This Act comes into operation on the date fixed by the Administrator by notice in the Gazette.

3 Objects

The following are objects of this Act:

- (a) to specify the general principles of justice in respect of youth;

4 Principles

The following are general principles that must be taken into account in the administration of this Act:

- (b) the youth should be dealt with in a way that acknowledges his or her needs and will provide him or her with the opportunity to develop in socially responsible ways;
- (c) a youth should only be kept in custody for an offence (whether on arrest, in remand or under sentence) as a last resort and for the shortest appropriate period of time;
- (d) a youth must be dealt with in the criminal law system in a manner consistent with his or her age and maturity and have the same rights and protection before the law as would an adult in similar circumstances;
- (e) a youth should be made aware of his or her obligations under the law and of the consequences of contravening the law;
- (f) a youth who commits an offence should be dealt with in a way that allows him or her to be re-integrated into the community;
- (g) a balanced approach must be taken between the needs of the youth, the rights of any victim of the youth's offence and the interests of the community;
- (h) family relationships between a youth and members of his or her family should, where appropriate, be preserved and strengthened;

- (k) a victim of an offence committed by a youth should be given the opportunity to participate in the process of dealing with the youth for the offence;

- (l) a responsible adult in respect of a youth should be encouraged to fulfil his or her responsibility for the care and supervision of the youth;
- (m) a decision affecting a youth should, as far as practicable, be made and implemented within a time frame appropriate to the youth's sense of time;
- (n) punishment of a youth must be designed to give him or her an opportunity to develop a sense of social responsibility and otherwise to develop in beneficial and socially acceptable ways;

- (1A) If the youth appears to have insufficient English language skills to understand the explanation, the police officer must take reasonable efforts to obtain a qualified interpreter for the explanation.
- (2) Before a youth is searched in connection with the investigation of an offence, a police officer must, unless impracticable, inform the youth of his or her ability to access legal advice and representation.
- (3) Any action taken is not unlawful, and any evidence obtained is not inadmissible, only because of a failure to comply with this section.

16 Guidelines in relation to arrest of youths

- (1) The Commissioner of Police may, by general orders issued under the Police Administration Act 1978, issue guidelines, not inconsistent with that Act or this Act, in relation to the arrest of youths and the investigation of offences committed or believed to have been committed by youths.
- (2) The arrest of a youth in relation to an offence, without a warrant but in accordance with the guidelines referred to in subsection (1), is not unlawful only because:
 - (a) an authorised officer does not consent to a prosecution in relation to the matter; or
 - (b) it subsequently appears, or it is found by a court or a jury, that the youth did not commit the offence.
- (3) The arrest of a youth is not unlawful only because the police officer arresting the youth did not do so in accordance with this Act or the guidelines if, at the time of the arrest the officer reasonably believed that the person arrested was not a youth.

17 Authorised officer to be notified

If the police officer who arrests a youth is not an authorised officer, he or she must, as soon as practicable after the youth is arrested, notify an authorised officer of the arrest.

18 Interview of youth

- (1) This section applies if a police officer believes on reasonable grounds that a youth has committed or is implicated in the commission of an offence that, if committed by an adult, would be punishable by imprisonment for 12 months or longer.

- (1A) The officer must do the following before interviewing the youth in respect of the offence, or causing the youth to do anything in connection with the investigation of the offence:

Note for subsection (1A)

- (1) A police officer must not search the property, person or clothing of a youth as part of an investigation of an offence unless there is a support person present.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply if the officer reasonably believes:
 - (a) that a search of the property, person or clothing of the youth needs to be carried out as a matter of urgency; and

- (b) that a delay to allow a support person to be present would create an unacceptable risk of harm to the youth or another person or the loss or destruction of evidence.
- (3) If the search is conducted without a support person being present, the officer must do so in a manner that preserves the dignity of the youth as best as is practicable.
- (4) The officer must not require a youth to remove any clothing that the youth is wearing unless:
 - (a) the officer has reasonable grounds for believing that the removal and examination of the clothing may afford evidence of the commission of an offence; and
 - (b) the youth is provided with adequate clothing to replace the clothing removed.

20 Search must be by person of same gender

- (1) The person or clothing of a youth must only be searched by a person of the same gender as the youth and the search must be carried out in a place and a manner that allows the youth privacy from persons of the other gender.
- (2) If a police officer of the same gender as the youth is not available within a reasonable time, a person of the appropriate gender who is not a police officer may carry out the search under the direction of a police officer who must take the necessary measures to preserve the youth's privacy and dignity.

- (1) A police officer must not charge a youth at a police station with an offence unless the officer believes on reasonable grounds that:
 - (a) the youth will not appear in court to answer a summons in relation to the offence; or
 - (b) releasing the youth from custody will be accompanied by a substantial risk of:
 - (i) a continuation or repetition of the offence or another offence by the youth; or
 - (ii) the loss or destruction of evidence relating to the offence; or
 - (iii) harm to the youth.
- (2) If subsection (1)(a) or (b) applies, the officer may, subject to section 21, charge the youth at a police station with the offence and:

- (3) This section applies whether the responsible adult resides in the Territory or not.

24 Detention of youth not admitted to bail

- (1) If a youth has been charged with an offence and is not admitted to bail, a police officer must, as soon as practicable, apply to the Court or a Local Court Judge for an order that the youth be detained at a detention centre or other place approved by the Minister for the purpose.

- (1) This section applies if:
- (a) a youth is to be detained in accordance with an order under section 24; and
 - (b) the youth requires medical attention.

- (4) While in the hospital or health centre, the youth remains in the custody of the Police Force.
- (5) On being discharged from the hospital or health centre, the youth must be taken to the specified detention centre or other approved place unless he or she has in the meantime been admitted to bail.

If a youth is taken from the place at which he or she is detained to a court, or from a court to the place of detention, he or she must, as far as practicable, be kept apart from other persons under detention who are not youths.

41 Effect of diverting youth

- (1) If a youth is diverted in relation to an offence and the diversion is completed to the satisfaction of a police officer, no criminal investigation or criminal legal proceedings can be commenced or continued against the youth in respect of the offence.
- (2) Any admission made or information given by a youth during the course of diversion in relation to an offence is not admissible in any subsequent criminal or civil proceedings in relation to the offence.

42 Extension of limitation period

- (1) This section applies if a youth is diverted in relation to an offence but fails to satisfactorily complete a Youth Justice Conference or diversion program.

 - (d) if the officer is authorised by the Commissioner of Police (or the Commissioner's delegate) under section 39(4) to refer the youth to a diversion program and the youth declines to participate in the program or does not complete the program – a statement of that fact and any reasons offered by the youth for declining or not completing the program;
 - (e) if the youth is not referred to a diversion program because section 39(3) applies – a statement of that fact.
- (2) If the youth is charged with the offence, the prosecution must, as soon as practicable, provide the report mentioned in subsection (1) to the youth's legal representative and to the Youth Justice Court.

43 Publication of information of diversion

- (1) If a person is found guilty of an offence, information concerning the diversion of the person as a youth for that or any other offence may be produced in the Youth Justice Court for the purpose of determining the sentence to be imposed on the person for the offence.

- (2) Information and details of the diversion of a youth must not be published, except as aggregated data for statistical purposes where the information does not permit any particular youth to be identified.

- (3) A person who publishes information in contravention of subsection (2) commits an offence.

Maximum penalty: If the offender is a natural person –

12 months.

If the offender is a body corporate –

 - (c) the victim has been informed of the contents of the victim report and does not object to its presentation.
- (2) If the victim is incapable, because of age or physical or mental disability, of giving consent to the presentation of a victim report, the victim report may be presented if a person who, in the opinion of the Court, has a sufficiently close relationship with the victim has been informed of the contents of the report and does not object to its presentation.
- (3) A victim report may also be presented if:
 - (a) the victim cannot be located after reasonable attempts have been made by the prosecutor; and
 - (b) the details of the harm suffered by the victim arising from the offence are reasonably ascertainable.
- (4) A victim report need not be presented to the Court if the details of the harm are already before the Court as evidence or as part of a report prepared in relation to the youth.
- (5) A copy of a written victim report must be given to the youth.
- (6) If a victim report is to be presented orally, a written or oral summary of the report must be given to the youth.

80 Other matters may be addressed

- (2) A victim impact statement or victim report may contain a statement as to the victim's wishes in respect of the sentence of the Court for the offence.

Part 6 Disposition by Court

Division 1 General principles

81 Principles and considerations to be applied to youth offenders

- (1) When sentencing a youth who has been found guilty of an offence, the Court must have regard to:
- (a) the principles applying generally for disposing of charges of offences, except as those principles are modified by this Act; and
 - (b) the general principles of youth justice set out in section 4.
- (2) The Court must consider any information about the youth or the offence that may assist the Court to decide how to dispose of the matter, and in particular must consider:
- (a) the nature and seriousness of the offence; and
 - (b) any history of offences previously committed by the youth; and
 - (c) the youth's cultural background; and
 - (d) the age and maturity of the youth; and
 - (e) any previous order in relation to an offence that still applies to the youth, and any further order that is liable to be imposed if the youth has not complied with the terms of the previous order; and
 - (f) the extent to which any person was affected as a victim of the offence.
- (3) The Court must dispose of the matter in a way that is in proportion to the seriousness of the offence.
- (4) The Court must have regard to the fact that the rehabilitation of a youth may be facilitated by:
- (a) the participation of the youth's family; and
 - (b) giving the youth opportunities to engage in educational programs and in employment, but the absence of such participation or opportunities must not result in the youth being dealt with more severely for the offence.

- (5) The Court must take into account whether the youth has taken steps to make amends with any of the victims of the offence.
- (6) The Court must impose a sentence of detention or imprisonment on a youth only as a last resort, and a sentence of imprisonment only if there is no appropriate alternative.

82 Powers of Supreme Court in sentencing

- (1) If a youth is found guilty before the Supreme Court of an offence, the Supreme Court may do any of the following:
 - (a) exercise, in addition to its powers, the powers of the Youth Justice Court;
 - (b) order that the youth be detained in a detention centre or imprisoned for a period not exceeding the period of imprisonment for which such an offence would be punishable if committed by an adult;
 - (c) remit the case to the Youth Justice Court.
- (2) If the Supreme Court makes an order under subsection (1)(b), it may also make any order in relation to that detention or imprisonment that it could make in relation to a sentence of imprisonment under the Sentencing Act 1995.
- (3) If the Supreme Court finds a youth guilty of murder, the Supreme Court may, despite section 157(2) of the Criminal Code, sentence the youth to life imprisonment or a shorter period of detention or imprisonment as it considers appropriate.

Division 2 Sentencing options

83 Orders Court may make

- (1) If the Court finds a charge proven against a youth it may, whether or not it proceeds to conviction, do one or more of the following:
 - (a) dismiss the charge for the offence;
 - (b) discharge the youth without penalty;
 - (c) adjourn the matter for a period not exceeding 6 months and, if during that period the youth does not commit a further offence, discharge the youth without penalty;

- (d) adjourn the matter to a specified date not more than 12 months from the date of the finding of guilt, and grant bail to the youth in accordance with the Bail Act 1982:
 - (i) for the purpose of assessing the youth's capacity and prospects for rehabilitation; or
 - (ii) for the purpose of allowing the youth to demonstrate that rehabilitation has taken place; or
 - (iii) for any other purpose the Court considers appropriate in the circumstances;
- (e) order the youth to participate in a program approved by the Minister, as specified in the order, and adjourn the matter for that purpose (see Division 3);
- (f) order that the youth be released on his or her giving such security as the Court considers appropriate that he or she will:
 - (i) appear before the Court if called on to do so during the period, not exceeding 2 years, specified in the order; and
 - (ii) be of good behaviour for the period of the order; and
 - (iii) observe any conditions imposed by the Court (see Division 4);
- (g) fine the youth not more than the maximum penalty that may be imposed under the relevant law in relation to the offence (see Division 5);
- (h) make a community work order that the youth participate in an approved project for the number of hours, not exceeding 480 hours, specified in the order (see Division 6);

- (l) order that the youth serve a term of detention or imprisonment;

- (m) make any other order in respect of the youth that another court could make if the youth were an adult convicted of that offence other than a community based order or community custody order under the Sentencing Act 1995.
- (2) If the Court orders that the youth serve a term of detention or imprisonment, the term must not exceed the lesser of:
 - (a) the maximum period that may be imposed under the relevant law in relation to the offence; or
 - (b) for a youth who is:
 - (i) 15 years of age or more – 2 years; or
 - (ii) less than 15 years of age – 12 months.
- (3) The Court must not order the imprisonment of a youth who is less than 15 years of age.
- (4) If the Supreme Court remits a case to the Youth Justice Court under section 82(1)(c), the Youth Justice Court must deal with the youth as if the youth had been found guilty of the offence in that Court.
- (5) This section does not limit the power of the Supreme Court to impose on a youth a sentence it could otherwise impose on him or her.

84 Court may order pre-sentencing conference

- (1) The Court may, when determining the appropriate sentence for a youth who has been found guilty of an offence, adjourn the proceedings and order the youth to participate in a pre-sentencing conference.

85 Non-parole period

- (1) If the Court sentences a youth to a term of detention or imprisonment longer than 12 months that is not suspended in whole or part, the Court must fix a non-parole period unless the Court considers that the nature of the offence, the past history of the youth or the circumstances of the particular case make the fixing of such a period inappropriate.
- (2) If the sentence is in respect of more than one offence, the non-parole period fixed under subsection (1) is in respect of the aggregate period of detention or imprisonment that the youth is liable to serve under all the sentences imposed.
- (3) Subject to section 87, if the Court sentences a youth to a term of detention or imprisonment of 12 months or less, or a term that is suspended in whole or part, the Court may not fix a non-parole period.

86 Fixing non-parole period otherwise than at time of sentencing

- (1) This section applies if the Court fails to fix a non-parole period under section 85.
- (2) The failure does not invalidate the sentence.

 - (b) for a period specified in the order or until further order.
- (2) The Court may make the order if satisfied that, having regard to all the facts and circumstances before it, the youth is not a fit and proper person to hold such a licence.
- (3) The Court may make the order if the charge is proved, whether or not a conviction is recorded.
- (4) The order has the same force and effect as an order under the Traffic Act 1987.
- (5) The Court may, at any time on application by or on behalf of the youth disqualified under the order, vary or revoke the order if the Court is satisfied it is just and expedient to do so.
