Part 14 Transitional matters for Justice and Licensing Legislation Further Amendment Act 2022

129 Definitions

In this Part:

amending Act means Part 3, Division 1 of the Justice and Licensing Legislation Further Amendment Act 2022.

commencement means the commencement of the amending Act.

Commissioner means the Commissioner as defined in section 4 of this Act as in force immediately before the commencement.

130 Delegation

- (1) A delegation by the Commissioner of any of the Commissioner's powers or functions under this Act, other than a power or function under sections 67 to 70, that is in force immediately before the commencement is taken to be a delegation by the Director made under section 4B(1).
- (2) A delegation by the Commissioner of any of the Commissioner's powers or functions under sections 67 to 70 of this Act that is in force immediately before the commencement is taken to be a delegation by the CEO made under section 4B(2).

131 Secrecy

Despite the amendments to section 6 made by the amending Act, section 6, as in force immediately before the commencement, continues to apply to a person who was, at any time before the commencement:

- (a) engaged as a member of the staff of the Commissioner; or
- (b) authorised to perform a function or exercise a power of the Commissioner on behalf of the Commissioner.

132 Protection from liability

Despite the amendments to section 7 made by the amending Act, section 7, as in force immediately before the commencement, continues to apply to a person who was the Commissioner at any time before the commencement.

133 Property vested in Commissioner

If, immediately before the commencement, property is vested in the Commissioner under section 67 or a corresponding previous law of the Territory, on commencement the property is taken to vest in the CEO under section 67.

134 Pending applications

- (1) Subsection (2) applies in relation to an application if, before the commencement:
 - (a) the application had been made to the Commissioner under this Act; and
 - (b) the Commissioner had not made a decision on the application.
- (2) The application must be dealt with and decided in accordance with this Act as in force immediately before the commencement.
- (3) The decision made by the Commissioner on the application is taken to be a decision made by the Director under this Act.

135 Pending appeals

- (1) Subsection (2) applies in relation to an appeal if, before the commencement:
 - (a) the appeal had been commenced under this Act; and
 - (b) a decision on the appeal had not been made.
- (2) The appeal must be dealt with in accordance with this Act as in force immediately before the commencement.

136 Appeals not yet commenced

- (1) Subsection (2) applies in relation to a decision if, before the commencement:
 - (a) the decision had been made by the Commissioner and the period for appealing the decision had not expired; and
 - (b) an appeal had not been commenced.

- (2) A person who would have been entitled to appeal against the decision under this Act as in force immediately before the commencement may do so under this Act as in force after the commencement as if the decision had been made by the Director.

137 Continuation of ongoing documents and actions

- (1) On the commencement, an ongoing Director document continues with the same force and effect as if it had been issued by, or given to, the Director.
- (2) On the commencement, an ongoing Director action continues with the same force and effect as if it had been done by, or in relation to, the Director.
- (3) On the commencement, an ongoing CEO document continues with the same force and effect as if it had been issued by, or given to, the CEO.
- (4) On the commencement, an ongoing CEO action continues with the same force and effect as if it had been done by, or in relation to, the CEO.
- (5) This section applies subject to the other provisions of this Part.
- (6) In this section, a reference to something done before the commencement includes a reference to something done after the commencement in accordance with this Part as if it had been done before the commencement.
- (7) In this section:

ongoing CEO action means an action or thing that:

- (a) was done by, or in relation to, the Commissioner before the commencement in or for the exercise of a power or performance of a function under this Act that, on the commencement, is conferred on the CEO; and
- (b) immediately before the commencement, had ongoing effect.

ongoing CEO document means a document that:

- (a) was issued by, or given to, the Commissioner before the commencement in or for the exercise of a power or performance of a function under this Act that, on the commencement, is conferred on the CEO; and
- (b) immediately before the commencement, had ongoing effect.

ongoing Director action means an action or thing that:

- (a) was done by, or in relation to, the Commissioner before the commencement in or for the exercise of a power or performance of a function under this Act that, on the commencement, is conferred on the Director; and
- (b) immediately before the commencement, had ongoing effect.

ongoing Director document means a document that:

- (a) was issued by, or given to, the Commissioner before the commencement in or for the exercise of a power or performance of a function under this Act that, on the commencement, is conferred on the Director; and
- (b) immediately before the commencement, had ongoing effect.

138 Offence provisions – before and after commencement

- (1) The offence provisions, as amended by the amending Act, apply only in relation to offences committed after the commencement.
- (2) The offence provisions, as in force before the commencement, continue to apply in relation to offences committed before the commencement.
- (3) For this section, if any of the conduct constituting an offence occurred before the commencement, the offence is taken to have been committed before the commencement.
- (4) In this section:

offence provisions means the provisions of this Act that create or relate to offences (including in relation to criminal responsibility, defences and penalties).

21 Part 7A inserted

After section 33A

insert

Part 7A Director

33B Director

- (1) The Minister must, in writing, appoint a public sector employee to be the Director.
- (2) The Minister may, in writing, determine that the Director be known by another name.
- (3) If the Minister determines under subsection (2) that the Director be known by another name, a reference in this Act to the Director is taken to be a reference to that name.
- (4) For subsection (1), the Minister may appoint:
 - (a) a public sector employee by name; or
 - (b) a public sector employee by reference to the office, position or designation held or occupied by the employee; or

- (c) a public sector employee from time to time holding, acting in or performing the duties of a named office, position or designation.

33C Powers of entry

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), the Director may, at any reasonable time for the purposes of ascertaining whether a provision of this Act or of the Regulations is being or has been complied with, enter any place which the Director knows or believes on reasonable grounds to be a place where:
 - (a) a person carries on a business as an agent; or
 - (b) a document or thing relating to any such business is kept.
- (2) The Director is not entitled to enter any place used for residential purposes except:
 - (a) with the consent of the occupier; or
 - (b) under the authority of a search warrant.
- (3) The Director may exercise the powers conferred by section 33E in relation to a place entered under subsection (1).

33D Powers exercisable after entry

- (1) If the Director enters a place under section 33C, the Director may, as far as is applicable to that place, do any of the following:
 - (a) seize without payment, and detain, any goods which the Director believes on reasonable grounds to be in the possession of the agent as part of a business carried out under this Act;
 - (b) ask questions of any person found at the place;
 - (c) require the production of documents;
 - (d) require the production of passwords for the purposes of gaining access to computers or other electronic devices or documents;
 - (e) inspect and require explanations of any document;
 - (f) take copies of or extracts from any document or, if in the Director's opinion it is not appropriate for copies or extracts to be taken at the place, remove a document for a reasonable time to enable copies or extracts to be taken.

- (2) If the Director seizes goods under subsection (1)(a), the person from whom the goods were seized is, on application to the Director, entitled to their return, if:
- (a) the period during which prosecutions for an offence under this Act may be commenced has expired and no prosecutions have been commenced; or
 - (b) proceedings for an offence under this Act have been commenced and the defendant is not, on the determination of those proceedings, found guilty of an offence.

33E Warrants

- (1) The Director may apply to a justice of the peace for a warrant to enter a place mentioned in section 33C(1).
- (2) A justice of the peace who is satisfied that, for the purpose specified in section 33C(1), there is reasonable cause to permit the Director to enter the place with a view to exercising the powers conferred by section 33D may issue a warrant directed to the Director to enter the place specified in the warrant for the purpose of exercising those powers.
- (3) A warrant issued under subsection (2) is, for a period of 1 month from its issue, sufficient authority:
- (a) to the Director, and to all persons acting in aid of the Director, to enter the place specified in the warrant; and
 - (b) to the Director, to exercise in respect of the place specified in the warrant the powers conferred on the Director by section 33D.
- (4) If it is impracticable for the Director to apply in person for a warrant under subsection (1), the Director may make the application by telephone, and the justice of the peace may issue the warrant on that application.
- (5) If a justice of the peace issues a warrant under subsection (4):
- (a) the justice of the peace must:
 - (i) complete and sign the warrant; and
 - (ii) inform the Director by telephone of its terms; and
 - (iii) record on the warrant the justice of the peace's reasons for issuing it; and

- (b) the Director must:
 - (i) complete in duplicate a form of warrant in the terms issued by the justice of the peace; and
 - (ii) write on the form of warrant the name of the justice of the peace and the date and time of its issue; and
 - (iii) forward a copy to the justice of the peace.
- (6) On receiving the copy referred to in subsection (5)(b)(iii), the justice of the peace must:
 - (a) compare it with the warrant signed by the justice of the peace; and
 - (b) if satisfied that they are in substance identical – note this fact on the warrant; and
 - (c) forward both the warrant and the copy to the Director.
- (7) A form of warrant prepared by the Director under subsection (5)(b) has, if it is in accordance with the terms of the warrant signed by the justice of the peace, the same authority as a warrant issued by a justice of the peace under subsection (2).
- (8) If an application has been made to a justice of the peace under subsection (4) and the application has been refused, subject to subsection (9) the Director must not make a further application to any justice of the peace under subsection (4) in respect of that matter.
- (9) If an application under subsection (4) has been made to a justice of the peace and the application has been refused, a further application may be made to a justice of the peace if the Director satisfies the justice of the peace that the Director has, since the time of the original application, received further information or evidence which is material to an application under subsection (4).

33F Delegation

The Director may, in writing, delegate any of the Director's powers and functions under this Act:

- (a) to another public sector employee; or
- (b) with the consent of the Minister, to any other person.

33G Approved forms

The Director may approve forms for this Act.

 - (c) a public sector employee from time to time holding, acting in or performing the duties of a named office, position or designation.

14 Power of Director to obtain information

- (1) The Director may, for the purpose of carrying out the Director's functions under this Act, require a person to give the Director any information the Director requires or to answer any question put by the Director.
- (2) The Director may require that the information be given, or the question answered:
 - (a) orally, at a place and time specified by the Director; or
 - (b) in writing, within a period specified by the Director.
- (3) The Director may require information or an answer that is given orally to be given on oath.

15 Self-incrimination

- (1) A person is not excused from giving any information or answering any question, if required to do so under section 14, on the ground that the information or answer might tend to incriminate the person or make the person liable to a penalty.
- (2) However, the information or answer mentioned in subsection (1) is not admissible in evidence against the person in any criminal proceeding other than a proceeding for an offence against this Act.

16 Offence to fail to provide information

- (1) A person commits an offence if:
 - (a) the Director requests information from, or asks a question of, the person under section 14; and
 - (b) the Director informs the person that it is an offence not to give the requested information or answer the asked question; and
 - (c) the person fails to give the requested information or answer the asked question.

Maximum penalty: 400 penalty units or imprisonment for 2 years.

- (2) If a person is found guilty of an offence under subsection (1), the court may order that the person provide the information, or answer the question, that was the subject of the offence.

17 Offence to give misleading information or document

- (1) A person commits an offence if:
- (a) the Director requests information from, or asks a question of, the person under section 14; and
 - (b) the person gives the Director information or an answer that is false or misleading in a material particular.

Maximum penalty: 400 penalty units or imprisonment for 2 years.

- (2) A person commits an offence if:
- (a) the Director requests information from the person under section 14; and
 - (b) the person gives the Director a document containing information that is false or misleading in a material particular.

Maximum penalty: 400 penalty units or imprisonment for 2 years.

- (3) Subsection (2) does not apply if the person, when giving the document to the Director:
- (a) draws the misleading aspect of the document to the Director's attention; and
 - (b) to the extent to which the person can reasonably do so – gives the Director the information necessary to remedy the misleading aspect of the document.

17A Other powers of Director

- (1) The Director may, with the approval of the Minister, arrange with an Agency, a statutory corporation or a local government council for the use of the services of any staff, or the use of any facilities, of the Agency, corporation or council.
- (2) The terms and conditions of an arrangement under subsection (1) must be approved by the Commissioner for Public Employment under the Public Sector Employment and Management Act 1993.
- (3) The Director may, for a particular purpose and otherwise than under a contract of service, appoint and employ any person, body or organisation considered to be capable of providing information, services or advice that would assist in the performance of the Director's functions.

- (4) An arrangement under subsection (3) may only be made:
 - (a) with the approval of the Minister; and
 - (b) on terms and conditions determined by the Minister.
- (5) The Director may, at the Director's discretion, institute and defend proceedings in a court of competent jurisdiction for or on behalf of a consumer or class of consumers in relation to Part 10 or 14.
- (6) If a dispute in relation to Part 10 or 14 arises concerning a consumer, the Director may:
 - (a) if the dispute is governed by an arbitration agreement that appoints the Director as arbitrator or empowers the Director to appoint an arbitrator – act as arbitrator or appoint an arbitrator; or
 - (b) in the absence of an arbitration agreement, with the consent in writing of all the parties to the dispute – act as arbitrator in the dispute or nominate a person to act as arbitrator.
- (7) The Director may approve forms for Part 10 or 14.

17B Delegation

The Director may, in writing, delegate any of the Director's powers and functions under this Act:

- (a) to another public sector employee; or
- (b) with the consent of the Minister, to any other person.

28 Section 18 amended (Authorised officers)

- (1) Section 18(1)
