3 Repeal and substitution of rule 6

Rule 6

repeal, substitute

6 Payment of cancelled credit or jackpot payout

- (1) This rule applies if a person entitled to be paid a cancelled credit or jackpot payout makes a claim for payment.
- (2) If the amount claimed is $500 or less, the licensee must, as soon as practicable after the claim is made, pay the person the full amount in cash in Australian currency.
- (3) If the amount is more than $500, the licensee must pay the person by cheque:
 - (a) posted to the address of the person within 24 hours after the claim is made; or
 - (b) given to the person on the licensed premises.
- (4) However, a payment under subrule (2) and part of a payment under subrule (3) (but not exceeding $500) may be made in a manner contemplated by section 94(2) of the Act.

Note for subrule (4):

Section 94(2) of the Act provides that a licensee may, if requested by the person and if the licensee thinks fit to do so, make the payment by gaming tokens; a cheque; a combination of Australian currency, gaming tokens and a cheque; or by electronic transfer.
