4. ADDITIONAL RENT

(1) Notwithstanding any other law in force in the Territory, the terms and conditions of the pastoral lease or the fact that rental in respect of a pastoral lease may have been paid in pursuance of such terms and conditions in respect of the financial year before the Administrator's assent to this Act was declared, the rent payable in respect of a pastoral lease for the financial year is the rent that is or was otherwise payable in respect of that lease multiplied by a rental increase factor of 2.8, and the additional rent resulting from the application of the rental increase factor shall be paid before 31 December 1991.

(2) Where the rent payable for a pastoral lease otherwise than under this Act is or was payable in respect of part only of the financial year or part of the financial year and some other period not included in the financial year, the rent shall be apportioned for the purpose of calculating the additional rent to be paid in respect of the financial year.

5. LIABILITY OF FORMER LESSEES

Where before the date on which the Administrator's assent to this Act was declared a person had ceased to be the lessee of a pastoral lease, that person shall nevertheless be liable to pay the additional rent resulting from the application of the rental increase factor apportioned to the part of the financial year during which the person was the lessee.

6. PENALTY

A person liable to pay additional rent under this Act who fails to do so by 31 December 1991 is guilty of an offence.
