2FA Payment of refund amount from reverse vending machine

- (1) This regulation applies if, in the collection approval for a collection depot that is a reverse vending machine, the CEO has authorised the operator to pay refund amounts from the reverse vending machine in the way provided in this regulation.
- (2) For section 19(1)(a)(ii) of the Act, a refund amount may be paid to the person delivering the container:
- (a) by issuing to the person a redeemable voucher for the refund amount; or
 - (b) by crediting the refund amount to a recognised account nominated by the person.
- (3) Subregulation (2) has effect subject to any conditions imposed on the collection approval for the depot that limit the way in which the operator may pay refund amounts.

(4) In this regulation:

recognised account means:

- (a) an account at a bank or other ADI; or
- (b) an account:
 - (i) with a provider of goods or services; and
 - (ii) the balance of which may be withdrawn as cash.

Example

An account with a retailer accessible through the use of a swipe card that is issued by the retailer and swiped through the reverse vending machine when the container is deposited to credit the refund amount to the account.

redeemable voucher means a voucher that may be redeemed for the refund amount in cash (whether or not it may instead be redeemed as payment for goods or services).
