NORTHERN TERRITORY OF AUSTRALIA

As in force at 1 July 2010

CORONERS REGULATIONS 1994

Regulations under the Coroners Act 1993

1 Citation

These Regulations may be cited as the Coroners Regulations 1994.

2 Commencement

These Regulations shall come into operation on the commencement of the Coroners Act 1993.

3 Reference to forms

In these Regulations, a reference to a form by number is a reference to the form so numbered in Schedule 2.

4 Reporting of death

- (1) A person may report a death to a coroner or a member of the Police Force by telephone or by facsimile.
- (2) Where a person reports a death, he or she shall, not later than 24 hours after reporting the death, furnish information to the person he or she reported the death to in accordance with Form 1.

5 Information to the coroner

For the purposes of section 13 of the Act:

- (a) a person who reports a death shall give to the coroner investigating the death any information that may help the investigation; and
- (b) a member of the Police Force who has information relevant to an investigation into a death shall report it to the coroner investigating the death, not later than 28 days after the death was reported.

6 Matters in relation to conduct of autopsy

- (1) In considering which medical practitioner to direct to perform an autopsy, a coroner shall have regard to the following matters:
 - (a) an autopsy should be performed as soon as practicable after a death;
 - (b) a medical practitioner who performs an autopsy must conduct the autopsy on premises that are adequately equipped for the purposes of conducting an autopsy;
 - (c) a medical practitioner who performs an autopsy must have access to a laboratory with facilities for conducting pathological tests.
- (2) The medical practitioner who is directed to perform the autopsy shall:
 - (a) wherever possible, be a qualified forensic pathologist; or
 - (b) where a person referred to in paragraph (a) is not available, be a qualified pathologist who is, in the opinion of the coroner, suitably experienced to perform an autopsy.

7 Duties of medical practitioner

- (1) A medical practitioner who is directed to perform an autopsy by a coroner shall perform the autopsy as soon as practicable after being so directed.
- (2) A medical practitioner who performs an autopsy shall, as far as is practicable, make arrangements for the preservation, for such period as the coroner considers necessary, of material he or she deals with in the course of the conduct of the autopsy which is, in his or her opinion, relevant to the cause of the death of the deceased person.
- (3) On completion of an autopsy, the medical practitioner who conducted the autopsy shall, as soon as practicable, notify the coroner in writing:
 - (a) of his or her preliminary findings as to the cause of the death;
 - (b) that the cause of the death is undetermined; or
 - (c) that the cause of the death is still under investigation,whichever is the case.

- (4) The medical practitioner who performs an autopsy shall, not later than 28 days after completing the autopsy, provide the coroner with a written report of his or her findings in respect of the autopsy but he or she shall not, unless authorised by the coroner, provide a copy of the report to any other person.

8 Persons who may attend autopsy

- (1) Where a coroner directs that an autopsy shall be performed on a body, he or she may, on being requested to do so, permit a person who demonstrates to the coroner a sufficient interest in the conduct of an autopsy to attend the autopsy.
- (2) Where a person referred to in subregulation (1) attends an autopsy, that person shall behave in such a manner so as not to interfere in any way in the performance of the autopsy.

9 Persons to attend inquest into death in custody

Where a coroner holds an inquest into the death of a person held in custody, the inquest shall not be commenced in the absence of the senior next of kin of the deceased person, or other representative of the family of the deceased person nominated by the senior next of kin, unless the coroner is satisfied that the senior next of kin or the nominated representative does not wish to attend the inquest, that wish being advised to the coroner by the senior next of kin or the nominated representative, as the case may be, or by his or her legal practitioner, appearing before the coroner.

10 Reporting disasters

- (1) A member of the Police Force who has information relevant to an investigation into a disaster shall report it to the coroner investigating the disaster not later than 28 days after the disaster occurred.
- (2) Where a disaster occurs that is a fire, a police officer who has information relevant to an investigation into the fire shall make a report about the fire to a coroner in accordance with Form 2.

11 Person to assist coroner

The person appointed to assist the coroner for the purposes of section 41(2) of the Act shall:

- (a) be a legal practitioner; and
- (b) if practicable, be experienced in coronial matters.

12 Order to exclude persons from inquest

Where a coroner makes an order pursuant to section 42 of the Act that all or any persons shall go and remain outside and beyond the hearing of an inquest, the coroner shall, if requested to do so by a person who is affected by the order, give to the person as soon as practicable after receiving the request his or her written reasons for making the order.

13 Access to coroner's record and file

- (1) During the conduct of an investigation or inquest by the coroner under the Act, the coroner may direct that a person or class of persons may inspect or copy the record and file of the investigation or inquest, and only that person or such persons may do so.
- (2) Where a coroner orders pursuant to section 43 of the Act that a report of an inquest, of part of the proceedings or of evidence given at an inquest shall not be published, the coroner shall also order that the record and file of the inquest shall not be open to inspection by, or otherwise available to, any person other than a party to the proceedings or a member of the family of a person whose death was a subject of the inquest.
- (3) At the completion of an investigation, the coroner may order that the record and file of the investigation is not to be open to inspection by, or otherwise available to, any person other than a party to the proceedings or a member of the family of a deceased person whose death was investigated.

14 Failure to comply

- (1) A failure to comply with the Regulations does not render a document, a step taken or a proceeding commenced for the purposes of the Act or these Regulations a nullity.
- (2) A coroner may dispense with compliance with a requirement of these Regulations whether before or after the occasion for compliance arises.
- (3) Where there has been a failure to comply with these Regulations in relation to a document, a step taken or a proceeding commenced for the purposes of the Act or these Regulations, a coroner may, in such manner and upon such terms as he or she thinks fit:
 - (a) dispense with compliance with the requirement;
 - (b) make an appropriate amendment; or
 - (c) make an appropriate order.

15 Table of forms

Forms 3 to 12 inclusive are to be used for the purposes of the Act by reference to and in accordance with the Table in Schedule 1.

16 General penalty

A person who contravenes or fails to comply with a provision of these Regulations commits an offence against these Regulations.

Maximum penalty: 17 penalty units.
