NORTHERN TERRITORY OF AUSTRALIA

Act No. 37 of 2010

An Act to amend various legislation consequential on the enactment of the Mineral Titles Act 2010

[Assented to 18 November 2010]
[Second reading 17 August 2010]

The Legislative Assembly of the Northern Territory enacts as follows:

Part 1 Preliminary matters

1 Short title

This Act may be cited as the Mineral Titles (Consequential Amendments) Act 2010.

2 Commencement

This Act commences on the commencement of the Mineral Titles Act.

Part 2 Amendment of Acts and subordinate legislation

3 Amendment of AustralAsia Railway (Special Provisions) Act

(1) This section amends the AustralAsia Railway (Special Provisions) Act.

(2) Section 5

insert (in alphabetical order)

corridor general reserved land, see section 15(1).

mineral interest means one of the following:

- (a) a mineral title mentioned in section 11(1) of the Mineral Titles Act,
- (b) a non-compliant existing interest as defined in section 204(1) of the Mineral Titles Act.

mineral interest area means the area of land to which a mineral interest relates.

(3) Section 5C(2) and (3)

omit, substitute

- (2) Subject to section 17A, a right or interest under the Mineral Titles Act in relation to land forming part of the corridor is modified in the manner, and to the extent, necessary to enable the consortium to construct, operate and maintain the railway.
- (3) For subsection (2), a right or interest includes a right to enter land, do work, and have access to a mineral title area, as mentioned in section 83 of the Mineral Titles Act.
- (4) This section does not apply to a right or interest granted to the Corporation or consortium.

(4) Sections 15, 16 and 16A

repeal, substitute

15 Corridor general reserved land

- (1) The corridor general reserved land is the land specified in the instrument of reservation from occupation no. 24350 made under section 178(1) of the Mining Act on 6 July 2004 and published in Gazette No. G29 dated 21 July 2004.

Note for subsection (1)

This land is taken to be general reserved land under the Mineral Titles Act because of section 214(1) of that Act.

- (2) If, on or after 6 July 2004, an exploration licence, exploration retention licence or mining tenement granted under the Mining Act ceases to be in force for any area within the land specified in the instrument of reservation, that area is taken to be part of the corridor general reserved land as if the area had been reserved from occupation under section 178(1) of the Mining Act.

- (3) If, on or after the commencement of section 214 of the Mineral Titles Act, a mineral interest ceases to be in force for any area within the land specified in the instrument of reservation, that area is taken to be part of the corridor general reserved land as if the area had been reserved as such under section 113 of the Mineral Titles Act.
- (4) Subsections (1) and (2) are taken to have effect from 6 July 2004.

Note for section 15

See also the transitional provision in section 22(3).

16 Consortium may mine extractive minerals on corridor general reserved land

- (1) In relation to the corridor general reserved land, the consortium is taken to have been granted a mineral authority under the Mineral Titles Act that corresponds to an extractive mineral lease under that Act.
- (2) Despite anything to the contrary in the Mineral Titles Act, the period and conditions of the mineral authority must be:
- (a) imposed by the Minister as he or she considers appropriate; and
 - (b) consistent with the following:
 - (i) the agreement between the Territory, native title parties and the Northern and Central Land Councils about mining extractive minerals on the corridor general reserved land that is dated 18 September 1998 and has been lodged with the National Native Title Tribunal;
 - (ii) any agreements between the consortium and the owner of any of the corridor general reserved land about mining extractive minerals on the land.
- (3) The Mineral Titles Act applies in relation to the consortium as the holder of a mineral authority, and activities conducted under the mineral authority, only to the extent to which the Mineral Titles Act is consistent with this Act and the conditions imposed under subsection (2).

Example for subsection (3)

Section 107 of the Mineral Titles Act applies in relation to compensation that may be payable by the consortium for damage and loss as a result of activities conducted under the mineral authority.

- (4) The Mining Management Act does not apply in relation to the consortium or activities conducted under the mineral authority.

16A Consent required for access over corridor to mineral interest area

- (1) Before the holder of a mineral interest may exercise a right under section 83(1) of the Mineral Titles Act in relation to any part of the corridor, the holder must apply to the relevant Minister for his or her consent to do so.

Note for subsection (1)

See also section 22(2).

- (2) Before the relevant Minister may decide the application, he or she must consult with the consortium and take the views of the consortium into consideration.
- (3) The relevant Minister may impose conditions on consent given under this section.
- (4) In this section:

relevant Minister means the minister administering the Mineral Titles Act.

- (5) Section 16C

Mining Act

substitute

Mineral Titles Act

- (6) Sections 17 and 17A

repeal, substitute

17 Authority to construct railway on mineral interest area

- (1) The consortium may enter reserved land, or a mineral interest area, to construct the railway on the land as if the consortium holds an access authority under the Mineral Titles Act authorising the entry and construction.

- (2) The holder of a mineral interest is entitled to compensation under section 108 of the Mineral Titles Act for damage or loss mentioned in that section because of the actions taken by the consortium in relation to the entry of the mineral interest area and construction of the railway.
- (3) If compensation is payable as mentioned in subsection (2):
- (a) the consortium is liable to pay for damage and loss as a result of contamination of the mineral interest area or a breach of the consortium's duty of care to the holder of the mineral interest; and
 - (b) the Territory is liable to pay for any other damage and loss.
- (4) In this section:

mineral interest does not include a mineral exploration licence or extractive mineral exploration licence.

mineral interest area does not include the area to which a mineral exploration licence or extractive mineral exploration licence relates.

reserved land, see section 8 of the Mineral Titles Act.

17A Activities under mineral interest not to interfere with railway

Despite anything to the contrary in the Mineral Titles Act, the holder of a mineral interest is not authorised to conduct an activity in the mineral interest area that unreasonably interferes with the construction, operation or maintenance of the railway.

(7) Section 17C

omit

land that the consortium is authorized, or taken to be authorized, to occupy and use under section 178(2) of the Mining Act

substitute

general reserved land to which the mineral authority mentioned in section 16(1) relates

(8) After section 21

insert

22 Transitional matters for Mineral Titles Act 2010

- (1) The authorization mentioned in repealed section 16(1) continues in force after the commencement day, in relation to the corridor general reserved land, as if it were the mineral authority mentioned in section 16(1).
- (2) If a person holds a right of access granted as specified in repealed section 16A, the right of access to the corridor continues in force after the commencement day.
- (3) Despite the concurrent operation of repealed section 15 and the instrument mentioned in section 15(1) during the transitional period, if an exploration licence, exploration retention licence or mining tenement was granted under the Mining Act during that period for an area within the temporary railway reserve:
 - (a) the granting of the licence or tenement was validly done; and
 - (b) anything done during the transitional period in the temporary railway reserve under the licence or tenement that was authorised to be done under the Mining Act, as in force during the transitional period, was validly done; and
 - (c) the occupation of mining land and use of that land by the consortium for mining extractive minerals authorised by section 16, as in force during the transitional period, was validly done.
- (4) In this section:

commencement day means the day on which Part 12 of the Mineral Titles Act 2010 commences.

mining land, in relation to an exploration licence, exploration retention licence or mining tenement mentioned in subsection (3), means land to which the licence or tenement relates.

repealed, in relation to a specified provision, means that provision of this Act as in force immediately before the commencement of the Mineral Titles Act 2010.

temporary railway reserve means the land between the boundary of the Town of Alice Springs and the boundary of the City of Darwin that is within 400 metres of either side of the centreline of the corridor, excluding the corridor general reserved land.

transitional period means the period from 6 July 2004 to the day immediately before the commencement day.
