- (2) The Director-General has power to do all things necessary or convenient to be done for or in connection with or incidental to the performance of the Director-General's functions.
- (3) The following principles are to be considered when the Director-General is performing the Director-General's functions:
 - (a) minimum regulatory intervention by government;
 - (b) maximum cooperation between industry and government;
 - (c) performance-based risk management controls;
 - (d) proactive and competitive industry positioning;
 - (e) long term viability of the gaming industry;
 - (f) a balanced approach to problem gambling.

20 Inspectors

- (1) The Director-General may appoint a public sector employee to be an inspector for the purposes of this Act.
- (2) An inspector appointed under this section may exercise such powers and perform such functions as are given by or under this Act.
- (3) The Director-General shall issue to an inspector appointed under this section an identity card containing a photograph and the signature of the inspector verified by the signature of the Director-General.
- (4) An inspector appointed under this section whose appointment is terminated shall surrender to the Director-General the identity card issued to the person under subsection (3).

Maximum penalty: 40 penalty units.

- (5) An inspector appointed under this section shall, when exercising or performing any of his or her powers or functions, produce the identity card issued to the inspector under subsection (3) to a person who questions the right of the inspector to exercise the power or perform the function.
- (6) The production by an inspector of an identity card issued under subsection (3) shall, until the contrary is proved, be sufficient authority for the inspector to do any thing which the inspector is authorised to do by or under this Act.
- (7) An inspector appointed under this section may, while lawfully exercising a power or performing a function, be accompanied by a person (including a member of a professional body, a person authorised by the Director-General, a tradesman or a person expert or experienced in a particular field of endeavour) and may, if the inspector reasonably believes it is necessary in the circumstances, request a person to assist the inspector.
- (8) A person assisting an inspector under subsection (7) has and may exercise all the powers of an inspector appointed under this section as are reasonably necessary for the purpose and is to be taken to be an employee of the Territory.

21 Authorised persons

- (1) The Director-General may, in writing, appoint a person who is not a public sector employee to be an authorised person for the purposes of this Act.

- (2) An authorised person may exercise the powers and perform the functions of an inspector that are specified in the appointment.
- (3) In exercising a power or performing a function under this Act, an authorised person:
 - (a) is subject to the direction and control of the Director-General; and
 - (b) is to be taken to be an employee of the Territory.
- (4) The Director-General must issue to an authorised person an identity card containing a photograph and the signature of the person verified by the signature of the Director-General.
- (5) An authorised person whose appointment is terminated must surrender to the Director-General the identity card issued to the person under subsection (4).

Maximum penalty: 50 penalty units.
- (6) An authorised person must, when exercising or performing any of his or her powers or functions, produce the identity card issued to the person under subsection (4) to a person who questions the right of the person to exercise the power or perform the function.
- (7) The production by an authorised person of an identity card issued under subsection (4) is, until the contrary is proved, to be taken to be sufficient authority for the person to do any thing which the person is authorised to do by or under this Act.

22 Secrecy

- (1) Subject to this section, a person who is or has been engaged in the administration or enforcement of this Act must not, either directly or indirectly, except for the purposes of this Act:
 - (a) make a record of, or communicate to a person, information concerning the affairs of another person acquired by the person under this Act by reason of that employment; or
 - (b) produce to a person or permit a person to have access to a document furnished to the person for the purposes of this Act.

Maximum penalty: 85 penalty units or imprisonment for 2 years.

- (2) Nothing in this section prevents a person to whom it applies from disclosing information obtained under this Act, where:
- (a) the person from whom it was obtained consents to the disclosure;
 - (b) the disclosure is to:
 - (i) a member of the Police Force;
 - (ii) a person who is employed by a State or another Territory of the Commonwealth to administer an Act in that State or Territory regulating the operations of casinos or gaming;
 - (iia) a person who is employed to administer a law in force in another country that regulates the operations of casinos or gaming in that country;
 - (iii) the Auditor-General for the purposes of performing functions or exercising powers imposed or conferred on the Auditor-General by or under the Audit Act 1995 or any other Act, or prevents the Auditor-General from disclosing that information or publishing that document if the disclosure or publication does not directly or indirectly divulge information identifying the affairs of a particular person; or
 - (iv) the Commissioner, within the meaning of the Taxation Administration Act 2007, for the purposes of performing functions or exercising powers imposed or conferred on the Commissioner by or under the Taxation Administration Act 2007 or any other Act, or prevents the Commissioner from disclosing that information or publishing that document if the disclosure or publication does not directly or indirectly divulge information identifying the affairs of a particular person; or
 - (c) the information is about:
 - (i) the number of gaming machines on any licensed premises;
 - (ii) the performance of gaming machines on any licensed premises; or
 - (iii) the profit distribution of a club.
- (3) A person to whom this section applies shall not be required to produce in court any document connected with the administration or execution of this Act in the person's custody in the course of his or her employment or to divulge or communicate to a court any matter or thing coming under the person's notice in the course of employment, unless the production, divulgence, communication or publication is made:

- (a) with the consent of the person from whom the information or documentation was obtained;
- (b) in connection with the administration or execution of this Act; or
- (c) for the purposes of legal proceedings arising out of this Act or of a report of such proceedings.

22A Recognition of interstate matters by Director-General

- (1) Where the Director-General:
 - (a) has power under this Act or the Regulations to take an action or to make, grant or issue an instrument (a Territory action or instrument); and
 - (b) is satisfied that an action taken, or an instrument made, granted or issued, under a corresponding law (an interstate action or instrument) is equivalent to the Territory action or instrument, the Director-General may recognise the interstate action or instrument for the purposes of this Act.

- (2) Where an interstate action or instrument is recognised under subsection (1), this Act and the Regulations apply (with the necessary changes) in relation to the interstate action or instrument as if it were the Territory action or instrument to which it is equivalent.
- (3) In determining whether an interstate action or instrument is equivalent to a Territory action or instrument, the Director-General may have regard to the matters that the Director-General considers relevant.
- (4) Where:
 - (a) the Director-General has recognised an interstate action or instrument for the purposes of this Act; and
 - (b) the interstate action or instrument is altered, amended or varied, or is revoked or ceases to be in force, under the corresponding law, the Director-General may review the decision to recognise the interstate action or instrument and may:

- (c) where the interstate action or instrument is altered, amended or varied – recognise the interstate action or instrument as altered, amended or varied or revoke the decision to recognise the interstate action or instrument; or
 - (d) where the interstate action or instrument is revoked or ceases to have effect – revoke the decision to recognise the interstate action or instrument.
- (5) Subsections (1), (2) and (3) apply (with the necessary changes) in relation to an interstate action or instrument that is reviewed under subsection (4).
- (6) Where the Director-General is satisfied that:
- (a) a person has complied with certain requirements under a corresponding law; and
 - (b) those requirements are equivalent to requirements imposed on the person by or in relation to the Director-General under this Act or the Regulations, the Director-General may waive compliance by the person with the requirements under this Act or the Regulations.

- (7) Where:
- (a) the Director-General has waived compliance with requirements under this Act or the Regulations under subsection (6); and
 - (b) those requirements, or the requirements under the corresponding law that the Director-General determined for the purposes of the waiver were equivalent to those requirements, are altered, amended or varied or are repealed and replaced or are repealed without replacement, the Director-General may revoke the waiver.

- (8) In this section:

corresponding law means a law of a State or another Territory of the Commonwealth that corresponds with provisions of this Act.

Part 2A Restrictions on gaming machine numbers

22B Power to restrict gaming machine numbers

- (1) Restrictions may be imposed by regulation on gaming machine numbers.
- (2) In particular, the regulations may:
 - (a) restrict the aggregate number of gaming machines authorised for use under gaming machine licences in the Territory to a maximum number fixed in, or determined in accordance with, the regulations; or
 - (b) restrict the aggregate number of gaming machines authorised for use under gaming machine licences in a particular part of the Territory to a maximum number fixed in, or determined in accordance with, the regulations; or
 - (c) impose a restriction of any other kind on gaming machine numbers; or
 - (d) impose any combination of restrictions on gaming machine numbers.
- (3) The first regulations to be made under this section may operate retrospectively from the date this section is taken to have commenced.

22C Certain applications to be summarily rejected

Despite any other provision of this Act, if the grant of an application for a gaming machine licence, or for an increase in the number of gaming machines authorised for use under a gaming machine licence, would result in contravention of a restriction imposed under this Part, the Director-General must reject the application without further inquiry.

Part 3 Gaming machine licences

Division 1 Licensed gaming lawful

23 Gaming lawful and does not constitute nuisance

- (1) Notwithstanding any other Act or law, gaming and the conduct of gaming on licensed premises under this Act is lawful.

 - (B) the proportion that the aggregate of the allocations or distributions referred to in subparagraph (ii)(C) and (D) bears to the aggregate of the allocations or distributions referred to in subparagraph (ii)(B), (C) and (D);

- (iv) a statement of:
 - (A) the proportion that the number of full members of the club bears to the total number of members of the club; and
 - (B) the proportion that the number of members of the club who are not full members bears to the total number of members of the club; and
- (v) a statement to the effect that the club's constitution or other incorporating documents or, if the applicant is a federation of clubs, the constitution or other incorporating documents of each constituent club do not prohibit, prevent or impede an allocation or distribution referred to in subparagraph (ii)(C) or (D);
- (n) shall contain or be accompanied by such other information, records, reports, documents and writings relating to the application and the applicant as are determined by the Director-General;
- (p) shall be forwarded to or lodged with the Director-General; and
- (q) must be accompanied by:
 - (i) the prescribed fee; and
 - (ii) the prescribed levy for each gaming machine that the applicant seeks to have authorised for use under the licence.

24A Notice of application

- (1) An applicant for a gaming machine licence must, within 28 days of lodging the application, publish a notice that the application has been made:
 - (a) in a newspaper or newspapers nominated by the Director-General; and
 - (b) in any other manner the Director-General considers suitable to publicise the application.
- (2) The notice must:
 - (a) include a description in sufficient detail to identify the location of the premises to which the application relates;

- (b) specify the number of gaming machines that the applicant seeks to have authorised for use under the gaming machine licence;
- (c) contain details of where community impact information may be obtained;
- (d) contain a statement that a person may make a written submission to the Director-General on the application within 30 days of the notice being first published in a newspaper;
- (e) contain any other particulars determined by the Director-General; and
- (f) be not less than a size determined by the Director-General.

25 Consideration of application

- (1) On receiving an application for a gaming machine licence, and compliance by the applicant with this Part, the Director-General shall initiate and have followed through such investigations as the Director-General considers are necessary in relation to the application.
- (3) The Director-General must consider the application and anything accompanying it together with the results of investigations made under subsection (1) and any submissions received under section 24A and make an assessment of:
 - (a) the suitability of the premises to which the application relates having regard to the size, layout and facilities of the premises;
 - (b) the suitability of the premises to which the application relates having regard to the primary activity conducted at the premises;
 - (c) the suitability of the location to which the application relates having regard to the population of the local area, the proximity of the premises to other gaming venues and the proximity of the premises to sensitive areas such as schools, shopping centres, other community congregation facilities, welfare agencies, banks and pawn brokers;
 - (d) the appropriateness of problem gambling risk management and responsible gambling strategies;
 - (e) economic impact of the proposal including contribution to the community, employment creation and significance or reliance of the venue to or on tourism;

- (f) if the applicant is a natural person – the financial stability, general reputation and character of the applicant;
 - (g) if the applicant is a body corporate – the business reputation and financial stability of the body corporate and the general reputation and character of the secretary and executive officers of the body corporate;
 - (h) if the applicant is a federation of clubs – the business reputation and financial stability of each constituent club and the general reputation and character of the secretary and executive officers of each constituent club;
 - (i) whether the applicant is a fit and proper person to hold a licence;
 - (j) if a person is referred to in the affidavit under section 44 – whether that person is a fit and proper person to be an associate of a licensee;
 - (k) if the Director-General considers it appropriate – whether any other associate of the applicant is a fit and proper person to be an associate of a licensee; and
 - (l) any other matter that the Director-General considers necessary.
- (3A) In assessing whether an applicant is a fit and proper person to be a licensee, the Director-General must have regard to the matters that are prescribed (if any).
- (4) Where the Director-General considers that a proposed location indicated in the plan referred to in section 24(3)(g) is unsuitable for the installation of gaming machines, the Director-General shall:
- (a) advise the applicant, in writing, accordingly;
 - (b) return the plan of the premises to the applicant; and
 - (c) request the applicant to amend and resubmit the plan,
- as often as is necessary to satisfy the Director-General's requirements.
- (5) If an applicant, within the time specified in the last request made under subsection (4), fails to amend and resubmit the plan, the Director-General shall not take any further action in respect of the application.

- (6) The Director-General may require an applicant, or an associate of an applicant, to submit such additional information or material as the Director-General considers is necessary in order to make a decision or determination under this section.
- (7) Where the Director-General, on consideration of an application under this section, considers that it should not be granted or proposes to determine the number of gaming machines to be authorised for use under the licence be less than the number requested in the application:
 - (a) the Director-General shall defer making a decision in respect of the application or a determination in respect of the number of gaming machines to be authorised for use; and
 - (b) the Director-General shall give written notice to the applicant and invite the applicant to submit, within such time as is specified in the notice, such additional information or material in support of the application or for the number of gaming machines requested in the application as the applicant thinks fit.
- (8) Any additional information or material submitted under subsection (6) or (7) shall be considered in making the decision or determination.
- (8A) In determining an application for a gaming machine licence by a club, the Director-General must have regard to the improvements to the amenity of its neighbourhood that the club will make, or proposes to make, if the licence is granted.
- (9) The Director-General shall not grant a gaming machine licence if:
 - (a) in the case of an application by a natural person, the applicant has not attained the age of 18 years;
 - (b) in the case of an application by a body corporate, the secretary or any executive officer of the body corporate has not attained the age of 18 years; or
 - (c) the Director-General considers that the installation and use of gaming machines on the premises to which the application relates is likely to affect adversely:
 - (i) the nature or character of the premises; or
 - (ii) the general use of the premises or the enjoyment of persons using the premises.

- (10) The Director-General shall not grant a gaming machine licence to a club if the Director-General considers:
- (a) that the club, including a voluntary association of persons from which it was formed:
 - (i) has not been operating for at least 2 years before the application was made; or
 - (ii) has not, during the whole of that period, been pursuing its objects or purposes in good faith;
 - (b) that payments for the rental or lease of the club's licensed premises are unreasonable;
 - (c) if a lease, agreement or arrangement made by the club provides that a person or voluntary association of persons is entitled to receive, or may receive, a payment, benefit or advantage during, or at the end of, the lease, agreement or arrangement, that the provision is unreasonable;
 - (d) if members of the executive, governing or management body (however described) of the club are required to be nominated, or may be nominated, by a person who is not a member of the club, or by a voluntary association of persons, that this is not in the best interests of the club's members;
 - (e) if the club does not own the club's licensed premises and an executive officer or employee of the club is also the lessor, or an associate of the lessor, of the club, that this is not in the best interests of the club's members; or
 - (f) if an executive officer or employee of the club is a creditor, or an associate of a creditor, of the club, that this is not in the best interests of the club's members.
- (11) Subsection (10)(a) does not apply if the Director-General considers that granting the application:
- (a) is reasonable because of the club's contractual commitments made in pursuing its objects or purposes;
 - (b) is necessary to meet the reasonable gaming requirements of the club's members; and/or
 - (c) is in the public interest.
- (12) Subject to this section, the Director-General shall determine the number of gaming machines authorised for use under the licence.

- (13) In determining the number of gaming machines under subsection (12), the Director-General shall have regard to:
- (a) the number of gaming machines sought in the application made under section 24;
 - (c) the hours and days when the premises are open for the sale of liquor;
 - (d) in the case of a club, the number of members of the club;
 - (e) the size, layout and facilities of the premises to which the application relates;
 - (f) the size and layout of the proposed gaming machine areas;
 - (g) the anticipated level of gaming on the premises; and
 - (h) such other matters as the Director-General considers are relevant.
- (14) The number of gaming machines determined under subsection (12):
- (a) is not to be greater than the number sought in the application or the maximum number prescribed for the category of licensed premises to which the licensed premises the subject of the application belongs; and
 - (b) is not to result in contravention of a restriction imposed under Part 2A.
- (15) The Director-General shall, as soon as practicable after a decision is made on the application, give the applicant written notice of:
- (a) the decision; and
 - (b) if the application is refused, the reasons for the refusal.
- (16) On the grant of a gaming machine licence, the gaming machine areas are those locations on licensed premises indicated in the plan referred to in section 24(3)(g) or that plan as last amended and resubmitted under subsection (4).

26 Clubs may be restricted to only one gaming machine licence

If a club is a licensee, the Director-General shall not grant an application by the club for another gaming machine licence (new licence) unless:

- (a) the Director-General considers that the benefits to be offered to members of the club at the premises for which the new licence is sought (new premises) are distinct in nature to the benefits offered to the members at the existing licensed premises of the club (existing premises);
- (b) the new premises are located in close proximity to the existing premises; and
- (c) the Director-General is satisfied that:
 - (i) it is in the best interests of the club's members that the new licence be granted; and
 - (ii) the granting of the new licence is not contrary to the public interest.

27 Changes in circumstances of applicants and licensees

- (1) Where a person applies for a licence under this Part and, before the application is granted or refused, there is:
 - (a) a change in the information in, or accompanying, the application or in a notice under this subsection; or
 - (b) any other change in the circumstances of the applicant that may affect the decision whether to grant or refuse the application,

the applicant must give the Director-General written notice of the change within 7 days after the change.

Maximum penalty: 500 penalty units or imprisonment for 12 months.

- (2) If, after the grant of a gaming machine licence, an event referred to in subsection (3) happens, the licensee shall, not later than 7 days after the event happening, give the Director-General written notice of the event.

Maximum penalty: 500 penalty units or imprisonment for 12 months.

- (3) Events required to be notified under this section are:
- (a) the licensee changes name or address;
 - (b) the licensee is convicted of:
 - (i) an indictable offence; or
 - (ii) an offence against this Act;
 - (c) if the licensee is a natural person, the licensee fails to discharge his or her financial commitments, becomes bankrupt or compounds with creditors or otherwise takes advantage of the laws about bankruptcy; or
 - (d) if the holder is a body corporate, the licensee is the subject of a winding-up (whether voluntarily or under a court order), appointment of a liquidator, appointment of a receiver or receiver and manager or is placed under judicial management or administration.

28 Issue of gaming machine licences

- (1) Where the Director-General grants a gaming machine licence the Director-General shall issue the licence.
- (2) The gaming machine licence shall be in the form determined by the Director-General and shall specify:
- (a) the name of the licensee;
 - (c) the conditions imposed under section 33(1)(b); and
 - (d) such other particulars as determined by the Director-General.

29 Schedule of gaming machines

- (1) The Director-General shall, in respect of licensed premises, issue to the licensee a schedule of gaming machines.
- (2) A schedule of gaming machines shall:
- (a) identify the gaming machine licence and the licensed premises to which it applies;
 - (b) specify the number of gaming machines and the number of gaming machines of each betting unit authorised for use under the licence in respect of the licensed premises;
 - (ba) specify the identification number issued by the Director-General under section 135 for each gaming machine authorised for use under the licence in respect of the licensed premises or required to be stored by the licensee under section 83; and

(c) specify the date from which the schedule is to apply.

(3) Where:

(a) the accuracy of a schedule of gaming machines is affected by anything done by the Director-General under section 39 or 40; or

(b) the Director-General is satisfied that a schedule of gaming machines has been damaged, lost or destroyed, the Director-General shall issue another schedule of gaming machines to the licensee.

(4) The issue of a schedule of gaming machines under subsection (3) cancels the previous schedule of gaming machines on and from the date specified in the schedule and is taken for all purposes to be the schedule of gaming machines for the licensed premises.

(5) A licensee shall, not later than 14 days after receiving a schedule of gaming machines issued under subsection (3), deliver the cancelled schedule of gaming machines to the Director-General.

Maximum penalty: 40 penalty units.

30 Gaming machine licences and schedules to be displayed

A licensee shall display the licensee's gaming machine licence and the schedule of gaming machines in a conspicuous position on the licensed premises to which the licence and schedule relate.

Maximum penalty: 40 penalty units.

31 Issue of copy of gaming machine licence

(1) Where the Director-General is satisfied that a gaming machine licence has been damaged, lost or destroyed, the Director-General may, on payment of the prescribed fee, issue to the licensee a copy of the licence.

(2) A copy of a gaming machine licence issued under subsection (1) has, for all purposes, the same effect as the original licence of which it is a copy.

- (5) The Director-General shall, on receiving a gaming machine licence under subsection (4), endorse the licence with the condition imposed or varied and return the licence to the licensee.

35 Payment and recovery of amounts

- (1) All amounts received by the Director-General under conditions referred to in section 33 shall be paid into the Central Holding Authority.
- (2) All amounts payable by a licensee under conditions of the gaming machine licence that remain unpaid may be recovered as a debt due and payable by the licensee to the Territory.

36 Community contribution by clubs

- (1) The Minister may issue guidelines about the contribution the Minister expects clubs that are licensees will make to the community.
- (1A) The guidelines may specify the following:
- (a) how the contribution is to be calculated;
 - (b) the type and nature of contributions that are of benefit to the community;
 - (c) the reporting, accountability and acquittal process that a licensee must use;
 - (d) the minimum rate of contribution.
- (2) The Director-General may require a club that is a licensee to provide the Director-General with the information the Director-General considers appropriate to assess the contribution that the club is making to the community and, in particular, its contribution through gaming machines.
- (3) A club must comply with a requirement under subsection (2).

Maximum penalty: 100 penalty units.

proposed transferee, in relation to the transfer of a transferable licence, means the person to whom it is proposed to transfer the licence.

transfer application, see section 37C(1).

transferable licence means a gaming machine licence in respect of premises that are:

- (a) premises for which a hotel liquor licence is in force; or
- (b) premises for which a liquor licence that is a prescribed liquor licence for section 24(1)(c) is in force.

37A Gaming machine licence held by club cannot be transferred

A gaming machine licence that is not a transferable licence cannot be transferred to another person.

37B Transfer of gaming machine licence for hotels etc.

A transferable licence may be transferred from the licensee to another person if the transfer is authorised by the Director-General under this Division.

37C Application for transfer of gaming machine licence

- (1) An application for the transfer of a transferable licence (a transfer application) must:
 - (a) be made to the Director-General by the proposed transferee; and
 - (b) be in the form determined by the Director-General; and
 - (c) include or be accompanied by the information and material mentioned in section 38(1); and
 - (d) be signed or executed in the manner described in section 24(3)(b); and
 - (e) be accompanied by the prescribed fee.
- (2) A transfer application cannot be made unless an application under section 40 of the Liquor Act 1978 for the transfer of the licensee's liquor licence to the proposed transferee (the Liquor Act application):
 - (a) has been made and has not been refused by the Director-General; or

(b) is made at the same time as the transfer application.

38 Information and material

- (1) A transfer application must include or be accompanied by the following:
- (a) a copy of the Liquor Act 1978 application or evidence that it has been made;
 - (b) the information or material mentioned in section 24(3)(c), (d), (j) and (ka);
 - (c) a community impact analysis if required by section 38A;
 - (d) details of the proposed transferee's problem gambling risk management and responsible gambling strategies;
 - (e) an affidavit under section 44;
 - (f) any other information or material required by the Director-General.
- (2) The Director-General may require the applicant, or an associate of the applicant, to submit any additional information or material the Director-General considers is necessary in order to determine the transfer application.
- (3) Section 27(1) applies in relation to the applicant as if the transfer application were an application for a licence.

38A Community impact analysis

- (1) A transfer application must be accompanied by a community impact analysis if:
- (a) the guidelines published by the Director-General under section 161A require the application to be accompanied by a community impact analysis; or
 - (b) the Director-General requires the application to be accompanied by a community impact analysis.
- (2) A community impact analysis must be in the form approved by the Director-General and must provide the following details:
- (a) the appropriateness of problem gambling risk management and responsible gambling strategies;

- (b) economic impact of the proposal including contribution to the community, employment creation and significance or reliance of the venue to or on tourism.

38B Consideration of transfer application

- (1) For the purpose of considering a transfer application, the Director-General may initiate and have followed through the investigations the Director-General considers are necessary.
- (2) In considering the application the Director-General must have regard to:
 - (a) the matters mentioned in section 25(3)(d) to (g) and (i) to (k); and
 - (b) any matters prescribed for section 25(3A); and
 - (c) the community impact analysis if required by section 38A; and
 - (d) any other matters the Director-General considers relevant.

38C Relationship with Liquor Act 1978 application

- (1) The Director-General must not determine a transfer application until the applicant's Liquor Act 1978 application has been determined.
- (2) If the Liquor Act 1978 application is refused, the Director-General must:
 - (a) if the applicant applies to the Civil and Administrative Tribunal under section 120ZC of the Liquor Act 1978 for a review of the decision – defer consideration of the transfer application until the review, and any subsequent appeal, has been completed; or
 - (b) if the time allowed for applying for a review expires and the applicant has not applied for a review – refuse the transfer application.

39 Transferee or executive officers must be at least 18 years of age

The Director-General must refuse a transfer application:

- (a) if the proposed transferee is an individual and has not attained the age of 18 years; or

- (b) if the proposed transferee is a body corporate and the secretary or any executive officer of the body corporate has not attained the age of 18 years.

39A Determination of transfer application

- (1) After considering a transfer application the Director-General must:
 - (a) grant the application and authorise the transfer of the licence; or
 - (b) refuse the application.
- (2) As soon as practicable after making the decision, the Director-General must give the applicant written notice of:
 - (a) the decision; and
 - (b) if the application is refused, the reasons for the refusal.
- (3) If the Director-General authorises the transfer of the licence, the Director-General must issue to the applicant a replacement licence updated to show:
 - (a) the applicant as the licensee; and
 - (b) the date on which the transfer takes effect; and
 - (c) the conditions imposed under section 33(1)(b); and
 - (d) any other changes made to the terms and conditions of the licence.
- (4) The replacement licence must comply with section 28 and include the schedule mentioned in section 29 updated as necessary.

Note for section 39A

When determining an application under this Division, the Director-General may also exercise any of the Director-General's other powers in relation to the licence including, for example, the power under section 34 to impose or vary conditions and the powers under Part 3, Division 3 to change the number of gaming machines authorised for use under the licence.

39B Effect of transfer

- (1) If the Director-General authorises the transfer of a transferable licence, on the date specified in the replacement licence under section 39A(3)(b):
 - (a) the proposed transferee becomes the licensee; and

- (b) any other changes mentioned in section 39A(3)(d) take effect.
- (2) The transfer of the licence does not affect the liability of the former licensee in relation to anything that occurred before the transfer date.
- (3) The former licensee must deliver the former licensee's licence to the Director-General not later than 14 days after the transfer takes effect.

Maximum penalty: 40 penalty units.

Division 4 Alteration of gaming machines

40A Director-General may alter gaming machines etc.

- (1) The Director-General:
- (a) on application made by a licensee in the form determined by the Director-General and on payment of the prescribed fee, may approve that a gaming machine; or
- (b) if the Director-General thinks fit to do so, may cause a gaming machine to,
- be altered to effect a change in the game, gaming token denomination or betting unit of the gaming machine.
- (2) The reasonable costs incurred by the Director-General under subsection (1)(b) are to be paid by the licensee whose gaming machine is altered.

Division 5 Number of gaming machines

41 Increase in gaming machines

- (1) A licensee may apply to have the number of gaming machines authorised for use under the licence increased.
- (2) An application under subsection (1):
- (a) shall be made in the form determined by the Director-General and signed or executed in the same way as is specified in section 24(3)(b);
- (b) must specify the number of additional gaming machines that the applicant seeks to have authorised for use under the licence and the total number of gaming machines that would then be on the licensee's licensed premises should the application be granted;

(c) where appropriate, shall be accompanied by an application under section 43;

(ca) if the applicant is a club – must contain details of the extent to which the club's profits that have been allocated or distributed:

(i) toward development of the club's neighbourhood; and

(ii) as donations to or funding for community, recreation or service organisations operating in the club's neighbourhood, and details of the extent to which the allocation or distribution would be increased or otherwise varied if the Director-General were to grant the application;

(cb) if section 41A applies – must be accompanied by a community impact analysis;

(d) shall contain or be accompanied by such other information, records, reports, documents and writings relating to the application or the licensee as are determined by the Director-General;

(e) shall be forwarded to or lodged with the Director-General; and

(f) must be accompanied by:

(i) the prescribed fee; and

(ii) the prescribed levy for each additional gaming machine that the applicant seeks to have authorised for use under the licence.

(3) The Director-General shall determine whether to grant or refuse to grant the application and, if granted, the increased number of gaming machines authorised for use under the licence.

(4) In determining an application under section (1) the Director-General shall have regard to:

(a) the increased number of gaming machines that the applicant seeks to have authorised for use under the gaming machine licence;

(b) if section 41A applies – the community impact analysis;

(ba) if section 41B applies – any submissions received under the section;

- (c) the gross monthly profit of existing gaming machines operated on the premises;
 - (d) the hours and days when the premises are open for the sale of liquor;
 - (e) the size, layout and facilities of the premises together with any proposed modification or relocation of the gaming machine areas of the premises; and
 - (f) such other matters as the Director-General considers are relevant.
- (5) If the Director-General increases the number of gaming machines authorised for use under a licence, the number of additional gaming machines authorised must not be greater than the number sought in the application and the total number of gaming machines that would then be on the licensed premises shall not be greater than the maximum number prescribed for the category of licensed premises to which the licensed premises the subject of the application belongs.
- (6) The Director-General may require the licensee to submit such additional information or material as the Director-General considers is necessary in order to make a determination under this section.
- (7) Where the Director-General, on consideration of an application under this section, considers that it should not be granted or proposes to increase the number of gaming machines authorised for use under the licence by a number that is less than that requested in the application:
- (a) the Director-General shall defer making a decision in respect of the application or determining the increase in the number of gaming machines; and
 - (b) the Director-General shall give written notice to the applicant and invite the applicant to submit, within such time as is specified in the notice, such additional information or material in support of the application as the applicant thinks fit.
- (8) Any additional information or material submitted under subsection (6) or (7) shall be considered in making the determination.
- (9) If an application under subsection (1) is refused, the Director-General shall as soon as practicable give the applicant written notice of, and the reasons for, the decision.

41A Community impact analysis

- (1) An application under section 41 must be accompanied by a community impact analysis if:
 - (a) the number of additional gaming machines sought to be authorised for use under the licence is 5 machines or more;
 - (b) the guidelines published by the Director-General under section 161A require the application to be accompanied by a community impact analysis; or
 - (c) the Director-General requires the application to be accompanied by a community impact analysis.
- (2) A community impact analysis must be in the form approved by the Director-General and must provide the following details:
 - (a) the suitability of the premises to which the application relates having regard to the size, layout and facilities of the premises;
 - (b) the suitability of the premises to which the application relates having regard to the primary activity conducted at the premises;
 - (c) the suitability of the location to which the application relates having regard to the population of the local area, the proximity of the premises to other gaming venues and the proximity of the premises to sensitive areas such as schools, shopping centres, other community congregation facilities, welfare agencies, banks and pawn brokers;
 - (d) the appropriateness of problem gambling risk management and responsible gambling strategies;
 - (e) economic impact of the proposal including contribution to the community, employment creation and significance or reliance of the venue to or on tourism.

41B Notice of application

- (1) If section 41A applies, the licensee must, within 28 days of lodging the application under section 41, publish a notice that the application has been made:
 - (a) in a newspaper or newspapers nominated by the Director-General; and
 - (b) in any other manner the Director-General considers suitable to publicise the application.

- (2) The notice must:
- (a) include a description in sufficient detail to identify the location of the premises to which the application relates;
 - (b) contain details of the increased number of gaming machines sought to be authorised for use under the licence;
 - (c) contain details of where community impact information may be obtained;
 - (d) contain a statement that a person may make a written submission to the Director-General on the application within 30 days of the notice being first published in a newspaper;
 - (e) contain any other particulars determined by the Director-General; and
 - (f) be not less than a size determined by the Director-General.

42 Decrease in machines

- (1) The Director-General may determine that the number of gaming machines authorised for use under the licence be decreased by such number as the Director-General thinks fit.
- (1A) The Director-General may do so on an application under subsection (3) or on the Director-General's own initiative.
- (2) If the Director-General makes a determination under subsection (1), the Director-General shall, as soon as practicable after the determination is made, give the licensee written notice of, and the reasons for, the determination.
- (3) An application to the Director-General under this section may be in the form of:
- (a) an application by a licensee that the number of gaming machines authorised for use under the licence be decreased, accompanied, where appropriate by an application under section 43;
 - (b) a written request by the Director of the Fire and Rescue Service or the relevant local government council that the number of gaming machines authorised for use under the licence be decreased; or

- (6) A person to whom a gaming machine is surrendered under subsection (5):
- (a) is authorised to be in possession of the gaming machine in accordance with procedures approved by the Director-General; and
 - (b) must not dispose of the gaming machine except in accordance with procedures approved by the Director-General.

Maximum penalty: 500 penalty units or imprisonment for 5 years.

Division 6 Substitution of premises or change to gaming machine areas

42A Definitions

In this Division:

current premises, see section 42B(1).

substitution application means an application under section 42B(1).

42B Application for substitution of premises

- (1) A licensee may apply to have other premises (the new premises) substituted for the premises specified in the licence (the current premises) as the premises on which the licensee is licensed to conduct gaming.
- (2) The application must:
- (a) be made to the Director-General in the form determined by the Director-General; and
 - (b) include or be accompanied by the information and material mentioned in section 42C; and
 - (c) be signed or executed in the manner described in section 24(3)(b); and
 - (d) be accompanied by the prescribed fee.

- (3) A substitution application cannot be made unless an application under section 46A of the Liquor Act 1978 for the substitution of the new premises for the current premises in the applicant's liquor licence for the current premises (the Liquor Act application):
- (a) has been made and has not been refused by the Director-General; or
 - (b) is made at the same time as the substitution application.
- (4) Before making a substitution application the applicant must comply with section 24A as if the substitution application were an application for a licence for the new premises.

42C Information and material

- (1) A substitution application must include or be accompanied by the following:
- (a) a copy of the Liquor Act 1978 application or evidence that it has been made;
 - (b) the information or material mentioned in section 24(3)(d)(iii), (e), (g), (j), (ka) and (ma);
 - (c) a statutory declaration as mentioned in section 24(3)(h) (read as if subparagraph (i) had been amended to read "that the proposed locations referred to in paragraph (g) are within the new premises");
 - (d) a statement of the number of gaming machines that the applicant seeks to have authorised for use under the licence at the new premises (being not more than the number authorised for use under the licence at the time the application is made);
 - (e) a community impact analysis, subject to section 42D(2);
 - (f) details of the applicant's problem gambling risk management and responsible gambling strategies for the new premises;
 - (g) any other information or material required by the Director-General.
- (2) The Director-General may require the applicant, or an associate of the applicant, to submit any additional information or material the Director-General considers is necessary in order to determine the substitution application.

- (3) Section 27(1) applies in relation to the applicant as if the substitution application were an application for a licence.

42D Community impact analysis

- (1) A community impact analysis for a substitution application must be in the form approved by the Director-General and must provide the following details:
- (a) the suitability of the new premises having regard to the size, layout and facilities of the premises;
 - (b) the suitability of the new premises having regard to the primary activity conducted at the premises;
 - (c) the suitability of the new premises having regard to the population of the local area, the proximity of the premises to other gaming venues and the proximity of the premises to sensitive areas such as schools, shopping centres, other community congregation facilities, welfare agencies, banks and pawn brokers;
 - (d) the appropriateness of problem gambling risk management and responsible gambling strategies;
 - (e) economic impact of the proposal including contribution to the community, employment creation and significance or reliance of the venue to or on tourism.
- (2) The Director-General may exempt an applicant from the requirement to provide a community impact analysis if satisfied that:
- (a) the impact on the community of the new premises being licensed premises will be substantially similar to the impact of the current premises being licensed premises; or
 - (b) there are exceptional circumstances that make it appropriate to not require a community impact analysis.

42E Consideration of substitution application

- (1) For the purpose of considering a substitution application, the Director-General may initiate and have followed through the investigations the Director-General considers are necessary.
- (2) In considering the application the Director-General must have regard to:
- (a) the matters mentioned in section 25(3)(a) to (e); and

- (b) the community impact analysis, unless exempted under section 42D(2); and
 - (c) any submissions received in response to the notice required under section 42B(4); and
 - (d) in relation to the number of gaming machines to be authorised for use under the licence at the new premises:
 - (i) the matters mentioned in section 25(13); and
 - (ii) any submission made under section 42G(1)(b); and
 - (e) any other matters the Director-General considers relevant.
- (3) Section 25(4), (5), (9)(c), (10) and (11) apply in relation to the substitution application as if it were an application for a license.

42F Relationship with Liquor Act 1978 application

- (1) The Director-General must not determine a substitution application until the applicant's Liquor Act 1978 application has been determined.
- (2) If the Liquor Act 1978 application is refused, the Director-General must:
 - (a) if the applicant applies to the Civil and Administrative Tribunal under section 120ZC of the Liquor Act 1978 for a review of the decision – defer consideration of the substitution application until the review, and any subsequent appeal, has been completed; or
 - (b) if the time allowed for applying for a review expires and the applicant has not applied for a review – refuse the substitution application.

42G Decrease in number of gaming machines

- (1) If the Director-General proposes to determine a substitution application as mentioned in section 42H(1)(b), before doing so the Director-General must:
 - (a) advise the applicant by written notice of the proposal; and
 - (b) invite the applicant to make a submission with respect to the proposal within the time as is specified in the notice.
- (2) If a substitution application is granted and the number of machines authorised for use under the licence at the new premises is less than the number authorised immediately before the application was granted, section 42(5) and (6) apply as if the decrease in the number of machines had been effected by a determination under section 42(1).

42H Determination of substitution application

- (1) After considering a substitution application the Director-General must:
 - (a) grant the application and authorise the substitution of premises with the licence authorising for use the number of gaming machines specified in the application; or
 - (b) grant the application and authorise the substitution of premises with the licence authorising for use a number of gaming machines less than that specified in the application; or
 - (c) refuse the application.
- (2) As soon as practicable after making the decision, the Director-General must give the applicant written notice of:
 - (a) the decision; and
 - (b) if the application is granted under subsection (1)(b) or refused – the reasons for the decision.
- (3) If the Director-General authorises the substitution of premises, the Director-General must issue to the applicant a replacement licence updated to show:
 - (a) the new premises as the licenced premises; and
 - (b) the date on which the substitution of premises takes effect; and
 - (c) any other changes made to the terms and conditions of the licence.
- (4) The replacement licence must comply with section 28 and include the schedule mentioned in section 29 updated as necessary.

Note for section 42H

When determining an application under this Division, the Director-General may also exercise any of the Director-General's other powers in relation to the licence including, for example, the power under section 34 to impose or vary conditions and the powers under Part 3, Division 3 to change the number of gaming machines authorised for use under the licence.

42J Effect of substitution

- (1) If the Director-General authorises the substitution of premises, on the date specified in the replacement licence under section 42H(3)(b):
 - (a) the new premises becomes the premises on which the licensee is licensed to conduct gaming; and
 - (b) any other changes mentioned in section 42H(3)(c) take effect.
- (2) The applicant must deliver the applicant's former licence to the Director-General not later than 14 days after the substitution of premises takes effect.

Maximum penalty: 40 penalty units.

43 Modification or relocation of gaming machines areas

- (1) A licensee shall not, without the approval of the Director-General, modify or relocate the gaming machine areas of the licensee's licensed premises.

Maximum penalty: 85 penalty units.

- (2) An application for an approval under subsection (1) shall be accompanied by:
 - (a) a plan of the premises indicating the proposed locations on the premises where it is intended to install the gaming machines; and
 - (b) a statutory declaration declaring the matters referred to in subsection (3).
- (3) A statutory declaration under subsection (2)(b) shall declare that:
 - (a) the proposed locations referred to in subsection (2)(a) are within the premises to which the licensee's liquor licence relates; and
 - (b) the gaming machines installed in the locations will allow:
 - (i) proper cleaning and maintenance of the gaming machines;
 - (ii) unrestricted access to fire exits in a way that complies with the Fire and Emergency Act 1996, the Building Act 1993 and the Regulations made under those Acts; and

- (iii) the proper use of things provided on the premises for safety and security.
- (4) Where the Director-General, on consideration of an application under this section, considers that it should not be granted:
 - (a) the Director-General shall defer making a decision in respect of the application; and
 - (b) the Director-General shall give written notice to the applicant and invite the applicant to submit, within such time as is specified in the notice, such additional information or material in support of the application as the applicant thinks fit.
- (5) Any additional information or material submitted under subsection (4) shall be considered in making the decision.
- (6) Where the Director-General:
 - (a) determines that the number of gaming machines authorised for use under a licence be decreased; or
 - (b) considers that it is necessary for the proper conduct of gaming that the gaming machine areas of licensed premises be modified or relocated, the Director-General shall, by written notice, direct the licensee to modify or relocate the gaming machine areas of the licensee's licensed premises in accordance with the direction.

- (7) A licensee to whom a direction is given under subsection (6) shall not contravene or fail to comply with the direction.

Maximum penalty: 85 penalty units.
- (8) The Director-General may require a licensee who has made an application under this section to submit such information as the Director-General considers appropriate, and the licensee shall comply with the requirement.

Maximum penalty: 85 penalty units.
- (9) The Director-General may, having regard to:
 - (a) the size, layout and facilities of the licensee's licensed premises; and
 - (b) such other matters as the Director-General considers are relevant, grant or refuse to grant an application under subsection (1).

- (10) On and from the date of completion of a modification or relocation approved or directed under this section, the gaming machine areas of the licensed premises are as modified or relocated.
- (11) If an application under this section is refused, the Director-General shall, as soon as practicable after the application is refused, give the applicant written notice of, and the reasons for, the decision.

Division 7 Licensees, associates, beneficial parties etc.

44 Disclosure of influential or beneficial parties

- (1) At the time of making an application for, or for the transfer of, a gaming machine licence, the applicant must forward to or lodge with the Director-General an affidavit made under this section.
- (2) An applicant or licensee who undergoes any change in circumstances in relation to information contained in the last affidavit forwarded or lodged under this section shall, not later than 7 days after the change, forward to or lodge with the Director-General another affidavit under this section.

Maximum penalty: 500 penalty units or imprisonment for 12 months.

- (3) An affidavit under this section shall be made by the applicant or licensee or, where the applicant or licensee is a body corporate, by:
 - (a) the principal executive officer of the body corporate; or
 - (b) if that officer does not have knowledge of the facts, by some other person who has knowledge of the facts and who is authorised by the body corporate to make the affidavit.
- (4) Subject to subsection (5), an affidavit under this section shall be in the form determined by the Director-General and shall disclose:
 - (a) whether or not there is any person (other than, where the applicant or licensee is a body corporate, the secretary, an executive officer, a member or shareholder of the body corporate carrying out the duties or exercising the normal rights the person has as such secretary, executive officer, member or shareholder) who will by any lease, agreement or arrangement be able to influence any decision made:
 - (i) in the case of the applicant or licensee being a natural person, by that person; or

- (ii) in the case of the applicant or licensee being a body corporate, by the body corporate or the secretary or an executive officer of the body corporate, in relation to the conduct of gaming by the applicant or licensee;

- (b) whether or not there is any person other than the applicant or licensee who by any lease, agreement or arrangement (other than a contract, agreement or other arrangement entered into for the purposes of this Act or the Regulations and approved by the Director-General) may expect any benefit from the applicant or licensee in relation to the conduct of gaming by the applicant or licensee;
- (c) if there are any persons able to influence as referred to in paragraph (a) or expect benefit as referred to in paragraph (b):
 - (i) where any such person is a natural person, the person's full name, address and date of birth;
 - (ii) where any such person is a body corporate other than a club, the name of the body corporate and the full name, address and date of birth of the secretary and each executive officer of the body corporate;
 - (iii) where any such person is a club or other voluntary association of persons:
 - (A) the name of the club or voluntary association of persons;
 - (B) the full name, address and date of birth of the secretary and each executive officer of the club or voluntary association of persons;
 - (C) particulars of any liquor licence held by the club or voluntary association of persons; and
 - (D) details of the objectives (if any) of the club or voluntary association of persons and whether or not the club is a non-proprietary club or the voluntary association of persons conducts its business in the same way as a non-proprietary club; and
 - (iv) full and correct particulars of the lease, agreement or arrangement; and

- (d) in the case of the applicant or licensee being a body corporate other than a club, the names of all persons who have a substantial holding (within the meaning of section 9 of the Corporations Act 2001) in the body corporate.
- (5) An affidavit under this section need not disclose anything that is prescribed for the purposes of this subsection.

45 Investigation of licensees and associates

- (1) At any time while a gaming machine licence is in force the Director-General may cause to be undertaken such investigations as the Director-General considers are necessary in order to be satisfied that the licensee or any associate of the licensee is a fit and proper person to be a licensee or an associate of the licensee.
- (2) The Director-General may require a person to whom investigations under subsection (1) relate to submit such information or material as the Director-General considers necessary.
- (3) A person shall not contravene or fail to comply with a requirement of the Director-General given under subsection (2).

Maximum penalty: 85 penalty units or imprisonment for 2 years.

46 Cessation or commencement of executive officer or secretary

If an applicant under section 24 or 37C or a licensee is a body corporate, the body corporate shall notify the Director-General, in the form determined by the Director-General:

- (a) that a person has ceased to be the secretary or an executive officer of the body corporate;
- (b) that a person has commenced as the secretary or an executive officer of the body corporate; and
- (c) the full name, address and date of birth of any person referred to in paragraph (b), not later than 7 days after the cessation or commencement.

Maximum penalty: 85 penalty units or imprisonment for 2 years.

Division 8 Surrender, suspension and cancellation

47 Surrender of gaming machine licences

(1) A licensee may surrender the licensee's gaming machine licence by forwarding to or lodging with the Director-General the licence and a notification in the form determined by the Director-General .

(1A) As soon as the licensee's gaming machine licence and the notification is forwarded to or lodged with the Director-General, the licensee must cease operating all gaming machines on the licensee's licensed premises.

Maximum penalty: 2 500 penalty units.

(2) A notification under subsection (1) shall be signed or executed in the same way as that specified for an application made under section 24(3)(b).

(3) The Director-General may require a licensee surrendering a gaming machine licence under this subsection to submit such information or material in relation to the licence as the Director-General thinks fit.

(4) The licensee shall not contravene or fail to comply with a requirement of the Director-General given under subsection (3).

Maximum penalty: 85 penalty units.

(5) The Director-General must, as soon as practicable after receiving a gaming machine licence and notification under subsection (1):

(a) remove all gaming machines from the licensee's licensed premises; or

(b) approve the method of removing the gaming machines and the method of disposing of those machines.

(6) The surrender of a gaming licence takes effect when it is accepted by the Director-General or at a later time determined by the Director-General.

(7) Before accepting the surrender of a gaming machine licence, the Director-General must consider whether the licensee has complied with all financial and legal obligations under the licence and may refuse to accept the surrender until all of those obligations have been complied with.

48 Cancellation or suspension of gaming machine licences in certain circumstances

If the liquor licence for premises licensed under this Act is:

- (a) cancelled, transferred or surrendered, the gaming machine licence for the premises is cancelled; or
- (b) suspended, the gaming machine licence for the premises is suspended for the same period as the liquor licence is suspended.

49 Cancellation, suspension, etc. of gaming machine licences

(1) A ground for cancellation or suspension of a gaming machine licence arises if:

- (a) the licensee:
 - (i) ceases to use the licensed premises for the conduct of gaming;
 - (ii) obtained the licence on false, erroneous or misleading information;
 - (iii) acquires, installs, uses or otherwise deals with a gaming machine in contravention of this Act;
 - (iv) fails to comply with a provision of Part 8;
 - (v) fails to comply with a condition to which the licence is subject;
 - (vi) fails to forward or lodge an affidavit in accordance with section 44(2); or
 - (vii) fails to comply with section 39(5)(a);
- (b) the licensee or an associate of the licensee:
 - (i) is convicted of an indictable offence;
 - (ii) is convicted of an offence against this Act;
 - (iii) fails to discharge the licensee's or associate's financial commitments, becomes bankrupt or compounds with creditors or otherwise takes advantage of the laws in force for the time being relating to bankruptcy;

- (iv) is the subject of a winding-up, either voluntarily or under a court order, appointment of a liquidator, appointment of a receiver or receiver and manager or is placed under judicial management or administration;
 - (v) fails to comply with a written direction given to the licensee or associate under this Act; or
 - (vi) fails, when required, to supply information or material to the Director-General or an inspector, or supplies information or material that to the knowledge of the licensee or associate is false, erroneous or misleading in a material particular; or
- (c) the Director-General:
- (i) considers that the licensee has not made all reasonable efforts to comply with section 112;
 - (ii) considers that the licensee has not made all reasonable efforts to enforce rules required to be enforced under section 90;
 - (iii) considers that the licensee or an associate of the licensee is not a fit and proper person in respect of financial stability, general reputation, character or business reputation to be a licensee or to be an associate of the licensee;
 - (iv) becomes aware of any information or matter that, had it been known when the application for the licence, or for the transfer of the licence to the licensee, was being considered, may have resulted in the application being refused;
 - (v) considers, if the licensee is a club:
 - (A) that the club has ceased to be a non-proprietary club;
 - (B) that the proceeds from the conduct of gaming are being applied in a way that does not promote the objectives of the club;
 - (C) that payments for the rental or lease of the club's licensed premises are unreasonable;
 - (D) if a lease, agreement or arrangement made by the club provides that a person or voluntary association of persons is entitled to receive, or may receive, a payment, benefit or advantage during, or at the end of, the lease, agreement or arrangement, that the provision is unreasonable;

- (E) if members of the executive, governing or management body (however described) of the club are required to be nominated, or may be nominated, by a person who is not a member of the club or by a voluntary association of persons, that this is not in the best interests of the club's members;
- (F) if the club does not own the club's licensed premises and an executive officer or employee of the club is also the lessor, or an associate of the lessor, of the club, that this is not in the best interests of the club's members;
- (G) if an executive officer or employee of the club is a creditor, or an associate of a creditor, of the club, that this is not in the best interests of the club's members;
- (H) that payments made under the club's objects are not in the best interests of the club's members;
- (J) that payments made for things purchased by the club are unreasonable;
- (K) that salaries, wages, allowances or benefits paid or payable by the club to the club's executive officers or employees are unreasonable; or
- (M) that payments for services provided to the club are unreasonable or are on the basis of a percentage of the club's income, profits or earnings from the conduct of gaming or spending related to the conduct of gaming;

- (vi) considers that there has been an unauthorised interference (whether by the licensee or someone else) with an electronic monitoring system installed on the licensee's licensed premises; or
- (vii) considers that the financial circumstances of the licensee have changed since the granting of the licence and that the licensee is no longer financially viable.

- (2) Where the Director-General is of the opinion that any act, omission or other thing that constitutes a ground under subsection (1) is of such a serious nature that the integrity of gaming or the conduct of gaming may be jeopardised or the public interest may be adversely affected, the Director-General shall issue to the licensee a written notice to show cause why action should not be taken with respect to the gaming machine licence under this section.

- (4) The Director-General shall issue a copy of a notice issued under this section to any other person whom the Director-General considers has an interest in the gaming machine licence.
- (5) A notice issued under this section shall set out the grounds giving rise to its issue and shall specify a date, being not earlier than 7 days after its issue, on or before which cause is required to be shown.
- (6) Subject to this section, a notice under this section shall be in such form and contain such matters as the Director-General thinks fit.
- (7) A person to whom a notice under this section is issued may give a written answer to the Director-General at any time not later than the date specified in the notice.
- (8) A person to whom a copy of a notice is issued under subsection (4) may make such submissions to the Director-General as the person thinks fit at any time not later than the date specified in the notice.
- (9) The Director-General shall consider answers given in reply to the notice to show cause under subsection (7) and submissions made under subsection (8) and, if the Director-General considers that:
 - (a) answers given or submissions made in reply to or in respect of the notice are satisfactory, the Director-General shall not take any action or any further action in relation to the notice;
 - (b) answers given or submissions made in reply to or in respect of the notice are not satisfactory but action to cancel or suspend the gaming machine licence is not warranted, the Director-General may issue a letter of censure to the licensee, censuring the licensee in respect of any matter connected with or giving rise to the notice to show cause;
 - (c) answers given or submissions made in reply to, or in respect of, the notice are not satisfactory or, if no answers are given and no submissions are made, the Director-General may:
 - (i) by written notice give such directions to the licensee as the Director-General considers appropriate to ensure that any matter connected with, or giving rise to, the issue of the notice is rectified within the time specified in the notice; or

- (ii) cancel, or suspend for such period as the Director-General determines, the gaming machine licence.
- (10) If a direction given by the Director-General under subsection (9)(c) is not complied with within the time specified in the notice, the Director-General may cancel or suspend the gaming machine licence.
- (11) Where the Director-General is of the opinion that any act, omission or other thing that constitutes a ground under subsection (1) is not of such a serious nature that the integrity of gaming or the conduct of gaming may be jeopardised or the public interest may be adversely affected, the Director-General may by letter censure the licensee in respect of any matter connected with or giving rise to the ground.
- (13) If the Director-General cancels or suspends a gaming machine licence, the Director-General shall, as soon as practicable after the licence is cancelled or suspended, give the licensee written notice of, and the reasons for, the cancellation or suspension.
- (14) The cancellation or suspension of a licence under this section takes effect from the date of the issue of the notice under subsection (13) or from another date specified in the notice.
- (15) On receipt of a notice of cancellation under subsection (13), the person to whom the notice is addressed shall deliver the licence to the Director-General not later than 14 days after receiving the notice.

Maximum penalty: 40 penalty units.

- (16) The Director-General may:
 - (a) revoke the suspension in respect of the unexpired period of suspension; or
 - (b) reduce the period of suspension,imposed under this section.

50 Suspension of gaming machine licence pending decision

- (1) Where the Director-General is of the opinion that an act, omission or other thing that constitutes a ground under section 49(1) is of such a serious nature that the integrity of gaming or the conduct of gaming is jeopardised or the public interest is adversely affected, the Director-General may suspend the gaming machine licence until any action taken, or to be taken, under section 49 is finally determined.

- (2) A person who held a gaming machine licence that is cancelled shall provide all reasonable assistance to the Director-General, or any person acting on behalf of or approved by the Director-General, to enable the removal of any gaming equipment or ancillary or related property from the premises to which the licence related.

Maximum penalty: 85 penalty units.

54 Appointment of administrator instead of suspension

- (1) Without limiting section 49 or 50, the Director-General may, in respect of a club, instead of suspending a gaming machine licence under section 49 or 50, appoint a person to administer the affairs of the club.
- (2) A person appointed under subsection (1) has, to the exclusion of any other person or body of persons, the powers of the secretary and executive officers of the club until the Director-General orders otherwise.

55 Expenses of administration

- (1) The expenses of and incidental to the administration of the affairs of a club by a person appointed under section 54 are payable by the club.
- (2) The remuneration of a person appointed under section 54 is an expense referred to in subsection (1) and shall be fixed by the Director-General.

56 Liability for losses incurred during administration

- (1) A person appointed by the Director-General to administer the affairs of a club is not liable for any loss incurred by the club during the person's term of office unless the loss was attributable to the person's:
- (a) wilful misconduct;
 - (b) gross negligence; or
 - (c) wilful failure to comply with the provisions of this Act.
- (2) Neither the Territory nor the Director-General is liable for any loss incurred by a club during the term of office of a person appointed under section 54 to administer the affairs of the club, whether or not the person is liable.

57 Continuance of licences in certain circumstances

- (1) If, under the Liquor Act 1978, a person is authorised to conduct the business of a person who is a licensee under this Act, then, subject to this Act:
- (a) the licensee's gaming machine licence continues in force for the period of the authorisation; and
 - (b) the first person is authorised to conduct gaming on the licensee's licensed premises for the period of the authorisation.
- (2) A person authorised under subsection (1)(b):
- (a) is subject to the same liabilities under this Act as a licensee; and
 - (b) is taken, for the purposes of Part 8, to be the licensee whose business the person is authorised to conduct.

Part 4 Licensing of repairers, service contractors, monitoring providers and machine managers

57A Application

The following are licences under this Part:

- (a) a repairer's licence referred to in section 58;
- (b) a service contractor's licence referred to in section 59;
- (c) a monitoring provider's licence referred to in section 59A;
- (d) a machine manager's licence referred to in section 60.

58 Repairers

- (1) A person must not install, alter, adjust, maintain or repair gaming equipment unless the person:
- (a) is authorised under a repairer's licence to install, alter, adjust, maintain or repair the equipment; and

- (b) installs, alters, adjusts, maintains or repairs the equipment on behalf of:
- (i) a licensed service contractor who is the service contractor under a service contract with the licensee in respect of the equipment; or
 - (ii) a licensed monitoring provider who is the monitoring provider under an agreement with the licensee to provide a basic monitoring service and the agreement includes the installation, alteration, adjustment, maintenance or repair of the equipment.

Maximum penalty: 500 penalty units or imprisonment for 6 months.

- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply in relation to installations, alterations, adjustments, maintenance or repairs that are prescribed.

59 Service contractors

- (1) A person must not enter into a service contract with a licensee in respect of gaming equipment on the licensee's licensed premises unless the person is authorised under a service contract licence to enter into the contract and the Director-General has approved the terms of the service contract.

Maximum penalty: 500 penalty units or imprisonment for 6 months.

- (2) A licensee must not enter into a service contract with a person in respect of gaming equipment on the licensee's licensed premises unless the person is authorised under a service contract licence to enter into the contract and the Director-General has approved the terms of the service contract.

Maximum penalty: 500 penalty units or imprisonment for 6 months.

- (3) A licensed service contractor must not subcontract any of the obligations of the licensed service contractor under a service contract to another person unless the other person is authorised under a service contract licence or repairer's licence to undertake those obligations.

Maximum penalty: 500 penalty units.

- (4) A licensed service contractor or licensed repairer to whom any of the obligations of a licensed service contractor under a service contract have been subcontracted must not further subcontract those obligations.

Maximum penalty: 500 penalty units.

- (5) A licensed service contractor must not employ a person to install, alter, adjust, maintain or repair gaming equipment unless the person is authorised under a repairer's licence to install, alter, adjust, maintain or repair the equipment.

Maximum penalty: 500 penalty units.

- (6) Where:

(a) a licensed service contractor proposes to carry out work under a service contract on gaming equipment on a licensee's licensed premises; and

(b) the proposed work may affect the operation of electronic monitoring equipment used to provide a basic monitoring service in respect of the gaming equipment, the licensed service contractor:

(c) must notify the licensed monitoring provider who provides the basic monitoring service in respect of the gaming equipment of the proposed work; and

(d) must not carry out the proposed work without the approval of the Director-General or the licensed monitoring provider.

Maximum penalty: 500 penalty units.

59A Monitoring providers

- (1) A person must not enter into an agreement with a licensee to provide a basic monitoring service in respect of gaming equipment on the licensee's licensed premises unless the person is authorised under a monitoring provider's licence to enter into the agreement and the Director-General has approved the terms of the agreement.

Maximum penalty: 500 penalty units or imprisonment for 6 months.

- (2) A licensee must not enter into an agreement with a person to provide a basic monitoring service in respect of gaming equipment on the licensee's licensed premises unless the person is authorised under a monitoring provider's licence to enter into the agreement and the Director-General has approved the terms of the agreement.

Maximum penalty: 500 penalty units or imprisonment for 6 months.

- (3) A licensed monitoring provider must not enter into an agreement with a licensee to provide a basic monitoring service in respect of gaming equipment on the licensee's licensed premises if any of the gaming machines on the premises are provided by the Director-General.

Maximum penalty: 500 penalty units.

- (4) The licensed monitoring provider under an agreement to provide a basic monitoring service must not provide additional services (for example, the installation, alteration, adjustment, maintenance or repair of gaming equipment that is not electronic monitoring equipment) unless those additional services are approved by the Director-General.

Maximum penalty: 500 penalty units.

- (5) A licensed monitoring provider must not:
- (a) employ a person to install, alter, adjust, maintain or repair gaming equipment; or
 - (b) subcontract to a person any of the licensed monitoring provider's obligations to install, alter, adjust, maintain or repair gaming equipment under an agreement to provide a basic monitoring service, unless the person is authorised under a repairer's licence to install, alter, adjust, maintain or repair the equipment.

Maximum penalty: 500 penalty units.

- (6) A licensee who does not enter into an agreement with a licensed monitoring provider to provide a basic monitoring service in respect of gaming equipment on the licensee's licensed premises commits an offence.

Maximum penalty: 500 penalty units or imprisonment for 6 months.

- (7) Subsection (6) does not apply to a licensee if the gaming equipment is provided by the Director-General.

employed by the licensee under subsection (4) in respect of the premises.

Maximum penalty: 85 penalty units or imprisonment for 2 years.

(6) If a licensee is unable to comply with subsection (5), the licensee may, with the written approval of the Director-General, employ a person to carry out the duties prescribed for the purposes of subsection (1) for a period of not more than 7 days.

(7) Until a licensee is able to comply with subsection (5) or obtains the Director-General's approval under subsection (6), the licensee shall cease the conduct of gaming on the licensee's licensed premises.

Maximum penalty: 85 penalty units or imprisonment for 2 years.

61 Certain persons to apply for machine manager's licence

(1) Where the Director-General considers that a person connected with, or who is an employee of, a licensee:

(a) has the power to exercise a significant influence over the conduct of gaming by the licensee; or

(b) because of that person's remuneration or policy making position or other reason, exercises or is able to exercise authority of such a nature or to such an extent in respect of the conduct of gaming by the licensee as to make it desirable in the public interest that that person be a licensed machine manager, the Director-General shall, by written notice, require that person to apply for a machine manager's licence not later than 7 days after the receipt by that person of the notice.

(2) The Director-General shall cause a copy of a notice under subsection (1) to be served on the licensee.

(3) A person who fails to comply with a notice under subsection (1) and continues to be connected or employed as referred to in that subsection is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty: 85 penalty units or imprisonment for 2 years.

(4) Where a person fails to comply with a notice under subsection (1) and continues to be connected or employed as referred to in subsection (1), the Director-General shall cause a written notice of the failure to be served on the licensee.

(5) The licensee shall, immediately a notice under subsection (4) is served, notwithstanding any other Act or law, terminate the connection with or employment of the person.

Maximum penalty: 85 penalty units or imprisonment for 2 years.

(6) If the Director-General refuses to grant an application made by a person referred to in subsection (1):

(a) the person shall, on receipt of notification of the refusal, cease to be connected or employed as referred to in subsection (1); and

(b) the licensee, on receipt of the notification of the refusal, shall terminate the connection or employment.

Maximum penalty: 85 penalty units or imprisonment for 2 years.

(7) A licensee does not incur any liability in respect of the termination under this section of any connection or employment referred to in subsection (1).

62 Applications for licence under this Part

(1) An application for the grant of a licence under this Part:

(a) shall be made in the form determined by the Director-General;

(b) shall be signed by the applicant or, in the case of an application by a body corporate, shall be executed under the common seal of the body corporate and signed by 2 executive officers of the body corporate authorised in that behalf by the body corporate or in such other way as the Director-General allows;

(c) shall state the full name, address and date of birth of the applicant or, in the case of an application by a body corporate, the full name, address and date of birth of the secretary and each executive officer of the body corporate;

- (d) in the case of an application for a repairer's or machine manager's licence, shall be accompanied by photographs of the applicant, of such type and number, and certified, as determined by the Director-General;
 - (e) in the case of an application by a body corporate, shall be accompanied by:
 - (i) a copy of the certificate of incorporation of the body corporate;
 - (ii) a copy of the rules, constitution or other incorporating documents in force at the time of making the application certified as a true copy by the secretary of the body corporate or other person properly authorised in that behalf by the body corporate;
 - (iii) a copy of the resolution or minute of the proceedings of the governing body of the body corporate by which approval was given to the making of the application, certified as a true copy by the person certifying the copy of the matters referred to in subparagraph (ii); and
 - (iv) a copy of the last audited balance sheet or statement of the financial affairs of the body corporate;
 - (f) in the case of an application for a repairer's, service contractor's or monitoring provider's licence, shall be accompanied by an affidavit under section 74;
 - (g) shall contain or be accompanied by such other information, records, reports, documents and writings relating to the application and applicant as determined by the Director-General;
 - (h) shall be forwarded to or lodged with the Director-General; and
 - (j) shall be accompanied by the prescribed fee.
- (2) It is a condition precedent to consideration of an application for a repairer's or machine manager's licence that the applicant is agreeable to the applicant's fingerprints and palm prints being taken by or on behalf of the Director-General.
- (3) An application for a service contractor's or monitoring provider's licence may be made only by a body corporate.

63 Changes in circumstances of applicants for and holders of licences

- (1) Where a person applies for a licence under this Part and, before the application is granted or refused, there is:
- (a) a change in the information in, or accompanying, the application or in a notice under this subsection; or
 - (b) any other change in the circumstances of the applicant that may affect the decision whether to grant or refuse the application,

the applicant must give the Director-General written notice of the change within 7 days after the change.

Maximum penalty: 500 penalty units or imprisonment for 12 months.

- (2) If, after the grant of a licence under this Part, an event referred to in subsection (3) happens, the holder of the licence shall, not later than 7 days after the happening of the event, give the Director-General written notice of the event.

Maximum penalty: 500 penalty units or imprisonment for 12 months.

- (3) The events required to be notified under subsection (2) are:
- (a) the holder of the licence changes name or address; or
 - (b) the holder of the licence:
 - (i) is convicted of an indictable offence;
 - (ii) is convicted of an offence against this Act;
 - (iii) if the holder is an individual, fails to discharge his or her financial commitments, becomes bankrupt or compounds with creditors or otherwise takes advantage of the laws about bankruptcy; or
 - (iv) if the holder is a body corporate, is the subject of a winding-up (whether voluntarily or under a court order), appointment of a liquidator, appointment of a receiver or receiver and manager, or is placed under judicial management or administration.

64 Consideration of application

- (1) On receiving an application for a licence under this Part, and compliance by the applicant with this Part in relation to the application, the Director-General shall:
- (a) if the application is for a repairer's or machine manager's licence, cause the fingerprints and palm prints of the applicant to be taken;
 - (b) initiate and have followed through such investigations as the Director-General considers are necessary in relation to the application; and
 - (c) consider the application and anything accompanying it together with the results of investigations made under paragraph (b) and make an assessment of:
 - (i) if the applicant is a natural person, the financial stability, general reputation and character of the applicant;
 - (ii) if the applicant is a body corporate, the business reputation and financial stability of the body corporate and the general reputation, financial stability and character of the secretary and executive officers of the body corporate;
 - (iii) if any person is referred to in an affidavit under section 74, whether that person is a fit and proper person to be an associate of the applicant;
 - (iv) if the Director-General considers it appropriate, whether any other associate of the applicant is a fit and proper person to be an associate of the applicant; and
 - (v) whether the applicant is a fit and proper person to be a holder of the licence for which application is made.
- (1A) In considering an application for a licence under this Part, the Director-General must have regard to the matters (if any) that are prescribed.
- (2) The Director-General shall not grant a licence if:
- (a) the applicant is an individual, the applicant has not attained the age of 18 years or has failed to have fingerprints and palm prints taken under subsection (1)(a) or section 62(2);

- (b) the applicant is a body corporate, the secretary or any of the executive officers of the body corporate has not attained the age of 18 years;
 - (c) the applicant or an associate of the applicant has failed to submit information or material requested by the Director-General under subsection (3); or
 - (d) subject to the Criminal Records (Spent Convictions) Act 1992 – the applicant has been found guilty of an offence:
 - (i) involving dishonesty since he or she attained the age of 18 years;
 - (ii) against this Act; or
 - (iii) that is punishable, on conviction, by a maximum penalty of not less than 5 years imprisonment.
- (3) The Director-General may require an applicant for a licence under this Part, or an associate of the applicant, to submit such additional information or material as the Director-General considers is necessary in order to make a decision in respect of the application.
- (4) Where:
- (a) an application for a repairer's or machine manager's licence is refused; or
 - (b) a person ceases to be a licensed repairer or licensed machine manager, fingerprints and palm prints of the applicant or person taken under subsection (1)(a), in respect of that application or licence, are to be destroyed as soon as practicable.

65 Grant or refusal to grant licence

- (1) Subject to this Act, the Director-General may grant or refuse to grant a licence under this Part to an applicant.
- (2) The Director-General shall as soon as practicable give an applicant written notice of:
 - (a) the Director-General's decision; and
 - (b) if the application is refused, the reasons for the refusal.

- (3) Where the Director-General has given an approval under section 60(4), the Director-General shall give a copy of a notice under subsection (2) to the licensee to whom the approval was granted.

66 Form of licence

A licence under this Part shall be in the form determined by the Director-General and shall:

- (a) specify the name of the holder of the licence;
- (b) contain, in the case of a repairer's licence or machine manager's licence, a photograph of the holder of the licence;
- (c) specify the expiry date of the licence;
- (d) specify the conditions imposed under section 69; and
- (e) specify such other particulars as determined by the Director-General.

67 Issue of copy of licence

- (1) Where the Director-General is satisfied that a licence under this Part has been damaged, lost or destroyed, the Director-General may, on payment of the prescribed fee, issue to the holder of the licence a copy of the licence.
- (2) A copy of a licence issued under subsection (1) has, for all purposes, the same effect as the original licence of which it is a copy.

68 Term of licences

- (1) Subject to this Act, the term of a licence under this Part is for:
- (a) the period that is prescribed in respect of the licence, which period may be shorter or longer than 5 years; or
 - (b) if no period is prescribed in respect of the licence – 5 years.
- (2) A licence under this Part may be renewed.

69 Conditions of licence

A licence under this Part is subject to:

- (a) the conditions (if any) that are prescribed; and

- (b) the conditions (including as varied under section 70) the Director-General may impose in the public interest or for the proper conduct of gaming at the time of granting the licence or under section 70.

70 Variation of condition of licence

- (1) The Director-General, in the public interest or for the proper conduct of gaming, may, after granting a licence under this Part:
 - (a) impose conditions or further conditions on the licence; or
 - (b) vary the conditions of the licence.
- (2) Where the Director-General imposes or varies conditions under subsection (1), the Director-General shall give the holder of the licence written notice of:
 - (a) the conditions or varied conditions; and
 - (b) reasons for the imposition or variation.
- (3) A condition imposed or varied under this section has effect from the date specified in the notice given under subsection (2).
- (4) A holder of a licence shall, not later than 14 days after being given a notice under subsection (2), deliver the licence to the Director-General.

Maximum penalty: 40 penalty units.

- (5) The Director-General shall, on receiving a licence under subsection (4), endorse the licence with the conditions imposed or varied and return the licence to the holder.

71 Renewal of licences

- (1) A holder of a licence under this Part may apply to the Director-General for renewal of the licence.
- (2) An application under subsection (1) shall:
 - (a) be in the form determined by the Director-General;
 - (b) in the case of a repairer's or machine manager's licence, be accompanied by photographs of the applicant of such type and number as determined by the Director-General;
 - (c) be accompanied by the prescribed fee;

- (d) be made, unless the Director-General otherwise allows, not less than one month before the expiration of the licence;
 - (e) in the case of an application by a body corporate, be accompanied by a list of the names, addresses and dates of birth of:
 - (i) the secretary of the body corporate;
 - (ii) the executive officers of the body corporate; and
 - (iii) all other persons who have been the secretary or an executive officer of the body corporate since the licence was granted or last renewed; and
 - (f) in the case of a repairer's or service contractor's licence, be accompanied by an affidavit under section 74.
- (3) If the Director-General considers that special circumstances exist, the Director-General may extend the term of a licence under this Part, or renewal of the licence, for not more than one month from the date of its expiration to allow the holder of the licence to comply with this section.
- (4) During the period of an extension under subsection (3), the licence has the same effect as if it had been renewed.
- (5) Subject to subsection (5A), if a licensee complies with this section, the Director-General shall renew the licence commencing on:
- (a) the day after its last expiry; or
 - (b) the day it would have last expired apart from its extension under subsection (3).
- (5A) The Director-General must not renew a service contractor's or monitoring provider's licence unless the terms of the licence holder's service contracts or agreements to provide a basic monitoring service are satisfactory to the Director-General (whether those terms have remained the same since the licence was granted or last renewed or have been re-negotiated).
- (6) If an application under subsection (1) is refused, the Director-General shall, as soon as practicable after the decision, give the applicant written notice of, and the reasons for, the decision.

72 Licences not to be transferred

A licence under this Part cannot be transferred.

73 Display of repairer's licence

A licensed repairer shall, at all times whilst installing, altering, adjusting, maintaining or repairing gaming equipment on licensed premises, display the licensed repairer's licence on his or her person in such way as to be visible to other persons unless the licence at any material time is in the possession of the Director-General.

Maximum penalty: 40 penalty units.

74 Disclosure of influential or benefiting parties

- (1) At the time of making an application for:
- (a) a repairer's, service contractor's or monitoring provider's licence, the applicant; or
 - (b) a renewal of a repairer's, service contractor's or monitoring provider's licence, the licensed repairer, licensed service contractor or licensed monitoring provider, shall forward to or lodge with the Director-General an affidavit made under this section.

- (13) No right of action arises against any person because of the termination.

78 Surrender of licence

- (1) The holder of a licence under this Part may, at any time, by forwarding to or lodging with the Director-General notification in the form determined by the Director-General, and the licence under this Part, surrender the licence.
- (2) Notification under subsection (1) shall be signed or executed in the same way as that specified for an application made under section 62(1)(b).
- (3) The holder of a repairer's, service contractor's or monitoring provider's licence is not entitled to surrender the licence unless the holder has given the Director-General the following period of notice:
 - (a) for a repairer's or service contractor's licence – 30 days;
 - (b) for a monitoring provider's licence – 90 days.
- (4) The surrender of a licence under this Part takes effect when it is accepted by the Director-General or at a later time determined by the Director-General.
- (5) The Director-General may refuse to accept the surrender of a licence under this Part until the conditions specified by the Director-General for the surrender have been met.
- (6) If a service contractor's or monitoring provider's licence is being surrendered, the conditions specified under subsection (5) may include a condition that the holder of the licence has complied with all of its obligations under a service contract or an agreement to provide a basic monitoring service.
- (7) If a repairer's, service contractor's or monitoring provider's licence is being surrendered, as soon as practicable after forwarding to or lodging with the Director-General the licence and notification under subsection (1), the holder of the licence must dispose of all gaming equipment and restricted components in the holder's possession in the manner approved by the Director-General.

- (8) If a service contractor's or monitoring provider's licence is being surrendered the following apply:
- (a) the obligations of the holder of the licence to a licensee under a service contract or an agreement to provide a basic monitoring service continue in force until the surrender takes effect unless the Director-General determines otherwise;
 - (b) the obligations of a licensee to the holder of the licence under a service contract or an agreement to provide a basic monitoring service cease on the day on which the licence and notification are forwarded to or lodged with the Director-General under subsection (1).

79 Cancellation or suspension of licence

- (1) A ground for cancellation or suspension of a licence under this Part arises if:
- (a) the holder of the licence:
 - (i) obtained the licence on false, erroneous or misleading information;
 - (ii) fails to comply with a condition to which the licence is subject; or
 - (iii) fails to forward or lodge an affidavit in accordance with section 74(2);
 - (b) the holder of the licence or an associate of the holder:
 - (i) is convicted of an indictable offence;
 - (ii) is convicted of an offence against this Act;
 - (iii) fails to discharge the holder's or associate's financial commitments, becomes bankrupt or compounds with creditors or otherwise takes advantage of the laws in force for the time being relating to bankruptcy;
 - (iv) is the subject of a winding-up, either voluntarily or under a court order, appointment of a liquidator, appointment of a receiver or receiver and manager or is placed under judicial management or administration;
 - (v) fails to comply with a written direction given to the holder or associate under this Act; or

- (vi) fails, when required, to supply information or material to the Director-General or an inspector, or supplies information or material that to the knowledge of the holder or associate is false, erroneous or misleading in a material particular; or
- (c) the Director-General:
 - (i) considers that the holder of the licence or an associate of the holder is not a fit and proper person in respect of financial stability, general reputation, character or business reputation to be a holder of a licence or to be an associate of the holder of a licence; or
 - (ii) becomes aware of any information or matter that, had it been known when the application for the licence was being considered, the decision under section 65 may have been that the licence be refused.
- (2) Where the Director-General is of the opinion that any act, omission or other thing that constitutes a ground under subsection (1) is of such a serious nature that the integrity of gaming or the conduct of gaming may be jeopardised or the public interest may be adversely affected, the Director-General shall issue to the holder of the licence a written notice to show cause why action should not be taken with respect to the licence under this section.
- (3) The Director-General shall issue a copy of a notice issued under this section to any other person whom the Director-General considers has an interest in the licence.
- (4) A notice issued under this section shall set out the grounds giving rise to its issue and shall specify a date, being not earlier than 7 days after its issue, on or before which cause is required to be shown.
- (5) Subject to this section, a notice under this section shall be in such form and contain such matters as the Director-General thinks fit.
- (6) A person to whom a notice under this section is issued may give a written answer to the Director-General at any time not later than the date specified in the notice in that respect.
- (7) A person to whom a copy of a notice is issued under subsection (3) may make such submissions to the Director-General as the person thinks fit at any time not later than the date specified under subsection (4).

- (8) The Director-General shall consider answers given in reply to a notice to show cause and any submissions made under subsection (7) and, if the Director-General considers that:
- (a) satisfactory answers are given or submissions made in reply to or in respect of the notice, the Director-General shall not take any action or any further action in relation to the notice;
 - (b) answers given or submissions made in reply to or in respect of the notice are not satisfactory but action to cancel or suspend the licence is not warranted, the Director-General may issue a letter of censure to the holder of the licence, censuring the holder of the licence in respect of any matter connected with or giving rise to the notice to show cause;
 - (c) answers given or submissions made in reply to or in respect of the notice are not satisfactory and further action is warranted or if no answers are given and no submissions are made, the Director-General may:
 - (i) by written notice give such directions to the holder of the licence as the Director-General considers appropriate to ensure that any matter connected with or giving rise to the issue of the notice is rectified within the time specified in the notice; or
 - (ii) cancel, or suspend for such period as the Director-General determines, the licence.
- (9) If a direction given by the Director-General under subsection (8)(c)(i) is not complied with within the time specified in the notice, the Director-General may cancel or suspend the licence.
- (10) Where the Director-General is of the opinion that any act, omission or other thing that constitutes a ground under subsection (1) is not of such a serious nature that the integrity of gaming or the conduct of gaming may be jeopardised or the public interest may be adversely affected, the Director-General may by letter censure the holder of the licence in respect of any matter connected with or giving rise to the ground.
- (11) If the Director-General cancels or suspends a licence, the Director-General shall as soon as practicable give the applicant written notice of, and the reasons for, the cancellation or suspension.
- (12) The cancellation or suspension of a licence under this section takes effect from the date of the issue of the notice under subsection (11) or from the date specified in the notice.

- (13) On receipt of a notice of cancellation under subsection (12), the person to whom the notice is addressed shall deliver the licence to the Director-General not later than 14 days after receiving the notice.

Maximum penalty: 85 penalty units.

- (14) If a service contractor's or monitoring provider's licence is cancelled, the Director-General may make the arrangements the Director-General considers necessary to ensure that a service that would have been provided by the holder of the licence continues to be provided (which may include the issue of an interim licence under section 82A).
- (15) As soon as practicable after the cancellation of a service contractor's or monitoring provider's licence, the Director-General must remove or make arrangements for the removal of all gaming equipment and restricted components in the possession of the holder of the licence.
- (16) The cancellation of a licence under this Part does not affect a liability incurred by the holder of the licence under this Act or the Regulations, or under a contract, agreement or other arrangement entered into by the holder of the licence for the purposes of this Act or the Regulations, before the licence was cancelled unless the Director-General determines otherwise.

80 Suspension of licences pending decision

- (1) Where the Director-General is of the opinion that any act, omission or other thing that constitutes a ground under section 79(1) is of such a serious nature that the integrity of gaming or the conduct of gaming is jeopardised or the public interest is adversely affected, the Director-General may suspend a licence under this Part until any action taken, or to be taken, under section 79 is finally determined.
- (2) Where the Director-General suspends a licence under subsection (1), the Director-General shall as soon as practicable give the holder of the licence written notice of, and the reasons for, the suspension.
- (3) The suspension of a licence under this section takes effect from when the notice referred to in subsection (2) is given to the holder of the licence or the suspension of the licence is made known to the holder of the licence (whichever is the first to happen).

81 Effect of suspension of licence

The suspension under section 79(8) or 80(1) of a licence under this Part has the same effect as the cancellation of the licence but without prejudice to:

- (a) any penalty or other liability incurred by the holder of the licence; or
- (b) the exercise of the powers of the Director-General or an inspector.

82 Provisional licences

- (1) The Director-General may grant to an applicant for a licence under this Part a provisional licence if the Director-General considers that:
 - (a) a decision in respect of the application may not be made for some time;
 - (b) the conduct of gaming may be prejudiced or disadvantaged if the applicant is not granted a provisional licence; and
 - (c) the issue of the provisional licence will not prejudice or disadvantage gaming or the conduct of gaming.
- (2) The Director-General may impose on a provisional licence such conditions as the Director-General considers are necessary in the public interest.
- (3) Where the Director-General grants a provisional licence, the Director-General shall issue the licence in the form determined by the Director-General and endorse on the licence the conditions imposed under subsection (2).
- (4) A provisional licence remains in force until:
 - (a) the application for the licence under this Part referred to in subsection (1) is granted or refused;
 - (b) it is surrendered; or
 - (c) it is cancelled.
- (5) The Director-General, at any time, may cancel a provisional licence granted under subsection (1).
- (6) No right of action arises against the Director-General or any other person because of a decision under subsection (5) in respect of the termination of employment or otherwise.

- (7) A provisional licence has the same effect as if it were a repairer's licence, service contractor's licence or machine manager's licence, as the case may be.

82A Interim licences

- (1) The Director-General may, without an application, grant to a person an interim licence if the Director-General considers that it is necessary to ensure the continued effective operation of this Act for a short-term period.
- (2) An interim licence is for the term, and subject to the conditions, determined by the Director-General.
- (3) The holder of an interim licence may surrender the licence at any time.
- (4) The Director-General may cancel an interim licence at any time.
- (5) An interim licence has the same effect as if it were a repairer's licence, service contractor's licence, monitoring provider's licence or machine manager's licence, as the case requires.

Part 5 Supervision and management of gaming

 - (iii) any function required to be carried out under section 141(2) or 142(2);
 - (e) keeping and maintaining accounts under section 143;
 - (f) making monthly gaming machine reconciliation reports under section 144; or
 - (g) any other function prescribed for the purposes of this section.

Maximum penalty: 85 penalty units or imprisonment for 2 years.

- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to the employment of a natural person by a licensee to carry out on the licensee's licensed premises an act referred to in that subsection.

101 Licensees to keep records of certain employees

- (1) A licensee shall, in respect of each of the licensee's licensed premises, keep and, at all times, accurately maintain a record of the full name, address and date of birth of all persons employed by the licensee to carry out on the licensed premises an act referred to in section 100(1).
- (2) A licensee shall, in respect of each of the licensee's licensed premises, lodge with the Director-General, on or before the day prescribed of each month, a report in the form determined by the Director-General, containing details of the full name, address and date of birth of all persons who performed an act referred to in section 100 at any time during the preceding month on the licensed premises.

Maximum penalty: 85 penalty units or imprisonment for 2 years.

102 Notification of employment or cessation of employment of machine manager

A licensee shall, not later than one working day after a person commences employment, or ceased to be employed, as a machine manager, notify the Director-General of that fact in the form determined by the Director-General .

Maximum penalty: 85 penalty units or imprisonment for 2 years.

103 Persons under 18 not to be employed

A licensee shall not employ a person who has not attained the age of 18 years in any capacity in relation to the operation of gaming machines.

Maximum penalty: 125 penalty units.

104 Persons under 18 not to play gaming machines

A person who has not attained the age of 18 years shall not play a gaming machine on licensed premises.

Maximum penalty: 40 penalty units.

105 Persons under 18 not to be allowed to game

A person shall not allow a person who has not attained the age of 18 years to play a gaming machine on licensed premises.

Maximum penalty: 125 penalty units.

106 Misrepresentation of age

A person who has not attained the age of 18 years and who, for the purpose of playing a gaming machine, misrepresents the age of the person:

- (a) by spoken statements made by the person or another person;
- (b) by presenting a form of written identification which purports to relate to the person presenting it but which in fact is fictitious or relates to some other person; or

- (c) by presenting a form of written identification which is false in a material particular,

is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty: 40 penalty units.

107 Wrongful dealing with evidence of age

- (1) A person shall not knowingly give a document that is evidence of age of the person specified in the document to another person, with intent that the document be used as evidence of age for the purposes of this Act of a person not specified in the document.

Maximum penalty: 40 penalty units.

- (2) A person shall not wilfully or negligently deface or interfere with a document that is evidence of age of the person or another person.

Maximum penalty: 40 penalty units.

108 Seizure of form wrongly used as evidence of age

- (1) Where a contravention of section 106 consists of presenting of a form referred to in that section the person to whom the form is presented shall seize and confiscate the form and give it to an inspector or a member of the Police Force.

Maximum penalty: 40 penalty units.

- (2) A person does not commit an offence against subsection (1) if the person is not aware of the falsity of the representation as to age made by presenting the form.

109 Ascertainment of age

- (1) An authorised person may, on licensed premises, require a person whom the authorised person suspects on reasonable grounds not to have attained the age of 18 years and to be contravening a provision of this Act:

(a) to state all relevant particulars concerning the person's age;
and

(b) to produce evidence of the person's age.

- (2) An authorised person shall prohibit a person who does not comply with a requirement made under subsection (1) from playing gaming machines on the licensed premises.

- (3) In this section, authorised person, in relation to licensed premises, means:
- (a) the licensee of the licensed premises;
 - (b) a machine manager of the licensed premises;
 - (c) an employee of the licensee of the licensed premises;
 - (d) an inspector; or
 - (e) a member of the Police Force.

110 Seizure of material associated with representation of age

If an inspector or a member of the Police Force reasonably believes or suspects that a person:

- (a) has presented a form in contravention of section 106;
- (b) is in possession of a document given to the person in contravention of section 107(1); or
- (c) is in possession of a document defaced or interfered with in contravention of section 107(2), the inspector or member may seize and confiscate the form or document.

111 Defence to charge if age material

- (1) If the age of a person is material to a charge of an offence against this Act, it is a defence to prove that, at the time of the offence, the defendant (if the defendant is the actual offender) or an agent or employee (if the defendant is charged merely because of being principal or employer of the actual offender):
- (a) honestly and reasonably believed that the person whose age is material to the offence had attained the age of 18 years; or
 - (b) had sighted acceptable evidence of age of the person whose age is material to the offence that indicated the person had attained the age of 18 years, and the operation of section 32 of the Criminal Code is excluded.

- (2) Evidence that the defendant (if the defendant is the actual offender) or an agent or employee (if the defendant is charged merely because of being principal or employer of the actual offender) did not request the person whose age is material to the offence to produce acceptable evidence of age is evidence that any belief that the person had attained the age of 18 years was not reasonable.

112 Licensees to prohibit certain persons from gaming

Where there are reasonable grounds for a licensee to believe that the peace and happiness of a person's family are endangered due to excessive playing of gaming machines by the person, the licensee shall prohibit the person from playing gaming machines on the licensee's licensed premises for one month from the date of prohibition.

113 Removal of certain persons

- (1) A licensee may cause a person to be removed from, or refuse to allow a person to enter, the licensee's licensed premises if the person:
 - (a) breaches the rules ancillary to gaming for the licensed premises;
 - (b) damages or physically abuses a gaming machine;
 - (c) behaves in a way likely to cause offence to other persons; or
 - (d) is suspected on reasonable grounds of being on the premises for the purpose of committing an offence or aiding another person to commit an offence against this Act.
- (2) A licensee shall cause to be removed from the licensee's licensed premises a person who is prohibited under section 109(2) or 112 from playing gaming machines on the premises if the person:
 - (a) plays a gaming machine; or
 - (b) induces another person to play a gaming machine on the person's behalf.

Maximum penalty: 125 penalty units.

- (3) For the purposes of subsection (1) or (2), a licensee or a person acting for a licensee may use such force and assistance as is necessary and reasonable in removing a person from, or preventing a person from entering, the licensed premises.

114 Obstruction to removal from licensed premises

A person whose removal from licensed premises is sought under section 113(1) or (2) shall not:

- (a) refuse to leave the premises; or

(b) resist a person seeking his or her removal from the premises.

Maximum penalty: 40 penalty units.

115 Obstruction generally

A person shall not obstruct or hinder a licensee, machine manager or any other employee of a licensee in the exercise of a power or performance of a function under this Act.

Maximum penalty: 40 penalty units.

Part 6 Control of gaming machines

116 Recognised manufacturers or suppliers of gaming machines

- (1) The Director-General may approve a person to be a recognised manufacturer or supplier of gaming machines for the purposes of this Act.
- (2) The Director-General must not approve a person under subsection (1) if the Director-General would have been required under section 119 to remove the person from the roll under subsection (4) had the person already been on that roll.
- (3) An approval under subsection (1) is subject to:
 - (a) the conditions (if any) that are prescribed; and
 - (b) the conditions the Director-General may impose in the public interest or for the proper conduct of gaming.
- (4) The Director-General must maintain a roll of recognised manufacturer or supplier of gaming machines.

117 Recognised suppliers of restricted components

- (1) The Director-General may approve a person to be a recognised supplier of restricted components for the purposes of this Act.
- (2) The Director-General must not approve a person under subsection (1) if the Director-General would have been required under section 119 to remove the person from the roll under subsection (4) had the person already been on that roll.
- (3) An approval under subsection (1) is subject to:
 - (a) the conditions (if any) that are prescribed; and

- (b) the conditions the Director-General may impose in the public interest or for the proper conduct of gaming.
- (4) The Director-General must maintain a roll of recognised suppliers of restricted components.

118 Investigation of suitability of listed persons

- (1) At any time the Director-General may undertake such investigations as are necessary in order to satisfy the Director-General that a listed person or any associate of a listed person is a fit and proper person to be a listed person or an associate of a listed person.
- (2) The Director-General may require a person to whom investigations under subsection (1) relate to submit such information or material as the Director-General considers is necessary.
- (3) The person shall not contravene or fail to comply with a requirement of the Director-General given under subsection (2).

Maximum penalty: 85 penalty units or imprisonment for 2 years.

119 Removal of names of persons from roll

- (1) The Director-General must remove the name of a listed person from the roll of recognised manufacturers and suppliers of gaming machines or the roll of recognised suppliers of restricted components:
 - (a) if the listed person or an associate of the listed person:
 - (i) is convicted of an indictable offence; or
 - (ii) is convicted of an offence against this Act; or
 - (iii) fails to discharge the listed person's or associate's financial commitments, becomes bankrupt or compounds with creditors or otherwise takes advantage of the laws in force for the time being relating to bankruptcy; or
 - (iv) is the subject of a winding-up, either voluntarily or under a court order, appointment of a liquidator, appointment of a receiver or receiver and manager or is placed under judicial management or administration; or
 - (v) fails or refuses to comply with a written direction given under this Act and the Director-General is of the opinion that the failure or refusal jeopardises the integrity of gaming or the conduct of gaming or adversely affects the public interest; or

(vi) fails, when required, to supply information or material to the Director-General or an inspector, or supplies information or material that to the knowledge of the listed person or associate is false, erroneous or misleading in a material particular; or

(b) if at any time the Director-General considers that the listed person or an associate of the listed person is not a fit and proper person to continue to be a listed person or an associate of the listed person.

(2) Where the Director-General removes the name of a person from the roll of recognised manufacturers and suppliers of gaming machines or the roll of recognised suppliers of restricted components, the Director-General shall as soon as practicable give the person written notice of, and the reasons for, the removal.

120 Manufacture, sale, supply, obtaining or possession of gaming machines

(1) A person shall not manufacture, sell, supply, obtain or be in possession of:

(a) a gaming machine;

(b) a linked jackpot arrangement; or

(c) a device capable of being represented as being a gaming machine or linked jackpot arrangement, except under and in accordance with the authority of a licence or other authorisation under this Act.

Maximum penalty: 430 penalty units or imprisonment for 5 years.

(2) A person shall not manufacture, sell, supply, obtain or be in possession of a restricted component except under and in accordance with the authority of a licence or other authorisation under this Act.

Maximum penalty: 215 penalty units or imprisonment for 2 years.

- (3) It is a defence to a prosecution for an offence against subsection (2) for the defendant to prove that:
- (a) the manufacturing, selling, supplying, obtaining or possession of a restricted component was not related to the manufacture, assembly, installation, alteration, operation, use, adjustment, maintenance or repair of gaming equipment; and
 - (b) the restricted component was not intended to be used to interfere with the normal operation of gaming equipment.
- (3A) A licensee is authorised to enter into an arrangement with a listed person, another licensee or a person approved by the Director-General for the supply to the licensee of gaming equipment of a type specified in subsection (1).
- (4) Notwithstanding any other Act or law, the possession of anything referred to in subsection (1) or (2) in accordance with a licence or other authorisation under this Act is lawful.
- (5) A licence or other authorisation under this Act is:
- (a) subject to this Act; and
 - (b) taken to extend to a person in the genuine employ of the holder of the licence or authorisation to such extent as is necessary for the employee to carry out the duties of the employee on behalf of the holder.
- (6) For the purposes of this section and sections 121 to 127, gaming machine includes any incomplete device that was a gaming machine or that is, or was, intended to be made into a gaming machine and to which there is affixed an identification plate with the manufacturer's serial number displayed on the plate.

121 Possession etc. of gaming machines and restricted components by recognised manufacturers or suppliers of gaming machines

- (1) A recognised manufacturer or supplier of gaming machines is authorised to:
- (a) manufacture, obtain and be in possession of gaming machines, linked jackpot arrangements and restricted components;

- (b) sell or supply, on written order:
 - (i) gaming machines and linked jackpot arrangements to the Director-General, a licensee, a person approved by the Director-General or a recognised manufacturer or supplier of gaming machines; or
 - (ii) restricted components to a person authorised under this Act to obtain and be in possession of the restricted components; or
- (c) sell or supply, on written order, gaming machines, linked jackpot arrangements or restricted components to a person in a State or another Territory of the Commonwealth or a country where possession of such gaming machines, linked jackpot arrangements or restricted components by the person is lawful.

- (2) A recognised manufacturer or supplier of gaming machines shall not use premises for the manufacture, assembly, storage or handling of gaming machines, linked jackpot arrangements or restricted components unless the premises are approved by the Director-General.

Maximum penalty: 85 penalty units or imprisonment for 2 years.

- (3) A recognised manufacturer or supplier of gaming machines shall not manufacture, obtain or be in possession of gaming machines or restricted components unless it is for the purpose of:

 - (b) an action authorised under subsection (1)(b) or (c);
 - (c) conducting genuine testing or development work; or
 - (d) conducting, at premises approved by the Director-General, a genuine training course for licensed repairers or applicants for a repairer's licence on the installation, alteration, adjustment, maintenance or repair of gaming equipment.

Maximum penalty: 430 penalty units or imprisonment for 5 years.

- (4) A recognised manufacturer or supplier of gaming machines shall, not later than one day after the manufacture, assembly, disassembly or destruction of a gaming machine, advise the Director-General in the form determined by the Director-General of the manufacturer's serial number of the gaming machine.

Maximum penalty: 85 penalty units or imprisonment for 2 years.

121A Sale of gaming machines and gaming equipment by licensees

A licensee is authorised to sell gaming machines and gaming equipment in accordance with the procedures and conditions specified in Regulations.

122 Possession, &c., of restricted components by recognised suppliers of restricted components

- (1) A recognised supplier of restricted components is authorised to:
- (a) manufacture, obtain and be in possession of restricted components;
 - (b) sell or supply, on written order, restricted components to a person authorised under this Act to obtain and be in possession of the restricted components; or
 - (c) sell or supply, on written order, restricted components to a person in a State or another Territory of the Commonwealth or a country where possession of such restricted components by the person is lawful.
- (2) A recognised supplier of restricted components shall not manufacture, obtain or be in possession of a restricted component unless it is for the purpose of:
- (a) the submission for evaluation by the Director-General of a particular device;
 - (b) an action authorised under subsection (1)(b) or (c);
 - (c) conducting genuine testing or development work; or
 - (d) conducting, at premises approved by the Director-General, a genuine training course for licensed repairers or applicants for repairer's licences on the use of restricted components.

Maximum penalty: 215 penalty units or imprisonment for 2 years.

123 Possession etc. of restricted components by licensed repairers

A licensed repairer is authorised to:

- (a) obtain and be in possession of restricted components to such extent as is necessary to do so as a licensed repairer;
- (b) supply restricted components to a licensed repairer employed by him or her as a licensed repairer;
- (c) sell or supply, on written order, restricted components to another person authorised under this Act to obtain and be in possession of such restricted components; and
- (d) be in possession of a gaming machine or linked jackpot arrangement only to such extent as is necessary:
 - (i) with the approval of the Director-General, to remove, repair and reinstate a gaming machine or linked jackpot arrangement provided to a licensee, subject to an approval of the Director-General for such removal, repair and reinstatement;
 - (ii) to install, remove and consign the gaming machine or linked jackpot arrangement in order to fulfil a written order of the Director-General; or
 - (iii) to fulfil a written order of a licensee.

124 Possession, &c., of restricted components by licensed service contractors

A licensed service contractor is authorised to:

- (a) obtain and be in possession of restricted components to such extent as is necessary to do so as a licensed service contractor;
- (b) supply restricted components to a licensed repairer employed by the licensed service contractor as a licensed repairer; and
- (c) sell or supply, on written order, restricted components to another person authorised under this Act to obtain and be in possession of such restricted components.

A licensed monitoring provider is authorised to:

- (a) obtain and be in possession of gaming equipment to the extent necessary to do so as a licensed monitoring provider;
- (b) supply gaming equipment to a licensed repairer employed by the licensed monitoring provider as a licensed repairer; and
- (c) sell or supply, on written order, gaming equipment to another person authorised under this Act to obtain and be in possession of the equipment.

125 Possession etc. of gaming machines and restricted components by licensees

(1) A licensee is authorised to:

- (a) be in possession of gaming machines and linked jackpot arrangements, on the licensee's licensed premises, that are provided under the gaming machine licence to the licensee;
- (b) obtain and be in possession of restricted components, on the licensee's licensed premises, to such extent as is necessary for the efficient conduct of gaming on the licensed premises;
- (c) supply restricted components to:
 - (i) a licensed service contractor with whom the licensee has a service contract or a licensed monitoring provider with whom the licensee has an agreement to provide a basic monitoring service;
 - (ii) a person authorised under section 126(1) to have the restricted components; or
 - (iii) another licensee.

(2) A licensee shall not, on the licensee's licensed premises, be in possession of, or allow a person to play:

- (a) a gaming machine that is not provided under the gaming machine licence to the licensee for gaming on the licensed premises; or
- (b) a gaming machine that is not in accordance with the game, gaming token denomination or betting unit of the gaming machine as provided under the gaming machine licence or, if the gaming machine has been altered under section 40A, the game, gaming token denomination or betting unit as last altered under that subsection.

Maximum penalty: 430 penalty units or imprisonment for 5 years.

- (3) A person whose gaming machine licence is suspended under section 48, 49(9) or 50 is authorised to be in possession of gaming machines provided under the gaming machine licence to the person and restricted components during the period of suspension.
- (4) A licensee must not purchase a gaming machine unless:
 - (a) the gaming machine is of a type approved by the Director-General; and
 - (b) the particular purchase is approved by the Director-General.

Maximum penalty: 2 500 penalty units.

126 Possession etc. of gaming machines etc. by other persons

- (1) A person who carries out an installation, alteration, adjustment, maintenance or repair that is prescribed for the purposes of section 58(3), is authorised to obtain and be in possession of restricted components to such extent as is necessary to carry out the installation, alteration, adjustment, maintenance or repair.
- (2) Where a person is authorised to manufacture, sell, supply, obtain or be in possession of gaming machines, linked jackpot arrangements or restricted components, a carrier hired by that person is authorised to have possession of the gaming machines, linked jackpot arrangements or restricted components to such extent as is necessary for the purpose of transporting it.
- (3) A person conducting a genuine training course relating to the conduct of gaming who is not a listed person is authorised to be in possession of gaming machines, linked jackpot arrangements and restricted components subject to:
 - (a) the gaming machines, linked jackpot arrangements and restricted components being provided by the Director-General or being provided with the approval of the Director-General; and
 - (b) compliance with all conditions (including the payment of fees) as may be imposed by the Director-General.

- (4) The Director-General or a member of the Police Force is authorised to obtain and be in possession of gaming machines, linked jackpot arrangements, restricted components and devices capable of being represented as being gaming machines or linked jackpot arrangements obtained by them in the course of their duties and to do such acts with those things as may be necessary for the exercise or performance of their powers and functions under this Act.
- (5) A person, authorised by the Director-General, may manufacture, obtain, be in possession of or use (other than for gaming or the conduct of gaming) a gaming machine, linked jackpot arrangement, restricted component or device capable of being represented as being a gaming machine or linked jackpot arrangement.

127 Consignment or movement of gaming machines

- (1) A recognised manufacturer or supplier of gaming machines shall advise the Director-General, in the form determined by the Director-General, before gaming machines are moved by, or on behalf of, the recognised manufacturer or supplier of gaming machines:
- (a) to or from premises approved under section 121(2); or
 - (b) to a place in the Territory from outside the Territory.
- (2) An advice under subsection (1) shall include:
- (a) the number of gaming machines;
 - (b) the gaming machine type, game and manufacturer's serial number of each of the gaming machines;
 - (c) the origin and destination of the gaming machines;
 - (d) the intended dates of transport;
 - (e) the way the gaming machines are to be transported;
 - (f) the name of the carrier; and
 - (g) such other particulars as are specified in the form.

Maximum penalty: 85 penalty units or imprisonment for 2 years.

128 Purchase of gaming equipment etc.

Subject to this Act, the Director-General is authorised to:

- (d) provide:
 - (i) gaming machines, linked jackpot arrangements and linked jackpot equipment to a licensee; and
 - (ii) gaming machines, linked jackpot arrangements and restricted components to a person conducting a genuine training course relating to the conduct of gaming;
- (da) sell gaming machines to approved finance providers;
- (e) sell restricted components to a person authorised under this Act to obtain and be in possession of the restricted components;
- (f) sell gaming equipment (other than linked jackpot arrangements) and ancillary or related items;
- (g) contract for the service and maintenance of gaming equipment and ancillary or related items that are the property of the Territory; and
- (h) for the purpose of disposing of devices, sell or lease gaming machines and linked jackpot arrangements to a person authorised to obtain and be in possession of gaming machines and linked jackpot arrangements.

129 Financing of gaming machines

- (1) The Director-General may approve a financial institution to be a finance provider for the purposes of this Act.
- (2) An approved finance provider is authorised to own gaming machines but only for the purpose of financing the purchase, lease or rent of the gaming machines by licensees.
- (3) A licensee must not enter into an arrangement with another person to finance the purchase, lease or rent of gaming machines by the licensee unless the other person is an approved finance provider and the Director-General has approved the terms of the arrangement.

Maximum penalty: 500 penalty units.

- (3A) A licensee must not vary the terms of an arrangement referred to in subsection (3) without the approval of the Director-General.

Maximum penalty: 500 penalty units.

- (3B) An application for an approval referred to in subsection (3) or (3A) is to be in a form approved by the Director-General and is to include the information required by the Director-General.

- (4) An approved finance provider must not enter into an arrangement with another person to finance the purchase, lease or rent of gaming machines by the other person unless that other person is a licensee.

Maximum penalty: 500 penalty units.

- (5) A licensee must provide the Director-General with details of any security or other encumbrance taken by an approved finance provider over gaming machines in the licensee's possession, including the identification and serial numbers of the gaming machines.

Maximum penalty: 500 penalty units.

- (6) Where an approved finance provider holds a security or other encumbrance over gaming machines in a licensee's possession, despite the terms of the security or encumbrance, the finance provider must not take possession of the gaming machines under the security or encumbrance without the approval of the Director-General.

Maximum penalty: 500 penalty units.

- (7) The approval of the Director-General under subsection (6) may be given subject to conditions.

131 Acceptance by Director-General of gaming equipment and games for evaluation

- (1) Without limiting section 129 or 130, the Director-General may, on payment of the prescribed fee, accept gaming equipment types and games for evaluation.

- (2) Where the Director-General accepts a gaming equipment type or game for evaluation under subsection (1), the Director-General shall, after evaluation of the gaming equipment type or game, approve the gaming equipment type or game or reject it.

- (3) Where, under subsection (1), the Director-General accepts for evaluation a gaming equipment type or game, the Director-General may require the person who submitted the gaming equipment type or game to provide such additional information or material as the Director-General considers is necessary in order to make the evaluation.

- (4) Where a requirement under subsection (3) is not complied with to the satisfaction of the Director-General, the Director-General may reject the gaming equipment type or game without evaluation.
- (5) Where the Director-General accepts a gaming equipment type or game for evaluation, the Director-General must:
 - (a) evaluate it; or
 - (b) refer it to an approved evaluator for evaluation.
- (6) If the Director-General evaluates the gaming equipment type or game, the Director-General must approve it or reject it.
- (7) If an approved evaluator evaluates the gaming equipment type or game, the Director-General must:
 - (a) accept the evaluator's decision to accept or reject it; or
 - (b) refuse to accept the evaluator's decision and substitute the Director-General's own decision to reject or accept it.
- (8) The Director-General must notify the person who submitted a gaming equipment type or game for evaluation of the Director-General's decision under this section.
- (9) The costs and expenses incurred by the Director-General in obtaining an evaluation from an approved evaluator for the purposes of this section are a debt due to the Territory by the person who submitted the gaming equipment type or game for evaluation.
- (10) The Director-General may approve a person to be an evaluator for the purposes of this Act.
- (11) An approval under subsection (10) is subject to:
 - (a) the conditions (if any) that are prescribed; and
 - (b) the conditions the Director-General may impose in the public interest or for the proper conduct of gaming.

132 Withdrawal of approval of gaming machine types and games

- (1) If the Director-General, under section 172(2), withdraws the approval of an approved gaming machine type or game, the Director-General shall as soon as practicable give written notice of, and reasons for the withdrawal to:
- (a) the person who submitted the gaming machine type or game under section 129 or 131; and
 - (b) licensees provided with a gaming machine of that gaming machine type or game.
- (2) A licensee who permits gaming on a gaming machine of a gaming machine type or game specified in a notice given to the licensee under subsection (1) is guilty of an offence against this Act.

Maximum penalty: 85 penalty units or imprisonment for 2 years.

133 Gaming machines supplied to be in accordance with approval

A recognised manufacturer or supplier of gaming machines shall not, without the approval of the Director-General, supply a gaming machine which is in any material particular different from:

- (a) the gaming machine type or game approved by the Director-General; or
- (b) the gaming machine type or game specified in the order placed by a licensee.

Maximum penalty: 85 penalty units or imprisonment for 2 years.

134 Linked jackpots

- (1) A licensee on the licensee's licensed premises shall not, without the written approval of the Director-General:
- (a) install or operate or cause or allow to be installed or operated a single site linked jackpot arrangement;
 - (b) install or operate or cause or allow to be installed or operated or participate in the operation of, a multiple site linked jackpot arrangement; or
 - (c) install or operate or cause or allow to be installed or operated or participate in the operation of any other electronically connected gaming machine system, under which the return to a player for a result obtained on a gaming machine or by electronically connected equipment is different to the return provided for that result by the game as approved by the Director-General.

Maximum penalty: 85 penalty units or imprisonment for 2 years.

- (2) An application for an approval under subsection (1) shall:
- (a) be made by a licensee in the form determined by the Director-General;
 - (b) contain or be accompanied by such other matters and particulars as determined by the Director-General;
 - (c) be accompanied by the prescribed fee, if any; and
 - (d) be forwarded to or lodged with the Director-General.
- (3) An approval under subsection (1) shall be given an identifying approval number.
- (4) A licensee shall not cease to operate or participate in the operation of an arrangement or system approved under subsection (1) without the written approval of the Director-General.

Maximum penalty: 85 penalty units or imprisonment for 2 years.

- (5) A licensee operating or participating in the operation of an arrangement or system approved under subsection (1) who fails to comply with:
- (a) a condition to which the approval is subject; or
 - (b) a requirement prescribed in relation to the conduct or operation of the arrangement or system approved under subsection (1),

is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty: 215 penalty units or imprisonment for 2 years.

- (6) The Director-General may approve arrangements as the Director-General considers appropriate in order for the Director-General or another person to:
- (a) collect moneys from licensees participating in the operation of linked jackpot arrangements; and

- (b) make payments to persons entitled to the amount, or part of the amount, recorded by the linked jackpot arrangement.
- (7) A licensee who fails to comply with an arrangement approved under subsection (6) is guilty of an offence.
- Maximum penalty: 215 penalty units or imprisonment for 2 years.
- (9) The Director-General may do any of the following in respect of linked jackpot equipment provided under a gaming machine licence:
- (a) remove the equipment, or cause the equipment to be removed, from the licensee's licensed premises;
 - (b) approve, or refuse to approve, the replacement of equipment removed under paragraph (a);
 - (c) cause equipment removed under paragraph (a) to be replaced.
- (10) Linked jackpot equipment shall be in accordance with such type or description as the Director-General determines.
- (11) If an application for an approval under subsection (1) is refused, the Director-General shall as soon as practicable give the applicant written notice of, and the reasons for, the refusal.

- (d) the administration of licensed premises.

165 Review and termination of agreements

- (1) A prescribed person, if directed by the Director-General, shall provide to the Director-General within the time specified in the direction such information or material as the Director-General thinks fit with respect to a lease, agreement or arrangement (the agreement) that the prescribed person has with any other person relating to the conduct of the business of the prescribed person.

Maximum penalty: 85 penalty units or imprisonment for 2 years.

(2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1), matters in respect of which the Director-General may direct the provision of information or material include:

- (a) the names of persons entering into the agreement;
- (b) a description of property, goods or other things or any services provided or to be provided;
- (c) the value, type or nature of consideration; and
- (d) the period of the agreement.

(3) A prescribed person, if directed by the Director-General, shall provide to the Director-General, within the time specified in the direction, a copy of the agreement (if it is in writing).

Maximum penalty: 85 penalty units or imprisonment for 2 years.

(4) If the Director-General, after reviewing information or material provided under this section, considers (having regard to the terms of the agreement and such other information or material as the Director-General considers is relevant) that the continuation of the agreement:

- (a) is not in the public interest; or
- (b) jeopardises the integrity of:
 - (i) gaming;
 - (ii) the conduct of gaming; or
 - (iii) the manufacture, assembly, sale, supply, installation, alteration, obtaining, possession, operation, use, adjustment, maintenance or repair of gaming equipment, the Director-General may issue to a prescribed person who is the party to the agreement a written notice to show cause why the agreement should not be terminated.

(5) Notice under subsection (4) shall set out the grounds for its issue and shall specify a date, not less than 21 days after its issue, on or before which cause is to be shown.

- (6) A copy of a notice under subsection (4) shall be given to the other party to the agreement.
- (7) A prescribed person to whom notice under subsection (4) is issued may give a written answer to the Director-General to show cause at any time not later than the date specified in the notice.
- (8) The other party may make such submissions to the Director-General as the party thinks fit at any time not later than the date specified in the notice.
- (11) The Director-General, having regard to answers given in reply to a notice to show cause and submissions made under subsection (8) and to such other information or material as the Director-General considers is relevant, may:
- (a) take no action with respect to the agreement if the Director-General considers action is not warranted; or
 - (b) direct the termination of the agreement.
- (12) A direction under subsection (11)(b) shall be in writing and given to the parties to the agreement and shall specify the reasons for the termination and a date on which the agreement is terminated under this Act.
- (13) An agreement, if not sooner terminated by the parties to it, is terminated by force of this Act on the date specified in the direction under subsection (11)(b).
- (14) The termination of an agreement by force of this Act does not affect the rights and obligations of the parties to the agreement up to the time of its termination.
- (15) No liability for breach of an agreement attaches to any party to the agreement because of its termination by force of this Act.
- (16) In this section:
- prescribed person means:

- (1) The manager or other principal officer of a financial institution in which a licensee keeps and maintains an account in relation to the operation of the licensee's licensed premises shall, when so required in writing by the Director-General, submit to the Director-General a statement of account and other particulars required by the Director-General to be provided, including copies of cheques or records relevant to the account.

Maximum penalty: 85 penalty units or imprisonment for 2 years.

- (2) No liability is incurred by the financial institution or the manager or other principal officer of the financial institution in respect of any breach of trust or otherwise because of the provision of any statement or particulars or copies under this section.

Part 9A Review of decisions166A Meaning of *reviewable decision

A reviewable decision is:

- (a) a decision specified in the Schedule, unless the decision was made by a delegate of the Director-General; or
- (b) a decision made on the review, under Part 3 of the Licensing (Director-General) Act 2014, of a decision that:
- (i) is specified in the Schedule; and
 - (ii) was made by a delegate of the Director-General.

Note for section 166A

A decision made under this Act by a delegate of the Director-General is not a reviewable decision but may be a delegate decision under the Licensing (Director-General) Act 2014. Part 3 of that Act sets out procedures for applying for a review of a delegate decision.

166B Meaning of affected person

- (1) A person is an affected person for a reviewable decision mentioned in section 166A(a) if any of the following apply:
- (a) for a decision that relates to disciplinary action relating to a licence – the person is the licensee;
 - (b) for a decision that was made in relation to an application – the person is the applicant;

(c) the person made a submission, complaint or objection (however described) during the process that resulted in the decision being made.

- (2) A person is an affected person for a reviewable decision mentioned in section 166A(b) if the person was an affected person under the Licensing (Director-General) Act 2014 for the decision that was reviewed under Part 3 of that Act.

166C Jurisdiction of Civil and Administrative Tribunal

- (1) An affected person for a reviewable decision may apply to the Civil and Administrative Tribunal for a review of the decision.
- (2) For a reviewable decision that was made under the Licensing (Director-General) Act 2014, that Act and this Act are together taken to be the relevant Act for the Northern Territory Civil and Administrative Tribunal Act 2014.

166D Delegate decisions

The regulations may declare that a decision made under this Act by a delegate of the Director-General, other than a decision specified in the Schedule, is not a delegate decision for the Licensing (Director-General) Act 2014.

Part 10 General

167 Certain persons not to play gaming machines

- (1) A licensed repairer or service contractor shall not play a gaming machine installed on licensed premises except to such extent as is necessary for the repairer or contractor to alter, adjust, maintain, repair or test the gaming machine.

Maximum penalty: 85 penalty units or imprisonment for 2 years.

- (2) A person who is a licensee or machine manager shall not play a gaming machine installed on licensed premises of which that person is licensee or machine manager:
- (a) during the period that the person is the licensee or machine manager of the licensed premises, except to such extent as is necessary to do so in the course of carrying out duties as the licensee or machine manager; or

- (b) for the period of 30 days after ceasing to be such licensee or machine manager.

Maximum penalty: 40 penalty units.

- (3) Where winnings become payable because of playing a gaming machine as authorised by this section, those winnings remain the property of the licensee and are not payable to any person.

168 Inspector may be prohibited from playing gaming machines

- (1) An inspector, if directed in writing by the Director-General, shall not play a gaming machine except to such extent as is necessary for the exercise or performance of the inspector's powers and functions under this Act.

180A Criminal liability of executive officer of body corporate – deemed liability if body corporate commits offence

- (1) An executive officer of a body corporate commits an offence if the body corporate commits an offence by contravening a declared provision (a relevant offence).

Maximum penalty: The maximum penalty that may be imposed on an individual for the relevant offence.

- (2) An offence against subsection (1) is a regulatory offence.
- (3) It is a defence to a prosecution for an offence against subsection (1) if the defendant:
 - (a) was not in a position to influence the conduct of the body corporate in relation to the contravention; or
 - (b) took reasonable steps to prevent the contravention; or
 - (c) did not know, and could not reasonably have been expected to know, that the contravention would happen.

- (4) In deciding whether the defendant took (or failed to take) reasonable steps to prevent the contravention, a court must consider the following:
- (a) any action the defendant took directed towards ensuring the following (to the extent the action is relevant to the contravention):
 - (i) the body corporate arranged regular professional assessments of the body corporate's compliance with the declared provision;
 - (ii) the body corporate implemented any appropriate recommendation arising from an assessment under subparagraph (i);
 - (iii) the body corporate's employees, agents and contractors had a reasonable knowledge and understanding of the requirement to comply with the declared provision;
 - (b) any action the defendant took when the defendant became aware that the contravention was, or could be, about to happen.
- (5) Subsection (4) does not limit the matters the court may consider.
- (6) This section does not affect the liability of the body corporate.
- (7) This section applies whether or not the body corporate is prosecuted for, or found guilty of, the relevant offence.
- (8) This section does not apply if the body corporate would have a defence to a prosecution for the relevant offence.
- (9) In this section:

declared provision means:

- (a) section 47(1A); or
- (b) a provision of the Regulations prescribed by regulation.

executive officer, of a body corporate, means a director or other person who is concerned with, or takes part in, the management of the body corporate.

181 Power to request name and address by police officers

- (2) If a member of the Police Force suspects, on reasonable grounds, that any of the particulars stated following a request under subsection (1) is false, the member may request evidence of the correctness of the particulars.
- (3) A person requested under this section to state the person's name, address and date of birth who:
 - (a) fails to immediately state those particulars; or
 - (b) states false particulars,is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty: 85 penalty units or imprisonment for 2 years.
- (4) A person requested under this section to produce evidence of the correctness of particulars who:
 - (a) fails to produce the evidence; or
 - (b) produces false evidence with respect to those particulars,is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty: 85 penalty units or imprisonment for 2 years.
- (5) A member of the Police Force may arrest without warrant a person who, when requested under this section:
 - (a) to state the person's name, address and date of birth or any of those particulars; or
 - (b) to produce evidence of the correctness of any such particulars,fails to do so or states a name, address or date of birth or produces evidence that, in the opinion of the member, is false.
- (6) A member of the Police Force who makes a request of a person under this section shall warn the person when making the request that failure to comply with the request or to state false particulars or to produce false evidence with respect to the particulars requested is an offence against this Act.

182 Fingerprints and the like

- (1) Where a person has been arrested for an offence or an attempt to commit an offence against section 120(1) or (2), 137(1), 176 or 177, a member of the Police Force at the police station to which the person is taken after arrest, or where the person is in custody, may take all such particulars as the member considers necessary for the identification of the person, including the person's voice print, photograph, fingerprints, palm prints, footprints, toe prints and handwriting.
- (2) In taking those particulars (other than any voice print or handwriting), such force as is reasonable in the circumstances may be used.
- (3) A court that convicts a person who appears personally before it of an offence or an attempt to commit an offence against section 120(1) or (2), 137(1), 176 or 177 may, in its discretion, order that person into the custody of a member of the Police Force for the purpose of obtaining any particulars referred to in subsection (1).
- (4) A member of the Police Force referred to in subsection (3) and any other member acting in aid of that member shall take the person to a place where those particulars can adequately be taken and take those particulars and may, for that purpose, use such force as is reasonable in the circumstances.
- (5) Where a person is found not guilty of an offence or an attempt to commit an offence against section 120(1) or (2), 137(1), 176 or 177, any voice print, photograph, fingerprints, palm prints, footprints, toe prints or handwriting previously taken under this section in relation to the alleged offence shall, on written request by the person, be destroyed in the person's presence or in the presence of a person nominated by the person.

183 Claims of privilege in proceedings for offences

- (1) In proceedings for an offence against this Act, a prosecutor or a witness for the prosecution shall not be compelled to disclose information, or produce any document containing the information, where the information may be subject to a genuine claim of privilege under any Act or law.
- (2) Except as provided in subsection (1), in proceedings for an offence against this Act a prosecutor or a witness for the prosecution, on application by or on behalf of the defendant, may be compelled to disclose to the court information relevant to the proceedings or produce any document containing information relevant to the proceedings.

- (3) The court in the interests of justice, having regard to all the circumstances of the proceedings, shall determine if the information is to be disclosed, or the document produced, to the defendant or the defendant's legal practitioner.

- (n) provide for the fees that may be charged by the Director-General for services relating to the supply of gaming machines;

- (o) provide for a bond or other security in respect of a monitoring provider's licence, including the administration of the bond or security; or
 - (p) provide for methods for, and other procedures relating to, the payment of taxes, levies, fees, costs, charges, penalties and other amounts payable under this Act.
- (5) The Regulations may:
- (a) require a matter or thing to be approved by or done to the satisfaction of the Director-General; or
 - (b) confer a discretion on the Director-General.

Part 11 Transitional matters for Licensing (Director-General) Act 2014

Division 1 Definitions

195 Definitions

In this Part:

2014 Acts means the Licensing (Director-General) Act 2014 and 2014 Amending Act.

2014 Amending Act means the Licensing (Repeals and Consequential Amendments) Act 2014.

commencement means the commencement of section 22 of the Licensing (Director-General) Act 2014.

Commission means the Commission as defined in section 3 of the NTLC Act.

NTLC Act means the Northern Territory Licensing Commission Act 1999 as in force immediately before the commencement.

NTLC Director means the Director as defined in section 3 of the NTLC Act.

Division 2 Applications

196 Application to NTLC Director – pending decision

- (1) This section applies if, before the commencement:
 - (a) an application had been made under this Act for a decision to be made by the NTLC Director; but
 - (b) the NTLC Director had not made a decision on the application.
- (2) The application:
 - (a) is taken to be an application made on the commencement for the decision to be made by the Director-General; and
 - (b) must be dealt with and determined in accordance with this Act as amended by the 2014 Amending Act.

Note for section 196

The Director-General's decision on the application will be a decision made after the commencement and may therefore be a reviewable decision or a decision to which Part 3 of the Licensing (Director-General) Act 2014 applies.

197 Application to Commission – not yet considered

- (1) This section applies if, before the commencement:
 - (a) an application had been made under this Act for a decision to be made by the Commission; but
 - (b) the Commission had not commenced active consideration of the application.
- (2) The application:
 - (a) is taken to be an application made on the commencement for the decision to be made by the Director-General; and
 - (b) must be dealt with and determined in accordance with this Act as amended by the 2014 Amending Act.

Note for section 197

The Director-General's decision on the application will be a decision made after the commencement and may therefore be a reviewable decision or a decision to which Part 3 of the Licensing (Director-General) Act 2014 applies.

198 Application to Commission – under active consideration

- (1) This section applies if, before the commencement:
 - (a) an application had been made under this Act for a decision to be made by the Commission and the Commission had commenced active consideration of the application; but
 - (b) the Commission had not made a decision.
- (2) The Commission must deal with and determine the application in accordance with the old legislation as if the 2014 Acts had not commenced.
- (3) However, the Commission's decision is then taken to have been made by the Director-General.

Note for section 198(3)

As the decision will be made after the commencement and will be taken to be a decision of the Director-General, it may be a reviewable decision.

199 Active consideration

Regulations may make provision for determining when active consideration of an application commences for this Division.

Division 3 Review of decisions

200 New review regime applies to post-commencement decisions

Part 9A applies only in relation to decisions made after the commencement.

201 Review of pre-commencement decision – application not yet made

- (1) This section applies if, before the commencement:
 - (a) a decision had been made under this Act and the period for applying for a review of the decision under section 193, as then in force, had not expired; but
 - (b) an application for a review of the decision had not been made.
- (2) A person who would have been entitled to apply for a review of the decision under the old legislation may do so under the old legislation, as if the 2014 Acts had not commenced.

- (3) The Commission must review the decision in accordance with the old legislation as if the 2014 Acts had not commenced.

202 Review of pre-commencement decision – application made

- (1) This section applies if, before the commencement:
- (a) an application had been made under section 193, as then in force, for review of a decision made under this Act; but
 - (b) the Commission had not completed the review.
- (2) The Commission must complete the review in accordance with the old legislation as if the 2014 Acts had not commenced.

Division 4 General matters

203 Continuation of ongoing documents and things

- (1) This section applies if:
- (a) before the commencement, a power or function was conferred by this Act on the Commission or NTLC Director; and
 - (b) on the commencement, the power or function (or a substantially similar power or function) is conferred on the Director-General.
- (2) On the commencement, an ongoing document continues with the same force and effect as if it had been issued by, or given to, the Director-General.
- (3) On the commencement, an ongoing thing continues with the same force and effect as if it had been done by, or in relation to, the Director-General.
- (4) This section applies subject to the other provisions of this Part and Part 5, Division 2 of the Licensing (Director-General) Act 2014.
- (5) In this section, a reference to something done before the commencement includes a reference to something done after the commencement in accordance with this Part as if it had been done before the commencement.

(6) In this section:

ongoing document means a document that:

- (a) was issued by, or given to, the Commission or NTLC Director before the commencement in or for the exercise of the power or performance of the function; and ongoing thing means a thing that:
- (b) immediately before the commencement, had ongoing effect.

- (a) was done by, or in relation to, the Commission or NTLC Director before the commencement in or for the exercise of the power or performance of the function; and
- (b) immediately before the commencement, had ongoing effect.

Part 12 Transitional matters for Statute Law Amendment (Directors' Liability) Act 2015

204 Offences – before and after commencement

- (1) Sections 180 and 180A, as inserted by the Statute Law Amendment (Directors' Liability) Act 2015, (the new sections) apply in relation to a relevant offence committed by a body corporate after the commencement of Part 2, Division 15 of that Act (the commencement) only if:
 - (a) all the conduct constituting the relevant offence occurred after the commencement; and
 - (b) all the conduct of the executive officer constituting the offence against the new section occurred after the commencement.
- (2) Section 180, as in force before the commencement:
 - (a) continues to apply in relation to offences committed by a body corporate before the commencement; and
 - (b) applies in relation to relevant offences committed by a body corporate after the commencement to which, as a result of subsection (1), the new sections do not apply.
