- (2A) However, subsection (2) does not apply to a person who:
 - (a) is accused of an offence to which this section applies; but
 - (b) is assessed to be suitable to participate in a program of rehabilitation that is prescribed by the Regulations.
- (3) The requirement for bail cannot be dispensed with for a person accused of an offence to which this section applies and section 9(2) does not apply with respect to any such offence.

Division 2 Presumption in favour of bail

8 Presumption in favour of bail for certain offences

- (1) This section applies to all offences except the following:
 - (a) an offence mentioned in section 7A(1);
 - (aa) an offence against section 181, 192(3), (4), (6), (7) or (8) of the Criminal Code, or section 120 of the Domestic and Family Violence Act, if the person accused of the offence has, within the period of 10 years immediately preceding the date of that offence, been found guilty of any of the following offences:
 - (i) the offence of murder;
 - (ii) an offence against section 181, 186, 188, 188A, 189A or 192 of the Criminal Code;
 - (iii) an offence against a law of a State or other Territory or another country that is similar to an offence mentioned in subparagraph (i) or (ii);
 - (ab) a serious offence (the relevant offence) if the person accused of the relevant offence:
 - (i) is an adult charged with committing the relevant offence while on bail for a serious offence; and
 - (ii) has been found guilty of another serious offence within the period specified in subsection (1A);

- (b) an offence where the accused person is the subject of an order made under section 40 of the Sentencing Act which may be breached if the person is convicted of the offence, unless:
 - (i) the offence is a contravention of or failure to comply with an instrument of a legislative or administrative character; or
 - (ii) the authorised member or court is of the opinion that the offence is so minor that a court is unlikely to regard it as a breach of the suspended sentence.
- (1A) The following periods are specified for subsection (1)(ab)(ii):
 - (a) if the serious offence mentioned in subsection (1)(ab)(ii) is a serious violence offence – the period of 10 years immediately preceding the date of the relevant offence;
 - (b) if the serious offence mentioned in subsection (1)(ab)(ii) is not a serious violence offence – the period of 2 years immediately preceding the date of the relevant offence.
- (2) A person accused of an offence to which this section applies is entitled to be granted bail in accordance with this Act unless:
 - (a) an authorised member or court is satisfied refusing bail is justified having considered the matters mentioned in section 24; or
 - (b) the person stands convicted of the offence; or
 - (c) the requirement for bail is dispensed with under section 9.
- (3) Subject to subsection (4), a person is entitled under this section to be granted bail in respect of an offence to which this section applies even if the accused person is in custody for some other offence or reason for which the accused person is not entitled to be granted bail.
- (4) A person is not entitled under this section to be granted bail in respect of an offence to which this section applies, if:
 - (a) he is in custody serving a sentence of imprisonment in connection with some other offence; and
 - (b) the authorised member or court is satisfied that the person is likely to remain in custody in connection with that other offence for a longer period than that for which bail in connection with the first-mentioned offence would be granted.

- (5) To avoid doubt, if an offence mentioned in subsection (1)(a), (aa), (ab) or (b) is also mentioned in section 7A(1), section 7A applies to that offence.

Division 3 Dispensing with bail

9 Dispensing with bail

- (1) A court that may grant bail to an accused person may instead dispense with the requirement for bail.
- (2) Where, during an appearance by an accused person before a court, no specific order or direction is made by the court in respect of bail, the court is taken to have dispensed with the requirement for bail.

10 Effect of dispensing with bail

- (1) While the requirement for bail is or is taken to be dispensed with under this Act in respect of a person accused of an offence, the accused person is entitled:

- (a) to be released from custody and to remain at liberty in respect of the offence; or
- (b) to be released from the obligation to comply with a non-custodial order in respect of the offence;

until the accused person is required to appear before a court in respect of the offence.

- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to an accused person while the accused person is also in custody or the subject of a non-custodial order for some other offence or reason in respect of which the accused person is not entitled (whether under this Act or otherwise) to be at liberty or released.

11 Decision to dispense with bail

For Part VI, where a court dispenses with, or is taken to have dispensed with, the requirement for bail, the court is taken to have made a decision to dispense with the requirement for bail.

Division 4 Miscellaneous provisions

12 Bail may be granted where no entitlement

An accused person not entitled under section 8 to be granted bail may nevertheless be granted bail.

13 Power to refuse bail

A power conferred by this Act to grant bail is, subject to this Act, taken to include a power to refuse bail, but the power to refuse bail may only be exercised in conformity with this Act.

14 Grant of bail when not in custody

- (1) An accused person may be granted or refused bail in accordance with this Act, even if the accused person is not in custody.
- (2) Nothing in this Act requires the grant of bail to an accused person who is not in custody.

15 Extension of meaning of adjournment in section 6

For section 6(c)(iii), the following periods are taken to be the period of an adjournment:

- (a) the period between the making of an order for a separate trial or for the postponement of a trial and the commencement of the separate or postponed trial;
- (b) the period between the appearance of an accused person before a justice in pursuance of a warrant issued under section 301(1) of the Criminal Code and the date fixed for trial;
- (ba) the period of adjournment under section 383(3) of the Criminal Code;

Part 3 Police bail16 Authority for police to grant bail

- (2) A police officer may, as an alternative to bringing a person the officer has arrested before a justice or a court of competent jurisdiction as required by Part VII, Division 6 of the Police Administration Act, within the time in which under that Division the officer would be required to bring the person before the justice or the court:
 - (a) inform the person charged of the person's right to apply for bail; and

- (b) as far as practicable, ensure that the person charged is able to communicate with a legal practitioner or someone of the person's choosing in connection with an application for bail.
- (3) An authorised member must, as soon as practicable after a person becomes entitled to apply for bail, determine whether bail should be granted under this Act.
- (4) The police officer mentioned in subsection (2) may refrain from complying with subsection (2)(b) if the officer believes, on reasonable grounds, that it is necessary to do so in order to prevent:
 - (a) the escape of an accomplice of the accused person; or
 - (b) the loss, destruction or fabrication of evidence relating to an offence.
- (5) A police officer who holds the rank of Sergeant or higher rank or any other police officer who is for the time being in charge of a police station may grant bail under this Part.

17 Bail in respect of several offences

Where a person is charged with 2 or more offences at the same time:

- (a) an authorised member considering whether to grant bail to the person must decide, at the same time, whether to grant, or refuse to grant, bail to the person in respect of all the charges; and
- (b) an application may be made for bail in respect of all the charges, but not otherwise; and
- (c) any bail that is granted to the person must be granted in respect of all the charges and separate undertakings must not be required in respect of each charge.

18 Bail register

An authorised member must, upon granting bail to a person, enter either in a book kept for that purpose in the police station where bail is granted or cause to be stored on a computer maintained for that purpose elsewhere, the name, residence and occupation of the person and of a person who, pursuant to Part V, Division 3 makes an acknowledgement or enters into an agreement in respect of the person granted bail, together with details of the conditions of bail and details of any money or securities given or deposited, and must arrange to lay any undertaking, acknowledgement or agreement relating to the bail before a court before which the person is required to appear.

Part 4 Court bail

19 General provisions as to court bail

- (1) There is no limit on the number of applications in relation to bail that may be made to a court by a person accused of an offence.

 - (a) grant bail to a person brought or appearing before the magistrate or justice accused of an offence; or

- (a) the person's committal for trial or sentence in connection with the offence; or
- (b) the person being brought up by a writ of habeas corpus in connection with the offence as mentioned in section 15(c).

22 Limitation on length of adjournments where bail refused

Where an accused person is refused bail by a justice in respect of an offence, an adjournment of the hearing by the justice must, except with the consent of the accused person, be for a period not exceeding 15 clear days.

bail must not be granted by the Court or any other court unless it is established that special or exceptional circumstances exist justifying the grant of bail.

Part 5 Provisions applying to both police and court bail

Division 1 Criteria to be considered in bail applications

24 Criteria to be considered in bail applications

- (1) In making a determination as to the grant of bail to an accused person, an authorised member or a court must take into consideration so far as they can reasonably be ascertained the following matters only:
 - (a) the probability of whether or not the person will appear in court in respect of the offence for which bail is being considered, having regard only to:
 - (i) the person's background and community ties, as indicated by the history and details of the person's residence, employment and family situations and, if known, the person's prior criminal record; and
 - (ii) any previous failure to appear in court pursuant to a recognizance of bail entered into before the commencement of this section or pursuant to a bail undertaking; and
 - (iii) the circumstances of the offence (including its nature and seriousness), the strength of the evidence against the person and the severity of the penalty or probable penalty; and
 - (iv) any specific evidence indicating whether or not it is probable that the person will appear in court;
 - (b) the interests of the person, having regard only to:
 - (i) the period that the person may be obliged to spend in custody if bail is refused and the conditions under which the person would be held in custody; and
 - (ii) the needs of the person to be free to prepare for the person's appearance in court or to obtain legal advice or both; and
 - (iii) the needs of the person to be free for any lawful purpose not mentioned in subparagraph (ii); and

- (iv) whether or not the person is, in the opinion of the authorised member or court, incapacitated by intoxication, injury or use of a drug or is otherwise in danger of physical injury or in need of physical protection;
- (c) the risk (if any) that the accused person would (if released on bail) interfere with evidence, witnesses or jurors;
- (d) the risk (if any) that the accused person would (if released on bail) commit an offence, a breach of the peace, or a breach of the conditions of bail;
- (e) the risk (if any) that would result from the accused person's release on bail to the safety or welfare of:
 - (i) the alleged victim of the offence; or
 - (ii) the close relatives of the alleged victim; or
 - (iii) if the alleged victim is a child – any person (other than a close relative) who has the care of the child; or
 - (iv) any other person whose safety or welfare could, in the circumstances of the case, be at risk if the accused person were to be released on bail.
- (2) For this section, the authorised member or court may take into account any evidence or information which the authorised member or court considers credible or trustworthy in the circumstances, including hearsay evidence.
