- (1) This section applies in relation to a conveyance first executed on or after 8 February 2019.
- (2) A conveyee of land is entitled to the Territory home owner discount if, on an application for the discount, the Commissioner is satisfied that:
  - (a) the conveyee is an individual; and
  - (b) subject to subsection (10), the conveyee is at least 18 years of age at the relevant time; and
  - (c) the conveyee is an Australian citizen, or a permanent resident, at the time the conveyee gives the declaration mentioned in subsection (9); and
  - (d) subject to subsections (11) and (12), neither the conveyee, nor a spouse of the conveyee at the relevant time, had a relevant interest in residential property in the Territory within 24 months before the relevant time; and

- (e) the conveyee has no beneficial interest in the land the subject of the conveyance; and
- (f) the conveyee will acquire the whole beneficial interest in the land the subject of the conveyance; and
- (g) the conveyee will not acquire an interest in the land in the capacity of a trustee; and
- (h) subject to subsection (14), the conveyee will occupy a home on the land as the conveyee's principal place of residence for the prescribed period commencing within the period for occupancy; and
- (i) the conveyee becomes entitled to possession of the land within:
  - (i) 12 months after settlement of the conveyance; or
  - (ii) the longer period approved by the Commissioner under subsection (15).

Notes for subsection (2)

- 1 See subsection (16) for how these requirements apply if there are multiple conveyees under a conveyance.
  - 2 See section 90B for eligibility for the Territory home owner discount if the conveyee would be entitled to another concession under this Division.
- (3) The Commissioner may reassess duty on the conveyance even though the time limit for reassessment under the Taxation Administration Act 2007 has passed if the conveyee or conveyees would otherwise receive the Territory home owner discount if the time limit had not passed.
- (4) If the following occurs, the Commissioner must, even though the time limit for reassessment under the Taxation Administration Act 2007 may have passed, reassess duty on the conveyance on the basis that the conveyee or conveyees were not eligible for the Territory home owner discount unless, in the Commissioner's opinion, there are special reasons for not making the reassessment:
- (a) if the conveyee, or the conveyee's spouse:
    - (i) is exempted from the requirement under subsection (2)(d) because subsection (11)(c)(ii) applies; and

- (ii) did not dispose of the relevant interest in accordance with the order, binding agreement or unconditional contract;
- (b) a conveyee or conveyees fail to occupy a home on the land as their principal place of residence:
  - (i) within the period for occupancy; or
  - (ii) for the prescribed period in accordance with this section.
- (5) In deciding for subsection (2)(d) whether a conveyee, or the conveyee's spouse, had an interest at a particular time, the Commissioner must include an interest the conveyee, or the conveyee's spouse, would have had if the occupation of the property had not been deferred because the property was subject to a lease.
- (6) Subsection (7) applies if the conveyee fails, or will fail, to occupy a home on the land as the conveyee's principal place of residence:
  - (a) within the period for occupancy; or
  - (b) for the prescribed period in accordance with this section.
- (7) The conveyee must, within 30 days after the date on which it first becomes apparent that a failure mentioned in subsection (6) has occurred or will occur, give written notice to the Commissioner of the failure or impending failure.

Maximum penalty: 50 penalty units.

Note for subsection (7)

This subsection does not apply to a conveyee who has an exemption from the relevant occupancy requirement.

- (8) If a person acquires land or an interest in land as guardian of a person under a legal disability, this section applies as if the person under the legal disability were:
  - (a) the conveyee of the land or interest; and
  - (b) the applicant for the Territory home owner discount; and
  - (c) if the discount is granted – the recipient of the discount.
- (9) A conveyee applying for the Territory home owner discount, and the conveyee's spouse (if any), must give the Commissioner a declaration, in the approved form, providing the information relating to the application that the Commissioner requires.

- (10) The Commissioner may exempt a conveyee from the requirement that the conveyee be at least 18 years of age at the relevant time if the Commissioner is satisfied that the conveyance does not form part of a scheme to circumvent limitations on, or requirements affecting, eligibility for or entitlement to the Territory home owner discount.
- (11) Subject to subsection (13), the Commissioner may exempt a conveyee, or the conveyee's spouse, from the requirement under subsection (2)(d) if satisfied:
- (a) the conveyee, or the conveyee's spouse, was in a marriage or de facto relationship with another person under the Family Law Act 1975 (Cth); and
  - (b) the conveyee, or the conveyee's spouse, had a relevant interest in residential property in the Territory during the marriage or de facto relationship; and
  - (c) at the time the conveyance is first executed, the marriage or de facto relationship had irretrievably broken down, and one of the following applies for each relevant interest:
    - (i) the conveyee, or the conveyee's spouse, for reasons that relate to the breakdown, no longer has the relevant interest in residential property in the Territory;
    - (ii) either of the following has occurred with the effect that the conveyee, or the conveyee's spouse, will no longer have the relevant interest in residential property in the Territory:
      - (A) an order or binding agreement under Part VIII, VIIIA or VIIIB of the Family Law Act 1975 (Cth) for the distribution of property between the conveyee and the other person, or the conveyee's spouse and the other person;
      - (B) the conveyee, or the conveyee's spouse, has entered into an unconditional contract for the disposal of the relevant interest.
- (12) For subsection (11)(c)(ii), it is irrelevant whether the conveyee, or the conveyee's spouse, still has the relevant interest at the time the conveyance is first executed.

- (13) The requirement under subsection (2)(d) applies if a conveyee, or the conveyee's spouse:
- (a) acquires a relevant interest in residential property in the Territory after the breakdown of the marriage or de facto relationship but before the time the conveyance is first executed; and
  - (b) has the relevant interest within 24 months before the relevant time.
- (14) If satisfied there are special reasons to do so, the Commissioner may:
- (a) approve either or both of the following for a conveyee:
    - (i) an extension of the period for occupancy;
    - (ii) a reduction of the prescribed period; or
  - (b) exempt a conveyee from the requirement under subsection (2)(h).
- (15) If satisfied there are special reasons to do so, the Commissioner may approve an extension of the period in which a conveyee is required under subsection (2)(i) to become entitled to possession of the land.
- (16) If there are 2 or more conveyees under a conveyance:
- (a) subject to paragraphs (b) to (d), this section applies as if a reference in this section to a conveyee were a reference to each conveyee; and
  - (b) the requirements of subsection (2)(b), (c) and (h) are satisfied if at least one of the conveyees meets those requirements; and
  - (c) subsection (2)(f) applies as if a reference in that subsection to the conveyee were a reference to the conveyees together; and
  - (d) subsection (7) applies only if all of the conveyees fail, or will fail, to occupy a home on the land as mentioned in subsection (6); and
  - (e) a conveyee need not comply with subsection (7) if another conveyee has already complied with that subsection.
