Act No. 29 of 2018

An Act to amend the Water Act and Water Regulations and related legislation

[Assented to 4 December 2018]

[Introduced 22 August 2018]

The Legislative Assembly of the Northern Territory enacts as follows:

Part 1 Preliminary matters

1 Short title

This Act may be cited as the Water Legislation Amendment Act 2018.

2 Commencement

This Act commences on the day fixed by the Administrator by Gazette notice.

Part 2 Amendment of Water Act

3 Act amended

This Part amends the Water Act.

4 Section 4 amended (Interpretation)

(1) Section 4(1), definitions bore, Chairman, mining or petroleum activity, occupier and this Act

omit

(2) Section 4(1)

insert (in alphabetical order)

bore means a natural or constructed hole in the ground that is used, or could reasonably be used, for any of the following purposes:

- (a) taking ground water;
- (b) investigating the behaviour, occurrence and availability of ground water;
- (c) monitoring the condition of ground water;
- (d) injecting water to recharge an aquifer;
- (e) disposing waste directly or indirectly into ground water.

bore work means any of the following:

- (a) drilling, decommissioning, constructing, altering, deepening, plugging, backfilling or sealing off a bore;
- (b) removing, replacing, altering, slotting or repairing the casing, lining or screen of a bore.

Chairperson, in relation to the Review Panel, includes a person appointed under section 26 to act in the office of the Chairperson, while the person is acting.

drilling licence means a drilling licence granted under section 49.

interfere with a waterway means any of the following:

- (a) cause a material change to the shape of a waterway;
- (b) cause a material change to the volume, speed or direction of the flow or likely flow of water in or into a waterway;
- (c) cause an alteration to the stability of the bed or banks of a waterway, including by the removal of vegetation.

mining activity means a mining activity as defined in section 4 of the Mining Management Act, including another activity for a purpose ancillary to that activity.

occupier, in relation to land, means:

- (a) a person occupying the land (under whatever title or permission, or without title or permission); or

- (b) a person entitled to occupy the land, whether or not the person is actually occupying the land.

petroleum activity means exploration, extraction or processing of petroleum under an Act or an Act of the Commonwealth, including another activity for a purpose ancillary to one of those activities.

remediation notice, see section 33A(2).

Part IIAA of the Criminal Code applies to an offence against this Act, other than an offence against section 16, 62, 64, 65, 76 or 97.

Note for section 8A

Part IIAA of the Criminal Code states the general principles of criminal responsibility, establishes general defences, and deals with burden of proof. It also defines, or elaborates on, certain concepts commonly used in the creation of offences.

7 Section 15 replaced

Section 15

repeal, insert

15 Rights of owner or occupier to drain land or retain water

Despite section 9(2), the owner or occupier of land may, if it does not materially diminish or increase the flow or likely flow of water in or into a waterway:

- (a) drain the land in accordance with this Act and the Soil Conservation and Land Utilisation Act; or
- (b) for the retention or conservation of water for use on the land – construct, operate, maintain, repair or alter a dam or other water storage or works (other than prescribed works) not in a waterway.

8 Section 24 amended (Establishment and constitution of Review Panel)

Section 24(1), (2), (3) and (4)

omit, insert

- (1) The Minister may, in writing, establish a Water Resources Review Panel to advise the Minister in reviewing the Minister's actions or those of the Controller.
- (2) The Review Panel consists of:
  - (a) a Chairperson; and

- (b) for a matter referred to the Review Panel under section 30(3)(b) – not less than 2 persons nominated by the Chairperson from a group appointed under subsection (3).

(2A) The Chairperson:

- (a) is appointed by the Minister; and
- (b) holds office, subject to this Division, for 3 years; and
- (c) is eligible for reappointment.

(2B) The persons mentioned in subsection (2)(b) hold office as members of the Review Panel for as long as the Chairperson considers necessary to deal with the matter for which the members were nominated.

(3) The Minister must, in writing, appoint a group of 8 persons:

- (a) from whom the persons mentioned in subsection (2)(b) are nominated; and
- (b) who must, in the Minister's opinion, have relevant qualifications or experience respectively in the following:
  - (i) bore drilling;
  - (ii) primary industry;
  - (iii) secondary industry;
  - (iv) Aboriginal affairs;
  - (v) public health;
  - (vi) environmental management;
  - (vii) fisheries;
  - (viii) mining.

(4) When nominating persons under subsection (2)(b), the Chairperson must choose the members of the group who, in the Chairperson's opinion, are best qualified and available to constitute the Review Panel for the consideration of the matter.

---

9 Section 27 replaced

Section 27

repeal, insert

27 Offence to disclose certain information

- (1) A person commits an offence if:
- (a) the person is a member of the Review Panel (including the Chairperson); and
  - (b) the person obtains information in the course of performing a function as a member; and
  - (c) the information is confidential; and
  - (d) the person intentionally engages in conduct; and
  - (e) the conduct results in the disclosure of the information and the disclosure is not:
    - (i) for a purpose connected with the administration of this Act, including a legal proceeding arising out of the operation of this Act; or
    - (ii) to a person who is otherwise entitled to the information; and
  - (f) the person is reckless in relation to the result and circumstance mentioned in paragraph (e).

Maximum penalty: 200 penalty units or imprisonment for 2 years.

- (2) Strict liability applies to subsection (1)(a), (b) and (c).
- (3) If the information mentioned in subsection (1) relates to a person, it is a defence to a prosecution for an offence against that subsection if the person has consented to the disclosure of the information.

Example for subsection (3)

A person to whom the information relates includes a person who has a direct interest in the information remaining confidential because the information is financial, commercial, personal or cultural information.

Note for section 27

In addition to the circumstances mentioned in this section, a person who discloses information mentioned in this section will not be criminally responsible for an offence if the disclosure is justified or excused by or under a law (see section 43BE of the Criminal Code).

10 Section 31 replaced

Section 31

repeal, insert

31 Powers of Review Panel

- (1) The Review Panel may do any of the following to enable it to advise the Minister on a matter referred to it under section 30(3)(b):
- (a) by notice signed by its Chairperson – require a person to appear before the Review Panel;
  - (b) by notice signed by its Chairperson – require a person to produce any relevant documents to the Review Panel;
  - (c) in relation to a document produced under paragraph (b):
    - (i) inspect and copy the document; and
    - (ii) keep the document for a reasonable period that the Review Panel considers appropriate;
  - (d) require a person to give evidence on oath;
  - (e) require a person appearing before the Review Panel to answer a relevant question put to the person by the Review Panel or by another person appearing before it;
  - (f) enter and inspect land, or authorise a person to enter and inspect land, for the purposes of a proceeding before the Review Panel.

Note for subsection (1)(c) and (f)

Refusing to allow a person to enter or inspect places or things as required by this subsection may amount to obstruction for section 101.

- (2) A person commits an offence if:
- (a) the person intentionally engages in conduct; and
  - (b) the conduct contravenes a notice or requirement made under subsection (1).

Maximum penalty: 200 penalty units or imprisonment for 2 years.

- (3) Strict liability applies to subsection (2)(b).

11 Section 33 replaced

Section 33

repeal, insert

33 Protection from liability

- (1) A person is not civilly or criminally liable for an act done or omitted to be done by the person in good faith in the exercise of a power or performance of a function connected with the administration of this Act.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not affect any liability the Territory would, apart from that subsection, have for the act or omission.
- (3) In this section:

exercise, of a power, includes the purported exercise of the power.

performance, of a function, includes the purported performance of the function.

Division 5 Remediation notices*33A Power to give remediation notice

- (1) This section applies if the Controller believes on reasonable grounds that:
  - (a) a person is contravening or has contravened section 37(1), 40(1), 42(1), 44(1), 46(1), 48(1), 50(1), 55(2), 56(1), 58(1), 59(1), 61(1), 66(1), 68(1), 71(1), 79(3), 81(1) or 96(3) in circumstances that make it likely the contravention will continue or be repeated; and
  - (b) a matter relating to the contravention is reasonably capable of being rectified; and
  - (c) it is appropriate to give the person an opportunity to rectify the matter.
- (2) The Controller may give the person a notice (a remediation notice) requiring the person to take reasonable steps to rectify the matter and, if relevant, requiring the person to refrain from doing an act.

33B Requirements for remediation notice

A remediation notice must specify the following:

- (a) that the Controller believes the person is contravening or has contravened a provision mentioned in section 33A(1)(a) in circumstances that make it likely the contravention will continue or be repeated;
- (b) the provision the Controller believes is being, or has been contravened;
- (c) briefly, how it is believed the provision is being, or has been contravened;
- (d) the matter relating to the contravention that the Controller believes is reasonably capable of being rectified;
- (e) the reasonable steps the person must take to rectify the matter;
- (f) that the person must take the steps within a specified reasonable period;
- (g) that the person may apply under section 30 for review of the decision to give the notice within 14 days after the day the notice is given;
- (h) how the person may apply for review;
- (i) if the notice requires the person to do an act involving the carrying out of work – details of the work involved;
- (j) if the notice requires the person to refrain from doing an act:
  - (i) a period for which the requirement applies; or
  - (ii) that the requirement applies until further notice.

33C Failure to comply with remediation notice

- (1) A person commits an offence if the person:
  - (a) is given a remediation notice; and
  - (b) fails to comply with the notice.

Maximum penalty: The maximum penalty that may be imposed for the offence provision specified in the notice.

- (2) An offence against subsection (1) is an offence of strict liability.
- (3) It is a defence to a prosecution for an offence against subsection (1) if the defendant took reasonable steps and exercised due diligence to prevent the commission of the offence.
- (4) The defendant has a legal burden of proof in relation to a matter mentioned in subsection (3).

33D Power to take action and recover costs

- (1) If a person is given a remediation notice and fails to comply with the notice, the Controller may take the action required by the notice and any reasonable expenses incurred are payable by the person as a debt to the Territory.
- (2) The Controller must give the person a notice stating the amount of any reasonable expenses incurred.

12 Section 37 replaced

Section 37

repeal, insert

37 Breach of water investigation permit

- (1) A person commits an offence if the person:
  - (a) holds a permit granted under section 36; and
  - (b) contravenes a term or condition of the permit.

Maximum penalty: 500 penalty units.

- (2) An offence against subsection (1) is an offence of strict liability.
- (3) It is a defence to a prosecution for an offence against subsection (1) if the defendant took reasonable steps and exercised due diligence to prevent the commission of the offence.
- (4) The defendant has a legal burden of proof in relation to a matter mentioned in subsection (3).

13 Section 39 amended (Access to confidential information)

Section 39(4)

omit, insert

- (4) A person commits an offence if:
- (a) the person obtains information in the course of performing a function connected with the administration of this Act or exercising a power under this Act; and
  - (b) the information is confidential and the person is reckless in relation to that circumstance; and
  - (c) the person intentionally engages in conduct; and
  - (d) the conduct results in the disclosure of the information and the disclosure is not:
    - (i) for a purpose connected with the administration of this Act, including a legal proceeding arising out of the operation of this Act; or
    - (ii) to a person who is otherwise entitled to the information; and
  - (e) the person is reckless in relation to the result and circumstance mentioned in paragraph (d).

Maximum penalty: 200 penalty units or imprisonment for 2 years.

(4A) Strict liability applies to subsection (4)(a).

(4B) If the information mentioned in subsection (4) relates to a person, it is a defence to a prosecution for an offence against that subsection if the person has consented to the disclosure of the information.

Example for subsection (4B)

A person to whom the information relates includes a person who has a direct interest in the information remaining confidential because the information is financial, commercial, personal or cultural information.

Note for subsections (4) to (4B)

In addition to the circumstances mentioned in these subsections, a person who discloses confidential information will not be criminally responsible for an offence if the disclosure is justified or excused by or under a law (see section 43BE of the Criminal Code).

Division 4 Criminal liability for offences

102 Liability of occupier

- (1) An occupier of land must take reasonable steps and exercise due diligence, having regard to the nature and extent of the occupation, to prevent an offence under this Act occurring on the land.
- (2) An occupier of land is taken to have committed a relevant offence if:
  - (a) a person (the offender) commits a relevant offence; and
  - (b) the offence occurs wholly or partly:
    - (i) on or below the surface of the land or part of the land; or
    - (ii) on or in a waterway that is immediately adjacent to the land; or
    - (iii) on or in the bed or banks of a waterway that is immediately adjacent to the land.
- (3) It is a defence to a prosecution for an offence taken to have been committed under subsection (2) if the defendant took reasonable steps and exercised due diligence to prevent the commission of the offence.
- (4) The defendant has a legal burden of proof in relation to a matter mentioned in subsection (3).
- (5) This section does not affect the liability of the offender.
- (6) This section applies whether or not the offender is prosecuted for, or found guilty of, the relevant offence.
- (7) In this section:

relevant offence means an offence against section 40(1), 42(1), 44(1), 46(1), 56(1), 58(1), 59(1), 61(1), 66(1) or 68(1).

102A Liability of owner

- (1) For section 102, an owner of land is taken to be an occupier of the land unless the owner proves that at the time the offence was committed:
  - (a) the owner was not an occupier of the land; and
  - (b) the occupier was not an associated person of the owner.

(2) The defendant has a legal burden of proof in relation to a matter mentioned in subsection (1).

(3) In this section:

associated person means an employee, agent, licensee, contractor or subcontractor.

102B Criminal liability of executive officer of body corporate

(1) An executive officer of a body corporate commits an offence if:

- (a) the body corporate commits an offence by contravening a declared provision (a relevant offence) and the officer was reckless about whether the contravention would happen; and
- (b) the officer was in a position to influence the conduct of the body corporate in relation to the contravention; and
- (c) the officer recklessly failed to take reasonable steps to prevent the contravention.

Maximum penalty: The maximum penalty that may be imposed on an individual for the relevant offence.

(2) Strict liability applies to subsection (1)(b).

(3) In deciding whether the executive officer took (or failed to take) reasonable steps to prevent the contravention, a court must consider the following:

- (a) any action the officer took directed towards ensuring the following (to the extent the action is relevant to the contravention):
  - (i) the body corporate arranged regular professional assessments of the body corporate's compliance with the declared provision;
  - (ii) the body corporate implemented any appropriate recommendation arising from an assessment under subparagraph (i);
  - (iii) the body corporate's employees, agents and contractors had a reasonable knowledge and understanding of the requirement to comply with the declared provision;
- (b) any action the officer took when the officer became aware that the contravention was, or could be, about to happen.

- (4) Subsection (3) does not limit the matters the court may consider.
- (5) This section does not affect the liability of the body corporate.
- (6) This section applies whether or not the body corporate is prosecuted for, or found guilty of, the relevant offence.
- (7) In this section:

declared provision means:

- (a) section 40(1), 42(1), 44(1), 46(1), 56(1), 58(1), 59(1), 61(1), 66(1) or 68(1); or
- (b) a provision of the Regulations prescribed by regulation.

executive officer, of a body corporate, means a director or other person who is concerned with, or takes part in, the management of the body corporate.

102C Criminal liability of executive officer of body corporate – legal burden of proof on defence

- (1) An executive officer of a body corporate commits an offence if the body corporate commits an offence by contravening a declared provision (a relevant offence).

Maximum penalty:       The maximum penalty that may be imposed on an individual for the relevant offence.

- (2) An offence against subsection (1) is an offence of absolute liability.
- (3) It is a defence to a prosecution for an offence against subsection (1) if the defendant:
  - (a) was not in a position to influence the conduct of the body corporate in relation to the contravention; or
  - (b) took reasonable steps to prevent the contravention; or
  - (c) did not know, and could not reasonably have been expected to know, that the contravention would happen.
- (4) The defendant has a legal burden of proof in relation to a matter mentioned in subsection (3).

- (5) In deciding whether the defendant took (or failed to take) reasonable steps to prevent the contravention, a court must consider the following:
- (a) any action the defendant took directed towards ensuring the following (to the extent the action is relevant to the contravention):
    - (i) the body corporate arranged regular professional assessments of the body corporate's compliance with the declared provision;
    - (ii) the body corporate implemented any appropriate recommendation arising from an assessment under subparagraph (i);
    - (iii) the body corporate's employees, agents and contractors had a reasonable knowledge and understanding of the requirement to comply with the declared provision;
  - (b) any action the defendant took when the defendant became aware that the contravention was, or could be, about to happen.
- (6) Subsection (5) does not limit the matters the court may consider.
- (7) This section does not affect the liability of the body corporate.
- (8) This section applies whether or not the body corporate is prosecuted for, or found guilty of, the relevant offence.
- (9) In this section:

declared provision means:

- (a) section 40(3), 44(2), 56(2), 59(2) or 66(2); or
- (b) a provision of the Regulations prescribed by regulation.

102D Liability of joint approval holder

- (1) If a joint holder of an approval commits an offence against this Act involving contravention of the approval, each other joint holder of the approval is taken to have committed the offence.

- (2) It is a defence to a prosecution for an offence taken to have been committed under subsection (1) if the defendant took reasonable steps and exercised due diligence to prevent the commission of the offence.
- (3) The defendant has a legal burden of proof in relation to a matter mentioned in subsection (2).

- (4) In this section:

approval means a licence, permit or other authorisation granted under this Act.

If a person is found guilty of an offence against this Act, the court may, in addition to any penalty that it may impose, and to any other order that it may make under this or another Act, make any of the following orders:

- (a) an order requiring the person to take an action to rectify or mitigate the consequences of the offence;
- (b) an order requiring the person to take an action or to cease taking action that is continuing the offence or exacerbating the consequences of the offence;
- (c) an order that the person pay to the Territory an amount determined by the court to be equal to a fair assessment or estimate of the financial benefit that the person, or an associate of the person, has gained, or can reasonably be expected to gain, as a result of the commission of an offence against this Act.

105C Sentencing matters

- (1) When imposing a penalty on a person for an offence against this Act, the court must have regard to the following to the extent that they are relevant:
  - (a) the impact of the offence on other persons' rights under this Act;
  - (b) the market value of any water that has been lost, misused or unlawfully taken because of the commission of the offence;
  - (c) the extent of the harm caused or likely to be caused to the environment by the commission of the offence;
  - (d) the practical measures that may be taken to prevent, control, abate or mitigate that harm;
  - (e) the extent to which the person could reasonably have foreseen the harm caused or likely to be caused to the environment by the commission of the offence;

- (f) the extent to which the person had control over the causes of the offence;
  - (g) the person's intentions in committing the offence;
  - (h) whether, in committing the offence, the person was complying with orders from an employer or supervising employee.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not limit the matters the court may consider.

Part 15 Transitional matters for Water Legislation Amendment Act 2018

112 Definitions

In this Part:

commencement means the commencement of the Water Legislation Amendment Act 2018.

former Act means this Act as in force immediately before the commencement.

hydraulic fracturing means the underground gas and oil extraction process involving the injection of fluids at high pressure into a geological formation to induce fractures that conduct hydrocarbons for extraction.

offence provisions means the provisions of this Act that create or relate to offences (including in relation to criminal responsibility, defences and penalties).

transition period means the period of 6 months on and from the commencement.

113 Application to mining and petroleum activity

The former Act continues to apply in relation to a mining activity or petroleum activity if:

- (a) the activity is not related to hydraulic fracturing; and

- (b) the activity involves interfering with a waterway, taking surface water, taking ground water, bore work or recharging an aquifer; and
- (c) the activity is conducted in accordance with:
  - (i) a mining management plan approved under the Mining Management Act; or
  - (ii) an environment management plan approved under the Petroleum Act; and
- (d) the activity started:
  - (i) before the end of the transition period; or
  - (ii) after the transition period, but the application for the management plan was made before the end of the transition period and was approved without change.

114 Licences, permits and other authorisations

- (1) A licence, permit or other authorisation granted before the commencement continues in force until it expires or is surrendered or revoked.
- (2) A construction permit granted under section 41 of the former Act continues in force and is taken to be a permit to interfere with a waterway mentioned in section 41.
- (3) A bore construction permit granted under section 57 of the former Act continues in force and is taken to be a permit to carry out bore work mentioned in section 57.

Note for section 114

No licences, permits or authorisations were granted for petroleum activity under the former Act.

115 Offence provisions – before and after commencement

- (1) The offence provisions, as amended by the Water Legislation Amendment Act 2018, apply only in relation to offences committed after the commencement.
- (2) The offence provisions, as in force before the commencement, continue to apply in relation to offences committed before the commencement.

- (3) For this section, if any of the conduct constituting an offence occurred before commencement, the offence is taken to have been committed before commencement.

116 Saving of exemption and declaration

- (1) The exemption made under section 15(6) of the former Act and published in Gazette No. S35 of 30 June 1992 continues in force as if it had been made and published in the Gazette under section 40(10).
- (2) The declaration made under section 44(3) of the former Act and published in Gazette No. S63 of 6 July 2016 continues in force as if it had been made and published in the Gazette under section 44(8).

18 Joint interests

- (1) A joint application for an approval:
  - (a) must be in accordance with the approved form for the application; and
  - (b) must be made in the name of each joint applicant; and
  - (c) must include the address of each joint applicant; and
  - (d) must be signed by each joint applicant unless the applicants are using an agent in accordance with paragraph (e); and
  - (e) may be made by an agent on the applicants' behalf if the agent has written authorisation to do so and lodges the authorisation with the application.
- (2) After considering the application, any objections to the application and the applicants' replies to those objections, the Controller:
  - (a) must determine whether or not to grant an approval to the applicants jointly and to which applicants to grant the approval; and
  - (b) may include special conditions on the approval that the Controller considers appropriate.
- (3) It is a condition of every joint approval that each joint holder is jointly and severally:
  - (a) bound by the terms and conditions; and
  - (b) liable for any fee or other amount payable; and
  - (c) bound to comply with all notices and directions given or served under the Act unless the notice or direction relates to any thing, measure or work on the land of one or more but not all of the joint holders.
- (4) If, under section 93(1) of the Act, the Controller, by notice, amends the terms and conditions of a joint approval, the Controller may specify in the notice the manner in which the respective entitlements of each of the joint holders are amended by the notice.

- (5) If, under section 93(2) of the Act, the Controller, by notice, revokes or suspends a joint approval, the Controller may specify in the notice the manner in which the respective entitlements of each of the holders are revoked or suspended.
- (6) If an application, notice or other document is permitted or required to be served on the joint holders of an approval, service on one joint holder is taken to be service on every joint holder.
- (7) In this regulation:

approval means a licence, permit or other authorisation granted under the Act.

Part 4                    Infringement notice offences

19                    Infringement notice offence and prescribed amount payable

- (1) An infringement notice offence is an offence against a provision specified in the Schedule.
- (2) The prescribed amount for an infringement notice offence is the amount equal to the monetary value of the number of penalty units specified for the offence in the Schedule.

20                    When infringement notice may be given

If an authorised officer believes on reasonable grounds that a person has committed an infringement notice offence, the officer may give a notice (an infringement notice) to the person.

21                    Contents of infringement notice

- (1) The infringement notice must specify the following:
  - (a) the name and address of the person, if known;
  - (b) the date the infringement notice is given to the person;
  - (c) the date, time and place of the infringement notice offence;
  - (d) a description of the offence;
  - (e) the prescribed amount payable for the offence;
  - (f) the enforcement agency, as defined in the Fines and Penalties (Recovery) Act, to which the prescribed amount is payable.

- (2) The infringement notice must include a statement to the effect of the following:
- (a) the person may expiate the infringement notice offence and avoid any further action in relation to the offence by paying the prescribed amount to the specified enforcement agency within 28 days after the notice is given;
  - (b) the person may elect under section 21 of the Fines and Penalties (Recovery) Act to have the matter dealt with by a court instead of under that Act by completing a statement of election and giving it to the specified enforcement agency;
  - (c) if the person does nothing in response to the notice, enforcement action may be taken under the Fines and Penalties (Recovery) Act, including (but not limited to) action for the following:
    - (i) suspending the person's licence to drive;
    - (ii) seizing personal property of the person;
    - (iii) deducting an amount from the person's wages or salary;
    - (iv) registering a statutory charge on land owned by the person;
    - (v) making a community work order for the person and imprisonment of the person if the person breaches the order.
- (3) Also, the infringement notice must include an appropriate form for making the statement of election mentioned in subregulation (2)(b).

22 Electronic payment and payment by cheque

- (1) If the person uses electronic means to pay the prescribed amount, payment is not effected until the amount is credited to the Fines Recovery Unit's bank account.
- (2) If the person tenders a cheque in payment of the prescribed amount, payment is not effected unless the cheque is cleared on first presentation.

23 Withdrawal of infringement notice

- (1) The Controller may withdraw the infringement notice by written notice given to the person.

- (2) The notice must be given:
- (a) within 28 days after the infringement notice is given to the person; and
  - (b) before payment of the prescribed amount.

24 Application of Part

- (1) This Part does not prejudice or affect the start or continuation of proceedings for an infringement notice offence for which an infringement notice has been given unless the offence is expiated.
- (2) Also, this Part does not:
- (a) require an infringement notice to be given; or
  - (b) affect the liability of a person to be prosecuted in a court for an offence for which an infringement notice has not been given; or
  - (c) prevent more than one infringement notice for the same offence being given to a person.
- (3) If more than one infringement notice for the same offence has been given to a person, the person may expiate the offence by paying the prescribed amount in accordance with any of the notices.
