This Part does not apply to an appeal under Division 2 of Part X of the Criminal Code.

51 Right of appeal

- (1) Where the jurisdiction of the Court in a proceeding or a part of a proceeding was exercised otherwise than by the Full Court, a party to that proceeding may, subject to this Act, appeal to the Court from a judgment given in that proceeding or part, as the case may be.
- (2) The Court, when exercising its appellate jurisdiction under subsection (1), may be known as the Court of Appeal of the Northern Territory of Australia.

 - (b) to dismiss an appeal for want of prosecution or for other prescribed cause; or
 - (c) to dismiss an appeal on the application of the appellant.

 - (b) in all matters of practice and procedure.
- (5) A party to an appeal may apply as of right to the Court of Appeal constituted by not less than 3 Judges to discharge or vary a judgment or direction of the Court of Appeal constituted otherwise, but may not otherwise appeal to the Court from a judgment of the Court of Appeal.

53 Appeal from interlocutory judgment

- (1) A party to a proceeding may not appeal under section 51(1) from an interlocutory judgment except by leave of the Court of Appeal.
- (2) An application for leave to appeal from an interlocutory judgment must be determined in the first instance on the papers by the Court of Appeal consisting of one Judge.
- (3) If the application is refused, the party is entitled to have the application determined by the Court of Appeal consisting of not less than 3 Judges.
- (4) An appeal from an interlocutory judgment of the Master or a referee must be heard by the Court of Appeal consisting of:
 - (a) one Judge – if leave to appeal is granted under subsection (2); or
 - (b) 3 Judges – if leave to appeal is granted under subsection (3).

54 Evidence on appeal

The Court of Appeal shall have regard to the evidence given in the proceedings out of which the appeal arose, and has power to draw inferences of fact and, in its discretion, to receive further evidence, which may be taken on affidavit, by oral examination before the Court of Appeal or a Judge or otherwise as the Court of Appeal directs.

55 Form of judgment on appeal

- (1) Subject to any law in force in the Territory, the Court of Appeal:
 - (a) may exercise every power, jurisdiction and authority of the Court, whether at law or in equity or under any law in force in the Territory; and
 - (b) shall give such judgment as, in all the circumstances, it thinks fit.
- (2) Without limiting the effect of subsection (1), the Court of Appeal:
 - (a) may affirm, reverse or vary the judgment appealed from, in whole or in part; and
 - (b) may set aside the judgment appealed from, in whole or in part, and substitute its own judgment; and

- (c) may remit the proceeding for further hearing and determination, subject to the directions the Court of Appeal considers appropriate, to:
 - (i) for an appeal from the Master or referee – the Master or referee (as the case may be); or
 - (ii) for an appeal from the Court – the Court consisting of the Judge who gave the judgment; and
 - (d) may set aside a verdict or finding of a jury in a civil proceeding and enter a judgment despite the verdict or finding; and
 - (e) may grant a new trial in any case in which there has been a trial, either with or without a jury, on any ground upon which it is appropriate to grant a new trial; and
 - (f) may award execution from the Court or remit the proceeding to another court for the execution of the judgment of the Court of Appeal.
- (3) It is the duty of a court to which a proceeding is remitted in accordance with subsection (1)(f) to execute the judgment of the Court of Appeal in the same manner as if it were its own judgment.
- (4) The Court of Appeal shall comply with subsection (1) notwithstanding that the notice of appeal asks that part only of the judgment may be reversed or varied, and it may give judgment in favour of all or any of the respondents or parties, including respondents or parties who have not appealed from or complained of the judgment.
- (6) An interlocutory judgment from which there has been no appeal does not operate to prevent the Court of Appeal from giving such decision upon an appeal as it thinks just.
- (7) The powers of the Court of Appeal under subsection (1) in an appeal (whether by the Crown or by the defendant) against a sentence include the power to increase or decrease the sentence or substitute a different sentence.

56 New trial

- (1) In an appeal in which the Court of Appeal grants a new trial, the Court of Appeal may impose such conditions on a party, and may direct such admissions to be made by a party, for the purpose of the new trial as it thinks just.

- (2) Where the Court of Appeal grants a new trial, the Court of Appeal:
 - (a) may grant it, either generally or on particular issues only, as it thinks just; and
 - (b) may at any time order that evidence of a witness examined at the former trial be used in the new trial in the manner provided in the order.

57 Stay of proceedings

- (1) Where an appeal to the Court under section 51(1) has been instituted, the Court of Appeal or the Court may:
 - (a) order, on such conditions, if any, as it thinks fit, a stay of the whole or any part of a proceeding under the judgment appealed from; and
 - (b) by order, on such conditions, if any, as it thinks fit, suspend the operation of a judgment to which the appeal, in whole or in part, relates.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not affect the operation of any provision made by or under any other law in force in the Territory or by the Rules for or in relation to the stay of a proceeding.
- (3) Except as expressly provided by this section or by the Rules or any other law in force in the Territory, the institution of an appeal does not operate as a stay of execution.

58 Senior Judge presides

- (1) At a sitting of the Court of Appeal at which the Chief Justice is present, he shall preside.
- (2) In the absence of the Chief Justice from a sitting of the Court of Appeal, the senior Judge present shall preside, unless the Chief Justice directs otherwise.

59 Majority judgments

- (1) The judgment of the Court of Appeal shall be in accordance with the opinion of the majority of Judges present.
- (2) Where the Judges present at a sitting of the Court of Appeal are equally divided in opinion as to the judgment to be given on any question, the judgment appealed from shall be affirmed.

60 Reserved judgments

When any proceeding, after being fully heard before the Court of Appeal, is ordered to stand for judgment, it shall not be necessary that all the Judges before whom it was heard shall be present together in Court to declare their opinions thereon, but:

- (a) the opinion of any of them may be reduced to writing and may be read or published by any other Judge at any subsequent sitting of the Court of Appeal at which judgment in the proceeding is appointed to be delivered; and
- (b) in any such case the question shall be decided in the same manner, and the judgment of the Court of Appeal shall have the same force and effect, as if the Judge whose opinion is so read or published had been present in Court and declared his opinion in person.

Part IV Concurrent administration of law and equity61 Law and equity

Subject to the express provisions of any other law in force in the Territory, in every proceeding commenced in the Court, law and equity shall be administered according to the provisions of this Part.

62 Equities of plaintiff

Where a plaintiff claims to be entitled to an equitable estate or right, or to relief on an equitable ground against a deed, instrument or contract, or against a right, title or claim asserted by any defendant in a proceeding, or to relief founded upon a legal right that could in England immediately before the commencement of the Judicature Act only have been given by a Court of Equity, the Court shall give to the plaintiff the same relief as ought then to have been given by the English Court of Chancery in a proceeding for the like purpose.

63 Equities of defendant

Where a defendant claims to be entitled to an equitable estate or right, or to relief on an equitable ground against a deed, instrument or contract, or against a right, title or claim asserted by a plaintiff in a proceeding, or alleges a ground of equitable defence to a claim of the plaintiff, the Court shall give to every equitable estate, right or ground of relief so claimed, and every equitable defence so alleged, the same effect, by way of defence against the claim of the plaintiff, as the English Court of Chancery ought, immediately before the commencement of the Judicature Act, to have given if the like matters had been relied on by way of defence in a proceeding instituted in that Court for the like purpose.

64 Counter claims and third parties

- (1) The Court has power to grant to a defendant, in respect of an equitable estate or right or other matter of equity, and also in respect of a legal estate, right or title claimed or asserted by him:
 - (a) all such relief against a plaintiff as the defendant has properly claimed by his pleading and as the Court might have granted in a proceeding instituted for that purpose by that defendant against the same plaintiff; and
 - (b) all such relief relating to or connected with the original subject of the proceeding, being relief claimed in like manner against another person, whether already a party to the proceeding or not, who has been duly served with notice in writing of the claim pursuant to the Rules, any other law in force in the Territory, or an order of the Court, as might properly have been granted against that person if he had been made a defendant to a proceeding duly instituted by the same defendant for the like purpose.
- (2) A person served with such a notice shall thenceforth be deemed a party to the proceeding with the same rights in respect of his defence against the claim as if he had been duly sued in the ordinary way by the defendant.

65 Equities appearing incidentally

The Court shall take notice of all equitable estates, titles and rights, and of all equitable duties and liabilities appearing incidentally in the course of a proceeding, in the manner in which the English Court of Chancery would, immediately before the commencement of the Judicature Act, have taken notice of those matters in a proceeding properly instituted in that court.

66 Defence or stay instead of injunction or prohibition

- (1) Every matter of equity on which an injunction against the prosecution of any such proceeding, if the proceeding had been a proceeding properly instituted in the English Court of Chancery for the like purpose, might, immediately before the commencement of the Judicature Act, have been obtained, whether unconditionally or on any terms or conditions, may be relied on by way of defence.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1):

- (a) nothing in this Part disables the Court, if it thinks fit so to do, from directing a stay of proceedings in a matter pending before it; and
- (b) a person, whether a party or not to a proceeding in the Court, who:
 - (i) if the proceeding had been a proceeding properly instituted in the English Court of Chancery for the like purpose, would, immediately before the commencement of the Judicature Act, have been entitled to apply to a court to restrain the prosecution of the proceeding; or
 - (ii) may be entitled to enforce, by attachment or otherwise, a judgment in contravention of which the proceeding, or any part of the proceeding, has been taken, may apply to the Court, by motion in a summary way, for a stay of proceedings, either generally or so far as is necessary for the purposes of justice, and the Court shall thereupon make such order as it thinks just.

67 Common law and statutory rights

Subject to the provisions of this Part for giving effect to equitable rights and other matters of equity, the Court shall give effect to all legal claims and demands, and to all estates, titles, rights, duties, obligations and liabilities, existing under the law in force in the Territory, including common law and custom.

68 Rules of equity to prevail

In all matters not particularly mentioned in this Part in which there was formerly or is a conflict or variance between the rules of equity and the rules of the common law with reference to the same matter, the rules of equity shall prevail.

69 Injunctions and receivers

- (1) The Court may grant an injunction or appoint a receiver by an interlocutory order in all cases in which it appears to the Court to be just or convenient so to do.
- (2) Such an order may be made either unconditionally or on such terms and conditions as the Court thinks just.

- (3) If, whether before, at or after the hearing of a proceeding, an application is made for an injunction to prevent a threatened or apprehended waste or trespass, the injunction may be granted, if the Court thinks fit, whether the person against whom the injunction is sought is or is not in possession under a claim of title or otherwise, or (if out of possession) does or does not claim a right to do the act sought to be restrained under a colour of title, and whether the estate claimed by any of the parties is legal or equitable.

Part V Practice and procedure

71 Rules of Court

Except as provided by this Act or by any other law in force in the Territory, the practice and procedure of the Court shall be as provided by the Rules.

72 Directions by Chief Justice

Where no provision in relation to a matter of practice and procedure of the Court is contained in this Act, in the Rules or in any other law in force in the Territory, that matter shall be governed as the Chief Justice directs either generally or in relation to a proceeding.

73 Evidence

Subject to this Act, to the Rules and to any other law in force in the Territory, in any proceeding, unless the parties otherwise agree, evidence shall be given orally in open court.

74 Affidavits

- (1) On the hearing of any proceeding, evidence may be given by affidavit of the service of any document incidental to the proceeding or of the signature of a party to the proceeding, or of his solicitor, on such a document.
- (2) In any proceeding, the Court may, for sufficient reason, order that, subject to such conditions as the Court thinks just, all or a part of the evidence in the proceeding, being evidence that, but for the order, would be required to be given orally in open court, may be given by affidavit.
- (3) The conditions referred to in subsection (2):
- (a) may include a condition that a copy of the affidavit by which any evidence is to be given be served on a party to the proceeding or on any other person; and

- (b) may include a condition that a person whose evidence is given by affidavit attend at the hearing for cross-examination.

75 Appearance

Subject to any other law in force in the Territory, a party in a proceeding may appear before the Court either personally or by a legal practitioner.

77 Non-appearance or absence of some defendants

- (1) If there are several defendants in a proceeding and if any defendant is not served with process and does not voluntarily appear, the Court may nevertheless entertain the proceeding and hear and determine it between the parties who are properly before the Court, but the judgment given in the proceeding does not conclude the proceeding as against or prejudice other parties who are not served with process and do not voluntarily submit to the jurisdiction of the Court.
- (2) If, in a proceeding, any defendant is not a resident of, or found within, Australia, and does not voluntarily appear in the proceeding, the Court may nevertheless proceed to exercise its jurisdiction after such notice to the defendant and upon such terms as a Judge by order directs or as are prescribed.

80 Amendment of defect in proceedings

The Court may at any time by order, upon such terms as it thinks fit, amend or remedy a defect, error or omission in any proceeding for the purpose of determining the real questions in controversy or otherwise depending on the proceeding.

81 Formal defects

- (1) A proceeding in the Court shall not be invalidated by a formal defect or by an irregularity, unless the Court is of opinion that substantial injustice has been caused and that the injustice cannot be remedied by an order of the Court.
- (2) The Court may make an order declaring that any proceeding is valid notwithstanding any defect or irregularity.

82 Further hearings at another place

When a matter has been heard at a sitting of the Court held at one place, the Court may pronounce judgment or give further hearing or consideration to the matter at a sitting of the Court held at another place.

83 Change of venue

- (1) The Court may, at any stage of a civil proceeding, and subject to such conditions, if any, as the Court imposes, direct that the trial be had or continued at a place specified in the order.
- (2) Where a person is required to appear before the Court, or has appeared before the Court, at a particular place in a criminal proceeding, the Court may, at any time, upon good cause being shown:
 - (a) order that that proceeding be had or continued, or that a person appear for sentence, before the Court at another place; and
 - (b) make such further orders, including orders as to bail and recognizances, as it considers necessary in the circumstances.
- (3) When an application for an order under subsection (2) is made, evidence may be given orally or by affidavit.

83A Mediation

- (1) If the Court considers it appropriate, the Court may direct that a civil proceeding be set down for mediation to explore the possibility of:
 - (a) settling the proceeding; or
 - (b) resolving a particular issue in the proceeding.
- (2) The appointment of a mediator for a civil proceeding, and procedures relating to the mediation, must be in accordance with the Rules.
- (3) The Rules may provide for any of the following to be appointed to be a mediator for a civil proceeding:
 - (a) a Judge;
 - (b) the Master;
 - (c) a Registrar;
 - (d) a person with suitable qualifications for conducting mediation.
- (4) The Rules may also provide for the appointment of 2 mediators for a civil proceeding, to mediate jointly.

- (5) A mediator appointed for a civil proceeding must not disclose to another person any information obtained during or for the mediation except as required or authorised by law.
- (6) Evidence of anything said or done during mediation for a civil proceeding is not admissible in the proceeding or a court without the consent of the parties except to prove that a settlement was reached and the terms of the settlement.
- (7) This section does not prevent:
 - (a) the Court itself from attempting to achieve a negotiated settlement of a civil proceeding or resolution of an issue in a civil proceeding; or
 - (b) the person exercising the power of the Court mentioned in paragraph (a) from taking further part in the proceeding.
- (8) However, if a Judge, the Master or a Registrar is appointed to be the mediator for a civil proceeding, and has conducted mediation for the proceeding, he or she is disqualified from taking further part in the proceeding.
- (9) A person conducting or participating in mediation for a civil proceeding has the same immunity for an honest act, or an honest and temperate statement or act, done or made during the mediation, as is conferred by the Courts and Administrative Tribunals (Immunities) Act on a person conducting or participating in a proceeding.

84 Interest up to judgment

- (1) In any proceeding in respect of a cause of action that arises after the commencement of this Act the Court may order that there shall be included in the sum for which judgment is given interest at such rate as it thinks fit on the whole or any part of that sum for the whole or any part of the period between the date when the cause of action arose and the date of the judgment.
- (1A) Subsection (1) applies subject to Part 4 of the Personal Injuries (Liabilities and Damages) Act.
- (2) This section:
 - (a) does not authorize the giving of interest upon interest;
 - (b) does not apply in respect of any debt on which interest is payable as of right whether by virtue of an agreement or otherwise; and

- (c) does not affect damages recoverable for the dishonour of a bill of exchange.

85 Interest on judgments

Except as provided by any law in force in the Territory, a judgment debt carries interest, from the date of the judgment:

- (a) at such rate as is fixed by the Rules; and
- (b) until a rate is so fixed, at 8% per annum.

86 Rules of Court

- (1) The Judges who are not acting or additional Judges, or a majority of those Judges, may make Rules of Court, not inconsistent with this Act:
 - (a) for regulating and prescribing:
 - (i) the practice and procedure, including the method of pleading, to be followed in the Court and in the offices of the Court; and
 - (ii) all matters and things incidental to or relating to any such practice and procedure or necessary or convenient to be prescribed for the conduct of any business of the Court; and
 - (b) for prescribing any matter or thing that is, by this Act, required or permitted to be prescribed by Rules of Court.
