Part 3 Drug and alcohol testing

Division 1 General matters

7 Application of Part

This Part applies if:

- (a) a condition of an accused person's bail is that the person complies with a conduct agreement; and
- (b) the conduct agreement:
 - (i) prohibits the person (the subject person) from consuming alcohol or a drug (other than a drug as prescribed by a health practitioner); and
 - (ii) includes an ancillary provision requiring that the subject person submit to testing by an authorised person to monitor compliance with the prohibition.

8 Interpretation

- (1) In this Part:

analyst means either of the following:

- (a) a person authorised under regulation 60 of the Traffic Regulations to be an analyst for the Traffic Act;
- (b) a person appointed under section 3(8) of the Misuse of Drugs Act.

breath analysis means an analysis of a sample of a person's breath by a breath analysis instrument to ascertain the concentration of alcohol in the person's breath.

breath analysis instrument means an apparatus that is a prescribed breath analysis instrument under regulation 56 of the Traffic Regulations.

breath test means a test of a sample of a person's breath to assess whether alcohol may be present in the person's breath.

health practitioner means a person registered under the Health Practitioner Regulation National Law to practise in a health profession (other than as a student).

qualified person means a person who has been trained to take samples of blood from persons by a Registered Training Organisation that is registered with the Australian Skills Quality Authority.

saliva test means a test of a sample of a person's saliva to ascertain whether a drug which is prohibited under a conduct agreement applying to the person may be present in the person's body.

urine test means a test of a sample of a person's urine to ascertain whether a drug which is prohibited under a conduct agreement applying to the person may be present in the person's body.

- (2) For this Part, anything done by a person acting under the supervision or direction of a health practitioner or analyst is taken to have been done by the health practitioner, or analyst, as the case may be.

Division 2 Testing for alcohol in breath

9 Breath test

- (1) A subject person must comply with:
- (a) a reasonable direction by an authorised person to submit to a breath test to assess whether the subject person may have alcohol in his or her body; and
 - (b) the directions given by the authorised person about submitting to the breath test.
- (2) For a direction mentioned in subregulation (1)(a) to be reasonable, it is not necessary that the authorised person suspects that the subject person has alcohol in his or her body.

10 Breath analysis

- (1) This regulation applies if an authorised person:
 - (a) requires a subject person to submit to a breath test and the subject person fails to provide a sufficient sample of breath for the completion of the test; or
 - (b) suspects on reasonable grounds, whether as a result of a breath test or otherwise, that the subject person may have alcohol in his or her body.
- (2) The subject person must comply with:
 - (a) a reasonable direction by an authorised person to submit to a breath analysis to determine the concentration of alcohol in the subject person's body; and
 - (b) the directions given by the authorised person, or another authorised person, about submitting to the breath analysis.
- (3) A police officer may detain, and if necessary arrest, a subject person for the following purposes:
 - (a) conducting a breath analysis;
 - (b) taking the subject person to a place where a breath analysis is to be carried out.

11 Conducting breath analyses

An authorised person must not use a breath analysis instrument under this Part unless the person is authorised as mentioned in regulation 19(2) or 20(1)(b) to carry out breath analyses under these Regulations.

12 Breath analysis indicates alcohol in body

If an analysis of a subject person's breath by a breath analysis instrument indicates the subject person has alcohol in his or her breath, the authorised person who operated the instrument must give to the subject person without delay a written statement (or a statement printed by the instrument) stating:

- (a) the date the sample of breath was taken and analysed; and
- (b) the time of the breath analysis; and
- (c) the results of the analysis.

Division 3 Testing for prohibited drug

13 Saliva test

- (1) A subject person must comply with:
 - (a) a reasonable direction by an authorised person to submit to a saliva test to assess whether the subject person may have a drug that is prohibited under a conduct agreement in his or her body; and
 - (b) the directions given by the authorised person about submitting to the saliva test.
- (2) For a direction mentioned in subregulation (1)(a) to be reasonable, it is not necessary that the authorised person suspects that the subject person has a drug that is prohibited under a conduct agreement in his or her body.
- (3) A police officer may detain, and if necessary arrest, a subject person for the following purposes:
 - (a) conducting a saliva test;
 - (b) taking the subject person to a place where a saliva test is to be carried out.

14 Urine test

- (1) A subject person must comply with:
 - (a) a reasonable direction by an authorised person to submit to a urine test to assess whether the subject person may have a drug that is prohibited under a conduct agreement in his or her body; and
 - (b) the directions given by the authorised person about submitting to the urine test.
- (2) For a direction mentioned in subregulation (1)(a) to be reasonable, it is not necessary that the authorised person suspects that the subject person has a drug that is prohibited under a conduct agreement in his or her body.
- (3) The subject person:
 - (a) must provide a sufficient sample of urine to enable testing to be carried out; and
 - (b) must not tamper with the sample in any way.

- (4) A police officer may detain, and if necessary arrest, a subject person for the following purposes:

- (a) conducting a urine test;
- (b) taking the subject person to a place where a urine test is to be carried out.

Division 4 Blood sample

15 Requirement to provide sample of blood

- (1) An authorised person may require a subject person to provide a sample of the subject person's blood in any of the following circumstances:
- (a) the subject person is required to submit to a breath test under regulation 9, or a breath analysis under regulation 10, and refuses to submit or fails to provide a sufficient sample for the test or analysis;
 - (b) as a result of a breath test under regulation 9, the authorised person suspects that the subject person may have alcohol in his or her body and it is not possible to conduct a breath analysis;
 - (c) as a result of a breath test under regulation 9, or a breath analysis under regulation 10, the authorised person suspects that the subject person may have a drug that is prohibited under a conduct agreement in his or her body;
 - (d) the subject person is required to submit to a saliva test under regulation 13 and refuses to submit or fails to provide a sufficient sample for the test;
 - (e) as a result of a saliva test under regulation 13, the authorised person suspects that the subject person may have a drug that is prohibited under a conduct agreement in his or her body;
 - (f) the subject person is required to submit to a urine test under regulation 14 and refuses to submit or fails to provide a sufficient sample for the test;
 - (g) the subject person has a medical condition that hinders the person's ability to provide a sample:
 - (i) of breath for a breath test or breath analysis; or
 - (ii) of saliva for a saliva test; or

- (iii) of urine for a urine test.

Examples for subregulation (1)(b)

- 1 There is no authorised person available to operate a breath analysis device.
- 2 A breath analysis is attempted but the device malfunctions.

- (2) If any of the circumstances mentioned in subregulation (1) exist, a police officer may detain, and if necessary arrest, the subject person for the following purposes:

- (a) taking a sample of the subject person's blood;
- (b) taking the subject person to a place where a sample of the person's blood is to be taken.

16 Taking sample of blood

- (1) A sample of blood may be taken from a subject person only by:
- (a) a health practitioner; or
 - (b) a qualified person.
- (2) A person mentioned in subregulation (1) may take a sample of blood whether or not the subject person consents to the sample being taken.
- (3) A sample of blood taken under subregulation (1) for analysis is the property of the Territory.

Division 5 Other matters for this Part

17 Analysis of samples

Analysis of a sample of saliva, urine or blood taken under this Part must be carried out by an analyst.

18 Evidence by certificate

In any proceedings in a court, a certificate purporting to be signed by any of the following is evidence of the matters stated in the certificate and the facts on which they are based:

- (a) the Commissioner of Police – certifying any of the following about a person named in the certificate:
 - (i) the person is a police officer and authorised under regulation 59 of the Traffic Regulations to use a prescribed breath analysis instrument within the meaning of the Traffic Act;

- (ii) the person is authorised under regulation 60 of the Traffic Regulations to be an analyst for the purposes of the Traffic Act;
 - (iii) the person is appointed under section 3(8) of the Misuse of Drugs Act to be an analyst for that Act;
 - (b) the Commissioner of Police – certifying that a person named in the certificate is an authorised person who is authorised, under regulation 19(1) or 20(1), to carry out breath tests, saliva tests, urine tests or breath analyses;
 - (c) an authorised person – certifying any of the following:
 - (i) the apparatus used by the authorised person was a breath analysis instrument;
 - (ii) the breath analysis instrument was in proper order and properly operated;
 - (iii) the breath analysis instrument was used in a manner that complied with this Part;
 - (iv) a sample of the breath of a subject person named in the certificate was provided for analysis using a breath analysing instrument;
 - (v) a concentration of alcohol expressed in grams per 210 litres of exhaled breath was indicated by the breath analysis instrument as being present in the breath of the subject person on the day and at the time specified in the certificate;
 - (vi) a statement was given to the subject person under regulation 12;
 - (vii) a matter about a saliva test or a urine test administered by the authorised person;
 - (d) an analyst, or a person employed by an analyst, about an analysis of a sample of saliva, urine or blood for this Part.

19 Police officers who may carry out breath tests, saliva tests, urine tests or breath analyses

- (1) Every police officer is authorised to carry out a breath test, saliva test or urine test under this Part.

- (2) A police officer who is authorised under regulation 59 of the Traffic Regulations to use a prescribed breath analysis instrument within the meaning of the Traffic Act is authorised to carry out breath analyses under this Part.

20 Persons other than police officers who may carry out breath tests, saliva tests, urine tests or breath analyses

- (1) The Commissioner of Police may, in writing, authorise persons who are not police officers:
- (a) to carry out breath tests, saliva tests and urine tests under this Part; or
 - (b) to carry out breath analyses under this Part.
- (2) The Commissioner of Police may not authorise a person under subregulation (1)(a) unless the Commissioner considers the person:
- (a) is trained to carry out breath tests, saliva tests and urine tests; and
 - (b) is capable of carrying out breath tests, saliva tests and urine tests correctly.
- (3) The Commissioner of Police may not authorise a person under subregulation (1)(b) unless:
- (a) the person is also authorised under subregulation (1)(a); and
 - (b) the Commissioner considers the person:
 - (i) is trained in the use of a breath analysis instrument; and
 - (ii) is capable of using the instrument correctly.
- (4) A person who is authorised under subregulation (1)(a) or (b) is prescribed for paragraph (b) of the definition authorised person in section 27A(6) of the Act.

21 Protection from liability of health practitioners and analysts

A health practitioner, qualified person or an analyst, or a person acting under the supervision of a health practitioner or analyst, is not criminally liable for an act done or omitted to be done by the health practitioner, qualified person, analyst or person in good faith for this Part.
