- (2) It is not unlawful for a person to discriminate against another person on any of the attributes referred to in subsection (1) if an exemption under Part 4 or 5 applies.

20 Discrimination

- (1) For the purposes of this Act, discrimination includes:
- (a) any distinction, restriction, exclusion or preference made on the basis of an attribute that has the effect of nullifying or impairing equality of opportunity; and
 - (b) harassment on the basis of an attribute,
- in an area of activity referred to in Part 4.

- (a) an attribute; or
 - (b) a characteristic imputed to appertain to an attribute; or
 - (c) a characteristic imputed to appertain generally to persons with an attribute,
- less favourably than a person who has not, or is believed not to have, such an attribute.
- (3) For discrimination to take place, it is not necessary that:
- (a) the attribute is the sole or dominant ground for the less favourable treatment; or
 - (b) the person who discriminates regards the treatment as less favourable.
- (4) The motive of a person alleged to have discriminated against another person is, for the purposes of this Act, irrelevant.

21 Discrimination by refusing to allow guide dog, &c.

- (1) For the purposes of this Act, a person discriminates on the ground of impairment against a person with a visual, hearing or mobility impairment if the person treats the person with the impairment less favourably because the person has a guide dog.
- (2) Subsection (1) applies notwithstanding that it is the practice of the person to treat less favourably other persons who have dogs.

- (3) Nothing in this section shall limit the operation of section 20 in relation to discrimination on the ground of impairment.
- (4) This section does not affect the liability of a person with a guide dog for any damage caused by the guide dog.

Division 2 Prohibited conduct

22 Prohibition of sexual harassment

- (1) A person shall not, in an area of activity referred to in Part 4, sexually harass another person.

 - (i) with the intention of offending, humiliating or intimidating the other person; or
 - (ii) in circumstances where a reasonable person would have anticipated the possibility that the other person would be offended, humiliated or intimidated by the conduct; or
 - (f) that other person is, or reasonably believes that he or she is likely to be, subjected to some detriment if he or she objects to the act, demand, request, remark or conduct.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2)(e)(ii), circumstances that are relevant in determining whether a reasonable person would have anticipated the possibility that the other person would be offended, humiliated or intimidated by the conduct include:
 - (a) the sex, age or race of the other person; and
 - (b) any impairment that the other person has; and

- (c) the relationship between the other person and the person engaging in the conduct; and
- (d) any other circumstance of the other person.

23 Prohibition of victimisation

- (1) A person shall not victimise another person because the other person:
 - (a) has made, or intends to make, a complaint; or
 - (b) has given, or intends to give, evidence or information in connection with proceedings under this Act or
 - (c) has alleged, or intends to allege, that a person has committed an act which would amount to a contravention of this Act; or
 - (d) has done anything in relation to a person under or by reference to this Act.
- (2) Victimisation takes place if a person subjects or threatens to subject another person or an associate of the other person to any detriment.
- (3) Subsection (1)(c) does not apply to or in relation to an allegation that is false and not made in good faith.

24 Failure to accommodate special need

- (1) A person shall not fail or refuse to accommodate a special need that another person has because of an attribute.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1):
 - (a) a failure or refusal to accommodate a special need of another person includes making inadequate or inappropriate provision to accommodate the special need; and
 - (b) a failure to accommodate a special need takes place when a person acts in a way which unreasonably fails to provide for the special need of another person if that other person has the special need because of an attribute.
