Division 1 Non-profit entities48 Definitions

(1) In this Division:

category 1 to 3 purpose means a charitable purpose that falls within the first 3 categories (being relief of poverty, advancement of education and advancement of religion) identified by Lord Macnaghten in Commissioners for Special Purposes of Income Tax v Pemsel [1891] AC 531 as developed by the common law of Australia from time to time.

educational company means a company:

- (a) in which an educational institution has a controlling interest; and
- (b) that provides, promotes or supports the educational services of that institution.

educational institution means an entity that provides education above secondary level.

entity includes a person, and a body, association or organisation (whether corporate or unincorporated).

industrial association means any of the following:

- (a) an association of employees, or an association of employers, registered as an organisation, or recognised, under the Fair Work (Registered Organisations) Act 2009 (Cth);
- (b) an association of employees registered or recognised as a trade union (however described) under the law of a State or Territory;
- (c) an association of employers registered or recognised as such (however described) under the law of a State or Territory;
- (d) an association of employees the predominant purpose of which is the protection and promotion of the employees' interests in matters concerning their employment.

non-profit entity, see section 48A.

political party means an entity that has as one of its purposes the promotion of the election to the Legislative Assembly or the Parliament of the Commonwealth or of a State or another Territory, of a candidate or candidates endorsed by it or by an entity of which it forms part.

professional association means an entity that has as one of its purposes the promotion of the interests of its members in any profession.

trade, industry or commerce entity, see section 48B.

- (2) For the definition educational company, an educational institution has a controlling interest in a company if:
- (a) members of the board of management of the company who are entitled to exercise more than 50% of the voting power at meetings of the board of management are accustomed or under an obligation, whether formal or informal, to act in accordance with the directions, instructions or wishes of the educational institution; or
 - (b) the educational institution may (whether directly or indirectly) exercise, control the exercise of, or substantially influence the exercise of, more than 50% of the voting power attached to voting shares, or any class of voting shares, issued by the company; or
 - (c) the educational institution has power to appoint more than 50% of the members of the board of management of the company.

48A Meaning of non-profit entity

- (1) Each of the following is a non-profit entity:
- (a) a religious institution;
 - (b) a public benevolent institution;
 - (c) a non-profit organisation:
 - (i) the sole or predominant purpose of which is a religious, charitable, benevolent, philanthropic or patriotic purpose; and
 - (ii) that is not an excluded entity.

- (2) However, an instrumentality of the Territory is not a non-profit entity.
- (3) An entity is an excluded entity if it is one of the following:
- (a) a school;
 - (b) an educational institution;
 - (c) an educational company;
 - (d) a political party;
 - (e) an industrial association;
 - (f) a professional association;
 - (g) a trade, industry or commerce entity.

Note for subsection (3)

Wages paid by a school or college may be exempt wages under section 49 and Schedule 2, clause 16.

- (4) However, an entity is not an excluded entity if a determination under section 48E is in force in relation to the entity.

48B Meaning of trade, industry or commerce entity

- (1) An entity is a trade, industry or commerce entity if:
- (a) a purpose of the entity is to promote trade, industry or commerce (whether generally or in respect of any particular kind of trade, industry or commerce); and
 - (b) the entity is not an entity mentioned in section 48A(3)(a) to (f).
- (2) However, an entity is not a trade, industry or commerce entity if:
- (a) the entity's sole or predominant purpose is a category 1 to 3 purpose; or
 - (b) the entity has 2 or more purposes that:
 - (i) are each category 1 to 3 purposes; and
 - (ii) together constitute the entity's predominant purpose.

48C Non-profit entities – exempt wages

- (1) Wages are exempt wages if the Commissioner is satisfied that the wages:
 - (a) are paid or payable by a non-profit entity that carries on charitable activities; and
 - (b) are paid or payable to a person who:
 - (i) is engaged predominantly in the performance of services in connection with the carrying on by the entity of charitable activities; and
 - (ii) is not engaged in the performance of services in connection with any commercial or competitive activity carried on by the entity.
- (2) A non-profit entity carries on charitable activities if the entity directly carries out work that is predominantly of a religious, charitable, benevolent, philanthropic or patriotic nature.
- (3) For subsection (2), giving money to another entity that carries out work of the kind mentioned in subsection (2) does not, by itself, constitute carrying on a charitable activity.
- (4) An activity carried on by a non-profit entity is a commercial or competitive activity if the activity:
 - (a) is not related to the religious, charitable, benevolent, philanthropic or patriotic purposes of the entity; or
 - (b) is a commercial activity; or
 - (c) is carried on in competition with a business carried on by another person.
- (5) Subsection (4)(a), (b) and (c) apply to an activity even if money raised from carrying on the activity is used for a religious, charitable, benevolent, philanthropic or patriotic purpose.
- (6) Subsection (4)(b) and (c) apply to an activity even if it is of a religious, charitable, benevolent, philanthropic or patriotic nature.

48D Determining purpose of entity

For this Division, the purpose or purposes of an entity are to be determined having regard to all the relevant circumstances including the entity's stated objects (if any) and its activities.

48E Commissioner may override exclusion

- (1) The Commissioner may, by order in writing, determine that an entity that would, but for the determination, be an excluded entity under section 48A(3)(f) or (g) is not an excluded entity.
- (2) The Commissioner may do so only if satisfied there are special reasons that justify the entity being treated as a non-profit entity for the purposes of this Division.
- (3) In deciding whether to make a determination, the Commissioner may have regard to the following:
 - (a) the significance of the excluding feature of the entity in relation to the purposes of the entity considered as a whole;
 - (b) the extent to which the entity's purposes are category 1 to 3 purposes or are otherwise beneficial to the community;
 - (c) the extent to which the entity's purposes are, or are intended to be, beneficial to a particular class of persons (whether or not members of the entity) rather than the community generally;
 - (d) any other factors the Commissioner considers relevant.
- (4) A determination may be expressed to take effect on a date that is:
 - (a) earlier than the date of the determination; but
 - (b) not earlier than 1 July 2015.
- (5) The Commissioner may, by order in writing, revoke a determination if the Commissioner ceases to be satisfied as mentioned in subsection (2).
- (6) A revocation of a determination may be expressed to take effect on a date that is earlier than the date of the revocation.
- (7) In this section:

excluding feature of an entity, means a purpose, object or activity of the entity that would, but for a determination under this section, cause it to be an excluded entity.

37A Life insurance and life insurance rider

(1) In this Act:

accident insurance means insurance insuring the payment of benefits:

- (a) on the death of a person only from accident or violence or otherwise than from a natural cause; or
- (b) as compensation for personal injury.

life insurance means insurance insuring the payment of benefits on death (other than accident insurance) or on the happening of a contingency dependent upon the termination or continuance of human life, and includes:

- (a) insurance under an instrument evidencing a contract that is subject to payment of premiums for a term dependent upon the termination or continuance of human life; and
- (b) insurance under an instrument securing the grant of an annuity for a term dependent upon the termination or continuance of human life.

(2) If a life policy also provides for the payment of benefits on the occurrence of a contingency or event that does not relate to or depend on the termination or continuance of human life (life insurance rider), then the additional insurance provided under or in accordance with the life policy is taken to be a life insurance rider and not life insurance.

(3) Subsection (2) applies:

- (a) whether or not the life insurance and the life insurance rider are separate or distinct matters; and
- (b) whether or not payment of benefits under the life insurance rider component of the policy:
 - (i) will or may reduce the benefits payable under the life insurance component of the policy; or
 - (ii) will or may terminate the policy.

- (4) The Commissioner may apportion the amount or proportion of a premium or other amount payable for a life policy that relates to a life insurance rider if:
- (a) there is no separately identifiable part of the premium or other amount apportioned to the rider; or
 - (b) the Commissioner is not satisfied that the separately identifiable part of the premium or other amount has been correctly apportioned to the rider.

110 Changes to life insurance provisions

- (1) This Act, as amended by the amending act, applies in relation to:
 - (a) a life policy or life insurance rider issued on or after 1 July 2015; and
 - (b) a group life insurance policy:
 - (i) issued before 1 July 2015; but
 - (ii) only to the extent it relates to a person who becomes insured under the policy on or after 1 July 2015.
- (2) This Act, as in force before 1 July 2015, continues to apply in relation to:
 - (a) a life policy (as defined before 1 July 2015) issued before 1 July 2015; but
 - (b) does not apply in relation to a group life insurance policy issued before 1 July 2015 to the extent it relates to a person who becomes insured under the policy on or after 1 July 2015.
- (3) A person who, immediately before 1 July 2015, was registered as a life insurer under section 47 is taken to be an Australian insurer registered under section 41.

(4) In this section:

group life insurance policy means a life policy (as defined before 1 July 2015) that insures a group of people, the membership of which changes over time.

*Example for subsection (4), definition group life insurance policy

A life policy which insures the members of a superannuation fund.

(4A) For the purpose of determining whether an agreement or arrangement was created or entered into for a purpose (collateral or otherwise) of reducing the value of the property, the Commissioner may have regard to the following:

- (a) the length of time between the agreement or arrangement being made and the conveyance;
- (b) whether the parties to the agreement or arrangement are or have been associates;
- (c) whether the parties to the agreement or arrangement are or have been dealing with each other at arm's length;
- (d) whether there is any commercial efficacy to the making of the agreement or arrangement other than to reduce the value of the property;
- (e) whether the agreement or arrangement is in favour of the conveyee or an associate of the conveyee;
- (f) any other matters the Commissioner considers relevant.
