BAIL ACT

An Act to provide for the granting of bail to accused persons in or in connection with criminal proceedings

Part I Preliminary

1 Short title

This Act may be cited as the Bail Act.

2 Commencement

This Act shall come into operation on a date to be fixed by the Administrator by notice in the Gazette.

3 Interpretation

(1) In this Act, unless the contrary intention appears:

adult means a person at least 18 years of age.

appeal means an appeal made under:

- (a) Division 2 of Part VI of the Justices Act;
- (b) section 144 of the Youth Justice Act;
- (c) section 10 of the Parole of Prisoners Act;
- (d) Division 2 of Part X of the Criminal Code; or
- (e) Part III of the Supreme Court Act.

authorized member, in relation to a person in custody, means a member of the Police Force who may, under Part III, grant bail to the person.

bail means authorization under this Act:

- (a) to be at liberty instead of in custody; or

- (b) to be released from the obligation to comply with a non-custodial order.

bail condition means a condition imposed under section 27.

bail undertaking means an undertaking given under section 25.

child means a person under the age of 18 years.

Commonwealth sexual offence means an indictable offence against the law of the Commonwealth of which an element is:

- (a) sexual intercourse or sexual penetration; or
- (b) an indecent act or an act of a sexual nature; or
- (c) sexual slavery, sexual servitude or any other form of sexual exploitation; or
- (d) encouraging, or benefiting from, child sex tourism; or
- (e) production, communication, use, or any other act involving, pornographic material; or
- (f) an attempt to commit, an act of procuring, or any other act preparatory to the commission of, any of the above.

conduct agreement means an agreement by an accused person to observe specified requirements as to conduct while on bail – see section 27(2)(a).

conviction includes a finding of guilt and, without limiting the foregoing part of this definition, includes the making of an order under:

- (a) section 4 of the Criminal Law (Conditional Release of Offenders) Act;
- (b) section 26(2)(b) of the Child Welfare Act; and
- (c) section 75(2) of the Justices Act.

court means:

- (a) the Supreme Court;
- (ba) the Local Court;
- (b) the Court of Summary Jurisdiction; or

- (c) the Youth Justice Court continued in existence by section 45 of the Youth Justice Act, and includes a Judge, magistrate or justice not sitting as a court.

Judge means a Judge of the Supreme Court.

justice means a Justice of the Peace, but does not include a member of the Police Force, a magistrate or a Judge.

magistrate has the same meaning as Magistrate in the Magistrates Act.

offence includes:

- (a) a failure to comply with a condition of a parole order made under section 5(5) of the Parole of Prisoners Act; and
- (b) a failure to comply with a condition to which an order made under section 5(1)(a) of the Criminal Law (Conditional Release of Offenders) Act is subject.

pornographic material means material of an indecent, sadistic, sadomasochistic or abusive character (including material related to child abuse).

serious offence means an offence punishable by imprisonment for 5 or more years.

serious sexual offence, see section 3A.

serious violence offence means an offence against any of the following provisions of the Criminal Code that is punishable by imprisonment for 5 or more years:

- (a) Part V, Division 2;
- (b) Part VI, Divisions 3 to 6A;
- (c) section 211 or 212;
- (d) another provision prescribed by the Regulations.

Supreme Court includes a Judge of that Court.

Territory sexual offence means an indictable offence of which an element is:

- (a) sexual intercourse or sexual penetration; or
- (b) a sexual relationship; or

- (c) sexual abuse; or
 - (d) indecent touching or an indecent assault; or
 - (e) any other indecent act directed against a person; or
 - (f) the making, collection, exhibition or display of an indecent object or pornographic material; or
 - (g) sexual servitude or any other form of sexual exploitation; or
 - (h) an attempt to commit, an act of procuring, or any other act preparatory to the commission of, any of the above.
- (2) A reference in this Act to an accused person, or a person accused of an offence, includes a reference to:
- (a) a person charged with, convicted of or found guilty of an offence;
 - (b) a person in respect of whom an appeal is pending;
 - (c) a person whose case has been remitted by the Supreme Court under section 177(2)(d) of the Justices Act to a court for hearing or further hearing;
 - (d) a person committed under section 6(2A) or (6), 15(4) or 25(4) of the Criminal Law (Conditional Release of Offenders) Act or the Sentencing Act to appear before, or be dealt with by, a court; and
 - (e) a person brought before the Court of Summary Jurisdiction under section 5(10) of the Parole of Prisoners Act.
- (3) A reference in this Act to entering into a bail condition is a reference, if the condition is imposed under:
- (a) section 27(2)(a), (c) or (d) – to entering into the agreement or agreements; or
 - (b) section 27(2)(b) – to making and signing the acknowledgement; or
 - (c) section 27(2)(e) or (f) – to entering into the agreement or agreements and depositing the security; or
 - (d) section 27(2)(g) or (h) – to entering into the agreement or agreements and depositing the amount or amounts of money; or

- (e) section 27(2)(j) – to depositing every passport, whether Australian or foreign, held by the accused person; in accordance with the condition.

- (4) A reference, however expressed, in this Act (other than in section 24) to the grant of bail includes a reference to the continuation of bail under section 32.

3A Serious sexual offences

- (1) In this Act, a serious sexual offence is a Territory sexual offence or a Commonwealth sexual offence for which a maximum penalty of imprisonment for 7 years or more is prescribed.
- (2) The following offences are also serious sexual offences (even though a lesser maximum penalty may be prescribed):
 - (a) an offence, committed by an adult, consisting of an attempt to procure, or the act of procuring, a child under the age of 16 years to engage in sexual intercourse or an indecent act;
 - (b) an offence, committed by an adult, consisting of indecent assault on a child under the age of 16 years;
 - (c) an offence, committed by an adult in the presence of a child, consisting of the commission of an act of gross indecency in a public place.

4 Application of Act

- (1) This Act applies to a person whether or not he has attained the age of 18 years.
- (2) Except where otherwise expressly provided by or under this Act, this Act applies in relation to the grant of bail to accused persons to the exclusion of any other law in force immediately before the commencement of this Act so far as any other such law makes provision for or with respect to bail for accused persons.

5 Savings and transitional

- (1) This Act does not affect bail granted, or a discharge upon a recognizance of bail entered into, under a law before the commencement of this Act in relation to an accused person, and for the purposes of or for purposes connected with such bail or recognizance this Act shall be deemed not to have been enacted.

- (2) Nothing in subsection (1) prevents the making of a decision under this Act, or the exercise or performance of a power, authority, duty or function thereunder, in respect of an offence or other matter (or any proceedings in connection therewith) to or with which the bail or recognizance of bail referred to in that subsection relates or is connected.
- (3) The Regulations may make other provisions of a savings or transitional nature consequent upon the enactment of this Act in connection with any law, and those provisions may, but need not, operate by reference to any provision of this Act and shall have effect notwithstanding anything in subsection (1) or (2).

Part II General provisions relating to bail

Division 1 Bail generally

6 Grant of bail for certain periods

Bail may be granted in accordance with this Act to an accused person in respect of any one or more of the following periods (so far as they relate to the offence of which the person is accused):

- (a) the period between his being charged with the offence and his first appearance before a court in or in connection with proceedings for the offence;
- (b) the period between committal for trial or sentence and his appearance before the Supreme Court consequent upon the committal;
- (c) the period of any adjournment or adjournments, including:
 - (i) any adjournment or adjournments during the course of a trial;
 - (ii) any adjournment or adjournments after the accused pleads, or is found, guilty but before he is sentenced; and
 - (iii) any period deemed under section 15 to be the period of an adjournment;
- (ca) the period between the finding under section 357 of the Criminal Code by the Supreme Court that an accused is not capable of understanding the proceedings at his trial so as to be able to make a proper defence and his being dealt with according to law;

- (d) the period between the institution of an appeal and its determination;
- (e) the period between the determination of an appeal and:
 - (i) his appearance before a court to abide the result of the determination of the appeal; or
 - (ii) his appearance before a court to which the matter is remitted under section 177(2)(d) of the Justices Act;
- (f) the period between the committal of a person under section 6(2A) or (6), 15(4) or 25(4) of the Criminal Law (Conditional Release of Offenders) Act or section 40 of the Sentencing Act to appear before, or be dealt with by, a court and his appearance in accordance with that committal; and
- (g) any other period prescribed by the Regulations.

7 Rights following grant of bail

(1) When:

- (a) bail is granted to an accused person in respect of an offence;
- (b) he enters into the bail undertaking; and
- (c) if a bail condition or bail conditions are imposed, it or they are entered into,

he is, subject to this Act, entitled:

- (d) to be released from custody and to remain at liberty in respect of the offence; or
- (e) to be released from the obligation to comply with a non-custodial order in respect of the offence, until he is required to appear before a court in accordance with his undertaking.

- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to an accused person while he is also in custody or the subject of a non-custodial order for some other offence or reason in respect of which he is not entitled (whether under this Act or otherwise) to be at liberty or released.

Division 1A Presumption against bail for certain offences

7A Presumption against bail for certain offences

- (1) This section applies to the following offences:
- (a) murder;
 - (b) treason;
 - (c) an offence against the Misuse of Drugs Act punishable by a term of imprisonment for more than 7 years;
 - (d) an offence against the Customs Act 1901 of the Commonwealth in relation to narcotic goods punishable by a term of imprisonment for 10 years or more;
 - (da) an offence against Division 307 of the Criminal Code (Cth) punishable by a term of imprisonment for 10 years or more;
 - (e) a serious violence offence, other than the offence of murder, (the relevant offence) if:
 - (i) the person accused of the relevant offence is an adult who is charged with committing the relevant offence while on bail for a serious offence; and
 - (ii) the person has been found guilty of another serious offence within the period specified in subsection (1A); and
 - (iii) one or both of the serious offences mentioned in subparagraphs (i) and (ii) are serious violence offences;
 - (f) a serious sexual offence.
- (1A) The following periods are specified for subsection (1)(e)(ii):
- (a) if the serious offence mentioned in subsection (1)(e)(ii) is a serious violence offence – the period of 10 years immediately preceding the date of the relevant offence;
 - (b) if the serious offence mentioned in subsection (1)(e)(ii) is not a serious violence offence – the period of 2 years immediately preceding the date of the relevant offence.
- (2) A person accused of an offence to which this section applies is not to be granted bail unless the person satisfies an authorised member or court that bail should not be refused.

- (2A) However, subsection (2) does not apply to a person who:
- (a) is accused of an offence to which this section applies; but
 - (b) is assessed to be suitable to participate in a program of rehabilitation that is prescribed by the Regulations.
- (3) The requirement for bail cannot be dispensed with for a person accused of an offence to which this section applies and section 9(2) does not apply with respect to any such offence.

Division 2 Presumption in favour of bail

8 Presumption in favour of bail for certain offences

- (1) This section applies to all offences except the following:
- (a) an offence mentioned in section 7A(1);
 - (aa) an offence against section 181, 192(3), (4), (6), (7) or (8) of the Criminal Code, or section 120 of the Domestic and Family Violence Act, if the person accused of the offence has, within the period of 10 years immediately preceding the date of that offence, been found guilty of any of the following offences:
 - (i) the offence of murder;
 - (ii) an offence against section 181, 186, 188 or 192 of the Criminal Code;
 - (iii) an offence against a law of a State or other Territory or another country that is similar to an offence mentioned in subparagraph (i) or (ii);
 - (ab) a serious offence (the relevant offence) if the person accused of the relevant offence:
 - (i) is an adult charged with committing the relevant offence while on bail for a serious offence; and
 - (ii) has been found guilty of another serious offence within the period specified in subsection (1A);
 - (b) an offence where the accused person is the subject of an order made under section 5(1)(b) of the Criminal Law (Conditional Release of Offenders) Act or section 40 of the Sentencing Act which may be breached if the person is convicted of the offence, unless:

- (i) the offence is a contravention of or failure to comply with an instrument of a legislative or administrative character; or
- (ii) the authorised member or court is of the opinion that the offence is so minor that a court is unlikely to regard it as a breach of the suspended sentence.

(1A) The following periods are specified for subsection (1)(ab)(ii):

- (a) if the serious offence mentioned in subsection (1)(ab)(ii) is a serious violence offence – the period of 10 years immediately preceding the date of the relevant offence;
 - (b) if the serious offence mentioned in subsection (1)(ab)(ii) is not a serious violence offence – the period of 2 years immediately preceding the date of the relevant offence.
- (2) A person accused of an offence to which this section applies is entitled to be granted bail in accordance with this Act unless:
- (a) an authorized member or court is satisfied that he or it is, pursuant to a consideration of the matters referred to in section 24, justified in refusing bail;
 - (b) the person stands convicted of the offence; or
 - (c) the requirement for bail is dispensed with under section 9.
- (3) Subject to subsection (4), a person is entitled under this section to be granted bail in respect of an offence to which this section applies, notwithstanding that he is in custody also for some other offence or reason, in respect of which he is not entitled to be granted bail.
- (4) A person is not entitled under this section to be granted bail in respect of an offence to which this section applies, if:
- (a) he is in custody serving a sentence of imprisonment in connection with some other offence; and
 - (b) the authorized member or court is satisfied that the person is likely to remain in custody in connection with that other offence for a longer period than that for which bail in connection with the first-mentioned offence would be granted.
- (5) To avoid doubt, if an offence mentioned in subsection (1)(a), (aa), (ab) or (b) is also mentioned in section 7A(1), section 7A applies to that offence.

Division 3 Dispensing with bail

9 Dispensing with bail

- (1) A court that may grant bail to an accused person may instead dispense with the requirement for bail.
- (2) Where, during an appearance by an accused person before a court, no specific order or direction is made by the court in respect of bail, the court shall be deemed to have dispensed with the requirement for bail.

10 Effect of dispensing with bail

- (1) While the requirement for bail is or is deemed to be dispensed with under this Act in respect of a person accused of an offence, he is entitled:
 - (a) to be released from custody and to remain at liberty in respect of the offence; or
 - (b) to be released from the obligation to comply with a non-custodial order in respect of the offence,until he is required to appear before a court in respect of the offence.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to an accused person while he is also in custody or the subject of a non-custodial order for some other offence or reason in respect of which he is not entitled (whether under this Act or otherwise) to be at liberty or released.

11 Decision to dispense with bail

For the purposes of Part VI, where a court dispenses with, or is deemed to have dispensed with, the requirement for bail, the court shall be deemed to have made a decision to dispense with the requirement for bail.

Division 4 Miscellaneous provisions

12 Bail may be granted where no entitlement

An accused person not entitled under section 8 to be granted bail may nevertheless be granted bail.

13 Power to refuse bail

A power conferred by this Act to grant bail shall, subject to this Act, be deemed to include a power to refuse bail, but the power to refuse bail may only be exercised in conformity with this Act.

14 Grant of bail when not in custody

- (1) An accused person may be granted or refused bail in accordance with this Act, notwithstanding that he is not in custody.
- (2) Nothing in this Act requires the grant of bail to an accused person who is not in custody.

15 Extension of meaning of adjournment in section 6

For the purposes of section 6(c)(iii), the following periods shall be deemed to be the period of an adjournment:

- (a) the period between the making of an order for a separate trial or for the postponement of a trial and the commencement of the separate or postponed trial;
- (b) the period between the appearance of an accused person before a justice in pursuance of a warrant issued under section 301(1) of the Criminal Code and the date fixed for his trial;
- (ba) the period of adjournment under section 383(3) of the Criminal Code; and
- (c) the period between the bringing up by a writ of habeas corpus of a person committed to prison by virtue of any summary conviction of a justice or justices or a magistrate and the final decision of the case, where the Supreme Court postpones the final decision of the case.

Part III Police bail16 Authority for police to grant bail

- (2) A member of the Police Force may, as an alternative to bringing a person he has arrested before a justice or a court of competent jurisdiction as required by Division 6 of Part VII of the Police Administration Act, within the time in which under that Division he would be required to bring the person before the justice or the court:
 - (a) inform the person charged of his right to apply for bail; and

- (b) as far as practicable, ensure that the person charged is able to communicate with a legal practitioner or any other person of his choosing in connection with an application for bail.
- (3) An authorized member shall, as soon as practicable after a person becomes entitled to apply for bail, determine whether bail should be granted under this Act.
- (4) The member referred to in subsection (2) may refrain from complying with subsection (2)(b) if he believes, on reasonable grounds, that it is necessary to do so in order to prevent:
 - (a) the escape of an accomplice of the accused person; or
 - (b) the loss, destruction or fabrication of evidence relating to an offence.
- (5) A member of the Police Force who holds the rank of Sergeant or higher rank or any other member of the Police Force who is for the time being in charge of a police station may grant bail under this Part.

17 Bail in respect of several offences

Where a person is charged with 2 or more offences at the same time:

- (a) an authorized member considering whether to grant bail to the person shall decide, at the same time, whether to grant, or refuse to grant, bail to the person in respect of all the charges;
- (b) an application may be made for bail in respect of all the charges, but not otherwise; and
- (c) any bail that is granted to the person shall be granted in respect of all the charges and separate undertakings shall not be required in respect of each charge.

18 Bail register

An authorized member shall, upon granting bail to a person, enter either in a book kept for that purpose in the police station where bail is granted or cause to be stored on a computer maintained for that purpose elsewhere, the name, residence and occupation of the person and of a person who, pursuant to Division 3 of Part V makes an acknowledgement or enters into an agreement in respect of the person granted bail, together with details of the conditions of bail and details of any money or securities given or deposited, and shall arrange to lay any undertaking, acknowledgement or agreement relating to the bail before a court before which the person is required to appear.

Part IV Court bail

19 General provisions as to court bail

- (1) There is no limit on the number of applications in relation to bail that may be made to a court by a person accused of an offence.
- (2) All applications to a court in relation to bail shall be dealt with as soon as reasonably practicable.
- (3) The Regulations may make provision for or with respect to the manner of making applications to courts in relation to bail.
- (4) Notwithstanding subsections (1) and (2), a court may refuse to entertain an application in relation to bail if it is satisfied that the application is frivolous or vexatious.

20 Power of magistrates and justices to grant bail

- (1) Subject to section 21, a magistrate or justice may, at any time:
 - (a) grant bail to a person brought or appearing before him accused of an offence; or
 - (b) except as prescribed by the Regulations, grant bail to a person not brought or appearing before him, but being an appellant under Division 2 of Part VI of the Justices Act.
- (2) Subject to section 21, a magistrate may at any time grant bail by telephone to a person who is apprehended by a member of the Police Force in accordance with a warrant to apprehend the person and bring him or her before a court.

21 Limitations on power of magistrates and justices

Subject to sections 31 and 38, bail may not be granted under section 20 by a magistrate or a justice to a person after that person has appeared before the Supreme Court:

- (a) following his committal for trial or sentence; or
- (b) following his being brought up by a writ of habeas corpus, as referred to in section 15(c), in connection with the offence.

22 Limitation on length of adjournments where bail refused

Where an accused person is refused bail by a justice in respect of an offence, an adjournment of the hearing by the justice shall, except with the consent of the accused person, be for a period not exceeding 15 clear days.

23 Power of Supreme Court to grant bail

- (1) The Supreme Court may grant bail in accordance with this Act to a person accused of an offence, whether or not he has appeared before the Supreme Court in connection with the offence.
- (2) If a person is arrested by a police officer under a warrant issued by the Supreme Court, a Judge may grant bail to the person by telephone or another form of electronic communication the Judge considers appropriate.

23A Limitation on power to grant bail

Notwithstanding anything in this Act, where an appeal is pending in the Court of Criminal Appeal against:

- (a) a conviction on indictment; or
- (b) a sentence passed on conviction on indictment, bail shall not be granted by the Court or any other court unless it is established that special or exceptional circumstances exist justifying the grant of bail.

Part V Provisions applying to both police and court bail

Division 1 Criteria to be considered in bail applications

24 Criteria to be considered in bail applications

- (1) In making a determination as to the grant of bail to an accused person, an authorized member or a court shall take into consideration so far as they can reasonably be ascertained the following matters only:
 - (a) the probability of whether or not the person will appear in court in respect of the offence for which bail is being considered, having regard only to:
 - (i) the person's background and community ties, as indicated by the history and details of his residence, employment and family situations and, if known, his prior criminal record;
 - (ii) any previous failure to appear in court pursuant to a recognizance of bail entered into before the commencement of this section or pursuant to a bail undertaking;
 - (iii) the circumstances of the offence (including its nature and seriousness), the strength of the evidence against the person and the severity of the penalty or probable penalty; and
 - (iv) any specific evidence indicating whether or not it is probable that the person will appear in court;
 - (b) the interests of the person, having regard only to:
 - (i) the period that the person may be obliged to spend in custody if bail is refused and the conditions under which he would be held in custody;
 - (ii) the needs of the person to be free to prepare for his appearance in court or to obtain legal advice or both;
 - (iii) the needs of the person to be free for any lawful purpose not mentioned in subparagraph (ii); and

- (iv) whether or not the person is, in the opinion of the authorized member or court, incapacitated by intoxication, injury or use of a drug or is otherwise in danger of physical injury or in need of physical protection;
- (c) the risk (if any) that the accused person would (if released on bail) interfere with evidence, witnesses or jurors;
- (d) the risk (if any) that the accused person would (if released on bail) commit an offence, a breach of the peace, or a breach of the conditions of bail;
- (e) the risk (if any) that would result from the accused person's release on bail to the safety or welfare of:
 - (i) the alleged victim of the offence; or
 - (ii) the close relatives of the alleged victim; or
 - (iii) if the alleged victim is a child – any person (other than a close relative) who has the care of the child; or
 - (iv) any other person whose safety or welfare could, in the circumstances of the case, be at risk if the accused person were to be released on bail.
- (2) For the purposes of this section, the authorized member or court may take into account any evidence or information which the authorized member or court considers credible or trustworthy in the circumstances, including hearsay evidence.
- (3) In assessing risks to others that could result from the release of an accused person on bail, the authorised member or court must have regard to risks of the following kinds:
 - (a) a risk of violence or intimidation;
 - (b) a risk of property damage;
 - (c) a risk of harassment;
 - (d) any other risk to safety or welfare.
- (4) If the alleged victim of an offence is a child, or the alleged offence is a serious sexual offence or a serious violence offence, the safety and welfare of the alleged victim must be considered with particular care.

- (5) In regard to a child's safety and welfare, the following matters are to be considered:
- (a) the child's age;
 - (b) the age of the accused person;
 - (c) any familial relationship that may exist between the child and the accused person;
 - (d) the living arrangements for the child and for the accused person (assuming the accused person's release on bail);
 - (e) the desirability of preserving the child's living arrangements and family and community relationships;
 - (f) the emotional as well as the physical wellbeing of the child;
 - (g) any other relevant matter.
- (6) If an alleged victim expresses concern to the prosecutor that the release of the accused person on bail could lead to a risk to the alleged victim's safety or welfare, the prosecutor must, wherever practicable, inform the authorised member or court about that concern and the reasons for it.

Division 2 Bail undertakings

25 Bail undertakings

- (1) A person shall not be released on bail unless he undertakes, in writing, to appear before such court, on such day and at such time and place as are specified in the undertaking.
- (2) A bail undertaking may be given in respect of more than one offence.
- (3) Notwithstanding subsection (1), a person who is to appear before the Supreme Court may be released on bail if he undertakes in writing to appear before the Supreme Court at such date, time and place as are specified in the undertaking, or at such other date, time and place as are specified in a notice given to him or the legal practitioner representing him by the Director of Public Prosecutions or a person authorized by the Director of Public Prosecutions in writing in that behalf.
- (4) A bail undertaking may include an undertaking, if bail is continued, to appear at a time and place at which proceedings in respect of the offence may be continued, whether upon an adjournment or otherwise.

- (5) An accused person who is granted bail is under a duty to appear in person before a court in accordance with his bail undertaking.

26 Persons to whom bail undertaking may be given

A bail undertaking may be given to:

- (a) a court;
- (b) an authorized member;
- (c) a clerk of the Court of Summary Jurisdiction;
- (d) the sheriff or a deputy sheriff; or
- (e) the officer in charge of a prison within the meaning of the Prisons (Correctional Services) Act.

Division 3 Bail conditions

27 Conditions of bail

- (1) Bail may be granted unconditionally or subject to conditions imposed by instrument in writing.
- (2) One or more of the following conditions may be imposed on the grant of bail under this section:
 - (a) that the accused person enter into an agreement to observe specified requirements as to his conduct while on bail, other than financial requirements (whether for the giving of security, the depositing of money, the forfeiture of money or otherwise);
 - (b) that one or more than one acceptable person, other than the accused person, acknowledge that he is acquainted with the accused person and that he regards the accused person as a responsible person who is likely to comply with his bail undertaking;
 - (c) that the accused person enter into an agreement, without security, to forfeit a specified amount of money if the accused person fails to comply with his bail undertaking;
 - (d) that one or more than one acceptable person, other than the accused person, enter into an agreement or agreements, without security, to forfeit a specified amount or specified amounts of money if the accused person fails to comply with his bail undertaking;

- (e) that the accused person enter into an agreement, and deposit acceptable security, to forfeit a specified amount of money if the accused person fails to comply with his bail undertaking;
- (f) that one or more than one acceptable person, other than the accused person, enter into an agreement or agreements, and deposit acceptable security, to forfeit a specified amount or specified amounts of money if the accused person fails to comply with his bail undertaking;
- (g) that the accused person deposit with an authorized member or a court a specified amount of money in cash and enter into an agreement to forfeit the amount deposited if the accused person fails to comply with his bail undertaking;
- (h) that one or more than one acceptable person, other than the accused person, deposit with an authorized member or a court a specified amount or specified amounts of money in cash and enter into an agreement or agreements to forfeit the amount or amounts deposited if the accused person fails to comply with his bail undertaking; or
- (j) where:
 - (i) bail is granted by a court; and
 - (ii) the offence with respect to which the application is made is an offence punishable by a term of imprisonment for 2 years or more, or, by payment of a penalty of $10,000 or more, that the accused person surrender every passport, whether Australian or foreign, held by the accused person.

(3) The determination as to:

- (a) which person or persons, or class or description of persons, are acceptable persons for the purposes of a condition referred to in subsection (2)(b), (d), (f) or (h) and the number of acceptable persons required for those purposes; or
- (b) the nature and sufficiency of security that is acceptable security for the purposes of a condition referred to in subsection (2)(e) or (f), shall be made by:

- (c) the authorized member or the court imposing the condition; or

- (d) in the absence of a determination by the authorized member or the court referred to in paragraph (c) – the court or person to whom the bail undertaking is given.
- (3A) Where a court imposes a bail condition under subsection (2)(j):
 - (a) the passport or passports shall be given to the Registrar or other appropriate officer of the court;
 - (b) the Registrar or other appropriate officer of the court shall cause the passport or passports to be kept in such custody as he or she thinks fit for such period, or on the occurrence of any contingency, as is specified by the court; and
 - (c) the passport or passports shall, in accordance with the terms specified under paragraph (b), be returned to the accused person unless the court orders otherwise.
- (3B) Where a court imposes a condition on the grant of bail under subsection (2)(j) and an Australian passport is surrendered in compliance with the condition, the Registrar or appropriate officer of the court shall, as soon as is practicable, give to the Minister administering the Australian Passports Act 2005 (Cth) a copy of the order.
- (4) The Regulations may require an acknowledgement under this section to contain such details, to be provided by the person making the acknowledgement, as are prescribed relating to the circumstances in which he is acquainted with the accused person.
- (5) An agreement or acknowledgement under this section shall be in writing.
- (6) A condition, agreement or acknowledgement under this section may be entered into or made in respect of more than one offence.

27A Conduct agreements

- (1) A conduct agreement may:
 - (a) prohibit an accused person from associating, or being in company, with one or more specified persons; or
 - (b) require an accused person to keep away from one or more specified persons or from persons of a specified class; or
 - (c) prohibit an accused person from communicating in any way (directly or indirectly) with one or more specified persons, or with a person of a specified class; or

- (d) prohibit an accused person from being within a particular locality or area; or
 - (e) prohibit an accused person from being outside a particular locality or area; or
 - (f) require an accused person to reside at a specified place; or
 - (g) require the accused person to report at specified intervals at a police station or other place; or
 - (h) prohibit an accused person from consuming alcoholic liquor or non-prescription drugs; or
 - (i) prohibit an accused person from engaging in conduct of any other specified kind; or
 - (j) contain a combination of 2 or more of the above.
- (2) A conduct agreement operates (subject to its terms) throughout the period for which the accused person is on bail.
- (3) A conduct agreement may be subject to exceptions and qualifications stated in the agreement.

Example

A conduct agreement might permit the accused person to leave a particular locality, contrary to a prohibition under subsection (1)(e), with a particular permission or in specified circumstances.

- (4) Contravention of a provision of a conduct agreement is to be regarded as a breach of a condition of bail.
- (5) A court may excuse a contravention of a conduct agreement if satisfied that the accused person had a reasonable excuse for the contravention.

28 Imposition of bail conditions

- (1) An authorised member or a court must, in granting bail, impose conditions that appear necessary to minimise risks to the safety or welfare of others, or to the proper administration of justice, that may result from releasing the accused person on bail.
- (2) The conditions must be reasonably proportionate to the risks.

29 Entry into agreement

Except as prescribed by the Regulations, where an authorized member or a court imposes a bail condition under section 27 that requires:

- (a) the entering into of an agreement – the agreement may be entered into with;
- (b) the making of an acknowledgment – the acknowledgement may be made to; or
- (c) the depositing of security or an amount of – the deposit may be made with, the court or person to whom the bail undertaking is given.

30 Provisions relating to money or security

- (1) A receipt shall be given for any money or security deposited pursuant to a bail condition.
- (2) Where a security or an amount of money is deposited with a person pursuant to section 29(c), otherwise than at a court, under an agreement entered into as a condition imposed on the grant of bail to an accused person, the person with whom the security or money is deposited shall, as soon as practicable, cause it, together with the form of undertaking and agreement, to be lodged with the court before which the accused person is required by his bail undertaking to appear.
- (3) Where a security or an amount of money is deposited under an agreement entered into as a condition imposed on the grant of bail to an accused person, and the accused person appears before the court in accordance with his bail undertaking, then an amount equal to the security or the amount of money shall be returned to the person by whom it was deposited.

31 Discharge of liability of persons other than accused

- (1) Where a person other than the accused person has entered into an agreement under section 27(2)(d), (f) or (h), he may, subject to subsection (5), at any time apply:
 - (a) where the bail was granted by a court:
 - (i) to the court which granted the bail; or
 - (ii) to the court of appearance; or

- (b) where the bail was granted by an authorized member – to the court of appearance, to discharge the applicant from his liability.

- (2) On an application being made under subsection (1), a Judge, justice or magistrate shall, if the accused person is not then in custody or before the court:
 - (a) issue a warrant to apprehend the accused person and bring him before the court; or
 - (b) issue a summons for his appearance before the court.
- (3) On the appearance of the accused person before the court, the court shall, unless satisfied that it would be unjust to do so, direct that the applicant be discharged from his liability, and the applicant is, upon the direction being given, thereby discharged accordingly.
- (4) If the court discharges the applicant from his liability, the court may impose further conditions on the grant of bail, and may by warrant commit the accused person to prison until he enters into the further conditions.
- (5) A person may not make an application under this section if the accused person has failed to comply with his bail undertaking or an agreement entered into by the accused person pursuant to a bail condition.
- (6) In this section, court of appearance means the court before which the accused person is required to appear in accordance with his bail undertaking.

Division 4 Continuation of bail

32 Continuation of bail

- (1) If a bail undertaking includes an undertaking to appear at a time and place at which proceedings in respect of the offence may be continued, whether upon an adjournment or otherwise, a court may, as it thinks fit, continue bail already granted in respect of the offence, whether or not the accused person then appears in person.
- (2) Where bail is continued, the bail undertaking and the bail conditions continue to apply, except to the extent that a condition or agreement thereunder otherwise provides or the court otherwise orders.

Part VI Review of bail decisions

Division 1 Police bail

33 Review

- (1) An authorized member shall ensure that:
- (a) the person charged is made aware of the determination of the member with respect to the granting of or the refusal to grant bail as soon as practicable after that determination is made;
 - (b) the person charged is aware of his right to apply to a magistrate or justice for a review of that determination in the circumstances mentioned in subsection (3); and
 - (c) as far as is practicable, the person charged is able to communicate with a legal practitioner or any other person in connection with an application to a magistrate or justice under this section.
- (2) An authorized member may refrain from complying with subsection (1)(c) if he believes on reasonable grounds that it is necessary to do so in order to prevent:
- (a) the escape of an accomplice of the person charged; or
 - (b) the loss, destruction or fabrication of evidence relating to an offence.
- (3) Where an authorized member:
- (a) refuses to grant bail to the person charged;
 - (b) fails to determine whether or not to grant bail to that person within a period of 4 hours after the person was charged with an offence; or
 - (c) determines to grant bail to the person subject to conditions (other than a bail undertaking) which the person is unable or unwilling to comply with, or which the person is unable or unwilling to arrange for another person to comply with, the person charged may apply to a magistrate or justice for a review of the determination, or for a grant of bail by the magistrate or justice where there has been a failure by the authorized member to grant bail, as the case may be.

- (4) Where the person charged indicates to a member of the Police Force that he wishes to make an application under subsection (3), the member shall, as soon as practicable after the person gives that indication, bring or arrange for the person to be brought before a magistrate or a justice or shall arrange for the person to make an application to a magistrate or justice by telephone, telex, radio or similar facility.
- (5) Where a person makes an application under this section to a magistrate or a justice, the magistrate or justice may, subject to this Act, after affording:
 - (a) the applicant or a legal practitioner representing him; and
 - (b) the authorized member concerned,an opportunity to make submissions, in his discretion grant or refuse to grant the person bail, or may review any conditions of bail granted by an authorized member, and may make such other orders as he thinks fit.

Division 2 Court bail

34 Review of bail decision

Except as prescribed by the Regulations:

- (a) a justice shall not review a decision in relation to bail except a decision made by himself; and
- (b) a magistrate shall not review a decision in relation to bail except a decision made by a justice or himself.

35 Review by Supreme Court

- (1) Subject to this Act, the Supreme Court may review a decision of a magistrate or justice or of the Supreme Court (however constituted) in relation to bail.
- (2) The power to review a decision pursuant to this section may be exercised whether or not power to do so under section 34 has been, or has been sought to be, exercised.

36 Provisions relating to review of bail decisions

- (1) The power under section 34 or 35 to review a bail decision:
 - (a) may only be exercised at the request of the accused person, the informant or complainant, being a member of the Police Force, or the Director of Public Prosecutions; and

- (b) includes the power to affirm or vary the decision or to substitute another decision.
- (2) A decision as varied or substituted under subsection (1) shall be in conformity with this Act.
- (3) The review of a decision shall be by way of rehearing, and evidence or information in addition to, or in substitution for, the evidence or information given or obtained on the making of the decision may be given or obtained on the review.
- (4) Where, on a review under this Division of a decision, bail for an accused person is revoked, a magistrate or justice may by warrant commit the person to prison.
- (5) Where, on a review under this Division of a decision:
 - (a) bail is granted unconditionally and no bail undertaking has been given by the accused person; or
 - (b) a bail condition is imposed,a magistrate or justice may by warrant commit the person to prison until he gives the undertaking or enters into the condition, as the case may be.
- (6) A court may refuse to entertain a request to review, under this Division, a decision if the court is satisfied that the request is frivolous or vexatious.
- (7) The Regulations may make provisions for or in relation to:
 - (a) the manner of making a request to review under this Division a decision in relation to bail;
 - (b) the giving or sending to persons of notices relating to the proposed exercise of the power to review under this Division a decision in relation to bail; and
 - (c) the circumstances in which such a power may be exercised in the absence of the accused person or his representative as if he or his representative were present.

36A Immediate review and stay of decision to grant bail

- (1) This section applies if:
 - (a) a magistrate or justice decides to release an accused person on bail; and

- (b) a police officer or legal practitioner appearing for the Crown immediately informs the magistrate or justice that a request for review of the decision is to be made to the Supreme Court under this section.
- (2) The decision of the magistrate or justice is stayed.
- (3) The accused person must not be released while the stay of the decision has effect under this section.
- (4) The stay of the decision has effect until the earliest of the following:
 - (a) the Court affirms or varies the decision or substitutes another decision for the decision of the magistrate or justice;
 - (b) a police officer or legal practitioner appearing for the Crown files in the Court a notice that the Crown does not desire to proceed with the review;
 - (c) 4 pm on the day that is 3 business days after the day the decision was made.
- (5) The Court may extend the time referred to in subsection (4)(c) if the Court thinks that it is appropriate to do so in the circumstances.
- (6) The Court may exercise its power under subsection (5) more than once.
- (7) The request for the review of the decision must be dealt with as expeditiously as possible.
- (8) The review is by way of rehearing.
- (9) Evidence or information in addition to, or in substitution for, the evidence or information given or obtained on the making of the decision may be given or obtained on the review.
- (10) A decision as varied or substituted under subsection (4)(a) must conform with this Act.
- (11) If the person is released because of subsection (4)(b) or (c), the conditions of bail are those that would have applied had the decision not been stayed.
- (12) In this section:

business day means a day other than a Saturday, Sunday or public holiday.

37 Right of accused to apply for bail

Subject to section 36A, this Part does not limit the right of an accused person in custody to apply for bail, and he may so apply for bail notwithstanding that the power to review a decision already made in relation to the grant of bail to him has not been, or has not been sought to be, exercised under this Part.

Part VII Non-compliance with undertaking or conditions38 Arrest for absconding or breach of condition

- (1) Where a member of the Police Force believes on reasonable grounds that a person who has been released on bail has, while on bail, failed to comply with, or is, while on bail, about to fail to comply with, his bail undertaking or an agreement entered into by him pursuant to a bail condition:
 - (a) a police officer may arrest the person without warrant and take him as soon as practicable before a court; or
 - (b) a magistrate or justice may:
 - (i) issue a warrant to apprehend the person and bring him before a court; or
 - (ii) issue a summons for his appearance before a court.
- (2) The court before which the person is brought or appears may:
 - (a) release him on his original bail; or
 - (b) revoke his original bail and otherwise deal with him according to law.
- (3) If the court revokes the person's original bail, the court or any other court before which he is brought or appears:
 - (a) may grant bail to him in accordance with this Act; or
 - (b) may, notwithstanding anything in this Act, refuse to grant bail to him and by warrant commit him to prison.
- (4) Nothing in this section limits the rights of an accused person in custody to apply for bail.

39 Failure to appear

Where a person fails to appear before a court in accordance with his bail undertaking, the court may issue a warrant to apprehend the person and bring him before the court.

40 Enforcement of bail undertakings etc.

(1) Where:

- (a) an accused person fails to comply with his bail undertaking or a bail condition; and
- (b) he or another person has entered into an agreement pursuant to a bail condition to forfeit an amount of money, the court before which the accused person was required to appear in accordance with his bail undertaking may order that the amount referred to in paragraph (b) be forfeited and paid to the Territory.

- (2) If security or an amount of money has been deposited under an agreement entered into as a condition of the grant of bail to an accused person, a court may, when making an order under subsection (1), make a further order that the security or amount of money so deposited be applied in or towards payment of the amount ordered to be forfeited.
- (2A) If a court makes an order under subsection (1), the court may, on application by the person in relation to whom the order is made or of its own motion:
 - (a) reduce the amount of the forfeiture; or
 - (b) confirm, rescind or suspend its order.
- (3) A court shall endorse or cause to be endorsed on the bail undertaking of an accused person particulars of every order made under subsection (1) or (2).
- (4) Subject to subsection (5), Part 8 of the Fines and Penalties (Recovery) Act applies to a bail undertaking or recognizance that is ordered by a court to be forfeited and payment is to be enforced under that Act.
- (5) If a court orders forfeiture of a bail undertaking, the court may order that if the forfeited amount is not paid within 28 days the accused person is to be imprisoned until his or her liability to pay the forfeited amount is discharged.

- (6) If a court makes an order under subsection (5) and the forfeited amount is not paid within 28 days, the court may issue a warrant of commitment in respect of the accused person specifying the period of imprisonment calculated on the basis of the amount forfeited as follows:
- (a) the period is to be one day for each amount (or part of the amount) that is prescribed for the purposes of section 88 of the Fines and Penalties (Recovery) Act that comprises the amount forfeited;
 - (b) the period is not to be less than one day;
 - (c) the period is not to exceed 3 months.
- (7) If the accused person serves the total period of imprisonment under a warrant under subsection (6), the forfeiture is taken to be satisfied.
- (8) If the accused person serves part of the period of imprisonment under a warrant under subsection (6), the forfeiture is taken to be partially satisfied by the amount calculated at the rate prescribed for the purposes of section 88 of the Fines and Penalties (Recovery) Act for each day actually served.
- (9) Unless otherwise ordered by the court, any period of imprisonment that the accused person has to serve as a result of an order under subsection (5) is to be served:
- (a) cumulatively on any incomplete sentence or sentences of imprisonment imposed on the person for the default of a payment of a fine or sum of money; and
 - (b) concurrently with any incomplete sentence or sentences of imprisonment imposed on the person other than for the default of a payment of a fine or sum of money, whether the other sentence was or the other sentences were imposed before or at the same time as that term.

41 Suspension or mitigation of forfeiture

- (1) A court may, when making an order under section 40(1), determine that the liability of all or any of the persons liable upon or in respect of an agreement referred to in section 40(1)(b) shall be remitted, suspended or reduced.

- (2) Where an order has been made under section 40(1), the court may, at any time, order:
 - (a) that the order for forfeiture and payment to the Territory made under section 40(1) be cancelled or suspended; or
 - (b) that the liability of all or any of the persons liable upon or in respect of the agreement referred to in section 40(1)(b) shall be remitted, suspended or reduced, or both.
- (3) The court, in making an order under subsection (2), may:
 - (a) impose such terms and conditions as it thinks fit; and
 - (b) make any order consequential on or incidental to such an order.
- (4) An order made under this section shall not affect the validity of anything done to enforce the order under section 40(1) before making the first-mentioned order.

Part VIII Miscellaneous

42 Notices

- (1) The court or person to whom a bail undertaking is given by an accused person shall forthwith give or cause to be given to the accused person:
 - (a) a copy of the undertaking or a notice setting out the terms of the undertaking; and
 - (b) a copy of the bail conditions, if any, imposed or a notice setting out the terms of such conditions.
- (2) The court or person to or with whom a person other than the accused person makes an acknowledgement, agreement or deposit of security or money pursuant to a bail condition shall forthwith give or cause to be given to that other person a copy of the condition or a notice setting out the terms of the condition.
- (3) Where a bail condition is imposed or varied on a review under Part VI of a decision in relation to bail, the court carrying out that review shall give or cause to be given to:
 - (a) the accused person; and
 - (b) to any other person who makes an acknowledgement or enters into an agreement pursuant to the condition, a copy of the condition or a notice setting out the terms of the condition.

- (4) A court may, in any of the circumstances referred to in subsections (1) to (3), give or cause to be given to a person not referred to in those subsections, but whom it considers may be interested in or affected by a bail condition as imposed or varied, a copy of that bail condition or a notice setting out the terms of that bail condition.

43 Writ of habeas corpus

Except where expressly provided by this Act, nothing in this Act affects the powers of the Supreme Court in connection with writs of habeas corpus.

44 False statements in acknowledgements

- (1) A person who wilfully makes an acknowledgement under section 27(2)(b) knowing it to be untrue in a material particular is guilty of an offence.

Penalty: $2,000 or imprisonment for 2 years.

- (2) Before a person makes an acknowledgement under section 27(2)(b) it is the duty of the person to whom the acknowledgement is made to warn the person that if he wilfully makes the acknowledgement knowing it to be untrue in a material particular he is guilty of an offence under subsection (1).
- (3) Failure to give a warning in accordance with subsection (2) does not affect the operation of subsection (1).

45 Indemnification of agreeing parties

- (1) In this section, agreeing party means a person who enters (as an acceptable person) into an agreement under section 27.
- (2) If a person indemnifies another person, or agrees with another person to indemnify the other person, against any forfeiture which the other person may incur as an agreeing party, he and the other person are each guilty of an offence against this section.

Penalty: $3,000 or imprisonment for 3 years.

(3) An offence is committed against this section:

- (a) in relation to an agreement referred to in subsection (2) – whether the agreement is made before or after the person to be indemnified becomes an agreeing party and whether or not he becomes an agreeing party; and
- (b) whether the compensation is or is to be in money or in money's worth.

46 Civil standard of proof for certain purposes

Where an authorized member or a court, in making a decision in relation to bail (other than a decision in proceedings for an offence committed in connection with bail) is to be or may be satisfied as to any matter, it is sufficient if the authorized member or the court is satisfied on the balance of probabilities.

47 Evidence

(1) In any proceedings:

- (a) a document purporting to be or to be a copy of a bail undertaking given by an accused person, and to be certified by an appropriate officer to be or to be a copy of the undertaking, is admissible in evidence and shall be prima facie evidence of the giving of the undertaking by the accused person and of its terms;
- (b) a document purporting to be or to be a copy of the instrument by which a bail condition was imposed in relation to an accused person, and to be certified by an appropriate officer to be or to be a copy of the instrument, is admissible in evidence and shall be prima facie evidence of the imposing of the condition and of its terms;
- (c) a certificate purporting to be signed by an appropriate officer certifying that a specified bail condition:
 - (i) has not been altered or varied under this Act; or
 - (ii) has been altered or varied under this Act in a specified manner and has not otherwise been altered or varied under this Act, is admissible in evidence and shall be prima facie evidence of the matters so certified; and

- (d) a document purporting to be or to be a copy of an acknowledgement under section 27(2)(b), and to be certified by an appropriate officer to be or to be a copy of the acknowledgement, is admissible in evidence and shall be prima facie evidence of the making of the acknowledgement and of its terms.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), an appropriate officer is:
- (a) in the case of police bail – an authorized member; and
 - (b) in the case of court bail – an officer of the court having custody of the bail undertaking given by the accused.
- (3) In any proceedings:
- (a) a certificate purporting to be signed by the Director of Public Prosecutions or a person authorized by him in writing in that behalf certifying that a notice referred to in section 25(3) was given or sent to the accused person, or the legal practitioner representing him, in a specified manner on a specified day is admissible in evidence and shall be prima facie evidence of the matters so certified; and
 - (b) a certificate purporting to be signed by a Judge, magistrate, justice, clerk of the Court of Summary Jurisdiction, sheriff or deputy sheriff and stating that a specified person did not appear before a specified court, at a specified place, on a specified day at a specified time is admissible in evidence and shall be prima facie evidence of the matters so certified.
- (4) In any document:
- (a) the words "authorized member" after a signature shall be evidence that the person whose signature it purports to be is in fact an authorized member within the meaning of this Act;
 - (b) the words "appropriate officer" after a signature shall be evidence that the person whose signature it purports to be is in fact an appropriate officer as referred to in this section; and
 - (c) the words "authorized by the Director of Public Prosecutions" after a signature shall be evidence that the person whose signature it purports to be has in fact been authorized by the Director of Public Prosecutions as referred to in section 25(3) and this section, in connection with the matter to which the document relates.

48 Surety to have no right of arrest

A person who as an acceptable person enters into an agreement under section 27 does not, by virtue of his entering into that agreement, have the right to arrest the accused person.

49 Abolition of common law right to grant bail

All powers or duties that would, but for this Act, exist apart from statute to grant bail to an accused person in or in connection with criminal proceedings are abolished.

50 Contempt

- (1) Nothing in this Act affects a power or duty that a court, tribunal or person has to grant bail, or to grant relief in the nature of bail, in connection with a contempt or alleged contempt.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to a contempt or alleged contempt that constitutes an offence proceedings for which may be commenced by way of information or complaint.
- (3) A power or duty to which subsection (1) applies is additional to a power or duty that a court, tribunal or person may have under this Act in relation to any contempt or alleged contempt.

51 Provisions as to warrants or summonses

Subject to the Regulations, the provisions of the Justices Act apply, with the necessary adaptations, to and in relation to a warrant or summons issued or to be issued under this Act in the same way as they apply to and in relation to a warrant or summons of a corresponding kind issued or to be issued under that Act.

52 Contravention of Act by authorized member

- (1) Where an authorized member contravenes or fails to comply with a provision of this Act that is applicable to him, the contravention or failure is not punishable as an offence (whether under this Act or otherwise) unless a penalty is expressly provided by this Act in respect of the contravention or failure.
- (2) This section does not prevent a contravention of, or failure to comply with, a provision of this Act by a member of the Police Force from:
 - (a) being dealt with under the Police Administration Act, or
 - (b) constituting grounds for civil proceedings.

52A Representative of mentally impaired or unfit person may enter into bail undertaking on behalf of person

(1) In this section:

accused person means an accused person who:

- (a) has been declared to be liable to supervision under Division 2 or 4 of Part IIA of the Criminal Code; or
- (b) is or is likely to be the subject of an investigation or a special hearing under that Part.

(2) A person representing an accused person may:

- (a) exercise an independent discretion and act as he or she reasonably believes to be in the accused person's best interests in relation to the grant of bail to the accused person under this Act; and
- (b) enter into the bail undertaking and any bail conditions imposed in respect of the accused person on behalf of the accused person.

(3) When the representative of an accused person referred to in subsection (1) enters into the bail undertaking and any bail conditions on behalf of the accused person, the representative must give an undertaking to the court that he or she will be responsible for ensuring that the accused person complies with the bail undertaking and the bail conditions.

53 Regulations

- (1) The Administrator may make regulations, not inconsistent with this Act, prescribing all matters required or permitted by this Act to be prescribed, or necessary or convenient to be prescribed for carrying out or giving effect to this Act.
- (2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1), the Regulations may make provision for or in relation to:
 - (a) facilities to be provided to enable the making of communications referred to in section 16(2)(b);
 - (b) the procedures to be followed where an application is made, under section 33(4), to a magistrate or justice, by telephone, telex, radio or similar facility;

- (c) the release of accused persons from prison or any other place of custody consequent upon the grant of bail or upon the requirement for bail being dispensed with;
 - (d) warrants and summonses issued under this Act;
 - (e) the fees to be demanded and taken in relation to any matter connected with this Act; and
 - (f) the forms to be used for the purposes of this Act.
- (3) The Regulations may provide, in respect of an offence against the Regulations, for the imposition of a fine not exceeding $500.

Part IX Transitional matters for Bail Amendment
 (Repeat Offenders) Act 2005

54 Application of sections 7A, 8 and 36A to pre-commencement offences

Sections 7A and 8 as amended by the Bail Amendment (Repeat Offenders) Act 2005, and section 36A, apply in relation to the granting of bail to accused persons for offences committed before the commencement of that Act.
