Part 4 Australian Consumer Law

Division 1 Interpretation

25 Interpretation

- (1) In this Part:

application law means:

- (a) a law of a participating jurisdiction that applies the Australian Consumer Law, either with or without modifications, as a law of the participating jurisdiction; or
- (b) any regulations or other legislative instrument made under a law described in paragraph (a); or

- (c) the Australian Consumer Law, applying as a law of the participating jurisdiction, either with or without modifications.

Australian Consumer Law means (according to the context):

- (a) the Australian Consumer Law text; or
- (b) the Australian Consumer Law text, applying as a law of a participating jurisdiction, either with or without modifications.

Australian Consumer Law text means the text described in section 26.

instrument means any document whatever, including the following:

- (a) an Act or an instrument made under an Act;
- (b) a law of this jurisdiction or an instrument made under such a law;
- (c) an award or other industrial determination or order, or an industrial agreement;
- (d) any other order (whether executive, judicial or otherwise);
- (e) a notice, certificate or licence;
- (f) an agreement;
- (g) an application made, information or complaint laid, affidavit sworn, or warrant issued, for any purpose;
- (h) an indictment, presentment, summons or writ;
- (i) any other pleading in, or process issued in connection with, a legal or other proceeding.

Intergovernmental Agreement means the Intergovernmental Agreement for the Australian Consumer Law made on 2 July 2009 between the Commonwealth, the State of New South Wales, the State of Victoria, the State of Queensland, the State of Western Australia, the State of South Australia, the State of Tasmania, the Australian Capital Territory and the Northern Territory of Australia, as in force for the time being.

jurisdiction means a State or the Commonwealth.

law, in relation to a Territory, means a law of, or in force in, that Territory.

modifications includes additions, omissions and substitutions.

month means a period commencing at the beginning of a day of one of the 12 months of the year and ending immediately before the beginning of the corresponding day of the next month or, if there is no such corresponding day, ending at the expiration of the next month.

participating jurisdiction means a jurisdiction that is a party to the Intergovernmental Agreement and applies the Australian Consumer Law as a law of the jurisdiction, either with or without modifications.

State includes a Territory.

Territory means the Australian Capital Territory or Northern Territory of Australia.

this jurisdiction means the Territory.

- (2) Terms used in this Part and also in the Australian Consumer Law (NT) have the same meanings in this Part as they have in that Law.
- (3) For this Part:
 - (a) a jurisdiction is taken to have applied the Australian Consumer Law as a law of the jurisdiction if a law of the jurisdiction substantially corresponds to the provisions of the Australian Consumer Law text, as in force from time to time; and
 - (b) that corresponding law is taken to be the Australian Consumer Law, or the Australian Consumer Law text, applying as a law of that jurisdiction.

Division 2 Application of Australian Consumer Law

26 Australian Consumer Law text

The Australian Consumer Law text consists of:

- (a) Schedule 2 to the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth); and
- (b) the regulations under section 139G of that Act.

27 Application of Australian Consumer Law

- (1) The Australian Consumer Law text, as in force from time to time:
 - (a) applies as a law of this jurisdiction; and

(b) as so applying may be referred to as the Australian Consumer Law (NT); and

(c) as so applying is a part of this Act.

(2) This section has effect subject to sections 28, 29 and 30.

28 Future modifications of Australian Consumer Law text

(1) A modification made by a Commonwealth law to the Australian Consumer Law text after the commencement of this section does not apply under section 27 if the modification is declared by regulation to be excluded from the operation of that section.

(2) A regulation under subsection (1) has effect only if its making is notified no later than 2 months after the date of the modification.

(3) Subsection (1) ceases to apply to the modification if a further regulation so provides.

(4) For this section, the date of the modification is the date on which the Commonwealth Act effecting the modification receives the Royal Assent or the regulation effecting the modification is registered under the Legislative Instruments Act 2003 (Cth).

29 Meaning of regulator in Australian Consumer Law for purposes of this jurisdiction

In the Australian Consumer Law (NT):

regulator means the Commissioner of Consumer Affairs.

30 Interpretation of Australian Consumer Law

(1) The Acts Interpretation Act 1901 (Cth) applies as a law of this jurisdiction to the Australian Consumer Law (NT).

(2) For subsection (1), the Commonwealth Act mentioned in that subsection applies as if:

(a) the statutory provisions in the Australian Consumer Law (NT) were a Commonwealth Act; and

(b) the regulations in the Australian Consumer Law (NT) or instruments under that Law were regulations or instruments under a Commonwealth Act.

(3) The Interpretation Act does not apply to:

(a) the Australian Consumer Law (NT); or

- (b) any instrument under that Law.

31 Application of Australian Consumer Law

- (1) The Australian Consumer Law (NT) applies to and in relation to:
 - (a) persons carrying on business within this jurisdiction; or
 - (b) bodies corporate incorporated or registered under the law of this jurisdiction; or
 - (c) persons ordinarily resident in this jurisdiction; or
 - (d) persons otherwise connected with this jurisdiction.
- (2) Subject to subsection (1), the Australian Consumer Law (NT) extends to conduct, and other acts, matters and things, occurring or existing outside or partly outside this jurisdiction (whether within or outside Australia).

Division 3 References to Australian Consumer Law

32 References to Australian Consumer Law

- (1) A reference in any instrument to the Australian Consumer Law is a reference to the Australian Consumer Law of any or all of the participating jurisdictions.
- (2) Subsection (1) has effect except so far as the contrary intention appears in the instrument or the context of the reference otherwise requires.

33 References to Australian Consumer Law of other jurisdictions

- (1) This section has effect for an Act, a law of this jurisdiction or an instrument under an Act or such a law.
- (2) If a law of a participating jurisdiction other than this jurisdiction provides that the Australian Consumer Law text as in force from time to time applies as a law of that jurisdiction, the Australian Consumer Law of that jurisdiction is the Australian Consumer Law text, applying as a law of that jurisdiction.

Division 4 Application of Australian Consumer Law to Crown

34 Division does not apply to Commonwealth

In this Division, participating jurisdiction or other jurisdiction does not include the Commonwealth.

35 Application law of this jurisdiction

The application law of this jurisdiction binds (so far as the legislative power of Parliament permits) the Crown in right of this jurisdiction and of each other jurisdiction, so far as the Crown carries on a business, either directly or by an authority of the jurisdiction concerned.

36 Application law of other jurisdictions

- (1) The application law of each participating jurisdiction other than this jurisdiction binds the Crown in right of this jurisdiction, so far as the Crown carries on a business, either directly or by an authority of this jurisdiction.
- (2) If, because of this Part, a provision of the law of another participating jurisdiction binds the Crown in right of this jurisdiction, the Crown in that right is subject to that provision despite any prerogative right or privilege.

37 Activities that are not business

- (1) For sections 35 and 36, the following do not amount to carrying on a business:
 - (a) imposing or collecting:
 - (i) taxes; or
 - (ii) levies; or
 - (iii) fees for authorisations;
 - (b) granting, refusing to grant, revoking, suspending or varying authorisations (whether or not they are subject to conditions);
 - (c) a transaction involving:
 - (i) only persons who are all acting for the Crown in the same right (and none of whom is an authority of a State); or
 - (ii) only persons who are all acting for the same authority of a State; or
 - (iii) only the Crown in right of a State and one or more non-commercial authorities of that State; or
 - (iv) only non-commercial authorities of the same State;

- (d) the acquisition of primary products by a government body under legislation, unless the acquisition occurs because:
 - (i) the body chooses to acquire the products; or
 - (ii) the body has not exercised a discretion that it has under the legislation that would allow it not to acquire the products.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not limit the things that do not amount to carrying on a business for sections 35 and 36.

- (3) In this section:

acquisition of primary products by a government body under legislation includes vesting of ownership of primary products in a government body by legislation.

authorisation means a licence, permit, certificate or other authorisation that allows the holder of the authorisation to supply goods or services.

government body means a State or an authority of a State.

primary products means:

- (a) agricultural or horticultural produce; or
 - (b) crops, whether on or attached to the land or not; or
 - (c) animals (whether dead or alive); or
 - (d) the bodily produce (including natural increase) of animals.
- (4) For this section, an authority of a State is non-commercial if:
 - (a) it is constituted by only one person; and
 - (b) it is neither a trading corporation nor a financial corporation.

38 Crown not liable to pecuniary penalty or prosecution

- (1) Nothing in the application law of this jurisdiction makes the Crown in any capacity liable to a pecuniary penalty or to be prosecuted for an offence.
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), nothing in the application law of a participating jurisdiction makes the Crown in right of this jurisdiction liable to a pecuniary penalty or to be prosecuted for an offence.

- (3) The protection in subsection (1) or (2) does not apply to an authority of any jurisdiction.

Division 5 Miscellaneous matters

39 Conferral of functions and powers on certain bodies

- (1) The authorities and officers of the Commonwealth referred to in the Australian Consumer Law (NT) have the functions and powers conferred or expressed to be conferred on them under the Australian Consumer Law (NT).
- (2) In addition to the powers mentioned in subsection (1), the authorities and officers referred to in that subsection have power to do all things necessary or convenient to be done in connection with the performance of the functions and exercise of the powers referred to in that subsection.

40 No doubling-up of liabilities

- (1) An offender is not liable to be punished for an offence against the Australian Consumer Law (NT) if:
- (a) an act or omission is an offence against the Australian Consumer Law (NT) and also an offence against an application law of another participating jurisdiction; and
 - (b) the offender has been punished for the offence under the application law of the other jurisdiction.
- (2) If a person has been ordered to pay a pecuniary penalty under the application law of another participating jurisdiction, the person is not liable to a pecuniary penalty under the Australian Consumer Law (NT) in respect of the same conduct.

Part 5 Provisions supporting application of Australian Consumer Law in Territory

41 Application of Criminal Code

- (1) Part IIAA of the Criminal Code applies to an offence against the Australian Consumer Law (NT).

Note for subsection (1)

Part IIAA of the Criminal Code states the general principles of criminal responsibility, establishes general defences, and deals with burden of proof. It also defines, or elaborates on, certain concepts commonly used in the creation of offences.

(2) However, the following provisions of the Criminal Code do not apply to an offence against the Australian Consumer Law (NT):

- (a) section 43AX;
- (b) Part IIAA, Division 5.

Note for subsection (2)(a)

Section 207 of the Australian Consumer Law (NT) provides a mistake of fact defence for offences under Chapter 4 of that Law.

42 Finding in proceedings to be evidence

(1) In an action against a person under section 236(1) of the Australian Consumer Law (NT), or in proceedings for an order against a person under section 237(1) or 239(1) of the Australian Consumer Law (NT):

- (a) a finding of a fact by a court to which subsection (2) applies is evidence of that fact; and
- (b) the finding may be proved by production of a document under the seal of the court from which the finding appears.

(2) This subsection applies to a finding of a fact by a court that is made in proceedings under section 228, 232, 246, 247 or 248 of the Australian Consumer Law (NT), or for an offence against a provision of Chapter 4 of the Australian Consumer Law (NT), in which the person has been found:

- (a) to have contravened a provision of Chapter 2, 3 or 4 of the Australian Consumer Law (NT); or
- (b) to have attempted to contravene such a provision; or
- (c) to have aided, abetted, counselled or procured a person to contravene such a provision; or
- (d) to have induced, or attempted to induce, a person, whether by threats or promises or otherwise, to contravene such a provision; or
- (e) to have been in any way, directly or indirectly, knowingly concerned in, or party to, the contravention by a person of such a provision; or
- (f) to have conspired with others to contravene such a provision.

43 Conduct of directors, employees or agents of bodies corporate

- (1) If, in a proceeding under this Part or the Australian Consumer Law (NT), it is necessary to establish the state of mind of a body corporate in relation to particular conduct, it is sufficient to show:
- (a) that the conduct was engaged in by a director, employee or agent of the body corporate within the scope of his or her actual or apparent authority; and
 - (b) that the director, employee or agent had the relevant state of mind.
- (2) Any of the following conduct that is engaged in on behalf of a body corporate is taken, for this Part and the Australian Consumer Law (NT), to have been engaged in also by the body corporate:
- (a) conduct engaged in by a director, employee or agent of the body corporate within the scope of the actual or apparent authority of the director, employee or agent;
 - (b) conduct engaged in by any other person if:
 - (i) the conduct is engaged in at the direction or with the consent or agreement (whether express or implied) of a director, employee or agent of the body corporate; and
 - (ii) the giving of the direction, consent or agreement is within the scope of the actual or apparent authority of the director, employee or agent.

44 Conduct of employees or agents of persons other than bodies corporate

- (1) If, in a proceeding under this Part or the Australian Consumer Law (NT), it is necessary to establish the state of mind of a person other than a body corporate (the principal) in relation to particular conduct, it is sufficient to show:
- (a) that the conduct was engaged in by an employee or agent of the principal within the scope of his or her actual or apparent authority; and
 - (b) that the employee or agent had the relevant state of mind.

- (2) Any of the following conduct that is engaged in on behalf of a person other than a body corporate (the principal) is taken, for this Part and the Australian Consumer Law (NT), to have been engaged in also by the principal:
- (a) conduct engaged in by an employee or agent of the principal within the scope of the actual or apparent authority of the employee or agent;
 - (b) conduct engaged in by any other person if:
 - (i) the conduct is engaged in at the direction or with the consent or agreement (whether express or implied) of an employee or agent of the principal; and
 - (ii) the giving of the direction, consent or agreement is within the scope of the actual or apparent authority of the employee or agent.
- (3) However, an individual is not liable to be punished by imprisonment for an offence if:
- (a) subsection (1) or (2) applied in relation to the conviction for the offence on the basis that the individual was the principal mentioned in the subsection; and
 - (b) the individual would not have been convicted of the offence if the subsection had not been enacted.

45 Court may make orders to preserve money or other property

- (1) A court may, on the application of the Minister or Commissioner, make an order or orders mentioned in subsection (3) if:
- (a) proceedings of a kind mentioned in subsection (2) have been taken against a person, or proceedings of a kind mentioned in subsection (2)(d) may be taken against a person; and
 - (b) the court is satisfied it is necessary or desirable to make the order or orders for the purpose of preserving money or other property held by, or on behalf of, the person if the person is liable, or may become liable, under the Australian Consumer Law (NT):
 - (i) to pay money by way of a fine, damages, compensation, refund or otherwise; or
 - (ii) to transfer, sell or refund other property; and

- (c) the court is satisfied the making of such an order or orders will not unduly prejudice the rights and interests of any other person.
- (2) For subsection (1)(a), the kinds of proceedings taken against the person are:
- (a) proceedings against the person for an offence against a provision of Chapter 4 of the Australian Consumer Law (NT); or
 - (b) an application under section 232 of the Australian Consumer Law (NT) for an injunction against the person in relation to:
 - (i) a contravention of a provision of Chapter 2, 3 or 4 of the Australian Consumer Law (NT); or
 - (ii) a term of a consumer contract in relation to which a declaration under section 250 of the Australian Consumer Law (NT) has been made; or
 - (c) an action under section 236(1) of the Australian Consumer Law (NT) against the person in relation to a contravention of a provision of Part 2-1 or Chapter 3 of the Australian Consumer Law (NT); or
 - (d) an application for an order under section 237(1) or 239(1) of the Australian Consumer Law (NT) against a person in relation to:
 - (i) a contravention of a provision of Chapter 2, 3 or 4 of the Australian Consumer Law (NT); or
 - (ii) a term of a consumer contract in relation to which a declaration under section 250 of the Australian Consumer Law (NT) has been made.
- (3) The court may make the following orders under subsection (1) in relation to money or other property held by, or on behalf of, a person (the respondent):
- (a) an order prohibiting, either absolutely or subject to conditions, a person who is indebted to the respondent, or to an associate of the respondent, from making a payment, in total or partial discharge of the debt:
 - (i) to the respondent; or
 - (ii) to another person at the direction or request of the respondent;

- (b) an order prohibiting, either absolutely or subject to conditions, a person who is holding money or other property on behalf of the respondent, or on behalf of an associate of the respondent:
 - (i) from paying all or any of the money to the respondent, or to another person at the direction or request of the respondent; or
 - (ii) from transferring the other property to the respondent, or to another person at the direction or request of the respondent, or otherwise parting with possession of that property;
 - (c) an order prohibiting, either absolutely or subject to conditions, the taking or sending by any person of money of the respondent, or of an associate of the respondent, to a place outside the Territory;
 - (d) an order prohibiting, either absolutely or subject to conditions, the taking, sending or transfer by any person of other property of the respondent, or of an associate of the respondent, to a place outside the Territory;
 - (e) if the respondent is an individual – an order appointing a receiver or trustee of the property, or part of the property, of the respondent with such powers as are specified in the order.
- (4) If the court makes such an order, the order operates:
- (a) for the period specified in the order, which must not be longer than 30 days if the order is made in the absence of the person against whom it is sought; or
 - (b) if proceedings in relation to which the order is made are concluded before the end of that period – until the conclusion of those proceedings.
- (5) A person must not engage in conduct that results in a contravention of an order made under this section.
- Maximum penalty: 500 penalty units.
- (6) This section:
- (a) has effect subject to the Bankruptcy Act 1966 (Cth); and
 - (b) does not affect any other powers of the court.

(7) In this section:

associate, of a person (the relevant person), means:

- (a) a person holding money or other property on behalf of the relevant person; or
- (b) if the relevant person is a body corporate – a wholly owned subsidiary (as defined in the Corporations Act 2001) of the relevant person.

46 Application of Australian Consumer Law (NT) to bills for legal services under Legal Profession Act

(1) This section applies if:

- (a) apart from this section, under section 101 of the Australian Consumer Law (NT) a person is entitled, as a consumer, to request the supplier of legal services to give the consumer an itemised bill, complying with that section, relating to the legal services; and
- (b) under section 327 of the Legal Profession Act, the person is entitled to request a law practice to give the person an itemised bill relating to the legal services.

(2) Section 101 of the Australian Consumer Law (NT) ceases to apply to the legal services.

47 Compliance with standard for supply of electrical appliance

(1) A person must not, in trade or commerce, supply an electrical appliance that is intended to be used, or is likely to be used, by a consumer, unless the person has complied with the standard prescribed by regulation.

Maximum penalty: 500 penalty units.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to an electrical appliance that has been used before sale unless the use was only for testing or demonstration purposes.

(3) If an information standard is made under section 134 or 135 of the Australian Consumer Law (NT) for an electrical appliance, this section ceases to apply to the electrical appliance on and from the date the information standard comes into force.

(4) In this section:

electrical appliance means any of the following domestic appliances:

- (a) clothes dryers;
- (b) dishwashers;
- (c) freezers, refrigerators and refrigerator-freezers;
- (d) refrigerative airconditioners;
- (e) washing machines.

336 Protection from liability

- (1) A person is not civilly or criminally liable for an act done or omitted to be done by the person in good faith in the exercise of a power or performance of a function as any of the following:
- (a) the Commissioner;
 - (b) the Deputy Commissioner;
 - (c) a member of a committee appointed under this Act;
 - (d) a person otherwise employed or engaged in, or in connection with, the administration or enforcement of this Act.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not affect any liability the Territory would, apart from that subsection, have for the act or omission.
- (3) This section has effect subject to Part VIIA of the Police Administration Act to the extent it relates to the civil liability of a person who is or has been a police officer.
- (4) In this section:

exercise, of a power, includes the purported exercise of the power.

performance, of a function, includes the purported performance of the function.

Part 2 Transitional matters for Consumer Affairs and Fair Trading Amendment (National Uniform Legislation) Act 2010

1 Definitions

In this Part:

amendment Act means the Consumer Affairs and Fair Trading Amendment (National Uniform Legislation) Act 2010.

commencement means the commencement of section 13 of the amendment Act.

new Act means the Consumer Affairs and Fair Trading Act as in force immediately after the commencement.

old Act means the Consumer Affairs and Fair Trading Act as in force immediately before the commencement.

2 Interpretation Act not affected

This Part does not limit Part III of the Interpretation Act.

3 Authorised officers

A person who, immediately before the commencement, was an authorised officer for the purposes of a Part of the old Act is taken to be an authorised officer for the same Part of the new Act.

4 Proceedings already commenced

- (1) The old Act continues to apply to or in relation to any proceedings under or in relation to the old Act that were commenced, but not concluded, before the commencement.

- (2) However, to the extent any such proceedings are proceedings for an injunction under section 89 of the old Act, the proceedings are taken, after the commencement, to be proceedings for an injunction under section 232 of the Australian Consumer Law (NT).

5 Sale price of motor vehicle partly recoverable if certain offence committed

- (1) This paragraph applies if:
- (a) before or after the commencement, a person is found guilty of an offence consisting of a contravention of section 44 of the old Act committed by falsely stating:
 - (i) the year in which a motor vehicle was manufactured or first registered; or
 - (ii) the model designation of the vehicle; and
 - (b) a person (the purchaser) purchased the motor vehicle relying on the statement; and
 - (c) before the commencement, the purchaser had not made an application under section 162(1).
- (2) The purchaser may apply to the Commissioner for an order under section 162(2).
- (3) The application must be dealt with as if it were made under section 162(1).

6 Unfair contract terms

- (1) Part 2-3 of the Australian Consumer Law (NT) applies to a contract entered into on or after the commencement.
- (2) If an old contract is renewed on or after the commencement, Part 2-3 of the Australian Consumer Law (NT) applies to the contract on and from the day on which the renewal takes effect, in relation to conduct that occurs on or after that day.
- (3) If a term of an old contract (to which subparagraph (2) has not already applied) is varied on or after the commencement:
- (a) Part 2-3 of the Australian Consumer Law (NT) applies to the term as varied on and from the day on which the variation takes effect, in relation to conduct that occurs on or after that day; and

(b) sections 23(2) and 27 of the Australian Consumer Law (NT) apply to the contract.

(4) In this paragraph:

old contract means a contract entered into before the commencement.

7 Requests for itemised bills

Section 101 of the Australian Consumer Law (NT) does not apply in relation to a supply of services to the extent the services were supplied before the commencement.

8 Pecuniary penalties – having regard to previous findings

The reference in section 224(2)(c) of the Australian Consumer Law (NT) to proceedings under Chapter 4 or Part 5-2 of the Australian Consumer Law (NT) includes a reference to proceedings, commenced before the commencement, under or in relation to:

- (a) Part 6 of the old Act; or
- (b) Part VC or VI of the Trade Practices Act 1974 (Cth); or
- (c) equivalent provisions of a law of a State or another Territory.

9 Transitional regulations

- (1) A regulation may provide for a matter of a transitional nature:
 - (a) because of the enactment of the amendment Act; or
 - (b) to otherwise allow or facilitate the transition from the operation of the old Act to the new Act.
- (2) The regulation may have retrospective operation to a day not earlier than the day of commencement.
- (3) However, to the extent to which the regulation has retrospective operation, it does not operate to the disadvantage of a person (other than the Territory or a Territory authority) by:
 - (a) decreasing the person's rights; or
 - (b) imposing liabilities on the person.
- (4) The regulation must declare it is made under this paragraph.

- (5) This paragraph, and each regulation made under it, expires 1 year after the commencement.

24 Act further amended

Schedule 1 has effect.
