1 Citation

These Regulations may be cited as the Consumer Credit (National Uniform Legislation) Implementation Regulations.

2 Definitions

In these Regulations:

commencement, see section 4(1) of the Transitional Act.

new Credit Code, see section 4(1) of the Transitional Act.

old Credit Code means the old Credit Code for the Northern Territory as mentioned in paragraph (h) of the definition of that term in section 4(1) of the Transitional Act.

prescribed provisions means the following:

- (a) the provisions repealed by Part 2 of the Act;
- (b) the old Credit Code.

Transitional Act means the National Consumer Credit Protection (Transitional and Consequential Provisions) Act 2009 (Cth).

3 Continuation of prescribed provisions

- (1) It is declared the prescribed provisions continued to operate, and continue to operate, from 1 April 2010 to commencement.
- (2) For the transition to the new Credit Code and for the Transitional Act, it is declared:
  - (a) the prescribed provisions are in force immediately before commencement; and
  - (b) things done under the prescribed provisions that, apart from the repeals by Parts 2 and 3 of the Act, would have been in force immediately before commencement are taken to be in force immediately before commencement.

4 References to Consumer Credit Code

A reference in an Act or document to the Consumer Credit Code may, for the purposes of these Regulations, be taken to have been and to be a reference to the old Credit Code.

5 Expiry of Regulations

These Regulations expire the day after commencement.
