- (n) the full name and business address of the person who has custody of the remains of the deceased;
- (p) other particulars relating to the death necessarily required for statistical or medical research purposes and specified in the form approved by the Registrar.

13 Certificate of no impediment to marriage

A person who applies to the Registrar under section 44(5) of the Act for a certificate that the Registrar is not aware of any impediments to the solemnisation of the intended marriage is to provide the Registrar with the following information in relation to both parties to the intended marriage:

- (a) the family name, given names, occupation, usual place of residence, marital status, date of birth, place of birth, and name and maiden name (if applicable) of each parent;
- (b) whether previously married and, if so, :
 - (i) the date and place of marriage; and
 - (ii) how the marriage was dissolved; and
 - (iii) the date and place of death of the spouse or the date on which the decree dissolving the marriage became absolute;
- (c) whether the parties are related to each other and, if so, the nature of the relationship.

14 Signing and witnessing of forms

Subject to regulation 15, a form, certificate or instrument required or permitted to be lodged under the Act or these Regulations that is required by the Act or these Regulations to be signed by the person completing it must be signed by that person and the signature must be:

- (a) witnessed; or
- (b) otherwise proved, to the satisfaction of the Registrar, to have been freely given.

15 Dispensing with signatures

The Registrar may, in relation to a form, certificate or instrument referred to in regulation 14, dispense with the signature of the person required to sign after completing the form, certificate or instrument where the Registrar believes on reasonable grounds that:

- (a) the person is absent from the Territory and is unlikely to return in the near future; or

- (b) the person is not capable of signing the form, certificate or instrument; or
 - (c) it would not, in the circumstances, be convenient to require the person to sign the form, certificate or instrument.

16 Non-compliance in forms

- (1) The Registrar may accept a form, certificate or instrument required or permitted to be lodged under the Act or these Regulations even if it does not contain all the particulars required under the Act or these Regulations.
- (2) Where the Registrar, in accordance with subregulation (1), accepts a form, certificate or instrument, it is taken to comply with the Act or these Regulations.
