    - (i) a penalty of substantially the same nature as the penalty imposed by the interstate sentence can be imposed under the community based sentence; and
    - (ii) conditions of substantially the same nature as the conditions to which the interstate sentence is subject can be imposed in relation to the community based sentence; or
  - (b) a community based sentence under the law of the Territory is prescribed by regulation to correspond to the interstate sentence, whether or not the sentence corresponds, or substantially corresponds, to the interstate sentence.

17 Decision on request

- (4) The local authority may decide whether to register the interstate sentence, or to impose any preconditions, based on the information and documents given to the authority under this Part, and any other information or documents available to the authority, without hearing the offender.
- (5) To avoid doubt, the local authority may decide to register the interstate sentence even if:
  - (a) the interstate jurisdiction is not the originating jurisdiction for the sentence; or
  - (b) the sentence has previously been registered in the Territory or the Territory is the originating jurisdiction for the sentence; or
  - (c) the authority has previously decided not to register the sentence in this jurisdiction.
- (6) If the local authority decides not to register the interstate sentence, the authority must give written notice of the decision to the offender and the interstate authority.

18 Preconditions for registration

- (4) The local authority may, by written notice given to the offender and the interstate authority, amend or revoke a precondition.

19 Registration of interstate sentence

- (2) If the local authority decides to impose preconditions for the registration of the interstate sentence in the Territory, the local authority must register the sentence by entering the details of the offender and the interstate sentence as prescribed by regulation in the local register only if the authority is satisfied the preconditions are capable of being met.

20 Notice of registration

- (2) This section does not affect any right, in the originating jurisdiction, of appeal or review, however described, in relation to:
- (a) the conviction or finding of guilt on which the interstate sentence was based; or
  - (b) the imposition of the interstate sentence.
- (3) Any sentence or decision imposed or made on an appeal or review mentioned in subsection (2) has effect in the Territory as if it were validly imposed or made on an appeal or review in the Territory other than to the extent the sentence or decision:
- (a) imposes a fine or other financial penalty, however described; or
  - (b) requires the making of reparation, however described; or
  - (c) imposes a period of detention or imprisonment.
- (4) This section does not give any right to the offender to an appeal or review, however described, in the Territory in relation to the conviction, finding of guilt or imposition of the interstate sentence mentioned in subsection (2).

    - (i) the conviction or finding of guilt on which the sentence was based; or
    - (ii) the imposition of the sentence; and
