(2) Section 284 of the Health Practitioner Regulation National Law (NT) (other than section 284(1)(a)) applies in relation to the practise under subsection (1).

(3) A midwife who intends to practise, or practises, private midwifery must notify the Chief Health Officer, in writing and in accordance with any requirement prescribed by a law of the Territory:

(a) before practising private midwifery for the first time, of the midwife's intention to do so; and

(b) on or before 31 May in every year, if the midwife intends to continue practising private midwifery at any time during the subsequent financial year.

(4) A midwife must give the Chief Health Officer a written report in relation to a private midwifery case, prepared in accordance with any requirement prescribed by a law of the Territory and in any event not later than 60 days after the end of the case.
