NORTHERN TERRITORY OF AUSTRALIA

As in force at 8 March 2007

SUMMARY OFFENCES ACT

An Act to provide for certain Criminal Offences

Part I Preliminary

1 Short title

This Act may be cited as the Summary Offences Act.

2 Commencement

This Act shall commence on a day to be fixed by the Administrator by notice in the Gazette of the Northern Territory.

3 Application of certain Acts of the State of South Australia to cease

- (1) The Police Act, 1869 (No. 15 of 1869-70), and the Police Act Amendment Act 1898-9 (No. 715 of 1898-9) of the State of South Australia shall cease to apply to the Northern Territory as from the commencement of this Ordinance.
- (2) Nothing in subsection (1) shall affect any right, obligation, or liability acquired, accrued or incurred under any Act therein referred to, or any penalty, forfeiture or punishment in respect of any offence committed against any such Act, or any investigation, legal proceeding, or remedy in respect of any such right, obligation, liability, penalty, forfeiture or punishment as aforesaid.

5 Interpretation

In this Act, unless the contrary intention appears:

Commissioner means the Commissioner of Police appointed under the Police Administration Act.

loiter means to idle or linger about.

member means member of the Police Force.

night-time means the interval between 9 o'clock in the evening and 6 o'clock in the morning.

Police Force means the Police Force of the Northern Territory.

public place or place of public resort includes:

- (a) every place to which free access is permitted to the public, with the express or tacit consent of the owner or occupier thereof; and
- (b) every place to which the public are admitted on payment of money, the test of the admittance being the payment of the money only; and
- (c) every road, street, footway, court, alley or thoroughfare which the public are allowed to use, notwithstanding that the road, street, footway, court, alley or thoroughfare may be formed on private property.

undue noise means any noise that causes unreasonable distress, annoyance or irritation to any person by reason of its level or character or the time at which it is made.

Part VIA Drinking in public places

45C Definitions

In this Part:

Commission means the Northern Territory Licensing Commission established by section 4 of the Northern Territory Licensing Commission Act.

Court means the Court of Summary Jurisdiction.

liquor has the same meaning as in the Liquor Act.

prescribed notice means a notice prescribed for the purposes of section 45G.

unoccupied private land means land or premises, other than a public place, the lawful occupier of which is not present at the relevant time.

45D Drinking in a public place

A person who, within 2 kilometres of premises licensed under Part III of the Liquor Act for the sale of liquor, drinks liquor in a public place or on unoccupied private land is, unless:

- (a) the owner or lawful occupier of that public place or land has given him express permission, which has not been withdrawn, to do so; or
- (b) the public place or part of the public place in which he drinks the liquor is the subject of a Certificate of Exemption under section 45E or is an exempt area under section 45EA, and the drinking of that liquor is not in contravention of a condition of that Certificate of Exemption or declaration of the exempt area, guilty of an offence and the penalty for the offence is the forfeiture of the liquor seized under section 45H at the time of the commission of the offence.

45E Certificate of Exemption

- (1) The owner, or person responsible for the management of a public place may apply to the Commission for the issue to him of a Certificate of Exemption in respect of that public place, or such part of that public place as is specified in the application.
- (2) The Commission may require an applicant under subsection (1) to cause to be published in such newspaper or newspapers as it nominates a notice:
 - (a) in such form;
 - (b) containing such particulars; and
 - (c) on such occasions,as it specifies of the fact that the applicant has applied for the issue to him of a Certificate of Exemption.
- (3) In considering an application made under subsection (1), the Commission shall take into account:
 - (a) the nature of the use to which the public place is generally put;
 - (b) the provision made for the disposal of litter at that public place; and

- (c) any representations received in response to a notice published under subsection (2).
- (4) The Commission may, and if required to do so by the Minister shall, conduct a hearing before issuing a Certificate of Exemption, and, if such a hearing is held:
 - (a) the provisions of section 51 of the Liquor Act, other than subsections (6), (7), (10A) to (10D) inclusive and (11) shall apply to the hearing; and
 - (b) for the purpose of construing section 51 of the Liquor Act in its application to the hearing, the word "party" means:
 - (i) the applicant for a certificate of exemption; or
 - (ii) a person who has made representations in response to a notice published under subsection (2).
- (5) The Commission may, in its discretion, issue a Certificate of Exemption applied for under subsection (1) subject to such conditions, if any, as it thinks fit and specifies in the Certificate.
- (6) A person to whom a Certificate of Exemption has been issued may:
 - (a) apply to the Commission for cancellation of the Certificate; or
 - (b) apply to the Commission for the variation of any conditions imposed under subsection (5), and subsections (2) and (4) apply to and in relation to an application under paragraph (b) as if it were an application under subsection (1) for the issue of a Certificate of Exemption to the applicant.
- (7) The Commission may, by notice in writing, vary, suspend or cancel a Certificate of Exemption where the person or body to whom it was issued has contravened or failed to comply with the conditions of the Certificate specified under subsection (5), or has otherwise caused or allowed drinking in a public place in respect of which a Certificate has been issued to become a nuisance or annoyance to other persons using that place.

45EA Special exemption of certain places

- (1) The Commission may, in its discretion and without application being made to it, and shall if so directed by the Minister, by notice in the Gazette, declare that a public place, or part of a public place, specified in the notice is an exempt area for the purposes of section 45D and in so doing may impose such conditions, if any, as the Commission thinks fit and specifies in the notice.

- (2) A person shall not contravene or fail to comply with a condition of a declaration specified in a notice under subsection (1).

Penalty: $200.

45F Special licences

Section 45D does not apply to a place or premises in respect of which a special licence has been issued under Part VI of the Liquor Act during the period or periods specified in that licence.

45G Notices

Where a member has reason to believe that an offence has been committed against section 45D, he may serve on the person who appears to have committed the offence a prescribed notice:

- (a) specifying:
- (i) the name of the alleged offender; and
 - (ii) the date, time and place of the alleged offence;
- (b) describing the circumstances causing the member to believe that an offence was being committed against section 45D;
- (c) describing the liquor seized under section 45H(1) in relation to the alleged commission of the offence and, where possible, the type and quantity of the liquor seized;
- (d) specifying the name and rank of the member serving the notice and the name of the police station to which the member is attached; and
- (e) explaining that a person who is named in the notice as an alleged offender may, if he so wishes, have the matter dealt with by the Court.

45H Powers of police officers

- (1) A member may, where he has reason to believe that an offence has been committed against section 45D, whether or not he makes a complaint or issues a notice under section 45G, seize any opened or unopened cask, flask, bottle, can or other container in the possession of a person whom he believes to be contravening section 45D.
- (2) A member shall not seize an unopened cask, flask, bottle, can or other container under subsection (1) unless he has reason to believe it to be a source of liquor from which the person is likely to continue to drink on that or another place or land to which section 45D applies.

- (3) Where a member has seized a cask, flask, bottle, can or other container under subsection (1), the member shall:

(a) in the case where the cask, flask, bottle, can or container is opened – immediately empty it, unless the member believes that doing so would provoke or incite a disturbance or disorderly behaviour; or

(b) in the case:

(i) where it is unopened; or

(ii) where it is opened but the member has the belief referred to in paragraph (a), take the liquor, or cause it to be taken, to the police station to which the member is attached, where it shall be destroyed.

- (4) For the purposes of this section, an opened or unopened cask, flask, bottle, can or other container which:

(a) is in the immediate vicinity, or in the possession of any other person in the immediate vicinity, of the person the member believes to have committed an offence against section 45D; and

(b) the member has reason to believe is a source of liquor from which the person is likely to continue to drink on that or another place or land to which section 45D applies, shall, whether or not owned by or in the possession or control of the person the member believes to have committed the offence, be taken to be in the possession of the person.

- (5) Where liquor is destroyed in pursuance of this section, any interest in the liquor is, by virtue of the destruction, converted into an interest in the money equivalent to the value of the liquor.

45HA Procedure where application made for matter to be dealt with by Court

- (1) Where a person named in a prescribed notice wishes the matter the subject of the notice to be dealt with by the Court, the person shall, not later than 28 days after the date of the offence alleged in the notice, apply to the Court.

- (2) An application under subsection (1) shall be in writing, signed by the person, and accompanied by a copy of the prescribed notice.
- (3) The clerk of the Court shall, on receiving an application under subsection (1), fix a time and date for the Court to deal with the matter and shall inform the person of that time and date and shall notify the member in charge of the police station referred to in the notice of the time and date.
- (4) For the purposes of the Court dealing with a matter the subject of a prescribed notice, the notice shall be deemed to be a complaint alleging the person named in the notice committed an offence against section 45D at the time and place and in the circumstance contained in the notice.
- (5) A date fixed under subsection (3) shall not be earlier than 14 days after the last day for the making of an application under subsection (1) in respect of the particular matter.
- (6) Where the Court, in respect of a number of applications under subsection (1), is satisfied from the particulars contained in the prescribed notices accompanying those applications that the alleged offences arise out of the same facts, the matters shall be tried together and, for that purpose, the Court may adjourn the hearing of those matters.
- (7) Where, on the hearing of a matter under this section, the Court finds the person who made the application guilty of the offence against section 45D referred to in the prescribed notice, all interests in the money equivalent to the value of the liquor are, on that finding, forfeited to the Territory.

45HB Procedure where no application made for Court to deal with matter

- (1) Where a prescribed notice is served on a person under section 45G, the member in charge of the police station referred to in the prescribed notice or a person authorised by that member, shall forward a copy of the notice to the Court.
- (2) The Court shall, in respect of a prescribed notice forwarded to it under subsection (1), on being satisfied that an application under section 45HA has not been made within the time permitted by that section, make an order that the person named in the prescribed notice committed the offence against section 45D on the date specified in the prescribed notice and, on the order being made, all interests in the money equivalent to the value of the liquor are forfeited to the Territory.

45J Averments

In any proceedings for an offence against section 45D, an averment in the prescribed notice that is before the Court:

- (a) a specified place or land was, at a specified time, within a radius of 2 kilometres of premises at that time licensed under Part III of the Liquor Act for the sale of liquor;
- (b) a specified public place, at a specified time, was not the subject of a Certificate of Exemption issued under section 45E; or
- (c) a specified liquid is liquor, is prima facie evidence of the fact averred.

45K Drinking by minors in public place

- (1) A person who has not attained the age of 18 years shall not drink liquor in a public place or on unoccupied private land unless the person is in the company of his or her parent, guardian or spouse (who has attained the age of 18 years).
- (2) A person who is not the other person's parent, guardian or spouse (who has attained the age of 18 years) shall not in a public place or on unoccupied private land supply liquor to another person who has not attained the age of 18 years, except where the person to whom it is supplied is in the company of his or her parent, guardian or spouse (who has attained the age of 18 years).
- (3) In this section parent and guardian, in relation to a person who has not attained the age of 18 years, includes a person who has attained the age of 18 years to whom the care and control of the first-mentioned person has been given by a parent or guardian (irrespective of its duration).
- (4) In a prosecution for an offence against subsection (1) or (2) the onus of proving that the care and control of a person who has not attained the age of 18 years had, at the relevant time, been given to a particular person by a parent or guardian rests on the accused.
- (5) In this section public place does not include licensed premises within the meaning of the Liquor Act.
- (6) Nothing in this section derogates from the other provisions of this Part.

Part VII Offences generally

46A Forcible entry

A person who, in a manner likely to cause a breach of the peace or reasonable apprehension of a breach of the peace, enters, whether or not he is so entitled to enter, land which is in the actual and peaceable possession of another is guilty of an offence.

Penalty: Imprisonment for 12 months.

46B Forcible detainer

A person who, being in actual possession of land without being entitled by law to possession, holds possession of it in a manner likely to cause a breach of the peace or reasonable apprehension of a breach of the peace against a person entitled by law to the possession of the land is guilty of an offence.

Penalty: Imprisonment for 12 months.

46C Disturbing religious worship

A person who wilfully and without authorization, justification or excuse, proof of which is on him:

- (a) interrupts or disturbs a meeting of persons lawfully assembled for religious worship;
- (b) assaults a person lawfully officiating or a person assembled at such a meeting,

is guilty of an offence.

Penalty: Imprisonment for 6 months.

47 Offensive, &c., conduct

Every person who is guilty:

- (a) of any riotous, offensive, disorderly or indecent behaviour, or of fighting, or using obscene language, in or within the hearing or view of any person in any road, street, thoroughfare or public place;
- (b) of disturbing the public peace;
- (c) of any riotous, offensive, disorderly or indecent behaviour in any police station;

- (d) of offensive behaviour in or about a dwelling house, dressing-room, training-shed or clubhouse;
 - (e) of unreasonably causing substantial annoyance to another person; or
 - (f) of unreasonably disrupting the privacy of another person,
- shall be guilty of an offence.

Penalty: $2,000 or imprisonment for 6 months, or both.

47AA Violent disorder

- (1) A person is guilty of an offence if:
- (a) the person is one of 2 or more people engaging in conduct that involves a violent act; and
 - (b) the conduct would result in anyone who is in the vicinity and of reasonable firmness fearing for his or her safety; and
 - (c) the person:
 - (i) intends or knows that the conduct involves a violent act and would have the result mentioned in paragraph (b); or
 - (ii) is reckless as to whether the conduct involves a violent act and would have that result.

Maximum penalty: Imprisonment for 12 months.

- (2) To avoid doubt:
- (a) to establish the offence, it is unnecessary to prove that each of the 2 or more people individually engaged in conduct that involves a violent act and would have the result mentioned in subsection (1)(b); and
 - (b) no person of reasonable firmness need actually be, or be likely to be, present in the vicinity for the offence to be committed; and
 - (c) the offence may be committed in private or public places; and
 - (d) subsection (1)(c) does not affect the determination of the number of people mentioned in subsection (1)(a).

- (3) The offence is an offence to which Part IIAA of the Criminal Code applies.

Note for subsection (3)

Part IIAA of the Criminal Code states the general principles of criminal responsibility (including burdens of proof and general defences) and defines terms used for offences, for example, "conduct", "intention" and "recklessness".

- (4) In this section:

conduct that involves a violent act includes:

- (a) conduct capable of causing injury to a person or damage to property (whether or not it actually causes such injury or damage); and
- (b) a threat to engage in such conduct.

47AB Threatening violence

A person who:

- (a) with intent to intimidate or annoy a person, threatens to damage a dwelling-house; or

is guilty of an offence.

Penalty: Imprisonment for 12 months or, where the offence is committed at night-time, 2 years.

47AC Loitering by sexual offender

- (1) In this section, sexual offence means:
- (a) an offence against Division 2 of Part V of the Criminal Code;
 - (b) an offence against sections 188(2)(k), 192, 192B or 201 of the Criminal Code;
 - (c) an offence of:
 - (i) counselling or procuring;
 - (ii) aiding or abetting the commission of;
 - (iii) conspiring to commit;
 - (iv) attempting to commit; or
 - (v) being an accessory after the fact to, such an offence.

- (2) A person who:
- (a) has been found guilty of:
 - (i) a sexual offence;
 - (ii) murder where there are reasonable grounds to believe that a sexual offence was also committed on the victim; or
 - (iii) an offence against section 50; and
 - (b) is found, without reasonable excuse, idling or lingering about in or near:
 - (i) a school, kindergarten or child care centre; or
 - (ii) a public place regularly frequented by children and in which children are present at the time of the loitering,

is guilty of an offence.

Penalty: $5,000 or imprisonment for 12 months.

- (3) If a person has at any time been convicted of an offence against a law of a State or another Territory of the Commonwealth which creates an offence substantially similar to a sexual offence, the conviction for the offence against that law shall be taken for the purposes of this section to be a conviction of a sexual offence.

47A Loitering – general offence

- (1) A person loitering in any public place who does not give a satisfactory account of himself when requested so to do by a member of the Police Force shall, on request by a member of the Police Force to cease loitering, cease so to loiter.

Penalty: $2,000 or imprisonment for 6 months, or both.

- (2) Where a person is loitering in a public place and a member of the Police Force believes, on reasonable grounds:
- (a) that an offence has been or is likely to be committed; or
 - (b) that the movement of pedestrian or vehicular traffic is obstructed or is about to be obstructed, by that person or by any other person loitering in the vicinity of that person;

- (c) that the safety of the person or any person in his vicinity is in danger; or
- (d) that the person is interfering with the reasonable enjoyment of other persons using the public place for the purpose or purposes for which it was intended, the member of the Police Force may require any person so loitering to cease loitering and to remove from that public place any article under his control, and a person so required shall comply with and shall not contravene the requirement.

Penalty: $2,000 or imprisonment for 6 months, or both.

47B Loitering – offence following notice

- (1) A police officer may give a written notice to a person who is loitering at a public place:
 - (a) requiring the person to stay away from the place or an area including the place for a specified period not exceed 72 hours from the time the notice is given; and
 - (b) specifying the place or area, and the period, as is reasonable in the circumstances; and
 - (c) specifying the consequences of contravening the notice.
- (2) The officer may do so only if the officer reasonably suspects:
 - (a) the person has committed, or is about to commit, an offence at the place or in the area; or
 - (b) the person is part of a group of people at the place and one or more people in the group have committed or are about to commit an offence at the place or in the area.
- (4) The person is guilty of an offence if:
 - (a) the officer gives the person the notice; and
 - (b) the person contravenes the notice.

Maximum penalty: 100 penalty units or imprisonment for 6 months.

- (5) It is a defence for an offence against subsection (4) if the defendant proves that the defendant has a reasonable excuse.

- (6) The officer must ensure all reasonable steps are taken to explain to the person (in language the person can readily understand) the matters mentioned in subsection (1)(a) to (c).
- (7) The notice is not invalidated by a failure to comply with subsection (6).

49A Illegal use of vehicle, &c.

- (1) Any person who, without reasonable excuse:
 - (a) interferes with or tampers with any vehicle;
 - (b) works or uses any horse or other beast of burden; or
 - (c) interferes with, tampers with or goes on board a boat,without the consent of the owner or the person in lawful charge thereof, shall be guilty of an offence.

Penalty: 1,000 dollars or imprisonment for 6 months, or both.
- (2) A Court which finds a person guilty of an offence against this section may order him to pay to the owner of the vehicle, horse, other beast of burden, boat, equipment, material or article in respect of which the offence was committed, a reasonable sum by way of compensation for any loss or damage caused to the owner by the defendant by reason of the commission of the offence.
- (2A) Where a person is found guilty of an offence against this section, the Court may, in addition to or instead of any other penalty that may be imposed by the Court, suspend any licence to drive a motor vehicle within the meaning of the Motor Vehicles Act that is held by that person for such period as the Court thinks fit.
- (3) In this section boat includes canoe, dinghy, yacht, raft, pontoon, ship and any other like vessel.

50 Penalty for indecent exposure of the person

Any person who offends against decency by the exposure of his person in any street or public place, or in the view thereof, shall be guilty of an offence.

Penalty: $2,000 or imprisonment for 6 months, or both.

52 Injuring or extinguishing street lamps

Any person who wantonly or maliciously breaks or injures any pane of glass, lamp, or lamp post, or extinguishes any lamp set up for public convenience, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding 1,000 dollars, or imprisonment for 6 months, or both and in addition shall defray the necessary expense of repairing the damage done, to be estimated by the Justice finding the person guilty.

53 Obscenity

- (1) Any person who:
- (a) in a public place, or within the view or hearing of any person passing therein:
- (i) sings any obscene song or ballad, or writes or draws any indecent or obscene word, figure or representation, or uses any profane, indecent or obscene language,

shall be guilty of an offence.

- (7) A person who in a public place or in licensed premises within the meaning of the Liquor Act:
- (a) by threatening, abusive or objectionable words or behaviour, offends or causes substantial annoyance to another person; or
- (b) makes such a noise as might reasonably in the circumstances cause substantial annoyance to another person, whether that other person is in the public place, those premises or elsewhere, is guilty of an offence.

- (8) Where the words or behaviour or noise referred to in subsection (7) are or is made in licensed premises within the meaning of the Liquor Act and the Court is satisfied that the licensee might reasonably have taken action to prevent the commission of the offence, the licensee is also guilty of an offence.
- (9) The penalty for an offence against this section is a fine not exceeding $2,000 or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months, or both.
- (10) The Court hearing a complaint for an offence against this section shall not award costs against the complainant unless the Court considers that the complaint was unreasonably made.

53A Undue noise at social gathering after midnight

- (1) A member of the Police Force may, in response to a complaint from a person that undue noise is coming from any premises or part of premises where a social gathering is being held, being a complaint in respect of noise made after midnight on any night and where he considers that such noise constitutes undue noise, direct:

- (a) the person who is the occupier of the premises or part of the premises, as the case may be; or
- (b) if that person cannot be ascertained, the person responsible for the noise or in charge of the property producing the noise, to stop or abate the noise.

- (2) Where, at any time during the period of 12 hours immediately after a person has been directed under subsection (1) to stop or abate undue noise (other than the period of 10 minutes after the direction is given), undue noise comes from the premises or part of the premises in respect of which the complaint was made, the person to whom the direction was given is guilty of an offence.

Penalty: $2,000.

53B Undue noise

- (1) A member of the Police Force may, in response to a complaint from a person that undue noise is coming from any premises or part of premises and where he considers that such noise constitutes undue noise, direct:

- (a) the person making or causing or permitting the noise to be made; or
- (b) the person apparently at the time in charge of the premises or part of the premises, as the case may be,

to stop or abate the noise.

- (2) A member of the Police Force may, in response to a complaint from a person that undue noise is coming from any unoccupied land and where he considers that such noise constitutes undue noise, direct the person making the noise or causing or permitting the noise to be made to stop or abate the noise.

- (2A) A direction under subsection (1) or (2):

- (a) may be given by reference to a period of hours during which, or specific times when, the noise is to be stopped or abated; and
- (b) in any event, shall remain in force for not more than 48 hours.

- (3) A person who has been directed under subsection (1) or (2) to stop or abate undue noise and who, other than during the period of 10 minutes immediately after being so directed:

- (a) continues to make the noise or continues to cause or permit the noise to be made; or
- (b) does not abate the noise, in contravention of the direction is guilty of an offence.

Penalty: $2,000.

53C Certificate of member of Police Force to be evidence

In a prosecution for an offence against section 53A or 53B a certificate by a member of the Police Force stating that a complaint of a kind referred to in those sections had, at a specified time and on a specified date, been made is prima facie evidence of the matters stated in the certificate.

53D Noise abatement orders

- (1) Where a person occupying premises makes a complaint to a Justice alleging that his occupation of those premises is affected by undue noise, the Justice may issue his summons for the appearance before him or any other Justice of the person who is:

- (a) alleged to be making or causing or permitting the noise to be made; or
- (b) the occupier or person apparently in charge of the premises or part of the premises from which the noise is alleged to be emitted.

- (2) If the Court is satisfied that an alleged undue noise exists, or that although abated it is likely to recur on the same premises or part of the premises, the Court may, where it finds that such noise is not justified in the circumstances, make an order directing the person summoned under subsection (1) to stop or abate the noise or to confine the making of the noise to within such hours as the Court may fix and the Court may, in making the order, impose such other conditions as it thinks fit.

- (3) A person shall not contravene or fail to comply with an order made under subsection (2).

Penalty: $2,000.

- (4) Where:
- (a) a direction has been given under section 53A or 53B; and
 - (b) a member is satisfied that another person requires the name and address of the person to whom the direction was given for the purposes of making a complaint under subsection (1) in respect of that person or instituting any civil suit or proceeding in respect of the noise the subject of the direction,
- the member may provide the other person with the name and address of the person to whom the direction was given.
- (5) Where the Court makes an order under subsection (2), the Court may order the defendant to pay to the complainant such costs as it thinks fit.
- (6) Where the Court refuses to make an order under subsection (2), the Court shall not award costs against the complainant unless the Court is satisfied that the complaint made was vexatious or unreasonable.

53E Powers of police

- (1) For the purposes of giving a direction under section 53A or 53B, a member of the Police Force may enter the premises or the part of the premises from which the noise is coming together with such assistance and using such force as the member considers reasonable for the purpose.
- (2) A member of the Police Force who enters premises or a part of premises under this section may require a person in the premises or the part to answer a question asked for the purpose of identifying the occupier of the premises or the part or the person responsible for the noise or in charge of the property that is producing the noise.
- (3) A person asked a question under subsection (2) shall not refuse or fail to answer the question to the best of his knowledge or belief.

Penalty: $200.

53F Compliance with direction

For the purposes of a prosecution of an offence against sections 53A and 53B, it is immaterial that noise coming from the premises or the part of the premises after a direction has been given is not of the same nature or of the same level as the noise to which the direction given related.

54 Stealing domestic animals

Any person who steals any dog, or any bird or animal ordinarily kept in a state of confinement and not being the subject of larceny, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding 200 dollars, in addition to the value of the dog, bird, or animal stolen.

55 Challenge to fight

- (1) Any person who sends or accepts, either by word or letter, any challenge to fight for money, or engages in any prize fight, shall be liable to a penalty of 500 dollars, or to imprisonment, for any period not exceeding 3 months, or both.
- (2) The Justice before whom any person is found guilty of an offence against this section may, if he thinks fit, in addition to imposing a penalty, also require that person to find sureties for keeping the peace.

55A Consorting between known offenders

- (1) A person is guilty of an offence if:
 - (a) the Commissioner gives a written notice to the person under this section prohibiting the person, for a specified period not exceeding 12 months, from one or both of the following as specified in the notice:
 - (i) being in company with one or more specified persons;
 - (ii) communicating in any way (including by post, fax, phone and other electronic means, and whether directly or indirectly) with one or more specified persons; and
 - (b) the person contravenes the notice.

Maximum penalty: Imprisonment for 2 years.

- (2) It is a defence for an offence against subsection (1) if the defendant proves that:
 - (a) the defendant has a reasonable excuse; or
 - (b) the defendant, having unintentionally associated with a person specified in the notice, terminated the association immediately.
- (3) In subsection (2), a reference to an association with the specified person is a reference to being in company, or communicating, with the specified person in contravention of the notice.

- (4) The Commissioner may give a notice to a person (the notified person) under subsection (1) only if:
- (a) the notified person and each person specified in the notice (a specified person) have each been found guilty of a prescribed offence; and
 - (b) the Commissioner reasonably believes that giving the notice is likely to prevent the commission of a prescribed offence involving:
 - (i) 2 or more offenders; and
 - (ii) substantial planning and organisation.
- (5) The notice must specify:
- (a) the notified person's obligations under the notice; and
 - (b) the consequences of contravening the notice.
- (6) The Commissioner must ensure all reasonable steps are taken to explain to the notified person (in language the notified person can readily understand) the matters mentioned in subsection (5)(a) and (b).
- (7) In addition, the Commissioner must give each specified person a notice under subsection (1) imposing similar obligations in relation to prohibiting the specified person from one or both of the following:
- (a) being in company with the notified person and each of the other specified persons;
 - (b) communicating with the notified person and each of the other specified persons.
- (8) However, the Commissioner may disregard subsection (7) in exceptional circumstances.
- (9) A notice under subsection (1) is not invalidated by a failure to comply with subsections (6) to (8).
- (10) A reference to a prescribed offence in subsection (4) is a reference to an offence:
- (a) prescribed by regulation; and
 - (b) the maximum penalty for which is imprisonment for 10 years or more.

56 Offences

(1) Any person who:

- (c) wanders abroad, or from house to house, or places himself in any public place, street, highway, court, or passage, to beg or gather alms, or causes or procures or encourages any child so to do;
- (e) has on or about his person, without lawful excuse (proof whereof shall lie upon the person charged), any deleterious drug, or any article of disguise; or
- (i) habitually consorts with reputed criminals,

shall be guilty of an offence.

Penalty: 500 dollars or imprisonment for 3 months, or both.
