2. * The protected earnings are 80% of the net earnings in respect of each payday.
3. * The appropriate deduction is $ _____ / _____ % of the net earnings in respect of each payday.
4. Subject to paragraph 6, on each pay-day that the net earnings are in excess of the protected earnings specified in paragraph 2, the employer may first pay to himself or herself, out of that excess, $(monetary amount) for the administrative costs of complying with this order.

5. Subject to paragraph 6, following payment of the administrative costs in accordance with paragraph 4, the employer must pay to the Fines Recovery Unit, out of the remaining excess, the appropriate deduction specified in paragraph 3.

6. If on a pay-day the amount of net earnings in excess of the protected earnings is insufficient to allow for payment in full of the administrative costs or appropriate deduction, on that pay-day the employer may first pay as much as the excess allows towards the administrative costs, must then pay as much as the excess allows towards the appropriate deduction, and must pay the deficit in accordance with paragraph 7.

7. If on a pay-day, after payment of the administrative costs and appropriate deduction in full, the net earnings remain in excess of the protected earnings, the employer must pay from that excess as much of the total deficit from previous pay-days as the excess allows, first towards the outstanding administrative costs and then towards the outstanding appropriate deductions.

NOTE: A Garnishee order comes into force at the end of 7 days after the day on which the order is served on the employer.

NOTE: If the employer wilfully fails to comply with the garnishee order, the Fines Recovery Unit may apply to the Local Court to have the order enforced against the employer.

Do not ignore this notice. If you do not understand this notice or need help contact the Fines Recovery Unit, a legal practitioner or your local legal aid office.

NOTICE TO EMPLOYER

The garnishee order served with this notice requires you to deduct from the net earnings payable to the fine defaulter as your employee, on each pay-day until the order is discharged or suspended, the amount referred to in the order as the appropriate deduction, and to pay that amount to the Fines Recovery Unit.

EARNINGS AND DEDUCTIONS

earnings means money payable to a fine defaulter by way of:

- (a) wages or salary, including fees, bonuses, commission, pay in lieu of leave or retirement benefit, overtime pay or other profits arising from the fine defaulter's office or employment; or
- (b) a pension, including:
 - (i) an annuity for past services whether or not the services were rendered to the person paying the annuity; and
 - (ii) periodic payments of compensation for the loss, abolition or relinquishment of, or a reduction in profits arising from, an office or employment, but does not include a pension under the Social Security Act 1991 of the Commonwealth or the Veterans' Entitlements Act 1986 of the Commonwealth;

net earnings means the earnings payable to a fine defaulter on a pay-day after the deduction of:

- (a) tax instalments under the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936 of the Commonwealth; and
- (b) superannuation contributions under the Superannuation Act 1986 of the Commonwealth;

appropriate deduction means the amount that the Fines Recovery Unit considers to be:

- (a) a reasonable deduction from the net earnings; and
- (b) not more than is necessary to pay the amount owing within a reasonable time after an attachment of earnings order is made.

protected earnings means the amount of the net earnings below which the Fines Recovery Unit considers it unreasonable for the earnings to be reduced by a payment to the Fines Recovery Unit, having regard to the resources and needs of the fine defaulter and of any other person for whom the fine defaulter provides or reasonably may provide.

NOTICE TO EMPLOYER

You are required to give the fine defaulter a notice specifying particulars of the payments made by you under the garnishee order, including the payment for your administrative costs in respect of the order.

NOTICE IF YOU ARE NOT THE EMPLOYER

You must promptly advise the Director of the Fines Recovery Unit:

- (a) if you are not the employer of the fine defaulter; or

- (b) if you are now the employer of the fine defaulter but later cease to employ the fine defaulter – after you cease to be the employer.

EMPLOYEE NOT TO BE DISMISSED OR PREJUDICED

A person who dismisses an employee, injures an employee in his or her employment or alters an employee's position to his or her prejudice because a garnishee order has been made, or because the person is required to make payments under the order in relation to the employee, may be dealt with as for contempt of court.
