(c) direct a person in control of a vehicle in, on or in relation to which he or she reasonably believes there is or has been a dangerous situation to stop the vehicle; and

(d) detain a vehicle in, on or in relation to which he or she reasonably believes there is or has been a dangerous situation and inspect the vehicle and its load.

Dangerous Goods

(3) An officer referred to in section 17(3) may, where he or she reasonably believes that an offence against this Act or the Regulations has been, is being or will be committed in relation to dangerous goods –

- (a) enter a place, premises or vehicle that he or she reasonably believes is being or has been used in the handling of the dangerous goods;
- (b) inspect a place, premises or vehicle, or anything in or on a place, premises or vehicle, that he or she reasonably believes is being or has been used in the handling of dangerous goods;
- (c) direct a person in control of a vehicle that he or she reasonably believes is being or has been used to convey the dangerous goods to stop the vehicle;
- (d) detain a vehicle that he or she reasonably believes is being or has been used to convey the dangerous goods and inspect the vehicle and its load; and
- (e) give directions not inconsistent with this Act or the Regulations to a person involved in the handling of the dangerous goods with respect to the handling of the goods.

(4) An officer or a person authorised under subsection (5) may direct a person in charge, or involved in the handling, of dangerous goods or goods that the officer or person reasonably believes to be dangerous goods to assist the officer or person in exercising or performing a power or function of the officer or person under this Act or the Regulations in relation to the goods.

(5) An officer may, where necessary for the purposes of exercising a power or performing a function under this Act or the Regulations, authorise a person to assist the officer.

(6) A person authorised under subsection (5) may exercise the powers and perform the functions of an officer within the scope of the person's authorisation.

19. OFFICER MAY DIRECT PERSON TO ANSWER QUESTIONS

(1) An officer may –

- (a) in order to find out whether this Act or the Regulations are being complied with; or

Dangerous Goods

- (b) in order to carry out an investigation in relation to a dangerous situation, direct a person to answer a question, produce a document or provide information.

(2) A person is not excused from answering a question, producing a document or providing information on the ground that the question, document or information might tend to incriminate the person, but the answer, document or information is not admissible in evidence against the person in criminal proceedings other than for an offence against section 16(1)(e), (f) or (g).

20. PROTECTION OF OFFICERS AND AUTHORISED PERSONS

(1) No action or proceeding, civil or criminal, lies against the Territory, the Competent Authority or an officer for or in respect of an act or thing done or omitted to be done in good faith by the Competent Authority or officer in his or her capacity as the Competent Authority or officer.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), a person authorised under section 18(5) to assist an officer is an officer while acting within the scope of his or her authorisation.

21. POWER TO DESTROY, &c., CERTAIN DANGEROUS GOODS

(1) The Competent Authority or an officer appointed under section 17(1) may, if he or she reasonably believes that it is necessary in the public interest or for the safety of a person —

- (a) dispose of, destroy or render safe dangerous goods or plant, installations or containers used in the handling of dangerous goods;
- (b) render safe a place, premises or vehicle where or in or on which dangerous goods have been or are being handled; or
- (c) give directions to a person in respect of —
  - (i) the disposal, destruction or rendering safe of dangerous goods, plant, installations or containers; or
  - (ii) rendering safe of a place, premises or vehicle.

Dangerous Goods

(2) An officer may only take action under subsection (1) where —

- (a) the officer has the written authority of the person in charge of the dangerous goods, plant, installations, container, place, premises or vehicle or the person's agent;
- (b) the officer has the consent of the Competent Authority; or
- (c) the officer reasonably believes that —
  - (i) there is imminent danger to a person or property; or
  - (ii) a dangerous situation is occurring, has occurred or is about to occur.

(3) The cost of disposing of, destroying or rendering safe dangerous goods or plant, installations or containers or rendering safe a place, premises or vehicle, under subsection (1) is —

- (a) a debt due and payable to the Territory; and
- (b) recoverable jointly and severally from each person in charge of the dangerous goods.

(4) A certificate purporting to be signed by the Competent Authority or an officer appointed under section 17(1) specifying the cost of disposing of, destroying or rendering safe dangerous goods or plant, installations or containers or rendering safe a place, premises or vehicle under subsection (1) is evidence of the cost.

PART 5 — PROHIBITION AND IMPROVEMENT NOTICES

22. COMPETENT AUTHORITY MAY GIVE PROHIBITION NOTICE

(1) The Competent Authority may give a prohibition notice to a person where the Competent Authority reasonably believes that —

- (a) a dangerous situation is occurring or is likely to occur; and
- (b) the person is able to take action to avert, eliminate or minimise the danger.

(2) A prohibition notice is to —

- (a) be in writing;

Dangerous Goods

- (b) state the name of the person to whom the notice is directed;
- (c) state where the Competent Authority reasonably believes that the dangerous situation is occurring or is likely to occur;
- (d) state the grounds on which the belief is based;
- (e) where the Competent Authority reasonably believes the act or activity involves or will involve a contravention or likely contravention of this Act or the Regulations, specify the relevant provision and state the reasons for that belief; and
- (f) specify any act or activity that is prohibited until the Competent Authority certifies in writing that the dangerous situation has ceased or will not occur.

(3) The Competent Authority may include in a prohibition notice instructions as to the measures to be taken to avert, eliminate or minimise the danger to which the notice relates.

(4) An instruction under subsection (3) may —

- (a) refer to a code of practice; and
- (b) offer the person to whom it is issued a choice of ways in which to avert, eliminate or minimise the danger to which the notice relates.

(5) Where the Competent Authority is of the opinion that a dangerous situation relating to a prohibition notice has ceased or will not occur, he or she must certify in writing that the dangerous situation has ceased or will not occur.

(6) Where an appeal is made under section 28 against a prohibition notice, the Competent Authority must not certify under subsection (5) or revoke or suspend the prohibition notice until after the appeal is withdrawn or decided.

(7) A prohibition notice remains in force until —

- (a) the Competent Authority certifies under subsection (5);
- (b) the Competent Authority revokes or suspends the notice; or

Dangerous Goods

- (c) the Local Court revokes the notice under section 28(3)(d).

(8) A person to whom a prohibition notice is given must not contravene or fail to comply with the notice.

Penalty: In the case of a body corporate — $50,000 and $3,000 for each day during which the offence continues.

In the case of a natural person — $10,000 or imprisonment for 6 months and $1,000 for each day during which the offence continues.

23. COMPETENT AUTHORITY MAY PLACE MARK ON PLANT OR CONTAINER

(1) Where the Competent Authority gives a prohibition notice in respect of an act or activity relating to the use of plant or a container, the Competent Authority may place a mark on the plant or container, or any part of the plant or container, to indicate that the plant or container, or the part, that is marked is not to be used.

(2) Where a mark is placed on plant or a container or a part of plant or a container, a person must not use the plant or container or the part on which the mark is placed or remove, obliterate or otherwise interfere with the mark until —

- (a) the Competent Authority certifies under section 22(5) in respect of the act or activity relating to the use of the plant or container or the part;
- (b) the Competent Authority revokes or suspends the prohibition notice in whole or in relation to the act or activity;
- (c) the Local Court revokes the prohibition notice; or
- (d) the Local Court varies the notice so that the use is not prohibited.

Penalty: In the case of a body corporate — $50,000 and $3,000 for each day during which the offence continues.

In the case of a natural person — $10,000 or imprisonment for 6 months and $1,000 for each day during which the offence continues.

(3) In this section, "plant" includes a vehicle, building and structure.

Dangerous Goods

24. COMPETENT AUTHORITY MAY GIVE IMPROVEMENT NOTICE

(1) The Competent Authority may give an improvement notice to a person where he or she reasonably believes that the person —

- (a) is contravening this Act or the Regulations; or
- (b) has contravened this Act or the Regulations in circumstances that make it likely that the contravention will be repeated.

(2) An improvement notice is to —

- (a) be in writing;
- (b) state the name of the person to whom the notice is directed;
- (c) state that the Competent Authority reasonably believes that the person —
  - (i) is contravening this Act or the Regulations; or
  - (ii) has contravened this Act or the Regulations in circumstances that make it likely that the contravention will be repeated;
- (d) state the grounds on which the belief is based;
- (e) specify the provision of this Act or the Regulations in respect of which the belief is based; and
- (f) specify the day, being not earlier than 7 days after the giving of the notice, by which the person must —
  - (i) remedy the contravention; or
  - (ii) remedy matters or activities giving rise to the circumstances that make it likely that the contravention will be repeated.

(3) The Competent Authority may include in an improvement notice instructions as to the measures to be taken to remedy the contravention, or matters or activities, to which the notice relates.

(4) An instruction under subsection (3) may —

- (a) refer to a code of practice; and

Dangerous Goods

- (b) offer the person to whom it is issued a choice of ways in which to remedy the contravention, or matters or activities, to which the notice relates.

(5) A person to whom an improvement notice is given must not contravene or fail to comply with the notice.

Penalty: In the case of a body corporate — $50,000 and $3,000 for each day during which the offence continues.

In the case of a natural person — $10,000 or imprisonment for 6 months and $1,000 for each day during which the offence continues.

25. COMPETENT AUTHORITY MAY GIVE FURTHER NOTICE AND CARRY OUT WORK

(1) The Competent Authority may give a further notice to a person to whom an improvement notice has been given where the improvement notice requires work to be done and the work is not done.

(2) A further notice may be given —

(a) where no appeal is lodged under section 28 against the improvement notice — within 7 days after the date specified in the improvement notice for the carrying out of the work; or

(b) where the Local Court has affirmed or varied the improvement notice or issued a notice in substitution for the improvement notice, and work is required to be done under the improvement notice — within 7 days after the date on which the decision of the Court was made known or within a longer or shorter period determined by the Court.

(3) A further notice is to specify the date, being not earlier than 7 days after the giving of the further notice, after which the Competent Authority intends to carry out or cause to be carried out the work specified in the further notice.

(4) The Competent Authority or a person authorised by the Competent Authority may, after the date specified in a further notice, enter on or in the premises, place or vehicle in relation to which the further notice was given with employees or agents and machinery reasonably necessary to carry out the work specified in the notice and may do all things reasonably necessary to be done to carry out the work.

(5) The Competent Authority must not carry out or cause to be carried out work in relation to a further notice that is the subject of an appeal under section 28.

(6) The cost reasonably incurred by the Competent Authority in exercising his or her powers under subsection (4) is a debt due and payable to the Territory by the person required to carry out the work by the improvement notice to which the further notice relates.

(7) A certificate, purporting to be signed by the Competent Authority or an officer appointed under section 17(1), specifying details of the costs reasonably incurred in carrying out the work under subsection (1) is evidence of those costs.

26. COMPETENT AUTHORITY MAY CARRY OUT WORK OR CAUSE WORK TO BE CARRIED OUT

(1) The Competent Authority may carry out or cause to be carried out work or repairs if the Competent Authority reasonably believes that —

- (a) a dangerous situation exists;
- (b) the work or repairs are necessary to repair damage or to minimise or avert damage or a risk that has resulted or is likely to result from the dangerous situation;
- (c) the person in charge of the dangerous goods cannot be found; and
- (d) either —
  - (i) the circumstances require immediate action or intervention; or
  - (ii) giving a prohibition notice or improvement notice to a person would not be appropriate.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), the Competent Authority may —

- (a) by his or her employees or agents, enter in or on premises or a place or vehicle with machinery necessary to carry out the work or repairs or remove property; or
- (b) authorise a person and the employees and agents of the person to enter in or on premises or a place or vehicle with machinery necessary to carry out the work or repairs or remove property.

(3) The cost reasonably incurred by the Competent Authority in carrying out work under subsection (1) is a debt due and payable to the Territory.

(4) A person in charge of dangerous goods involved in a dangerous situation and a person who caused or contributed to the dangerous situation are jointly and severally liable for the costs reasonably incurred by the Competent Authority in carrying out work under subsection (1).

(5) A certificate, purporting to be signed by the Competent Authority or an officer appointed under section 17(1), specifying details of the costs reasonably incurred in carrying out the work under subsection (1) is evidence of those costs.

27. GIVING OF NOTICES

A notice under section 22, 24 or 25 may be given to a person by —

- (a) delivering it personally to the person;
- (b) leaving it at the person's usual or last known place of residence or business with some other person, apparently resident or employed there and apparently in charge or in a position of authority;
- (c) sending it by registered post, addressed —
  - (i) in the case of a natural person — to the person's last-known place of business or residence; or
  - (ii) in the case of a body corporate — to its registered office in the Territory or otherwise as provided by the Corporations Law; or
- (d) where the notice relates to a vehicle, placing the notice securely on the vehicle in a conspicuous position.

28. APPEALS AGAINST NOTICES

(1) A person to whom a notice under section 22, 24 or 25 is given may, within 7 days after the notice is given or a later time that the Local Court allows, appeal in writing to the Local Court against the notice.

Dangerous Goods

(2) Where an appeal is lodged against an improvement notice or a further notice, the operation of the notice is suspended until —

- (a) the Court determines the appeal;
- (b) the appeal is withdrawn; or
- (c) the notice is revoked or suspended by the Competent Authority.

(3) The Court must determine an appeal against a prohibition notice, an improvement notice or a further notice —

- (a) by affirming the notice;
- (b) by varying the notice;
- (c) by substituting its own notice for the notice given by the Competent Authority; or
- (d) by revoking the notice.

(4) A notice as affirmed, varied or substituted under subsection (3) comes into operation —

- (a) on the date on which it is affirmed, varied or substituted; or
- (b) on a later date specified by the Court.

PART 6 — MISCELLANEOUS

Division 1 — Legal Proceedings

29. CONSENT TO PROSECUTIONS

A prosecution cannot be instituted in respect of an offence against this Act or the Regulations without the written consent of the Competent Authority.

30. TIME LIMITS

Proceedings against a person in respect of an offence against this Act or the Regulations cannot be instituted after 3 years from the date of the alleged offence or the discovery of the alleged offence, whichever is the later.

Dangerous Goods

31. AVERMENTS

In proceedings in respect of an offence against this Act or the Regulations, an averment in the information or complaint that —

- (a) a specified person is the Competent Authority or an officer;
- (b) a specified person was or was not on a specified day a licensee;
- (c) a specified licence contained specified conditions;
- (d) a specified substance or thing was at a specified time dangerous goods;
- (e) a specified container did on a specified day contain dangerous goods;

32. LIABILITY OF EMPLOYERS, &c.

- (1) Where an employee or agent —
  - (a) engages in conduct on behalf of another person within the scope of his or her authority; and
  - (b) the conduct constitutes an offence against this Act or the Regulations, then the other person is guilty of the same offence and is liable to the same penalty.

(2) Proceedings may be instituted against the other person notwithstanding that the employee or agent has not been charged with the offence.

(3) It is a defence to a prosecution for an offence referred to in subsection (1) that the other person charged —

Dangerous Goods

- (a) did not authorise or permit the commission of the offence by the employee or agent; or
- (b) took reasonable precautions and used due diligence to prevent the commission of the offence or an offence of the same or similar nature.

33. CONDUCT OF DIRECTORS, &c., OF BODIES CORPORATE

(1) Where in proceedings under this Act or the Regulations it is necessary to establish the intent of a body corporate, it is sufficient to show that a director, employee or agent of the body corporate had that intention.

(2) A person who is a director, or who is involved in the management, of a body corporate that has committed an offence against this Act or the Regulations is guilty of the same offence and is liable to the same penalty.

(3) Proceedings may be instituted against the person notwithstanding that the body corporate has not been charged with the offence.

(4) It is a defence to a prosecution for an offence referred to in subsection (2) that the person -

- (a) was not in a position to influence the conduct of the body corporate in relation to the offence; or
- (b) took reasonable precautions and used due diligence to prevent the commission of the offence.

34. REPEATED OFFENCES AND PROHIBITION FROM HANDLING DANGEROUS GOODS

(1) Where a person is found guilty of an offence against this Act or the Regulations, the court may, in addition to any other penalty, order that the person be prohibited for a specified period from being involved generally in, or in relation to specific aspects of, the handling of dangerous goods.

(2) When making an order under subsection (1), the court must take into account -

- (a) the person's record in relation to dangerous goods;
- (b) the prior convictions of the person that relate to the handling of dangerous goods;

Dangerous Goods

- (c) the circumstances surrounding the commission of the offence for which the person is being sentenced; and
  - (d) other matters the court thinks fit.
- (3) A person must not contravene or fail to comply with an order under subsection (1).

Penalty: In the case of a body corporate — $250,000.

In the case of a natural person — $50,000 or imprisonment for 2 years.

35. FORFEITURE, &c., OF DANGEROUS GOODS

Where a person is found guilty of an offence against this Act or the Regulations, the court may order —

- (a) the dangerous goods in respect of which the offence was committed to be forfeited to the Territory; and
- (b) the person to pay to the Territory the costs and expenses incurred in the seizure, detention and removal of the dangerous goods or the package, container or vehicle, as the case may be, in which the dangerous goods were contained or kept when seized, detained or removed.

36. DISPOSAL OF FORFEITED GOODS

(1) The Competent Authority may dispose of, destroy or render safe or otherwise deal with dangerous goods forfeited to the Territory under section 35 in the manner that he or she thinks fit.

(2) The cost of disposing of, destroying or rendering safe dangerous goods under subsection (1) is a debt due and payable to the Territory by the person found guilty of the offence referred to in section 35.

(3) A certificate, purporting to be signed by the Competent Authority or an officer appointed under section 17(1), specifying the cost of disposing of, destroying or rendering safe specified dangerous goods under subsection (1) is evidence of the cost.

Division 2 — Codes of Practice and Regulations

37. CODES OF PRACTICE

(1) The Minister may, on the recommendation of the Competent Authority, by notice in the Gazette, approve a code of practice for the purpose of providing practical guidance on a matter relating to this Act or the Regulations.

Dangerous Goods

(2) A code of practice may consist of a code, standard, rule, specification or provision relating to a matter in this Act formulated, prepared or adopted by the Competent Authority and may apply, incorporate or refer to a document formulated or published by a body or authority as in force at the time the code of practice is approved or as amended, formulated or published from time to time.

(3) A notice under subsection (1) is to indicate —

(a) where a copy of the code of practice to which it relates, and all documents applied, incorporated or referred to in the code, may be inspected by members of the public without charge; and

(b) the times during which it may be inspected.

(4) The Competent Authority is to make a code and documents referred to in a notice under subsection (3) available in accordance with the notice.

(5) The Competent Authority may approve in writing, in relation to a particular place, premises or vehicle where or in or on which dangerous goods are handled, a code of practice presented to him or her by a person in charge of the dangerous goods.

(6) Subject to subsections (7) and (8), a code of practice approved under subsection (5) prevails over a code of practice approved under subsection (1) in relation to that place, premises or vehicle.

(7) The Competent Authority must not approve a code of practice under subsection (5) that, in his or her opinion, adopts standards less stringent than the minimum relevant standards for the time being in a code of practice approved under subsection (1).

(8) Where there is —

(a) a relevant standard in a code of practice approved under subsection (1) that is more stringent than a standard in a code of practice approved under subsection (5); or

(b) a relevant standard in a code of practice approved under subsection (1) in relation to a matter that is not provided for in a code of practice approved under subsection (5),

Dangerous Goods

that standard in the code of practice approved under subsection (1) is to prevail or apply, as the case may be, and is to be taken to be incorporated in the code of practice approved under subsection (5).

(9) The person in charge of dangerous goods must make a code of practice approved under subsection (5) in relation to the dangerous goods available for inspection at all reasonable times by a person involved in the handling of the dangerous goods.

Penalty: $2,000.

(10) An offence against subsection (9) is a regulatory offence.

(11) A person is not liable to a civil or criminal action by reason only that he or she has failed to observe a provision of a code of practice.

38. USE OF CODES OF PRACTICE IN PROCEEDINGS

(1) A person does not commit an offence against this Act or the Regulations if the act or omission alleged to constitute the offence or an element of the offence was done or omitted to be done in compliance with a code of practice relating to the act or omission.

(2) Where, in a prosecution for an offence against a provision of this Act or the Regulations, it is proved that the act or omission alleged to constitute the offence or an element of the offence was done or omitted to be done in contravention of a code of practice relating to the act or omission, the offence or the element is to be taken to be proved unless the court is satisfied that the defendant complied with the provision otherwise than by compliance with the code of practice.

39. REGULATIONS

(1) The Administrator may make regulations, not inconsistent with this Act, prescribing all matters —

- (a) required or permitted by this Act to be prescribed; or
- (b) necessary or convenient to be prescribed for carrying out or giving effect to this Act.

(2) Without limiting subsection (1), the Regulations may make provision for or with respect to —

- (a) the handling of dangerous goods and containers that are used in connection with dangerous goods,

Dangerous Goods

including the precautions to be observed and the methods of handling to be employed;

- (b) the classification of dangerous goods and methods for determining classifications;
- (c) the competency or qualifications of persons --
  - (i) handling dangerous goods; or
  - (ii) manufacturing, designing, installing, repairing or carrying out any work on containers, pipelines or any plant or things that are used or are intended for use in connection with dangerous goods,and the registering, certifying and licensing of those persons;
- (d) the exemption of persons, places, premises, vehicles, activities or specified dangerous goods from the application of all or part of this Act or the Regulations;
- (e) the design, construction, manufacture, installation, cleanliness, ventilation, venting, marking, placarding, labelling and maintenance of places, premises, plant, vehicles, containers, pipelines and other things that are used or intended for use in the handling of dangerous goods;
- (f) the siting, design, construction, ventilation, venting, illumination, maintenance, fittings, fixtures and management of premises, plant, buildings and structures that are used, or are intended for use, in connection with dangerous goods and the treatment of premises, plant, buildings and structures no longer required for the handling of dangerous goods;
- (g) the provision, maintenance, testing and use of safety and first aid facilities at a place, on premises or in or on a vehicle used for any purpose in connection with dangerous goods;
- (h) the inspection, examination and testing of dangerous goods and equipment that is, or is intended to be, used in connection with dangerous goods and the fees payable for the inspection, examination or testing;
- (j) the driving of vehicles conveying dangerous goods, including the types of vehicles that can

Dangerous Goods

- convey, and the procedures for conveying, specified classes of dangerous goods;
- (k) the making, keeping, production and inspection of records relating to dangerous goods and the providing of returns and other information relating to dangerous goods;
  - (m) the notice to be given of —
    - (i) theft of dangerous goods from a place, premises or vehicle;
    - (ii) theft in connection with dangerous goods at a place, on premises or in or on a vehicle; and
    - (iii) dangerous situations and other accidents during the handling of or in connection with dangerous goods at a place, on premises or in or on a vehicle;
  - (n) the procedures to be taken and the holding of inquiries in relation to thefts, accidents and situations referred to in paragraph (m);
  - (p) the establishment, management and use of magazines and government explosives reserves;
  - (q) the granting of licences by the Competent Authority to handle dangerous goods and the conditions to which a licence is to be subject;
  - (r) the notification and registration of places, premises and vehicles where dangerous goods are or are to be handled, including different categories of notification and registration, and the conditions and requirements to which notification and registration is to be subject;
  - (s) the payment of a prescribed amount in lieu of a penalty that may otherwise be imposed for an offence against this Act or for a breach of the Regulations;
  - (t) the service of notices on persons alleged to have infringed this Act or breached the Regulations and particulars to be included in such notices;
  - (u) the forms to be used; and
  - (w) the fees payable in respect of any act, matter or thing under this Act.

Dangerous Goods

(3) The Regulations may impose penalties for a breach of the Regulations not exceeding —

- (a) in the case of a body corporate — $25,000 or $1,500 for each day during which the breach continues; and
- (b) in the case of a natural person — $5,000 or $300 for each day during which the breach continues.

(4) The Regulations may —

- (a) provide that an act or thing is to be done or be in accordance wholly or partly with the approval or to the satisfaction of a prescribed person or a person of a prescribed class of persons;
- (b) confer on a prescribed person, or class of persons, a discretionary authority; and
- (c) confer on a prescribed person, or class of persons, power to give, in a prescribed manner, instructions, orders, directions or requirements.

(5) The Regulations may incorporate or adopt by reference the provisions of a document, standard, rule, specification or method formulated, issued, prescribed or published by an authority or a body —

- (a) in whole or in part, or as amended by the Regulations;
- (b) as formulated, issued, prescribed or published at the time the Regulations are made or at any time before then; or
- (c) as amended after the making of the Regulations, but only where the Minister has published in the Gazette a notice that the particular amendment is to be incorporated in the Regulations.
