- (4) Every warrant may be executed by apprehending the defendant at any place within the Territory.

22 Form of summons

25 Warrant in first instance

If a Judge is satisfied, by evidence upon oath, that it is probable that any person will not attend to give evidence or to produce any article without being compelled to do so, then, instead of issuing a summons as provided by section 23, the Judge may issue a warrant in the first instance.

Where a person has been found guilty of an offence to which he has pleaded guilty in the manner prescribed by section 57A, a relevant registrar shall forthwith serve, personally or by post, on the defendant notice of the finding of guilt and of any order or sentence made on that finding of guilt and no further proceedings upon the finding of guilt or order shall be taken until the expiry of 14 days after such service.

57D Court may refuse to accept plea of guilty in writing

Where, upon its consideration of the subject matter of a complaint to which a defendant has pleaded guilty as prescribed by section 57A or of any explanation endorsed by a defendant upon a copy of a summons issued upon such a complaint, the Court is of the opinion:

- (a) that the offence may be one which merits punishment other than a fine; or
- (b) that the defendant did not understand the consequences of his submitting a written plea of guilty; or
- (c) that for some other reason justice would be better served by requiring the appearance of the defendant in person, the Court shall vacate the summons issued and shall order that a summons in the form prescribed by the regulations shall issue.

57E Further consideration of complaint may be required

- (1) Where a summons has been issued under section 57(2) and a finding of guilt has been recorded in the absence of the defendant, the defendant may, within 7 days after service upon him of a notice under section 57C, serve either personally or by post on the relevant registrar a notice requiring further consideration of the complaint upon which the finding of guilt was recorded.

- (2) Upon service of a notice under subsection (1), no proceedings shall be taken to enforce the finding of guilt or any order made thereon until after the proceedings consequent upon that notice have been completed.

- (4) On the day fixed under subsection (3), the Court :
 - (a) may quash the finding of guilt and vacate any orders made thereon if it is satisfied that the summons first issued on the complaint did not come to the notice of the defendant a reasonable time before the date appointed by the summons for the hearing; and
 - (b) direct that the complaint shall be reheard at a time and place then fixed by the Court; or
 - (c) confirm the finding of guilt and any orders made thereon.
- (5) The Court before which a complaint is reheard in pursuance of a direction under subsection (4) has power to adjudicate thereon as if the rehearing was the first hearing of the complaint and the defendant had been personally served with a summons requiring his attendance on the day fixed by the direction.

58 Issue of warrant

- (1) No warrant to apprehend any defendant shall be issued unless the matter of the complaint is substantiated on oath to the satisfaction of the Court.
- (2) When the matter of any complaint:
 - (a) charging the defendant with a summary offence; or
 - (c) under any other Act which authorises the issue of a warrant in the first instance, is substantiated as provided in this section the Court may, instead of issuing a summons, issue a warrant in the first instance to apprehend the defendant.

- (3) If any defendant fails to appear in obedience to a summons, the Court may issue a warrant for the apprehension of the defendant, provided that:
- (a) the matter of the complaint is substantiated as provided in this section; and
 - (b) it is proved to the satisfaction of the Court that the summons was duly served a reasonable time before the time appointed for the hearing.

60 Remand or discharge on bail

- (1) Where a defendant is apprehended under a warrant or where, from the absence of witnesses, or from any other reasonable cause, it becomes necessary or advisable to defer or adjourn the defendant's hearing, the Court may remand, and may, from time to time, further remand that defendant for such period as the Court thinks fit, but not exceeding 15 clear days at any one time unless both parties consent thereto.
- (2) Where the Court remands under subsection (1) or (3) a defendant, the Court shall, in respect of the defendant's period of remand or further period of remand, as the case may be, commit that defendant:
- (a) by warrant into the custody of the Commissioner of Correctional Services; or
 - (b) orally to the custody of the constable or other person who apprehended him; or
 - (c) orally to such other safe custody as the Court thinks fit, and the Court shall order that defendant to be brought up at some stated time and placed before the Court, of which order a registrar shall give the complainant due notice.

- (3) The Court, on being satisfied that a defendant who has been remanded under subsection (1) and committed into custody in accordance with subsection (2) is, by reason of illness or accident, unable at the expiration of the period for which the defendant was remanded under subsection (1) to appear personally before the Court may, in the absence of the defendant, further remand that defendant for such period as the Court thinks fit, but not exceeding 15 clear days at any one time.

- (5) The Court may, instead of committing under subsection (2) a defendant, grant the defendant bail in accordance with the Bail Act 1982.

The Local Court shall also cause a copy of the notice of appeal, together with the fee paid pursuant to section 172, a copy of the committal brief (if a preliminary examination was conducted), and a copy, certified by writing under the hand of the relevant registrar to be a true copy, of a transcript of the record or of the record, as the case requires, of the depositions of the witnesses or all exhibits tendered in the relevant proceedings to be transmitted with the conviction, order, or adjudication.

175A Transmission of documents to Supreme Court deemed to be a tendering in evidence that Court

Where, under section 174(1) or 175, a document or exhibit referred to in either of those sections is transmitted to the Supreme Court, the transmission of the document or exhibit shall be deemed to be a tendering in evidence to that Court of that document or exhibit.

176A Tendering of evidence to Supreme Court

- (1) Where evidence is tendered to the Supreme Court, that Court shall, unless it is satisfied that the evidence, if received, would not afford a ground for allowing the appeal, admit that evidence if:
 - (a) it appears to it that that evidence is likely to be credible and would have been admissible in the proceedings from which the appeal lies on an issue which is the subject of the appeal; and
 - (b) it is satisfied that that evidence was not adduced in those proceedings and there is a reasonable explanation for the failure to adduce it; and
 - (c) it is satisfied that the appellant has complied with the requirements of subsections (2) and (3) in respect of that evidence.
- (2) An appellant shall not, under subsection (1), tender evidence to the Supreme Court unless he has, not less than 7 days before the hearing of the appeal to which the evidence relates is commenced

 - (d) remit the case for hearing or for further hearing before the Local Court;
 - (e) subject to subsections (2A) and (2B), make such further or other order as to costs or otherwise as it thinks fit;
 - (f) notwithstanding that it is of the opinion that the point raised in the appeal might be decided in favour of the appellant, dismiss the appeal if it considers that no substantial miscarriage of justice has actually occurred.
- (2A) For subsection (2)(e), the Supreme Court, when making an order for costs in relation to proceedings in the Local Court must apply the prescribed scale as mentioned in section 77C.

- (2B) However, if the Supreme Court considers the circumstances of the case, or the legal issues, are of an exceptional nature, the Court may order costs exceeding the prescribed scale.
- (3) The Supreme Court may upon such terms as it thinks fit at any time before the order of dismissal is drawn up and sealed reinstate any appeal dismissed for want of prosecution.
- (4) In exercising its discretion on an appeal made under section 163(1) for an increase of sentence imposed after the commencement of this subsection (whether or not the sentence involved imprisonment or another penalty, forfeiture or sum), the Supreme Court must not take into account any element of double jeopardy involving the respondent being sentenced again when deciding whether to do either or both of the following:
 - (a) allow the appeal;
 - (b) impose another sentence.

178 If costs not paid according to order of Supreme Court, certificate to be granted

- (1) When the Supreme Court makes any order as to the costs of the appeal it shall direct the costs to be paid to an Associate Judge or other proper officer of the Supreme Court, to be by Associate Judge or other proper officer paid over to the party entitled thereto, and may state a time within which the costs are to be paid.
- (2) If the costs are not paid within the time so limited (or if no time is so limited, then within 7 days) an Associate Judge or other proper officer of the Supreme Court, upon application of the party entitled to the costs of any person on his behalf, and on payment of the fee of 10 cents, shall grant to the party so applying a certificate that the costs have not been paid.

179 Enforcement of payment of costs of appeal

- (1) Upon production of the certificate mentioned in section 178 to the Local Court the payment of the costs may be enforced in the same manner as is provided by this Act for enforcing the payment of costs awarded by the Local Court.
- (2) The payment of the costs may be enforced under the same warrant as any penalty or sum adjudged to be paid by any conviction or order affirmed or made upon the appeal.

186 Findings of guilt etc. not voidable for want of form

- (1) No finding of guilt or order of the Court, or other proceedings before the Court, shall be void or voidable, or liable to be quashed, annulled, or set aside in any manner, by reason of any deficiency in the statement of the offence therein described, if the offence is stated in the words of the Act creating the offence, or if it appears that the offence was one against the true intent and meaning of that Act.

- (2) No judgment, finding of guilt, or order of the Court, or other proceedings before the Court, shall be quashed or set aside for any mere matter of form or technical error, or mistake in any name, date, or title, or in any matter of description only; but in all cases regard shall be had alone to the substantial merits and justice of the case.

187 Parties not to be discharged upon defects in warrants provided finding of guilt took place upon good grounds

- (1) Any finding of guilt or order whatsoever made by the Court may be proved by a copy of the information or complaint on which the finding of guilt or order was made, and of the minute or memorandum thereof made by the Court and endorsed on the complaint. One copy shall be certified by the person or one of the persons constituting the Court by which the finding of guilt or order was made or by the relevant registrar.
- (2) No proof shall be required of the signature or judicial or official character of the person appearing to have signed any such copy as is referred to in subsection (1).
- (3) This section shall apply to any finding of guilt whether made before or after the commencement of this Act, and shall be in addition to and not in substitution for any other enactment providing a mode of proving findings of guilt or orders.

- (2) The Court may adjourn a hearing so that a defendant given a complaint under subsection (1) may consider it and make a full answer to the charge.
- (3) If a defendant is not given a complaint in accordance with subsection (1), the Court may adjourn the hearing or dismiss the proceedings.
- (4) If a defendant appears and the complainant fails to appear, the Court must dismiss the proceedings unless it thinks it proper to adjourn the hearing.

191 Procedure if failure to appear

- (1) This section applies if a person fails to appear as required by a notice to appear and the Court is satisfied:
 - (a) the substance of the offence specified in the notice to appear (the specified offence) is substantiated on oath made before the Court; and

 - (2) The Court may do either of the following:
 - (a) adjourn the hearing of the specified offence and issue a warrant for the apprehension of the person;
 - (b) proceed ex parte to a hearing of the specified offence (the ex parte proceedings) and, subject to this section, adjudicate in relation to that offence as fully and effectually, to all intents and purposes, as if the person had personally appeared as required by the notice to appear.

- (3) For the ex parte proceedings, the Court may have regard to either or both of the following as evidence of the commission by the person of the specified offence:
 - (a) the statement in the notice to appear about the substance of the specified offence;
 - (b) any oral evidence.
 - (4) If the result of the ex parte proceedings is that the Court finds the person committed the specified offence, the prosecutor may recite to the Court a relevant matter alleged against the person about the specified offence as if the person had personally appeared and pleaded guilty.
 - (5) A copy of a notice to appear, which the member who served the notice:
 - (a) endorsed on the day of service with the date, time and place it was served; and
 - (b) signed on the day of service; and
 - (c) has certified as a true copy of the original, is evidence that the notice was served in accordance with section 133B(2) of the Police Administration Act 1978.

192 Procedure on failure to appear after ineffective service

- (1) If a person fails to appear as required by a notice to appear and the Court is not satisfied that the person was served with the notice in accordance with section 133B(2) of the Police Administration Act 1978, the Court may dismiss the proceedings.
- (2) The dismissal of proceedings under subsection (1) does not prevent the commencement of other proceeding in respect of the offence specified in the notice to appear.
