Division 6 Criminal damage*Subdivision 1 Interpretation*238 Definitions

In this Division:

belongs, in relation to property, see section 239.

causes, in relation to damage or other result, see section 240.

damage, to property, includes:

- (a) destroying the property; and
- (b) causing the physical loss of the property by interfering with the property (including by removing any restraint over the property or abandoning the property); and
- (c) causing any loss of a use or function of the property by interfering with the property; and
- (d) defacing the property, and
- (e) for a document – obliterating or rendering illegible the whole or any part of the document; and
- (f) for an animal – harming or killing the animal; and

- (g) for a plant or other thing forming part of land – severing it from the land.

property:

- (a) means any real or personal property of a tangible nature; and
- (b) without limiting paragraph (a), includes:
- (i) a wild creature that is tamed or ordinarily kept in captivity or that is or is being reduced into the possession of a person; and
  - (ii) any organ or part of a human body and any blood, ova, semen or other substance extracted from the human body.

property damage offence means:

- (a) an offence against Subdivision 2 (other than an offence against section 242); or
- (b) conduct in a State or another Territory that:
- (i) is an offence against a law of that State or Territory; and
  - (ii) would constitute an offence against Subdivision 2 (other than an offence against section 242) if the conduct occurred in the Territory.

239 Person to whom property belongs

- (1) For this Division, property belongs to anyone who has:
- (a) possession or control of it; or
  - (b) any proprietary right or interest in it, other than an equitable interest arising only from:
    - (i) an agreement to transfer or grant an interest; or
    - (ii) a constructive trust.
- (2) If property is subject to a trust, the person to whom the property belongs includes anyone having a right to enforce the trust.
- (3) If property belongs to 2 or more persons:
- (a) a reference in this Division to a person to whom the property belongs is a reference to all those persons; and

- (b) for an offence committed by a person (the defendant) – a reference in this Division to property belonging to another person includes a reference to property belonging to the defendant and other persons.

240 Causing damage or other result

For this Division, a person causes damage or any other result if the person's conduct substantially contributes to the damage or other result.

Subdivision 2 Offences

241 Damage to property

- (1) A person is guilty of a crime if the person causes damage to property belonging to another person.

Fault elements:

The person:

- (a) intentionally causes damage to property belonging to that other person or someone else; or
- (b) is reckless as to causing damage to property belonging to that other person or someone else.

Maximum penalty: Imprisonment for 14 years.

- (2) A person is guilty of a crime if the person makes a threat to another person to cause damage to property.

Fault elements:

The person:

- (a) intentionally makes a threat to another person to cause damage to property; and
- (b) is reckless as to causing the other person to fear that:
- (i) the threat will be carried out; and
- (ii) the carrying out of the threat will cause death or serious harm to someone.

Maximum penalty: Imprisonment for 7 years.

- (3) A person is guilty of an offence if the person makes a threat to another person to cause damage to property belonging to that other person or someone else.

Fault elements:

The person:

- (a) intentionally makes a threat to another person to cause damage to property belonging to that other person or someone else; and
- (b) intends to cause the other person to fear that the threat will be carried out.

Maximum penalty: Imprisonment for 2 years.

- (4) For subsections (2) and (3):
- (a) it is not necessary to prove that the threatened person actually feared that the threat would be carried out; and
  - (b) a threat may be made by any conduct, and may be explicit or implicit and may be conditional or unconditional; and
  - (c) a threat to a person includes a threat to a group of persons; and
  - (d) fear that a threat will be carried out includes apprehension that the threat will be carried out.
- (5) A person is guilty of an offence if the person possesses a thing for use by that person or someone else to cause damage to property belonging to another person.

Fault element:

The person intends that the person or someone else will use the thing to cause damage to property belonging to another person.

Maximum penalty: Imprisonment for 2 years.

242 Sabotage

- (1) A person is guilty of a crime if the person:
- (a) commits a property damage offence; and

- (b) causes damage to a public facility in committing the property damage offence.

Fault elements:

The person:

- (a) has the fault elements for a particular property damage offence; and
- (b) in committing the property damage offence, intends to cause:
- (i) major disruption to government functions; or
  - (ii) major disruption to the use of services by the public; or
  - (iii) major economic loss.

Maximum penalty: Imprisonment for life.

- (2) A person who is convicted of the offence of attempting to commit a crime against subsection (1) is punishable by imprisonment not exceeding 14 years.

Note for subsection (2)

For the offence of attempting to commit the crime, see section 43BF.

- (3) A person is guilty of a crime if the person makes a threat to another person to damage a public facility.

Fault elements:

The person:

- (a) intentionally makes a threat to another person to damage a public facility; and
- (b) intends to cause the other person to fear that the threat will be carried out and will cause:
- (i) major disruption to government functions; or
  - (ii) major disruption to the use of services by the public; or
  - (iii) major economic loss.

Maximum penalty: Imprisonment for 15 years.

(4) For subsection (3):

- (a) it is not necessary to prove that the threatened person actually feared that the threat would be carried out; and
- (b) a threat may be made by any conduct, and may be explicit or implicit and conditional or unconditional; and
- (c) a threat to a person includes a threat to a group of persons; and
- (d) fear that a threat will be carried out includes apprehension that the threat will be carried out.

(5) In this section:

damage to a public facility means:

- (a) causing damage to a public facility or any part of the facility; or
- (b) causing disruption to the use or operation of a public facility.

public facility means any of the following (whether publicly or privately owned):

- (a) government facilities, including premises used by government employees in connection with official duties;
- (b) public infrastructure facilities, including facilities providing water, sewerage, energy, fuel, communication or other services to the public;
- (c) public information systems, including systems used to generate, send, receive, store or otherwise process electronic communications;
- (d) public transport facilities, including facilities used to transport people or goods;
- (e) public places, including any premises, land or water open to the public.

243 Arson

- (1) A person is guilty of a crime if the person causes damage to a building or conveyance by using fire or an explosive substance.

Fault elements:

The person:

- (a) intentionally uses fire or an explosive substance; and
- (b) intentionally causes, or is reckless as to causing, damage to a building or conveyance.

Note for subsection (2)

For the offence of attempting to commit the crime, see section 43BF.

- (3) A person is guilty of a crime if the person makes a threat to another person to use fire or an explosive substance to cause damage to a building or conveyance.

Fault elements:

The person:

- (a) intentionally makes a threat to another person to use fire or an explosive substance to cause damage to a building or conveyance; and
- (b) intends to cause, or is reckless as to causing, another person to fear that the threat will be carried out.

Maximum penalty: Imprisonment for 7 years.

- (4) For subsection (3):

- (a) it is not necessary to prove that the threatened person actually feared that the threat would be carried out; and
- (b) a threat may be made by any conduct, and may be explicit or implicit and may be conditional or unconditional; and
- (c) a threat to a person includes a threat to a group of persons; and

(d) fear that a threat will be carried out includes apprehension that the threat will be carried out.

(5) In this section:

building includes:

- (a) a part of a building; and
- (b) all or part of any other structure or thing (whether or not moveable) that is used, designed or adapted for residential purposes (for example, a caravan).

conveyance means an aircraft, vessel, train, motor vehicle or trailer attached to a motor vehicle.

244 Bushfires

(1) A person is guilty of a crime if:

- (a) the person causes a fire; and
- (b) there is a substantial risk that:
  - (i) the fire would spread to vegetation on property belonging to another person; and
  - (ii) the person would not be able to stop the spreading of the fire.

Fault elements:

The person:

- (a) intentionally causes the fire or is reckless as to causing the fire; and
- (b) is reckless as to the risk.

Maximum penalty: Imprisonment for 15 years.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to a person who caused a fire for the purposes of fire management or land management (or both):

- (a) in accordance with a law in force in the Territory (including, for example, the Aboriginal Land Rights (Northern Territory) Act 1976 (Cth), the Bushfires Act and the Fire and Emergency Act); or

- (b) in accordance with an agreement entered into by the Territory.

Example for subsection (2)(a)

A person who caused a fire in the course of carrying out fire management activities such as hazard reduction activities under the Fire and Emergency Act.

Example for subsection (2)(b)

A person who caused a fire in the course of carrying out fire management and land management activities under an agreement between the Territory and a private company established for the reduction of greenhouse gas emissions.

- (3) For this section, a person causes a fire if the person:
- (a) lights a fire; or
  - (b) maintains a fire.

245 Leaving explosive substance at a place

A person is guilty of an offence if:

- (a) the person leaves an explosive substance at a place; and
- (b) there is a substantial risk that the explosive substance would cause damage to property belonging to another person.
