an Act printed by the Government Printer and purporting to be the date upon which the assent to the Act was notified in the Gazette shall be evidence of that date.

   (3) The dates appearing on a copy of regulations printed by the Government Printer and purporting to be –

   (a) the date on which the regulations were made; and

   (b) the date on which the regulations were notified in the Gazette, shall be evidence of those dates.

8. Exercise of powers before commencement

(1) Where a provision of an Act is expressed to confer power, or to amend a provision of another Act in such a manner that the other Act, as amended, will confer power, to take any action, including power to make an appointment or to make an instrument of a legislative or administrative character then, before the first-mentioned provision or the second-mentioned provision as amended, as the case may be, comes into operation, that power may be exercised and anything may be done for the purpose of enabling the exercise of that power or of bringing the appointment or instrument into effect.

(2) An action taken by virtue of subsection (1), takes effect –

(a) on the day on which the provision first therein mentioned comes into operation; or

(b) on the day on which the action would have taken effect if that provision had been in operation when the action was taken, whichever is the later day.

9. Amendment before commencement

At any time after a proposed law has been passed by the Legislative Assembly and before it has come into operation –

(a) it may be cited by its proposed short title; and

(b) it may be the subject of a further proposed law to amend or repeal it, and if a provision of an Act to amend or repeal another Act (including a provision relating to the commencement of the Act proposed to be amended) comes into operation before or on the same day as the Act or provision amended or repealed, the Act or provision amended or repealed, as the case may be, shall not come into operation except as amended or for the purpose of making the repeal effective as though the repealed provision had never existed.

10. Amendment in same session

An Act may be amended or repealed in the session of the Legislative Assembly in which it was passed.
PART III – REPEAL AND EXPIRATION OF ACTS

11. Repeal does not revive previous Act

Subject to section 63(10), the repeal of an Act or part of an Act by which a previous Act or part of an Act was repealed, does not without express words have the effect of reviving that last-mentioned Act or part.

12. Effect of repeal

The repeal of an Act or part of an Act does not –

(a) revive anything not in force or existing at the time at which the repeal takes effect;

(b) affect the previous operation of the Act or the part of the Act so repealed, or anything duly done or suffered under the Act or the part of the Act so repealed;

(c) affect a right, privilege, obligation or liability acquired, accrued or incurred under an Act or the part of the Act so repealed, or an investigation, legal proceeding or remedy in respect of that right, privilege, obligation or liability; or

(d) affect a penalty, forfeiture or punishment incurred in respect of an offence against the Act or part of the Act so repealed, or an investigation, legal proceeding or remedy in respect of that penalty, forfeiture or punishment, and the investigation, legal proceeding or remedy may be instituted, continued or enforced, and a penalty, forfeiture or punishment may be imposed, as if the repealing Act had not been made.

13. Effect of State laws ceasing to apply

Where an Act repeals in whole or in part a law of the State of South Australia in its application to the Territory or provides that such a law or any part of such a law shall cease to apply to the Territory sections 11, 12, 14 and 15 apply as if the law of the State were an Act or a part of an Act which had been repealed.

14. Continuance of repealed provisions

Where an Act, or a regulation, repeals in whole or in part a former Act and substitutes provisions in lieu thereof, the repealed provisions continue in force until the substituted provisions come into operation.
15. References to repealed provisions

(1) Where an Act, or a regulation, repeals and re-enacts, with or without modification, any provisions of a former Act, references in any other Act to the provisions so repealed shall be construed as references to the provisions so re-enacted.

(2) Where a Commonwealth Act or regulation repeals and re-enacts, with or without modification, any provisions of a former Commonwealth Act or regulation, references in an Act to the provisions so repealed shall be construed as references to the provisions so re-enacted.

16. Expiration of Acts

Where an Act or part of an Act expires, sections 11, 12, 14 and 15 apply in respect of that expiration as though the Act or part had been repealed.

(3) The Administrator may, without reference to the Executive Council –

(a) exercise any power where the exercise of that power relates only to; or

(b) perform any function where the performance of that function relates only to, matters in respect of which the Ministers of the Territory do not have executive authority under section 35 of the Northern Territory (Self-Government) Act 1978 of the Commonwealth.

34A. References to Administrator in Council

A reference in an Act to the Administrator in Council shall be read as a reference to the Administrator, and section 34 applies accordingly.

34B. References to medical practitioner

A reference in an Act to a medical practitioner, however described, shall be read as a reference to a medical practitioner who is entitled to practise medicine by, under or for the purposes of the Medical Act.

35. Administrative Arrangements Orders

(1) A reference in an Act to an Administrative Arrangements Order shall be read as a reference to an order made by the Administrator and published in the Gazette, being an order by which a department or other Authority or body is nominated as an Agency and the administration of a provision of an Act, or the responsibility for an area or activity of government, is allotted to a specified minister or to a specified Agency.

(2) A reference in an Act to the minister or Agency administering a provision of an Act or having responsibility for an area or activity of government shall be read as a reference to the minister or Agency, as the case may be, to whom or to which the administration of that provision or the responsibility for that area or activity is allotted by an Administrative Arrangements Order or an Act.
36. References to Minister, &c.

(1) Where, in a provision of an Act reference is made to the Minister or to a specified minister or Agency (including a reference to a minister or Agency where there is no longer any such minister or Agency) –

(a) the reference to the Minister or to that specified minister shall be read as or as including a reference to the minister to whom the administration of the provision is allotted by an Administrative Arrangements Order, and is deemed to include a minister for the time being acting for and on behalf of that Minister; and

(b) the reference to that specified Agency shall be read as including a reference to the department to which the administration of the provision is allotted by an Administrative Arrangements Order.

(2) Where, in a provision of an Act, reference is made to the Minister, and the administration of that provision has not been allotted to a minister by an Administrative Arrangements Order, the reference to the Minister shall be read as a reference to any minister.

37. References in agreements

Where an agreement is entered into by or on behalf of the Territory and, after the date of the agreement, the functions of an Agency in relation to the administration of matters to which the agreement relates are or have been allotted to another Agency by an Administrative Arrangements Order or an Act –

(a) a reference in the agreement to the Minister administering the first-mentioned Agency shall be read as a reference to the Minister administering the second-mentioned Agency or to a minister acting for the time being for him and on his behalf; and

(b) a reference in the agreement to the first-mentioned Agency shall be read as a reference to the second-mentioned Agency.

38. References to offices, &c.

(1) In an Act –

(a) a reference to an officer or office shall be construed as a reference to such an officer or office for the Territory; and

(b) references to localities, jurisdictions and other matters and things shall be construed as references to such localities, jurisdictions and other matters and things in and of the Territory.

(2) Where, in relation to a power or function, there is, in a provision of an Act or in an agreement entered into by or on behalf of the Territory, reference to a person, an officer, an office, a body corporate or a body of persons and there is no longer such a person, officer, office or body, or that power or function is no longer a power or function of that person, officer, office or body, the reference shall be read as including –

(a) a reference to a person, officer, office or body for the time being having that power or function; or

(b) if there is no person, officer, office or body for the time being having that power or function, a reference to such person, officer, office or body as is specified by order of the Minister administering that provision or administering the Department or other Agency the functions of which include the administration of matters to which the provision relates; or

(c) if there is no person, officer, office or body for the time being having that power or function, no minister administering that provision and no department or other Agency with functions that include the administration of matters to which the provision relates, the Administrator.

(3) Where in an Act or in an order made under subsection (2), a person holding or occupying a particular designation, office or position is mentioned or referred to in general terms, the mention or reference shall be read as including a reference to all persons who at any time for the time being hold or occupy or perform the duties of that designation, office or position.

38A. Reference to Commonwealth ministers, &c.

(1) Notwithstanding section 38, where in a provision of an Act reference is made to a Commonwealth minister or department or to an office, officer, body corporate or body of persons established by or under an Act of the Commonwealth, that reference shall be read as or as including a reference to such minister, department, office, officer or body, whether Commonwealth or Territory, as is determined by the Administrator by notice published in the Gazette.

(2) Where in a provision of an Act reference is made to a Commonwealth minister or department and there is no longer any such minister or department and no determination has been made under subsection (1), that reference shall be read as a reference to the minister for the time being administering the Northern Territory (Self-Government) Act 1978 of the Commonwealth, or to the department of that minister, as the case may be.
PART IVA – PENALTIES

38B. Penal provisions include bodies corporate

A provision of an Act relating to offences shall be read as referring to bodies corporate as well as to individuals.

38C. Penalties at foot of sections and subsections

(1) The penalty, pecuniary or otherwise, set out –

(a) at the foot of a section; or

(b) at the foot of a subsection,

of an Act indicates that a contravention of the section or of the subsection respectively, is an offence against the Act punishable on a finding of guilt by a penalty not exceeding the penalty so set out.

(1A) For subsection (1), a penalty is taken to be at the foot of a section or subsection even if an example or note appears after the penalty.

(2) A penalty set out as provided in subsection (1) which is expressed to apply only to a part of the section or subsection applies according to the tenor of the provision.

(3) In this section "section" includes a rule, regulation or by-law and "subsection" has a corresponding meaning.

38D. Alternative penalties

A provision in an Act which confers a discretion to impose a monetary fine or a period of imprisonment as the penalty for the contravention or failure to comply with a provision of an Act shall be read as meaning that a person who contravened or failed to comply with the provision may, on being found guilty, be fined, imprisoned or fined and imprisoned, in accordance with the penalty specified for the contravention or failure to comply with the provision.

38E. Certain offences crimes

Where an Act provides for a penalty of imprisonment for a period of more than 2 years for an offence by an individual against a provision of or under the Act, the offence is a crime (whether committed by or imputed to a body corporate or committed by an individual) unless expressed to be otherwise.

38F. Penalties for breach of Regulations

Unless the Act under which they are made provides for, or that the Regulations may prescribe, a different amount as the maximum fine for an offence against the Regulations, Regulations may prescribe, for an offence against the Regulations, a fine not exceeding 100 penalty units in the case of an individual, and not exceeding 500 penalty units in the case of a body corporate.

38G. Civil penalties

In an Act, a reference to a civil penalty (however described) being imposed or required to be paid for a contravention of a provision of the Act indicates that the contravention may lead to a penalty being imposed not exceeding the penalty specified in, or prescribed for the purposes of, the provision.

PART V – POWERS, FUNCTIONS AND AUTHORITIES

39. Confirmation of appointments not required

An appointment or other exercise of a power does not cease to have effect or need to be confirmed by reason only that the person making the appointment or exercising the power has ceased to hold office or otherwise to be capable of exercising the power.

40. Death, &c., of office holder

Where –

(a) a minister is acting for and on behalf of another minister; or

(b) any other person is acting in or performing the duties of an office, position or designation during the absence or inability of the person for the time being holding or occupying the office, position or designation, and, for any reason, that second-mentioned minister or that person second-mentioned in paragraph (b) ceases to hold or occupy his office, position or designation, that first-mentioned minister or the person first-mentioned in paragraph (b) may continue to act or to perform those duties until his power or authority to do so is lawfully revoked or until the expiration of one year after the person ceased to hold or occupy his office, position or designation, whichever first occurs.

41. Occasions for exercise of powers, &c.

(1) Where an Act confers a power or imposes a duty, the power may be exercised and the duty shall be performed from time to time as occasion requires.

(2) Where an Act confers a power or imposes a duty on the holder of an office or the occupier of a position or designation as such, the power may be exercised and the duty shall be performed by the person for the time being holding or occupying or performing the duties of the office, position or designation.

42. How power may be exercised

   (1) A power under an Act to make, grant or issue an instrument of a legislative or administrative character may be exercised –

   (a) in whole or in part;

   (b) subject to any conditions, limitations or qualifications specified in the instrument;

   (c) to make different provision in relation to different matters or classes of matters; or

   (d) to apply differently by reference to exceptions or factors specified in the instrument.

   (2) The power is not limited to making provision in relation to a particular matter or a particular aspect of a matter merely because the Act makes provision in relation to another matter or another aspect of the matter.

   (3) If the power may be exercised to prescribe penalties not exceeding a specified amount or period of imprisonment, the power does not prevent the instrument from requiring the making of a statutory declaration.

   (4) This section applies in relation to a power whether exercised before or after the commencement of this section.

43. Power to make includes power to rescind

   Where an Act confers a power to take an action or to make, grant or issue any instrument of a legislative or administrative character, the power shall be construed as including a power exercisable in the like manner and subject to the like conditions to repeal, rescind, revoke, amend or vary any such action or instrument.

44. Power to appoint includes power to remove

   (1) Subject to subsection (3), where an Act confers on any person or authority a power to make appointments to any office, position, designation or place, the power shall be construed as including a power to terminate such an appointment or to remove or suspend any person appointed.
Interpretation Act

(2) Where an Act confers on any person or authority a power to make appointments to any office, position, designation or place, the power shall be construed as including a power to appoint another person temporarily in the place of –

(a) any person whose appointment has been terminated or who has been removed or suspended from that office, position, designation or place; or

(b) any person who is or is expected to be absent from duty or from the Territory or unable to perform his duties.

(3) Where a power to make appointments to an office or place is exercisable only upon the recommendation or subject to the approval or consent of some other person or authority, the power of termination or removal referred to in subsection (1) is exercisable only upon the recommendation or subject to the approval or consent of that other person or authority.

45. Simultaneous actions

(1) Where an instrument of a legislative or administrative character revokes an action and simultaneously substitutes another action, that second-mentioned action shall be deemed to have effect after the revocation to the intent that the second-mentioned action shall not be held to be ineffective by reason that the revocation had not commenced its effect before the second-mentioned action commenced its effect.

(2) Where a series of actions has effect simultaneously, it shall be deemed to have effect in such sequence as is indicated or as the nature of the case requires.

46. Power to authorise another person to exercise power or perform function

(1) Subject to this section, where, by, under or in pursuance of an Act or an instrument of a legislative or administrative character made, granted or issued under or in pursuance of an Act, a power or function is conferred on a minister or other person (whether by reference to an office or otherwise), the power may be exercised or the function performed –

(a) in the case of a power or function conferred on a minister, by a person who has the authority of that minister; or

(b) in any other case, by a person who, with the approval of the minister administering the provision conferring the power or function, or of a person authorized by that minister to give that approval, has the authority of that first-mentioned person.
Interpretation Act

(2) Subsection (1) does not empower the exercise of a power or the performance of a function by the authority of a person where that authority is not evidenced in a written instrument.

(3) Authority may be conferred pursuant to subsection (1) on –

(a) a person by name;

(b) a person by reference to the office, position or designation held or occupied by the person; or

(c) a person from time to time holding, acting in or performing the duties of a named office, designation or position.

(4) A written instrument conferring authority on a person in pursuance of this section may be revoked, rescinded, altered or amended at any time by the person conferring the authority.

(5) The conferring of authority by a written instrument under this section does not prevent the exercise of the power or the performance of the function by the person conferring the authority or by another person upon whom authority relating to the same power or function is conferred.

(6) Subsection (1) does not empower the exercise of a power or the performance of a function by the authority of a person otherwise than subject to such conditions and limitations, if any, as are set out in the written instrument evidencing the authority.

(7) Subsection (1) does not empower the exercise of a power or the performance of a function by the authority of a person if the power or function –

(a) is of a legislative or judicial nature;

(b) relates to the investigation or detection of offences or unlawful acts; or

(c) relates to the grant or the defeasance or forfeiture of a right or title to land.

46A. Power of delegation

(1) A provision of an Act that confers a power to delegate a power or function on a person (whether by reference to an office, designation, position or otherwise) is to be construed as conferring on the person a power to delegate the power or function to –

(a) a person by name;
Interpretation Act

(b) a person by reference to the office, position or designation held or occupied by the person; or

(c) a person from time to time holding, acting in or performing the duties of a named office, designation or position.

(2) A provision of an Act that confers a power to delegate a power or function is not to be construed as including the power to delegate that power of delegation.

(3) If a power or function is delegated under an Act, the power or function is, when exercised or performed by the delegate, to be taken to be exercised or performed by the person who delegated it.

(4) The delegation of the power or function under an Act does not prevent the exercise of the power or the performance of the function by the person who delegated it.

47. Service of documents

Where an Act provides that a document or thing may be served on a person, it may be served on a person authorized by that person to accept service.

48. Discretions

Where, under an Act, the exercise of a power or the performance of a function by a person is dependent upon the opinion, belief or state of mind of that person in relation to a matter, that power may be exercised or that function may be performed by a delegate or by authority of that person upon the opinion, belief or state of mind of the delegate or authorized person in relation to that matter.

48A. Participation in meetings by telephone, &c.

(1) This section applies to a body (whether or not incorporated) established by an Act if the Act requires or permits meetings of the members of the body to be held.

(2) The body may permit its members to participate in a meeting or all meetings by –

(a) telephone;

(b) closed-circuit television;

(c) facsimile exchange; or

(d) any other means of communication.
(3) A member who participates in a meeting under a permission under subsection (2) shall be taken to be present at the meeting.

48B. Power to correct minor errors

(1) Where a decision made in proceedings before a person or body authorised by or under an Act to hear and determine a matter contains –

(a) a clerical mistake;
(b) an error arising from an accidental slip or omission;
(c) a material miscalculation of figures or a material mistake in the description of a person, thing or matter referred to in the decision; or
(d) a defect of form, the decision maker, of his or her own motion or on application by a party to the proceeding, may correct the decision.

(2) In this section "decision" includes a judgment, order and determination, and the reasons for a decision.

PART VI – MECHANICS OF LEGISLATION

49. Citation

(1) An Act may be cited –

(a) by its short title;
(b) by reference to its number and the calendar year in which it received assent;
(c) by the words contained in its short title or, in the case of an Ordinance, either by the words contained in its short title or by the words that would be contained in its short title if the word "Ordinance" (last occurring in those words) was "Act"; or
(d) if a citation of that Act as amended by another Act is given by that other Act –

(i) by the citation so given; or
(ii) by the words contained in the citation so given.

(2) A provision of an Act may be cited by reference to the part, section, subsection or other division of the Act in which the provision is contained.
(3) Such a reference shall be made according to the copy of the Act printed or purporting to be printed by the Government Printer.

50. References to other Acts

(1) A reference in an Act to another Act by its short title or by reference to its number and the calendar year in which it received assent shall –

(a) if that Act has, at the time the reference appears is made, itself been amended, whether or not that amendment is then in force – be read as a reference to that Act only and not to that other Act as amended; or

(b) if that Act has not, at that time, been so amended – be read as a reference to that other Act as amended from time to time.

(2) A reference in an Act to another Act by the words contained in its short title or by a method of citation provided by section 49(1)(d) shall be read as a reference to the Principal Act that may be so cited as amended from time to time.

(3) Where a provision of an Act amends another Act, a reference in that provision to that other Act shall be read as a reference to that other Act as in force as at the date immediately before the date of commencement of that provision.

51. [Repealed]

52. References to Imperial, Commonwealth and State Acts

An Imperial Act, a Commonwealth Act or an Act of a State or another Territory of Australia may be cited by a reference to the place by the Parliament of which the Act was passed together with such mode of reference as is sufficient in Acts passed by that Parliament and, where it is so cited and that Act is subsequently amended, the reference shall, from the date of the amendment, be deemed to be to that Act as so amended.

53. References in an act to provisions of that Act

(1) A reference in an Act to a Part, section or Schedule shall be read as a reference to a Part or section of, or a Schedule to, that Act.

(2) A reference in a Part of an Act to a Division shall be read as a reference to a Division of that Part.

(3) A reference in a section of an Act to a subsection or paragraph shall be read as a reference to a subsection or paragraph of that section.
(4) A reference in a subsection of a section of an Act to a paragraph shall be read as a reference to a paragraph of that subsection.

(5) A reference in a paragraph of a section, or of a subsection of a section, of an Act to a subparagraph shall be read as a reference to a subparagraph of that paragraph.

(6) A reference in a Schedule, or part of a Schedule, to an Act to a form, paragraph, item or clause, shall be read as a reference to a form, paragraph, item or clause of that Schedule or part.

(7) A reference to a form in an Act the Schedule to which or only one of the Schedules to which contains a form or forms shall be read as a reference to a form in that Schedule.

54. Every section a substantive enactment

Every section of an Act shall have effect as a substantive enactment without introducing words.

55. Headings, schedules, examples and notes

(1) The following are parts of an Act:

(a) headings to Chapters, Parts, Divisions and Subdivisions of the Act;

(b) schedules to the Act;

(c) examples in the text of the Act;

(d) notes in the text of the Act.

(2) An example or note in the text of an Act is part of the provision of the Act to which it relates.

(3) The following are not parts of an Act:

(a) headings to sections of the Act;

(b) marginal notes, footnotes, endnotes and any other notes that are not in the text of the Act.

56. Numbering of Acts

(1) The Acts which receive assent in each calendar year shall be numbered in regular arithmetical series, beginning with the number one, in the order in which they receive assent.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), an Act which receives the Governor-General's assent is deemed to receive assent on the day upon which notification that the Governor-General has assented to the Act is published in the Gazette.

57. Numbering of regulations

   (1) In this section, "regulations" does not include –

   (a) rules of court which relate only to dates of sittings of a court;

   (b) by-laws made by the Commissioner for Public Employment under the Public Sector Employment and Management Act; or

   (c) any other rules, regulations or by-laws that expressly provide that this section does not apply.

   (2) Regulations made in each calendar year shall be numbered in regular arithmetical series, beginning with the number one, as nearly as may be in the order in which they are made.

   (3) Any regulations may, without prejudice to any other mode of citation, be cited by the number so given and the calendar year in which they were made.

57A. Amendment of instruments by Act

   (1) If an instrument of a legislative or administrative character under an Act ("the parent Act") has been amended by an Act, the instrument may be amended, varied, repealed, rescinded or revoked by an instrument of a legislative or administrative character under the parent Act.

   (2) Subsection (1) applies in relation to amendments effected before or after the commencement of this section.

PART VII – GENERAL

Division 1 – Construction

58. Amending act to be construed with amended Act

   An Act amending another Act or a law of the State of South Australia in its application to the Territory shall be construed with that other Act or law of the State and as part thereof.

59. Act to be construed subject to power

   Every Act shall be read and construed subject to the Northern Territory (Self-Government) Act 1978 of the Commonwealth and any other Act of the Commonwealth relating to the power of the Legislative Assembly to make laws in respect of particular matters, and so as not to exceed the legislative power of the Legislative Assembly, to the intent that where any Act would, but for this section, have been construed as being in excess of that power it shall nevertheless be a valid Act to the extent to which it is not in excess of that power.

59A. Public places, &c., on Aboriginal land

(1) Where by or under a law of the Territory a right, privilege, obligation or liability is expressed or implied to be acquired, accrued or incurred by reference to a public place, public street, public road, place of public resort or other place, however described, open to or used by the public or to which the public has access, whether as of right or on the payment of a fee or other charge, that reference includes, and shall be deemed always to have included, any place which but for the fact that it was on Aboriginal land within the meaning of the Aboriginal Land Rights (Northern Territory) Act 1976 of the Commonwealth, would have been included in such a reference, and even though that Act of the Commonwealth or the Aboriginal Land Act limits the persons or classes of persons who may enter and remain on that Aboriginal land.

(2) For the purposes of a law of the Territory referred to in subsection (1), the persons who are not precluded by the Aboriginal Land Rights (Northern Territory) Act 1976 of the Commonwealth or the Aboriginal Land Act from entering or remaining on Aboriginal land, or who are on Aboriginal land whether or not they are entitled by those Acts, or either of them, to enter or remain on Aboriginal land, are capable of constituting, and shall be deemed always to have been capable of constituting, a section of the public in relation to that land.

60. [Repealed]

61. Construction of regulations, &c.

Where an Act confers upon any authority power to make, grant or issue any instrument of a legislative or administrative character, any instrument so made, granted or issued shall be read and construed subject to the Act under which it was made and so as not to exceed the power of that authority, to the intent that, where any such instrument would, but for this section, have been construed as being in excess of the power conferred upon that authority, it shall nevertheless be a valid instrument to the extent to which it is not in excess of that power.

62. Construction of resolutions of Legislative Assembly

Where a resolution is passed by the Legislative Assembly purportedly in pursuance of an Act, the resolution shall be read and construed subject to the Northern Territory (Self-Government) Act 1978 of the Commonwealth and to the Act in pursuance of which it purports to have been passed, to the intent that, where the resolution would, but for this section, have been construed as being in excess of authority, it shall, nevertheless, be a valid resolution to the extent to which it is not in excess of authority.

62A. Regard to be had to purpose or object of Act

In interpreting a provision of an Act, a construction that promotes the purpose or object underlying the Act (whether the purpose or object is expressly stated in the Act or not) is to be preferred to a construction that does not promote the purpose or object.

62B. Use of extrinsic material in interpreting Act

(1) In interpreting a provision of an Act, if material not forming part of the Act is capable of assisting in ascertaining the meaning of the provision, the material may be considered –

(a) to confirm that the meaning of the provision is the ordinary meaning conveyed by the text of the provision taking into account its context in the Act and the purpose or object underlying the Act; or

(b) to determine the meaning of the provision when –

(i) the provision is ambiguous or obscure; or

(ii) the ordinary meaning conveyed by the text of the provision taking into account its context in the Act and the purpose or object underlying the Act leads to a result that is manifestly absurd or is unreasonable.

(2) Without limiting subsection (1), the material that may be considered in interpreting a provision of an Act includes –

(a) all matters not forming part of the Act that are set out in the document containing the text of the Act as printed by the Government Printer;

(b) any relevant report of a Royal Commission, Law Reform Commission, committee of inquiry or other similar body that was laid before the Legislative Assembly before the time when the provision was enacted;

(c) any relevant report of a committee of the Legislative Assembly that was made to the Legislative Assembly before the time when the provision was enacted;

(d) any treaty or other international agreement that is referred to in the Act;
(e) any explanatory memorandum relating to the Bill containing the provision, or any other relevant document, that was laid before, or furnished to the members of the Legislative Assembly by a Minister before the time when the provision was enacted;

(f) the speech made to the Legislative Assembly by a Minister on the occasion of the moving by that Minister of a motion that the Bill containing the provision be read a second time in the Legislative Assembly; and

(g) any document (whether or not a document to which a preceding paragraph applies) that is declared by the Act to be a relevant document for the purposes of this section.

62C. Changes in drafting practice do not affect meaning

(1) Subsection (2) applies if –

(a) a provision of an Act expresses an idea in particular words; and

(b) a provision of the Act enacted later appears to express the same idea in different words for the purpose of implementing a different legislative drafting practice.

(2) The ideas must not be taken to be different merely because different words are used.

62D. Examples

If a provision of an Act includes an example –

(a) the example is not exhaustive;

(b) the example does not limit or extend the meaning of the provision; and

(c) if the example is inconsistent with the provision, the provision prevails to the extent of the inconsistency.

Division 2 – Regulations, Rules, By-laws and Papers

63. Procedure for making regulations, &c.

(1) Where an Act contains a power to make regulations, all regulations made by virtue of that power shall –

(a) be notified in the Gazette;
Interpretation Act

(b) subject to this section, take effect from the date of the notification, or, where another date is provided for in the regulations, from the date so provided for; and

(c) be laid before the Legislative Assembly within 3 sitting days of that Assembly after the making of the regulations.

(2) Where an Act contains a power to make rules or by-laws, all rules or by-laws made by virtue of that power shall be –

(a) signed by the person making them, or, if that person is a statutory corporation or a council as defined in Local Government Act, by a person authorized by it to sign them; and

(b) forwarded to the Minister administering the provision containing the power.

(3) Subject to this section, where rules or by-laws are forwarded to a minister in pursuance of subsection (2) –

(a) that minister shall cause them to be notified in the Gazette;

(b) they take effect from the date of the notification, or, where another date is provided for in the rules or by-laws, from the date so provided for; and

(c) that minister shall lay them before the Legislative Assembly within 3 sitting days of that Assembly after they are notified in the Gazette.

(4) Where rules or by-laws are forwarded to a minister in pursuance of subsection (2), that minister may, before he causes them to be notified in the Gazette, return them to the person signing them with amendments that he recommends.

(5) Where a minister returns rules or by-laws in pursuance of subsection (4), the person making the rules or by-laws shall consider those amendments and the rules or by-laws, with or without amendments, shall be again forwarded to the minister, and subsection (3) applies accordingly.

(6) Where regulations, rules or by-laws are required by an Act to be published or notified in the Gazette, it is sufficient compliance with that requirement if notice of the making of the regulations, rules or by-laws, and of the place where copies of them may be purchased is published in the Gazette.
(7) Regulations, rules and by-laws shall not be expressed to take effect or be in terms such that they do take effect from a date before the date of notification in the Gazette in any case where, if they so took effect –

(a) the rights of a person (other than the Territory or a statutory corporation) existing at the date of notification would be affected in a manner prejudicial to that person; or

(b) liabilities would be imposed on a person (other than the Territory or a statutory corporation) in respect of anything done or omitted to be done before the date of notification, and any provision in regulations, rules or by-laws made in contravention of this subsection is void and of no effect.

(8) If any regulations, rules or by-laws are not laid before the Legislative Assembly in accordance with the provisions of this section, they are void and of no effect.

(9) If the Legislative Assembly passes a resolution of which notice has been given at any time within 12 sitting days after the regulations, rules or by-laws have been laid before the Legislative Assembly disallowing any regulation, rule or by-law, the disallowance has, subject to subsection (10), the same effect as a repeal of the regulation, rule or by-law or part of the regulation, rule or by-law.

(10) If a provision of a disallowed regulation, rule or by-law, or a provision of a disallowed part of a regulation, rule or by-law, amended or repealed another regulation, rule or by-law in force immediately before the commencement of that provision, the disallowance revives the other regulation, rule or by-law from the date of the disallowance as if the disallowed provision had not been made.

(11) This section applies notwithstanding any provision contained in any other law, whether made before or after the commencement of this Act, and any such other provision that is inconsistent with this section is, to the extent of the inconsistency, ineffective.

64. No regulation, &c., to be made in terms of disallowed regulation, &c.

(1) Where, in pursuance of section 63, the Legislative Assembly disallows a regulation, rule or by-law, no regulation, rule or by-law, being the same in substance or having the same effect as the regulation, rule or by-law so disallowed, shall be made within 6 months after the date of disallowance unless the resolution for disallowance has been rescinded by the Legislative Assembly.

(2) A regulation, rule or by-law made in contravention of this section is void and of no effect.
65. [Repealed]

66. Prescribing matters by reference to other instruments

Where an Act confers upon an authority power to make, grant or issue any instrument of a legislative or administrative character, then any instrument so made, granted or issued may apply, adopt or incorporate, with or without modification –

(a) the provisions of any Territory or Commonwealth Act, or of any instrument of a legislative or administrative character made under such an Act, as in force at a particular time or as in force from time to time; or

(b) any matter contained in any other instrument or writing as in force or existing at the time when the first-mentioned instrument takes effect, but instruments of a legislative or administrative character shall not, except as provided by this section, make provision for or in relation to a matter by applying, adopting or incorporating any matter contained in an instrument or other writing as in force or existing from time to time.

67. Presentation of papers to Legislative Assembly

(1) Where, by the Northern Territory (Self-Government) Act 1978 of the Commonwealth or by an Act within the meaning of this Act, provision is made permitting or requiring the presentation (however expressed) of a paper to the Legislative Assembly, it is sufficient compliance with the provision if –

(a) the paper is presented in the Legislative Assembly in accordance with the Standing Orders of the Legislative Assembly; or

(b) in accordance with those Standing Orders, the paper is delivered to the Clerk of the Legislative Assembly and recorded in the Minutes of Proceedings of the Legislative Assembly.

(2) Where such a provision as is mentioned in subsection (1) provides for a specified person to present or cause the paper to be presented, it is sufficient compliance with that provision if that person or any other person who could, by virtue of this Act or of any other Act, act in the place of that person, makes or causes to be made the presentation or delivery of the paper.

(3) Where such a provision as is mentioned in subsection (1) specifies a period within which the paper is to be presented, it is sufficient compliance with that provision if the paper is presented, in accordance with subsection (1), within that period.
Interpretation Act

(4) In this section "paper" includes –

(a) a regulation, rule or by-law, order, determination, proclamation or award;

(b) a report; and

(c) any other document or instrument required or permitted to be presented.

Division 3 – General

68. Compliance with forms

Strict compliance with the forms prescribed by or under an Act is not necessary and substantial compliance, or such compliance as the circumstances of a particular case allow, is sufficient.

69. Civil proceedings

Where moneys are due in pursuance of an Act, the moneys are recoverable in a court having, in the Territory, civil jurisdiction to the extent of the amount due.

70. Powers of persons authorized to adjudicate

A court, Judge, Justice of the Peace, officer, commissioner, arbitrator or other person authorized by law or consent of parties to hear and determine any matter, has authority to receive evidence and examine witnesses and to administer an oath to all witnesses called before him.

71. [Repealed]

72. Sunday observance

(1) It is hereby declared that all laws and statutes of England, to the extent that they relate to the observance of or actions that are permitted to be carried out or prohibited on a Sunday (however described), have no force or effect in the Territory.

(2) Except as provided by or under a law of the Territory or of the Commonwealth, it is lawful to do any act on a Sunday if the act would be otherwise lawful.
