FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS DUTY REGULATIONS

Regulations under the Financial Institutions Duty Act

1 Citation

These Regulations may be cited as the Financial Institutions Duty Regulations.

2 Records kept for purpose of Act

- (1) The books and accounts of a financial institution required by section 126(1) of the Taxation (Administration) Act as in force before 1 January 2008 to be kept under the Financial Institutions Duty Act shall be kept:
 - (a) at its principal place of business in the Territory or at such other place in or outside the Territory; and
 - (b) in the English language or such other language or form, as the Commissioner, by notice addressed to the financial institution, permits.
- (2) The Commissioner's permission under subregulation (1) is subject to such conditions, if any, as are specified in the notice given under that subregulation.

3 Maximum duty payable

The maximum duty payable under section 10 of the Act for receipts of more than $2,500,000 is $1,500 for each receipt.

4 Non-dutiable receipts

For the purposes of section 7(2) of the Act, a receipt of money by a registered financial institution:

- (a) being the receipt of a pension, bonus, payment, benefit or allowance payable under:
 - (i) the Social Security Act 1947 of the Commonwealth;

- (ii) the Veteran's Entitlement Act 1986 of the Commonwealth;
 - (iii) the Family Assistance Law as defined in section 3 of the A New Tax System (Family Assistance) (Administration) Act 1999 of the Commonwealth; or
 - (iv) the A New Tax System (Bonuses for Older Australians) Act 1999 of the Commonwealth, credited to an account kept by a person with the financial institution;

(aa) being the receipt of payments made directly to the financial institution by the Secretary of the Department of Social Security in pursuance of the Commonwealth rural assistance scheme known as the Farm Household Support Scheme and credited to the relevant accounts of the beneficiaries with the financial institution;

(b) credited to an account approved by the Commissioner as being an account of a:

- (i) religious institution;
- (ii) charitable or public benevolent institution the primary function of which is to provide direct aid to the needy, not being money derived from or deposited for the purposes of a commercial trading activity conducted by or on behalf of the institution;

(c) being the receipt of a refund of duty payable under the Act;

(e) credited to an account that is:

- (i) a trust account included in a class of trust accounts approved by the Commissioner for the purposes of this provision; and
- (ii) established and maintained solely or primarily for the collection and payment of stamp duty in accordance with permission granted by the Commissioner under section 17A of the Taxation (Administration) Act as in force before 1 January 2008, is a non-dutiable receipt.

5 Non-dutiable receipts: first home owner grants

- (1) A receipt that arises from the payment of a first home owner grant and that is:
- (a) a direct deposit to the credit of an account kept by a registered financial institution in the name of an applicant for the grant;
 - (b) a credit to an account kept by a delegate of the Commissioner under section 30(1) of the First Home Owner Grant Act and the account is used solely for the purpose of receiving payments of first home owner grants; or
 - (c) the transfer of a credit referred to in paragraph (b) to an account referred to in paragraph (a),
- is prescribed under section 7(2)(r) of the Act as a non-dutiable receipt.
- (2) In subregulation (1), first home owner grant has the same meaning as in the First Home Owner Grant Act.
