 - (d) a spear-gun; or
 - (e) a pistol designed to be used for life-saving, rescuing or distress signal purposes; or
 - (f) a firearm or a type of firearm mentioned in a notice under section 8(1)(b).

- (2) This Act does not apply to or in relation to a starting pistol that is the property of a sporting association or body if:
- (a) the association or body is affiliated with the governing body for its sport in the Territory; and
 - (b) the starting pistol is used at sporting fixtures organised and controlled by the sporting association or body; and
 - (c) the starting pistol is in the possession of an adult when at or being transported to or from the sporting fixture; and
 - (d) the starting pistol is stored in accordance with the storage requirements under this Act.
- (3) Parts 3 and 5 do not apply to or in relation to a person who is a common carrier in respect of the person's possession of a firearm that:
- (a) is not the person's property; and
 - (b) forms part of a consignment of goods in the person's possession as a common carrier.
- (4) Part 3 and sections 58, 59, 66, 77, 78, 79, 80, 82 and 83 do not apply to or in relation to:
- (a) a police officer; or
 - (b) a member of the Australian Federal Police; or
 - (c) a member of a police force of a State or another Territory; or
 - (d) a member of the Australian Customs Service; or
 - (e) a member of the Australian Protective Service; or
 - (f) an officer as defined in section 5 of the Prisons (Correctional Services) Act,
- in respect of his or her possession or use of a firearm in the course of his or her duty as a member or officer.
- (5) Sections 78 and 79 do not apply to or in relation to a person who is:
- (a) a public sector employee; or
 - (b) an APS employee as defined in section 7 of the Public Service Act 1999 (Cth);

in respect of the person's possession or use, in the course of his or her duty as such an employee, of a firearm the property of the Territory or the Commonwealth.

- (6) The Commissioner may, by written notice, declare that such provisions of this Act as the Commissioner thinks fit and specifies in the notice do not apply, or apply in accordance with such conditions as are specified in the notice:
- (a) to certain persons in relation to their activities at an approved paintball range, shooting gallery, amusement parlour or similar place; or
 - (b) in relation to firearms amnesties generally or periods specified in the notice as amnesty periods; and those provisions do not apply or apply only subject to those conditions.

Part 2 Administration

5 Delegation

The Commissioner may, in writing, delegate to a police officer or public sector employee any of the Commissioner's powers and functions under this Act, other than:

- (a) the forming of the necessary opinion for the purposes of section 10(8A), 33(3A) or 40A(1); or
- (b) this power of delegation.

6 Fees

- (1) The Minister may, by Gazette notice, determine the fees payable under this Act.
- (2) The Commissioner may waive or reduce a determined fee in relation to a matter or thing or a class of matters or things.

7 Register

- (1) The Commissioner is to cause to be kept a register containing a record of those particulars that the Commissioner determines of:
 - (a) all registered firearms; and
 - (b) all licences and permits.

- (2) The register may be kept:
- (a) in a form or combination of forms; and
 - (b) on a medium or combination of mediums; and
 - (c) in a manner;
- that the Commissioner thinks fit and, for paragraph (b), a medium includes but is not limited to any of the following:
- (d) a computer;
 - (e) micro film;
 - (f) paper.
- (3) The register is to be maintained in a form that:
- (a) enables it to be linked to CrimTrac; and
 - (b) enables a firearm authority of a State or another Territory to have access to information in the register.
- (4) A document certified by the Commissioner to be an extract from, or copy of, an entry in the register must be received in all courts and on all occasions as evidence and is taken to be sufficient proof of the particulars contained in that entry without requiring the production of the register from which the extract or copy was taken.
- (5) In this section:
- CrimTrac means the CrimTrac Agency established under section 65 of the Public Service Act 1999 (Cth).

8 Declarations by Commissioner

- (1) The Commissioner may, by Gazette notice, declare:
- (a) a firearm or a type of firearm to be a firearm of a particular category of firearm; or
 - (b) a firearm or a type of firearm to be a firearm that is exempt from the operation of this Act.
- (2) A notice under subsection (1) may specify a firearm or type of firearm by reference to particulars of the firearm or type of firearm that may include the calibre, mechanism, manufacturer, magazine capacity, fixture attached to a firearm or other particulars by which a firearm or a type of firearm may be identified.

- (3) The Commissioner may, on application by a person in possession of a firearm and after examination of the firearm, by written notice, certify that the firearm is permanently incapable of use as a firearm.
- (4) A reference in this Act to a category of firearm includes a firearm or type of firearm in respect of which a declaration is made under subsection (1)(a).

Part 3 Licences

Division 1 Application for licence

9 Application for licence

- (1) An application for a licence is to be:
 - (a) in the approved form; and
 - (b) accompanied by the determined fee; and

10 General restrictions on grant of licence

- (1) The Commissioner, on receiving an application for a licence, may grant or refuse to grant the licence.
- (2) Subject to subsection (5), the Commissioner is not to grant a shooter's licence or a firearms club junior licence until 28 days after the day on which the application is made.
- (2A) The Commissioner is not to grant a licence to a person who has been found guilty of an offence against this Act or the Weapons Control Act or in which a firearm was involved unless:
 - (a) in a case where, on the trial or hearing in relation to the offence:
 - (i) an order under section 10 or 11 of the Sentencing Act or mentioned in section 130(2) of that Act (or a provision of a law in force in the jurisdiction in which the offence was committed that, in the opinion of the Commissioner, is of similar effect) has been made directing that the person be discharged on giving security in accordance with the section; or
 - (ii) a pecuniary penalty only has been imposed;and not less than 2 years have elapsed since the person was found guilty of the offence; and

- (b) in the case where a custodial sentence was imposed – 5 years have elapsed since the applicant was found guilty of the offence or released from custody, whichever is the later.
- (2B) The Commissioner is not to grant a licence if the Commissioner has reasonable cause to believe that the applicant has failed to supply material information or has supplied information that is false or misleading.
- (3) Subject to subsections (6) and (6A), the Commissioner must not grant a licence unless satisfied the applicant or, for an application for a paintball operator licence, the representative:
- (a) is at least 18 years of age unless the licence applied for is a firearms club junior licence; and
 - (b) is a fit and proper person; and
 - (c) has completed an approved firearms training and safety course; and
 - (d) is able to meet the storage and safety requirements under this Act; and
 - (e) resides in the Territory or is about to become a resident of the Territory; and
 - (f) has not, within the period of 10 years before the application for the licence was made, been found guilty in the Territory or elsewhere of a disqualifying offence; and
 - (fa) has not, within the period of 5 years before the application for the licence was made, been found guilty in the Territory or elsewhere of an offence of violence; and
 - (g) does not have a final domestic violence order in force against him or her and has not, within the period of 5 years before the application for the licence was made, had a final domestic violence order in force against him or her; and
 - (ga) does not have a personal violence restraining order in force against him or her; and
 - (h) is not subject to an order, made in the Territory or elsewhere, to keep the peace.

- (4) Without limiting subsection (3)(b), the Commissioner is not to grant a licence if the Commissioner has reasonable cause to believe that the applicant or representative may not personally exercise continuous and responsible control over firearms because of:
- (a) the applicant's or representative's way of living or domestic circumstances; or
 - (b) any attempts by the applicant or representative to commit suicide or cause a self-inflicted injury; or
 - (c) the applicant's or representative's intemperate habits or being of unsound mind.
- (5) The Commissioner may grant a shooter's licence before the expiration of the period mentioned in subsection (2) if the applicant was, at the time of making the application, the holder of a shooter's licence and the prescribed checks have been completed.
- (6) Subsection (3)(c) does not apply to:
- (a) an applicant who is already the holder of a licence when the application is made; or
 - (b) an application for a paintball operator licence.
- (6A) Subsection (3)(d) does not apply to an application for a paintball operator licence.
- (7) Except in the case of a firearms dealer licence, firearms museum licence, firearms club licence, firearms corporate licence or paintball operator licence, a licence may only be granted to an individual.
- (8) The Commissioner may refuse to grant a licence if the Commissioner considers that the grant of the licence would be contrary to the public interest.
- (8A) The Commissioner must refuse to grant a licence if the Commissioner is of the opinion, having regard to any criminal intelligence report or other criminal information the Commissioner holds about the applicant or representative, that:
- (a) the applicant or representative is a risk to public safety; and
 - (b) the grant of the licence would be contrary to the public interest.
- (8B) The Commissioner is not, under this or any other Act or law, required to give reasons for refusing to grant a licence on the grounds mentioned in subsection (8A).

- (9) The Regulations may provide other mandatory or discretionary grounds for refusing to grant a licence.

10AA Restriction on grant of category H sports shooter's licence

The Commissioner must not grant a category H sports shooter's licence unless the application is accompanied by an endorsement from an approved firearms club to the effect that:

- (a) the applicant is a member of the club; and
- (b) the applicant has provided the club with:
 - (i) details of the applicant's membership of any other firearms clubs and the firearms owned by the applicant; and
 - (ii) at least 2 character references from persons who have known the applicant for at least 2 years; and
- (c) the club supports the application.

10AB Restriction on grant of firearms dealer licence

The Commissioner must not grant a firearms dealer licence if the Commissioner:

- (a) is of the view that a person who (in the opinion of the Commissioner) is or will be a close associate of the applicant is not a fit and proper person to be a close associate of the holder of a firearms dealer licence; or
- (b) is not satisfied that the applicant will be the person primarily responsible for the control and management of the business to be carried on under the authority of the licence.

10AC Restriction on grant of firearms collector licence

The Commissioner must not grant a firearms collector licence unless:

- (a) the Commissioner is satisfied that the applicant is a genuine historical collector of firearms; and
- (b) the applicant is a member of an approved historical firearms collector's society and the society has endorsed the application for the licence; and

- (c) the applicant can demonstrate that he or she can comply with the prescribed requirements for storage and safe keeping of firearms held under the licence.

10AD Restriction on grant of paintball operator licence

The Commissioner must not grant a paintball operator licence unless:

- (a) the Commissioner is satisfied each person who is or will be a close associate of the applicant is a fit and proper person to be a close associate of the holder of a paintball operator licence; and
- (b) the Commissioner is satisfied the applicant is able to meet the storage and safety requirements under this Act; and
- (c) the premises are approved under section 49A.

10A General restrictions on grant of firearms corporate licence, firearms museum licence and firearms club licence

The Commissioner may refuse to grant a firearms corporate licence, firearms museum licence or firearms club licence if, in respect of the particular application:

- (a) the representative does not hold a licence; or
- (b) the Commissioner is not satisfied the representative would be granted a licence under section 10 if he or she were to apply for a licence.

11 Genuine reason for licence

- (1) The Commissioner is not to grant a licence:
 - (a) unless satisfied that the applicant has a genuine reason for possessing and using firearms; and
 - (b) in respect of a category C firearm, category D firearm or category H firearm, unless satisfied that the applicant has a genuine need for possessing and using firearms of that category; and
 - (c) unless satisfied that the applicant meets the requirements under this Act in respect of that reason or need.

- (2) The genuine reasons for possessing or using firearms are any of the following:
- (a) sports shooting;

- (f) to authorise the shortening or conversion of a firearm;
- (fa) to authorise the temporary possession or use of a firearm by the holder of a licence for a specified reason not covered by the holder's licence;
- (fb) to authorise a person to use under supervision a category H firearm for sports shooting at an approved firearms club;
- (fc) to authorise an approved firearms club to permit a person or class of persons to use under supervision a category H firearm for sports shooting at the firearms club;
- (fd) to authorise an approved paintball operator, and the representative, to possess and use paintball firearms and pellets for carrying on the operator's business specified in the permit at the temporary paintball range specified in the permit;

- (g) to authorise anything else for which provision is made by the Regulations and required by the Regulations to be authorised by a permit.
- (2) The Commissioner must not grant a permit for the purpose specified in subsection (1)(fb) unless the application is accompanied by:
 - (a) an endorsement from an approved firearms club to the effect that:
 - (i) the applicant is a member of the club; and
 - (ii) the applicant has provided the club with:
 - (A) details of the applicant's membership of any other firearms clubs and the firearms owned by the applicant; and
 - (B) at least 2 character references from persons who have known the applicant for at least 2 years; and
 - (iii) the club supports the application; and
 - (b) an authority from the applicant authorising the Commissioner to disclose to the club the applicant's criminal history at any time while the permit is in force.
- (3) The Commissioner may grant a permit to authorise a person to do any or all of the things that may be authorised under a firearms armourer licence.
- (4) Part 3, Division 5 applies (with the necessary changes) to the holder of a permit under subsection (3) as if the person were the holder of a firearms armourer licence.

32 Application for permit

- (1) An application for a permit is to be:
 - (a) in the approved form; and
 - (b) accompanied by the determined fee; and
 - (c) lodged with the Commissioner.
- (2) Also, the applicant must give the Commissioner the further information requested by the Commissioner for considering the application.

- (3) In addition, an application for a permit to carry on the business of paintball operator at a temporary paintball range must:
- (a) describe the applicant's proposed business at the paintball range and the period for which the permit is required; and
 - (b) specify the names and addresses of the following persons:
 - (i) the person who will be primarily responsible for the control and management of the business (the representative);
 - (ii) prospective paintball employees of the business; and
 - (c) specify:
 - (i) the name and address of each person who is a close associate of the applicant; and
 - (ii) particulars of the nature of the person's association with the applicant.

33 General restrictions on granting permits

- (1) The Commissioner is not to grant a permit unless satisfied that the applicant:
- (a) is at least 18 years of age unless:
 - (i) the applicant is the holder of a firearms club junior licence; or
 - (ii) the permit is to use under supervision a category H firearm for sports shooting at an approved firearms club; and
 - (b) is a fit and proper person; and
 - (c) has not, within 10 years before the application for the permit was made, been found guilty in the Territory or elsewhere, of a disqualifying offence; and
 - (ca) has not, within 5 years before the application for the permit was made, been found guilty in the Territory or elsewhere, of an offence of violence; and
 - (cb) is able to meet the storage and safety requirements prescribed under this Act or approved by the Commissioner; and

- (d) does not have a final domestic violence order in force against him or her and has not, within 5 years before the application for the permit was made, had a final domestic violence order in force against him or her; and
 - (da) does not have a personal violence restraining order in force against him or her; and
 - (e) is not subject to an order, made in the Territory or elsewhere, to keep the peace; and
 - (f) if the applicant is the holder of a firearms junior club licence:
 - (i) the applicant is at least 16 years of age and represents the Territory in competition shooting at national or international level; and
 - (ii) the application is accompanied by a written endorsement from the governing body in the Territory for the disciplines in which the applicant shoots that the applicant is a representative of the Territory.
- (1A) The Commissioner is not to grant a permit if the applicant is prohibited from holding a licence to own or possess a firearm:
- (a) under this or any other Act; or
 - (b) under an Act of the Commonwealth, a State or another Territory; or
 - (c) by an order or direction of a court (whether made or given in the Territory or elsewhere).
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), the Commissioner is not to grant a permit if the Commissioner has reasonable cause to believe that the applicant may not personally exercise continuous and responsible control over firearms because of:
- (a) the applicant's way of living or domestic circumstances; or
 - (b) any previous attempt by the applicant to commit suicide or cause a self-inflicted injury; or
 - (c) the applicant's intemperate habits or being of unsound mind.
- (3) The Commissioner may refuse to grant a permit if the Commissioner considers that to grant the permit would be contrary to the public interest.

- (3A) The Commissioner must refuse to grant a permit if the Commissioner is of the opinion, having regard to any criminal intelligence report or other criminal information the Commissioner holds about the applicant or representative, that:
- (a) the applicant is a risk to public safety; and
 - (b) the grant of the permit would be contrary to the public interest.
- (3B) The Commissioner is not, under this or any other Act or law, required to give reasons for refusing to grant a permit on the grounds mentioned in subsection (3A).
- (4) The Regulations may provide other mandatory or discretionary grounds for refusing to grant a permit.
- (5) This section does not apply to an application for a paintball operator permit.

33A Possession and use of firearms by international competitors

- (1) An international competitor may possess or use a firearm for the sole purpose of competing in an approved shooting competition if he or she is the holder of:
- (a) a permit; or
 - (b) a corresponding permit;
- that authorises the possession or use of the firearm for that purpose.
- (2) Despite section 33, the Commissioner may grant a permit to an international competitor for the sole purpose of competing in an approved shooting competition if:
- (a) the applicant provides the Commissioner with the prescribed information; and
 - (b) the Commissioner is satisfied that the applicant is a fit and proper person to possess or use a firearm of the category to which the permit relates.

34 General provisions relating to permits

- (1) A permit is subject to:
- (a) the conditions that are prescribed; and
 - (b) the conditions specified by the Commissioner.

- (2) A permit remains in force for the period determined by the Commissioner and specified in the permit.
- (3) The Commissioner may suspend or revoke a permit for any reason for which a licence may be suspended or revoked or that may be prescribed.
- (4) The suspension or revocation of a permit takes effect when notice is served on the holder of the permit.
- (5) If a permit is suspended or revoked, the person to whom it was granted must immediately surrender it, and any firearm in respect of which it was granted, to a police officer.

Maximum penalty: 50 penalty units or imprisonment for 12 months.

- (6) A police officer may seize a firearm in respect of which a permit was granted if the permit is suspended or revoked.
- (7) Subject to this Act, a permit expires 3 months after the holder ceases to reside in the Territory.

35 Permits to purchase or acquire firearms

- (1) The holder of a licence may apply to the Commissioner for a permit to purchase or acquire a firearm.
- (2) A separate permit to purchase or acquire a firearm is required for each firearm to be purchased or acquired.
- (3) The Commissioner:
 - (a) is not to grant a permit to a person to purchase or acquire a firearm unless the person is the holder of a licence authorising the person to use or possess the firearm concerned; and
 - (b) may refuse to grant a permit to purchase or acquire a firearm to a person who is the holder of a firearms club junior licence.
- (4) Subject to subsection (5), the Commissioner is not to grant to a person a permit to purchase or acquire a firearm until after the end of the period of 28 days after the day on which the application for the permit is made.

- (5) The Commissioner may grant a permit to a person to purchase or acquire a firearm before the expiration of the period mentioned in subsection (4) where:
 - (a) the person:
 - (i) holds a licence and owns a registered firearm; and
 - (ii) has established a genuine need for owning the firearm to be purchased or acquired; and
 - (b) the prescribed checks have been completed.
- (6) Unless revoked, a permit to purchase or acquire a firearm remains in force for the period specified in the permit or until the firearm to which the permit relates is purchased or acquired, whichever is the sooner.

35A Permits for category H sports shooters

- (1) The Commissioner must not grant to the holder of a category H sports shooter's licence a permit to purchase or acquire a firearm unless the holder has, at all times during the 6 months before the application for the permit, held one or the other of the following:
 - (a) a category H sports shooter's licence;
 - (b) a shooter's licence authorising the possession and use of a category H firearm that was granted for (or partially for) the genuine reason of sports shooting.
- (2) The Commissioner must not grant to the holder of a category H sports shooter's licence a permit to acquire a firearm unless the permit is for a prescribed firearm.
- (3) The Commissioner must not grant to the holder of a category H sports shooter's licence a permit to acquire a firearm if the acquisition under the permit would result in the holder exceeding the limits on firearm ownership specified in section 35B.
- (4) The Commissioner may grant to the holder of a category H sports shooter's licence a permit to acquire a firearm only if the application for the permit is accompanied by an endorsement by an approved firearms club:
 - (a) to the effect that:
 - (i) the applicant is, and has been for more than 6 months, a shooting member of the firearms club; and

- (ii) the applicant has complied with the licence condition specified in section 15C(d); and
 - (iii) the club supports the application for a permit; and
- (b) giving details of the shooting disciplines the firearm to be purchased under the permit is to be used for at the club; and
- (c) confirming that the applicant has adequate storage facilities to cater for the firearm to be purchased under the permit; and
- (d) if the permit sought relates to a firearm with a calibre greater than .38", confirming that:
 - (i) the firearm is intended for use in a specially accredited discipline; and
 - (ii) the applicant is affiliated with the appropriate national or international body that administers the particular shooting discipline; and
- (e) providing any further particulars that the Commissioner requires.

35B Limits on firearm ownership under category H sports shooter's licence

- (1) The holder of a category H sports shooter's licence who has, at all times during the preceding 6 months, held one or the other of the following:
 - (a) a category H sports shooter's licence;
 - (b) a shooter's licence authorising the possession and use of a category H firearm that was granted for (or partially for) the genuine reason of sports shooting;may hold only the following firearms under the licence:
 - (c) one .22" calibre pistol or one centrefire pistol;
 - (d) one .177" air pistol;
 - (e) one black powder muzzle loading pistol or one cap and ball percussion fired revolver.
- (2) The holder of a category H sports shooter's licence who has, at all times during the preceding 12 months, held one or the other of the following:
 - (a) a category H sports shooter's licence;

- (b) a shooter's licence authorising the possession and use of a category H firearm that was granted for (or partially for) the genuine reason of sports shooting;

may, in addition to the firearms permitted to be held under subsection (1), hold other firearms under the licence if the holder:

- (c) demonstrates a genuine need for the additional firearms, including by specifying the category H sports shooting discipline for which the firearms are required; and
- (d) has adequate storage facilities to cater for the additional firearms.

35C Permits under firearms collector licence

- (1) The Commissioner must not grant a permit to the holder of a firearms collector licence for a firearm manufactured on or after 1 January 1947 unless:

- (a) the holder is a student of arms; and
- (b) the firearm for which the permit is sought fits within the theme of the holder's firearms collection and will enhance the collection's historical or commemorative value.

- (2) A student of arms is a person who:

- (a) is the holder of a firearms collector licence; and
- (b) is, and has been for at least 12 months, a member of an approved historical firearms collector's society and the society recognises the person to be a student of arms; and
- (c) can demonstrate regular attendance at meetings of the society and participation in displays held by the society; and
- (d) can demonstrate that the person's firearms collection has a thematic structure and historical or commemorative value; and
- (e) possesses a research library or contributes to the literature on the theme of the person's collection.

35D Restriction on granting paintball operator permit

The Commissioner must not grant a paintball operator permit if the applicant would not be entitled to be granted a paintball operator licence to carry on the business of paintball operator at the paintball range for which the permit is sought.

Part 5 Registration of firearms36 Registration of firearms

- (1) An application to register a firearm is to be:
 - (a) in the approved form; and
 - (b) accompanied by the determined fee; and
 - (c) lodged with the Commissioner.
- (2) Subject to this section, the Commissioner is to register a firearm that is the subject of an application.
- (3) The Commissioner:
 - (a) is not to register a firearm unless the applicant is the holder of a licence that permits the holder to possess firearms of the category of the firearm to be registered; and
 - (b) may refuse to register a firearm if the applicant is the holder of a firearms club junior licence.
- (4) The Commissioner may refuse to register a firearm if it is not produced to a police officer for inspection.
- (5) The Commissioner registers a firearm by entering in the register particulars of the firearm and particulars relating to the person in whose name it is registered.
- (6) The Commissioner is to issue a certificate of registration to a person in whose name a firearm is registered where:
 - (a) the firearm is registered in accordance with subsection (5); or
 - (b) the Commissioner records in the register a change in the particulars relating to the person in whose name a firearm is registered.

37 Duration of registration

- (1) A firearm ceases to be registered:
 - (a) if the person in whose name it is registered dies or, for a firearm registered in the name of a corporation, the corporation is dissolved; or
 - (b) if it is sold or otherwise disposed of; or
 - (c) if it is lost or stolen; or

- (d) if it is altered in a way:
 - (i) that affects its safety or fitness for use; or
 - (ii) that it becomes a firearm of a different category from the category specified in the certificate of registration relating to it.
- (2) Where a person was, immediately before his or her death, the holder of a certificate of registration for a firearm, the personal representative of the person is, for 28 days or any longer period that the Commissioner in writing allows, taken to be the holder of the certificate of registration for the purpose of disposing of the firearm in accordance with this Act.
- (3) A certificate of registration expires 3 months after the holder ceases to reside permanently in the Territory.

Part 6 Surrender or revocation of licences, permits and certificates of registration

38 Suspension of licence, permit or registration

- (1) The Commissioner may, if satisfied there may be grounds for revoking a licence, permit or certificate of registration, suspend the licence, permit or certificate by serving written notice on the holder.
- (2) A notice under subsection (1) is to:
 - (a) state that the licence, permit or certificate is suspended and the reasons for suspending it; and
 - (b) request the holder to provide the Commissioner with reasons why the licence, permit or certificate should not be revoked.
- (3) A licence, permit or certificate of registration is suspended for the period, not longer than 28 days, specified in the notice.
- (4) The holder of a licence, permit or certificate of registration suspended under this section is not authorised to possess or use a firearm of the category or the firearm, as the case may be, specified in the licence, permit or certificate during the period of the suspension.

39 Suspension on making of interim domestic violence order

- (1) A licence, permit or certificate of registration is automatically suspended on the making of an interim domestic violence order against the holder and the suspension remains in force until the order is confirmed or revoked.
- (2) If a licence, permit or certificate of registration is automatically suspended by subsection (1), the person to whom it is granted must immediately:
 - (a) surrender the suspended licence, permit or certificate of registration to a police officer; and
 - (b) deliver a firearm in respect of which the licence, permit or certificate is granted to a member of the Police Force.

Maximum penalty: 50 penalty units or imprisonment for 12 months.

40 Revocation of licence, permit or registration

- (1) A licence, permit or a certificate of registration is automatically revoked:
 - (a) on a final domestic violence order, a personal violence restraining order or an order to keep the peace being made against the holder; or
 - (b) on the holder being found guilty of a disqualifying offence, an offence of violence or an offence against this Act.
- (2) The Commissioner is, by written notice served on the holder of a licence or permit, to revoke the licence or permit if satisfied that the holder has failed to comply with a condition of the licence or permit that is prescribed for this subsection.
- (2A) The Commissioner must, by written notice served on the holder of a licence or permit, revoke the licence or permit if satisfied that the loss or theft of a firearm was due to the negligence or fraud of the holder.
- (3) The Commissioner may, by written notice served on the holder of a licence, permit or certificate of registration, revoke the licence, permit or certificate:
 - (a) for any reason for which the holder would be required to be refused a licence or permit of the same kind or a certificate of registration; or

- (b) if the holder supplied information that was false or misleading in a material particular in, or in connection with, the application for the licence, permit or certificate of registration; or
- (c) if the holder is found guilty of an offence against a law in force in the Territory, or an offence in a State or another Territory, (whether committed before or after the granting of the licence, permit or certificate) relating to a firearm or the possession or use of a firearm or any other offence that, in the opinion of the Commissioner, makes the holder not fit to possess or use a firearm or to hold a licence, permit of the kind held or a certificate; or
- (d) in the case of a licence or permit, if the holder contravenes a condition of the licence or permit; or
- (e) if the Commissioner is of the opinion that the holder is no longer a fit and proper person to hold the licence, permit or certificate; or
- (f) in the case of a firearms dealer licence, if:
 - (i) the holder is not in charge of the premises used under the licence to carry on the business; or
 - (ii) the holder no longer deals in firearms; or
 - (iii) the premises used under the licence to carry on the business are no longer satisfactory for that purpose; or
- (g) in the case of a firearms armourer licence, if:
 - (i) the holder is not in charge of the premises used under the licence to carry on the business; or
 - (ii) the holder no longer repairs or stores firearms; or
 - (iii) the premises used under the licence to carry on the business are no longer satisfactory for that purpose; or
- (h) in the case of a firearms collector licence, if:
 - (i) the holder of the licence is no longer a bona fide collector of firearms or is not, or will no longer be, in charge of the premises where the firearms are usually kept; or
 - (ii) the premises where the firearms are usually kept are no longer satisfactory for the storage or safe keeping of the firearms; or

- (j) in the case of a firearms corporate licence, if:
 - (i) the holder no longer has a good reason for employees to possess or use firearms; or
 - (ii) the holder's premises are no longer satisfactory for the storage or safe keeping of firearms; or
 - (k) in the case of a firearms employee licence, if the holder is no longer an employee of the holder of the firearms corporate licence or is no longer carrying out the duties in relation to which the licence was granted; or
 - (l) in the case of a paintball operator licence or permit, if:
 - (i) the holder is no longer entitled to use the approved paintball range; or
 - (ii) the holder no longer carries on the business of paintball operator at the approved paintball range.
- (4) The revocation of a licence, permit or certificate of registration under subsection (2) or (3) takes effect when notice is served on the holder or on a later date specified in the notice, whether or not an appeal is lodged against the revocation.
- (5) A person must, immediately after a notice under this section is served on him or her, or where in the notice the person is allowed time to sell or otherwise dispose of the firearm, not later than the time so allowed:
- (a) surrender the revoked licence, permit or certificate of registration to the Commissioner; and
 - (b) subject to section 44, deliver a firearm in respect of which the licence, permit or certificate was granted to a police officer.
- Maximum penalty: 50 penalty units or imprisonment for 12 months.
- (6) If a licence, permit or certificate of registration is automatically revoked by subsection (1), the person to whom it was granted must immediately:
- (a) surrender the revoked licence, permit or certificate of registration to a police officer; and

- (b) deliver a firearm in respect of which the licence, permit or certificate was granted to a police officer.

Maximum penalty: 50 penalty units or imprisonment for 12 months.

40A Revocation on basis of criminal intelligence

- (1) The Commissioner must revoke a licence, permit or certificate of registration if the Commissioner is of the opinion, having regard to any criminal intelligence report or other criminal information the Commissioner holds about the holder of the licence or permit, the representative for the licence or permit or the person in whose name the firearm is registered, that:
 - (a) the holder, representative or person is a risk to public safety; and
 - (b) the holding of the licence or permit or the registration would be contrary to the public interest.
- (2) The Commissioner is not, under this or any other Act or law, required to give reasons for revoking a licence, permit or certificate of registration on the grounds mentioned in subsection (1).

40B Seizure of firearms on revocation

- (1) If a licence, permit or certificate of registration is:
 - (a) suspended by the Commissioner under section 38; or
 - (b) automatically suspended under section 39; or
 - (c) automatically revoked under section 40; or
 - (d) revoked by the Commissioner under section 40 or 40A;the Commissioner must cause notice of the suspension or revocation to be served personally on the person who was the holder of the licence or permit or in whose name the firearm was registered.
- (2) At the time of serving a notice under subsection (1), a police officer may, without a warrant and using the force that is necessary and with any necessary assistance, enter premises, a vessel, vehicle, aircraft or other place to search for and seize any firearm or ammunition in the possession of the person whose licence or permit has been suspended or revoked or in whose name a firearm was registered until the registration was suspended or revoked.

41 Surrender by holder

- (1) The holder of a licence, permit or certificate of registration may, by written notice to the Commissioner accompanied by:
 - (a) the licence, permit or certificate; or
 - (b) a statutory declaration setting out the reasons why the licence, permit or certificate is not accompanying the notice,surrender the licence, permit or certificate.
- (2) The surrender of a licence, permit or certificate of registration under subsection (1) takes effect when the notice is received by the Commissioner.

42 Suspension by police officer or Commissioner

- (1) A police officer in charge of a police station or with the rank of senior sergeant or higher may, by written notice served on the holder of a licence, permit or certificate of registration, suspend the licence, permit or certificate:
 - (a) on the request of the holder; or
 - (b) if the holder has been charged with an offence against a law in force in the Territory or in a State or another Territory relating to firearms (or any other offence that, in the opinion of the Commissioner would, if the person is found guilty, render the person not fit to possess or use a firearm or to hold a licence, permit or certificate of the kind held) and is awaiting the hearing of the charge; or
 - (c) if the officer believes on reasonable grounds that the holder is suffering from a physical or mental infirmity or incapacity and, as a result of possessing a firearm, may be a danger to the safety of the person or to another person, or to property; or
 - (d) after receiving a report under section 101; or
 - (e) if the officer believes, on reasonable grounds, that the person has made a statement that is false or misleading in a material particular in the application for the licence, permit or certificate.
- (1A) The Commissioner may, by written notice served on the holder of a licence, permit or certificate, suspend the licence, permit or certificate for a specified period or until conditions specified in the notice are complied with.

(2) A person must, immediately after a notice under subsection (1) or (1A) is served on him or her or not later than the period specified in the notice, deliver to a police officer or to a person nominated by the person and approved by a police officer:

- (a) the licence, permit or certificate of registration; and
- (b) the firearm to which the notice relates.

Maximum penalty: 50 penalty units or imprisonment for 12 months.

(3) If the person does not comply with the notice, a police officer may, without a warrant:

- (a) enter any place the officer reasonably believes the firearm may be found; and
- (b) search the place and seize the firearm.

(4) The police officer may exercise the powers with the assistance, and using the force, that is reasonably necessary in the circumstances.

43 Refusal or revocation by Commissioner

(1) If the Commissioner refuses to grant or revokes a licence, permit or certificate of registration, the applicant or the former holder may not apply for a licence or permit of the same type or for a certificate of registration:

- (a) until any conditions specified in the notice of refusal or revocation are met; or
- (b) during a period specified in the notice.

(2) A person must, immediately after a notice under subsection (1) is served on him or her or not later than the period specified in the notice, deliver to a police officer or to a person nominated by the person and approved by a police officer:

- (a) the licence, permit or certificate of registration; and
- (b) any firearm to which the notice relates.

Maximum penalty: 50 penalty units or imprisonment for 12 months.

44 Disposal of firearms

- (1) Where the Commissioner under section 40 allows a person time to sell or otherwise dispose of a firearm, the person must, within the time specified in the notice of revocation, sell or otherwise dispose of the firearm, unless he or she institutes an appeal under this Act against the Commissioner's action.
- (2) A person who sells or disposes of a firearm under this section or section 54 must, not later than 2 working days after the sale or disposal, give to the Commissioner, by written notice, the approved particulars concerning the sale or disposal.

Maximum penalty: 50 penalty units or imprisonment for 12 months.

Part 7 Safe keeping of firearms46 Storage and safe keeping requirements

- (1) A person in possession of a firearm or ammunition:
 - (a) must take all reasonable precautions to ensure that:
 - (i) it is kept safely; and
 - (ii) it is not stolen or lost; and
 - (iii) it does not come into the possession of a person who is not authorised to possess it; and
 - (b) must comply with the storage and safe keeping requirements under this Act that apply to the firearm or ammunition.

Maximum penalty: If the offender is an individual – 50 penalty units or imprisonment for 12 months.

If the offender is a body corporate – 250 penalty units.

- (2) Subsection (1)(b) does not apply in relation to a firearm if the person in possession of the firearm satisfies the Commissioner that the person has provided alternative arrangements for the storage and safe keeping of the firearm (and any ammunition) that are of a standard not less than the requirements under the Act.
- (3) The Regulations may specify the minimum standards for storage and safe keeping of firearms or classes of firearms (and ammunition).

47 Seizure of firearms if storage requirements not met

A police officer may seize a firearm or ammunition that the officer has reasonable grounds to believe is not being stored in accordance with this Act.

Part 8 Premises used by firearms clubs, for shooting activities and paintball ranges48 Premises used by firearms clubs and for shooting activities

- (1) A person who is a member of the management committee of a firearms club must not use, or knowingly permit another person to use, a firearm on premises occupied by the firearms club unless the premises are approved under section 49.
- (2) The occupier of premises used as a shooting gallery or amusement parlour must not permit a person to use a firearm on the premises unless the premises are approved under section 49.

Maximum penalty: 20 penalty units or imprisonment for 6 months.

49 Approval of premises used by firearms clubs and for shooting activities

- (1) A person may apply to the Commissioner in the approved form for an approval under this section in respect of the premises specified in the application.
- (2) The Commissioner is to, as soon as practicable after receiving an application under subsection (1), approve or refuse to approve the premises.
- (3) The Commissioner is to refuse to approve premises unless satisfied that the premises are equipped with approved safety equipment and the premises are located and constructed so that the use of firearms on the premises will not constitute a danger to persons on the premises or to the public in the vicinity of the premises.
- (4) The Commissioner may, when approving premises, or at any time while an approval remains in force, give a direction to a person concerning the use, control or administration of the premises for the preservation of public safety and the safety of the persons on the premises.

- (5) A person to whom a direction is given under subsection (4) must not contravene the direction.

Maximum penalty: 50 penalty units or imprisonment for 12 months or, in the case of a body corporate, 200 penalty units.

- (6) The Commissioner may suspend, for a specified period or until specified conditions are complied with, or revoke an approval given under this section if satisfied that:

- (a) the premises are a danger to persons or to the public in the vicinity of the premises; or
- (b) a direction given under subsection (4) has not been complied with.

49A Approval of premises for use as paintball range

- (1) A person may apply to the Commissioner for an approval for the use of premises as a paintball range.

- (2) The application must be in the approved form.

- (3) The Commissioner must, as soon as practicable:

- (a) consider the application and approve or refuse it; and
- (b) give written notice to the applicant of the decision and, if refused, the reasons for it.

- (4) Without limiting subsection (3), the Commissioner must refuse the application unless satisfied:

- (a) the person has all necessary approvals for the use of the premises as a paintball range under the laws of the Territory; and
- (b) the premises are suitable for use as a paintball range; and
- (c) the use of firearms on the premises will not constitute a danger to persons on the premises or to the public in the vicinity of the premises.

- (5) In deciding whether premises are suitable for use as a paintball range, the Commissioner must consider:

- (a) if a building is constructed on the premises – its design and construction; or

- (b) if a building is to be constructed on the premises – its design and proposed construction.
 - (6) The approval may be subject to the reasonable conditions the Commissioner considers appropriate.

Part 9 Appeals

50 Firearms Appeal Tribunal

- (1) There is established the Firearms Appeal Tribunal.
- (2) The Tribunal consists of the Chief Magistrate or a magistrate nominated by the Chief Magistrate, who is the Chairperson, and 2 other persons appointed by the Minister of whom:
 - (a) one is to be appointed from a panel of persons nominated by the Commissioner; and
 - (b) one is to be appointed from a panel nominated by the Northern Territory Firearms Council Incorporated.
- (3) A member of the Tribunal appointed under subsection (2) holds office for the period, not exceeding 3 years, specified in the instrument of appointment, but is eligible for reappointment.
- (4) Where a member appointed under subsection (2) is unable or may be unable to attend at a hearing of the Tribunal:
 - (a) the Commissioner, in the case of a member appointed from the panel mentioned in subsection (2)(a); and
 - (b) the Northern Territory Firearms Council Incorporated, in the case of a member appointed from the panel mentioned in subsection (2)(b); may nominate from the panel a person to act in place of the member for the hearing or during the period the member is unable to be present.

- (5) A member appointed under subsection (2) may resign by written notice signed by the member and given to the Minister.
- (6) The Minister:
 - (a) may terminate the appointment of a member appointed under subsection (2) for inability, inefficiency, misbehaviour or physical or mental incapacity; and

- (b) is to terminate the appointment of a member appointed under subsection (2) if the member becomes bankrupt, applies to take the benefit of a law for the relief of bankrupt or insolvent debtors, compounds with his or her creditors or makes an assignment of remuneration for their benefit.
- (7) The Registrar of the Local Court nominated by the Chief Magistrate is the secretary to the Tribunal.
- (8) The secretary to the Tribunal is to keep a register in which particulars of appeal proceedings are to be kept.

51 Notice of appeal

- (1) A person aggrieved by a decision or action of the Commissioner under this Act may appeal to the Tribunal against the decision or action.
- (2) An appeal under subsection (1) is instituted by the person lodging with the Tribunal a notice of appeal in the prescribed form accompanied by the determined fee.
- (2A) A notice of appeal must be lodged with the Tribunal:
 - (a) within 28 days after the decision or action of the Commissioner appealed against; or
 - (b) if the Tribunal is satisfied that the person has a reasonable excuse for not lodging the notice within 28 days – within the additional time that the Tribunal allows.
- (2B) A notice of appeal must state fully and in detail the grounds upon which the appeal is based and give particulars of the material on which the appellant relies.
- (3) A notice of appeal must be served by the appellant on the Commissioner.
- (4) Where a notice of appeal is lodged under subsection (2), the appellant must deliver to the Commissioner for safe keeping all firearms that the applicant would be required to sell or otherwise dispose of by virtue of section 44 had the appeal not been instituted.

Maximum penalty: 50 penalty units or imprisonment for 12 months.

52 Powers of Tribunal

- (1) An appeal is in the nature of a rehearing.

- (2) The Tribunal has all the powers, authorities, duties, functions and discretions that the Commissioner has in relation to the decision or action the subject of the appeal.

54 Determination of appeals

- (1) The Tribunal is to determine an appeal by:
 - (a) confirming the decision or action of the Commissioner; or
 - (b) substituting its own decision for that of the Commissioner.
- (2) Where the Tribunal substitutes its decision for a decision of the Commissioner, the Commissioner is to take whatever action is necessary to give effect to the decision.
- (3) The Tribunal must publish its reasons for its decision (including if its decision is to confirm the decision or action of the Commissioner).

54A Tribunal can make order for costs in certain cases

- (1) The Tribunal may make an order for costs against a party to an appeal if satisfied that:
 - (a) the party's conduct in the proceedings is or was frivolous or calculated to cause delay; or
 - (b) the party has, in the circumstances of the case, acted unreasonably.
- (2) An order for costs awarded by the Tribunal may be entered in the records of the Local Court as if it were a judgment given in that Court for a debt due to the person to whom the costs were awarded and, on entry in those records, is enforceable under the Local Court Act as such a judgment.

54B Procedure of Tribunal

- (1) Before the hearing of an appeal, a question of law or procedure (including a request for an adjournment or an extension of time) in relation to the appeal may be heard and determined by the Chairperson alone, without the need to convene the Tribunal.
- (2) Subject to subsection (1), all issues to be considered by the Tribunal must be determined by majority decision.
- (3) Schedule 7 applies in relation to the procedure of the Tribunal at a hearing before the Tribunal.

- (4) Subject to this Part and Schedule 7, the procedure of the Tribunal at a hearing before the Tribunal is as determined by the Chairperson.

54C Appeal to Supreme Court

- (1) A party to a proceeding before the Tribunal who is aggrieved by a decision of the Tribunal may appeal against that decision, on a question of law only, to the Supreme Court in accordance with the Rules of that Court.
- (2) An appeal under subsection (1) must be instituted within 28 days after the day the decision complained of was made.

Part 10 Firearms Advisory Council

- (1) This section applies if a person ceases to be the representative for any of the following:
- (a) a firearms corporate licence;
 - (b) a firearms museum licence;
 - (c) a firearms club licence;
 - (d) a paintball operator licence or permit.

- (1A) The holder of the licence or permit must, within 14 days after the person ceases to be the representative, give the Commissioner written notice in the approved form.

Maximum penalty: 100 penalty units or imprisonment for 6 months.

- (2) A person who is notified under this section as the representative of the holder of a licence must be:
- (a) in respect of firearms corporate licence – an employee of the holder of the licence; and
 - (b) in respect of firearms club licence – a member of the governing body or committee of the firearms club.

Part 12 Miscellaneous matters

Division 1 Recognition of Interstate licences

92 Temporary recognition of interstate licences for shooting competition

A person who is a resident of a State or another Territory is not required to hold a licence to possess or use category A firearms, category B firearms, category C firearms or category H firearms:

- (a) for the purpose of participating in an approved shooting competition; or
- (b) for such other purposes as may be prescribed;

if the person is the holder of a corresponding licence.

93 Interstate residents moving to the Territory

- (1) A resident of a State or another Territory who is the holder of a corresponding licence authorising the possession or use of category A firearms or category B firearms may notify the Commissioner in writing that he or she intends to reside in the Territory.
- (2) If the Commissioner is notified in accordance with subsection (1), the corresponding licence is, subject to any direction of the Commissioner, to be taken to be a licence authorising the possession or use of a firearm of the equivalent category of firearm in force in the Territory for 3 months from the time the person notified the Commissioner or until the person's application for a licence under this Act is granted or refused, whichever is sooner.

- (3) If a resident of a State or another Territory who is the holder of a corresponding licence authorising the possession or use of category C firearms (other than paintball firearms), category D firearms or category H firearms notifies the Commissioner in writing that the person intends to reside in the Territory, the corresponding licence is, subject to any direction of the Commissioner, to be taken to be a licence authorising the possession or use of the equivalent category of firearm in force in the Territory for a period of 2 days from the time the person notified the Commissioner.
- (4) After the expiry of the period mentioned in subsection (3), a person who:
- (a) has duly notified the Commissioner in accordance with that subsection; and
 - (b) applied for a licence before the expiry of the period;
- does not, while the person's application for a licence is being determined, commit an offence under this Act in respect of the possession of a firearm.

Division 1A Revocation, disqualification, forfeiture

93A Revocation and disqualification

- (1) If a court finds a person guilty of an offence against this Act or the Weapons Control Act or involving a firearm, the court may:
- (a) revoke the person's licence or permit and disqualify the person from holding a specified licence or permit for the period specified by the court; and
 - (b) order that the person is not to apply for a licence or permit or to register a firearm for the period of disqualification.
- (2) The period for which a court may disqualify the person is in addition to any period of automatic disqualification under this Act.

93B Disqualification if aggravating circumstance

- (1) If a court finds a person guilty of an offence mentioned in section 93A and the offence involves a circumstance of aggravation:
- (a) the person is liable to twice the penalty otherwise provided for the offence; and

- (b) the court must disqualify the person from holding any licence or permit for:
 - (i) if the court imposes a pecuniary penalty for the offence – a minimum period of 4 years; or
 - (ii) if the court imposes a custodial sentence for the offence – a minimum period of 10 years.

(2) In this section:

circumstance of aggravation, for an offence, means the offender was, at the time of committing the offence, subject to:

- (a) a refusal by the Commissioner to grant a licence or permit for a period of time; or
- (b) a suspension or revocation of a licence, permit or certificate of registration under this Act; or
- (c) a period of disqualification under this Act.

93C No grant of licence or permit

The Commissioner cannot grant a licence or permit to a person disqualified under section 93A or 93B during the period of disqualification.

93D Court may order forfeiture

- (1) If the court is satisfied that the person in whose name the firearm to which the offence mentioned in section 93A relates is registered:
 - (a) is implicated in the offence – the court may order that the firearm (and any ammunition in the possession of the person) is forfeited to the Territory; or
 - (b) is not implicated in the offence – the court may not order the firearm to be forfeited but may order that it be returned to that person.
- (2) Subsection (1) applies to a firearm in the possession of a person mentioned in that subsection despite that the firearm is not registered in that person's name.

93E No effect on general power

A decision or action of the court under section 93A, 93B or 93D does not affect any power under this Act to revoke or suspend a licence, permit or certificate of registration.

Division 2 General

93F No review of certain decisions by Commissioner

Despite any other Act or law of the Territory (including the common law):

- (a) no person or body is entitled to investigate, inquire into, review or otherwise call into question a decision of the Commissioner under section 10(8A), 33(3A) or 40A(1); and
- (b) no proceedings for an appeal, an injunction, a declaration or an order for prohibition or mandamus are to be brought in relation to a decision of the Commissioner mentioned in paragraph (a).

94 Commissioner may require firearm to be lodged

- (1) Where the Commissioner refuses to grant a permit or certificate of registration, the Commissioner may direct the applicant to lodge a firearm to which the application relates with the Commissioner or the holder of a firearms dealer licence for the period specified by the Commissioner.
- (2) A person to whom a direction is given under subsection (1) must not contravene the direction.

Maximum penalty: 50 penalty units or imprisonment for 12 months.

95 Police may request names and addresses

A police officer may require a person who is in possession of a firearm or a silencer to state his or her name and address and the person must not:

- (a) refuse or fail to comply with the requirement; or
- (b) give to the officer a name that is false in a material particular;
or
- (c) give to the officer an address that is not the person's full and correct residential address.

Maximum penalty: 20 penalty units or imprisonment for 6 months.

96 Police may require production of licences and permits

- (1) A person, when in possession of a firearm, must:
 - (a) carry the relevant licence or permit relating to the firearm; and
 - (c) when requested by a police officer, produce the licence or permit for inspection by the officer.
- (2) When requested by a police officer, a person in possession of a category A firearm, category B firearm, category C firearm (other than paintball firearm), category D firearm or category H firearm must produce to the officer or another officer the person's certificate of registration or permit, as the case may be, in respect of the firearm not later than the time, and at the place, that the officer specifies.

Maximum penalty: 17 penalty units or imprisonment for 6 months.

96A Police may require production of firearm

- (1) A police officer may, by notice in writing, require the registered owner of a firearm to produce the firearm at a time and place specified in the notice for the purpose of inspection of the firearm to determine whether or not the firearm complies with, and is held in compliance with, this Act.
- (2) If a person fails to comply with the requirement of a notice under subsection (1):
 - (a) the person commits an offence punishable, on being found guilty, by:
 - (i) if the offender is an individual – a fine not exceeding 100 penalty units or a term of imprisonment not exceeding 12 months; or
 - (ii) if the offender is a body corporate – a fine not exceeding 500 penalty units; and
 - (b) all firearms licences held by the person, and all firearm registrations in the name of the person, are automatically suspended from the day specified in the notice to produce the firearm until 28 days after:
 - (i) the day on which the firearm is produced; or

- (ii) the person provides information to the satisfaction of the Commissioner as to why the firearm was not produced as required.
- (3) It is a defence to a prosecution for an offence against subsection (2)(a) if the defendant proves that he or she did not know (for good reason) the whereabouts of the firearm or was otherwise (for good reason) unable to comply with the requirement to produce the firearm.
- (4) The Commissioner may, if he or she thinks the circumstances warrant it, reduce the period of suspension mentioned in subsection (2)(b).
- (5) If the person has not, within 28 days after the day specified in the notice to produce the firearm:
 - (a) complied with the requirement; or
 - (b) satisfied the Commissioner as to why the requirement has not been complied with;

all firearms licences held by the person and all firearm registrations in the name of the person are revoked by force of this section.

97 Searches in emergencies

- (1) A police officer may:
 - (a) in circumstances of such seriousness and urgency as to require and justify immediate search or entry without the authority of an order of a court or a warrant; or
 - (b) where the officer believes on reasonable grounds that a disqualifying offence has been, is being or is about to be committed;

at any time, without warrant:

- (c) search a person reasonably suspected by the officer to be carrying a firearm or anything connected with an offence against this Act and the clothing being worn by, and the property in the immediate control of, the person; or
 - (d) enter into or on and search any premises, vehicle, aircraft or vessel on or in which the officer believes on reasonable grounds that:
 - (i) a firearm or anything connected with an offence against this Act is situated; or

- (ii) a person, who is in danger because of the possession of a firearm by the person or by some other person, may be;

and if the officer believes on reasonable grounds that it is necessary to do so in order to prevent danger or injury to a person or the loss or destruction of anything connected with an offence against this Act, the member may seize anything that the officer finds in the course of the search, on or in the premises, vehicle, aircraft or vessel.

- (2) A police officer who believes on reasonable grounds that a person is carrying a firearm, and the person or some other person may be in danger because of the possession of the firearm, may stop the person and search the person for the firearm and seize any firearm found on the person.
- (3) A police officer who believes on reasonable grounds that a firearm is being carried in a vehicle, aircraft or vessel and that a person may be in danger because of the carriage of the firearm, may stop and enter and search the vehicle, aircraft or vessel and seize any firearm found in it.
- (4) Except in circumstances mentioned in subsection (1)(a), a person is not to be searched under this section except by a person of the same sex.
- (5) In this section, firearm includes ammunition and a silencer.

98 Seizure

A firearm seized by or surrendered to a police officer under this Act or any other law in force in the Territory may be retained by the officer or another police officer:

- (a) to determine whether an offence against this or any other Act has been committed; or
- (b) until the Commissioner makes a decision under this Act in respect of the firearm.

98A Seizure etc. of firearm includes ammunition

If a firearm is forfeited, required to be surrendered or delivered up to the Commissioner or liable to seizure under this Act, any ammunition relating to the firearm is included in the forfeiture, surrender, delivering up or liability to seizure.

99 Retention of certain seized firearms

- (1) Where a firearm is seized under section 126(2AA) of the Police Administration Act:
- (a) if it is not the property of the person involved in the event that led to it being seized, the Commissioner is to return it to its owner within 30 days if satisfied that:
 - (i) it will not be kept on or in the premises, vehicle or vessel from which it was seized; or
 - (ii) if it is to be so kept, adequate arrangements have been made to ensure that it is not likely to be used to place any person on or in the premises, vehicle or vessel in imminent danger of suffering personal injury or an aggravation of a personal injury; or
 - (b) if the firearm is the property of the person involved in the event, the Commissioner may retain it:
 - (i) for 90 days after its seizure; or
 - (ii) until the expiration of any period of revocation of a certificate of registration, licence or permit resulting from the person being placed on a final domestic violence order or found guilty of an offence;
- whichever is the longer period.
- (2) The Commissioner may, with the consent of the owner of a firearm to which this section applies, arrange for the firearm to be stored by a person who may lawfully possess the firearm.
- (3) A person who stores a firearm under subsection (2) must comply with the directions or conditions of the Commissioner in relation to the firearm.

Maximum penalty: 50 penalty units or imprisonment for 12 months.

- (4) The Commissioner or a police officer is not liable for any charge in relation to the storage of a firearm under subsection (2) and any charge is a debt due and payable by the owner of the firearm to the person with whom the firearm is stored.

- (5) A person with whom a firearm is stored under this section must not allow any person (including its owner) to have possession of the firearm except in accordance with the directions or conditions of the Commissioner.

Maximum penalty: 50 penalty units or imprisonment for 12 months.

- (6) A person must not take possession of a firearm the subject of an arrangement under this section except in accordance with the directions or conditions of the Commissioner.

Maximum penalty: 50 penalty units or imprisonment for 12 months.

- (7) Despite section 93D, all certificates of registration, licences, permits and authorisations under this Act held by a person found guilty of an offence against subsection (5) or (6) are, on the finding of guilt, revoked and all firearms to which they relate are forfeited to the Territory.

99A Storage of certain firearms

- (1) If a firearm:

- (a) is seized, surrendered or delivered up under this Act and cannot be returned to the owner of the firearm because the owner's licence or permit, or the certificate of registration of the firearm, is suspended or revoked; or
- (b) is lodged with the Commissioner under section 94 and cannot be returned to the owner of the firearm because the Commissioner has refused to grant a permit or certificate of registration;

the Commissioner may, by notice in writing, direct the owner of the firearm to sell or otherwise dispose of the firearm.

- (2) If:

- (a) a firearm has come into the lawful possession of a police officer; and
- (b) no legal requirement exists for the retention of the firearm; and
- (c) reasonable attempts have been made to return the firearm to its registered owner;

the Commissioner may, by notice in writing, direct the owner to take possession of the firearm.

- (3) If the owner of a firearm does not comply with a direction under subsection (1) or (2) within 28 days after the direction is given or any further time that the Commissioner specifies in the notice, the Commissioner may dispose of the firearm in accordance with section 166 of the Police Administration Act as if the firearm was unclaimed property.
- (4) The Regulations may prescribe fees that are payable in relation to the storage of a firearm by the Commissioner prior to the owner taking possession of the firearm.

100 Protection from liability

The Territory, the Commissioner or a police officer is not liable for an act or omission of the Commissioner or a police officer done or made in good faith in the performance or exercise, or purported performance or exercise, of a power or function under this Act.

101 Report to be made in certain circumstances

- (1) A health practitioner or a professional counsellor or social worker who believes on reasonable grounds that, in the interests of public safety, a person is not a fit and proper person to have a firearm in his or her possession or control must report to a police officer the belief and the material facts on which the belief is based.
- (2) If a person, acting in good faith, makes a report under or in purported compliance with subsection (1):
 - (a) the report is not to be taken to be a breach of confidence or of professional etiquette or ethics or of a rule of professional conduct; and
 - (b) no civil or criminal liability is incurred by reason only of the making of the report.
- (3) A firearms club or an historical firearms collector's society must provide a report in writing to the Commissioner without delay of any concern held by the club or society that a member is not a fit and proper person to have a firearm in his or her possession or control.
- (4) A firearms club or an historical firearms collector's society must, within 2 days after expelling a member from the club or society, provide a report in writing to the Commissioner of the expulsion and the reasons for it.

Maximum penalty: 500 penalty units.

(5) The provision of any information in good faith under or in purported compliance with subsection (3) or (4) does not give rise to any civil or criminal liability.

(6) In this section:

health practitioner means a person registered under the Health Practitioner Regulation National Law to practise in a health profession, other than as:

- (a) a diagnostic radiographer in the diagnostic radiographer division of the medical radiation practice profession; or
- (b) a student.

102 Disclosure of information by Commissioner in certain circumstances

(1) The Commissioner may disclose to a firearms club or an historical firearms collector's society any information the Commissioner holds about an applicant for membership of the club or society that relates to the following:

- (a) the firearms held by the applicant;
- (b) other firearms clubs or historical firearms collector's societies of which the applicant is a member;
- (c) any other firearms clubs or historical firearms collector's societies of which the applicant has been refused membership, or from which the applicant has been expelled, in the preceding 5 years;
- (d) any licence or permit, or registration of a firearm, pertaining to the applicant that has been suspended or revoked in the preceding 5 years;
- (e) any application by the applicant for a licence, permit or registration of a firearm that has been refused by the Commissioner in the preceding 5 years.

(2) If the Commissioner suspends or revokes a licence, permit or registration of a firearm in relation to a person, the Commissioner must inform any firearms club or historical firearms collector's society of which the person is a member of the suspension or revocation.

- (2A) If the Commissioner or a court suspends or revokes a firearms employee licence in relation to a person, the Commissioner must inform the holder of the firearms corporate licence to which the employee licence relates of the suspension or revocation.
- (2B) If the Commissioner or a court suspends or revokes a firearms instructor licence or a permit in relation to a person and the Commissioner is aware of an employer or other person whose operations may be affected by the suspension or revocation, the Commissioner must inform the employer or other person of the suspension or revocation.
- (3) No civil or criminal liability arises from the provision of information under this section.

103 Duplicate certificates and licences

- (1) Where the Commissioner is satisfied that a licence, permit or certificate of registration has been damaged, destroyed, lost or stolen, the Commissioner may, on application of the holder, issue to the holder a duplicate in the approved form.
- (2) An application under subsection (1) is to be in the approved form accompanied by the determined fee.

104 Averments

In proceedings for an offence against this Act, an averment in a complaint or information that:

- (a) a specified person was or was not, at a specified time, the holder of a specified licence, permit or certificate of registration; or
- (b) a specified firearm is of a specified calibre, category or kind; or
- (c) particular markings on a firearm are the marks of a specified manufacturer of firearms; or
- (d) a specified firearm was, at a particular time, registered or not registered; or
- (e) a licence, permit or certificate of registration was subject to specified conditions at a specified time; or
- (f) a time limit prescribed by this Act has or has not expired; or
- (g) a specified area of land was, at a particular time, owned or occupied by a specified person; is evidence of the fact so averred.

104A Evidence by certificate

- (1) In any proceedings in a court for an offence against this Act, a certificate purporting to be signed by the Commissioner is prima facie evidence of the matters stated in the certificate and the facts on which they are based.
- (2) In subsection (1), a reference to proceedings in a court includes a reference to a preliminary examination under Part V of the Justices Act.

105 Evidentiary – meaning of possession of a firearm etc.

- (1) Without limiting the meaning of possession, for the purposes of any proceedings under this Act, a firearm, ammunition or a silencer is taken to be in the possession of a person if it is in or on any premises owned, leased or occupied by, or in the care, control or management of, the person unless the court is satisfied that:
 - (a) the firearm, ammunition or silencer was placed in or on, or brought into or on to, the premises by or on behalf of a person who was lawfully authorised by or under this Act to possess the firearm, ammunition or silencer; or
 - (b) the person did not know and could not reasonably be expected to have known that the firearm, ammunition or silencer was in or on the premises; or
 - (c) on the evidence before it, the person was not in possession of the firearm, ammunition or silencer.

- (2) In this section:

firearm includes a prohibited firearm.

premises includes a place, vehicle, vessel or aircraft.

106 Service of notices and documents

- (1) A notice or other document required or permitted to be served on a person under this Act may be served:
 - (a) by delivering it to the person; or
 - (b) by posting it to the person's last-known place of business or residence; or

- (c) by leaving it at the person's last-known place of business or residence with a person who is apparently over the age of 16 years and living or working there; or
 - (d) in the case of a corporation, by delivering or posting it to the registered office in the Territory or otherwise as provided by the Corporations Act 2001.
- (2) A notice or other document required or permitted to be served on the holder of a firearms employee licence may be served by leaving it with or posting it to the holder of the firearms corporate licence specified in the firearms employee licence.
- (3) A notice required to be given to the Commissioner may be given to or served on the Commissioner personally or by post or may be given to or served on a police officer at a police station.

106A Conduct of representatives

- (1) If, in a proceeding for an offence against this Act, it is necessary to establish a person's state of mind in relation to particular conduct, it is sufficient to show:
- (a) the conduct was engaged in by a representative of the person, within the scope of the representative's actual or apparent authority; and
 - (b) the representative had that state of mind.
- (2) For a proceeding for an offence against this Act, conduct engaged in on behalf of a person by a representative within the scope of the representative's actual or apparent authority is taken to have been engaged in also by the person.
- (3) However, an individual is not liable to be punished by imprisonment for an offence against this Act if the offence arises because of the person's vicarious liability for the representative's conduct.
- (4) In this section:

engaging in conduct includes failing or refusing to engage in conduct.

representative means:

- (a) of a body corporate – an executive officer, employee or agent of the body corporate; or
- (b) of an individual – an employee or agent of the person.

state of mind of a person includes:

- (a) the knowledge, intention, opinion, belief or purpose of the person; and
- (b) the person's reasons for the intention, opinion, belief or purpose.

107 Liability of executive officers of bodies corporate

- (1) If a body corporate commits an offence against this Act (the principal offence), each of the executive officers of the body corporate commits an offence (the secondary offence) and is liable to the penalty applicable to an individual who commits the principal offence.
- (2) However, it is a defence for an executive officer to establish:
 - (a) the officer did not know, and could not reasonably have been expected to know, the principal offence was to be or was being committed; or
 - (b) the officer exercised due diligence to prevent the commission of the principal offence.
- (3) The executive officer may be found guilty of the secondary offence even though the body corporate has not been charged with, or found guilty of, the principal offence.
- (4) This section does not affect the liability of the body corporate for the principal offence.
- (5) In this section:

executive officer, of a body corporate, means a director or other person who is concerned with, or takes part in, the management of the body corporate.

107A Offences by representatives of licence and permit holders

- (1) If the holder of a firearms corporate licence, firearms museum licence or firearms club licence contravenes a provision of this Act, the person who at the time of the offence is the representative of the holder of the licence or permit is taken to have contravened the same provision as if the person knowingly authorised or permitted the contravention.
- (2) A person may be charged with and found guilty of an offence in accordance with subsection (1) whether or not the holder of the licence is charged with or found guilty of the offence.

108 Commencement of prosecutions

A prosecution for an offence against this Act is to be commenced:

- (a) not later than 12 months after the commission of the offence;
or
- (b) not later than 12 months after the offence is discovered but, in any event, not later than 2 years after the commission of the offence.

109 Regulatory offences

An offence against this Act, other than sections 60J, 61, 74(2), 89(1) and 95, is a regulatory offence.

110 Certain category H firearms to be produced to Commissioner

- (1) A person who, immediately before 1 July 2003, was the holder of a shooter's licence authorising the possession and use of a category H firearm that was granted for (or partially for) the genuine reason of sports shooting must, on or before 31 December 2003, present to the Commissioner or a police officer every category H firearm in the person's possession under the licence.
- (2) The Commissioner may specify a time and place at which a category H firearm mentioned in subsection (1) is to be produced.
- (3) If a person fails to produce a category H firearm mentioned in subsection (1) at the time and place specified under subsection (2), a police officer may give the registered owner of the firearm a notice under section 96A(1) and section 96A applies accordingly.
- (4) The registration of a category H firearm mentioned in subsection (1) is cancelled by force of this section:
 - (a) at the time the firearm is produced to the Commissioner or a police officer; or
 - (b) on 31 December 2003;whichever is the earlier.
- (5) If a firearm produced under this section is not of a type that is prescribed for this section:
 - (a) the registered owner of the firearm is to be paid compensation at the rate specified in the National List of Compensation Values for Handgun Buyback 2003 as published from time to time by the Commonwealth; and

- (b) the firearm is forfeit to the Territory after compensation is paid.
- (6) If a firearm produced under this section is of a type that is prescribed for this section, the Commissioner must (subject to section 110A) register the firearm again without charge.
- (7) If the application of this section constitutes an acquisition of property for which the compensation provided under subsection (5) does not provide just terms, the registered owner of the firearm is entitled to receive just compensation for the acquisition and a court may determine the amount of the compensation or make an order that, in its opinion, is necessary to ensure that the acquisition is on just terms.

110A Voluntary surrender of category H firearms

- (1) Despite that a category H firearm presented under section 110 is of a type that is prescribed for that section and can be re-registered, the person in whose name the firearm was registered may voluntarily surrender the firearm to the Territory and, subject to subsection (2), receive compensation at the rate mentioned in section 110(5)(a).
- (2) Compensation is payable under subsection (1) only if the person surrenders every category H firearm held under the person's licence.
- (3) The Commissioner must revoke the licence to possess and use category H firearms of a person who voluntarily surrenders a Category H firearm under this section, and the person is not eligible to apply for the grant of a category H sports shooters licence for 5 years from the date of revocation.

111 Regulations

- (1) The Administrator may make regulations under this Act.
- (2) The Regulations may prescribe conditions to which a licence is subject that prohibit or restrict the right of the holder of the licence to undertake activities otherwise permitted under the licence.
- (3) The Regulations may provide for:
 - (a) the payment of a prescribed amount, not exceeding 200 penalty units, instead of a penalty that may otherwise be imposed for an offence against this Act; and
 - (b) the service of an infringement notice on a person alleged to have committed an offence mentioned in paragraph (a) and the particulars to be included in that notice.

113 Transitional

- (1) Subsection (2) applies to a person who, immediately before 1 July 2003, was the holder of a shooter's licence authorising the possession and use of a category H firearm that was granted for (or partially for) the genuine reason of sports shooting.
- (2) Despite section 15A(1), the person is taken to lawfully hold any category H firearm the person was authorised to hold under the shooter's licence until the registration of the firearm is cancelled under section 110(4).

114 Review of Act

- (1) The Commissioner must, within 3 years after the commencement of the Firearms Amendment (Paintball) Act 2007:
 - (a) review the regulation of the playing of paintball; and
 - (b) give a report of the review to the Minister.
- (2) The Minister must, within 7 sitting days after receiving the report, table a copy of it in the Legislative Assembly.

Schedule 7 Procedure of Tribunal

section 54B

1 Formality and technicality to be avoided

A proceeding must be conducted with as little formality and technicality, and with as much expedition, as a proper consideration of the matter before the Tribunal permits.

2 Tribunal not bound by rules of evidence

The Tribunal is not bound by the rules of evidence but may inform itself on any matter in the manner that it thinks fit.

3 Appearance and representation of parties

- (1) The Registrar must give the parties to proceedings before the Tribunal not less than 14 days notice in writing of the time, date and place of the proceedings.
- (2) A party is entitled to appear before the Tribunal personally or to be represented by a legal practitioner or other representative.
- (3) A legal practitioner or other representative appearing before the Tribunal has the same liabilities, protection and immunity as a legal practitioner has in appearing for a party in proceedings before the Supreme Court.
- (4) A party must be allowed a reasonable opportunity to call or give evidence, to examine or cross-examine witnesses and to make submissions to the Tribunal.
- (5) The Tribunal may make a determination in proceedings in the absence of a party to the proceedings if satisfied that the party was given reasonable opportunity to appear but failed to do so.

4 Summoning of witnesses

- (1) The Tribunal may, by written notice signed by the Chairperson or a member, summon a person to attend before it, at a time and place specified in the summons, to give evidence and to produce such documents in the person's custody or control as are specified in the summons.
- (2) A summons under subclause (1) may be served on the person to whom it is addressed:
 - (a) personally; or

- (b) by delivering it to a person who has apparently attained the age of 16 years and is apparently residing or employed at the premises at which the person to be served resides or carries on business.
- (3) A person served with a summons to attend before the Tribunal must not, without reasonable excuse, fail to attend the Tribunal or fail to produce any documents in the person's custody or control that are specified in the summons.

Maximum penalty: If the offender is an individual – 20 penalty units and 2 penalty units for each day during which the offence continues.

If the offender is a body corporate – 100 penalty units and 10 penalty units for each day during which the offence continues.

- (4) Unless the Tribunal otherwise determines, a witness is entitled to receive witness fees as if he or she was a witness in civil proceedings in the Local Court.

5 Giving of evidence

- (1) The Tribunal may:
 - (a) require a person appearing before it to give evidence on oath;
or
 - (b) require a person giving evidence before the Tribunal to answer a relevant question put by a member of the Tribunal or a person appearing before it (as the case may be).
- (2) A person who appears as a witness before the Tribunal has the same obligations and protection as a witness in proceedings before the Supreme Court.
