NORTHERN TERRITORY OF AUSTRALIA

Act No. 3 of 2004

AN ACT

to amend the Criminal Code, the Sentencing Act and the Parole of Prisoners Act, and for related purposes

[Assented to 7 January 2004]

[Second reading 16 October 2003]

The Legislative Assembly of the Northern Territory enacts as follows:

PART 1 – PRELIMINARY

1. Short title

This Act may be cited as the Sentencing (Crime of Murder) and Parole Reform Act 2003.

2. Commencement

This Act comes into operation on the date fixed by the Administrator by notice in the Gazette.

3. Purposes

The purposes of this Act are –

- (a) to confirm the crime of murder is punishable by a mandatory penalty of life imprisonment;
- (b) to permit the fixing of a non-parole period for the crime of murder;
- (c) to expand the composition of the Parole Board; and

Sentencing (Crime of Murder) and Parole Reform Act 2003

- (d) to ensure that, when considering the release on parole of a prisoner imprisoned for the crime of murder, the Parole Board has regard to the principle that the public interest is of primary importance and, in doing so, gives substantial weight to the protection of the community as the paramount consideration, the likely effect of release on the victim's family and, if the prisoner is an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander who identifies with a particular community of Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islanders, the likely effect of release on that community.

PART 2 – AMENDMENT OF CRIMINAL CODE

4. Repeal and substitution

Section 164 of the Criminal Code is repealed and the following substituted:

"164. Punishment of murder

"(1) Any person who commits the crime of murder is liable to imprisonment for life, which penalty is mandatory.

"(2) Subsection (1) does not prevent a court fixing a non-parole period in accordance with section 53A of the Sentencing Act as part of a sentence for the crime of murder.

"(3) Subsection (1) applies subject to section 39(2) of the Juvenile Justice Act."

PART 3 – AMENDMENTS OF SENTENCING ACT

5. Principal Act

The Sentencing Act is in this Part referred to as the Principal Act.

6. Fixing of non-parole period by sentencing court

Section 53 of the Principal Act is amended –

- (a) by omitting from subsection (1) "sections 54, 55 and 55A" and substituting "sections 53A, 54, 55 and 55A"; and
- (b) by omitting subsection (3).

7. New section

The Principal Act is amended by inserting after section 53 the following:

"53A. Non-parole periods for crime of murder

"(1) Subject to this section, where a court ('the sentencing court') sentences an offender to be imprisoned for life for the crime of murder, the court must fix under section 53(1) –

- (a) a standard non-parole period of 20 years; or
- (b) if any of the circumstances in subsection (3) apply – a non-parole period of 25 years.

"(2) The standard non-parole period of 20 years referred to in subsection (1)(a) represents the non-parole period for an offence in the middle of the range of objective seriousness for offences to which the standard non-parole period applies.

"(3) The circumstances referred to in subsection (1)(b) are any of the following:

- (a) the victim's occupation was police officer, emergency services worker, correctional services officer, judicial officer, health professional, teacher, community worker or other occupation involving the performance of a public function or the provision of a community service and the act or omission that caused the victim's death occurred while the victim was carrying out the duties of his or her occupation or for a reason otherwise connected with his or her occupation;
- (b) the act or omission that caused the victim's death was part of a course of conduct by the offender that included conduct, either before or after the victim's death, that would have constituted a sexual offence against the victim;
- (c) the victim was under 18 years of age at the time of the act or omission that caused the victim's death;
- (d) if the offender is being sentenced for 2 or more convictions for unlawful homicide;
- (e) if the offender is being sentenced for one conviction for murder and one or more other unlawful homicides are being taken into account;
- (f) at the time the offender was convicted of the offence, the offender had one or more previous convictions for unlawful homicide.

"(4) The sentencing court may fix a non-parole period that is longer than a non-parole period referred to in subsection (1)(a) or (b) if satisfied that, because of any objective or subjective factors affecting the relative seriousness of the offence, a longer non-parole period is warranted.

Sentencing (Crime of Murder) and Parole Reform Act 2003

"(5) The sentencing court may refuse to fix a non-parole period if satisfied the level of culpability in the commission of the offence is so extreme the community interest in retribution, punishment, protection and deterrence can only be met if the offender is imprisoned for the term of his or her natural life without the possibility of release on parole.

"(6) The sentencing court may fix a non-parole period that is shorter than the standard non-parole period of 20 years referred to in subsection (1)(a) if satisfied there are exceptional circumstances that justify fixing a shorter non-parole period.

"(7) For there to be exceptional circumstances sufficient to justify fixing a shorter non-parole period under subsection (6), the sentencing court must be satisfied of the following matters and must not have regard to any other matters:

- (a) the offender is –
 - (i) otherwise a person of good character; and
 - (ii) unlikely to re-offend;
- (b) the victim's conduct, or conduct and condition, substantially mitigate the conduct of the offender.

"(8) In considering whether the offender is unlikely to re-offend, the matters the sentencing court may have regard to include the following:

- (a) whether the offender has a significant record of previous convictions;
- (b) any expressions of remorse by the offender;
- (c) any other matters referred to in section 5(2) that are relevant.

"(9) The sentencing court must give reasons for fixing, or refusing to fix, a non-parole period and must identify in those reasons each of the factors it took into account in making that decision.

"(10) The failure of the sentencing court to comply with this section when fixing, or refusing to fix, a non-parole period does not invalidate the sentence imposed on the offender.

"(11) This section applies only in relation to an offence committed –

- (a) after the commencement of the Sentencing (Crime of Murder) and Parole Reform Act 2003; or
- (b) before the commencement of that Act if, at that commencement, the offender has not been sentenced for the offence.

Sentencing (Crime of Murder) and Parole Reform Act 2003

"(12) In subsection (3) –

'unlawful homicide' means the crime of murder or manslaughter."

8. Fixing of non-parole period otherwise than by sentencing court

Section 56 of the Principal Act is amended by omitting subsection (4) and substituting the following:

"(4) Subsection (2) does not apply to a sentence of imprisonment imposed for the crime of murder if the sentence was imposed before the commencement of the Sentencing (Crime of Murder) and Parole Reform Act 2003."

9. Fixing of new non-parole period in respect of multiple sentences

Section 57 of the Principal Act is amended by omitting from subsection (2)(c) "under section 54, 55 or 55A" and substituting "in accordance with section 53A, 54, 55 or 55A".
