Regulation 3(1)

Consumer Affairs and Fair Trading Act

FORM 1

Section 101(1)(g)(i)

NOTICE OF RIGHT TO RESCIND DOOR-TO-DOOR CONTRACT

The contract you have signed is subject to a cooling-off period of 10 days beginning on the date you signed it. You may rescind (cancel) the contract at any time during the cooling-off period. To rescind the contract you must send a notice in the attached form (or similar) to the supplier.

In addition, you may be allowed to rescind the contract under section 107 of the Consumer Affairs and Fair Trading Act within 6 months after the date you signed it if:

- (a) the contract contains terms which exclude or restrict the operation of Northern Territory laws; or
- (b) the contract is not properly filled out or is not signed and copies of the contract and associated documents are not given to you; or
- (c) without an appointment, the dealer called on you:
  - (i) before 9am or after 8pm on a weekday; or
  - (ii) before 9am or after 5pm on a Saturday; or
  - (iii) at any time on a Sunday or a public holiday; or
- (d) the dealer failed to produce to you an identity card or failed to inform you of the purpose of the call as soon as practicable after arriving on your premises; or
- (e) the dealer failed to leave your premises when asked; or
- (f) the dealer harassed or coerced you.

If you think you have a right to rescind the contract for one of these reasons, you should seek legal advice or check with Consumer and Business Affairs (Department of Justice).

Regulation 3(2)

Consumer Affairs and Fair Trading Act

FORM 2

Section 101(1A)(b)(ii)

NOTICE OF RIGHT TO RESCIND TELEPHONE CONTRACT

The contract you have entered into is subject to a cooling-off period of 10 days beginning on the date you received the following documents:

- (a) this document;
- (b) a written document containing all the contractual terms;
- (c) a notice that may be used to rescind the contract.

You may rescind (cancel) the contract at any time during the cooling-off period. To rescind the contract you must send a notice in the attached form (or similar) to the supplier.

In addition, you may be allowed to rescind the contract under section 107 of the Consumer Affairs and Fair Trading Act within 6 months after the date you received the documents listed above if:

- (a) the contract contains terms which exclude or restrict the operation of Northern Territory laws; or
- (b) you were not fully informed of the terms of the contract, the contract is not properly filled out or copies of the contract and associated documents are not given to you; or
- (c) without an appointment, the dealer called on or telephoned you:
  - (i) before 9am or after 8pm on a weekday; or
  - (ii) before 9am or after 5pm on a Saturday; or
  - (iii) at any time on a Sunday or a public holiday; or
- (d) the dealer failed to inform you of the purpose of the call as soon as practicable; or
- (e) the dealer continued negotiations when asked to stop; or
- (f) the dealer harassed or coerced you.

If you think you have a right to rescind the contract for one of these reasons, you should seek legal advice or check with Consumer and Business Affairs (Department of Justice).
