NORTHERN TERRITORY OF AUSTRALIA

As in force at 1 July 2010

JURIES ACT

An Act relating to juries

Part I Preliminary

1 Short title

This Act may be cited as the Juries Act.

2 Commencement

This Act shall come into operation on a date to be fixed by the Attorney-General by notice in the Government Gazette of the Northern Territory.

4 Repeal and saving

- (1) The Acts of the State of South Australia specified in Part I of Schedule 1 are, in their application in the Northern Territory, repealed to the extent expressed in the third column of that Part.
- (2) The Ordinances specified in Part II of Schedule 1 are repealed.

5 Definitions

- (1) In this Act, unless the contrary intention appears:

capital offence means an offence the penalty for which under a law in force in the Territory is prescribed to be life imprisonment, with or without hard labour, and in respect of which the court imposing the sentence may not vary or mitigate the sentence and includes murder.

Chief Justice means Chief Justice within the meaning of the Supreme Court Act.

jury list means the jury list for Darwin or the jury list for Alice Springs.

jury precept means a precept issued under section 24.

Master means Master within the meaning of the Supreme Court Act.

panel of jurors means a list of names prepared in pursuance of section 32(1).

reserve juror, in respect of a criminal trial, means a person chosen and returned under section 37A(1) as a reserve juror in respect of that trial.

roll means a roll within the meaning of the Electoral Act.

talesman means a person appointed to serve as a juror under section 37(2A) or 39(2).

the Court means the Supreme Court.

the proper officer, in relation to the exercise of a power or the performance of a duty under this Act, means an officer of the Court appointed by a Judge as the proper officer for that purpose.

the Sheriff means the Sheriff of the Northern Territory.

Part II Trial by jury

6 Juries in criminal cases

Where, under a law in force in the Northern Territory, an offence prosecuted in the Court is required to be tried with a jury, the jury shall consist of 12 jurors who shall be chosen and returned in accordance with this Act.

6A No juries in civil cases for defamation

Civil proceedings for defamation must be tried by the Court without a jury.

7 Juries in other civil cases

(1A) This section does not apply in relation to civil proceedings for defamation.

(1) The trial of a civil issue or a question of fact in a civil issue shall be by the Court without a jury unless the Court orders otherwise in accordance with this section.

(2) A party to a civil issue may make application to the Court for an order that the issue or a question of fact in the issue be tried by the Court with a jury.

- (3) Whether or not such an application has been made, the Court may, if it appears just, order that a civil issue or a question of fact in a civil issue be tried by the Court with a jury.
- (4) Where the Court so orders, the jury shall consist of 4 jurors chosen and returned in accordance with this Act.

8 Payment of jury fee in civil cases

- (1) Where the Court makes an order under section 7(3), on the application of a party to a civil issue, that party shall pay to the sheriff the prescribed fee.
- (2) The regulations may prescribe amounts to be paid in respect of the prescribed fee:
 - (a) before the trial commences on the first day of the trial; and
 - (b) before the trial resumes on each subsequent day of the trial.
- (3) If an amount so prescribed is not paid before the trial commences or resumes on any day (as the case requires), the Court may, if it thinks fit, allow further time not exceeding one hour after the commencement or resumption of the trial within which the amount may be paid by any party to the trial.
- (4) If the amount is not paid before the trial commences or resumes on any day (as the case requires) or, if the Court allows further time, within the further time so allowed, the Court shall, if a jury has been sworn and impanelled, discharge the jury and the trial shall proceed without a jury, notwithstanding that the trial may have commenced with a jury.
- (5) The Court may order that the amount of the prescribed fee paid by any party to a trial shall be costs in the cause.

Part III Qualifications of jurors and liability to serve

9 Qualification of jurors and liability to serve

- (1) Subject to section 10, a person whose name is on the roll is qualified to serve as a juror.
- (2) A person who is qualified to serve as a juror and who is not exempt under section 11 is liable to serve as a juror.

10 Persons not qualified

- (1) For the purposes of this section, a person who has been sentenced to a term of imprisonment has not completed the sentence:
 - (a) if he has been released from prison on parole – until the expiration of the period of parole; or
 - (b) if the sentence has been wholly or partly remitted under section 432 of the Criminal Code, section 8A of the Criminal Law (Conditional Release of Offenders) Act or section 114 of the Sentencing Act subject to conditions – until the conditions have been satisfied and no longer apply in relation to him; or
 - (c) if that sentence has been suspended:
 - (i) subject to conditions – until the conditions have been satisfied and no longer apply in relation to him; or
 - (ii) unconditionally – until the expiration of the period during which the sentence remains suspended.
- (2) For the purposes of this section, a person shall be deemed never to have been under sentence of imprisonment for an offence if he has been granted a free pardon in respect of the offence.
- (3) A person who:
 - (a) has been sentenced to a term of imprisonment (whether within the Territory, in a State or another Territory or in a prescribed country) for an offence other than a capital offence and:
 - (i) has not completed the sentence; or
 - (ii) a period of less than 7 years has elapsed since he completed the sentence;
 - (b) has been sentenced to a term of imprisonment (whether within the Territory, in a State or another Territory or in a prescribed country) for a capital offence;
 - (c) is a person in respect of whom an order under section 15 of the Adult Guardianship Act is in force;
 - (d) is of unsound mind or is:
 - (i) in a hospital or an approved treatment facility; or
 - (ii) undergoing treatment, under the Mental Health and Related Services Act; or

- (e) is a protected person within the meaning of the Aged and Infirm Persons' Property Act, is not qualified to serve as a juror.

11 Exempt persons

- (1) A person specified in Schedule 7 is exempt from serving as a juror.
- (2) A person who is over the age of 65 may exempt himself or herself from serving as a juror on a permanent basis by giving written notice to the Sheriff.
- (3) The name of a person exempt from serving as a juror under subsection (1) or (2) must not be included on a jury list.

12 Jurors to serve within own jury district

Except as a talesman:

- (a) a person who does not reside within the jury district for Darwin is not qualified to serve as a juror at Darwin; and
- (b) a person who does not reside within the jury district for Alice Springs is not qualified to serve as a juror at Alice Springs.

13 Impeachment of verdict of jury

The verdict of a jury shall not be impeached on the ground that a juror was not qualified to serve, or was exempt from serving, as a juror unless the lack of qualification or the exemption was submitted before the juror was sworn.

14 Liability of disqualified or exempted persons to attend as jurors

A person whose name is on the jury list is not excused from attendance in accordance with a jury summons by reason of:

- (a) not being qualified to serve; or
- (b) being exempt from serving, as a juror, unless the Sheriff was informed accordingly and has excused the person from attending.

15 Excusing of jurors by Judge or Master

If a Judge or the Master:

- (a) is satisfied that a person summoned to attend as a juror, or a person appointed as a talesman, ought for sufficient cause be excused from attendance; or
- (b) has doubt as to the person's qualifications to serve as a juror or be appointed as a talesman or whether the person is exempt from serving as a juror, the Judge or the Master may excuse the person from attendance or further attendance on the Court during such period as the Judge or the Master, as the case may be, specifies.

17A Power to exempt from jury service on condition of subsequent service

- (1) Where a person is excused under section 15 from attendance or further attendance on the Court, the Judge or the Master may, as a condition of excusing that person, order that the name of the person be included amongst the names of jurors to be summoned for jury service at some subsequent time specified in the order.
- (2) Where a Judge or the Master makes an order under subsection (1), he shall notify the Sheriff of the making of the order and the Sheriff shall cause the person the subject of that order to be summoned, in accordance with that order, as a juror.

18AB Power of Sheriff to exempt in certain cases

Where the Sheriff is satisfied that a person has been summoned to attend as a juror not later than 3 years after the date on which he previously served as a juror, the Sheriff may, upon application made by or on behalf of the person, excuse that person from attendance in compliance with the summons.

Part IV Jury districts19 Jury districts

For the purposes of this Act, there shall be:

- (a) a jury district for Darwin; and
- (b) a jury district for Alice Springs.

20 Boundaries of jury districts

The jury district of Darwin and the jury district of Alice Springs shall comprise such areas of land as are respectively prescribed.

Part V Jury lists21 Jury lists

- (1) The Sheriff shall, not later than 30 November in each year, make out a jury list for each of the jury districts of Darwin and Alice Springs.
- (2) The Jury lists for Darwin and Alice Springs shall contain, in alphabetical order, the names of persons qualified to serve, and not exempt from serving, as jurors who reside within the respective jury districts.
- (4) A jury list shall show the address and occupation of each person whose name appears on the list and the names appearing on the list shall be prefixed by numbers in regular arithmetical series.
- (5) Each jury list made out under subsection (1) shall come into operation on 1 January next after it is made out and shall, notwithstanding that the boundaries of the prescribed areas constituting a jury district may have changed after it was made out, remain valid for all purposes for a period of 12 months expiring with 31 December next following.

Part VI Jury precepts and summonses23 Definition

In this Part, unless the contrary intention appears, the Sheriff in relation to a jury precept that is directed, under section 26, to a person other than the Sheriff means that other person.

24 Jury precepts

From time to time, and as often as occasion demands, the Chief Justice shall issue, under his hand and seal, a precept directed to the Sheriff requiring him to summon jurors before the Court at Darwin or Alice Springs, as the case requires.

25 Terms of precept

A jury precept shall be in accordance with the form in Schedule 3 and shall specify the number of jurors required and the time when and the place where the attendance of the jurors is required, and shall be issued and delivered to the Sheriff at least 14 clear days before the time so specified.

26 Provision for cases where Sheriff is interested

If it appears to the Chief Justice that the Sheriff is a party to, or interested in, a matter to be tried before a jury, he may direct a jury precept to such other person as he thinks fit.

27 Jurors to be chosen by random selection by computer

When a jury precept is delivered to the Sheriff, the Sheriff shall choose the persons to be summoned from those whose names appear in the jury list for Darwin or the jury list for Alice Springs in accordance with random selection by computer in the prescribed manner.

27A Sheriff's power to question

- (1) A Deputy Sheriff shall not exercise any power under this section unless he has been expressly authorized in writing by a Judge or the Master to exercise that power.
- (2) The Sheriff and each Deputy Sheriff shall, in the exercise of any power under this section, comply with such directions as are given from time to time by the Chief Justice.
- (3) The Sheriff and a Deputy Sheriff may, at any time before the juror's name is called in accordance with section 37 or 39, question any juror chosen under section 27 to ascertain whether that juror is able to read, write and speak the English language.
- (4) If the Sheriff or Deputy Sheriff is not satisfied that a juror referred to in subsection (3) is able to read, write and speak the English language, he shall thereupon report the fact to a Judge or the Master.

29 Summons to jurors

The Sheriff shall cause to be served upon each juror chosen in pursuance of section 27 a summons in a form approved by the Sheriff.

30 Service of summons

A summons to a juror shall be served on the juror:

- (a) by delivering it to him personally as soon as practicable and not less than 7 clear days before the time specified in the summons for his attendance; or
- (b) by forwarding the summons by ordinary prepaid post to his address, as it appears on the annual jury list, so that the summons would, in the ordinary course of post, be delivered to that address not less than 7 clear days before the time specified in the summons for his attendance.

32 Panel of jurors and return of persons not summoned

- (1) The Sheriff shall, before the time when a jury precept is required to be returned into the Court, prepare a list showing the names, in alphabetical order, and the descriptions, of the persons summoned in pursuance of the jury precept.
- (2) Where a single criminal trial is to commence in a jury district on a certain day, either:
 - (a) all the jurors who attend in obedience to the summons from the jury district on that day shall constitute the jury panel for that trial; or
 - (b) the Sheriff shall, by ballot, constitute a jury panel for the trial from amongst those who attend in obedience to the summons.
- (3) Where 2 or more criminal trials are to commence on a certain day, the Sheriff shall, before or on the day on which the jurors are summoned, by ballot, divide the jurors into separate panels and appropriate each panel to a trial.
- (4) Subject to section 37(2)(a), where jurors from any jury panel are not included in a jury for a trial the Sheriff may excuse them from further jury service on the day on which that trial commences, but they shall attend again, in accordance with their respective summonses, at a time and place directed by the Sheriff.

33 Sheriff's return to precept

Upon the day and at the place named in a jury precept for the appearance of the jurors required to be summoned by the jury precept, the Sheriff must return into the Court the jury precept and, annexed to it, the panel of jurors relating to the precept.

34 Inspection of jury panels in civil cases

A party to the trial of a civil issue, or his counsel, may, at a convenient time before the trial, inspect or obtain a copy of the panel of jurors annexed to a precept for the appearance of jurors at that trial.

35 Informalities, &c., not to invalidate verdict

An omission, informality or error in name or description (if there being no question as to identity) with respect to a jury list, a jury precept or a panel of jurors does not invalidate or affect any verdict returned by a jury that is in other respects according to law.

36 Correction of mistakes of name or description

The Sheriff, on showing to the satisfaction of a Judge or the Master that an error has been made in the name or description of a juror and that there is no question as to the identity of the person may, by leave of the Judge or the Master, as the case may be, in writing, cause the error to be corrected and the person to be thereafter summoned by his right name and description.

Part VII Striking and impanelling jury

Division 1 Criminal trials

37 Striking jury in criminal cases

- (1) Subject to section 37A, at a criminal trial, the proper officer must:
 - (a) select one at a time, in accordance with the written directions of the Chief Justice, persons from the panel of jurors to the trial; and
 - (b) call aloud the name and description of the person selected, until 12 persons appear and remain approved as indifferent.
- (1A) The 12 persons who remain are, upon being duly sworn, to be the jury to try the issues on the trial.
- (2) If the names of persons from the panel of jurors to the trial are exhausted, by challenge or otherwise, and less than 12 persons appear and remain approved as indifferent, the Court may adjourn the trial and such persons may be retained to be included in the jury for the trial and:

- (a) further persons (to be included on the jury panel for the trial) may be chosen from the persons who were summoned to attend on another Court in the same jury district but were not included in a jury for a trial at that Court; or
 - (b) a further jury precept may be issued for persons to be included on the jury panel for the trial.
- (2A) Where there are not sufficient persons to be the jury to try the issues of the trial after following either one or both of the procedures referred to in subsection (2), or where the Court considers those procedures are not appropriate, then, at the request of the Crown or the prisoner or his counsel, the Court may adjourn the trial and order the Sheriff to appoint forthwith from amongst such of the persons in or in the vicinity of the Court as are qualified and liable to serve, but not exempt from serving, as jurors in a jury district as many persons as are sufficient to make up 12 jurors.
- (2B) Notwithstanding subsections (2) and (2A), the jury may be discharged and a further jury precept may be issued in respect of the trial.
- (2C) Section 33 shall apply, with the necessary changes, to the extent necessary for the operation of subsection (2)(a).
- (3) Talesman are subject to challenge in accordance with this Act.

37A Reserve jurors in criminal cases

- (1) The Court in which a criminal trial is to be held may direct that, in addition to the 12 persons required under section 37(1) to be the jury to try the issues on that trial, not more than 3 jurors summoned in accordance with section 30 shall be chosen and returned as reserve jurors in respect of that trial.
- (2) A reserve juror:
 - (a) shall have the same qualifications;
 - (b) shall be called and empanelled in the same manner;
 - (c) shall be subject to the same challenges and liability to be stood by and to be discharged;
 - (d) shall take the same oath; and
 - (e) shall have the same functions, powers, facilities and privileges, as a juror, and for that purpose the law in respect of jurors shall apply to and in relation to a reserve juror with such modifications as are required by this section.

- (3) A juror at a criminal trial who, prior to the time the jury retires to consider its verdict, dies or becomes disqualified from or is discharged from performing his duties as a juror shall be replaced by a reserve juror, if any, who, if there is more than one reserve juror available at that trial, shall then be determined by lot in such manner as the Court determines.
- (4) Where a reserve juror who has not replaced a juror dies or becomes disqualified from or discharged from performing his duties as a juror, the trial in respect of which he is a reserve juror shall not be affected by that death, disqualification or discharge.
- (5) Immediately before the jury retires to consider its verdict, a reserve juror who has not replaced a juror shall be discharged.

38 Different issues may be tried by same jury

Where a jury has tried, or been drawn to try, a criminal issue, the Court may, if no objection is made by the Crown or other party to another criminal issue:

- (a) try that other issue with that jury; or
- (b) order the names of any jurors to the withdrawal of whom the parties consent, or who are justly challenged or excused by the Court, to be set aside and try that other issue with:
 - (i) the residue of the original jury; and
 - (ii) jurors whose names are on the panel of jurors, who have not been selected under section 37A to be one of the panel of jurors to the trial and who appear and are approved as indifferent.

Division 2 Civil trials

39 Striking jury in civil cases

- (1) When a civil issue that is to be tried with a jury is called on for trial, the proper officer:
 - (a) must, in accordance with the written directions of the Chief Justice:
 - (i) select, one at a time, persons from the panel of jurors to the trial; and

- (ii) call aloud the name and description of the person selected,
 - until, after all challenges for cause are allowed, 12 persons appear and remain approved as indifferent; and
 - (b) must compile a list of the names of those jurors.
- (2) If the names of persons from the panel of jurors to the trial are exhausted, by challenge or otherwise, before the list contains the names of 12 jurors:
- (a) the Court may order the Sheriff to appoint from amongst such of the persons in or in the vicinity of the court as are qualified and liable to serve, and not exempt from serving, as jurors in a jury district as many persons as are sufficient to make up 12 jurors; and
 - (b) the Sheriff, upon so doing, shall place the names of the jurors so appointed on the list.
- (3) Talesman are subject to challenge in accordance with this Act.
- (4) Upon the list being completed, the list shall be delivered by the Sheriff successively to the plaintiff and to the defendant, each of whom may strike out 4 names from the list.
- (5) If no more than 4 names then remain on the list, the persons whose names so remain shall be the jury, but if more than 4 names then remain on the list, the persons whose names are the first 4 names so remaining shall be the jury.
- (6) The jurors so selected shall be sworn and empanelled as the jurors for the trial.
- (9) In this section, the plaintiff includes the plaintiff's solicitor or counsel and the defendant includes the defendant's solicitor or counsel.

40 Different issues may be tried by same jury

- (1) Where a jury has tried, or been drawn to try, a civil issue, the Court may, if no objection is made on behalf of the plaintiff or defendant to another civil issue:
- (a) try that other issue with that jury; or
 - (b) order the names of any jurors to the withdrawal of whom the parties consent, or who are justly challenged or excused by the Court, to be set aside and other jurors to be selected in their stead and try that other issue with the residue of the original jury and with such jurors so selected as appear and are approved as indifferent.

- (2) The selection of jurors for the purposes of subsection (1)(b) shall be made according to the procedure set out in section 39 for striking a jury for the trial of a civil issue but so that the numbers "12" and "4" appearing in that section are replaced respectively by numbers bearing to those numbers respectively the same ratio as the number of jurors to be selected bears to the number "4".

41 Reducing list where party does not appear

Where a plaintiff or defendant does not appear in person or by counsel or solicitor, names on the list of jurors may be struck out on his behalf under section 39(4) by the proper officer or by some other officer of the Court approved by the Court.

Part VIII Challenge

42 Right of challenge

Subject to the provisions of this Act, challenge to the array and to the polls may be made and allowed for such and the like cause, in such and the like form and manner and under and subject to the like laws, rules and regulations in every respect as by law was or were established, used and practised in like cases in the Northern Territory immediately before the commencement of this Act.

43 Standing jurors by limited

The power of the Court on the trial of a criminal issue, at the request of the Crown, to order a juror to stand by is limited so that the number of jurors so ordered to stand by shall not exceed 6.

44 Challenge in criminal cases

- (1) Upon the trial of a criminal issue, the Crown and the person arraigned or his counsel may each challenge peremptorily:
- (a) in the case of a capital offence – 12 jurors; and
 - (b) in any other case – 6 jurors,
- and are not, except for cause shown, entitled to further challenges.
- (2) A peremptory challenge in excess of the number of peremptory challenges allowed under subsection (1) is void and the trial shall proceed as if such a challenge had not been made.

46 Challenge in civil cases

Subject to section 39, a person is not entitled to challenge a juror upon the trial of a civil issue except for cause shown.

47 Informalities in summoning jurors

- (1) An omission, error or irregularity by the Sheriff or any of his officers in the time and mode of service of a summons on a juror, or the summoning or return of a juror by a wrong name (if there is no question as to identity) is not a cause of challenge either to the array or to the juror.
- (2) A matter which might have been objected by way of challenge to the polls or to the array does not invalidate or affect any verdict in any case, civil or criminal, unless the objection is taken by way of challenge.

Part IX Disagreement49 Disagreement in civil cases

- (1) Where, upon the trial of a civil issue:
 - (a) the jury has remained for a period of 6 hours or more in deliberation;
 - (b) the jurors are not unanimously agreed upon their verdict; and
 - (c) 3 of the jurors are agreed upon the verdict to be given,the decision of those 3 jurors shall be taken and entered as the verdict of all.
- (2) Where, upon the trial of a civil issue:
 - (a) the jury has remained for 12 hours or more in deliberation; and
 - (b) it is not possible to enter a verdict in accordance with subsection (1),the Court shall discharge the jury and the cause may without new process be again set down for trial, either at the same or any subsequent sittings as the Court may order.

Part X Offences49A Confidentiality of jury deliberations

- (1) This section applies in relation to juries in criminal, civil or coronial proceedings in a court of the Territory, the Commonwealth or a State or another Territory of the Commonwealth, whether instituted before or after the commencement of this section.

- (2) A person must not disclose protected information if the person is aware that, in consequence of the disclosure, the information will, or is likely to, be published.

Maximum penalty:

- (a) in the case of a natural person – 85 penalty units or imprisonment for 2 years;

- (b) in the case of a body corporate – 440 penalty units.

- (3) A person must not solicit or obtain protected information with the intention of publishing or facilitating the publication of that information.

Maximum penalty:

- (a) in the case of a natural person – 85 penalty units or imprisonment for 2 years;

- (b) in the case of a body corporate – 440 penalty units.

- (4) A person must not publish protected information.

Maximum penalty:

- (a) in the case of a natural person – 85 penalty units or imprisonment for 2 years;

- (b) in the case of a body corporate – 440 penalty units.

- (5) Subsection (2) does not prohibit disclosing protected information:

- (a) to a court; or

- (b) to a Royal Commission, Commission of Inquiry or Board of Inquiry; or

- (c) to the Director of Public Prosecutions, a member of the staff of the Director's Office or a member of the Police Force for the purpose of an investigation concerning an alleged contempt of court or alleged offence relating to jury deliberations; or

- (d) as part of a fair and accurate report of an investigation referred to in paragraph (c); or
- (e) to a person in accordance with an authorisation granted by the Attorney-General to conduct research into matters relating to juries or jury service; or
- (f) to a health practitioner in the course of the treatment of a person in relation to issues arising out of the person's prior service as a juror.

- (5A) A health practitioner to whom protected information is disclosed must not disclose the information to anyone else unless it is necessary for the health or welfare of the former juror.

Maximum penalty: 85 penalty units or imprisonment for 2 years.

- (6) Subsection (3) does not prohibit soliciting or obtaining protected information:

- (a) in the course of proceedings in a court;
- (b) by a Royal Commission, Commission of Inquiry or Board of Inquiry;
- (c) by the Director of Public Prosecutions, a member of the staff of the Director's Office or a member of the Police Force for the purpose of an investigation concerning an alleged contempt of court or alleged offence relating to jury deliberations;
- (d) by a person in accordance with an authorisation granted by the Attorney-General to conduct research into matters relating to juries or jury service; or
- (e) by a legal practitioner for the purpose of giving advice in relation to a matter referred to in paragraph (a), (b), (c) or (d).

- (7) Subsection (4) does not prohibit publishing protected information:

- (a) in accordance with an authorisation granted by the Attorney-General to conduct research into matters relating to juries or jury service; or

- (b) as part of a fair and accurate report of:
- (i) proceedings in respect of an alleged contempt of court, an alleged offence against this section or an alleged offence otherwise relating to jury deliberations;
 - (ii) proceedings by way of appeal from proceedings referred to in subparagraph (i); or
 - (iii) proceedings by way of appeal from proceedings in the course of which jury deliberations took place if the nature or circumstances of the deliberations is an issue relevant to the appeal.
- (8) This section does not apply in relation to information about a prosecution for an alleged offence against this section if, before the prosecution was instituted, that information had been published generally to the public.
- (9) A prosecution for an alleged offence against this section is not to be instituted except with the written consent of the Director of Public Prosecutions or a person authorised by the Director for that purpose.
- (10) In this section:

health practitioner means a medical practitioner or person registered under the Health Practitioner Regulation National Law to practise in the psychology profession (other than as a student).

protected information means particulars of statements made, opinions expressed, arguments advanced and votes cast by members of a jury in the course of their deliberations, other than anything said or done in open court.

publish, in relation to protected information, means communicate or disseminate the information in a way or to an extent that it is available to, or likely to come to the notice of, the public or a member of the public.

49B Anonymity of jurors

- (1) Except with the leave of the court, a person must not, during the course of proceedings, publish or otherwise disclose information that identifies, or is likely to identify, that person or any other person as a juror in those proceedings.

Maximum penalty:

- (a) in the case of a natural person – 85 penalty units or imprisonment for 2 years;
 - (b) in the case of a body corporate – 440 penalty units.
- (2) A person must not publish or otherwise disclose information that identifies, or is likely to identify, another person as having been a juror in particular proceedings unless the other person has consented to the publication or disclosure of that information.

Maximum penalty:

- (a) in the case of a natural person – 85 penalty units or imprisonment for 2 years;
 - (b) in the case of a body corporate – 440 penalty units.
- (3) A person must not solicit or obtain information that identifies, or is likely to identify, another person as a juror, or as having been a juror, in particular proceedings with the intention of publishing or facilitating the publication of that information.

Maximum penalty:

- (a) in the case of a natural person – 85 penalty units or imprisonment for 2 years;
 - (b) in the case of a body corporate – 440 penalty units.
- (4) Subsections (1) and (2) do not prohibit publishing identifying information:
- (a) in accordance with an authorisation granted by the Attorney-General to conduct research into matters relating to juries or jury service; or
 - (b) as part of a fair and accurate report of:
 - (i) proceedings in respect of an alleged contempt of court, an alleged offence against this section or an alleged offence otherwise relating to a juror's identity; or

- (ii) proceedings by way of appeal from proceedings referred to in subparagraph (i).
- (5) Subsections (1) and (2) do not prohibit disclosing identifying information:
- (a) to a court; or
 - (b) to a Royal Commission, Commission of Inquiry or Board of Inquiry; or
 - (c) to the Director of Public Prosecutions, a member of the staff of the Director's Office or a member of the Police Force for the purpose of an investigation concerning an alleged contempt of court or alleged offence relating to a juror's identity; or
 - (d) as part of a fair and accurate report of an investigation referred to in paragraph (c); or
 - (e) to a person in accordance with an authorisation granted by the Attorney-General to conduct research into matters relating to juries or jury service; or
 - (f) to a legal practitioner for the purpose of obtaining advice in relation to a matter referred to in paragraph (a), (b), (c), (d) or (e); or
 - (g) to a health practitioner in the course of the treatment of a person in relation to issues arising out of the person's prior service as a juror.
- (5A) A health practitioner to whom protected information is disclosed must not disclose the information to anyone else unless it is necessary for the health or welfare of the former juror.

Maximum penalty: 85 penalty units or imprisonment for 2 years.

- (6) Subsection (3) does not prohibit soliciting or obtaining identifying information:
- (a) in the course of proceedings in a court;
 - (b) by a Royal Commission, Commission of Inquiry or Board of Inquiry;
 - (c) by the Director of Public Prosecutions, a member of the staff of the Director's Office or a member of the Police Force for the purpose of an investigation concerning an alleged contempt of court or alleged offence relating to a juror's identity; or

- (d) by a person in accordance with an authorisation granted by the Attorney-General to conduct research into matters relating to juries or jury service.
- (7) This section does not apply in relation to information about a prosecution for an alleged offence against this section if, before the prosecution was instituted, that information had been published generally to the public.
- (8) A prosecution for an alleged offence against this section is not to be instituted except with the written consent of the Director of Public Prosecutions or a person authorised by the Director for that purpose.
- (9) In this section:

health practitioner means a medical practitioner or person registered under the Health Practitioner Regulation National Law to practise in the psychology profession (other than as a student).

identifying information means information that identifies, or is likely to identify, a person as, or as having been, a juror in particular proceedings.

proceedings means criminal, civil or coronial proceedings in a court of the Territory, the Commonwealth or a State or another Territory of the Commonwealth, whether instituted before or after the commencement of this section.

publish, in relation to information, means communicate or disseminate the information in a way or to an extent that it is available to, or likely to come to the notice of, the public or a member of the public.

50 Non-attendance of jurors

A person, other than a person who is at the material time excused from attendance as a juror by or under this Act, shall comply with a summons to attend as a juror served on him under this Act.

Maximum penalty: 4 penalty units.

51 Non-attendance of talesman

A talesman shall not:

- (a) fail to appear when required so to do by the Court; or

(b) wilfully withdraw himself from the presence of the Court.

Maximum penalty: 4 penalty units.

52 Unlawful dismissal, &c.

Where a person is summoned in pursuance of a jury precept to attend upon the Court, whether he serves upon a jury or not, the person in whose service he is employed, shall not:

(a) dismiss that person from his service; or

(b) act in any other way to the prejudice of that person in relation to his employment, on account of that person's absence from his employment for the purposes of jury service.

Maximum penalty: 40 penalty units or imprisonment for 12 months.

54 Limit of 3 days in civil cases

Where a juror summoned, or a talesman appointed, for the trial of a civil issue or issues has attended for 3 consecutive days, he is excused from further attendance unless the Court otherwise orders.

55 Personation of jurors

A person shall not personate, or attempt to personate, a juror whose name is on a panel of jurors for the purpose of sitting as that juror.

Maximum penalty: 17 penalty units.

56 Excess of fees

A juror or reserve juror shall not, under pretence of receiving fees or remuneration for attending a trial, receive or take from any person a sum in excess of the compensation which he is entitled to receive under this Act for his attendance.

Maximum penalty: 4 penalty units.

Part XI Miscellaneous

58 Oath by jurors

Jurors shall be sworn in open court in accordance with the appropriate Form in Schedule 6.

59 Oath of officer in charge of jury

An officer may be sworn, in accordance with the form in Schedule 6, to take charge of a jury.

60 Payment of jurors

A juror summoned in pursuance of a precept, or a talesman who attends the Court, is, for each day during his attendance upon the Court, whether he has actually served upon a jury or not, entitled to receive payment for his attendance at the prescribed rate.

61 View during trial

- (1) In the trial of a civil issue with a jury, the Court may, at any time before the verdict of the jury, order a view of any place or property by the jury and may make all such orders upon the Sheriff or other person, and give such directions as the Court thinks necessary, for the purposes of the view.
- (3) When a view is ordered on the trial of a civil issue, the Court may direct that the expenses of the view shall be paid to such extent and by such person, in the first instance, as the Court orders.

62 Reduction of jury

- (1) If in any trial of a civil issue, the Court is satisfied that by reason of illness or a matter of special urgency or importance a juror should be excused from further attendance, the Court may order that the juror be excused from further attendance during the trial and such further period as the Court specifies.
- (2) Where a juror dies or is excused under subsection (1), the Court may, if the number of jurors is reduced to not less than 3, order that the trial shall proceed with the reduced number of jurors and the decision of those jurors shall be taken and entered as the verdict of all.

63 Food and refreshment

In any trial, the Court may, at any time after the jury has been empanelled and sworn and whether or not it has retired to consider its verdict, order that the jury be supplied with such food and refreshment as the Court thinks fit and the Sheriff shall thereupon supply that food and refreshment at public expense.

65 Abolition of certain juries

Special juries and juries de medietate linguae are abolished.

66 Affirmations

A person required by this Part to make an oath in accordance with a Form in Schedule 6 may make an affirmation in accordance with that Form, with such alterations as are necessary, and a person so making an affirmation shall, for the purposes of this Part, be deemed to have been sworn.

68 Regulations

- (1) The Administrator may make regulations, not inconsistent with this Act, prescribing all matters which are required or permitted by this Act to be prescribed or are necessary or convenient to be prescribed for giving effect to this Act.
- (2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1), the Regulations may provide for:
 - (a) prescribing the fees to be paid under section 8;
 - (b) prescribing the rates of payment under section 60;
 - (c) prescribing the areas of land comprising respectively the jury districts of Darwin and Alice Springs; and
 - (d) prescribing forms of acknowledgement, in answer to jury summonses, to be completed and returned to the sheriff.
