

THE SCHEDULE

RULES OF THE NATIONAL TRUST OF AUSTRALIA (NORTHERN TERRITORY)

1. INTERPRETATION

In these rules "the Act" means the National Trust of Australia (Northern Territory) Act. Any term defined in the Act is the same unless determined to the contrary.

2. CLASSES OF MEMBERS

(1) The members of the National Trust shall be divided into –

- (a) Household;
- (b) Household Concession;
- (c) Personal;
- (d) Personal Concession;
- (e) Life;
- (f) Corporate.

Other membership categories and the amount to be subscribed in each year by each member shall be the categories and the amount specified from time to time by Resolution of the Council.

(2) A life member shall be a person who has rendered distinguished and voluntary service to the National Trust and whose membership has been first recommended to the Council and agreed to by resolution of Council. Any member of the National Trust may nominate a person to the Council for life membership. Not more than 2 life memberships may be awarded in any financial year.

3. SUBSCRIPTION OF ORDINARY MEMBERS

Every ordinary member shall be liable for the amount of his subscription and such subscription shall be payable within 30 days of it falling due. Where a member has remained unfinancial for twelve months from the date of that membership falling due, that member shall be removed from the current membership list.

4. LIABILITY OF MEMBERS

No member of the National Trust shall be liable for or be required to contribute towards the payment of the debts and liabilities of the National Trust beyond the amount of the annual subscription.

5. CONSTITUTION OF THE COUNCIL

(1) The affairs of the National Trust shall be administered by a Council to be called "The Council of the National Trust", consisting of one member from each branch, to be known as Branch Councillors, and six other members who shall be known as General Councillors.

(2) There shall be an election for Branch Councillors and General Councillors every two years, and Councillors shall hold office from the date of declaration of the poll.

(3) Elections of Council shall be conducted in accordance with the National Trust's Election policy, as amended from time to time by the Council.

(4) The Council of the National Trust shall elect annually one of their number to be President of the Council, Vice-president, and any other honorary office bearers as the Council determines necessary from time to time. The election shall be notified as part of the agenda to all Councillors entitled to be present. If an election has been held for the full Council then the election of office bearers shall take place at the first Council meeting to be held after the declaration of the poll.

(5) The Council shall determine that there will be at least four meetings in each calendar year. These meetings shall be called ordinary meetings of the National Trust.

(6) At any meeting of Council, the quorum is half of the number of Councillors entitled to be present plus one.

6. VACANCIES ON THE COUNCIL

If any General Councillor dies or resigns, the Council may appoint another member of the National Trust to serve in that position until the next election. If a Branch Councillor dies or resigns the Branch may appoint another member of the Branch to the position until the next election. Any appointment to fill a vacancy will be accepted or rejected by Council at its next meeting.

7. CODE OF CONDUCT

Each elected member of Council is required to sign, as soon as practical, the National Trust's Code of Conduct and agrees to be bound by its provisions.

8. POWERS OF COUNCIL

(1) The business of the National Trust shall be arranged and managed by the Council who may exercise all such powers of the National Trust including its power to borrow and give security.

(2) The Council shall have power to make such rules as to the procedure of the Council and for the conduct of the business and affairs of the National Trust and for the dispatch of business at meetings as the Council may deem necessary provided that such rules do not contravene any of the provisions of the Act.

9. CHAIRMAN OF COUNCIL

The President shall be Chairman of the Council and when present shall preside at its meetings. If the President is unable to attend at a meeting of the Council the Vice-President shall preside at such meetings. If the President and the Vice-President are unable to attend at a meeting of the Council, the Council shall elect from among those present a chairman to preside at such meetings.

10. OFFICERS AND SERVANTS

The Council may appoint such officers and servants as they may from time to time think desirable and (subject to any applicable law, award, or determination fixing rate of pay) fix their salaries and wages and the conditions of service and determine their respective duties and the tenure of their office.

11. THE SECRETARIAT

The day-to-day affairs of the National Trust shall be managed by a Secretariat for and on behalf of the Council through a Director appointed by Council.

The Director and such officers and members of staff appointed by the Council throughout the Northern Territory will constitute the Secretariat. Each staff member will be responsible to the Director in the first instance.

The duties of the Secretariat will include but not be limited to the maintenance of the financial records, the membership records, the Register of Significant Places, control of intellectual property and the conservation and management of the property portfolio owned and managed by the National Trust.

12. COMMITTEES AND SUB-COMMITTEES

The Council may appoint any Committee for any specific purpose and may add to any such committee for any such length of time and with such powers of voting or otherwise as the Council may think fit, any member of the National Trust or other person whose aid they judge useful to forward the objects of the National Trust.

13. GENERAL MEETINGS

(1) The Council may of its own volition whenever it thinks fit or upon a request made in writing and signed by any 30 or more members, convene a general meeting.

(2) A notice of every general meeting shall be placed in the appropriate media no less than 14 days prior to the date of the meeting. The agenda shall be given to the members at such time and in such form and manner as the Council may from time to time prescribe.

(3) Any request made by the members shall express the object of the meeting proposed to be called and shall be left with the Council via the Director of the National Trust at least 21 days before the proposed date of the meeting.

(4) Notice of any motion proposed to be made at a general meeting by any person shall be sent to the Director of the National Trust 21 days before the general meeting (such notice shall be signed by the proposer and 2 seconders being members of the National Trust) and no motion made by any member shall be entertained by a general meeting unless notice thereof has been given as aforesaid.

(5) Twelve members shall form a quorum for a general meeting.

(6) If within an hour from the time appointed for a meeting convened upon the requisition of members a quorum be not present the meeting shall be dissolved.

(7) All matters that come up for the decision of such meetings shall be decided by a majority of votes of the members personally present and voting by a show of hands.

(8) The President of the Council or in his or her absence, the Vice-President, shall take the chair at a general meeting. If neither the President nor the Vice-President be present, the meeting shall elect a chairman who must be a member of the Council of the National Trust.

(9) Every member shall have one vote only with the exception of the chairman who, in addition to a personal vote is entitled to a casting vote.

14. MINUTES

(1) The Council and every committee and sub-committee appointed as aforesaid shall cause minutes to be made of all proceedings at each of its meetings, and the Council shall, at all times, cause to be kept minutes of the meetings of the National Trust.

(2) Any minutes made of proceedings at a meeting of the National Trust, the Council or of any committee or sub-committee respectively, if signed, either at the meeting at which such proceedings took place, or at the next ensuing meeting by the Chairman of that meeting shall be receivable as evidence of such proceedings in all legal proceedings without further proof.

15. MODE OF EXECUTING INSTRUMENTS AND NOTICES

(1) Any instrument which, if made by a private person, would be required to be made under seal shall be under the seal of the National Trust.

(2) Any agreement for the provision of grant monies to the National Trust, any tenancy agreement or lease of a National Trust property where the National Trust is the lessor which is for a term not exceeding three years with a three year option, shall be deemed to be duly executed, if sealed with the seal of the National Trust and signed by the Director.

(3) Any contract, order, or other document made by or preceding from the National Trust shall be deemed to be duly executed, if sealed with the seal of the National Trust and signed by two members of Council, in accordance with a resolution made by Council.

16. POWER TO BORROW

For the purpose of carrying out any work or undertaking which it is authorised by the Act to carry out the National Trust may borrow money and give security for repayment thereof by a mortgage, charge, or any other form of security over any property of the National Trust.

17. GIFTS

The National Trust may accept any gift (whether by will or while the donor is alive) of any property, whether real or personal, of whatsoever kind and wheresoever situate, and whether in possession, reversion or remainder. This rule shall be subject to the National Trust's "Bequests Policy" as amended from time to time.

18. INVESTMENT RETENTION AND SALE

(1) The National Trust may invest any money which has been received by it under, or for the purposes of, the Act.

(2) The National Trust may (subject to the provisions of any trust, instrument or to the conditions attached to any gift under which it received or is entitled to any property) hold and retain in the same state of investment so long as it thinks fit, any property of any kind as an investment for the purpose of providing income to be applied in defraying the expenditure of the National Trust under the Act.

(3) The National Trust may (subject to the provisions of any trust, instrument, or to the conditions attached to any gift under which it receives or is entitled to any property) sell any property belonging to it. The money received on any such sale shall be applied for objects of the National Trust or invested. If the money is invested the income shall be applied to further the objects of the National Trust.
