COMMERCIAL ARBITRATION ACT

An Act to repeal the Arbitration Act 1891 of the State of South Australia, as amended, in its application to the Territory, to make provision for and in relation to the arbitration of certain disputes, and for other purposes

Part I Preliminary

1 Short title

This Act may be cited as the Commercial Arbitration Act.

2 Commencement

This Act shall come into operation on a date to be fixed by the Administrator by notice in the Gazette.

3 Repeal, transitional and application provisions

- (1) The Arbitration Act 1891 of the State of South Australia (being Act No. 510 of 1891), in its application to the Territory as a law of the Territory, is repealed.
- (2) Subject to subsection (3):
 - (a) this Act applies to an arbitration agreement (whether made before or after the commencement of this Act) and to an arbitration under such an agreement; and
 - (b) a reference in an arbitration agreement to the Arbitration Act 1891, or a provision of that Act, shall be construed as a reference to this Act or to the corresponding provision (if any) of this Act.
- (3) Where an arbitration was commenced before the commencement of this Act, the law governing the arbitration and the arbitration agreement shall be that which would have been applicable if this Act had not commenced.

(4) Subject to this section, this Act shall apply to arbitrations provided for in any other Act as if:

- (a) the other Act were an arbitration agreement;
- (b) the arbitration were pursuant to an arbitration agreement; and
- (c) the parties to the dispute which, by virtue of the other Act, is referred to arbitration were the parties to the arbitration agreement, except in so far as the other Act otherwise indicates or requires.

(5) For the purposes of this section, an arbitration shall be deemed to have been commenced if:

- (a) a dispute to which the relevant arbitration agreement applies has arisen; and
- (b) a party to the agreement has:
 - (i) served on another party to the agreement a notice requiring that other party to appoint an arbitrator or to join or concur in or approve of the appointment of an arbitrator in relation to the dispute;
 - (ii) served on another party to the agreement a notice requiring that other party to refer, or to concur in the reference of, the dispute to arbitration; or
 - (iii) taken any other step contemplated by the agreement, or the law in force at the time the dispute arose, with a view to referring the dispute to arbitration or appointing, or securing the appointment of, an arbitrator in relation to the dispute.

(6) Notwithstanding subsection (4), nothing in this Act applies to an arbitration, or class of arbitrations, under any other Act that is prescribed as an arbitration to which, or class of arbitrations to which this Act does not apply.

4 Definitions

(1) In this Act, unless the contrary intention appears:

arbitration agreement means an agreement in writing to refer present or future disputes to arbitration.

award means a final or interim award.

Court means the Supreme Court.

misconduct includes corruption, fraud, partiality, bias and a breach of the rules of natural justice.

party, in relation to an arbitration agreement, includes a person claiming through or under a party to the arbitration agreement.

power of appointment or power to appoint, in relation to an arbitrator or umpire, means a power to appoint an arbitrator or umpire, to join in the appointment of an arbitrator or umpire, to concur in or approve of the appointment of an arbitrator or umpire, or to take any other step in or towards the appointment of an arbitrator or umpire.

- (2) A reference in this Act to an arbitrator includes, in a case where there are 2 or more arbitrators, a reference to the arbitrators.

5 Crown to be bound

Where the Crown (whether in right of the Territory or in any other capacity) is a party to an arbitration agreement, it is bound by this Act.

Part II Appointment of arbitrators and umpires

6 Presumption of single arbitrator

An arbitration agreement shall be taken to provide for the appointment of a single arbitrator unless:

- (a) the agreement otherwise provides; or
- (b) the parties otherwise agree in writing.

7 Presumption as to joint appointment of arbitrator

Unless otherwise agreed in writing by the parties to the arbitration agreement, an arbitrator who is to be appointed for the purposes of an arbitration to be conducted under an arbitration agreement shall be jointly appointed by the parties to the agreement.

8 Default in exercise of power to appoint an arbitrator

- (1) Where a person who has a power to appoint an arbitrator defaults in the exercise of that power, a party to the relevant arbitration agreement may, by notice in writing:
 - (a) require the person in default to exercise the power before such date (being not earlier than 7 days after service of the notice) as is specified in the notice; and
 - (b) propose that in default of that person so doing:
 - (i) a person named in the notice (a default nominee) should be appointed to the office in respect of which the power is exercisable; or
 - (ii) specified arbitrators (being the arbitrators who have before the date of the notice been appointed in relation to the arbitration) should be the sole arbitrators in relation to the arbitration.
- (2) A notice under subsection (1) (or, where appropriate, a copy of the notice) shall be served on:
 - (a) each party to the arbitration agreement (except the party by whom the notice is given); and
 - (b) each other person (not being a party to the arbitration agreement) who is in default in the exercise of a power of appointment in relation to the office in question,and the notice shall be deemed to have been served when service is last effected under this subsection.
- (3) Where a person who is in default in the exercise of a power of appointment fails to exercise the power as required by a notice under subsection (1), then:
 - (a) where the notice names a default nominee – that nominee shall be deemed to have been duly appointed to the office in respect of which the power was exercisable; or
 - (b) where the notice proposes that specific arbitrators should be the sole arbitrators in relation to the arbitration:
 - (i) the power to which the notice relates lapses;
 - (ii) the arbitrators specified in the notice may enter on the arbitration as if they were the sole arbitrators to be appointed in relation to the arbitration; and

- (iii) the arbitration agreement shall be construed subject to such modifications (if any) as are necessary to enable those arbitrators effectively to enter on and conduct the arbitration.
- (4) The Court may, on the application of a party to an arbitration agreement, set aside an appointment or any other consequence of non-compliance with a notice under this section that takes effect by operation of subsection (3), and may itself make an appointment to the office in respect of which the relevant power of appointment was exercisable.
- (5) For the purposes of this section, a person defaults in the exercise of a power of appointment if, after an occasion for the exercise of the power has arisen, that person does not exercise the power within the time fixed by the relevant arbitration agreement or, if no time is so fixed, within a reasonable time.

9 Power to appoint new arbitrator or umpire

Unless otherwise agreed in writing by the parties to the arbitration agreement, where a person has a power to appoint an arbitrator or umpire, that power extends to the appointment of a new arbitrator or umpire in place of an arbitrator or umpire who dies or otherwise ceases to hold office.

10 General power of the Court to fill vacancy

Where there is a vacancy in the office of an arbitrator or umpire (whether or not an appointment has previously been made to that office) and:

- (a) neither the arbitration agreement nor this Act (other than this section) provides a method for filling the vacancy;
- (b) the method provided by the arbitration agreement or this Act (other than this section) for filling the vacancy fails or for any reason cannot reasonably be followed; or
- (c) the parties to the arbitration agreement agree that, notwithstanding that the provisions of the arbitration agreement or of this Act (other than this section) provide a method for filling the vacancy, the vacancy should be filled by the Court, the Court may, on the application of a party to the arbitration agreement, make an appointment to fill the vacancy.

11 Power of Court where arbitrator or umpire removed

- (1) Where an arbitrator or umpire is removed by the Court, the Court may, on the application of a party to the arbitration agreement:
 - (a) appoint a person as arbitrator or umpire in place of the person removed; or
 - (b) subject to subsection (2), order that the arbitration agreement shall cease to have effect with respect to the dispute to which the arbitration relates.
- (2) Subsection (1)(b) does not apply unless all the parties to the arbitration agreement were domiciled or ordinarily resident in Australia at the time the arbitration agreement was entered into.
- (3) Subsection (2) does not apply to an arbitration agreement that is treated as an arbitration agreement for the purposes of this Act by virtue only of the operation of section 3(4)(a).

12 Appointment of umpire

- (1) Unless otherwise agreed in writing by the parties to the arbitration agreement, where an arbitration agreement provides for the appointment of an even number of arbitrators, the arbitrators may appoint an umpire at any time after they are themselves appointed and shall do so forthwith if they fail to determine a matter arising for determination.
- (2) An umpire appointed in relation to an arbitration is not required to sit with the arbitrators while the arbitrators are conducting proceedings under the arbitration agreement.

13 Position of person appointed by Court, &c.

An arbitrator or umpire appointed pursuant to a power conferred by this Part shall be deemed to have been appointed pursuant to the provisions of the arbitration agreement.

Part III Conduct of arbitration proceedings14 Procedure of arbitrator or umpire

Subject to this Act and to the arbitration agreement, an arbitrator or umpire may conduct proceedings under that agreement in such manner as he thinks fit.

15 Manner in which decisions made

Unless a contrary intention is expressed in the arbitration agreement, where an arbitration agreement provides for the appointment of 3 or more arbitrators:

- (a) the arbitrators may, by a majority, appoint one of their number to preside;
- (b) any decision to be made in the course of the proceedings may be made by a majority; and
- (c) if the arbitrators are equally divided in opinion, and one of the arbitrators has been appointed to preside (whether under this section or the agreement), the decision of the presiding arbitrator shall prevail.

16 Circumstances in which umpires may enter on arbitration

- (1) Unless otherwise agreed in writing by the parties to the arbitration agreement, an umpire appointed in relation to an arbitration may forthwith enter on the arbitration in place of the arbitrators, and as if the umpire were the sole arbitrator, in a case where:
 - (a) the arbitration agreement fixes a time within which an award is to be made and the arbitrators fail to make the award within that time or an extension of that time granted under section 48 by the Court; or
 - (b) the arbitrators fail to determine a matter arising for determination and by reason of that failure the dispute cannot be resolved pursuant to the arbitration agreement and at least one of the arbitrators has served on a party to the dispute or the umpire a notice in writing to that effect.
- (2) At any time after the appointment of an umpire, the Court may, on the application of a party to the arbitration agreement and notwithstanding anything to the contrary in that agreement or any other agreement (whether oral or written) made between the parties to the arbitration agreement, order that the umpire shall enter on the arbitration in place of the arbitrators and as if the umpire were the sole arbitrator.

17 Parties may obtain subpoenas

- (1) The Court may, on the application of a party to an arbitration agreement, and subject to and in accordance with rules of court, issue a subpoena requiring a person to attend for examination before the arbitrator or umpire or requiring a person to attend for examination before the arbitrator or umpire and to produce to the arbitrator or umpire the document or documents specified in the subpoena.

- (2) A person shall not be compelled under a subpoena issued in accordance with subsection (1) to answer a question or produce a document which that person could not be compelled to answer or produce on the trial of an action.

18 Refusal or failure to attend before arbitrator or umpire, &c.

- (1) Unless a contrary intention is expressed in the arbitration agreement, where a person (whether or not a party to the agreement):

- (a) refuses or fails to attend before the arbitrator or umpire for examination when required under a subpoena or by the arbitrator or umpire to do so;
- (b) appearing as a witness before the arbitrator or umpire refuses or fails:
 - (i) to take an oath or to make an affirmation or affidavit when required by the arbitrator or umpire to do so;
 - (ii) to answer a question that the witness is required by the arbitrator or umpire to answer; or
 - (iii) to produce a document that the witness is required under a subpoena or by the arbitrator or umpire to produce; or
- (c) refuses or fails to do any other thing which the arbitrator or umpire requires him to do, a party to the arbitration agreement or the arbitrator or umpire may apply to the Court and the Court may order the person in default to attend before the Court for examination or to produce to the Court the relevant document or to do the relevant thing.

- (2) Where the Court makes an order under subsection (1), it may, in addition, make orders for the transmission to the arbitrator or umpire of:
- (a) a record of evidence given pursuant to the order;
 - (b) a document produced pursuant to the order or a copy of such document; or
 - (c) particulars of a thing done pursuant to the order, and such evidence, document or thing shall be deemed to have been given, produced or done (as the case requires) in the course of the arbitration proceedings.

(3) If a party to an arbitration agreement:

- (a) refuses or fails to attend before the arbitrator or umpire for examination when required under a summons or by the arbitrator or umpire to do so; or
- (b) fails within the time specified by the arbitrator or umpire or, if no time is so specified, within a reasonable time to comply with a requirement of the arbitrator or umpire, the arbitrator or umpire may continue with the arbitration proceedings in default of appearance or of any other act by the party if, in similar proceedings before the Court, the Court could in the event of such a default continue with the proceedings.

19 Evidence before arbitrator or umpire

- (1) Unless a contrary intention is expressed in the arbitration agreement, evidence before the arbitrator or umpire:
 - (a) may be given orally or in writing; and
 - (b) shall, if the arbitrator or umpire so requires, be given on oath or affirmation or by affidavit.
- (2) Unless a contrary intention is expressed in the arbitration agreement, an arbitrator or umpire may administer an oath or affirmation or take an affidavit for the purposes of proceedings under that agreement.
- (3) Unless otherwise agreed in writing by the parties to the arbitration agreement, an arbitrator or umpire in conducting proceedings under an arbitration agreement is not bound by rules of evidence but may inform himself in relation to any matter in such manner as he thinks fit.

20 Representation

- (1) A party to an arbitration agreement may be represented in proceedings before the arbitrator or umpire by a legal practitioner, but only in the following cases:
 - (a) where a party to the proceedings is, or is represented by, a legally qualified person;
 - (b) where all the parties agree;

- (c) where the amount or value of the claim subject to the proceedings exceeds $20,000 or such other amount as is prescribed instead by regulation; or
 - (d) where the arbitrator or umpire gives leave for such representation.
- (2) A party to an arbitration agreement may be represented in proceedings before the arbitrator or umpire by a representative who is not a legal practitioner, but only in the following cases:
 - (a) where the party is an incorporated or unincorporated body and the representative is an officer, employee or agent of the body;
 - (b) where all the parties agree; or
 - (c) where the arbitrator or umpire gives leave for such representation.
- (3) If a party applies for leave permitting representation by a legal practitioner or other representative, it must be granted if the arbitrator or umpire is satisfied:
 - (a) that the granting of leave is likely to shorten the proceedings or reduce costs; or
 - (b) that the applicant would, if leave were not granted, be unfairly disadvantaged.
- (4) A party is entitled to be represented by a legal practitioner or other representative on leave granted under subsection (3), notwithstanding any agreement to the contrary between the parties.
- (5) A person not entitled to practise in the Territory shall not be taken to have committed an offence under or breached the provisions of the Legal Profession Act or any other Act merely by representing a party in arbitration proceedings in the Territory.
- (6) A reference in this section to:
 - (a) a legal practitioner shall be read as a reference to a person who is admitted or entitled to practise as a barrister, solicitor or legal practitioner in the Territory or in any other place, whether within or outside Australia; and
 - (b) a legally qualified person shall be read as a reference to:
 - (i) such a legal practitioner; or

- (ii) a person who, though not such a legal practitioner, has such qualifications or experience in law (whether acquired in the Territory or in any other place, whether within or outside Australia) as, in the opinion of the arbitrator or umpire, would be likely to afford an advantage in the proceedings.

21 Effect of appointment of new arbitrator or umpire on evidence previously given and awards and determinations previously made

Unless otherwise agreed in writing by the parties to the arbitration agreement, where an umpire enters on the arbitration in place of the arbitrator and as if the umpire were the sole arbitrator or a new arbitrator or umpire is appointed in place of an arbitrator or umpire who dies or otherwise ceases to hold office:

- (a) the umpire or arbitrator shall treat any evidence given, document produced or thing done in the course of the earlier proceedings in the same manner in all respects as if it had been given, produced or done in the course of the proceedings conducted by the umpire or arbitrator;
- (b) an interim award made in the course of the earlier proceedings shall be deemed to have been made by the umpire or arbitrator; and
- (c) the umpire or arbitrator may adopt and act on a determination of a matter made in the course of the earlier proceedings without applying his own judgment to the matter.

22 Arbitrator to decide according to law or as amiable compositeur or ex aequo et bono

- (1) Unless otherwise agreed in writing by the parties to the arbitration agreement, a question that arises for determination in the course of proceedings under the agreement shall be determined according to law.
- (2) If the parties to an arbitration agreement so agree in writing, the arbitrator or umpire may determine a question that arises for determination in the course of proceedings under the agreement by reference to considerations of general justice and fairness.

23 Interim awards

Unless a contrary intention is expressed in the arbitration agreement, the arbitrator or umpire may make an interim award.

24 Specific performance

Unless a contrary intention is expressed in the arbitration agreement, the arbitrator or umpire may make an award ordering specific performance of a contract if the Supreme Court would have power to order specific performance of that contract.

25 Extension of ambit of arbitration proceedings

(1) Where:

- (a) pursuant to an arbitration agreement a dispute between the parties to the agreement is referred to arbitration; and
- (b) there is some other dispute between those same parties (whenever the dispute arose), being a dispute to which the same agreement applies, then, unless the arbitration agreement otherwise provides, the arbitrator or umpire may, on application being made to the arbitrator or umpire by the parties to the arbitration agreement at any time before a final award is made in relation to the first-mentioned dispute, make an order directing that the arbitration be extended so as to include that other dispute.

(2) An arbitrator or umpire may make an order under subsection (1) on such terms and conditions (if any) as he thinks fit.

26 Consolidation of arbitration proceedings

(1) The following provisions of this subsection apply to arbitration proceedings all of which have the same arbitrator or umpire:

- (a) the arbitrator or umpire may, on the application of a party in each of the arbitration proceedings, order:
 - (i) those proceedings to be consolidated on such terms as the arbitrator or umpire thinks just;
 - (ii) those proceedings to be heard at the same time, or one immediately after the other; or
 - (iii) any of those proceedings to be stayed until after the determination of any of them;
- (b) if the arbitrator or umpire refuses or fails to make such an order, the Court may, on application by a party in any of the proceedings, make such an order as could have been made by the arbitrator or umpire.

- (2) The following provisions of this subsection apply to arbitration proceedings not all of which have the same arbitrator or umpire:
- (a) the arbitrator or umpire for any one of the arbitration proceedings may, on the application of a party in the proceeding, provisionally order:
 - (i) the proceeding to be consolidated with other arbitration proceedings on such terms as the arbitrator or umpire thinks just;
 - (ii) the proceeding to be heard at the same time as other arbitration proceedings, or one immediately after the other; or
 - (iii) any of those proceedings to be stayed until after the determination of any of them;
 - (b) an order ceases to be provisional when consistent provisional orders have been made for all of the arbitration proceedings concerned;
 - (c) the arbitrators or umpires for arbitration proceedings may communicate with each other for the purpose of conferring on the desirability of making orders under this subsection and of deciding on the terms of any such order;
 - (d) if a provisional order is made for at least one of the arbitration proceedings concerned, but the arbitrator or umpire for another of the proceedings refuses or fails to make such an order (having received an application from a party to make such an order), the Court may, on application by a party in any of the proceedings, make an order or orders that could have been made under this subsection;
 - (e) if inconsistent provisional orders are made for the arbitration proceedings, the Court may, on application by a party in any of the proceedings, alter the orders to make them consistent.
- (3) An order or a provisional order may not be made under this section unless it appears:
- (a) that some common question of law or fact arises in all of the proceedings;
 - (b) that the rights to relief claimed in all of the proceedings are in respect of or arise out of the same transaction or series of transactions; or

- (c) that for some other reason it is desirable to make the order or provisional order.
- (4) When arbitration proceedings are to be consolidated under this section, the arbitrator or umpire for the consolidated proceedings shall be the person agreed on for the purpose by all the parties to the individual proceedings, but, failing any such agreement, the Court may appoint an arbitrator or umpire for the consolidated proceedings.
- (5) Any proceedings before an arbitrator or umpire for the purposes of this section shall be taken to be part of the arbitration proceedings concerned.
- (6) Arbitration proceedings may be commenced or continued, notwithstanding that an application to consolidate them is pending under subsection (1) or (2) and notwithstanding that a provisional order has been made in relation to them under subsection (2).
- (7) Subsections (1) and (2) apply in relation to arbitration proceedings whether or not all or any of the parties are common to some or all of the proceedings.
- (8) Nothing in subsection (1) or (2) prevents the parties to 2 or more arbitration proceedings from agreeing to consolidate those proceedings and taking such steps as are necessary to effect that consolidation.

27 Settlement of disputes otherwise than by arbitration

- (1) Parties to an arbitration agreement:
 - (a) may seek settlement of a dispute between them by mediation, conciliation or similar means; or
 - (b) may authorize an arbitrator or umpire to act as a mediator, conciliator or other non-arbitral intermediary between them (whether or not involving a conference to be conducted by the arbitrator or umpire),whether before or after proceeding to arbitration, and whether or not continuing with the arbitration.
- (2) Where:
 - (a) an arbitrator or umpire acts as a mediator, conciliator or intermediary (with or without a conference) under subsection (1); and

- (b) that action fails to produce a settlement of the dispute acceptable to the parties to the dispute, no objection shall be taken to the conduct by the arbitrator or umpire of the subsequent arbitration proceedings solely on the ground that the arbitrator or umpire is bound by the rules or an arbitrator or umpire had previously taken that action in relation to the dispute.

- (3) Unless the parties otherwise agree in writing, an arbitrator or umpire is bound by the rules of natural justice when seeking a settlement under subsection (1).
- (4) Nothing in subsection (3) affects the application of the rules of natural justice to an arbitrator or umpire in other circumstances.
- (5) The time appointed by or under this Act or fixed by an arbitration agreement or by an order under section 48 for doing any act or taking any proceeding in or in relation to an arbitration is not affected by any action taken by an arbitrator or umpire under subsection (1).
- (6) Nothing in subsection (5) shall be construed as preventing the making of an application to the Court for the making of an order under section 48.

Part IV Awards and costs

28 Awards to be final

Unless a contrary intention is expressed in the arbitration agreement, the award made by the arbitrator or umpire shall, subject to this Act, be final and binding on the parties to the agreement.

29 Form of award

- (1) Unless otherwise agreed in writing by the parties to the arbitration agreement, the arbitrator or umpire shall:
 - (a) make the award in writing;
 - (b) sign the award; and
 - (c) include in the award a statement of the reasons for making the award.
- (2) Where an arbitrator or umpire makes an award otherwise than in writing, he shall, on request by a party within 7 days after the making of the award, give to the party a statement in writing signed by the arbitrator or umpire of the date, the terms of the award and the reasons for making the award.

30 Power to correct award

Where an award made under an arbitration agreement contains:

- (a) a clerical mistake;
- (b) an error arising from an accidental slip or omission;
- (c) a material miscalculation of figures or a material mistake in the description of a person, thing or matter referred to in the award; or
- (d) a defect of form,

the arbitrator or umpire may correct the award or the Court, on the application of a party to the agreement, may make an order correcting the award.

31 Interest up to making of award

- (1) Unless a contrary intention is expressed in the arbitration agreement, but subject to subsection (4), where the arbitrator or umpire determines to make an award for the payment of money (whether on a claim for a liquidated or an unliquidated amount), the arbitrator or umpire may include in the sum for which the award is made interest at such rate as he directs (being a rate not exceeding the rate at which interest is payable on a judgment debt of the Supreme Court) on the whole or a part of the money for the whole or a part of the period between the date on which the cause of action arose and the date on which the award is made.
- (2) Unless a contrary intention is expressed in the arbitration agreement, but subject to subsection (4), where:
 - (a) arbitration proceedings have been commenced for the recovery of a debt or liquidated damages; and
 - (b) payment of the whole or a part of the debt or damages is made during the currency of the proceedings and prior to or without an award being made in respect of the debt or damages, the arbitrator or umpire may order that interest be paid at such rate as the arbitrator or umpire may direct (being a rate not exceeding the rate at which interest is payable on a judgment debt of the Supreme Court) on the whole or any part of the money paid for the whole or any part of the period between the date when the cause of action arose and the date of the payment.

- (3) Without limiting subsection (2), arbitration proceedings shall, for the purposes of that subsection, be deemed to have been commenced if:
- (a) a dispute to which the relevant arbitration agreement applies has arisen; and
 - (b) a party to the agreement:
 - (i) has served on another party to the agreement a notice requiring that other party to appoint an arbitrator or to join or concur in or approve of the appointment of an arbitrator in relation to the dispute;
 - (ii) has served on another party to the agreement a notice requiring the other party to refer, or to concur in the reference of, the dispute to arbitration; or
 - (iii) has taken any other step contemplated by the agreement or the law in force at the time the dispute arose, with a view to referring the dispute to arbitration or appointing, or securing the appointment of, an arbitrator in relation to the dispute.
- (4) Subsection (1) does not:
- (a) authorize the award of interest on interest;
 - (b) apply in relation to an amount on which interest is payable as of right whether by virtue of an agreement or otherwise; or
 - (c) affect the damages recoverable for the dishonour of a bill of exchange.

32 Interest on debt under award

- (1) Unless a contrary intention is expressed in the arbitration agreement, where the arbitrator or umpire makes an award for the payment of money, he may direct that interest at the same rate as that at which interest is payable on a judgment debt of the Supreme Court shall be payable from the date of the making of the award or such later date as he specifies on so much of the money as is from time to time unpaid and interest that so accrues shall be deemed to form part of the award.

- (2) If judgment is entered by the Court in terms of an award, interest shall cease to accrue in pursuance of a direction under this section on the date of the entry of the judgment.

33 Enforcement of award

An award made under an arbitration agreement may, by leave of the Court, be enforced in the same manner as a judgment or order of the Court to the same effect and, where leave is so given, judgment may be entered in terms of the award.

34 Costs

- (1) Unless a contrary intention is expressed in the arbitration agreement, the costs of the arbitration (including the fees and expenses of the arbitrator or umpire) shall be in his discretion and he may:
- (a) direct to and by whom, and in what manner, the whole or a part of those costs shall be paid;
 - (b) tax or settle the amount of costs to be so paid or a part of those costs; and
 - (c) award costs to be taxed or settled as between party and party or as between solicitor and client.
- (2) The costs of the arbitration (other than the fees or expenses of the arbitrator or umpire) that are directed to be paid by an award shall, except so far as taxed or settled by the arbitrator or umpire, be taxable in the Court.
- (3) A provision in an arbitration agreement (being an arbitration agreement that provides for the reference of future disputes to arbitration) to the effect that:
