insert

5 Novice motor cycle riders

- (1) The Registrar may approve a model of motor cycle, with an engine capacity not greater than 660ml and a power to weight ratio not exceeding 150 kilowatts per tonne, as a motor cycle for novice motor cycle riders.

Note

A list of approved motor cycles will be available from Motor Vehicle Registry offices.

- (2) For subregulation (1), novice motor cycle rider means any of the following:
- (a) the holder of a learner licence in relation to a motor cycle;
 - (b) the holder of a licence that is provisional under section 10A of the Act;
 - (c) a person who has not held, in the Territory or elsewhere, a licence to ride a motor cycle for a continuous period of 12 months.
- (3) If the Registrar grants a licence to ride a motor cycle (including a learner licence) to a novice motor cycle rider, the licence must be classified Rr.
- (4) When a person is no longer a novice motor cycle rider, the Registrar must reclassify the person's licence as R.
- (5) If a person holds a licence granted before the commencement of this regulation that is classified Re, the licence is, from the commencement of this regulation, taken to be classified Rr.
- (6) A motor cycle of a type mentioned in subregulation (1) is not an approved motor cycle for a novice motor cycle rider if it has performance enhancing modifications.
