NORTHERN TERRITORY OF AUSTRALIA

As in force at 1 December 2000

POWERS OF ATTORNEY ACT

An Act relating to powers of attorney

Part I Preliminary

1 Short title

This Act may be cited as the Powers of Attorney Act.

2 Commencement

This Act shall come into operation on a date to be fixed by the Administrator by notice in the Gazette.

3 Repeal

The Powers of Attorney Act 1979 is repealed.

4 Application

- (1) Unless the contrary intention appears, this Act applies only to and in relation to powers created after the commencement of this Act.
- (2) This Act extends to powers authorizing dealings with land.

5 Definitions

In this Act, unless the contrary intention appears:

enduring power means a power created by an instrument referred to in section 13.

legal incapacity, in relation to a person, means such a state of mental or physical incapacity that he is not capable of managing his affairs.

power means power of attorney.

prescribed, in relation to fees, means prescribed under the Registration Act.

Public Trustee means the Public Trustee within the meaning of the Public Trustee Act.

registered means registered as prescribed.

Part II Powers of attorney generally

6 Execution of instruments creating or revoking powers

- (1) This section does not apply in respect of an instrument creating a power executed by a body corporate as a donor.
- (2) Subject to this Act and any other law in force in the Territory, an instrument creating or revoking a power shall be signed by or by direction and in the presence of the donor of the power.
- (3) An instrument creating or revoking a power shall be valid and effectual although not under seal.
- (4) Where a person executes an instrument creating a power by direction and in the presence of the donor of the power, the instrument shall be attested by 2 other persons (the donor of the power excepted) present as witnesses.

7 Registration

- (1) An instrument creating or revoking a power may be registered.
- (1A) An instrument creating or revoking a power, including an enduring power, executed in a State or another Territory under the law of the State or Territory may be registered regardless of when it is executed.
- (2) The fee for registration under subsection (1) is the prescribed fee.

8 Dealings in land

- (1) Subject to this section, a dealing in relation to land (a lease of land for a period of not more than one year excepted) purporting to take effect in pursuance of the exercise of a power shall be of no force or effect unless the instrument creating the power is registered.
- (2) Subject to any other law in force in the Territory, upon the registration, at any time subsequent to a dealing in relation to land referred to in subsection (1), of the instrument creating the power, the dealing shall take effect as if the instrument creating the power had been registered before the instrument purporting to give effect to the dealing.

- (4) The fee for registration of a dealing in relation to land is the prescribed fee.

9 Powers given to secure proprietary interests, &c.

- (1) A power given to secure a proprietary interest of the donee of the power may be given to the person entitled to the interest and the persons deriving title to the interest through him, and those latter persons shall, while they hold the interest, be duly constituted donees of the power for all purposes of the power.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not affect any right given by the power to appoint substitutes.

10 Execution of instruments in pursuance of power

- (1) This section applies to and in relation to a power created either before or after the commencement of this Act.
- (2) Unless the contrary intention appears in the instrument creating the power, the donee of a power may:
- (a) execute any instrument with his own signature and, where sealing is required, with his own seal; and
 - (b) do any other thing in his own name,
- by the authority of the donor of the power and any such instrument or thing shall be as effective as if executed or done, as the case may be, by the donor of the power.
- (3) A donee of a power shall not execute any instrument in accordance with the power unless he executes that instrument in such a way as to show that:
- (a) he does so for and on behalf of the donor of the power; and
 - (b) if the instrument creating the power is registered at the time of the execution of the instrument first mentioned, the instrument creating the power is registered.

11 Accounts

The donee of a power shall keep, and furnish to the donor at the donor's request and expense, a true and accurate record of any transaction entered into by him as donee of the power charging or otherwise disposing of, whether for valuable consideration or otherwise, any of the assets of the donor of the power.

12 Proof of instruments creating powers

- (1) This section does not affect the application of any other law in force in the Territory in relation to the proof of documents.
- (2) The contents of an instrument creating or revoking a power may be proved by means of a copy of the instrument which:
 - (a) is a reproduction of the original instrument made with a photographic or other device for reproducing documents in facsimile; and
 - (b) contains the following certificate or certificates signed by the donor of the power or by a legal practitioner:
 - (i) a certificate at the end of the copy to the effect that the copy of the instrument is a true and complete copy of the original instrument; and
 - (ii) if the original instrument consists of 2 or more pages, a certificate at the end of each page of the copy of the instrument to the effect that it is a true and complete copy of the corresponding page of the original instrument.
- (3) Where a copy of an instrument creating or revoking a power has been made which complies with subsection (2), the contents of the original instrument may also be proved by means of a copy of that copy if the further copy itself complies with that subsection, taking references in it to the original instrument as references to the copy from which the further copy is made.
- (4) A person shall not sign a certificate under subsection (2)(b) or (3) knowing it to be false.

Penalty: $1,000.

Part III Enduring powers of attorney13 Enduring powers

Subject to this Act, a power created by an instrument which:

- (a) expressly evidences an intention on the part of the donor of the power that the power shall continue in effect notwithstanding any subsequent legal incapacity of the donor of the power;

(b) has endorsed thereon or annexed thereto a statement of acceptance in or to the effect of Schedule 1 by the donee of the power; and

(c) is registered,

may be exercised by the donee of the power notwithstanding any legal incapacity of the donor of the power occurring after the execution of the instrument creating the power.

14 Execution of instrument creating enduring powers

An instrument creating an enduring power shall be executed in the presence of a witness who is not the donee of the power or a near relative of the donee.

15 Enduring powers – powers of Supreme Court

- (1) The donee of an enduring power shall not retire without the leave of the Supreme Court.
- (2) The Public Trustee or any other person who has an interest in any property which may be dealt with by the donee of an enduring power may, at any time after the donor of the enduring power is legally incapacitated, apply to the Supreme Court for an order:
 - (a) requiring the donee of the enduring power to file in the Supreme Court and serve on the applicant for the order, a copy of the records referred to in section 11;
 - (b) requiring records referred to in section 11 to be audited by an auditor appointed by the Supreme Court, and requiring a copy of the report of that auditor to be furnished to the Supreme Court and the applicant for the order; or
 - (c) revoking or varying the terms of the instrument creating the enduring power in such manner as the Supreme Court thinks fit (including by the appointment of a substitute donee of the power).
- (3) The Supreme Court has jurisdiction to make an order sought in an application under this section.
- (4) The power of the Supreme Court under subsection (3) includes the power to appoint the Public Trustee as a substitute donee.
- (5) An order or grant of leave under this section may be subject to such terms and conditions as the Supreme Court thinks fit.

Part IV Revocation of powers of attorney and protections

16 Revocation of general powers

Subject to this Part, a power is revoked by:

- (a) the death of the donor or donee of the power;
- (b) the legal incapacity of the donor or donee of the power at any time after the execution of the instrument creating the power;
- (c) the retirement of the donee of the power;
- (d) the donor or donee of the power's becoming bankrupt, applying to take the benefit of any law for the relief of bankrupt or insolvent debtors, compounding with his creditors or making an assignment of his remuneration for their benefit; or
- (e) the revocation of the power by the donor of the power.

17 Revocation of enduring powers

- (1) This section applies to and in relation to enduring powers.
- (2) Subject to this Part (section 16 excepted), an enduring power is revoked:
 - (a) by the occurrence of any of the events referred to in section 16(a), (c), (d) or (e) in relation to the power;
 - (b) by the legal incapacity of the donee of the power at any time after the execution of the instrument creating the power; or
 - (c) upon the order of a Judge under section 15(2)(c) revoking the power coming into operation, whichever is the sooner.

18 Effect of protection order

Subject to section 19, upon the making of a protection order under the Aged and Infirm Persons' Property Act, a power is revoked to the extent to which it authorizes the donee of the power to deal with property the subject of the protection order.

19 Revocation of powers given to secure proprietary interests, &c.

- (1) This section applies to and in relation to powers which are granted to secure a proprietary interest of the donee of the power or the performance of an obligation owed to the donee of the power and are expressed in the instrument creating the power to be irrevocable.
- (2) While the donee of a power to which this section applies has the proprietary interest referred to in subsection (1) or while the obligation referred to in that subsection remains undischarged, the power:
 - (a) shall not be revoked by the donor without the consent of the donee;
 - (b) is not revoked by the death, legal incapacity or bankruptcy of the donor or, if the donor is a body corporate, by its winding up or dissolution; and
 - (c) is not revoked upon the making of a protection order under the Aged and Infirm Persons' Property Act unless the Supreme Court expressly revokes it.
- (3) Where the donor of a power is a protected person within the meaning of the Aged and Infirm Persons' Property Act, the Supreme Court may revoke or vary the terms of the instrument creating the power in such manner as the Supreme Court thinks fit.

20 Protection of donee

The donee of a power which has been revoked who acts in pursuance of the power shall not incur any liability by reason of the revocation either to the donor of the power or to any other person:

- (a) unless the donee of the power has actual notice of the revocation of the power; or
- (b) if the power has been created by an instrument which has been registered:
 - (i) and the act is an act with respect to a dealing in relation to land (a lease for a period of not more than one year excepted) – unless an instrument revoking the power has been registered; or
 - (ii) in any other case – unless a period of 30 days from the registration of an instrument revoking the power has elapsed.

21 Protection of third parties

Where a power has been revoked, a transaction between the donee of the power and another person shall be as valid and effectual, in favour of that latter person, as if the power had not been revoked:

- (a) unless the latter person has actual notice of the revocation of the power; or
- (b) if the power has been created by an instrument which has been registered:
 - (i) and the transaction is a dealing in relation to land (a lease for a period of not more than one year excepted) – unless an instrument revoking the power has been registered; or
 - (ii) in any other case – unless a period of 30 days from the registration of an instrument revoking the power has elapsed.

21A Effect of Adult Guardianship Act

- (1) The appointment of a guardian under the Adult Guardianship Act for a person who is the donor of an enduring power of attorney does not revoke that power.
- (2) Until the guardian appointed under the Adult Guardianship Act for a person who is the donor of an enduring power of attorney has notice of that power, any action taken by the guardian under that Act is valid and effectual.

Part V Miscellaneous22 Regulations

- (1) The Administrator may make regulations, not inconsistent with this Act, prescribing all matters that are required or permitted by this Act to be prescribed or are necessary or convenient to be prescribed for giving effect to this Act.
- (2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1), the Regulations may make provision for or with respect to:
 - (a) the establishment of a register;
 - (c) the practice and procedure to be followed,

in relation to the registration of instruments under this Act.

Schedule 1 Form of acceptance of enduring power of attorney

section 13(b)

I, _____, the donee of the power of attorney created by the instrument on which this acceptance is endorsed/to which this acceptance is annexed*, acknowledge that:

- (a) the power of attorney is an enduring power; that is, it may, if registered, be exercised by me notwithstanding any legal incapacity, within the meaning of the Powers of Attorney Act, of _____, the donor of the power of attorney, occurring after the execution of that instrument; and
- (b) I will, by accepting this power of attorney, be subject to the requirements of Part III of the Powers of Attorney Act.

(Donee of the power of attorney)

* Delete if inapplicable
