Act No. 20 of 2018

An Act to amend the Pastoral Land Act and Pastoral Land Regulations

[Assented to 6 September 2018]
[Second reading 18 October 2017]

The Legislative Assembly of the Northern Territory enacts as follows:

Part 1 Preliminary matters

1 Short title

This Act may be cited as the Pastoral Land Legislation Amendment Act 2018.

2 Commencement

This Act commences on the day fixed by the Administrator by Gazette notice.

Part 2 Amendment of Pastoral Land Act

3 Act amended

This Part amends the Pastoral Land Act.

4 Section 3 amended

omit

Aborigine

insert

Aboriginal person

5 Sections 3A and 3B inserted

After section 3, in Part 1

insert

3A Meaning of estimated carrying capacity and animal equivalent

- (1) Estimated carrying capacity is the number of animal equivalents that an area of pastoral land can sustainably support, based on the unimproved native pasture of the land.
- (2) One animal equivalent is equal to one 450 kg non-breeding beast.
- (3) In this section:

unimproved native pasture, in relation to pastoral land, means plants native to the District in which the pastoral land is situated.

3B Application of Criminal Code

Part IIAA of the Criminal Code applies to an offence against this Act.

Note for section 3B

Part IIAA of the Criminal Code states the general principles of criminal responsibility, establishes general defences, and deals with burden of proof. It also defines, or elaborates on, certain concepts commonly used in the creation of offences.

22 Unauthorised disclosure of confidential information

- (1) A member of the Board commits an offence if:
- (a) the member obtains information in the course of the member's duties as a member; and
  - (b) the member intentionally engages in conduct; and
  - (c) the conduct results in the disclosure of the information and the member is reckless in relation to the result.

Maximum penalty: 200 penalty units or imprisonment for 2 years.

- (2) Strict liability applies to subsection (1)(a).
- (3) Subsection (1) does not apply if:
- (a) the member discloses the information:
    - (i) for the administration of this Act; or

- (ii) with the consent of the person to whom the information relates; or
  - (iii) for legal proceedings arising out of the operation of this Act; or
- (b) the information is otherwise available to the public.

Note for subsection (3)

In addition to the circumstances mentioned in subsection (3), a member who discloses confidential information will not be criminally responsible for an offence if the disclosure is justified or excused by or under a law (see section 43BE of the Criminal Code).

Division 1AA Definitions

30A Definitions

In this Part

lease transaction, see section 30B(1).

sublease includes any agreement that confers possession of pastoral land.

sublessee includes any person deriving possession under a sublease of pastoral land.

30B Meaning of *lease transaction

- (1) A lease transaction is any one of the following:
- (a) transfer of a pastoral lease;
  - (b) sublease of all or part of land the subject of a pastoral lease;
  - (c) transfer a sublease;
  - (d) variation or extension of a sublease;
  - (e) any other transaction that results in a pastoral lessee or sublessee otherwise parting with possession of pastoral land.

- (2) For this section, where a body corporate is a lessee or sublessee, any change in the following is taken to be a transfer of the lease or sublease:
- (a) the ability or capacity of one or more persons to control or procure the composition of the board of directors of the lessee or sublessee;
  - (b) the ability or capacity of one or more persons to cast or control, or procure the casting of 15% or more of the maximum number of votes that may be cast at a general meeting of the lessee or sublessee;
  - (c) the holding of legal title to, or of a beneficial interest, direct or indirect, whether by medium of interposed corporations or trusts or otherwise, in 15% or more of the shares in the lessee or sublessee.

(4) A person commits an offence if:

- (a) the person receives a notice under subsection (1); and
- (b) the person intentionally engages in conduct; and
- (c) the conduct results in a contravention of the notice and the person is reckless in relation to the result.

Maximum penalty: 440 penalty units and 8 penalty units for each day during which the offence continues.

(4A) Strict liability applies to subsection (4)(a).

(4B) It is a defence to a prosecution for an offence against subsection (4) if the defendant has a reasonable excuse.

(5) The Minister may, by written notice, require a person (the applicant) making an application under section 68(1) to provide the Minister with a statutory declaration setting out the particulars mentioned in subsection (1) that the Minister requires in order to be satisfied that, on the completion of the proposed transaction, the applicant or another person would not contravene section 34(1).(5A) The Minister may, by written notice, require a person (an interested person) who, if an application under section 68(1) is approved, would gain an interest in the land subject to the application to provide the Minister with a statutory declaration setting out the particulars mentioned in subsection (1) that the Minister requires to be satisfied that, on the completion of the proposed transaction, the interested person or another person would not contravene section 34(1).

(6) The Minister must not refer an application to the Board under section 68(2), or consent to the proposed lease transaction, until the applicant or the interested person has complied with a notice under subsection (5) or (5A).

Maximum penalty: 85 penalty units and 4 penalty units for each day during which the offence continues.

(7A) Strict liability applies to subsection (7)(a).

(7B) It is a defence to a prosecution for an offence against subsection (7) if the defendant has a reasonable excuse.

12 Sections 54 and 55 replaced

Sections 54 and 55

repeal, insert

54 Determination of estimated carrying capacity

- (1) The Agency must determine the estimated carrying capacity of all pastoral land that is the subject of a pastoral lease.
- (2) For subsection (1), the determination must be made based on the unimproved native pasture on the land and ignoring any improved pasture on the land.
- (3) The Agency must, as soon as practicable after making a determination of estimated carrying capacity, provide written notice of the determination to the lessee of the pastoral land.

54A Review of estimated carrying capacity

- (1) The Agency may review the estimated carrying capacity of pastoral land at any time.
- (2) A pastoral lessee may apply to the Agency to request a review of the estimated carrying capacity of the pastoral lessee's pastoral land at any time.

- (3) As soon as practicable after receiving an application under subsection (2), the Agency must:
  - (a) review the determination of estimated carrying capacity; or
  - (b) refuse to review the determination.
- (4) If, after a review, the Agency considers the existing determination is no longer accurate, the Agency must make a new determination under section 54.
- (5) If the Agency refuses to conduct a review, the Agency must provide written notice of the refusal and the reasons for the refusal to the pastoral lessee.

55 Rent

- (1) Despite anything in a pastoral lease document, the rent payable for a financial year in respect of a pastoral lease is to be calculated using the formula:

$$\text{PLR} = \text{ECC} \times \text{PLRF}$$

where:

PLR = the annual pastoral lease rent in dollars

ECC = the estimated carrying capacity expressed in animal equivalents as determined by the Agency under section 54

PLRF = the pastoral lease rent factor declared under subsection (2) or (3)

- (2) The Minister may, before 30 June in a financial year, by Gazette notice, declare the pastoral lease rent factor for a District for the following financial year.
- (3) If the Minister does not declare the pastoral lease rent factor for a District under subsection (2) before 30 June in a financial year, the pastoral lease rent factor for the following financial year remains unchanged.

Section 57

repeal, insert

57 Interest accrued for late payment of rent

- (1) This section applies if a lessee does not pay an amount of pastoral rent by the date specified in section 56(2).

- (2) Interest:
- (a) is calculated on the amount of unpaid rent at the rate prescribed by regulation; and
  - (b) accrues:
    - (i) the first time – on the first working day after the rent first became in arrears; and
    - (ii) subsequently – on the first day of each quarter of the financial year that the rent remains unpaid.
- (3) For the calculation of future interest and recovery of the interest, and for section 60, the amount of interest accrued under this section is part of the unpaid rent.

Subdivision 4 Lease transactions*67 Lease transactions without consent

- (1) A person commits an offence if:
- (a) the person intentionally enters into a lease transaction; and
  - (b) the Minister does not consent to the transaction.

Maximum penalty: For an individual – 40 penalty units.

For a body corporate – 650 penalty units.

- (2) Strict liability applies to subsection (1)(b).

68 Application for consent to lease transaction

- (1) An application for consent to a lease transaction must be made in writing by the lessee or sublessee to the Minister.
- (2) Before deciding an application under subsection (1), the Minister may refer it to the Board for consideration and recommendation, and the Board must report to the Minister within 30 days after the referral is made.

Note for subsection (2)

Section 35(6) imposes a restriction on the Minister's power to refer an application to the Board.

- (3) The Minister must, after considering any recommendations of the Board, but subject to subsections (4) and (5) and section 35(6), by written notice to the lessee, consent or refuse to consent to the lease transaction.
- (4) The Minister must not consent to a lease transaction that is the transfer of a lease until the following amounts have been paid in full:
- (a) all instalments of the purchase price for the grant of the lease;
  - (b) all rent and other money due and payable to the Territory under the lease.

- (5) The Minister must not consent to a lease transaction that is a sublease unless it is a condition of the agreement that the land will be used only for:
- (a) pastoral purposes; or
  - (b) the purposes of the Territory; or
  - (c) a non-pastoral purpose for which a permit has been granted under section 88 and which will remain valid for the duration of the sublease; or
  - (d) a purpose prescribed by regulation.

- (1) After revoking a permit under section 89E or 89F, the Board may, in writing, direct the lessee of land in relation to which the permit had been granted to take reasonable steps to alleviate any impact on the land arising from the use of the land for a non-pastoral purpose.
- (2) A pastoral lessee commits an offence if:
- (a) the lessee receives written directions under subsection (1); and
  - (b) the lessee intentionally engages in conduct; and
  - (c) the conduct results in a contravention of the directions and the person is reckless in relation to the result.

Maximum penalty: 500 penalty units and 10 penalty units for each day during which the offence continues.

- (3) Strict liability applies to subsection (2)(a).
- (4) It is a defence to a prosecution for an offence against subsection (2) if the defendant has a reasonable excuse.
