A person who counsels or procures someone else to commit conduct that, if committed by the person would be domestic violence, is taken to have also committed the conduct.

Part 2.2 Making of domestic violence orders

18 When DVO may be made

- (1) The issuing authority may make a DVO only if satisfied there are reasonable grounds for the protected person to fear the commission of domestic violence against the person by the defendant.

Note

Because of the objective nature of the test in subsection (1), the issuing authority may be satisfied on the balance of probabilities as to the reasonable grounds even if the protected person denies, or does not give evidence about, fearing the commission of domestic violence.

- (2) In addition, if the protected person is a child, the authority may make a DVO if satisfied there are reasonable grounds to fear the child will be exposed to domestic violence committed by or against a person with whom the child is in a domestic relationship.

19 Matters to be considered in making DVO

- (1) In deciding whether to make a DVO, the issuing authority must consider the safety and protection of the protected person to be of paramount importance.

- (2) In addition, the issuing authority must consider the following:

 - (b) the accommodation needs of the protected person;
 - (c) the defendant's criminal record as defined in the Criminal Records (Spent Convictions) Act;
 - (d) the defendant's previous conduct whether in relation to the protected person or someone else;
 - (e) other matters the authority considers relevant.

20 Presumption in favour of protected person with child remaining at home

- (1) This section applies if:
- (a) the defendant and protected person normally live in the same home with a child (whether or not the child is also a protected person); and
 - (b) in deciding the conditions of a DVO, the issuing authority imposes a restraint on the defendant having contact with the protected person or child.
- (2) The issuing authority must presume the protection of the protected person and child are best achieved by them living in the home.
- (3) To avoid doubt, this section does not prevent a DVO including a premises access order.

Example of order for subsection (3)

A premises access order providing for the defendant to visit the child at the home.

Part 2.3 Content of domestic violence orders

21 What DVO may provide

(1) A DVO may provide for any of the following:

22 Premises access order

(1) A DVO may include an order (a premises access order):

- (a) requiring the defendant to vacate stated premises where the defendant and protected person live together or previously lived together; or

(2) Before making a premises access order, the issuing authority must consider the effect of making the order on the accommodation of the persons affected by it.

(3) The order applies regardless of whether the defendant has a legal or equitable interest in the premises.

23 Order for replacement tenancy agreement

(1) This section applies if:

- (a) the defendant and protected person live together or previously lived together in premises; and

 - (ii) with the agreement of the protected person, for the benefit of the defendant and anyone else who was a party to the terminated agreement.
 - (3) The orders may be made only if:
 - (a) the court is satisfied:
 - (i) the domestic relationship between the protected person and defendant has broken down permanently; and
 - (ii) there is no reasonable likelihood of them living in the premises free of domestic violence; and
 - (iii) the protected person or defendant (as appropriate) will be able to comply with the replacement agreement; and
 - (iv) it is appropriate in the circumstances to make the order; and
 - (c) the landlord consents to the orders or, if the landlord refuses consent, the court is satisfied the refusal is unreasonable; and
 - (d) the protected person consents to the orders.
 - (4) The landlord and anyone else having an interest in the premises are entitled to appear and be heard in relation to the matter.
 - (5) The replacement agreement must have the same conditions as the terminated agreement other than the names of the tenants.
 - (6) If the terminated agreement is for a fixed term, the date of expiry of the replacement agreement must be the same as that of the terminated agreement.
 - (7) Part 12 of the Residential Tenancies Act applies to the terminated agreement as if the tenants had given up vacant possession of the premises.

- (3) The order may be made subject to the conditions the court considers appropriate.

25 Protected person's residential address not to be included in order

A protected person's residential address, or intended residential address, must not be stated in a DVO, unless the issuing authority is satisfied:

- (a) the defendant knows the address; or
- (b) it is necessary to state the address in order to achieve compliance with the DVO and by stating the address:
 - (i) the protected person's personal safety will not be seriously threatened; and
 - (ii) damage is not likely to be caused to any of the protected person's property.

26 Prohibition on publication of personal details

- (3) The Judge must:

If the Judge makes an order revoking the DVO, a police officer must inform the parties to the DVO of:

76 What police officer must do if DVO is confirmed without variations

If the Judge makes an order confirming the DVO without variations, the police officer must inform the parties to the DVO of:

- (a) the order; and
- (b) the reasons for it.

77 What Judge must do if DVO is confirmed with variations

If the Judge makes an order confirming the DVO with variations, the Judge must inform the police officer of:

78 What police officer must do if DVO is confirmed with variations

- (1) If the Judge makes an order confirming the DVO with variations, the police officer must:
 - (a) complete a form of order as directed by the Judge; and

 - (b) send the original of it to the Court.

Note for subsection (2)(a)

A DVO is given to the defendant if it is given in any of the ways mentioned in section 119.

79 Order taken to be summons to appear before Court

If the Judge makes an order confirming the DVO (with or without variations), the form of order given to the defendant is taken to be a summons to the defendant to appear before the Court, at the time and place shown on it for its return, to show cause why the DVO as varied should not be confirmed by the Court.

Note

Part 2.10 deals with the confirmation of DVOs.

Part 2.10 Confirmation of domestic violence orders

80 Application of Part

This Part applies if the defendant is summoned to appear before the Court to show cause why a DVO should not be confirmed.

Note

Sections 37, 44, 59, 71 and 79 provide for a summons to the defendant.

81 Appearing at hearing

- (1) Subject to applicable procedural directions, a protected person may appear at the hearing of the proceeding.
- (2) If the defendant has been summoned under section 44 or 71, the Commissioner is a party to the proceeding.

82 Decision at hearing

- (1) At the hearing, the Court may, by order:
 - (a) confirm the DVO (with or without variations); or
 - (b) revoke the DVO.
- (2) The Court must not confirm the DVO unless:
 - (a) it is satisfied the defendant has been given a copy of the DVO; and
 - (b) it has considered any evidence before it and submissions from the parties to the DVO.

83 Notice of order

As soon as practicable after the Court makes its order, a registrar must give to the parties to the DVO and the Commissioner:

- (b) if it confirms the DVO with variations – a copy of the DVO as varied.

Note for section 83

Under section 119, a copy of a DVO is given to the defendant if the defendant is before the Court when it is made. Otherwise a copy of a DVO is given to the defendant if it is given in any of the ways mentioned in that section.

Part 2.11 Special police powers

84 Power to remove and detain

- (1) This section applies if:
 - (a) a police officer reasonably believes:
 - (i) grounds exist for making a DVO against a person; and

- (ii) it is necessary to remove the person to prevent an imminent risk of harm to another person or damage to property, including the injury or death of an animal; or
 - (b) a DVO has been made against a person and a police officer reasonably believes it is necessary to detain the person to give the person a copy of the DVO; or
 - (c) a DVO has been made against a person and a police officer reasonably believes it is necessary to detain the person until an application for the variation of the DVO can be made and decided under Part 2.8, Division 2.
- (2) The police officer may, using reasonable force or assistance, do the following:
- (a) enter premises on or in which the officer reasonably believes the person to be;
 - (b) take the person into custody;
 - (c) remove the person to the nearest police station or other place where the person can be conveniently detained to facilitate:
 - (i) if subsection (1)(a) applies – the making of a DVO and, if made, the giving of a copy of the DVO to the defendant; or
 - (ii) if subsection (1)(b) applies – the giving of a copy of the DVO to the defendant; or
 - (iii) if subsection (1)(c) applies – the making of an application for a variation of the DVO and, if varied, the giving of a copy of the varied DVO to the defendant.
- (3) Subject to subsection (4), the person must not be detained for more than 4 hours after being taken into custody.
- (4) The person may be detained for a longer time if a police officer is satisfied it is necessary to do so to enable a police officer to properly give a copy of the DVO to the person because of the person's apparent intoxication.
- (5) However, the person may be detained for more than 6 hours after being taken into custody only if a police officer:
- (a) is satisfied the person is still intoxicated; and
 - (b) informs a senior police officer of the need to continue to detain the person; and

- (c) records the following information about the person's continued detention in the custody log (however described):
 - (i) the time and way the officer informed the senior police officer;
 - (ii) the details of the information given to the senior police officer; and
 - (d) arranges for a health practitioner (the examining health practitioner) to examine the person as soon as practicable.
- (6) The senior police officer must ensure the person is released from custody:
- (a) into the care of a health practitioner if, on examination, the examining health practitioner is satisfied the person's condition requires medical treatment; or
 - (b) on the earlier of the following:
 - (i) the person ceases to be intoxicated;
 - (ii) 10 hours after being taken into custody.

- (7) In this section:

- (3) The defendant is not in contravention of the DVO merely because of entry of the premises and retrieval of the property under subsection (2).
- (4) The police officer may use reasonable force or assistance for the entry of the premises and retrieval of the property.
- (5) In this section:

personal property includes clothes, tools of trade, personal documents and other items of personal effect.

Part 2.12 Miscellaneous matters

86 DVO may be made regardless of criminal proceeding

A DVO may be made even if a criminal proceeding has been started against the defendant in relation to the domestic violence to which the DVO relates.

87 DVO not to affect other liability

The making of a DVO does not affect the civil or criminal liability of the defendant in relation to the domestic violence to which the DVO relates.

88 Requirement to give documents to protected person

- (1) This section applies if, under this Part, a court, a registrar or a police officer is required to give a document or information to the protected person named in a DVO.
- (2) If there is more than 1 protected person, the document or information must be given to each of them.

- (3) However, the requirement applies only if the protected person is an adult or young person.

Example for section 88

Under section 36, a registrar is required to give a copy of a Local Court DVO to the parties to the DVO. Accordingly, the registrar must give a copy of the DVO to each of the protected persons named in the DVO or the person acting for them if they are adults or young persons.

89 Explanation of court DVO

- (1) This section applies if a protected person who is an adult or young person, or the defendant, is present when a court DVO is made, confirmed or varied.
- (2) The issuing authority must explain to the protected person or defendant:
- (a) the effect of the DVO, including:
 - (i) any restrictions and obligations imposed by the DVO; and
 - (ii) the DVO may be registered and enforced, without notice to the defendant, in New Zealand; and
 - (iii) the DVO may be enforced, without notice to the defendant, in a State or another Territory that is a participating jurisdiction; and
 - (b) the consequences that may follow if the defendant contravenes the DVO; and
 - (c) the way the DVO may be varied or revoked.
- (3) As far as it is reasonably practicable to do so, the explanation must be given in a language or in terms that are likely to be readily understood by the person being given the explanation.
- (4) A failure to comply with this section for a DVO does not affect its validity.

90 Family law orders

- (1) The applicant for a DVO must inform the issuing authority of:
- (a) any family law orders the person knows to be in force in relation to the defendant; and
 - (b) any applications for family law orders in relation to the defendant the person knows are pending.

- (2) If a police officer is considering making a police DVO:
 - (a) the officer must make reasonable inquiries about the existence or otherwise of:
 - (i) any family law orders in force in relation to the defendant; and
 - (ii) any pending applications for family law orders in relation to the defendant; and
 - (b) a person must, if asked to do so by the officer, inform the officer of any such family law orders or applications.
- (3) A decision of an issuing authority is not invalid merely because of the failure of a person to give information under subsection (1) or (2)(b).

91 Costs

If the Court refuses an application to make a DVO or an order varying a DVO, it must not award costs against the applicant unless it is satisfied the application for the DVO or variation was unreasonable and in bad faith.

91B Registrar exercises powers as delegate of Court

- (1) This section applies in relation to the exercise, by a registrar, of a power under this Act to make, vary or revoke a DVO.
- (2) In exercising the power the registrar is acting as a delegate of the Court.
- (3) The decision of the registrar is a decision of the Court.

The external order is registered for the period during which it is in force in the jurisdiction in which it was made.

97 Effect of registration

- (1) The registered external order is taken to be a court DVO that has been properly given to the defendant on the date it is registered.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to a variation or revocation of a registered external order if the order is a recognised DVO under Chapter 3A and the variation or revocation is recognised in the Territory under that Chapter.

- (1) An intervention order under the Intervention Orders (Prevention of Abuse) Act 2009 (SA) addresses a domestic violence concern if the order is made because it is reasonable to suspect that the defendant will, without intervention, commit an act of domestic violence (within the meaning of that Act).
- (2) A violence restraining order under the Restraining Orders Act 1997 (WA) addresses a domestic violence concern if the order is made because the defendant has committed, or because it is feared the defendant will commit, an act of family and domestic violence (within the meaning of section 6 of that Act).

- (3) For this Chapter, a general violence order is taken to be an order that addresses a domestic violence concern if:
- (a) it is declared to be an order that addresses a domestic violence concern by the issuing authority that makes the order; or
 - (b) a registrar of a court of the jurisdiction in which the order was made makes an order declaring the DVO to be a recognised DVO in that jurisdiction.

- (3) A power conferred by this Chapter to vary or revoke a registered foreign order is a power to vary or revoke registration of the order as a registered foreign order.

Part 3A.2 National recognition of DVOs

Division 1 General principles

103E Recognition of DVOs

- (1) Each of the following DVOs is a recognised DVO in the Territory:
- (a) a local DVO;
 - (b) an interstate DVO made in a participating jurisdiction;

- (c) a foreign order that is a registered foreign order in any participating jurisdiction.

Notes for subsection (1)

- 1 Recognition by way of a declaration by a registrar can also extend to DVOs made in jurisdictions that are not, or are not yet, participating jurisdictions. See Part 3A.6.
- 2 An interstate DVO made after commencement will be recognised in the Territory if it is made in a participating jurisdiction. Additionally, an interstate DVO made before commencement will be recognised in the Territory if, under the law of a participating jurisdiction, it is a recognised DVO.

- (2) Subject to this Chapter, a DVO becomes a recognised DVO when it is made.

Note for subsection (2)

- 1 Under section 97, a foreign order is taken to be made when it is registered as a registered foreign order.
- 2 Under section 103J, a police DVO made where there is a recognised DVO in force in relation to the same defendant and protected person does not become recognised until it is confirmed by a court under section 82.

- (3) Subject to this Chapter, a DVO is a recognised DVO for the period for which it remains in force in the jurisdiction in which it is made.

103F Variations to DVO

- (1) A variation to a recognised DVO that is done in the Territory or another jurisdiction is a recognised variation in the Territory in the circumstances provided for by this section.
- (2) A variation to a local DVO is a recognised variation in the Territory if the variation is done:
 - (a) in the Territory by a court or any other person authorised to do so under this Act; or
 - (b) in another participating jurisdiction by a court under a corresponding law.
- (3) A variation to an interstate DVO or foreign order is a recognised variation in the Territory if the variation is done:
 - (a) in the issuing jurisdiction by a court or any other person authorised to do so under the law of the issuing jurisdiction; or

- (b) in any participating jurisdiction by a court under this Chapter or a corresponding law.

Note for subsection (3)

Under section 103D, the issuing jurisdiction for a foreign order is taken to be the jurisdiction in which the order is registered.

- (4) A variation is recognised from the time it is done.

103G Revocation of recognised DVO

- (1) A DVO ceases to be a recognised DVO if the DVO is revoked in the Territory or another jurisdiction and that revocation is recognised in the Territory.
- (2) A revocation of a local DVO is recognised in the Territory if the revocation is done:
 - (a) in the Territory by a court or any other person authorised to do so under this Act; or
 - (b) in another participating jurisdiction by a court under a corresponding law.
- (3) A revocation of an interstate DVO or foreign order is recognised in the Territory if the revocation is done:
 - (a) in the issuing jurisdiction by a court or any other person authorised to do so under the law of the issuing jurisdiction; or
 - (b) in any participating jurisdiction by a court under this Chapter or a corresponding law.
- (4) The DVO ceases to be a recognised DVO from the time it is revoked.

103H Recognised DVO prevails over earlier comparable DVOs

- (1) A recognised DVO that is enforceable against a defendant in the Territory (a new DVO) supersedes:
 - (a) any comparable recognised DVO made earlier than the new DVO; and
 - (b) any comparable local DVO made earlier than the new DVO (whether or not the local DVO is a recognised DVO).
- (2) The earlier comparable DVO is superseded from the time the recognised DVO becomes enforceable against the defendant.

- (3) A recognised DVO that is superseded ceases to be a recognised DVO.
- (4) A local DVO that is superseded is revoked.
- (5) A DVO is not superseded to the extent that it relates to a protected person who is not a protected person under the new DVO.
- (6) Accordingly, a DVO continues to be a recognised DVO, and to have effect, to the extent that it relates to a person who is not a protected person under the new DVO.
- (7) A DVO made by a police officer does not supersede a comparable DVO made by a court (of any jurisdiction).
- (8) A DVO is comparable with another DVO if:
 - (a) the DVOs are made against the same defendant; and
 - (b) the DVOs are made for the protection of one or more of the same protected persons.

103J Making of new orders

- (1) Nothing in this Chapter prevents a person from applying for, or an issuing authority from making, a local DVO even though there is a recognised DVO in force that applies to the same defendant.
- (2) However, if a police officer makes a police DVO that applies to a defendant and protected person and there is a recognised DVO in force that applies to the same defendant and protected person (existing comparable DVO), the police DVO is not a recognised DVO for section 103E until it is confirmed under section 82.
- (3) If a police officer makes a police DVO that provides additional protections for a protected person over and above the protections provided for the person by an existing comparable DVO, the police DVO can be enforced in the Territory to the extent of the additional protections.
- (4) Subsection (3) applies until one of the following occurs:
 - (a) a later recognised DVO that applies to the same defendant and protected person comes into force;
 - (b) the police DVO is confirmed (with or without variations);
 - (c) the police DVO is revoked.

Division 2 Enforcement of recognised DVOs

103K Recognised DVOs and variations are enforceable against defendant

- (1) A recognised DVO, or a recognised variation to a recognised DVO, is enforceable against the defendant in the Territory.
- (2) A recognised DVO that is a local DVO becomes enforceable against the defendant in the Territory when the defendant is properly notified of the making of the DVO under the law of the Territory.
- (3) A recognised DVO that is a non-local DVO (other than a foreign order) becomes enforceable against a defendant in the Territory when the defendant is properly notified of the making of the DVO under the law of the jurisdiction in which the DVO was made.
- (4) A recognised DVO that is a foreign order becomes enforceable against a defendant in the Territory from the time it becomes a recognised DVO.
- (5) A recognised variation to a recognised DVO becomes enforceable against the defendant in the Territory when the defendant is properly notified of the variation under the law of the jurisdiction in which the variation is done.

103L Meaning of properly notified

- (1) The making of a local DVO is properly notified under the law of the Territory if:
 - (a) the defendant is given a copy of the DVO; or
 - (b) the DVO is made by a court and the defendant is present in court when the DVO is made.
- (2) The making of an interstate DVO is properly notified under the law of the jurisdiction in which it is made in the circumstances provided for by the corresponding law of that jurisdiction.
- (3) A variation to a recognised DVO that is done in the Territory is properly notified under the law of the Territory if:
 - (a) the defendant is given a copy of the variation; or
 - (b) the variation is done by a court and the defendant is present in court when the DVO is varied.

- (4) A variation to a recognised DVO that is done in another jurisdiction is properly notified under the law of that jurisdiction in the circumstances provided for by the corresponding law of that jurisdiction.

103M Contravention of enforceable recognised DVO

- (1) A non-local DVO that is a recognised DVO and which is enforceable against a defendant in the Territory may be enforced in the Territory:
 - (a) as if it were a local DVO; and
 - (b) as if the defendant had been properly notified of the making of the DVO under the law of the Territory.
- (2) A recognised variation to a non-local DVO that is a recognised DVO and which is enforceable in the Territory may be enforced in the Territory as if it were a variation to a local DVO.
- (3) A recognised variation to a recognised DVO made in another jurisdiction that is enforceable against the defendant in the Territory may be enforced as if the defendant had been properly notified of the variation under the law of the Territory.
- (4) This section does not affect any law of the Territory that requires a geographical nexus to exist between the Territory and an offence for a person to be guilty of an offence under the law of the Territory.

Division 3 Enforcement of non-local DVOs

103N Non-local DVO to be treated as local DVO

- (1) A recognised DVO that is a non-local DVO has the same effect in the Territory as a local DVO.
- (2) A prohibition, restriction or condition imposed by a non-local DVO has the same meaning as it would have in the jurisdiction in which the DVO was made, but may be enforced in the Territory as if it were a prohibition, restriction or condition of a local DVO.

103P Licences, permits and other authorisations

- (1) A law of the Territory (a relevant law) that restricts the grant of an authorisation, or that authorises or requires an authorisation to be suspended or revoked, if a person is or has been subject to a local DVO extends to a person who is or has been subject to any non-local DVO that is a recognised DVO (as if the non-local DVO were a local DVO).

(2) For the purposes of a relevant law:

- (a) a non-local DVO that is a final DVO is to be treated in the same way as a local DVO that is a final DVO; and
- (b) a non-local DVO that is an interim DVO is to be treated in the same way as a local DVO that is an interim DVO.

(3) In this section:

authorisation includes a licence or permit.

103S Orders for costs

- (1) A non-local DVO, to the extent that it requires the payment of money, cannot be enforced in the Territory.

- (3) This section does not prevent a court or tribunal awarding costs in respect of any proceedings in the Territory relating to the variation or revocation of a recognised DVO.

Part 3A.3 Variation and revocation of recognised non-local DVOs

103T Definition

In this Part:

court means the Local Court, as constituted by a Local Court Judge, or the Supreme Court.

103U Power of court to vary or revoke recognised non-local DVOs

- (1) A court may vary or revoke a recognised DVO that is a non-local DVO in accordance with this Part as if the DVO were a local DVO.
- (2) A court cannot vary or revoke a non-local DVO if it is a kind of DVO that cannot be varied or revoked by a court in the jurisdiction in which the DVO was made.
- (3) A variation to, or revocation of, a recognised DVO that is done under this Part is not limited in its operation to the Territory.
- (4) This Part does not apply to the variation or revocation of a foreign order that is registered as a registered foreign order in the Territory.

Note for subsection (4)

Foreign orders registered in the Territory (referred to as registered external orders in Chapter 3) can be varied or cancelled under Part 3.3.

- (5) To avoid doubt, if a court varies a recognised DVO that was made in another jurisdiction, the other jurisdiction continues to be treated, for the purpose of this Chapter, as the jurisdiction in which the DVO was made.

103V Application for variation or revocation of recognised non-local DVO

- (1) An application for the variation or revocation of a recognised DVO that is a non-local DVO may be made to a court as if it were an application for variation or revocation of a local DVO by any person who would be able to make the application if the DVO were a local DVO.
- (2) An application:
 - (a) is to be made to a court that would have power to hear the application if the DVO were a local DVO; and
 - (b) is to be made in accordance with any requirements that would apply if the DVO were a local DVO; and

- (1) A court that deals with an application for variation or revocation of a non-local DVO may decide to hear the application or decline to hear the application.
- (2) In making that decision, the court may consider the following matters (to the extent relevant):
- (a) the jurisdiction in which the defendant and the protected person or persons under the DVO generally reside or are employed;
 - (b) any difficulty the respondent to the proceedings may have in attending the proceedings;
 - (c) whether there is sufficient information available to the court in relation to the DVO and the basis on which it was made;
 - (d) whether any proceedings are being taken in respect of an alleged contravention of the DVO and the jurisdiction in which those proceedings are being taken;
 - (e) the practicality of the applicant (if not the defendant under the DVO) applying for and obtaining a local DVO against the defendant with similar prohibitions or restrictions;
 - (f) the impact of the application on children;
 - (g) any other matters the court considers relevant.
- (3) Without limiting the court's power to decline to hear an application, the court may decline to hear the application if the court is satisfied that there has been no material change in the circumstances on which the making of the order was based and that the application is in the nature of an appeal against the order.
- (4) For the purposes of exercising its functions under this Part, a court may have regard to any information that the court considers relevant about the making or variation of a DVO that is provided by an issuing authority of any other jurisdiction.

Note for subsection (4)

Part 3A.4 enables the court to obtain information about DVOs from other jurisdictions.

- (5) A court must refuse to hear an application made by the defendant during any period in which, under the law of the issuing jurisdiction for the DVO, the defendant is not entitled to apply for the variation or revocation of the DVO in the issuing jurisdiction.

- (6) In this section:

- (2) An issuing authority of the Territory that makes, varies or revokes a DVO must provide to a local or interstate law enforcement agency any information about the DVO that the law enforcement agency reasonably requests for the purpose of exercising its law enforcement functions.
