- (2) Subject to section 13A, an employer liable to pay tax referred to in section 11 or 17L in respect of taxable wages paid or payable during a financial year must pay the tax within the time within which the employer is required to furnish a return in respect of the last month of that year in which the employer paid or was liable to pay taxable wages.

19 Assessments

- (1) Where the Commissioner finds in any case that tax or further tax is payable by an employer, the Commissioner may:
- (a) assess the amount of wages or, where relevant, interstate wages paid or payable by the employer; and
 - (b) calculate the tax or further tax payable thereon.
- (2) Where:
- (a) an employer makes default in furnishing a return;
 - (b) the Commissioner is not satisfied with the return furnished by an employer; or
 - (c) the Commissioner has reason to believe or suspect that an employer, whether or not he has furnished a return, is liable to pay tax, the Commissioner may cause an assessment to be made of the amount of wages in respect of which, in his judgment, tax ought to be paid and that person is liable to pay tax in respect of that amount, except in so far as he establishes on objection under Part V of the Taxation (Administration) Act that the assessment is excessive.

- (2A) Subsection (2) does not operate so as to authorize the Commissioner to cause an assessment to be made as referred to in that subsection by reason that any deduction made from the wages included in any return is not correctly made if the deduction is made in accordance with this Act.
- (2B) Where the Commissioner makes a determination in respect of a return period ending before the determination is made as to the deduction that may be made from the taxable wages included or required to be included in returns made or required to be made under this Act, the Commissioner may cause an assessment to be made of the further tax that would have been payable by the employer concerned had the deduction been made from the wages included in the return for that month or period at the rate specified in the determination, and that employer shall be liable to pay that further tax, except in so far as he establishes on objection under Part V of the Taxation (Administration) Act that the amount determined by the Commissioner is too little.
- (3) An employer who becomes liable to pay tax by virtue of an assessment made under subsection (2) is also liable to pay, by way of additional tax, double the amount of that tax or the amount of $20, whichever is the greater, but the Commissioner may, in any particular case, for reasons which he thinks sufficient, remit the whole or part of the additional tax.
- (4) As soon as conveniently may be after an assessment is made under this section, the Commissioner shall cause notice in writing of the assessment and of the tax or further tax to be given to the employer liable to pay the tax or further tax.
- (5) The amount of tax or further tax specified in the notice is payable on or before the date specified in the notice together with any other amount that may be payable in accordance with any other provision of this Act.
- (6) An omission to give such a notice does not invalidate the assessment and calculation made by the Commissioner.

20A Refund of certain tax

- (6) Notwithstanding anything contained in this section, all costs, charges and expenses that, in the opinion of the Commissioner, have been properly incurred by the liquidator in the winding-up of a company, including the remuneration of the liquidator, may be paid out of the assets of the company in priority to any tax payable in respect of the company.

All informations, summonses, findings of guilt and warrants suffice if the offence is set forth as nearly as may be in the words of this Act or the regulations.

51 No objection for informality

- (1) An objection shall not be taken or allowed to an information or summons for any alleged defect therein in substance or in form or for any variance between the information or summons and the evidence adduced at the hearing in support thereof, and the court shall at all times make any amendment that is necessary to determine the real question in dispute or that may appear desirable.

- (2) If any such defect or variance appears to the court to be such that the defendant has been thereby deceived or misled the court may, upon such terms as it thinks just, adjourn the hearing of the case to some future day.

52 Finding of guilt not to be quashed

A finding of guilt, warrant of commitment or other proceeding, matter or thing done or transacted in relation to the execution or carrying out of this Act shall not be held void, quashed or set aside by reason of any defect therein or want of form, and a party is not entitled to be discharged out of custody on account of such a defect or want of form.

53 Protection to witnesses

A witness on behalf of the Commissioner in a taxation prosecution shall not be compelled to disclose the fact that he received any information, or the nature thereof or the name of the person who gave the information, and an officer appearing as a witness shall not be compelled to produce any reports made or received by him confidentially in his official capacity or containing confidential information.

54 Averment of prosecutor sufficient

- (1) In a taxation prosecution, the averment of the prosecutor or plaintiff contained in the information, complaint, declaration or claim is evidence of the matter averred.
- (2) This section applies to any matter so averred although:
- (a) evidence in support or rebuttal of the matter averred or of any other matter is given; or
 - (b) the matter averred is a mixed question of law and fact,
- but, where the matter is a mixed question of law and fact, the averment is evidence of the fact only.
- (3) Evidence given by a witness in support or rebuttal of a matter so averred shall be considered on its merits and the credibility and probative value of that evidence shall be neither increased nor diminished by reason of this section.
- (4) This section does not apply to:
- (a) an averment of the intent of the defendant; or

- (b) proceedings for an indictable offence or an offence directly punishable by imprisonment.
- (5) This section does not lessen or affect any onus of proof otherwise falling on the prosecutor or the person charged with the offence.

57 Parties may recover costs

In all taxation prosecutions, the court may award costs against any party, and the provisions of this Act relating to the recovery of penalties, except commitment to gaol, extend to the recovery of any costs adjudged to be paid.

Part IX Miscellaneous

58 Public officers of companies or partnerships

- (1) The Commissioner may, by notice served on a company or partnership that is registered, or required to be registered, as an employer under this Act require the company or partnership to appoint, within such period as is specified in the notice, a public officer of the company or partnership for the purposes of this Act, and to keep the office of public officer constantly filled.
- (2) An appointment of a public officer shall be deemed not to be duly made until after notice of the appointment in writing, specifying the name of the officer, has been given to the Commissioner.
- (3) If the company or partnership fails duly to appoint a public officer when and as often as such an appointment becomes necessary in accordance with a notice under subsection (1) it is guilty of an offence punishable, on being found guilty, by a fine not exceeding 50 penalty units and an additional penalty of 0.1 penalty units for each day that the failure continues after the first day on which the failure occurred.
- (4) Service of a document at the address for service, or on the public officer, of the company or partnership is sufficient service on the company or partnership for the purposes of this Act or the regulations, and, if at any time there is no public officer, then service on any person acting or appearing to act in the business of the company or partnership is sufficient.
- (5) The public officer is answerable for the doing of all such things as are required to be done by the company or partnership under this Act or the regulations, and, in case of default, is liable to the same penalties.

- (6) Everything done by the public officer that he is required to do in his representative capacity shall be deemed to have been done by the company or partnership and the absence or non-appointment of a public officer does not excuse the company or partnership from the necessity of complying, or from any penalty for failure to comply, with any of the provisions of this Act or the regulations, but the company or partnership is liable to comply with the provisions of this Act or the regulations as if there were no requirement to appoint a public officer.
- (7) A notice given to or requisition made upon the public officer shall be deemed to be given to or made upon the company or partnership.
- (8) Any proceedings under this Act taken against the public officer shall be deemed to have been taken against the company or partnership, and the company or partnership is liable jointly with the public officer for any penalty imposed upon him.
- (9) Notwithstanding anything contained in this section, and without in any way limiting, altering or transferring the liability of the public officer of a company or partnership, every notice, process or proceeding that, under this Act or the regulations, may be given to, served on or taken against the company or partnership or its public officer may, if the Commissioner thinks fit, be given to, served on or taken against any director, secretary or other officer of the company or partnership or any attorney or agent of the company or partnership, and that director, secretary, officer, attorney or agent has the same liability in respect of that notice, process or proceeding as the company or partnership or public officer would have had if it had been given to, served on or taken against the company or partnership or public officer.

59 Agents and trustees

- (1) The following provisions apply with respect to every agent and every trustee:
 - (a) he is answerable as an employer for the doing of all such things as are required to be done by virtue of this Act in respect of the payment of any taxable wages;
 - (b) he shall, in respect of any such wages, furnish the returns and is liable to pay tax thereon, but in his representative capacity only, and each return shall, except as otherwise provided by this Act be separate and distinct from any other;
 - (c) if he is an executor or administrator, the returns shall be the same, as far as practicable, as those that the deceased person, if living, would have been liable to furnish;

- (d) where as agent or trustee he pays tax, he may recover the amount so paid from the person in whose behalf he paid it, or deduct it from any money in his hands belonging to that person;
 - (e) he shall retain from time to time out of any money which comes to him in his representative capacity so much as is sufficient to pay the tax that is or will become due in respect of such wages;
 - (f) he is personally liable for the tax payable in respect of such wages if, after the Commissioner has required him to furnish a return, or while the tax remains unpaid, he disposes of or parts with any fund or money that comes to him and from or out of which tax could legally be paid, but he is not otherwise personally liable for the tax, but the Commissioner may, upon application by the agent or trustee, permit disposal of the fund or money or such part thereof as he considers necessary;
 - (g) he is, by force of this section, indemnified in respect of all payments that he makes in pursuance of this Act or the requirements of the Commissioner; and
 - (h) for the purpose of ensuring the payment of tax, the Commissioner has the same remedies against attachable property of any kind vested in, under the control or management of, or in the possession of, any agent or trustee as he would have against the property of any other person in respect of tax, and in as full and ample a manner.
- (2) Nothing in subsection (1) affects the operation of Part IVA in relation to trustees.

60 Person in receipt or control of money for absentee

Subject to this Act, the following provisions apply with respect to a person who has the receipt, control or disposal of money belonging to a person who is resident out of Australia and liable to pay tax under this Act:

- (a) he shall, when required by the Commissioner, pay the tax due and payable by the person on whose behalf he has the control, receipt or disposal of money;
- (b) where he pays tax in accordance with paragraph (a), he may recover the amount so paid from the person on whose behalf he paid it or deduct it from any money in his hands belonging to that person;

- (c) he shall retain from time to time out of any money that comes to him on behalf of the person resident out of Australia so much as is sufficient to pay the tax that is or will become due by that person;
 - (d) he is personally liable for the tax payable by him on behalf of the person resident out of Australia after the tax becomes payable, or if, after the Commissioner has required him to pay the tax, he disposes of or parts with any fund or money then in his possession, or that comes to him, and from or out of which the tax could legally be paid, but he is not otherwise personally liable for the tax, but the Commissioner may, upon application, permit disposal of the fund or money or such part thereof as he considers necessary; and
 - (e) he is, by force of this section, indemnified in respect of all payments that he makes in pursuance of this Act or the requirements of the Commissioner.

61 Books, accounts, &c., to be preserved

- (1) A person who is an employer registered or required to be registered under this Act shall, for the purposes of this Act, keep proper books or accounts in the English language, and shall preserve those books or accounts for a period of not less than 5 years after the completion of the transactions to which they relate.

Penalty: 100 penalty units.

- (1A) Subject to subsection (2), an offence of contravening or failing to comply with subsection (1) is a regulatory offence.
- (2) This section does not apply so as to require the preservation of any books, accounts or documents:
 - (a) in respect of which the Commissioner has notified the employer that such preservation is not required; or
 - (b) of a company that has gone into liquidation and has been finally dissolved.

62 Access to books, &c.

- (1) For the purposes of this Act, an officer authorized by the Commissioner to exercise powers under this section:
 - (a) may, at all reasonable times, enter upon any land;
 - (b) shall have full and free access at all reasonable times to all books, documents and other papers; and

- (c) may, for those purposes, take extracts from, and make copies of, any books, documents or papers.
- (2) An officer who enters upon land in pursuance of this section is not authorized to remain on the land if, on request by the occupier of the land, he does not produce a certificate in writing under the hand of the Commissioner certifying that he is an officer authorized to exercise powers under this section.

63 Release of employers in cases of hardship

In any case where it is shown to the satisfaction of the Treasurer that:

- (a) an employer has suffered such a loss or is in such circumstances; or
- (b) owing to the death of a person who, if he had lived, would have been liable to pay tax, the dependants of that person are in such circumstances, that the exaction of the full amount of tax will entail serious hardship, the Treasurer may release the employer or the trustee of the estate of the deceased person, as the case may be, wholly or in part from his liability, and the Commissioner may make such entries as are necessary for that purpose.

64 Regulations

- (1) The Administrator may make regulations, not inconsistent with this Act, prescribing all matters required or permitted by this Act to be prescribed, or necessary or convenient to be prescribed for carrying out or giving effect to this Act, and, in particular, prescribing penalties not exceeding a fine of 50 penalty units for offences against the regulations.
- (2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1), the regulations may make provision with respect to the place at which, and the manner in which, a return, declaration, notice, application or other document required or permitted by this Act to be made, furnished or given to, or by, or lodged with, the Commissioner may be, or is to be, so made, furnished, given or lodged.

Schedule Provisions about superannuation

section 3A

1 What this schedule is about

For the purposes of section 3A, this schedule sets out:

- (a) certain amounts that are to be taken to be contributions paid or payable by an employer in respect of a person to a superannuation fund; and
- (b) certain contributions paid or payable by an employer in respect of a person to a superannuation fund that are not to be taken to be superannuation benefits.

2 Definitions

- (1) In this schedule:

actuary means a Fellow or Accredited Member of the Institute of Actuaries of Australia.

Australian superannuation scheme means a superannuation scheme that:

- (a) was established in Australia or has an asset that is situated in Australia; and
- (b) has its central management and control in Australia.

defined benefit means a benefit under a superannuation scheme that is defined (wholly or in part) by reference to either or both of the following:

- (a) the amount of a participant's salary:
 - (i) at a particular date, being the date of the termination of the participant's employment, the date of the participant's retirement or an earlier date; or
 - (ii) averaged over a period ending on such a date;
- (b) a stated amount.

individual superannuation guarantee shortfall has the meaning given in the Superannuation Guarantee (Administration) Act 1992 of the Commonwealth.

participant, in relation to a superannuation scheme, means a person in respect of whom the scheme provides benefits that are or are to be funded to any extent by an employer's contributions under the scheme.

regulated superannuation fund has the meaning given in the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993 of the Commonwealth.

superannuation guarantee charge means a charge imposed by the Superannuation Guarantee Charge Act 1992 of the Commonwealth but does not include an additional superannuation guarantee charge under Part 7 of the Superannuation Guarantee (Administration) Act 1992 of the Commonwealth.

unfunded public sector scheme means a public sector superannuation scheme within the meaning of the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993 of the Commonwealth, other than such a scheme that is funded in advance in accordance with actuarial advice at a level that is reasonably expected by the actuary to be adequate to provide for present and prospective liabilities in respect of benefits under the scheme.

- (2) Setting aside money or anything worth money as or as part of a superannuation scheme is to be taken to be paying it as a contribution to the superannuation fund.
- (3) Making a contribution to a superannuation fund of anything that is worth money is to be taken to be paying a contribution of the amount of money that it is worth and, for the purpose of determining that worth, section 3(4) applies as if references in that provision to taxable wages were references to contributions.
- (4) If an amount by way of administration or other charges in respect of the carrying on of a superannuation fund is paid other than to the fund, the amount is to be taken to be paid as a contribution to the fund.
- (5) If in a return period a person becomes obliged but fails to do anything that, if it were done, would by virtue of subclause (2), (3) or (4) be taken to be paying a contribution to a superannuation fund, the contribution to the superannuation fund is to be taken to be payable in the return period.
- (6) A contribution to a superannuation fund paid or payable by a person acting for or in concert with or under an arrangement or undertaking, whether formal or informal and whether express or implied, with an employer is to be taken to be paid or payable by the employer.

- (7) Contributions to a superannuation fund that are to be taken by this schedule to be paid or payable by an employer are cumulative upon one another, and upon contributions that are actually paid or payable, unless it is otherwise provided.

3 Australian scheme unregulated defined benefit scheme or unfunded public sector defined benefit scheme

- (1) This clause applies in relation to an Australian superannuation scheme:
- (a) that:
- (i) is not a regulated superannuation fund; or
- (ii) is an unfunded public sector scheme, whether or not it is a regulated superannuation scheme; and
- (b) that provides for an employer to contribute and for a defined benefit in respect of a person, whether or not it also provides for any benefit that is not a defined benefit.
- (2) A contribution is to be taken to be payable by the employer to the superannuation fund concerned in the return period in respect of each participant.
- (3) The amount of the contribution in respect of a participant is:
- (a) the amount that an actuary determines would be sufficient, together with earnings on the amount, to fully provide for the cost to the employer of the entitlement accruing under the scheme to benefits in respect of services performed or rendered by the participant in the return period; or
- (b) if the Regulations prescribe how the amount of a contribution in respect of a class of participants of which the participant is a member is to be determined – the amount so determined.
- (4) The Regulations may provide for how an actuary is to determine an amount under subclause (3).
- (5) If by virtue of subclause (2) a contribution by the employer under a scheme is to be taken to be payable to the superannuation fund concerned, no other contribution by the employer to the fund is to be taken to be a superannuation benefit unless:
- (a) it is a contribution that the employer is to be taken to pay by virtue of clause 5; or

- (b) the contribution is made for any reason other than to make provision for the cost referred to in subclause (3).

4 Unfunded credit to unregulated Australian scheme that gives no defined benefit

- (1) This clause applies in relation to an Australian superannuation scheme:

- (a) that:

- (i) is not a regulated superannuation fund; and
- (ii) does not provide for a defined benefit in respect of a person; and

- (b) under which an amount not excluded by subclause is credited in a return period as an employer's contribution in respect of a person.

- (2) An amount that a person is obliged to but does not credit in a return period is to be taken to be credited in the return period and not at any other time.

- (3) An amount:

- (a) paid or payable as a contribution under the scheme; or
- (b) that is to be taken (other than by virtue of subclause (4)) to be paid or payable as a contribution under the scheme, is excluded from the amount referred to in subclause (1)(b).

- (4) A contribution of the amount mentioned in subclause (1)(b) is to be taken to be payable by the employer to the superannuation fund concerned in the return period in respect of each participant.

- (5) If by virtue of subclause (4) an amount credited as an employer's contribution under a scheme is to be taken to be payable to the fund concerned, to the extent that it is paid to meet (wholly or in part) an obligation arising from the credit, no contribution under the scheme is to be taken to be a superannuation benefit.

5 Superannuation guarantee charge

- (1) If a superannuation guarantee charge payable by an employee is imposed in a return period, a contribution of the amount of the charge is to be taken to be payable by the employer to a superannuation fund in the return period.

- (2) If the charge is imposed because of only one individual superannuation guarantee shortfall, the contribution is to be taken to be in respect of the person in respect of whom the employer has the shortfall.
- (3) If the charge is imposed because of an individual superannuation guarantee shortfall in respect of each of 2 or more persons, the contribution is to be taken to be in respect of each of them and to be apportioned according to the amount of the employer's individual superannuation guarantee shortfall in respect of each of them.
- (4) If:
- (a) a contribution that was payable but which the employer failed to pay in respect of a person is to be taken to be a superannuation benefit; and
 - (b) the charge is imposed wholly or in part because of an individual superannuation guarantee shortfall that results wholly or in part from the failure,
- the amount of the contribution that is to be taken to be payable in respect of the person is reduced by the amount of the contribution referred to in paragraph (a).
- (5) An amount cannot be reduced by virtue of subclause (4) to less than 0.

6 Treatment of certain contributions

- (1) A contribution in respect of services performed or rendered before 1 July 1999 is not to be taken to be a superannuation benefit.
- (2) If a contribution is partly in respect of services performed or rendered before 1 July 1999, the part that is in respect of services performed or rendered before that date is not to be taken to be a superannuation benefit.
- (3) For the purposes of this clause, a contribution is in respect of services performed or rendered before 1 July 1999 to the extent that the payment of the contribution is attributable to, or is to satisfy a benefit attributable to, a period of service before 1 July 1999.
- (4) The Regulations may make provision in relation to:
- (a) whether, or the extent to which, a contribution is paid or payable to a superannuation fund in respect of a particular person; or

- (b) whether, or to the extent to which, the payment of a contribution to a superannuation fund is attributable, or is to satisfy a benefit attributable, to a period of service before 1 July 1999.
