(2) Subject to this Part, an order for the adoption of a child who has attained the age of 12 years shall not be made unless -

- (a) the child has consented to the adoption; or

(3) Notwithstanding subsections (1) and (2)(b), an order for the adoption of a child who, on the date the order is made, has attained the age of 18 years shall not be made unless the child consents to the adoption.

11. ADOPTION OF ABORIGINAL CHILD

- (a) within the child's extended family; or
- (b) where that cannot be arranged, with Aboriginal people who have the correct relationship with the child in accordance with Aboriginal customary law.

(2) In making an order for the adoption of an Aboriginal child, where, in the opinion of the Court, the custody referred to in subsection (1) is not possible or would not be consistent with the welfare and interests of the child, the Court shall ensure that a placement is made that is consistent with the best interests and welfare of the child and in so doing shall -

- (a) give preference to the adoption of the child by applicants one or both of whom are Aboriginal persons who are, in the opinion of the Minister, suitable to adopt the child;

Adoption of Children

(1) Subject to this Act, the Court may, on application, make an order for the adoption of a child who -

- (a) had not attained the age of 18 years before the date on which the application was filed in the Court; or
- (b) has been brought up, maintained and educated by the applicant or applicants, or by the applicant and a deceased or estranged spouse of the applicant, as his, her or their child.

(2) The Court shall not make an order for the adoption of a child who is or has been married, is living or has lived in a de facto relationship within the meaning of the De Facto Relationship Act or has entered into a traditional Aboriginal marriage.

(3) An order may be made under this Act for the adoption of a child notwithstanding that the child has, whether before or after the commencement of this Act, and whether in the Territory or elsewhere, previously been adopted.

13. ADOPTION BY COUPLE

(1) Except as provided by this section, the Court shall only make an order for the adoption of a child in favour of a couple where the man and woman -

- (a) are married to each other and have been so married for not less than 2 years; or

15. ADOPTION BY SPOUSE OF PARENT, &c.

(3) The Court shall not make an order for the adoption of a child in favour of a person or persons referred to in subsection (1) unless it is satisfied that -

- (a) the making of an order in relation to the guardianship or custody of the child under the Family Law Act 1975 of the Commonwealth or the Guardianship of Infants Act would not make adequate provision for the welfare and interests of the child;

Adoption of Children

- (b) in the opinion of the Minister, exceptional circumstances exist which make the making of an order for the adoption of the child desirable; and
- (c) an order for the adoption of the child would make better provision for the welfare and interests of the child than an order referred to in paragraph (a).

(4) Where the Court makes an order for the adoption of a child in favour of the spouse of a parent of the child, the person in whose favour the order is made is deemed to be a parent of the child jointly with the first-mentioned parent and notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Act or any other law in force in the Territory -

- (a) the child is not to be treated in law as if the child were not the child of the first-mentioned parent;
- (b) the first-mentioned parent is not to be treated in law as if he or she is not a parent of the child;
- (c) the relationship between the child and the first-mentioned parent is not terminated;
- (d) where the first-mentioned parent had been the guardian of the child, the order does not terminate the guardianship; and
- (e) where the child was the adopted child of the first-mentioned parent, the order does not terminate the adoption, and section 45 otherwise applies.

16. AGE OF ADOPTIVE PARENTS

(1) Subject to this section, the Court may only make an order for the adoption of a child where the person or persons in whose favour it is made -

- (a) has or have attained the age of 25 years; and

(2) Where it is the first child to be adopted by the person or persons in whose favour the order for adoption is to be made and that person or neither of those persons does or do not have the care and custody of a child (including an adopted child) the Court may make an order for the adoption of a child in favour of that person or those persons only if that person or the older of those persons is not more than 40 years older than the child.

Adoption of Children

(3) Where the person or persons, or one of those persons, in whose favour the order for adoption is to be made, has or have the care and custody of a child (including an adopted child), the Court may make an order for the adoption of a child in favour of that person or those persons only if that person or the older of those persons is not more than 45 years older than the child.

(4) Notwithstanding this section, the Court may make an order for the adoption of a child in favour of a person who does not comply with this section where, in the opinion of the Minister, exceptional circumstances exist that make such an order desirable.

Division 2 - Application and Assessment

17. APPLICATION AND ASSESSMENT

- (1) A person alone or a couple who -
 - (a) is resident or domiciled in the Territory; and
 - (b) wishes to adopt a child (including a non-citizen child), may apply in the prescribed form to the Minister for the purpose of adopting a child.

18. LIST OF PERSONS WISHING TO ADOPT A CITIZEN-CHILD

(1) The Minister shall, in accordance with this section, establish and maintain a record in such form (including an electronic form) or combination of forms, as the Minister thinks fit, of the names of the couples who have made an application to him or her under section 17 in respect of a citizen-child and who are, in his or her opinion, suitable to adopt such a child, and that record shall be known as the adoption list.

- (2) The Minister shall -
 - (a) keep the adoption list in a form that indicates the chronological order that applications under section 17 were received by him or her; and

Adoption of Children

(3) The names of couples shall not be included on, or continue to remain on, the adoption list unless the Minister, having received a report from an approved person in respect of the suitability to adopt of the couple, decides that the couple is suitable, or continues to be suitable to adopt the child.

(4) On making his or her decision as to the suitability of the couple to adopt, the Minister shall give written notice of the decision as soon as practicable to the couple and, where the Minister decides not to approve the inclusion of names of the couple on the list, he or she shall supply reasons for that decision.

19. PERSONS WHOSE NAMES APPEAR ON ADOPTION LIST OF ANOTHER STATE

Where the Minister is satisfied that any persons applying to have their names included on the adoption list are persons whose names are, or were within one month before the date of the application, included in a similar list kept by a person, officer or authority in accordance with the law of a State or another Territory of the Commonwealth, the Minister may treat the application as having been received by him or her on the date on which the application by virtue of which the names were included in the list kept by that person, officer or authority was received, or was treated as having been received, by that person, officer or authority.

20. MINISTER TO HAVE REGARD TO ADOPTION LIST

In making arrangements for and in relation to the adoption of a child and in the allocation of the child to a couple, the Minister shall, without prejudice to his or her duty to consider all other relevant matters (including in particular the welfare and interests of the child and the wishes of the parent or parents of the child and the couple wishing to adopt), have regard to the adoption list and to the chronological order of the names of the persons included on the adoption list.

21. SUITABILITY TO ADOPT NON-CITIZEN CHILD

(1) Where the assessment of a person alone or a couple who has made an application under section 17 in respect of a non-citizen child has been carried out, the Minister shall, having received a report from an approved person in respect of the suitability to adopt of the person or the couple and decided whether in his or her opinion the person or the couple is suitable to adopt, give as soon as practicable written notice to the person or the couple of his or her decision that -

- (a) the person or the couple is suitable to adopt a non-citizen child; or

Division 3 - Review of Decision not to Approve Persons

22. PERSON AGGRIEVED MAY SEEK REVIEW

A person or couple who is aggrieved by a decision of the Minister under Division 2 as to his, her or their suitability to adopt may, not later than one month after the date of the written notice from the Minister of his or her decision, or such longer time as the Minister may allow, apply to the Minister for review of that decision on the ground that the assessment of him, her or them was incorrect.

(2) A member of a panel shall be appointed by instrument in writing in accordance with subsection (1) in respect of a particular application for review and that appointment shall be automatically terminated on the completion of its inquiry in respect of that review.

Adoption of Children

24. ROLE OF PANEL

(1) The role of a panel appointed under section 23 is to conduct an inquiry for the purpose of re-assessing the suitability of a particular person or couple to adopt and, on completion of its inquiry, to make recommendations to the Minister as to whether or not the Minister's decision should be varied.

(2) Subject to this section, the procedure for the conduct of the inquiry by a panel shall be as determined by the panel in each case.

(3) In conducting an inquiry, a panel -

- (a) shall act without regard to technicalities and legal form;
- (b) is not bound by rules of evidence; and
- (c) may inform itself on any matter in such manner as it thinks fit, including the interviewing of a person who applied for the review.

25. MINISTER TO REVIEW DECISION

The Minister shall, as soon as practicable after receiving the recommendations of a panel in respect of an application for review -

- (a) review his or her decision, taking into account those recommendations; and
- (b) give written notice to the applicant or applicants of the outcome of the review.

Division 4 - Consents to Adoptions

26. NO ADOPTION WITHOUT CONSENT

Subject to this Act, the Court shall not make an order for the adoption of a child unless -

- (a) consent (not being consent that has been revoked) to the adoption is given by the appropriate person or persons ascertained in accordance with this Division; or
- (b) the Court has, by order under section 35, dispensed with the giving of a consent to the adoption by such a person.

27. CONSENTS OF PARENTS AND GUARDIANS REQUIRED

(1) Subject to section 28, in the case of a child who has not previously been adopted, consent to the adoption of the child by each person who is a birth parent or a guardian of the child is required, except that the consent of a birth parent of a child born outside the marriage or the traditional Aboriginal marriage of his or her birth parents is not required unless that birth parent's parenthood of the child is recognised under a law in force in the Territory before -

Adoption of Children

- (a) the expiration of one month after the day on which an instrument of consent to the adoption of the child was signed by the first-mentioned birth parent or a guardian; or
- (b) the day on which an order for the dispensation of the giving of a consent to the adoption of the child is made by the Court under section 35, whichever is the earlier.

(2) In the case of a child who has been previously adopted, the consent of every person who is an adoptive parent or a guardian of the child is required.

(3) Where a person whose consent is otherwise required under this section is the applicant or one of the applicants for an order for adoption, that person's consent to the adoption is not required.

(4) This section does not apply in the case of a child who has attained the age of 18 years before the order for adoption is made.

28. BIRTH PARENT TO BE GIVEN OPPORTUNITY TO CONSENT

(1) In the case of the adoption of a child who has not been adopted before and who was born outside the marriage or the traditional Aboriginal marriage of his or her birth parents and only one birth parent consents to the adoption of the child, where the Minister knows or, after making reasonable inquiry, ascertains the name and last-known address of a person who the Minister reasonably believes to be the other birth parent of the child, the Minister shall, by certified mail within 14 days after the first-mentioned birth parent gives his or her consent to the adoption, send to the other birth parent written advice of the first-mentioned birth parent's consent to the adoption of the child.

(2) A birth parent to whom the Minister sends written advice pursuant to subsection (1) may, within 7 days after receiving the advice, give notice to the Minister that he or she intends to take steps to establish his or her parenthood of the child in accordance with the Status of Children Act.

Adoption of Children

(3) The birth parent referred to in subsection (2) shall, within one month after the giving of notice to the Minister under that subsection -

- (a) establish his or her parenthood of the child; or
- (b) commence proceedings to establish his or her parenthood of the child under the Status of Children Act, as the case requires, and, if he or she does not do so, his or her consent to the adoption is not required.

(4) Where the birth parent referred to in subsection (2) establishes his or her parenthood of the child, his or her consent to the adoption of the child is required in accordance with this Division.

(5) On application by the Minister within 7 days after receiving the consent of the first-mentioned birth parent referred to in subsection (1), the Court may, where it is satisfied that sufficient grounds exist, order that the Minister is not required to comply with subsection (1) and accordingly the Minister shall not comply with that subsection.

29. CONSENT FOR ADOPTION OF NON-CITIZEN CHILD

(1) Where an application is made for the adoption of a non-citizen child -

- (a) this Division does not apply in relation to the giving of consent to the adoption of the non-citizen child by a parent or a guardian of the non-citizen child; and
- (b) the Court must satisfy itself that the Minister consents to the application for the adoption of the non-citizen child before making the order for the adoption.

(2) The Minister's consent referred to in subsection (1) shall be accompanied by a written declaration, signed by the Minister, that the Minister believes on reasonable grounds -

- (a) that each parent or guardian of the non-citizen child -
 - (i) has, before the child commenced the journey to Australia, given consent in accordance with the law of the place of residence of the parent or guardian of the child to the adoption of the child and has not revoked the consent; or

Adoption of Children

(ii) is dead or cannot, after reasonable inquiry, be found; or

(b) that circumstances exist by reason of which the consent of a parent or guardian, if required under this Act, may be dispensed with.

30. PERSON CONSENTING TO RECEIVE COUNSELLING

(1) Subject to subsection (4), a person (other than the Minister) who is, under this Division, required to consent to an adoption of a child shall not consent to the adoption unless he or she has received counselling from an approved person.

(2) The person who gives the counselling referred to in subsection (1) shall, not later than 7 days before consent to an adoption is given, give to the person or persons who propose to consent to the adoption information in the prescribed form in respect of the effect of an order for adoption and the alternatives to adoption.

(3) The Minister may, for the purposes of a proceeding under this Act, certify that subsections (1) and (2) have been complied with and such certification by the Minister is prima facie evidence that subsections (1) and (2) have been complied with.

(4) This section does not apply to a person who proposes to give consent to an adoption and who will have been residing outside the Territory for a continuous period of 2 months at the time of giving the consent.

(3) Where a consent of the kind referred to in subsection (1) has been relied on in an application for an order for adoption, but the application has been refused by the Court, the consent remains in operation for the purposes of a further application for the adoption of the child unless the Court directs otherwise.

32. CONSENTS GIVEN UNDER LAW OF A STATE OR ANOTHER TERRITORY

Where -

- (a) a person whose consent to the adoption of a child is required by this Division has, in accordance with the law of a State or of another Territory of the Commonwealth, duly signed an instrument of consent for the adoption of a child by any person approved by or on behalf of the officer performing in that State or other Territory functions similar to those of the Minister;

33. REVOCATION OF CONSENT

(1) A consent to the adoption of a child given for the purposes of this Act by a person other than the child may be revoked by notice in writing served on the Minister before the expiration of one month after the date on which the instrument of consent was signed but may not otherwise be revoked.

34. DEFECTIVE CONSENTS

(2) The Court shall not make an order for the adoption of a child where the instrument of consent was signed by the birth mother of the child -

- (a) before the birth of the child; or
- (b) within one month after the birth of the child unless it is proved that, at the time the instrument was signed, the birth mother was in a fit condition to give the consent.

(3) For the purposes of subsection (2)(b) -

- (a) certificates from 2 medical practitioners each certifying that, at the time when the instrument of consent was signed by the birth mother of the child, the mother was in a fit condition to give the consent; and
- (b) a signed report from a person who is an approved person for the purposes of section 30 that the birth mother received counselling and the prescribed information pursuant to that section, is evidence that that mother was in a fit condition to give the consent.

(b) whose name and address is known or may reasonably be ascertained by the Minister, and each person who receives notice from the Minister may, within 7 days of receipt of the notice, advise the Minister, together with his or her full name and an address for service, whether he or she wishes to be a party to the adoption proceedings.

(3) The Minister shall, as soon as practicable but not later than 7 days after receipt of the advice referred to in subsection (2), advise in writing the person or persons intending to apply for an order for adoption of the name and address for service of each person who wishes to be a party to the adoption proceedings.

(4) The Court may, upon application, dispense with the giving of a notice by the Minister under subsection (2) where it considers it reasonable to do so.

(b) opposing an application to dispense with the consent of a person to the adoption under section 35.

41. COURT TO BE SATISFIED AS TO CERTAIN MATTERS

(1) The Court shall not make an order for the adoption of a child unless it has received a report in writing from the Minister concerning the proposed adoption and, after considering the report and any other evidence before the Court, it is satisfied that -

(b) the applicant or applicants are suitable to adopt the child and satisfy the requirements of the Act; and

(c) the Minister has ascertained and taken into account the wishes, if any, of a parent of the child, including wishes in respect of arrangements between the parent or parents and any prospective adoptive parent or adoptive parents in respect of access to the child by, or the giving and receiving of information about the child to, the first-mentioned parent or parents.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply in relation to an order for the adoption of a child who has attained the age of 18 years before the making of the order, but the Court shall not make an order for the adoption of such a child unless it is satisfied -

Adoption of Children

42. INTERIM ORDERS

(1) On an application to the Court for an order for the adoption of a child, the Court, having received the Minister's report referred to in section 41, may postpone the determination of the application and make an interim order for the custody of the child in favour of the applicant or applicants for the order for adoption who are thereby entitled to the care and custody of the child during the period the interim order remains in force.

(2) An interim order may be subject to such terms and conditions relating to the maintenance, education and welfare of the child as the Court thinks fit.

(3) Subject to this section, an interim order remains in force for such period, not exceeding one year, as the Court specifies in the order and may be extended for such further periods, if any, as the Court from time to time orders, but shall not be continuously in force for periods the aggregate of which is more than 2 years.

(4) An interim order ceases to have effect upon the making of an order for the adoption of the child, whether made in the Territory or in a State or another Territory of the Commonwealth.

(5) Notwithstanding subsection (3), the Court may, at any time, make an order discharging an interim order and make such order, subject to terms and conditions, for the care and custody and guardianship of the child as it thinks fit.

43. CARE OF CHILD AFTER REFUSAL OF AN APPLICATION

Where the Court refuses an application for the order for the adoption of a child, it shall make such order, subject to terms and conditions, for the care and custody and guardianship of the child as it thinks fit.

44. DISCHARGE OF ADOPTION ORDERS

(1) Subject to subsection (2), the Minister may apply to the Court for an order discharging an order for the adoption of a child, and the Court may make such an order if it is satisfied that -

- (a) the adoption order was obtained by fraud, duress or other improper means; or
- (b) a person's consent to the adoption required under Division 4 was obtained by fraud, duress or other improper means.

Adoption of Children

(2) The Court shall not make an order discharging an order for adoption under this section if it is satisfied that -

- (a) the child has attained the age of 18 years; or
- (b) the making of the order would be prejudicial to the welfare and interests of the child.

(3) Where -

- (a) the Court makes an order discharging an order for adoption under this section; and
- (b) that order for adoption was not made in reliance upon the consent of a person or persons that was obtained by fraud, duress or other improper means, then, unless the Court otherwise orders, the consent of that person remains, or those persons remain, in force for the purposes of a further application for the adoption of the child.

(4) Where the Court makes an order discharging an order for adoption under this section, it may, at the same time or subsequently, make such consequential or ancillary orders as it thinks necessary for the welfare and interests of the child, including orders relating to -

- (a) the name of the child;
- (b) the ownership of property;
- (c) the care, custody or guardianship of the child; or
- (d) the domicile of the child.

(5) On the making of an order discharging an order for the adoption of a child under this section, but subject to Division 7 and any order made under subsection (4), the rights, privileges, duties, liabilities and relationships under the law of the Territory of the child and of all other persons affected by the order for adoption of the child shall be the same as if the adoption order had not been made, but without prejudice to -

- (a) anything lawfully done;
- (b) the consequences of anything unlawfully done; or
- (c) any right or interest that became vested in any person, whilst the adoption order was in force.

Adoption of Children

Division 7 - Effect of Adoption Orders

45. GENERAL EFFECT OF ADOPTION ORDERS

(1) For the purposes of the laws of the Territory, but subject to this Act and to the provisions of any other law in force in the Territory that expressly distinguishes in any way between birth children and adopted children, on the making of an order for the adoption of a child -

- (a) the child becomes a child of the adoptive parent or adoptive parents, and the adoptive parent becomes, or adoptive parents become, the parent or parents of the child as if that parent or those parents were the birth parent or parents of that child;
- (b) the child ceases to be a child of any person who was a parent of the child before the making of the adoption order, and such person ceases to be a parent of the child;
- (c) the relationship to one another of all persons affected by the order for the adoption of the child (including the child and a former parent of the child) shall be determined on the basis of the provisions of paragraphs (a) and (b) so far as they are relevant;
- (d) an existing appointment of a person, by will or deed or otherwise in accordance with a law in force in the Territory, as guardian of the adopted child ceases to have effect; and
- (e) a previous adoption of the child (whether effected under a law in force in the Territory or otherwise) ceases to have effect.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), for the purposes of any law of the Territory relating to a sexual offence, being a law for the purposes of which the relationship between persons is relevant, an adoption order, or the discharge of an adoption order, does not cause the cessation of any relationship that would have existed if the adoption order, or the discharging order, as the case may be, had not been made, and any such relationship is deemed to exist in addition to any relationship that exists by virtue of the application of that subsection in relation to the adoption order or by virtue of the discharge of the adoption order.

46. EFFECT OF ORDERS AS REGARDS DISPOSITIONS OF PROPERTY, &c.

(1) Section 45(1) has effect in relation to dispositions of property, whether by will or otherwise, and whether made before or after the commencement of this Act, and to devolutions of property in respect of which a person dies intestate after the commencement of this Act, except that that subsection does not affect a disposition of property -

Adoption of Children

(a) by a person who, or by persons any of whom, died; and

(b) that has taken effect in possession,

before the commencement of this Act.

(2) Section 45(1) does not apply in relation to an agreement or instrument (not being a disposition of property) made or executed before the commencement of this Act.

(3) Where -

(a) before the commencement of this Act, a person made, by an instrument other than a will, a disposition of property;

(b) the disposition had not taken effect in possession before the commencement of this Act; and

(c) it did not appear from the instrument that it was the intention of the person to include adopted children as objects of the disposition, the person may, notwithstanding that the instrument could not, apart from this subsection, be revoked or varied, by a like instrument vary the first-mentioned instrument to exclude adopted children (whether adopted under this Act or otherwise) from participation in any right, benefit or privilege under the instrument.

(4) Nothing in section 45 or in this section affects the operation of a provision in a will or other instrument (whether made or coming into operation before or after the commencement of this Act) distinguishing between adopted children and children other than adopted children.

47. ADOPTION ORDER NOT TO AFFECT THE DISTRIBUTION OF PROPERTY BY TRUSTEES OR PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVES UNLESS NOTICE GIVEN

(1) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, trustees or other personal representatives may, subject to this section, convey, transfer or distribute real or personal property to or among the persons appearing to be entitled to the property without having ascertained whether or not an adoption has been effected by virtue of which a person is or is not entitled to an interest in the property.

Adoption of Children

(2) A trustee or personal representative conveying, transferring or distributing real or personal property in the manner referred to in subsection (1) shall not be liable to a person claiming directly or indirectly by virtue of an adoption unless the trustee or personal representative has notice of the claim before the time of the conveyance, transfer or distribution.

(3) Nothing in this section prejudices the right of a person to follow property into the hands of a person, other than a purchaser for value, who has received it.

48. NAMES OF ADOPTED CHILD

(1) On the making of an order for the adoption of a child, the surname of the child shall be -

- (a) where there are 2 adoptive parents who have the same surname, that surname;
- (b) where there is one adoptive parent, the surname of that adoptive parent; or
- (c) where there are 2 adoptive parents who have different surnames, one of those surnames, that surname having been specified in the application for the order for the adoption as the proposed surname of the child and approved by the Court, or such other surname as the Court approves in the adoption order.

(2) On the making of an order for the adoption of a child the forename or forenames of the child shall be such name or names as the Court, in the adoption order, approves on the application of the adoptive parent or parents.

(3) The Court shall not approve a name as a surname or forename of a child under this section unless it is satisfied that, as far as practicable, the wishes and feelings of the child have been ascertained and due consideration given to them, having regard to the age and understanding of the child.

(4) Nothing in this section prevents the changing of any name of a child in accordance with a law in force in the Territory after the making of an order for the adoption of the child.

PART 4 - RECOGNITION OF ADOPTIONS

49. RECOGNITION OF AUSTRALIAN ADOPTIONS

For the purposes of the law in force in the Territory, the adoption of a child (whether before or after the commencement of this Act) in a State or another Territory of the Commonwealth in accordance with the law of that State or other Territory has, so long as it has not been rescinded under the law in force in that State or other Territory, the same effect as an order for adoption made under this Act, and has no other effect.

50. RECOGNITION OF FOREIGN ADOPTIONS

(1) Subject to this Part, where a child has been adopted (whether before or after the commencement of this Act) in an overseas country and -

- (a) the adoption remains effective according to the law of that country;
- (b) in consequence of the adoption, the adoptive parent or adoptive parents had, immediately following the adoption, a right superior to that of a birth parent of the child alone, or of the birth parents of the child jointly, in respect of the custody of the child;
- (c) under the law of that country the adoptive parent or adoptive parents of the child were, by the adoption, placed generally in the position of a birth parent or birth parents in relation to the child; and
- (d) either -
 - (i) the adoptive parent or adoptive parents had been continuously residing in that country for a period of not less than 12 months immediately before commencing proceedings for the adoption; or
 - (ii) the Minister had, before the completion of the adoption, decided that the adoptive parent or adoptive parents is or are suitable to adopt a non-citizen child, then the adoption has, for the purposes of the law in force in the Territory, the same effect as an order for adoption made under this Act, and has no other effect.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), a court of competent jurisdiction (including the Court dealing with proceedings under section 52) -

- (a) shall, where the question arises whether an adoption is one to which this section applies, presume that the adoption complies with the requirements of subsection (1) unless the contrary appears from the evidence before it; or
- (b) may refuse to recognise an adoption as being an adoption to which this section applies if it appears to the Court that the procedure followed, or the law applied, in connection with the adoption was not fair and just.

Adoption of Children

(3) Nothing in this section affects any right that was acquired by, or became vested in, a person before the commencement of this Act.

51. MINISTER MAY APPROVE COUNTRIES FOR ADOPTION PURPOSES

(1) Where the Minister is satisfied that proceedings for adoption in an overseas country are fair, the Minister may, by notice in the Gazette, determine that an adoption of a child in that country, in accordance with the law of that country, shall so long as it remains in force under that law, have the same effect (and no other effect) as an adoption made in a State or another Territory of the Commonwealth has under section 49, and such an adoption shall have that effect.

(2) The approval of the Minister referred to in subsection (1) may be subject to such terms and conditions as the Minister thinks fit.

(3) A decision of the Minister whether to approve an overseas country for the purposes of subsection (1) is not reviewable.

52. DECLARATIONS OF VALIDITY OF FOREIGN ADOPTIONS

(1) A person who is -

(a) an adopted child;

(b) an adoptive parent;

(c) a person tracing a relationship by virtue of an adoption through or to an adopted child, may apply to the Court for an order declaring that an adoption of a child was effected (whether before or after the commencement of this Act) under the law of an overseas country and that the adoption is one to which section 50 applies.

(2) A person making an application under subsection (1) shall serve a copy of the application on the Minister.

(3) The Court may hear and determine an application made under subsection (1) and may, if it thinks fit -

(a) direct that notice of the application be given to such persons (including the Attorney-General) as the Court thinks fit;

(b) direct that a person be made a party to the application; or

(c) permit a person having an interest in the matter to intervene in, and become a party to, the proceedings.

Adoption of Children

(4) Where the Court makes an order in determination of the application, it may include in the order such particulars in relation to the adoption, the adopted child and the adoptive parent or adoptive parents as it finds to be established.

(5) For the purposes of the laws in force in the Territory, an order under this section binds the Crown in right of the Territory, whether or not notice was given to the Attorney-General, but, subject to subsection (6), does not affect -

- (a) the rights of another person unless that person was -
 - (i) a party to the proceedings for the order or a person claiming through such a party; or
 - (ii) a person to whom notice of the application for the order was given or a person claiming through such a person; or
- (b) an earlier judgment, order or decree of a court of competent jurisdiction.

(6) In proceedings in a court of competent jurisdiction of the Territory, being proceedings relating to the rights of a person other than a person referred to in subsection (5)(a), the production of a copy of an order made under this section, certified by the Registrar to be a true copy, shall be evidence that an adoption was effected in accordance with the particulars contained in the order and that the adoption is one to which section 50 applies.

53. SUPERVISION OF NON-CITIZEN CHILD WHETHER OR NOT ADOPTION RECOGNISED

- (1) Subject to this section, where -
 - (a) a non-citizen child has been adopted in accordance with the law of an overseas country, whether or not the adoption is an adoption which, under this Act, has the same effect (and no other effect) as an order for adoption under this Act;
 - (b) the adoption of the child has been in force for not more than 12 months;
 - (c) no adoptive parent, whether there is one or 2, was a national or citizen of that overseas country at the time the adoption was made; and

Adoption of Children

- (d) the child is present in the Territory,

the Minister may supervise the welfare and interests of the child for a period not exceeding 12 months commencing on the date of the arrival of the child in the Territory and an approved person has a right of access to the child at all reasonable times during that period.

(2) Where a child whose welfare and interests may be supervised under subsection (1) by the Minister has, after being adopted but before arriving in the Territory, been resident in a State or another Territory of the Commonwealth, the period during which the child is subject to the supervision of the Minister is reduced by that period of residence in the State or other Territory.

(3) The Minister may, in his or her discretion, exempt a child, to whom subsection (1) would otherwise apply, from the application of that subsection and accordingly that subsection shall not apply to or in relation to that child.

PART 5 - REGISTRATION OF ADOPTIONS, &c.

54. REGISTRATION OF ORDERS

(1) The Registrar shall, as soon as practicable after every order for adoption, or every order discharging an order for adoption, is made by the Court under this Act, cause a memorandum, in accordance with the prescribed form, of the order for adoption, or a copy of the order discharging an order for adoption, to be sent to the Registrar of Births, Deaths and Marriages, who shall -

- (a) the adoptive parent or parents in respect of the adoption may apply to the Minister for a prescribed certificate that the adoption is an adoption to which section 51 applies; and
- (b) the Minister shall, as soon as practicable after causing the certificate to be prepared, cause a copy of the certificate to be forwarded to the Registrar of Births, Deaths and Marriages.

(3) Upon receipt of a copy of the order forwarded in accordance with subsection (1) or of a copy of a certificate forwarded in accordance with subsection (2), the Registrar of Births, Deaths and Marriages shall -

56. SENDING OF MEMORANDA OR ORDER TO STATES AND OTHER TERRITORIES

Where the Court makes an order for the adoption of a child, or an order discharging such an order, and the Registrar has reason to believe that the birth of the child is registered in a State or another Territory of the Commonwealth, the Registrar shall, as soon as practicable, cause a memorandum, in accordance with the prescribed form, of the adoption order, or a copy of the discharging order, as the case may be, certified in writing by him to be a true memorandum or copy, to be sent to the appropriate officer of that State or other Territory having functions in relation to the registration of births.

57. PARTICULARS OF ORDERS RECEIVED FROM OTHER STATES
